ROL NEWS: SUMMER 2016

St. Paul de Vence

Head of Client Retention, Lucy Barwood, recently enjoyed a historical, cultural and natural discovery with Voyages to Antiquity and shares her experience...

When I am offered the opportunity to visit a cruise ship, there is absolutely no twisting of arms necessary and my most recent cruising love affair, as of 2016 is Aegean Odyssey.

She's small, perfectly formed, and carries just 350 guests across her seven passenger decks. She boasts two main dining areas, a wonderfully light and airy lounge and absolutely bag-loads of charm.

I am one of those cruisers who really enjoys good food; and amazing food is plentiful on a Voyages to Antiquity cruise. Of course as excellent as the cuisine is when cruising with this line, it's just one of the many reasons I'm so impressed with their offering.

When you're visiting destinations as fascinating as Aegean Odyssey will take you, it's arguably important to spend as much time as possible exploring ashore. Being such a petite vessel means she's able to sneak into tiny ports of call – almost without being noticed. Her small stature is also something that appeals to the many people who cruise with her due to her ability to visit such interesting ports and her easy-to-navigate layout.

Voyages to Antiquity pride themselves on the fascinating educational programmes they offer on board. Historians with decades of knowledge wander amongst the guests, speaking passionately at every opportunity about the intriguing destinations. Their stories are told with so much energy and interest that even those who feel they've researched their ports of call in great detail will scribble away on their notepads!

The team always ensure that your Voyages to Antiquity cruise will be as varied as you'd like it to be. On board, choose to relax in the well-stocked library or take a novel to read on deck – or for the more energetic there's a small gym – the options really are endless.

My experience on board shows that you will find like-minded guests interested in getting to the heart of spectacular destinations and a well-planned journal of shore excursions, designed to enlighten and excite with excellent guides.

From a Voyages to Antiquity cruise you'll return pampered, refreshed, with a phonebook full of new friends, and educated beyond your expectations after taking a 'traditional' cruise.

FIRST STEEL CUT FOR SEABOURN'S NEWEST

Ultra-Luxury Vessel

In June, the world's finest ultra-luxury cruise line, Seabourn, were proud to take a step closer to the launch of their brand new ship Seabourn Ovation, with the cutting of the first steel. The event was held in Genoa, Italy and Seabourn's President Richard Meadows and Genoa shipyard Director Raffaele Davassi were in attendance for this poignant moment. Matched only by the beauty of her sister ship, Seabourn Encore, expectations are high for the unveiling of this stunning vessel in spring 2018. Seabourn Ovation will expand upon the line's already existing, award-winning status to showcase extraordinary design, highly-acclaimed craftsmanship and a level of personalised service that is second-to-none. Sister ship Seabourn Encore will debut in late 2016 and with the addition of Seabourn Ovation, Seabourn will have the youngest and most modern ultra-luxury fleet in the industry.

14 NIGHTS DEPARTING 29TH JUNE & 8TH AUGUST 2017

Day 1 Embark Aegean Odyssey and depart London Tilbury

Day 2 Relaxing at sea

Day 3 Rosyth (for Edinburgh) Scotland

As the capital city of Scotland, Edinburgh manages to combine both ancient and modern in a uniquely Scottish atmosphere. Watched over by the imposing castle – the symbol of the city – Edinburgh showcases many medieval relics. Why not take a visit* to the Scotch Whisky Experience, admire Stirling Castle or explore Edinburgh's lowland malt distillery, Glenkinchie, in Pencaitland, East Lothian

Day 4 Kirkwall, Orkney Islands

Kirkwall is a characterful town with many hidden delights. Discover Neolithic highlights such as the Maes Howe burial chamber, the henge and stone circle as well as the well-preserved settlement of Skara Brae. Or, if wandering paved streets and winding lanes appeals, then Kirkwall has plenty for you to explore

Day 5 Relaxing at sea

Combining the best of traditional elegance with all the modern conveniences of a first-class ship, Aegean Odyssey offers the most exquisite cruising experience. With a day at sea, why not take advantage of all on board amenities including, a choice of three lounges, four bars and the Athena Health Spa & Gym

Day 6 Heimaey, Iceland

Heimaey is the only inhabited island of the Westman Islands, but it still retains its inspiring rugged landscape of jagged lava. Here, you will enjoy an afternoon visit to Eldfell, the 'mountain of fire', and visit the island's sheer cliffs and puffin colonies

Day 7 Reykjavík, Iceland

The surrounding waters of Reykjavík are prime whale-spotting territory, so keep your eyes peeled and your camera at the ready as you approach this land of fire and ice. Iceland's epic landscape defies description. The greenest of valleys, the blackest of beaches, the bluest of hot geothermal springs, icy waterfalls and the still-warm lava fields. Reykjavík intrigues, with brightly coloured roofs, vibrant cafés and boutiques. Highlights include the Hallgrímskirkja cathedral, Gullfoss Waterfall, Strokkur Geyser and Thingvellir

Day 8 Ísafjörður, Iceland

This Icelandic metropolis is utterly enchanting – modernism collides with the clear, dark waters of the fjord and the majestic landscapes provide a dramatic backdrop. In spite of its prosperity, Ísafjörður retains much of its charm including timber and tin-clad buildings in its centre. Whilst here, visit the maritime museum or take a boat trip to nearby Vigur Island, known for its large colony of puffins

Day 9 Akureyri, Iceland

Although only 100km from the Arctic Circle, a warm micro-climate allows for the world's most northerly botanical garden, filled with exotic plants. What's more, whale-watching doesn't come any better, so grab your binoculars and head out onto the bay. Make sure you discover the landscape of pseudo-craters, lava and geothermal fields

Day 10 Húsavík, Iceland

A stop in Húsavík will provide you with the ideal chance to take a whale-watching boat trip* or, for landlubbers, there are plenty of colourful houses, intriguing museums and sensational views of the surrounding snow-capped mountains to catch your eye

Day 11 Relaxing at sea

Day 12 Tórshavn, Faroe Islands

As you arrive in the capital of the Danish Faroe Islands, make sure you discover the prolific birdlife and admire the quirky, colourful turf-roofed houses

Day 13 Lerwick, Shetland Islands

Don't miss out on a visit to the Shetland Museum, showcasing 5,000 years of culture, people, and their influence on this ancient landscape. The Shetland Islands are also home to the free-roaming Shetland pony, isolated areas where traditional crafts flourish and the prehistoric Norse settlement of Jarlshof

CRUISE HIGHLIGHTS

MANILA, PHILIPPINES

Known as the 'Pearl of the Orient', Filipino capital Manila offers a wealth of sights. Vastly underrated by many, this quirky city is incredibly diverse – for one minute you could be admiring the leafy plazas and colonial houses in Intramuros, and the next you could be enjoying the authenticity of bustling China Town with its antique markets, street food and incredible shopping opportunities. Be sure to visit the mega-malls of this modern metropolis, but don't forget to enjoy the humble artisan markets too.

CORON, PHILIPPINES

If you are looking for some excitement on your cruise, then look no further than Coron. A prime spot for underwater explorers as you can dive amid the Japanese shipwrecks of the 1940s. Or for those who enjoy exploration, discover the local jungle on a trek or enjoy a guided mangrove kayak tour which will quench your thirst for all things adventure. Inland, the main enchantment of Coron can be found in the form of the staggeringly beautiful lakes of Kayangan and Barracuda.
