SEVEN SEAS EXPLORER® the most luxurious ship ever built™

Regent
SEVEN SEAS CRUISES®

She offers the most inclusive luxury experience and has been dubbed the most luxurious ship ever built, so it was only fitting that Regent's Seven Seas Explorer® was christened in glamorous Monte Carlo last month ahead of her inaugural voyage: a 14 night sailing from Monte Carlo to Venice.

Godmother of Seven Seas Explorer®, Her Serene Highness Princess Charlene of Monaco, cut a red velvet ribbon which sent a Primat bottle of Veuve Clicquot champagne smashing against the ship's hull to officially christen the newest member of the Regent Seven Seas Cruises® fleet. The jubilation of the bottle breaking moment was followed by a spectacular 40-minute private performance from musical maestro Andrea Bocelli.

Seven Seas Explorer® boasts one of the highest space ratios ever seen in the cruise industry, the largest suite balconies at sea and the exclusive top-of-the-ship residence with a private in-suite spa – all of this in addition to Regent's generous all-inclusive offerings of flights, shore excursions, transfers, meals, Wi-Fi and more.

THE 2017 NO-FLY ARCTIC EXPLORATION

FEATURING SPITSBERGEN & GREENLAND

Have you ever wanted to discover the enchanting region of the Arctic and experience some of the most remote and hidden parts of the world? Well, this is the moment you have been waiting for. This 27 night spellbinding journey of discovery takes in Norway, Spitsbergen, Iceland and Greenland all in one incredible cruise. Due to Black Watch's intimate size, experience cruising majestic fjords, passing countless scenic highlights and reaching the most beautiful, unexplored corners of the Arctic region those larger ships simply cannot.

Upon embarkation in Dover, you'll begin your voyage of discovery two days later in Bergen. The city's beauty presents itself immediately with its colourful timbered houses. The beautiful villages of Skjolden and Olden will follow – as well as cruising some of Norway's most famous and photographed fjords. Sitting at the end of the world's longest fjord, Skjolden is considered one of the world's most breathtaking destinations. Olden is a charming village set in green meadows which are ablaze with colourful flowers throughout the summer. You'll be lucky enough to cruise from Nærøfjord to Gudvangen – a feat only managed by smaller ships.

While at sea, you'll be enchanted by many other stunning sights; from the unusual Torghatten (Hat Mountain) to the mighty Svartisen (Black Glacier), you will head into the realms of Arctic Norway, crossing the Arctic Circle and arrive at Tromsø – the 'Gateway to the Arctic'.

Honningsvåg is the perfect starting point for optional excursions to the North Cape and the Midnight Sun, before moving on to discover glorious Spitsbergen. Lying north of mainland Norway, the largest island of the Svalbard archipelago, Spitsbergen, feels beautifully isolated from the rest of civilisation. Shrouded by snow-capped mountains, both Pyramiden and Longyearbyen exhibit a 'ghost town' feel, with abandoned Soviet-era buildings and mines, indicators of the once rich industrial heritage of the area. Keep an eye out for 'The Temple' as you glide along the Tempelfjorden, a visual treat rated as the best Norwegian destination by Fred. Olsen guests.

Akureyri, presents an unmissable opportunity to visit Godafoss, the 'Waterfall of the Gods'; alternatively, embark on an optional whalewatching excursion. As Black Watch ventures northwest, you'll pass the intriguing Dinosaur Rock, the tooth-like pinnacles of Drangaskörð, and the dominating 'King & Queen of Cliffs', before immersing yourself in the jaw-dropping network of the Westfjords.

By contrast, Greenland features a fusion of pristine waterways and gloriously isolated towns, all nestled amongst mighty mountains, vertical sea-cliffs, plummeting waterfalls and gleaming blue icebergs. Whilst ashore in Qaqortoq, take a hike along the shores of the town's Great Lake. Your other stop, Narsarsuaq, became home to a United States air base in 1941. While fascinating relics still remain, this quaint settlement is now more commonly used as a station from which adventurers explore the magical Qoroq Ice Fjord.

A breathtaking array of scenic cruising includes the island of Mykines – famed for its nesting seabirds; the unusual, arch-shaped sea stack of Drangarnir; Cape Enniberg, a remarkable feat of nature that's the northernmost point of the islands; the village of Gásadalur, much-photographed due to its iconic waterfall onrushing from the cliff's edge to the water below; and a handful of mysterious fjords flanked by soaring mountains and cliffs. A call into Tórshavn completes your journey. There's no better way to see this marvellous port than from the water. The capital is built on a hillside and as you sail into the harbour, you'll see the entire town banking up the hill before you. En route back to Dover, you'll enjoy final scenic cruising as you sail Leirvíksfjørður & Djúpini, Cape Enniberg and Svinoyarfjørður – leaving you with memories that will last a lifetime.

VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

HAVANA, CUBA

Havana has held onto its colonial heritage longer than any other city in the Caribbean and as a result, it has a grandeur and cultural diversity that is uniquely attractive. Old Havana packs five centuries of history with dozens of museums and art galleries, not to mention its 1950s American cars

CALLAO, PERU

The city's friendly people, important historical sites, quality museums and a variety of dining and entertainment establishments make Lima a very interesting place to visit. South of the city, although washed by cool South Pacific waters, the long white beaches stretch away in an uninterrupted string

FRENCH POLYNESIA

Visit two idyllic islands – Tahiti and Bora Bora – and discover paradise as you explore dramatic landscapes and beautiful beaches. Tahiti is the heart of French Polynesia and is a gem with its waterfall-laden, shadowy mountains and black-sand beaches; while Bora Bora lies 150 miles northwest in the centre of a world-famous multi-coloured lagoon

YANGON, MYANMAR

A two night stay on board offers ample time to explore this metropolis of magic. See the magnificent splendour of the Shwedagon Pagoda, a golden shrine towering to a height of 326 feet; visit the Chaukhtatgyi Pagoda with its reclining 230-foot-long Buddha statue; or marvel at the Karaweik Hall, which was built in the shape of the mythical Karaweik bird

A DESTINATION GUIDE TO SYDNEY & AUCKLAND

YOUR BREATH
WILL BE TAKEN AWAY AND YOUR CAMERA WILL BE ON OVERDRIVE

Most people dream of one day visiting the Land Down Under. With certain cruise lines now offering fabulous Pacific based itineraries taking in Australia and New Zealand, it is even easier to make this dream a reality.

Sydney, with its iconic landmarks, remarkable beaches and Aboriginal heritage is a city that will remain in your mind forever after your visit. Standing at Circular Quay with a view of the imposing Harbour Bridge in front of you and the extraordinarily beautiful Opera House across the water, your breath will be taken away and your camera will be on overdrive.

The Southern Hemisphere climate of course makes all the difference, and this is evident in the sunny personality of the city and its friendly locals. No matter where you go, a warm welcome is always guaranteed.

World-famous Bondi Beach is 20 minutes from the city centre and well worth a visit. Soft golden sands, bronzed lifeguards and sparkling ocean as far as the eye can see, it really is as you've always imagined, only better. Don't forget Manly and Coogee, two more of Sydney's equally renowned beaches.

Getting around Sydney and its suburbs couldn't be easier; everything is within easy reach. With a large proportion of the city being surrounded by water, much of your toing and froing will be via ferry. Journeys on the Sydney ferries, used by commuters, locals and tourists, are like a mini sight-seeing tour every time. Your eyes will be dancing with delight at the recognisable sights passing you by.

When you're ready for a break from touring the city, a trip to the Blue Mountains is the perfect way to refresh the eyes and enjoy the peace and quiet of this rugged area of natural beauty.

Across the Tasman Sea, Australia's Antipodean neighbour New Zealand is equally as desirable. Its largest and most important city, Auckland, is a very popular port of call.

Very small in city terms, it is easy to get around and explore the highlights.

Jutting 328 metres upwards and dominating Auckland's skyline, the uniquely designed Sky Tower is visible from all angles. It is the tallest man-made structure in the Southern Hemisphere, built atop a mini-Vegas style hotel and casino complex. You can take a trip up to the 60th level sky deck for fabulous views over Auckland and its surroundings. Dining in the revolving restaurant is also an option, as well as the 'sky-jump' for anyone feeling a little daring.

The Viaduct harbour and the Wynyard Quarter are the areas to head to in the evenings. Restaurants a plenty and a friendly atmosphere at Auckland's pretty waterfront, make for relaxed Kiwi moments.

You'll really get a taste of the Maori culture as you stroll around the city centre. It's evident in the buildings, names of the streets and the abundance of shops selling Maori-related merchandise such as traditional wood carvings. Queen Street is Auckland's main shopping strip, where you will also find All Blacks souvenirs in every other store – the pride of the nation.

Further afield from the city, picturesque landscapes and New Zealand culture is plentiful. Recommended for wine lovers is a trip to the island of Waiheke. After a 30 minute ferry ride from Auckland, you'll land on the shores of this stunning little gem which is home to no less than 24 vineyards. Sip on some world-class wines as you take in the jaw-dropping views.

We can guarantee you that Sydney and Auckland will not disappoint even the most seasoned of travelling tastes.

Turn to pages 18 & 19 to celebrate the New Year in Sydney and pages 48 & 49 to visit Auckland in 5★ luxury.

Maritime Memories

with Nigel Lingard
(Non-Executive Director, Reader Offers Ltd)

WE WERE ON HOLIDAY IN UPSTATE NEW YORK AT THE TIME OF THE EU REFERENDUM, STAYING WITH EXPAT FRIENDS WHO NOW LIVE IN THE HUDSON VALLEY. A MIX OF EUROPEAN EMIGRES ENJOYED A FUN "BREXIT PARTY" AS THE RESULTS CAME IN, WITH THOSE OF US IN THE TRAVEL INDUSTRY KEENLY DEBATING THE IMPLICATIONS AS THE OUTCOME EMERGED!

One thing we all agreed on was the resilience of British travellers, who are not easily put off their holidays by transitory events or a few inconveniences! Although there has been an early devaluation of the pound sterling, this should ease off as new trading relationships are established, and of course inbound tourism will actually benefit as the UK becomes more affordable.

The cruise business is particularly well placed at this time, with the great bulk of the holiday cost payable in sterling, so customers have little exposure to currency fluctuations. For those concerned about booking complex travel arrangements, ex UK "no-fly" cruising may well again demonstrate its appeal. As we've noted before, ever more ships are sailing from UK ports, including chic European line Silversea (see pages 42 & 43).

Another hot topic of conversation in the States was the opening up of travel possibilities to Cuba as diplomatic ties with the US are improving. The more sophisticated travellers are, like ourselves, concerned that the destination will ultimately be swamped by down-market catering brands once American capital investment is allowed, so we tend to hope for slow progress!

Right now Cuba's infrastructure is somewhere in the 50s, which gives it a certain faded charm as long as visitor numbers are limited and expectations not too high. We really enjoyed our visits to Havana and some provincial ports during the time when Fred. Olsen were developing itineraries which first included Cuba, and then sought to base programmes there. This was so significant that negotiations went right up to the Castro brothers' level. Facilities were frankly quite daunting, with airlines reluctant to operate there and port services very limited.

For those who enjoy exotic destinations with a laid-back feel, I can heartily recommend giving Cuba a try while it is still so unspoilt (join Columbus on page 12).

We finished our brief NY State visit with a dinner on a terrace overlooking the Hudson River – all in agreement that there is a fascination about boats and ships which keeps luring us back!

THE CRUISE BUSINESS IS PARTICULARLY WELL PLACED AT THIS TIME, WITH THE GREAT BULK OF THE HOLIDAY COST PAYABLE IN STERLING, SO CUSTOMERS HAVE LITTLE EXPOSURE TO CURRENCY FLUCTUATIONS.

EUROPEAN RIVERS

A way from its coastal destinations, Europe boasts several stunning waterways inland too. Stretching through the continent and reaching many fascinating cities, cruising along the rivers Danube, Douro and Saône is the perfect way to explore European treasures in comfort.

Voyage along these tranquil waters, stopping off to discover the vibrant culture and unique customs of individual countries along the river.

DANUBE

A journey along the Danube River travels through gilded Eastern European history, introducing you to the grand cities and magnificent architecture of the old empire.

Take in the sights and sounds at a private world-class concert held at Vienna's Palais Liechtenstein, where Mozart and Strauss fill the high ceilings. Disembark in Austria for a guided tour through the iconic Benedictine Abbey, from its hillside position overlooking the baroque city of Melk. End your Eastern expedition by calling into Prague, whose success in the Romanesque, Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque eras is demonstrated through some of the finest architecture and attractions in the world.

An opulent mix of thermal spas, royal palaces and charming market places, the experiences that await you on the banks of the Danube are a world away from modern Western Europe.

DOURO

Iberian flair and livelihood are all around as you wind through the Douro River's twists and turns to visit ancient landscapes and medieval townships.

Visit Porto, the second largest city in Portugal and home to the similarly named tippie of choice. Here, you'll relish port made from the produce of the sloping vineyards surrounding the region, and perfected recipes handed down through the generations. In Lamego, climb the staggering 686 steps to explore the humble origins at the 18th century pilgrimage point – Santuário de Nossa Senhora dos Remédios church.

The Douro is a celebration of the old way of life in Europe, with spectacular scenery and virtually untouched municipalities.

RHÔNE AND SAÔNE

Enjoy the produce of the land on a cruise down the Rhône and Saône Rivers, sampling the best wines and culinary offerings along Southern France's provincial heritage cities and towns.

Find France's proud Provençal customs in the city of Avignon, which was once the global seat of the Roman Catholic Church in the 14th century and later played a key role in the historic events of the French Revolution. Likewise, the past is palpable in Mâcon – as you'll discover in the ecclesiastical Cathédral Saint-Vincent de Mâcon. Lift a glass to the full-bodied eastern region of Bourgogne-Franche-Comté when you visit Chalon-sur-Saône, where Burgundy wine continues to ripen in the nearby vineyards. If a taste of France is on the menu, Lyon is a city known for its rich gastronomical dishes, including the tender meat quenelle.

Rural charm meets sophistication along the Rhône and Saône Rivers, and you'll always find the freshest ingredients, lovingly prepared, in Provence and beyond into France's gastronomic centre.

To sail along some of Europe's most beautiful waterways, turn to pages 23-25

Single Cabin

Verandah Restaurant

PORT OUT - AND BACK AS WELL!

Forget the spruced up King's Court, all-new Carinthia Lounge and those single cabins. Want to know the best new feature on Cunard's Queen Mary 2 following her multi-million-dollar makeover? The port wall.

I confess I was a little underwhelmed when told there is a port wall. A wall on the left? It didn't sound very exciting. Turns out it was not a port wall, but a wall of port. You know, the fortified stuff from Portugal, invented incidentally in the late 1600s to stop wine from spoiling when being exported to England.

Even if you don't like port, you can't help but get excited about this. Anthony Habert, Carnival UK's head of beverage services and a walking encyclopedia on all things tippable, has managed to secure 46 port vintages produced in momentous years starting with 1840 (when Cunard launched).

There's some from 1851, the date London hosted the Great Exhibition and 1863, when President Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation freeing the slaves in the US. A 1934 Ferreira was produced the year Cunard launched the original Queen Mary and Hitler came to power in Germany. The list goes on and on.

The 1840s bottles are so rare there are only 30-40 left in the world. If you want to buy one, it will set you back a mere $4,450. Hmm. Much cheaper to book one of the port flights, where a sommelier will guide you through tasting four varieties. There are three flights, with prices from $10.95.

If port isn't your tippable, how about chocolate? Sir Samuel's is now a coffee shop selling seriously over-the-top Belgian Godiva chocolate. I indulged in a cone full of chocolate ice cream, dipped croissant pieces in chocolate fondue and tried a few milk chocolates. Naughty? You bet. But so nice!

I was on QM2 for eight nights, sailing from Southampton to New York on her first voyage after the refit so there was plenty of time to see the changes.

Cunard called it 'remastering', which is very American but does give you a sense that this was more than a mid-life facelift. Indeed, over the course of 25 days £90 million was lavished on the ship. Furniture and furnishings have been renewed (there's enough new carpet to cover 10 football pitches) and there were some major changes to the hardware.

The glass elevators have gone from the atrium, making that space larger and less cluttered, and 15 single cabins have been added. I managed to peek into one and was impressed. No balcony, but it had two large round windows that let in plenty of light, a small double bed (somewhere between a single and standard double) and a walk-in glass-fronted shower.

I was in a swanky Princess Grills Suite with a balcony and walk-in wardrobe, but you had to climb into the bath to have a shower and both were adorned with a drab shower curtain. Hopefully that will change in the next refit.

The Winter Garden has become the tasteful Carinthia Lounge and by day two of the voyage was established as a favourite place for morning coffee and light bites at lunchtime. In the King's Court self-service, there are now separate serving stations, at a stroke banishing queues.

As before, a section of the King's Court becomes a waiter-service speciality restaurant in the evenings. However, alongside the Italian, Indian, Asian and Mexican eateries that previously popped up on selected evenings, there is a Smokehouse restaurant. It's American BBQ food, full of taste and a bargain at $15 per person.

The Verandah Restaurant that has replaced Todd English is posher but also great value at $35 per person. The menu is French with leisurely Gallic-style service to match so if you like to see the shows, start eating early!

Happily some things have not changed. I saw two shows in the Planetarium, attended lectures on the history of liner travel, cruising and New York's iconic skyscrapers by self-confessed ship nut Bill Miller and a behind-the-scenes look at the events on the night of the Brighton bombing in 1984 by Barry Cave, one of the detectives called to the Grand Hotel after the blast.

I went to a line-dancing class, tried Thai reflexology treatment in the Canyon Ranch Spa and sweated in the sauna and steam room in the thermal suite. And of course I drank port. Not the 1840 bottle, you understand, but I tasted my way through two flights. That's eight varieties.

So decadent, but then as Bill explained in his excellent talks, that's what transatlantic travel is all about!

A SNEAK PEEK

Hard on the heels of my transatlantic crossing, I was lucky enough to spend five nights on the most luxurious ship ever built, Regent Seven Seas Cruises' new Seven Seas Explorer®.

Does she live up to the billing? You'll have to wait for my report in next month's Blue Horizons but to whet your appetite, I must mention the leather flooring in the library, the stunning hand-made chandeliers and an imitation Tibetan prayer wheel that weighs as much as a car...!

CRUISE HIGHLIGHTS

BAY OF ISLANDS, NEW ZEALAND

The Bay of Islands is a subtropical micro-region renowned for its unmatched beauty and abundance of activities. The beaches here are considered some of the world's finest and when you witness the perfect white sand and crystal waters, you'll soon see why. But it is so much more than a pretty face. Many consider this the ideal place to partake in more active pursuits, such as kayaking, mountain biking, parasailing and scuba diving. Plus, it is home to several historical attractions including the Mission House, the Stone Store and the historic Waitangi Treaty Grounds, Birthplace of the Nation. Whether you're looking for sun-kissed beaches, exciting activities or cultural points of interest, the Bay of Islands has it all

BORA BORA, FRENCH POLYNESIA

Bora Bora is universally revered as the quintessential holiday destination for hopeless romantics. And why not? If its idyllic location isn't captivating enough, there's the sheer decadent beauty of the place. Silky stretches of deserted white sand, the rocky black peaks of Mount Otemanu and Mount Pahia - and all of it bounded by a necklace of coral gardens dotting a fish-filled lagoon. Maybe this explains why honeymooners and Hollywood types have been enchanted with this Polynesian pearl for decades. The Lagoonarium offers one of the most natural aquarium experiences where you can actually snorkel amongst the many different kinds of fish, turtles, rays and sharks

MOOREA, FRENCH POLYNESIA

Moorea's lush, jagged vistas, encircled by deep blue ocean resemble a vast star-shaped garden, branching out into eight valleys. One of the best islands for adventure, you can indulge in a number of water activities including snorkelling, paddle-boarding, fishing and even parasailing. Coined as one of the most scenically striking islands in French Polynesia, you can be sure that whatever your choice of activity, you will do it against a backdrop of sheer paradise. In spite of its popularity, Moorea has managed to retain its small-island charm and the locals are inherently proud of their Tahitian lifestyle
