We are excited to announce that in 2017 Norwegian Jade will be returning to the UK. Norwegian Cruise Line has not had a ship based in the UK since 2010 and Norwegian Jade will be cruising from Southampton to ports of call across Europe and as far as the Norwegian fjords. She will spend two and a half weeks in dry dock in the Bahamas for a complete overhaul before arriving in Southampton in April 2017 for the summer season.

Please see page 16 to book your no-fly cruise on board the newly-revitalised Norwegian Jade

Hello and welcome to the April edition of Blue Horizons.

Looking to book a late escape in the next couple of months? Turn to pages 4 & 5 where you'll find a variety of no-fly sailings with Fred. Olsen, featuring amazing savings of up to £1,920. But please do not delay, as these offers must end soon!

On pages 8-11, take advantage of P&O Cruises' incredible promotion with your choice of on board spending money, free car parking or coach transfers. Discover the Mediterranean, embark on a Canary Islands escape or sail further afield to the Caribbean and USA – while enjoying the relaxation of a no-fly cruise!

In 2017 cruise in modern luxury with Celebrity Cruises® and join the newly refurbished Celebrity Eclipse® from Southampton. On pages 18 & 19, you'll be spoilt for choice with a wide range of popular destinations across Europe and with on board spending money and a drinks package included, enhance your cruising experience further. Highlights include a Baltic discovery with two nights in St. Petersburg and the opportunity to stay for the final of the French Open!

Cunard's Queen Mary 2 will undergo an amazing refurbishment in the upcoming months and on pages 28 & 29, you can not only find out more information, but also experience the enhancements for yourself. Balconies and above will receive a three night luxury hotel stay in New York.

If you're looking for a voyage with a difference, we have a number of promotions, tailor-made with you in mind! On pages 24 & 25, witness the thrills of the Calgary Stampede, coupled with a journey on the Rocky Mountaineer and take advantage of launch savings! Alternatively, visit one of the most remarkable places on Earth, the mysterious Easter Island! On pages 22 & 23, you'll find a once-in-a-lifetime six night tour of Santiago and Easter Island, combined with a cruise to the wonders of South America. Finally, turn to pages 44 & 45 to embark on an ultra-luxury voyage to South Africa, with an exclusive post-cruise tour of the Winelands. You'll even begin your holiday with a two night stay in Cape Town and enjoy a tour of the Cape Peninsula.

River Cruising is becoming increasingly popular and there's no better way to explore the heart of your destination than like a local with the help of expert guides. We have two fantastic packages in this edition: see pages 38 & 39 for your chance to experience Imperial China and the Yangtze River with APT; or cruise the mighty Mekong while exploring the sights of Vietnam and Cambodia with Pandaw (40 & 41). Both itineraries include pre- and post-cruise hotel stays, complimentary beverages and all sightseeing tours with guide.

If you're yet to find your dream holiday, speak to one of our Cruise Specialists who could make this a reality!

Happy cruising!

NO FLIGHTS, NO HASSLE

No-fly cruising is becoming increasingly popular, because it takes the hassle away from hours at the airport. You can embark your chosen ship, get settled in and begin to explore your home-from-home as she sails away from the homeport to destinations far and wide.

In this incredible promotion, your cruise from Southampton truly begins the moment you step on board. P&O Cruises will take care of you upon your arrival, and with dedicated car parking facilities in the port, coach drop-off points next to the terminal and easy access public transport, the beginning and end of your cruise will be almost as calm as the holiday itself.

A P&O Cruises holiday is a very special way to escape from the rigours of everyday life and to explore many different destinations in one of the most relaxing ways imaginable. It offers you an extraordinary variety of activities and entertainment, plus exceptional restaurants and bars. And of course, if you simply want to escape, there are plenty of opportunities to do absolutely nothing at all.

Choose your cruising, your fantastic added benefit and go!

THINGS TO DO IN BARBADOS

When you think of Barbados, one thing is sure to come to mind – paradise. But whilst this small country might pride itself on the idyllic beaches, crystal waters and tropical heat that our dreams are made of, it has so much more diversity to offer than just that. With an array of itineraries including overnight stays and stops in this spectacular utopia, you'll have plenty of time to see the best that this country has to offer. Seek inspiration for your next adventure to paradise with our top pick of things to do in this sensational destination.

BARBADOS WILDLIFE RESERVE

If up close and personal experiences are something that you enjoy, then be sure to visit the Barbados Wildlife Reserve. Located in a stunning natural mahogany wood in the north parish of St. Peter, this reserve will allow you to immerse yourself in the given habitat for much of Barbados' wildlife. As you stroll freely through the reserve you'll be able to watch animals at close range as they eat, play and interact with other animals and if you're lucky, they might even interact with you too! The Barbados Green Monkeys are a favourite and as they are free to leave the reserve as they please, you might even come across familiar faces later on in your trip. A vast array of birds decorate the surrounding trees and as you explore further, you'll be able to see snakes, iguanas and turtles. If you prefer furry friends to scaled ones, then make sure you keep your eyes peeled for non-native Brocket Deer and agouti!

NATURAL WONDERS OF BARBADOS TOUR

Often, the idyllic reputation that Barbados has precedes it and you really won't be disappointed with your stopover in this country truly akin to paradise. But when you delve in to the astounding natural wonders that Barbados is home to with this tour, you'll discover that there's more to it than meets the eye. If you can tear yourself away from the glorious heat, then this tour will take you below ground to explore Harrison's Cave – this crystallised limestone cavern is home to gems such as flowing streams, deep pools of turquoise water, speleothems and towering columns which truly are a testament to nature's mastery. Your tour will then take you to the rugged coast of Bathsheba, where you can bathe in the Bathsheba pools and, for a little tranquillity, the stunning Flower Forest awaits.

MOUNT GAY RUM VISITOR CENTRE

No trip to Barbados would be complete without soaking up the history of the country, but when visiting the Mount Gay Rum Visitor Centre you can add a little bit of spice to your historic endeavours. Established in 1703, this longstanding dedication to the craftsmanship of fine rums remains and with your trip to the Visitor Centre, you'll be able to discover the mysteries behind Barbados' finest and most celebrated spirit. Choosing from three tours: the Signature Rum Tour, the interactive Cocktail Tour and the sumptuous Bajan Buffet Lunch Tour, you can be sure that there will be something to cater for all tastes. History waits as you sample the world's oldest rum in the very place that it was cultivated.

LOCAL CUISINE

No other Caribbean country can match Barbados for the choice and quality of places to eat out. Whether your taste buds have a preference for fine dining or traditional local cuisine, Barbados' restaurants are suitable for all appetites. The atmospheric Changers is arguably the best restaurant on the south coast, its oceanfront setting will provide you with a stunning display of rolling waves and the fresh seafood and striking flavours will tingle your taste buds – not only that but a high quality art gallery takes up the upper floor of the restaurant. The Cliff, Barbados' most sought after restaurant has theatrical interior design including torch-lit decks surrounding a stingray filled pool which will leave you spellbound even before your sophisticated food arrives at the table. For some Barbados authenticity, eating at Brown Sugar is a must; Bajan dishes fill the menu, including specialties such as cou-cou (cornmeal and okra), pepperpot stew, macaroni pie and bread pudding with a powerful rum sauce.

SWIM WITH TURTLES

No trip to Barbados would be complete without exploring below the surface of the crystal sea. If you're feeling adventurous or want to tick something off of your bucket list, then swimming with turtles is an absolute must! Most of the turtle tours are on catamarans which provide lunch, masks and snorkels and, with a little research, some even offer the opportunity to snorkel over shipwrecks: choose from an array of tours including snorkelling with turtles in their natural environment, swim in a secluded bay, include rope-swinging and walking the plank as part of your tour or combine the coral reefs with your turtle swim. This really is the opportunity of a lifetime and with your choice of larger, more sociable catamarans or small and intimate ones, you can cater your experience to your personal taste.

Wine around the world: Tasting the continents' best reserves

From California's endless Napa Valley to the clay-fortified hillsides of Matakana, New Zealand, there's a grape of choice for every continent.

No matter where you are in the world, wine plays a vital role in evoking the culture, history and passion of that region at the dinner table. So what can the house bottle tell us about the continent that produced it?

Africa

South Africa's heritage as the oldest 'New World' country confirms its place in quality grape production, with generations of dedication creating viticulture that constantly strives to improve. Unique to South Africa, connoisseurs can enjoy the deep bouquet of the Pinotage, the magnificent hybrid of both the Cinsaut and Pinot Noir grapes.

Visitors can expect to indulge in wine tastings and a dedicated Wine Tram is a must for exploring the region's picturesque vineyards. Franschhoek Valley, with its warm hospitality and tantalising scenery, lingers on the mind long after the last drop.

America

Stateside, with the USA home to nearly 3,000 commercial vineyards, wine production is a mass operation.

California's Napa Valley flourishes with both red and white grapes, and the warm days and cooler nights provide the perfect incubator for Cabernet Sauvignons and Chardonnay.

Argentinian and Chilean grapes have gained precedence in recent years, with global consumers savouring 15 hectolitres of the two regions' reserves combined. Malbec, native to France's Bordeaux, has jumped ship with Argentina now producing the lion's share worldwide.

Antarctica

The desolate ice lands of the Antarctic may not be the first choice for aficionados, but those in the know will recognise its efforts toward the white grape wine Riesling. Vastly more superior, perhaps, are its Seyval and Vidal Blanc offerings – both of which perform better in the high salt content found in Antarctica's soil.

The McMurdo Dry Valleys give the wines a subtle salty yet sweet aftertaste, and Antarctica's intrepid producers have teamed up with local wildlife to ensure their vines get the nutrients they need, relying on penguins to provide fertiliser.

Asia

Wines from the Far East are improving. Today, China is the fifth largest wine producer in the world and what it lacks in heritage it certainly makes up for in appreciation, with the country being the second biggest consumer of high-priced labels globally.

In India, principal grape cultivation happens in the vibrant states of Maharashtra, Karnataka and Andhra Pradesh, where sophisticated sippers prefer the country's sparkling wines.

Australasia

Australia is beloved for its fruity wines at the affordable end of the scale, but that's not to say the industry isn't sporting a few elegant labels. The varying climate in Australia makes this territory capable of catering to a wide range of budgets and palates.

Blending experience with contemporary enthusiasm, New Zealand wines simultaneously recount the story of the past and today's new approach to exceptional wine making.

This is especially clear at the Ascension Winery, situated on iron-rich terrain outside of Auckland. The family's passion is exemplified in 'The Bell Ringer' Pinotage, a supple red fragrance with peppery notes and juicy blueberries that offers a kiwi twist to a South African idea.

Europe

Undoubtedly a stalwart in the industry, French wine has graced tables across the world since the 6th century BC. Most of us will be familiar with Burgundy, Bordeaux, Champagne and Rhône, just a few of the prestigious provinces establishing the country's claim to the art of wine.

Switzerland's rich history of wine is a secret to many, with only 1.5 per cent of Swiss wine being exported. For those looking to unearth the alpine country's treasures, Fendant is the Swiss name for the refreshing, dry white Chasselas that is the après ski drink of choice.

EASTER ISLAND

Just south of the Tropic of Capricorn, Easter Island, or Rapa Nui, lies 3,790km to the west of Chile. Extraordinarily remote, this island was first inhabited by Polynesians who are believed to have arrived by sea about 1,200 years ago. The island is 24km long, with three extinct volcanic craters and half of the area is a National Park. The island is best known for being the site of more than 600 stone statues, or Moai, which stand up to nine metres in height. The statues were carved in the spectacular Rano Raraku quarry and were then believed to have been transported on wooden rollers to their destinations. It is thought that the last statues were erected around 500 years ago, when the supply of trees for rollers ran out.

Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and the Daily Telegraph Travel's cruise expert. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for ten years.

A CASE OF DÉJÀ VU

At last the wait is over. It has taken a long time but Norwegian Cruise Line is finally basing a ship in Southampton again from next year. Not just that, but she is the same ship as when the company last sailed from the UK – Norwegian Jade – although by the time she gets here she'll be looking quite different from when I last saw her.

That was in May 2008, as she was about to set sail on her maiden cruise from Southampton. An article I wrote back then noted Jade had been relocated to the UK from Hawaii, where she had sailed as Pride of Hawaii. It said there were around 1,500 British passengers booked on each sailing and there was British beer to keep them happy.

I gather the British beer will be back when Jade returns in 2017, but the jury's out on whether they'll have kettles in cabins. Might be a good idea. After all, the Brits do like their morning cuppa!

A couple of NCL's newer features have already made their way onto Jade. There is a Moderno Churrascaria and Carlo's Bake Shop selling cakes. However there will be a major refurbishment in March 2017, just before she arrives in the UK two months later. Among changes, teak flooring will be laid in the outdoor deck areas, the Bliss nightclub will be revamped, and new carpets, curtains and furniture will be installed.

NCL's decision to return to no-fly cruising is welcome news. Competition is always healthy, and it means that come 2017, those who like the company's Freestyle philosophy (no dress codes, no formal dining) can enjoy casual cruising without having to fly.

NCL is keeping Jade close to home – a couple of mini-cruises to Hamburg, a few seven night romps around the cities of Hamburg, Amsterdam, Zeebrugge and Le Havre and nine night voyages to the Norwegian fjords. It makes sense. NCL will have three ships in the Mediterranean next year for those wanting a casual cruise in the sun.

GETAWAY TO THE BALTIC

Just as Norwegian Jade is arriving in Southampton, one of Norwegian Cruise Line's newest and biggest ships will be settling into her new homeport in Copenhagen.

Norwegian Getaway, launched in January 2014, holds just under 4,000 passengers and will be taking over NCL's Baltic cruise itinerary from May 2017.

She boasts some attractive amenities, including Studio cabins for solo travellers, posh suites in the exclusive Haven and if you've always wanted to clamber over a ropes course or slide down a flume while sailing into St. Petersburg, well now's your chance.

Getaway will be sailing nine-night cruises from Copenhagen that visit Tallinn, Helsinki and Stockholm, and spend two days in St. Petersburg. There is also a day in Warnemünde in Germany, a seaside resort used for excursions to Berlin.

It is do-able but it's a long journey to the city and you don't get much time there. My tip is to go instead to Rostock, a former Hanseatic town just 30 minutes from the port. It was once in East Germany, where among other attractions (an ancient astronomical clock, good beer) you can visit a former Stasi prison. If you were as gripped as me by the TV series Deutschland 83 that was shown earlier this year, about East and West Berlin during the Cold War, it's a must.

IS AMERICA'S FLAGSHIP TO SAIL AGAIN?

One piece of cruise news that has got everyone talking is Crystal Cruises' plan to restore the liner SS United States to her former glory, once more plying transatlantic routes to and from New York.

"It will be a challenging undertaking," said Edie Rodrigues, Crystal's president and CEO, in what must be the understatement of the year. The ship launched in 1952 so is more than 60 years behind the times when it comes to modern shipbuilding practices. Equally, ships deteriorate very quickly when they sit idle and she has been inactive since being retired in 1969.

Part of a top-secret Pentagon programme, the SS United States was designed to convert from a luxury liner into a naval troopship if the Cold War ever turned hot. Thankfully it didn't, so instead of servicemen she hosted four US presidents, Monaco's Prince Rainier and Grace Kelly, and Hollywood stars including John Wayne, Marilyn Monroe and Marlon Brando. In 1952 she set a record for the fastest transatlantic crossing, which has never been broken.

If the restoration happens (and it is an if, because a feasibility study has to be carried out before the project goes ahead) it will cost between $700 million and $800 million – an eye-watering sum but a drop in the ocean, so to speak, given Crystal's other expansion plans.

The company launched a 62-passenger yacht at the end of last year, has three 1,000-passenger ships on order, bought two aircraft to offer luxury air holidays around the world and is about to enter the river cruise sector. It acquired a river boat, Mozart, which will be refurbished and launched in July, and is building another four due to enter service in 2017.

And just to make sure all goes according to plan, Crystal's parent company, Genting Hong Kong, bought the Lloyd Werft shipyard in Bremerhaven, Germany, where all the new ships will be built as well!

CUNARD

QUEEN MARY 2 Remastered.

Between 27th May and 21st June 2016 Queen Mary 2 will undergo a multi-million pound refurbishment that introduces enhanced interior designs and passenger experiences across the ship. It will usher in a new era of style for Cunard's iconic flagship; one that ensures she remains at the forefront of luxury.

ACCOMMODATION

All grades of Queens Grill and Princess Grill Suites are receiving a complete make-over during the 2016 remastering to offer unsurpassed levels of comfort and elegance. The finest suites at sea will be reconfigured and will benefit from brand new seating, lighting, soft furnishings and upgraded technology.

In addition to the Grill Suites, Britannia Staterooms will also see a change:

The Owners' lounge area will also be enhanced, creating a new inside play area, increasing the outside walking area and extending the services offered.

DINING

- ◆ The Britannia Club restaurant is also being refreshed and extended, promising an intimate dining experience.
- ◆ The Carinthia Lounge (the current Winter Garden) will offer a stylish space for casual relaxation. During the day it will serve as a tranquil retreat offering light breakfast and lunchtime options, speciality coffees and teas and a patisserie counter. It will also host Cunard's traditional Champagne Afternoon Tea. In the evening, the Lounge becomes an informally sophisticated 'supper club' space – specialising in premium wines, small plate dining and relaxed entertainment.
- ◆ The Verandah (the current Todd English restaurant), already popular on Queen Elizabeth and Queen Victoria, makes its debut on board Queen Mary 2 in 2016 offering a contemporary, premium French menu featuring delicious seasonal fare.
- ◆ Kings Court will also be reconfigured to offer a totally redesigned central service area giving our talented chefs the opportunity to showcase their culinary expertise, from a hot and cold buffet throughout the day to specialty stations offering Italian, Indian, Pan Asian, Tex Mex and American Smokehouse menus on a rotating basis in the evenings.

Maritime Memories

with Nigel Lingard
(Non-Executive Director, Reader Offers Ltd)

AS WE MENTIONED LAST MONTH, THE ORDER BOOK FOR NEW CRUISE SHIPS HAS RECENTLY GROWN TO RECORD LEVELS, WITH OVER 50 VESSELS CONTRACTED FOR DELIVERY BETWEEN NOW AND 2022.

Apart from a handful of luxury ships, all the orders are for ever-larger capacity, ranging from 2,500 to 5,500 lower beds with an increasing range of dining options and innovative entertainment concepts.

I recently visited the Meyer Werft shipyard in Papenburg, northern Germany, and was able to see their remarkable "block construction" system whereby the ships appear to be assembled like a giant Lego kit! The yard is working at full capacity delivering two ships a year, and any operator now wishing to place an order will have to wait until at least 2022 for delivery!

The commitment to all these new projects is driven by the increasing globalisation of the cruise business. Although the North American market is still dominant, with Western Europe steadily catching up, the new growth is in the Far East. We are now seeing ships designed specifically for oriental tastes and culture, so for example Princess Royal Caribbean, Celebrity and Norwegian Cruises all have ships planned to be based in China, whilst Costa are introducing a "Costa Asia" brand for regional use. Even the Australian market has grown to the point where P&O Australia will build a dedicated new ship for 2019 delivery.

Doubtless in due course China will start to build its own cruise ships, but at the moment all the skills required are only found in a few European shipyards.

Ship design concepts are somewhat constrained by the likely disposition, as a hull fit for world-wide voyages needs to be quite different to the relatively simple shallow version which will suffice in the Caribbean. Similarly, ideas such as the MSC Seaside promenade deck at a level quite close to the waterline is definitely set to be based in calm tropical waters!

DOUBTLESS IN DUE COURSE CHINA WILL START TO BUILD ITS OWN CRUISE SHIPS, BUT AT THE MOMENT ALL THE SKILLS REQUIRED ARE ONLY FOUND IN A FEW EUROPEAN SHIPYARDS.

For the UK, one spin-off from this expansion is that fleets will have more vessels to move around the world, so both Norwegian and MSC have announced their intention to bring ships back into the UK for at least summer seasons, probably as soon as 2017.

This is an industry where it is sometimes quite difficult to remember today's date, when planning is always running at least three years ahead, and 2018 itineraries are on sale for many ships!

As ever, bon voyage!

Nigel.

YOUR 14 NIGHT VOYAGE DEPARTS 19TH & 30TH MAY 2017

| Day 1 | Fly from London to Reykjavík, Iceland (regional flights available on request*)
Upon arrival, transfer to the Icelandair hotel Reykjavík Natura+ for your two night stay and Reykjavík and Iceland Tour. Icelandic nature is breathtaking in its variety: glaciers, waterfalls, volcanoes and hot springs. Discover some of the most popular landmarks of Iceland during this tour | Day 5 | Flatey & Bjargtanger/Látrabjarg
Flatey is the second largest island in Breiðafjörður. Flatey and its surrounding islands are, as a creation, believed to have forged from under the weight of a great glacier during the previous Ice age. Látrabjarg, is the westernmost point in Iceland and its cliffs are home to millions of birds, including puffins, northern gannets, guillemots and razorbills |
| Day 2 | Reykjavík, Iceland
The Blue Lagoon is located in the middle of a beautiful lava field. Enjoy bathing in the reviving lagoon waters, rich in minerals and renowned for their healing properties. Afterwards visit Reykjavík, affectionately called the "Biggest Little City in the World" and see the most important landmarks during this sightseeing tour | Day 6 | Ísafjörður, Iceland
The capital of the Westfjords (Vestfirðir) region of Iceland and with a population of about 4,100 Ísafjörður is the largest town in the Westfjords. The town has a long history and for centuries it was a major centre of commerce and trading, all based on fish. Take a stroll around this cosy town and enjoy its diverse architecture |
| Day 3 | Reykjavík, Iceland
The full day tour takes you to Thingvellir National Park. Visit the most beautiful waterfall of the country, Gullfoss. Nearby, you'll also stop at the Geysir geothermal area with its multitude of hot springs. Return to Reykjavík through the Grímsnes region and transfer to the port to embark MS Spitsbergen | Day 7 | Hornbjerg Cliff & Reykjafjörður
Spend the morning hours in the area of Hornstrandir, where the Hornbjarg cliff is one of the greatest seabird habitats of the country. Its highest peaks reach 534m above sea level, and the birdlife is abundant. Weather permitting we will take a closer look at the cliff, and hopefully perform a nature landing in this area |
| Day 4 | Stykkishólmur, Iceland
Stykkishólmur has beautiful and well-preserved old houses in the town centre. Here you can find various interesting museums, as well as Iceland's oldest meteorological station, dating back to 1845. Enhance your experience with optional excursions* | Day 8 | Siglufjörður & Grímsey
This village of 1,300 inhabitants offer both facilities for recreation and activities. A few hours in the rugged landscape gives you the chance to savour the peace and tranquillity which emanates from these natural elements |

INDEPENDENCE DAY

In 1775, the people of New England began fighting the British for their independence and on 2nd July 1776, the Congress secretly voted for independence from Great Britain. The Declaration of Independence was first published two days later on 4th July, 1776, but wasn't actually signed until a month later.

The first deception of how Independence Day would be celebrated was in a letter from John Adams to his wife Abigail on 3rd July 1776. He described "pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires and illuminations" throughout the United States. However, the term "Independence Day" was not used until 1791. Commonly known as the Fourth of July, today Independence Day is a federal holiday in the United States where celebrations include fireworks, parades, barbecues, carnivals, sports games and much more. Interestingly, Thomas Jefferson and John Adams, both signers of the Declaration of Independence and presidents of the United States, died on 4th July 1826 – exactly 50 years after the adoption of the declaration.

Cruise Highlights

ARMACO DOS BÚZIOS, BRAZIL

A simple fishing village until it was 'discovered' by Brigitte Bardot in the early 1960s, Búzios is now one of Brazil's most charming and upscale destinations and is populated with chic boutiques, culinary delights and a picturesque waterfront. Astounding statues by sculptor Christina Motta adorn the promenade, including representations of Brigitte Bardot, former Brazilian president Juscelino Kubitschek and some remarkably realistic-looking fishermen. Búzios really is an astounding destination to behold

MONTEVIDEO, URUGUAY

Rich in culture and history, you'll find Montevideo a delight to explore. Roam around the old town which is rich in historic buildings and monuments, interspersed with attractive gardens and grand squares. Mercado del Puerto, on the Ciudad Vieja waterfront, is the ideal place to eat, or take a stroll along The Rambla for an insight into the everyday lives of the local people who can be spotted biking, fishing and enjoying the great views

Hot Cross Buns

PREP TIME - OVER 2 HRS
COOK TIME - 10 - 30 MINS

MAKES 12 BUNS

INGREDIENTS

- 625g strong white flour
- 1 tsp salt
- 2 tsp ground mixed spice
- 45g unsalted butter, cubed, plus extra for greasing
- 85g sugar
- 1 lemon, zest only
- 1½ tsp fast-acting yeast
- 1 free-range egg
- 275ml tepid milk
- 125g mixed dried fruit

TOPPING

- 2 tbsp plain flour
- Vegetable oil for greasing
- 1 tbsp golden syrup, gently heated for glazing

METHOD

1. To make the buns, sieve the flour, salt and ground mixed spice into a large mixing bowl; rub in the butter. Form a well in the centre and add the sugar, lemon zest and yeast.
2. Add the beaten egg and the tepid milk. Mix to a soft, pliable dough.
3. Place the dough onto a lightly floured work surface and work in the dried fruit. Knead gently for 5 mins, or until smooth and elastic.
4. Grease a large, warm mixing bowl with butter and add the dough ball, cover with a tea towel and leave in a warm place for one hour to prove.
5. Roll the proved dough onto a lightly floured work surface and knead the dough. Reshape into a ball and return to the bowl, re-cover and set aside for a further 30 mins.
6. Divide the dough into 12 equal pieces. Roll each piece into a ball, then flatten slightly into a bun. Cover the buns with the tea towel and set aside for 5-10 mins.
7. Grease a baking tray with butter then add the buns. Wrap the tray loosely in greaseproof paper and place inside a large polythene bag. Tie the end of the bag and set aside in a warm place for a further 40 mins to rise.

8. Preheat the oven to 240C/475F/Gas 8.
9. For the topping, mix the plain flour to a smooth paste with 2 tbsp of cold water.
10. When the buns have risen, remove the polythene bag and greaseproof paper. Spoon the topping mixture into a piping bag and pipe a cross on to each bun.
11. Bake the buns for 8-12 mins, or until pale golden-brown. Remove the buns from the oven, immediately brush with the hot golden syrup and place on a wire rack to cool.
