She 'Eclipsed' the rest

Lucy Barwood and Rachel Brinkley in Marketing recently sampled a touch of modern luxury on board Celebrity Eclipse®

"Having spent years hearing stories of how fantastic the Celebrity Cruise experience is, and seeing them win award after award, we were excited to be able to spend two nights on board. Celebrity Eclipse® was definitely worth the wait.

Celebrity Cruises® promises to offer a modern luxury way of seeing the world. Celebrity Eclipse® is a ship that offers the 'wow' factor from the moment you step on board with the design and décor, and the first stop obviously had to be the top deck to see the Lawn Club!

The facilities and activities on board suit all tastes, from the frozen Martini Bar where you can doodle the name of your favourite tippie into the ice atop the bar, to Qsine; the speciality restaurant that comes alive with flavours, colours and tongue tantalising flavours from across the globe. By day, while away the hours snoozing in a cabana in the serene adult-only sanctuary, or visit a seminar on how to get the most from your apple devices.

On certain voyages you can taste wines with leading wine expert Oz Clarke. We were fortunate enough to have been able to attend one of his classes during our two night 'Taste of Modern Luxury' voyage, where delicious cheeses and breads were served with four handpicked wines which we enjoyed whilst Oz talked us through the history and origin of each grape - a truly fascinating experience.

Everything aboard Celebrity Eclipse® was finished to perfection, oozing class and style. There's an activity on board to suit your every mood, from a sleepy morning stroll around the deck to a lively dance into the small hours at the club 'Quasar'. The quality of the food we sampled was outstanding, our accommodation was spacious and well appointed, and the staff couldn't have been more attentive. We can't wait to return!

Please turn to pages 22-23 for our 2015 modern luxury collection.

We are pleased to announce our 20th Anniversary Cruise Show will take place on the 12th & 13th August 2015 at the Western Homes Community Stadium, Colchester... more details to follow

CUNARD MAKE HISTORY ON THE MERSEY

The Three Queens saluted Liverpool on 25th May 2015. When Queen Mary 2 arrived on 24th May, she hosted a champagne reception and lunch. On 25th May all three Queens reunited in Liverpool for the first time in history. Sailing in formation and meeting on the famous waterfront of their spiritual home, the fleet performed a water ballet together, creating a spectacular one-off event. Thousands of people viewed the display from the banks of the Mersey which was later concluded with a brilliant firework display. To enjoy Cunard's famous White Star Service, please see pages 28-29.

TRANSIT THE PANAMA CANAL

When it was finally completed in 1914, the "Greatest shortcut on Earth" shaved nearly 8,000 miles off the journey between Americas east coast and west. During the 52 mile transit, you'll experience the man-made wonder of the canal, itself, an engineering marvel of dams, locks and lakes, but there's also the natural splendour that accompanies your crossing: a lush, virgin rainforest on either side

BORA BORA, FRENCH POLYNESIA

Bora Bora is universally revered as the quintessential holiday destination for hopeless romantics. If its idyllic location isn't captivating enough, there's the sheer decadent beauty of the place. Silky stretches of deserted white sand, and the rocky black peaks of Mount Otemanu and Mount Pahia, bounded by a necklace of coral gardens dotting a fish-filled lagoon

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA

One of the world's most cosmopolitan cities, Sydney offers a plethora of attractions. Visit the iconic Sydney Opera House for a behind-the-scenes tour, scale Sydney Tower to survey the city from up high, or people watch at legendary Bondi Beach

HO CHI MINH CITY, VIETNAM

Ho Chi Minh City possesses a variety of beautiful buildings, displaying a characteristic combination of Vietnamese, Chinese and European cultures. These include Nha Rong (Dragon House Wharf), Quoc Tu Temple, as well as many pagodas and churches

Variety is the Spice of Life

And what greater variety than a wonderful world cruise?
Banish those winter blues and sail away from our shores in January, not to return until May when spring is in full bloom.

An impossible dream? No!
At Reader Offers Ltd we can help make that dream a reality with a fabulous world cruise that does precisely that. To whet your appetite for global gallivanting, cast an eager eye over Cruise & Maritime Voyages' 2017 Maiden World Voyage which can be found on pages 4-5. As this cruise spends a significant amount of time in the Southern Hemisphere, you also get to soak up the rays in their balmy summer sunshine.

World cruises are as stress-free as can possibly be imagined, not a departure lounge in sight, and offer amazingly good value. How much might a full board top-class hotel stay of 120 nights cost? On this world cruise that is exactly what you get, along with a view from the sumptuous decks that changes hour by hour, day by day:
coastlines, countries and continents dreamily passing. Take nothing for granted on a world cruise; the planet may sometimes appear 'small' with the blending of our many cultures, yet enormous in the scope of differing experiences. Enchanting 'Chinatowns' may exist in many of the ports and bustling cities, but away from these may be found a single unique waterfall, reef or rainforest. Familiar shops along the main thoroughfares hide bustling local markets in the streets behind with sights, sounds and sensuous aromas floating on the gentle breeze. The blissful tropical atolls of Tahiti with their imposing backdrop of a verdant, live volcano are worlds apart from the man-made magnificence of the Panama and Suez canals through which you'll pass. Consecutive calls at bold, brash Hong Kong and the mysterious haven of Halong Bay make you feel you are experiencing one of science fiction's favoured storylines: time travel.

On the island of Komodo you may see the eponymous fork-tongued, ferocious Komodo dragons, while in Valletta, Malta, an old British red telephone kiosk may hove into view; the contrast of the astonishing with the supposedly mundane, albeit in the strangest of places! The voyage over, your wanderlust may have only been titillated, stimulating a desire to return to personal favourites or, perhaps, cultivating your curiosity to visit regions anew.

"The Voyage of a Lifetime" is merely a saying, why limit yourself to just the one!
The world awaits and at Reader Offers Ltd we are here to help you explore it.

THE HISTORY OF THE BOI BUMBA FESTIVAL, PARINTINS

Discover more about the history of the fascinating Boi Bumba Festival, Brazil's second largest annual event which takes place within the Amazon basin. Stop at Bumbodromo, the city's premier arena, and visit the Garantido Pavilion, home to the famous giant puppets and beautiful costumes used during the festival.

JUNGLE TREK, MANAUS

Embark on a thrilling journey by riverboat on the Rio Negro to Guedes Lake. During your walk through the rainforest the guide will explain survival techniques such as how to construct a shelter or find a climbing plant containing drinking water.

15 NIGHTS DEPARTING 2ND FEBRUARY 2017

FEBRUARY 2017

Thu 2 Fly from London Gatwick or Manchester to Bridgetown, Barbados. Upon arrival, transfer to the port and embark Braemar for your 14 night adults-only cruise

Mon 6 CRUISING THE AMAZON

Tue 7 Santarém, Brazil
Bordered by the Tapajós and Amazon rivers, Santarém is a city of breathtaking sights. From the beaches that run alongside the Tapajós you can witness the famous 'Meeting of the Waters', where the two rivers flow side-by-side without mixing, creating two distinct bands of different-coloured water and one of Brazil's greatest natural attractions. Explore the Nova Orla Fluvial promenade, where you'll find a number of markets, beautiful buildings and stunning views of the waters, filled with colourful boats driven by local fisherman

Wed 8 Boca da Valeria, Brazil
Boca da Valeria is one of thousands of tiny settlements in the Amazon basin: fewer than a hundred people still live here in wooden still-houses. The community makes its living from the river and each house has a boat slung at the back. The local school, church and a communal farm can all be visited. On the waterfront, thatched-roof stalls sell hand-made crafts made by local people and those from neighbouring villages

Thu 9 - Fri 10 Manaus, Brazil (overnight stay on board)
Manaus is the Amazon's largest city, resting along the left bank of the Rio Negro, which merges with the mighty, muddy Amazon. It has become an ideal starting or finishing point for visitors to the mid-Amazon region. Riverboats journey through the myriad of tributaries, estuaries and small creeks, where rich wildlife may be seen

Sat 11 Parintins, Brazil
The village of Parintins is on an island in the Amazon River - and is the site of the annual Boi Bumba Festival. In the port area, you'll find a colourful floating market with dozens of boats jammed together, selling fruit, vegetables, fish and souvenirs. The town itself has a number of interesting buildings, including a brightly painted cathedral in Portuguese colonial style

Mardi Gras

Mardi Gras - the mere mention of these two words convey thoughts of raucous celebrations, beads flying through the air and, of course, floats parading through the streets of New Orleans!

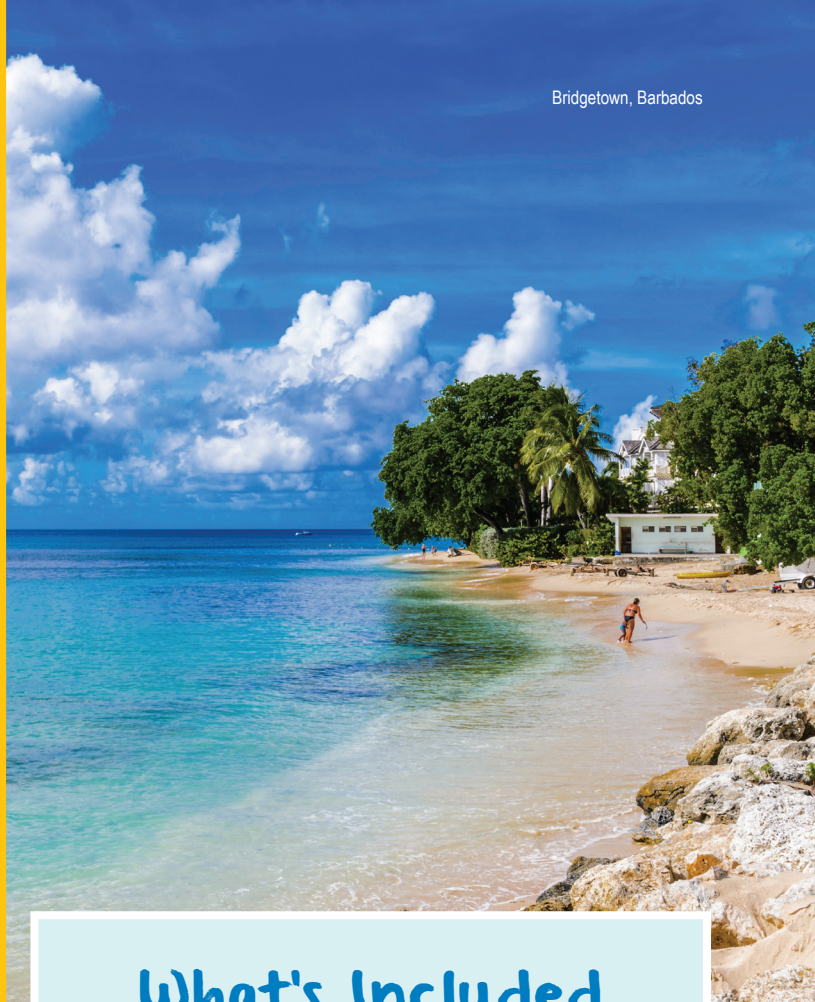

However, the origins of Mardi Gras can be traced back to medieval Europe, passing through Rome and Venice in the 17th and 18th centuries to the French House of the Bourbons. From these humble beginnings, each year thousands of people become honorary Creoles to celebrate Mardi Gras.

Mardi Gras, which in French translates as Fat Tuesday, is officially the day before Ash Wednesday. As the celebrations in America and across the world have grown larger with each passing year, Mardi Gras has evolved from one day into week long celebrations.

The New Orleans Carnival season starts on 6th January called "Twelfth Night" and a masked ball is held each year to mark the beginning of New Orleans' Carnival season.

Mardi Gras is about music, parades, picnics, floats and excitement and it's one big holiday in New Orleans! Revellers know to wear costumes or at least dress in purple (justice), green (faith), and gold (power), adorning themselves with long beads caught from the floats of previous parades. The significance of the colours was selected by Rex, the King of Carnival, in 1892.

Today, the celebrations are about cultures coming together to celebrate the things that make them unique, and united under the common theme of people who like to have fun. Hence the phrase "Let the Good Times Roll!"

Maritime Memories

with Nigel Lingard
(Non-Executive Director, Reader Offers Ltd)

ONE VERY ENJOYABLE ROLE I UNDERTAKE ANNUALLY IS TO SERVE AS CHAIRMAN OF THE "CRUISE EUROPE" CONFERENCE. THIS IS A TRADE ORGANISATION REPRESENTING OVER 100 PORTS IN NORTH WESTERN EUROPE, FOCUSSED AS THE NAME SUGGESTS ON THEIR BUSINESS WITH CRUISE SHIPS.

The venue was Santander, a historic city set in a beautiful bay on Spain's northern coastline. Although not yet drawing in many cruise vessels, the port is of course connected to the UK by the splendid Brittany Ferries' overnight sailings.

There is keen competition amongst coastal communities to attract cruise customers, particularly the "home port" business with all the commercial activity associated with operating a ship for a whole season. As an organisation, our role is to help all the ports liaise with international cruise lines, share best practise ideas and to keep abreast of the ever-changing rules and regulations.

These days there is increasing awareness of environmental issues, and some ports face local opposition to the increasing scale of cruise operations. Such topics as waste disposal, air pollution or overcrowding at popular tourist sites all require diplomacy as well as technical solutions.

The British Isles were strongly represented at the event, and indeed next year's host city will be Dublin, with the promise of some serious hospitality!

Several of our guest speakers were from British-based operators. The Commercial Director of Cruise & Maritime Voyages, Chris Coates, spoke of their plans to expand regional port departures now that "Magellan" has joined their fleet (see pages 4-13 for the brand new Cruise & Maritime 2016/17 launch promotion).

The UK's largest cruise line, P&O Cruises, was represented by Michele Lupino, who talked the ports through the lengthy (up to three years ahead!) process of diligence and planning in choosing ports suited to each ship. The logistics of a visit by their largest ships does not suit every destination, but their huge fleet does offer a world of choices (see page 21 to visit the USA & Canada with P&O Cruises).

As the cruise industry continues to expand globally, it's good to see that we are still adding new departure ports and new destinations - no excuse not to set sail again soon!

Bon Voyage,

Nigel.

Jane
ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and the Daily Telegraph Travel's cruise expert. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for nine years.

Part of the Union

Have you ever wondered what would have happened to cruises around the United Kingdom if Scotland had voted to break up the union last year? Probably not a question top of most people's minds at the time of the referendum, but it would have been interesting.

Would we, for instance, have had to go through passport control to enter the new country (after all it was not a given that it would be allowed to stay in the EU)? Fred. Olsen would have had to rethink its new policy of allowing folk to board cruises around the UK using a driving licence or council-issued bus pass for ID instead of insisting on a passport. And for sure, itineraries with 'UK' in the title would have to have been renamed.

Happily none of this came to pass and for the foreseeable future at least the union is safe and we can continue to cruise around the British Isles as we have always done. I'm delighted because I reckon a round-Britain cruise is the best way to see the UK - or at any rate the bits that are close to water.

I have only done it once but visited so many interesting places and sights I have heard of but never seen (the Ring of Brodgar in the Orkney Islands, Edinburgh, the Giant's Causeway in Northern Ireland), and without the hassle of unpacking, the worry of traffic jams or the expense of staying in a hotel and eating out. Because you are on a ship, you feel you have been abroad, but to top it all, I didn't have to change money (well you do need euros for Ireland but you can get by with a credit card).

And why am I telling you all this? Because in 2016 two companies, MSC Cruises and Disney Cruise Line are sailing around the UK for the first time, while luxury line Crystal has its first round-Britain cruise for a few years. Crystal's cruise is in July, round-trip from Tilbury, and has overnights in Dublin and Edinburgh so there's lots of time to see both cities. MSC's cruise is in May, round-trip from Southampton on MSC Splendida, and includes a day in Hamburg.

One of the notable trends in round-Britain cruising is that many itineraries no longer actually go around the UK, but concentrate instead on the west coast.

Fred. Olsen has a debut Britain Isles cruise from Falmouth next April - a 10 night voyage on Boudicca - that sails the west coast of the UK to Kirkwall in the Orkney Islands and returns the same way.

Swan Hellenic also hugs the west coast with a 12 day cruise round-trip from Portsmouth next July that ticks off little-known ports including Lamlash in the Isle of Arran, Douglas in the Isle of Man and Waterford in Ireland. And so does Seabourn, which is flying the flag for the Union on a 16 day cruise from Dover next August that visits England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales.

But circumnavigators have not been left out. Fred. Olsen also has several cruises round-Britain including a veritable castle-fest on Balmoral next June. The cruise is from Newcastle and there's a fortress at almost every port, from Castle Cornet in Guernsey to St. Michael's Mount in Marazion, Cornwall.

Cunard's Queen Mary 2, Queen Victoria and Queen Elizabeth

The Fab Three

First there were the Beatles, then there were the three Queens. I am talking about Liverpool, of course, where Cunard's Queen Mary 2, Queen Victoria and Queen Elizabeth 'met' for the first time in May.

It was all part of the company's anniversary celebrations - 175 years since Samuel Cunard launched his first voyage across the Atlantic - and an incredible event. The three ships sailed into the river, made a synchronised turn and then pulled up one next to the other as the Red Arrows flew over.

I was watching from the Birkenhead side of the river and could not believe the thousands of sightseers who turned out to see the event. Roads were blocked on both sides of the river, the waterfronts were packed. Some younger people, longer hair and a few more tears and it would have been just like the Beatles arriving in the US for the first time! OK, that's a bit of poetic licence but you get the picture.

Seeing all three Queens on the Mersey really was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity as Cunard quit Liverpool in favour of Southampton nearly 50 years ago (apparently the May event took four years to organise!), but the city will be figuring in the company's on-going 175th anniversary celebrations one more time this year.

On 4th July, Queen Mary 2 sails from Liverpool en route to Halifax in Canada and Boston in the US, exactly 175 years after Cunard's first ship, Britannia, set off on her maiden transatlantic crossing from the city. There will only be one Queen but I bet the folk of Liverpool will be out in force once again.

Around the world in 120 days

Big things are happening at Cruise & Maritime Voyages. First they take on the 1,250 passenger Magellan, a former Carnival ship and a giant compared to the rest of CMV's fleet, and now they announce she will be sailing around the world in 2017.

The voyage departs Tilbury on 5th January 2017, and takes passengers on a 120 day journey through the Caribbean, Panama Canal and French Polynesia to Australia before returning to the UK via Asia, India, the Suez Canal and Mediterranean.

In case you can't spare four months but fancy seeing a bit of the world, there are some shorter sectors. Your friends at Reader Offers will have all the details.

THE CALGARY STAMPEDE

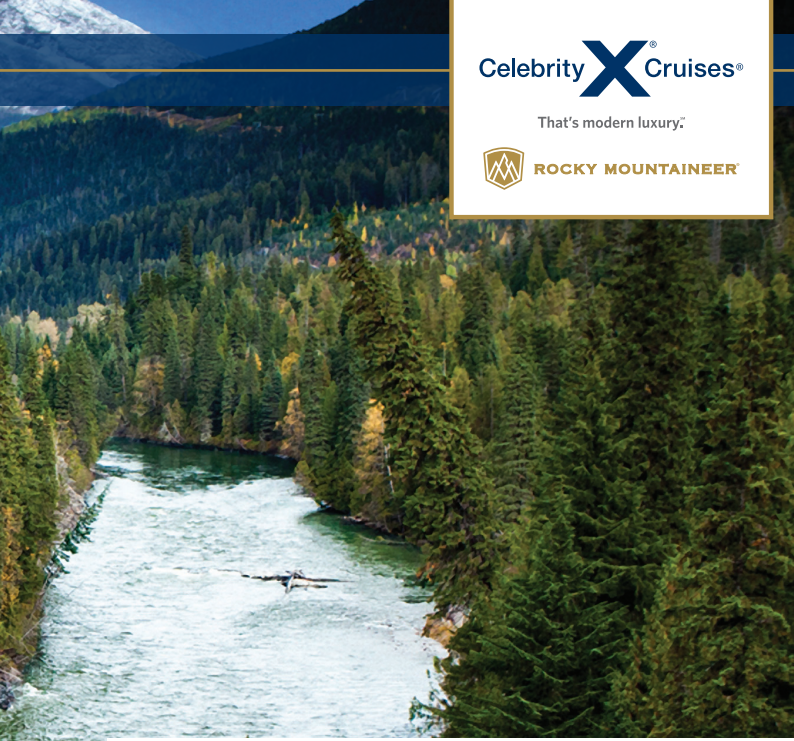

Every July, Calgary in Alberta, Canada, becomes 'cowtown' - when the rodeo comes to town for 'the greatest outdoor show on Earth' - the Calgary Stampede.

The spacious, modern city of Calgary sees time turned back to its frontier origins as it has for over 100 years. Sedate streets are bedecked with 'old timey' facades and the usually-reserved metropolitan ambiance is replaced by the cacophony of enormous parades with their myriad floats which dramatically evoke the wild days of yore. Meanwhile, the Stampede Park itself is a place of battle and bravery. To be among the crowds at the Calgary Stampede is not to be a spectator but actually part of a unique event; to be experienced, not watched, and what an experience it is.

Please note flights are out of date range and will be confirmed closer to time of departure. +Free upgrade to GoldLeaf Service on board the Rocky Mountaineer train is subject to availability and for Deluxe Balcony stateroom bookings and above only. xCalgary Stampede tickets are subject to availability and transfers to and from the stampede showground are not included. Vancouver Lookout tickets are for general admittance only. Celebrity Cruises® and Rocky Mountaineer booking conditions apply. Please see back page for full terms and conditions.

The Chinese New Year is the most important annual celebration enjoyed by oriental communities all over the world, but that doesn't mean that you can't join in too!

On the opening day evil spirits are driven away with firecrackers, fireworks, burning bamboo canes and as much riotous noise as can be joyously created. Each day, up to the arrival of the full moon 15 days later, sees a variety of ancient traditional and religious customs honoured. Finally the appearance of the full moon is celebrated with the Lantern Festival when all join together in the streets carrying a colourful array of lighted lanterns.

Hong Kong & Shanghai are famed for entertaining the largest of the celebrations and fireworks displays, creating an outrageous pageant of pyrotechnics. With your pre- and post-cruise hotel stays you'll have ample time to celebrate the year of the rooster.

CRUISE SHIP Suites

HEY BIG SPENDER, WHY NOT SPEND A LITTLE TIME IN ONE OF THESE LUXURY SUITES AS FEATURED IN OUR TOP 5? NOT ONLY DO THEY RIVAL THE RITZ, BUT YOU'LL BE WAKING UP TO A WORLD OF NEW BEGINNINGS WHEREVER YOU CRUISE.

CELEBRITY CRUISES' REFLECTION SUITE

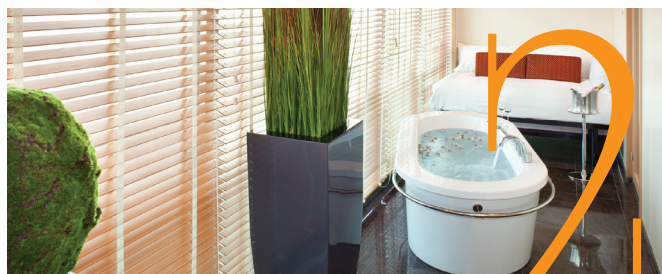

ON BOARD
CELEBRITY REFLECTION

Effusing all the 'savoir vivre' of a swanky seaside apartment, this unique two bedroom condo boasts floor-to-ceiling windows, chic furnishings, sumptuous upholstery and round-the-clock European butler service. Guests can also enjoy a massage in bed courtesy of the premium Reverie Dream™ Sleep System (controlled by the complimentary use of an iPad, the bed becomes the masseuse). And then there's the shower - a glass cantilevered booth offering 360° ocean views. But fear not... a button tints the windows to preserve modesty.

CUNARD'S GRAND DUPLEX

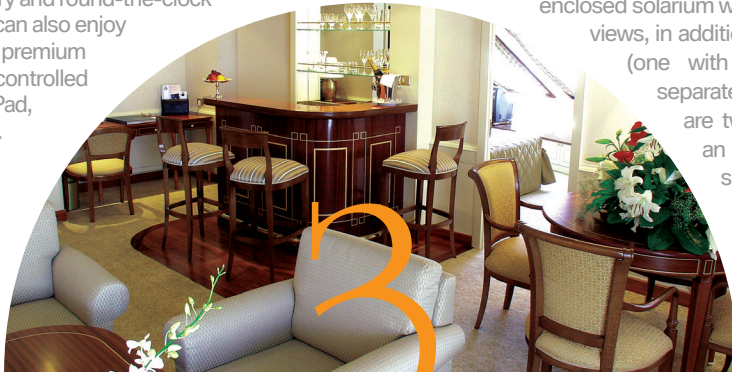

ON BOARD QUEEN MARY 2

You can't get much grander than royalty, and Cunard's two duplexes - Balmoral and Sandringham - are nothing short of monarchical. Lauded as the most lavish and largest suites afloat, each two-storey apartment features Art Deco detailing, exquisite furnishings, private deck and a frosted-glass staircase to the second floor bedroom, replete with furnished balcony. With exclusive access to the Queen's Grill Lounge (and 24-hour butler service), exercise equipment will keep you trim throughout, while two marble baths with separate whirlpool tubs provide regal relaxation on your oceanic jaunts.

SEABOURN'S GRAND WINTERGARDEN SUITE

These days, it's all about the sparoom, not the bathroom. Thankfully, Seabourn's Wintergarden Suite comes with a separate glass-enclosed solarium with soaking tub, daybed and sea-views, in addition to its two en-suite bathrooms (one with whirlpool). If you're able to separate yourself from the steam, there are two bedrooms with living space, an entertainment lounge, dining for six, two bars, three flat-screen TVs and two furnished balconies. Naturally, the suite is butler/Wi-Fi/internet serviced.

SILVERSEA'S

GRAND SUITE

If James Bond were to book a cruise on Silver Shadow, he'd reside in the Grand Suite. Something about a private bar, no doubt. Not only is it stocked with your preferences, but the expansive yet cosy living room is perfect for entertaining over complimentary canapés. The Illy Espresso machine provides 'get up and go' before dinner at the officer's table, while added touches include, but are not limited to, personalised stationary, binoculars and a special chocolate welcome. And with its Bang & Olufsen walk-in wardrobes, personal safe and Mangled Bathrooms audio system, all en route to exotic destinations, this really is the Martini of cruise ship suites.

ROYAL CARIBBEAN'S ROYAL LOFT SUITE

For a taste of the suite life, splash out on the Royal Loft. This largest of lofts contains a litany of reasons to indulge: play it again on the baby grand piano, lounge in the library or entertain on the extensive 874 square foot balcony with LCD TV, additional dining area and Jacuzzi. The interior is chic and upliftingly light thanks to its two-storey-high wall of windows. Up to six passengers can stay, but a further four can be accommodated when connected to the Crown Loft Suite.

YOUR CARIBBEAN HIGHLIGHTS

GUSTAVIA, ST. BARTS

Hilly St. Barthélemy, popularly known as St. Barts is just eight square miles, but the island has at least 20 good beaches. What draws visitors is its sophisticated but unstudied approach to relaxation: the finest food, excellent wine and high-end shopping.

ST. JOHN'S, ANTIGUA

Some say Antigua has so many beaches that you could visit a different one every day for a year. Most have snow-white sand, and many are backed by lavish resorts that offer sailing, diving, windsurfing and snorkelling. You may wish to explore English Harbour and its carefully restored Nelson's Dockyard, as well as tour old forts, historic churches, and tiny villages.

BRIDGETOWN, BARBADOS

While side streets are scattered with rum shops and chattel houses, Bridgetown is a bustling capital full of colonial architecture. Known for its duty-free shopping as much as its history, you'll find a wealth of things to do and see. From beautiful beaches, inviting clear blue seas and rolling sugar cane fields, Bridgetown is a holiday paradise for all.

PARKING PACKAGE*

ON BOARD DRINKS &
GRATUITIES INCLUDED

COMPLIMENTARY
SHORE EXCURSIONS*

Embark Silversea Expeditions' Silver Galapagos and experience a wonderland of wildlife and natural history with a degree of luxury that is simply unmatched.

To say that you'll have unique experiences while visiting the Galápagos Islands is an epic understatement. From snorkelling with sea turtles and snapping up-close photos of giant tortoises to finding yourself amongst hundreds of marine iguanas and spying species of birds indigenous only to the Galápagos, you will see things that few have had the chance to see for themselves.

— YOUR 10 NIGHT GALÁPAGOS ISLANDS DISCOVERY DEPARTS — 29TH OCTOBER, 26TH NOVEMBER 2015, 26TH MAY, 18TH AUGUST & 10TH NOVEMBER 2016

Day 1 Fly from London to Quito, Ecuador with KLM

(regional and premium class flights are available on request*).

Upon arrival, transfer to the JW Marriott Hotel[‡] for your two night stay

Day 2 Quito, Ecuador

Explore Quito at your leisure

Day 3 Quito, Ecuador to Baltra, Galápagos, Ecuador

Transfer to Quito airport for your flight to Baltra, Galápagos. Upon arrival, transfer to the port and embark Silver Galapagos for your seven night Galápagos expedition. After settling in and setting sail, you will be introduced to your Expedition Team and enjoy the first of many memorable meals on board

Day 4 Bartolomé, Ecuador (am)

Some of the most spectacular landscapes in the islands come into view. Just off the coast of Santiago, Bartolomé boasts some of the most magnificent landscapes in the islands including the famous Pinnacle Rock, a towering obelisk at the edge of the ocean. Go snorkelling or take a walk along the beach to look for the playful Galápagos Penguin, perched on a rock or zooming underwater

Playa Espumilla, Santiago (pm)

Beautiful Espumilla Beach is an important nesting site for the East Pacific Green Sea Turtle. You'll walk through the arid vegetation zone of the interior where you'll see the largest Palo Santo trees in the Galápagos, the perfect habitat for several species of Darwin's finches

Day 5 Punta Vicente Roca, Isabela (am)

Five (originally six) majestic shield volcanoes up to half a million years old pierce the arid landscape of Isabela, the largest and youngest island in the Galápagos. Aboard a Zodiac, you'll look for an array of seabirds including Flightless Cormorants and penguins

Punta Espinoza, Fernandina (pm)

The largest colony of marine iguanas in the Galápagos can be seen sunning on the black lava shores of Punta Espinoza at the north-eastern corner of Fernandina. One of the most pristine islands in the world, Fernandina hosts an impressive array of wildlife including sea lions, colourful Sally Light-Foot Crabs and the rare endemic Flightless Cormorant

Day 6 Caleta Tagus, Isabela (am)

A short cruise across the Bolivar Strait brings you to Tagus Cove on Isabela Island. Yellow Warblers and Galápagos Mockingbirds may escort your hike between Palo Santos and Yellow Cordias, passing the briny Darwin's Crater Lake along the way

Bahía Elizabeth, Isabela (pm)

The tallest red mangrove trees in the Galápagos are found in Elizabeth Bay, an idyllic mangrove lagoon and a fascinating place to observe marine life. You'll take a Zodiac through the mangroves where sea turtles swim close to the surface, and pelicans and herons stalk for fish or crab. Sea lions and penguins are also prevalent in this marine sanctuary

Day 7 Post Office Bay, Floreana (am)

Floreana has been luring visitors since the 18th century when whalers hunted the island for tortoises and pirates sought shelter in its caves. Sailors established a rustic mailing system here: a barrel nailed to a pole where they would drop letters hoping they would be delivered by other mariners sailing home. Take a walk along the lovely beach, or go snorkelling in an underwater world as colourful as Floreana's history

Punta Cormorant, Floreana (pm)

Where in the world can you see an olivine beach, deciduous vegetation and pink flamingos all in one place? Only at Punta Cormorant, one of the most interesting sites in the islands. You'll learn about the formation of beaches as you land on the olive-green sand and walk to Flour Beach, a favourite nesting site for Green Sea Turtles. Floreana also offers some of the best snorkelling sites in the Galápagos

UNRIVALLED LUXURY: SILVER GALAPAGOS

Fully refurbished in 2014, Silver Galapagos is an all-suite, 100-guest vessel, offering socially and environmentally responsible ecotourism to the Galápagos archipelago featuring:

Your Suite

All suites feature: Butler service, refrigerator and bar setup stocked with your preferences, eco-friendly bath amenities, fine bed linens and down duvets, premium mattresses, plush robes and slippers, binoculars, beach towels, rain coats and WiFi internet access (fee applies)

The Restaurant

The chefs always include a choice of local Ecuadorian specialties to enrich your culinary journey, but whether you choose Galápagos Lobster à la Galapaguera or filet mignon with truffles, your selections will be artfully presented and served

The Grill

Soft breezes and island views beckon at The Grill, especially as the sun goes down, when guests gather at the outdoor bar for cocktails and tapas, and talk about their day. In the evening The Grill is transformed into an intimate, interactive eatery where diners can grill their own fresh seafood and prime cuts under a canopy of stars. This alternative dining venue is always a favourite with Silversea guests, and dinner reservations are recommended

Marine Iguana,
Galápagos Islands

Boobies,
Galápagos Islands

Silver Galapagos

Day 8 Galapaguera Cerro Colorado, San Cristóbal (am)

The most emblematic animal in the archipelago is the Galápagos Giant Tortoise. Over-hunting and competition with introduced animals has left its numbers close to extinction. Nonetheless, since the late 1950s, the tenacious work of the Galápagos National Park Service park rangers and the scientists of the Charles Darwin Research Station have been bringing their numbers back. You will see these ancient reptiles and their babies, and learn more about current conservation efforts at the Galapaguera Cerro Colorado

Wizard Hill, San Cristóbal (pm)

This afternoon you can swim, snorkel or kayak with sea lions and marine iguanas right from Cerro Brujo, a breathtaking white coral beach. It's a haven for birdwatching, too

Day 9 Los Gemelos, Santa Cruz (am)

The second largest island in the archipelago is home to both the largest human settlement and the second largest wild tortoise population. You'll visit Los Gemelos, two pit craters (similar to sink holes) in the midst of a forest of tall Scalesia trees that look like giant daisies and are endemic to the Galápagos. Here there's a good chance to spot land birds, especially one of the rare and endemic Galápagos Martins

Puerto Ayora and Estación Charles Darwin, Santa Cruz (pm)

Tortoises in the Galápagos occur in two different morphotypes: dome-shaped and saddle-backed. The smaller saddle-back tortoise was hunted virtually to extinction and just a handful of survivors remain. The Fausto Llerena Breeding Center gives you the opportunity to see both the domed tortoise and the iconic saddleback tortoise after which the islands were named

Day 10 Baltra, Galápagos

Disembark and transfer to the airport for your flight to Guayaquil. Upon arrival, transfer to The Hotel Oro Verde for the use of a day room. Transfer to the airport for your flight to London with KLM (regional and premium class flights available on request*)
