Celebrity Cruises® – Taking Modern Luxury to The Edge®

In last month's edition, we shared the news that Celebrity Cruises® will be adding a brand new class of ships to their fleet, with Celebrity Edge® launching in autumn 2018. We are now excited to announce that these brand new voyages are on sale this month. For more information and to be one of the first to book, please call our Cruise Specialists today!

UNVEIL BRAND NEW SHIP

Norwegian Cruise Line announced earlier this year that the 16th ship in their fleet will be the Norwegian Bliss.

Offering guests the freedom and flexibility to "imagine bliss" and create their ideal experience at sea, the wide range of accommodation will include luxurious suites in The Haven by Norwegian®, Studio Staterooms for solo travellers with virtual ocean views and new connecting staterooms - ideal for large groups and families travelling together.

Guests staying in The Haven will experience incredible benefits, such as the services of a butler and a private concierge, as well as priority access to reservations, VIP embarkation and disembarkation, exclusive reserved seating in the ship's theatre and much more.

Brand new features include the 180° Observation Lounge: a breathtaking experience, offering floor-to-ceiling windows that will be the perfect spot from which to take in the stunning sunset views, where guests can enjoy fine cocktails and spirits.

Norwegian Bliss will homeport in Alaska for her inaugural summer season in 2018, before moving to Miami for the winter, where she will sail seven-day Caribbean sailings on a weekly basis.

To book your place on Norwegian Bliss' maiden transatlantic voyage from Southampton to New York, please turn to page 18

CELEBRITY SILHOUETTE® HIGHLIGHTS

FINEST FOOD

Foodies, welcome to heaven! On every Celebrity Cruises® ship you will find a selection of award-winning restaurants. Our favourite here at ROL Cruise is Qsine®, which offers a culinary journey filled with surprise and delight. Make sure you try specialities such as Sushi on Five – created by fourth-generation sushi chef, Yoshikazu Okada.

THE LAWN CLUB GRILL

Celebrity's newest restaurant (available only on Celebrity Silhouette® and *Celebrity Reflection*SM) celebrates the flavourful joys of outdoor grilling. The highlight of dining at the Lawn Club Grill is the opportunity to serve as your party's "Grill Master," by being paired with a Celebrity chef to assist in preparing the menu for your table over custom-built, ventilated grills. In an open-air setting with views of the ocean and Lawn Club, you can enjoy the freedom of al fresco dining, whilst being in control of roasting mouthwatering joints of meat and seafood to perfection.

THE ALCOVES

Designed for secluded relaxation, the eight chic, cabana-style settings can cater for up to eight guests. A mere stone's throw away from the lively Lawn Club, the Alcoves provide stunning views, ambient mood lighting, complimentary fresh fruit, chilled towels, complimentary water and all-day use of an iPad®.

MY EXPERIENCE A BOARD QUEEN MARY 2

ROL Cruise's Lucy Barwood Head of Customer Experience, recounts her experience aboard the iconic Queen Mary 2 and provides her top tips on how you can get the most from your transatlantic voyage.

A transatlantic crossing on board Queen Mary 2 is undoubtedly worthy of a place on your bucket list. Until a couple of years ago, it was on my list too, along with a gondola ride in Venice and seeing the Northern Lights. I haven't ticked off the Northern Lights yet, but the Queen Mary 2 lived up to my every expectation and more.

From the second she came into view as I approached the dock in Southampton and saw her towering over the terminal building, I knew it was going to be a special trip.

A HOME AWAY FROM HOME - CHOOSING YOUR STATEROOM

When you're booking a transatlantic crossing, the type of accommodation you choose is pretty important. My advice is to book early so that you have the pick of all the accommodation types. For me, a Balcony Stateroom was the obvious choice: I just loved having breakfast on my balcony each morning, and throwing the doors open to let the sea breeze blow through whilst getting ready for dinner in the evening or taking a nap.

Although I opted for a Balcony, the Inside and Ocean View Staterooms are also well appointed and incredibly comfortable. Every room on board is very spacious and comes with all the mod-cons you'd expect from a modern-day ship. To my delight, my room also provided ample wardrobe space.

EXQUISITE CUISINE - MY PICK OF THE BEST EATERIES ON BOARD

Dining on board Queen Mary 2 was an experience in itself. I dined at the Britannia Restaurant most evenings, and really enjoyed the formal nights which at last gave me the opportunity to wear one of my glamorous dresses. The table was situated just below a huge and impressive tapestry of the ship, which stretched right up to the top level – it was quite a conversation starter!

13 DECKS OF ENTERTAINMENT - DON'T MISS THESE EXPERIENCES

With a staggering 13 decks, Queen Mary 2 is an entertainment playground of dining, dancing, and socialising. I quickly came to realise that she's a destination in herself, which is what makes her the perfect ship on which to cross oceans. A cruise like this is all about being on board, losing track of time and relishing in the lost art of relaxation.

Saying goodbye to Queen Mary 2

For me, cruising the world with Cunard remains the single most incredible way to spend time away from home. The only way that these voyages could be topped is if we could stay on board forever. Failing this, I'd settle for bringing the crew home with us, to enjoy the White Star Service, the captivating show entertainment and the music that fills the air every evening.

MY PERSONAL HIGHLIGHTS WERE:

1. STARGAZING AT THE PLANETARIUM

Queen Mary 2 was the first Cunard ship to receive a planetarium and it's well worth a visit. I visited on multiple occasions during my trip – it was hugely relaxing and educational at the same time!

2. PAMPERING AT THE SPACLUB

Cunard has remained loyal to the Canyon Ranch Spa brand since Queen Mary 2 first set sail and I loved it. The SpaClub is perfect for indulging in their signature massages, treatments, and facials. There are also sensory showers, an ice fountain, and a finish sauna. I'd recommend you try them all.

3. LEARNING NEW SKILLS

The team on board work hard to ensure that your trip is as fulfilling and enriching as you please and there's so much to choose from. My attempts at acting at the RADA workshop were laughable but fun at the same time; there were plenty of seminars and lectures from academics and politicians on board. I'm not much of a dancer myself but our friends we sat with at dinner had become quite the professionals from attending the daily dance classes. They definitely showed us a thing or two in the Queen's Ballroom!

MARITIME MEMORIES

with Nigel Lingard
(Non-Executive Director, Reader Offers Ltd)

ONE OF MY LONG-STANDING TRAVEL TRADE COMMITMENTS IS SERVING ON ABTA'S MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE, WHERE WE MONITOR MEMBER COMPANIES' FINANCIAL SITUATION AND THE SECURITY PROVIDED TO CUSTOMERS.

We are very proud of the UK's consumer protection record, with ABTA and ATOL ensuring possibly the best coverage of any country in the world.

This was well demonstrated in 2016 when a large tour operator which had chosen to base itself under Spanish regulations ceased trading, leaving many clients out of pocket. Recently we saw the sad demise of Voyages of Discovery and Swan Hellenic, but their ABTA and ATOL coverage has ensured the protection of customer payments. Arranging alternative holidays and helping with the repayment process has taken a lot of time for the Reader Offers team – but we are so glad to be able to help achieve a positive outcome.

In time, doubtless other cruise lines will offer products to suit the clients who had so taken to the lost brands. Their wide-ranging itineraries reflected the remarkable breadth of cruise choices now on offer – just look through this edition to see ships sailing both Arctic and Antarctic waters, plus the Atlantic, Indian and Pacific Oceans!

Arctic itineraries really took off after Joanna Lumley's Northern Lights show on TV, with enthusiasm to see the Aurora Borealis now on most people's bucket list. Although sailings from UK ports are available, we chose to fly up to Bergen and join Hurtigruten for our memorable winter trip a few years back (see the opposite page).

THE POPULARITY OF CRUISES SAILING FROM UK PORTS CONTINUES TO GROW

With their fleet development project of new expedition ships, Hurtigruten look set to dominate ice-pack sailings at both ends of the globe! However there are alternatives to the rather hands-on expedition style, with larger traditional cruise ships offering Antarctic voyages, albeit with no actual landings permitted – the maximum group size of 50, and the need for specialist landing boats, will always restrict access ashore (turn to pages 14-15).

Closer to home, the popularity of cruises sailing from UK ports continues to grow, further fuelled by the recent weakness of sterling and international uncertainties. We are spoilt for choice here in Britain, from the affordable Cruise & Maritime Voyages ships up to Cunard's mighty transatlantic liner. Oh dear, where to go next?!

Porto, Portugal

CRUISING PORTUGAL'S River of Gold

There is a saying in Portugal that women should be like sardines – short and stubby. It doesn't sound too complimentary, but it's not quite so bad when you discover that the Portuguese love their sardines.

It's one of many amusing local idioms I discovered when cruising the Douro River in Northern Portugal with Scenic last August. My favourite is that the climate is nine months of winter, three months of hell, the 'hell' being June, July and August when the thermometer can soar to 40 degrees Centigrade and beyond.

It didn't get that hot when I was there, but after a couple of surprisingly chilly days in Porto, Portugal's second-largest city, as wind blew in from the Atlantic. The temperature picked up nicely as we glided along the Douro on Scenic Azure, past craggy cliffs and vineyards that are so steep they have to be tended by hand, and transited deep locks built between 1964 and 1985 to tame what had been a raging torrent.

In the days before roads and railways the river was the only way for wine-growers to get their grapes to Porto. It took two to three days for their small wooden boats, called rabelos, to get down the river from Regua, in the heart of wine-growing country, but three weeks or more to get back as the vessels had to be pulled by men and oxen.

By the time the Portuguese thought to build locks to make the river navigable, the wine growers were transporting their wares by road, but it was still money well spent because a local entrepreneur had an idea that the Douro would be perfect for river cruising. Given the number of boats now ploughing up and down the river, I think it can safely be said that he was right.

Scenic only launched Scenic Azure in April last year. She is modelled on the company Rhine and Danube fleet but is quite a bit smaller (96 passengers instead of 169) and has been tweaked here and there to suit her Portuguese home.

Table La Rive, an exclusive dining option for passengers in cabins and suites on Diamond Deck, has been renamed Table d'Or (the Douro is known as the river of gold although bizarrely no one seems to know exactly why!). Many of the wines served on board are from Portugal and menus in Portobellos restaurant and the main dining room feature local dishes.

Entertainment also has a Portuguese twist, with talks about local culture and traditions, language lessons and, one evening, a ceremonial opening of a bottle of vintage port (which I am happy to report we then drank!). Most important, in honour of those hot summers, there is a small swimming pool on the sun deck.

to love Porto...”*

Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and the Daily Telegraph Travel's cruise expert. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for ten years.

While others dipped in its cool waters, I enjoyed the sun and scenery while sipping a spicy Bloody Mary or two – an indulgence you can afford on Scenic as unlimited drinks are included in the price, as are flights, transfers, all shore excursions and dining, gratuities and Wi-Fi. In fact you don't need to dip into your pocket for anything on board other than a treatment in the small spa.

Mine was an 11-day cruise that started and ended in Porto, which one has to love if only because it gave its name to the famous fortified wine made from grapes grown in the Douro Valley.

Actually a guided tour showed there were many more reasons to love Porto, which has beautiful churches, imposing architecture and grand squares, but also a lovely lived-in feel. There were people, cafés and restaurants everywhere so hat's off to Paula, our guide, who made sure no one got lost in the crowds with the help of Elisabete, one of three trainee cruise managers who accompanied the tours each day. All were from Portugal and travelling with us to learn the ropes from the Cruise Director.

Mateus Palace

I could have stayed people-watching in Porto for hours, but we had to be back on board Scenic Azure for the afternoon sailaway, which meant cruising beneath the six bridges that connect the city with Gaia, where many of the famous port wine houses are based. The views were just fabulous.

Once out of the buzzing big city, life on the Douro slowed down with trips to sleepy towns and medieval villages (Guimarães, where in 1128 Afonso I became the first king of Portugal; Regua, which has an excellent wine museum; the Mateus Palace, the manor depicted on bottles of Mateus rosé, which houses a priceless collection of books, furniture and reliquaries) until you reach Vega de Terron.

This is another sleepy village but it is in Spain, not Portugal, and important because it marks the end of the navigational part of the Douro (river cruise boats have to turn around and sail the 130 miles back to Porto) and is the jumping off point for tours to the Spanish city of Salamanca.

It takes about two hours to get there but it is worth the long drive for the scenery, which passes through a national park, pretty hamlets and sprawling farmland, and to see Salamanca itself, which is real Spain, without wall-to-wall souvenir shops and English pubs.

Known as the Golden City because it is built in sandstone, it houses the oldest university in Spain, dating back to 1218, as well as Plaza Mayor, one of the country's biggest squares.

We peeked inside the 'old' 12th century Romanesque cathedral and 'new' Gothic-style basilica, which was started in the 16th century and took 250 years to build, entered the Santa Barbara Chapel where students took exams right up until the 19th century and tasted local Jamon Iberico (cured ham) on a tour of the market. The city is beautiful, the architecture stunning, but I have to admit that was the highlight of my day!

Ray and Sandra

Getting to know you

An interview with Ray and Sandra Buttle – ROL Cruise Ambassadors

Ray, 73, and Sandra, 61, are a retired couple who live in Colchester and travel the world aboard cruise ships as Ambassadors for ROL Cruise. We interviewed them both to understand more about how they came to be Ambassadors, what a typical day looks like and to hear about their favourite cruising memories.

Q: How did you become an Ambassador for ROL and what appealed to you about it?

A: RAY: "We heard that ROL were looking for couples to become Ambassadors to support their clients on specific Fred. Olsen cruises. We really liked the concept – combining our love for travel with meeting new people. We thought it was certainly a more active way of spending our retirement together!"

Q: Before you became an ROL Ambassador, had you ever been on a cruise holiday?

A: SANDRA: "We had only ever been on a couple of mini cruises together. One from Cyprus to the Holy Lands, and another from Miami; neither of us had ever cruised before on any of the large ocean cruise liners."

Q: Can you recall your first cruise as ROL Ambassadors?

A: SANDRA: "Our first cruise as Ambassadors was on the Solar Eclipse voyage in March 2015 and we have been on the go ever since! We usually spend two weeks here in England and then two weeks away on a cruise, although there are itineraries that take us further afield for longer periods of time; it really varies."

Q: Which places have you visited so far?

A: RAY & SANDRA: "In the short time we have been working as ROL Cruise Ambassadors, we have been to Monaco, for the Grand Prix; the Caribbean and Amazon; the Seychelles, Mauritius and a 76 night cruise of Africa – that was an absolutely amazing experience. We've also been on some UK and Ireland tours, calling into Cork and up to the Shetlands – seeing your own local shores can be just as relaxing as being further afield."

Q: Tell me about a typical day for an Ambassador.

A: RAY: "No day is ever the same!" SANDRA: "I think that's one of the reasons why we love it actually! Typically sea days are what we call 'desk days'. We get up for breakfast and go to the ROL desk for around 9am. We set up and are then available for guests to come and talk to us throughout the morning until around midday. Guests come and sit and chat to us about anything and everything. Ray is a great listener!"

Q: What do your guests like about the ROL Ambassadors?

A: SANDRA: "A lot of guests say that they really like and appreciate the service. For some guests it is invaluable. People do worry about organisation, being at the right place at the right time, or about general travel logistics. We often hear that guests feel reassured that we are on hand."

Q: What's been your most memorable destination so far?

A: SANDRA: "For me it has to be Cape Town – amazing scenery, a fabulous place to visit." RAY: "I like the hustle and bustle of New York. We went in the winter and even though the weather was cold and damp, we still made the most of our visit. We were able to get the boat tour to Staten Island and Ellis Island, and of course enjoyed the local hospitality at some local bars and eateries."

Q: So when you're not doing your ROL Cruise Ambassador roles, where can we find you?

A: RAY & SANDRA: "Outside of cruising for us it's family time, we spend as much time as possible having fun together before we are off on our travels again."

Experience the Difference

Using Cruise Miles is the smarter way to make your cruise holidays work harder for you. Not only can you enjoy your well-earned cruise knowing that you've secured the best value deal, but as you are already a member of our exclusive rewards programme you can treat yourself to a host of added extras.

The more you earn – the more you save

Cruise Miles Tips

- Already booked your perfect cruise? If later on you choose to upgrade your cabin or flight, the Cruise Miles you have earned will increase, giving you more future savings. So why not treat yourself to that balcony cabin you've been admiring? It's not too late.
- Remember to ask your Cruise Consultant what your Cruise Miles are worth and you can save money every time you book.
- Choose to arrive for your cruise refreshed and ready to go, by using your Cruise Miles towards the cost of a pre-cruise hotel stay with one of our preferred partners; it could cost you absolutely nothing.
- For every pound you spend with ROL Cruise you will earn 1 Cruise Mile. Many of our customers have enjoyed a cruise for next to nothing by accumulating their Cruise Miles for a significant saving.

Cruise Miles can only be earned and redeemed when booking with ROL Cruise. If you are a regular cruiser and are a member of your preferred cruise line's own membership scheme, rest assured that you will also earn any credits you are entitled to, even when booking with us.

Lemon Sauce PUDDING

PREP TIME - 30 MINS
COOK TIME - 50 MINS
SERVES 6

INGREDIENTS

- 60g (2oz) unsalted butter, softened
- 185g (6oz) sugar
- 3 eggs, yolks & whites separated
- 2tsp finely grated lemon zest
- 40g (1½ oz) self-raising flour
- 185ml (6fl oz) milk
- 80ml (3fl oz) lemon juice
- Icing sugar, to dust

METHOD

1. Start by heating the oven to 160°C (gas mark 2-3). Meanwhile grease a deep 1.25l soufflé or ovenproof dish.
2. Beat the butter, sugar, egg yolks and lemon zest together until light and fluffy. Fold in small amounts of the flour and milk, until all used, to make a smooth batter before stirring in the lemon juice.
3. In a separate bowl whisk the egg whites until they form soft peaks as you pull the whisk out.
4. Gently fold the whisked egg whites into the batter.
4. Pour the batter into the greased dish. Place the dish in a deep roasting tin and carefully pour enough boiling water into the tin to come a third of the way up the sides of the dish. Carefully place in the oven and bake for about 50 minutes, or until the top is golden, firm to the touch and risen.
5. Dust with icing sugar and serve with cream.
