Experience the Difference

New Year, New Beginnings

We are incredibly proud of where Reader Offers Ltd is today and of our achievements over the last 20 years. 2015 was a fantastic year for us; celebrating our milestone and inviting our customers to enjoy our success with exciting promotions and opportunities.

Here at Reader Offers Ltd we are continually looking at ways to improve your experience of dealing with us and ultimately raising the level of service that we provide to you. I am proud and delighted to announce a series of new initiatives that I hope will only enhance your experience with us.

Introducing ROL Cruise

As ROL Cruise, we stand by the same ethos and standards: to deliver excellence in everything we do, and to look after your cruise holidays as if they were our own.

The company logo you see today has been unchanged since we opened for business in 1995; and although our business values remain unchanged, and many of our team members have been with us for as long as our logo has, we felt it was time for a new look.

We feel our new logo further embellishes all the brand qualities that we have demonstrated over the last 21 years, and will continue to, well into the future. The strapline is certainly relevant to you, our valued clients; 'Experience the Difference'. This is because we have simply raised the bar of our levels of service and as a result I hope you really do 'Experience the Difference'.

We have been busy over the last year, surveying thousands of ROL customers about their experiences with our website. ROL NEWS: JANUARY 2017

Last month ROL Cruise donated £6,000 to the Royal British Legion's Poppy Appeal.

This was raised from £10 per booking made from 6th-13th November. We have rounded the figure up to donate an incredible £6,000 to the charity!

The Royal British Legion is a charity whose objectives are written in its Royal Charter. The donation will go towards looking after serving and ex-servicemen, women and their dependants who are in need.

- Sat 17 Buenos Aires, Argentina
- Sun 18 Punta del Este, Uruguay (depart late night)
Punta del Este and the handful of surrounding beachfront communities are, famously, jet-set resorts – places where lounging on golden sand and browsing designer boutiques constitute the day's most demanding activities

Wed 21 Puerto Madryn, Argentina

Sat 24 Ushuaia, Argentina
At 55 degrees latitude south, Ushuaia is closer to the South Pole than to Argentina's northern border with Bolivia. It is the capital and tourism base for Tierra del Fuego, the island at the southernmost tip of Argentina. Although its stark physical beauty is striking, Tierra del Fuego's historical allure is based more on its mythical past than on rugged reality

Sun 25 Cruising the Chilean Fjords

Tue 27 Cruising the Chilean Fjords
Winding through the vast expanses of the Chilean Fjords will reveal mountains looming on both sides, waterfalls, and the marvel of hardy flora clinging to barren rocks. Seals and dolphins patrol the length of these uninhabited fjords as they have done for millennia

Tue 6 Iquique, Chile ★MAIDEN PORT★

Iquique may give off gentle vibes of Miami – think majestic gold beaches and palm-tree lined boardwalks – but there's no denying the fact that this city has a relaxed swagger of its own. As something of a surfer's paradise, the turquoise ocean constantly calls out, and if a sense of adventure takes hold, you can leave the peace of the golden sand to crest rolling waves, kayak beside playful dolphins, or skirt over the waves while paragliding

Thu 8 Pisco, Peru

Lending its name to the clear brandy that is Peru's favourite tipple and a source of fierce national pride, the coastal town of Pisco and its surroundings hold a special place in the national psyche. It's the point where the Argentinean hero General San Martín landed with his troops to fight for Peru's freedom from Spanish rule

Maritime Memories

with Nigel Lingard
(Non-Executive Director, Reader Offers Ltd)

WITH A NEW LOUVRE MUSEUM AND MORE FAMILY THEME PARKS ADDING TO FERRARI WORLD AND ALL THE DESERT ACTIVITIES, A LOT IS CERTAINLY GOING ON IN ABU DHABI

The UK travel industry's major annual get-together is the ABTA Travel Convention, with the 2016 host city being Abu Dhabi. Clearly some "petrolheads" must have been involved in the planning, as the venue itself was a grand hotel right inside the Yas Marina Grand Prix motor racing circuit. Fortunately the insulation was good, as our room faced the pit straight with cars out on practise screaming by! Bizarrely, there were cycling clubs and walkers circulating the track in the evenings as the temperatures eased.

Out in the port the cruise terminal now hosts ships from MSC and Costa as it vies with Dubai for the Gulf winter sun cruise season. More interesting itineraries out into the Indian Ocean are being developed, and the port is making efforts to attract more up-market cruise lines to call. With a new Louvre

Museum and more family theme parks adding to Ferrari World and all the desert activities, a lot is certainly going on in Abu Dhabi.

(Abu Dhabi to Rome with Celebrity Cruises – page 48)

Much discussion at the Convention was about long-term planning and how best to future-proof business in an increasingly uncertain world. With economic futurologists and political observers all quite flummoxed by the Brexit vote, there was lively debate as to what lies ahead for us all, holiday providers or holidaymakers!

Clearly the current situation has best favoured two rather opposite types of business. Very large organisations with economies of scale and their risks spread globally (such as the Carnival group or Royal Caribbean in the cruise business) can move their assets around and weather financial storms. Much smaller, niche market organisations can focus on market sectors least affected by recession, delivering high quality and value for money which always command a loyal audience.

One great example of the latter approach is Star Clippers, the "Tall Ships" fleet owned by Swedish entrepreneur Mikael Krafft's family. It was a real pleasure for me to be involved in helping with their plans back in 1990 when the ships were first conceived – and now building is under way for their fourth vessel, set to be the world's largest passenger sailing ship.

To experience the magic of relaxing out on deck under the billowing sails as these ships surge forward is a truly sublime pleasure!

(Discover Indonesia with Star Clippers – pages 32-33)

My best wishes to you all for the festive season.

Nigel.

CRUISE EXPERT

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and the Daily Telegraph Travel's cruise expert. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for ten years.

17 REASONS - TO CRUISE IN - 2017

Can't decide where to cruise next year? Maybe you'll be inspired by some great new ships and exciting anniversaries and itineraries coming up in 2017. Here, in no particular order, are some of my favourites.

5
Happy birthday Canada. 1st July 2017 marks 150 years since the Dominion of Canada was created and Celebrity Cruises will be celebrating with a Signature Sailing departing 27th June. Celebrity Summit will be staying overnight in Halifax for the big day so expect plenty of fun and fireworks (and then again two days later as she will be in Boston on 4th July).

6
Spring into another luxury moment in April as Silversea unveils new ship Silver Muse in Monaco. She will have eight places to eat including a cook-your-own al fresco grill and Atlantide, serving seafood and steak. After spending spring and summer seeking out UNESCO sites in the Mediterranean, she'll head west to circumnavigate South America.

7
It's party time in Alaska as Holland America Line celebrates 70 years of sailing there and the state marks 150 years since it was bought from Russia. President Andrew Johnson signed the deed that added almost 590,000 square miles of territory to the United States for the princely sum of $7.2 million.

8
November marks 100 years since shots were fired from the Battleship Aurora in St. Petersburg signalling the start of the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia. Communism has gone but the ship remains one of the city's top attractions. Uniworld River Cruises' voyages between St. Petersburg and Moscow; spend time in the city, or hop on one of Regent Seven Seas Cruises' Baltic sailings for a three day stay and free excursions.

12
Things are on the up for the Land of the Rising Sun, which is Princess Cruises' second-most popular destination after Europe for its UK customers. Look out for a 14 day voyage departing 21st July that's in Aomori for the start of the Nebuta Festival, when colourful paper floats are paraded around the city.

13
It's all change at Fred Olsen Cruise Lines, which is ploughing millions of pounds into modernising its ships. First up is Black Watch, which has emerged from its facelift with three new restaurants, a larger Morning Light pub and smarter cabins.

14
In case sailing on the most luxurious ship in the world is not reason enough to sail on Regent's new Seven Seas Explorer, then how about lessons in how to cook tortillas to tapas and trendy brunch cocktails? They are among new culinary classes the company has cooked up as the ship debuts in the Caribbean this winter.

1
It's luxury all the way on Seabourn Encore, Seabourn's first new ship for six years. She'll have private cabanas, a Grill Restaurant created with US chef Thomas Keller and a sushi bar. After being christened in Singapore in early January, she will sail to Australia but be back in the Mediterranean in summer.

2
Two into one as luxury river cruise line AmaWaterways not only goes on sale through ROL Cruise but also launches new vessel AmaKristina on the Rhine, sailing between Amsterdam and Basel. She will have cabins with connecting doors that are perfect for families, a top-deck swimming pool and Chef's Table Restaurant that serves a tasting menu.

3
Set sail with Columbus – no, not Christopher but the former P&O Cruises' ship joining Cruise & Maritime Voyages in June. She'll spend six months cruising Northern Europe, before heading off on a world cruise in January 2018.

4
The King of Casual, Norwegian Cruise Line, is bringing its unique style of cruising to the UK (that means no dress codes and no set dining) with new voyages from Southampton on Norwegian Jade that visit Iceland, the Norwegian fjords and sail around Britain.

9
Golden pagodas, wooden monasteries and the famous U-Bein Bridge await on APT's luxurious new all-inclusive cruises on the Ayeyarwady in Myanmar on the RV Samatha. She sails in style between Yangon and Mandalay with all meals, drinks, excursions and tipping included in the price.

10
X marks the spot for Celebrity Cruises, which starts new island-hopping cruises around the Galápagos in March on Celebrity Xploration, a 16 passenger catamaran that has recently undergone a major overhaul. Two itineraries are available, each offering complimentary excursions ashore led by local naturalists.

11
Been there, done it all in the Med? Not until you have been on MSC Cruises' new one-week Venice voyages on MSC Poesia. There's one port every day, including a stop in Saranda, Albania. A trip to the Greco-Roman city of Butrinti is among highlights.

15
Culture is coming to the UK next summer as Voyages to Antiquity takes a break from ancient Mediterranean civilisations to explore Northern Europe from Tilbury. Choose the 29th June sailing to Iceland to learn about glaciers, geysirs and volcanoes from geology expert Professor David Drewry.

RIVER EXPEDITION HIGHLIGHTS

Explore deep into the heart of Borneo on a river expedition on the Kapuas River system, the largest in Borneo flowing over 700 miles through West Kalimantan – the Indonesian part of this vast island.

The river basin is surrounded by mountain ranges and filled with the Borneo rainforest which is the centre of the evolution and distribution of many species of plants and animals.

The Borneo rainforest is one of the few remaining natural habitats for the endangered Bornean orangutan. It is also an important refuge for many forest species, including the Borneo elephant, the eastern Sumatran rhinoceros, the Sunda clouded leopard, the Hose's palm civet and the Dayak fruit bat.

This will be a truly pioneering expedition into a rarely visited area where the main attraction will be the scenery, wildlife, and tribal village life.

★ INDEPENDENCE DAY ★

In 1775, the people of New England began fighting the British for their independence and on 2nd July 1776, the Congress secretly voted for independence from Great Britain. The Declaration of Independence was first published two days later on 4th July, 1776, but wasn't actually signed until a month later.

The first depiction of how Independence Day would be celebrated was in a letter from John Adams to his wife Abigail on 3rd July 1776. He described "pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires and illuminations" throughout the United States. However, the term "Independence Day" was not used until 1791.

Commonly known as the Fourth of July, today Independence Day is a federal holiday in the United States where celebrations include fireworks, parades, barbecues, carnivals, sports games and much more.
