Fred. Olsen are delighted to announce that they are introducing two new vessels to their beloved fleet. The ships, to be named Bolette and Borealis, fit perfectly with their love for small-ship cruising, as both carry less than 1,500 guests. The ships are very spacious, and each has its own unique style and personality, including more balcony cabins and suites, an all-weather swimming pool with a retractable roof and a wide choice of restaurants, lounges and bars all designed with original artwork and premium décor. You'll also find a classic two-tiered theatre, so everyone will have a great view of the evening shows.

Fri 7 Istanbul, Turkey

Seen as the place where East meets West, Istanbul has a cultural diversity that's lasted for centuries, stemming from the multitude of rulers it's had in history. Among Istanbul's great wealth of monuments and landmarks are the ethereal Blue Mosque, glittering Topkapi Palace (once home of the sultans) vast Kapali Carsi (the world's largest covered bazaar) and the aromatic Egyptian Spice Market. Food is an important part of Istanbul's culture and particular highlights include çay bahçesi (tea gardens) kahvehans (coffeehouses) meyhanes (Turkish taverns) and kebapçis (kebab restaurants) which the locals will welcome you into readily

Cruising Bosphorus at sunset

Sun 9 Sochi, Russian Federation

Sochi received global recognition and attention as the host of the 2014 Winter Olympic & Paralympic Games, despite the fact that – thanks to its quite un-Russian warm climate – it's often called Russia's 'Summer Capital'. Now more popular than ever, this Black Sea city welcomes large numbers of visitors from around the world, who come to enjoy the incredible coastline – complete with tall mountains, rocky coves and shingle beaches, the vibrant nightlife and stunning architecture of the city's structures, including the colourful St. Vladimir Church, Summer Theatre and Michael Archangel Cathedral to name just a few

Mon 10 Batumi, Georgia

Batumi is a seaside resort on the Black Sea coast, situated in a sub tropical zone, rich in citrus fruit and tea, with surrounding hills and mountains providing rainfall to make it lush and green, but also the wettest city in Georgia!

Wed 12 Odessa, Ukraine

Odessa has a reputation as a lively artistic and cultural centre, with architectural treasures that include a trio of palaces – and a prestigious 19th century Opera House, where Tchaikovsky performed. Don't miss the shopping arcades – or bargain-price local vodka and caviar!

Thu 13 Constanța, Romania

Fri 14 Cruising Bosphorus
Cruising Dardanelles

Sat 15 Athens (from Piraeus), Greece

Athens, one of the world's oldest cities, is mystical and engrossing, a city that's steeped in ancient history and antiquity. Over 3,000 years old, the city serves as the world centre for archaeological research. Its ancient alleyways and winding streets lead to an impressive array of must-visit museums, ancient churches and some the world's most significant historic sites. Athen's landmarks include the Acropolis, the hilltop citadel stood proudly above the city and topped with ancient buildings like the colonnaded Parthenon Temple. This iconic temple was built in dedication to the Greek goddess of strategy and tactics, Athena, and is over 2,500 years old

Sun 16 Katakolon (for Olympia), Greece

Situated on a headland overlooking the Ionian Sea, the Greek seaside town is the gateway to the UNESCO-listed World Heritage site of Ancient Olympia. Founded in the 8th century BC, Olympia hosted the original Olympic Games and its extensive, must-see ruins include athletic training areas, a stadium and temples dedicated to the gods Hera and Zeus

A New World Awaits... With Rol Cruise

As we begin to return to travel, many cruise lines and travel partners are working hard to establish new and elevated health and safety procedures and protocols in line with Cruise Lines International Association (CLIA) recommendations. Your safety and wellbeing are always the cruise lines' first priority and they want to ensure that you can travel without worry and stay safe throughout your holiday. Cruise lines already have medical facilities and doctors on board ships, they already do pre-screening, and are already used to cleaning and sanitisation, but we are all adjusting to a new way of travel. One of the great things about the cruise industry is its ability to adapt, and in taking advice from public health authorities, cruise lines are implementing ways in which they can keep you safe at sea. Here are just some of the new and enhanced health and safety procedures some cruise lines are implementing to keep you safe and give you peace of mind at sea...

STRICT CLEANING PRACTICES ON BOARD

- Gloves, face masks and small bottles of hand sanitiser will be readily available for each guest
- Each ship will have a new team dedicated to ensuring communal areas are continually cleaned and disinfected
- Sanitising dispensers will be placed at the entrance to the ship and in other strategic locations throughout the decks
- Any on board payments are processed using a contactless payment method and credit card machines will be wiped after each pin entry
- All staterooms and suites are thoroughly cleaned on a daily basis
- Housekeeping staff disinfect all public area touch points and hot spots throughout the day, including all handrails and door handles
- All air-conditioning filters are cleaned and disinfected on each embarkation day before rooming takes place

FOOD SERVICE

- More seating sessions for dining will be added so that there will be fewer people having their meals there at any time
- Instead of self-service buffets, wait staff will serve food directly to your individual plate
- The kitchens will continue to uphold its usual high standards of hygiene and quality

EXCURSIONS

- Cruise lines are working closely with their travel partners to enhance health and safety protocols
- Transportation is cleaned and wiped with disinfectant before each use
- The maximum occupancy per bus/ coach has been adjusted to reduce the total number of people together at one time
- Face masks are also available on the buses/ coaches, in addition to the staterooms

UNDERSTANDING & KNOWLEDGE

- Every crew member undergoes a health check and have completed WHO's official COVID-19 course for hygiene procedures and infection management
- As normal service resumes, the overall number of guests on board will be reduced, giving you plenty of space around you when aboard
- Before embarkation, guests will be required to hand in a health questionnaire which ensures the safety of themselves, fellow passengers and crew
- Crew have thorough first-aid training and can quickly contact healthcare professionals should any medical need arise

INTRODUCING MS MAUD

MS Maud is designed to take you on a cruise in maximum comfort, equipped for a sustainable and memorable expedition. MS Maud will showcase natural Scandinavian materials such as granite, oak, birch and wool with all public areas redesigned to create a relaxed and stylish look and feel, and add to the premium on board experience. A specially designed Expedition Launch – the tender pit area where guests embark on their excursions and off-ship adventures – will be added, complete with tender boats and other expedition equipment. Plus, enjoy Hurtigruten's Science Center, packed with state of the art technology and high tech gadgets. Mingle with guests and crew and create a deeper understanding for the areas you explore.

SAIL WITH CONFIDENCE

HIGH KNOWLEDGE

Every crew member undergoes a health check and have completed WHO's official COVID-19 course for hygiene procedures and infection management. Before embarkation, you will be required to hand in a health questionnaire which ensures the safety of you, your fellow passengers and Hurtigruten's crew.

SAFETY ASHORE

Hurtigruten will regulate the number of people who disembark and board the ship at the same time so as to avoid overcrowding. Sanitising dispensers will be placed at the entrance to the ship and in other strategic locations for your use, plus Hurtigruten will collaborate closely with local suppliers to offer an exciting programme of shore excursions, implementing heightened cleaning and hygiene procedures according to national guidelines.

CLEANING

Hurtigruten have strict cleaning practices on board that have proven themselves effective time and again over decades of safe sailing. Each ship will have a new team dedicated to ensuring communal areas are continually cleaned and disinfected, plus there will be appropriate markings on board to help you keep a safe distance from others whenever queuing on board.

FOOD SERVICE

In Hurtigruten's roomy restaurants, more seating sessions will be added and there will be reduced diner numbers so that there will be fewer people having their meals there at any time. Instead of self-service buffets, their chefs will serve food directly to your plate and each dining venue will be thoroughly cleaned after each sitting. The kitchen will uphold its usual high standards of hygiene and quality.

THE NORTHERN LIGHTS – ENGAGE IN A TRUE ADVENTURE

PRIME TIME

The Lights can start to make an appearance as early as September and as late as May, but it is the winter months between October and March when they are most visible, laying claim to the night sky.

FRONT-ROW VIEWS

Travelling at sea under the Auroral Zone means that displays can appear right above the ship. Outdoor observation decks provide a clear line of sight to the sky, and the close-up view avoids the artificial ambient light common on land.

GET READY TO EXPLORE

Hurtigruten are the expedition experts, so any voyage you undertake will be filled with unique experiences, where you decide how you spend your day. Join expert guides on included daily activities* to some of the most picturesque and beautiful destinations that exist in the Norwegian Fjords, including maiden port Senja and the awe-inspiring Lofoten Islands.

BRITTANY & GUERNSEY IN BLOOM

5 NIGHTS DEPARTING 21ST MAY & 13TH JULY 2021

EXCURSIONS*

Day 1 Embark Spirit of Discovery and depart Southampton

Day 2 Relaxing at sea

Enjoy a day relaxing at sea. Spirit of Discovery is a contemporary, elegant and spacious ship with luxury at her core. On board you'll be greeted by service that mirrors some of the world's finest boutique hotels. Life on board can be as action packed or as peaceful as you like. The beautifully decorated Britannia Lounge is the hub of the ship and hosts inspiring guest speakers alongside spectacular scenery. You can also enjoy dining in the Grand Dining Room, The Club by Jools Holland, The Grill, East to West and Coast to Coast

Day 3 Lorient, France ★INCLUDED SIGHTSEEING TOUR★

Set on the beautiful southern coast of Brittany, Lorient was almost entirely destroyed during WWII, and today's rebuilt city is awash with post 1950's architecture, which you can learn more about on an included tour*. Lorient has a number of museums which reflect Brittany's seafaring past and present to explore, including a vast former German submarine base. Alternatively, you could visit the nearby medieval town of Josselin and its incredible château, complete with delightful manicured gardens. Don't miss the chance to sample the region's abundance of seafood, from the traditional moules marinières to entire shellfish platters

Day 4 Brest, France ★INCLUDED SIGHTSEEING TOUR★

Brest is a port city in Brittany, in north-western France, bisected by the Penfeld river. It's known for its rich maritime history and naval base. An included tour* offers an introduction to the local area, or you could choose to spend the day exploring independently. At the mouth of the Penfeld, overlooking the harbour, is the National Navy Museum, housed in the medieval Château de Brest

Day 5 St. Peter Port, Guernsey

Lining narrow streets that lead steeply uphill, St. Peter Port's granite houses cluster around the large natural harbour that's densely packed with yachts and busy with ferries. 'Town', as it's known to the locals, went from simple fishing settlement to wealthy port largely through the efforts of privateers in the 18th century, though today it's offshore banking and tourism that keep the appealing heart of Guernsey vibrant

OUR TOP 5 DESTINATIONS TO VISIT IN 2021 & BEYOND...

From the idyllic shores of the Caribbean and thriving rainforests of Borneo, to the flavours of India and majesty of Dubai – there are hundreds of dazzling destinations to visit worldwide. We love nothing more than helping you plan a journey of a lifetime, so here are some of our top 5 destinations to visit in 2021 & beyond...

STAVANGER, NORWAY

Renowned across the world for its unique geographical hotspots, Stavanger is loved by nature-lovers, hikers and photographers alike. Prekestolen - also known as Pulpit Rock – is a flat-topped crag which rises nearly 2,000 feet above sea level! For less active pursuits, Stavanger's rich selection of museums are well worth visiting, including the Museum of Archaeology and the town's Art Museum, which houses a collection of some of the finest Norwegian art as well as works from further afield. Whether you've got a few hours or a few days in Stavanger, it is sure to satisfy your taste for adventure and culture. Discover the delights of Norway's fourth largest city on pages 10-11, 16-17 and 20.

BRASOV, ROMANIA

Brasov, the 'Gateway to Transylvania', is resplendent with gothic, baroque and renaissance architecture, as well as being ringed by the Carpathian Mountains. Piata Sfatului, the square at the heart of Brasov's medieval history, is ideal for people watching, as well as admiring the surrounding ornate buildings and visiting the Black Church, Eastern Europe's largest Gothic church. Uniquely, Brasov is also home to one of the narrowest streets in Europe, Strada Sforii or String Street is 53 inches at its widest point and just 44 inches at its most narrow point. Nearby the imposing medieval fortress, Bran Castle is well worth visiting. The atmospheric fortress is known to have held Vlad the Impaler prisoner and is believed to have inspired Bram Stoker's novel. Turn to pages 28-29 to visit Brasov and Bran Castle during a three night tour of Transylvania with luxury Scenic.

PRASLIN, SEYCHELLES

Soak up the sun and adopt the islanders' slow pace of life in Praslin. Anse Lazio beach is an absolute must-visit – with plush white sand and turquoise water, this is the most impressive beach you'll find anywhere and despite being voted as the world's most beautiful countless times, you'll easily find your own place in the sun. Be sure to keep an eye on the skies as you sunbathe, as the island is home to a number of rare bird species including the Seychelles bulbul and the black parrot. For more beautiful flora and fauna, be sure to head to Praslin National Park in the island's south, which contains the spectacular palm forest of Vallée de Mai. Divers, meanwhile, will love the ancient coral reefs off Praslin's shores.

Discover the paradise island of Praslin in luxury on pages 40-41 with 5★ Oceania Cruises®.

TOKYO, JAPAN

Tokyo, capital of Japan, is home to a fabulous blend of history and modernity that has to be seen to be believed. To get a feel for Tokyo's natural beauty, head to Yoyogi Park, where cherry blossoms are resplendent in spring. City life slows down just a touch in this former Olympic village, which also served as a military parade ground and barracks for American soldiers after the Second World War. Modern Tokyo can be deftly explored at the Roppongi Hills complex. Drink in breathtaking panoramic vistas at the 52nd floor Tokyo City View, then peruse the exhibits at the Mori Art Museum. Indulge in traditional sushi and sake at one of the complex's many restaurants or sit back and watch the world go by in the Japanese landscape garden.

Experience Tokyo in modern luxury on pages 34-35.

REYKJAVÍK, ICELAND

On a cruise to Iceland, experience the country's raw beauty, feel the force of its waterfalls and take a dip in natural thermal pools. For a taste of the eclectic, Iceland's capital, Reykjavík, is waiting. Red, blue and orange rooftops line the streets in Reykjavík, and its eccentric residents have transformed the remote capital into a hub for street art. As well as getting to know the friendly Icelandic folk, there are some other locals you ought to seek out during your cruise. Minke whales, humpback whales, killer whales and seals patrol the waters surrounding Iceland, and can be spotted from your cruise ship, or a more intimate wildlife boat tour during an excursion. While roaming through the landscape, look out for the elusive Arctic fox, mink, rabbits and reindeer. Enjoy a two night hotel stay in Reykjavik on page 42.

A new world of luxury is waiting aboard Silver Dawn. Both classic yet modern, she is the natural evolution of the Silversea fleet. Large enough to offer eight dining options – including the superb Sea and Land Taste (S.A.L.T.) programme which will adapt according to the destinations you visit, unlocking immersive culinary experiences – yet small enough for the famed Silversea on board ambience, Silver Dawn inherits the best features of her sister ships Silver Muse and Silver Moon, but is in a class all of her own.
