★SAN FRANCISCO, USA★
OVERNIGHT STAY ON BOARD

Known for its year-round fog, legendary Golden Gate Bridge, trolley cars and colourful Victorian houses. The city's most distinctive skyscraper is Transamerica Pyramid, while its most notorious former prison, Alcatraz Island, sits menacingly in the bay.

★ORANJESTAD, ARUBA★

Oranjestad is the capital of the Dutch island of Aruba, in the Caribbean Sea. The vividly coloured colonial buildings that mirror those in Amsterdam, clearly point to Oranjestad's rich Dutch heritage. The city is one of the Caribbean's true gems, combining European-style architecture with glorious white sand beaches, palm trees and flamingos.

★MAZATLÁN, SINALOA, MEXICO★

Mazatlán boasts 11 miles of sun-soaked sandy beaches along its malecón (boardwalk), and a fine reputation for big-game fishing. The friendly, charming Old Town and the historic Machado Square cry out to be explored!

★KRALENDIJK, BONAIRE★

This lively, Dutch-controlled capital of Bonaire, is renowned for its stunning natural beauty. Surrounded by the protected Marine Park, the island's waters are home to large numbers of tropical fauna, rare seabirds and sea life, including turtles, tuna, Blue Marlin and sailfish.

WELCOME TO FRED. OLSEN CRUISE LINES

SMALLER BUT SPACIOUS

A smaller ship doesn't mean less space; far from it. With fewer people on board it's easy to find a quiet spot to relax in peace with a drink and a good book. There's room to stretch out by the pool and you can get ashore more quickly too. You'll find spacious rooms that have everything you would need to enjoy your holiday. What's more, the fleet's small size means that they can often sail to places and ports otherwise inaccessible by larger ocean vessels.

SERVICE WITH A SMILE

Each member of the Fred. Olsen team has been carefully selected for their warm and welcoming personalities. The staff are quick to learn your drink order, and will greet you by your name for dinner. It's no wonder that most customers think of Fred. Olsen as their second family.

THE FRED. OLSEN CRUISE LINES ENJOYMENT PROMISE

Fred. Olsen are so confident that you'll enjoy the whole Fred. Olsen experience that if within a couple of days of sailing you find it's not for you, just let them know and they'll arrange for a flight back to the UK from the next port and give you your money back. And, now all guests making a booking will enjoy the benefits of the Enjoyment Promise, regardless of whether you have travelled with them before. Please speak to one of our cruise specialists for full details.

NOVEMBER 2019

Fri 1 ★Full day tour to visit Barka Fish Market, Nakhal & Rustaq Forts★

The first stop on your tour is the bustling fishing village of Barka, where fishermen bring in their fresh catches early in the morning and sell them at the lively fish market. You will also visit the village of Nakhal, which is set below the fort and home to a warm spring, and forms a picturesque oasis for a boxed lunch. This afternoon, visit the Bait Al Na'aman Fort built by the Imam Saif bin Sultan al Ya'rubī (Qid al Ard), who planted 30,000 palm and coconut trees around its walls. The fort, which was constructed in the late 17th century, sits just metres from the beach and was built as a defence against Persian and Portuguese invaders of the time (B, L)

Sat 2 ★Morning tour of Muscat★

Highlights of your morning tour of Muscat include the Royal Opera House, which is one of the most striking architectural masterpieces in the Sultanate of Oman, the Grand Mosque, Bair Al Zubair Museum where displays reflect Omani heritage and a drive along the Corniche to Muttrah where you can pay a visit to the colourful, bustling souk before continuing to the old part of Muscat with its surrounding wall. Finally, view the beautiful Al Alam Palace flanked by the twin forts of Mirani and Jalali, which majestically guard the entrance to Muscat Bay. Spend this afternoon at leisure in Muscat and later, perhaps enjoy an optional twilight dhow cruise* (B, L)

Sun 3 ★Muscat – Ras Al Jinz Turtle Reserve, Oman★

Leaving Muscat, the first visit will be to Quriyat, a fishing village between the lagoon and the sea before arriving in Wadi Arbayeen, photo-stops will be made at Fins beach, Tiwi beach, Wadi Shab and Wadi Tiwi. Upon arrival in Sur, a fisherman's town on the east coast of Oman, transfer to the Ras Al Jinz Turtle Reserve[‡] for your overnight stay. This evening, enjoy the exclusive opportunity to go turtle watching. The endangered green turtles return to the beach where they hatched in order to lay their eggs, and between September and November, the beaches are literally alive with turtles hatching and laying (B)

Mon 4 ★Full day visiting Wadi Bani Khalid and Sharqiya Sands★

Take the scenic road from Ras Al Jinz to Sharqiya Sands through the eastern Hajar mountains, visiting Wadi Beni Khalid en route. Set in a tranquil, stunning valley, Wadi Bani Khalid is in stark contrast to Sharqiya Sands and comprises of small pretty villages embedded in the mountains. Continue to Sharqiya Sands, a vast mass of undulating red and white sand and dunes rising up to 200 metres and home to a variety of flora and fauna. Overnight stay at the 1,000 Nights Campsite[‡] (B, D)

Tue 5 ★Sharqiya Sands – Nizwa, Oman★

Leave Sharqiya Sands and visit Sinaw Market en route to Nizwa. Much of Arabia's handicraft industries are based in Nizwa, including production of the traditional khanjar daggers still worn by everyone from police to immigration agents and hotel doormen. Nizwa Fort is a large complex of buildings that has recently been restored to the grandeur it originally had when built in the mid-17th century by a local religious leader. The fort was used for defence, as a palace and as a prison. Enjoy a two night stay at The View hotel[‡] (B, D)

Wed 6 ★Morning tour of Nizwa Souk and Fort★

Nizwa Souk is fascinating and home to many silver-jewellery makers, here, peruse the wonderful selection of handicrafts before visiting Nizwa Fort. Built by Sultan Ibn Saif in 1641, who was the first Imam of the Al Ya'rubī dynasty, the Fort it was the primary seat of the Imamate, serving as a seat of government, palace and prison. Visit the beautiful quarters of the imam,

It is also home to several other important nesting sites for other species of turtle. This is the only place where the public can watch the nesting process of these amazing sea-giants and truly is a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

1,000 Nights Campsite[†]

1,000 Nights Camp is the only one of its kind at Wahiba Sands. You will enjoy not only a spiritual, cultural-but luxury experience of staying in-style at the heart of Wahiba Sands. The setting among the Cineraria trees emphasizes the beauty of the virgin golden sand dunes surrounding the camp.

DISCOVER NORWAY

CHOOSE YOUR PERFECT SEASON TO SAIL...

Every season has its own unique charm, and there's no wrong choice when it comes to visiting one of the most beautiful countries on Earth. No matter what time of year you travel, exquisite scenery surrounds you wherever you turn.

SPRING

Arctic Awakening MARCH - APRIL

Spring sees the Norwegian Coast stir from its winter slumber, and offers the best of both snow and sun. Flora blooms, wildlife awakens, and waterfalls swollen with meltwater cascade into the fjords. The Northern Lights can still be seen as late as April, while the month of May puts all of Norway in party mode in preparation for Norway Day on 17th May.

SUMMER

Supreme Sunshine MAY - AUGUST

Turquoise fjords, emerald mountainsides, and frosted peaks – Norway's landscapes are a stunning sight to behold in these summer months. The longer days invite exploration, with the Midnight Sun lighting the halcyon sky for the full 24 hours at summer's peak. Locals spend these months leisurely reconnecting with nature; hiking, kayaking, birdwatching, and fishing. Why not come and join them?

AUTUMN

The Golden Season SEPTEMBER - OCTOBER

Come autumn, shades of yellow, red, orange, and gold paint the forests of the coast, enhanced by the soft sunlight of this period. The first signs of snow begin to settle on the mountain tops and nature's pantry is full of delicacies ready for harvesting. As the days grow shorter, the Northern Lights may also start to creep across the autumnal night sky.

WINTER

Frozen North NOVEMBER - FEBRUARY

Venture above the Arctic Circle for your best chance to witness the Aurora Borealis, a dance of colours ranging from green and yellow to red and violet, and inextricably linked to local legend and myth. For a few precious weeks, the sun won't even show above the horizon and casts a wonderful, Arctic blue light. Reindeer and huskies abound in this time of deep snow and ice.

Discover almost the entire Norwegian Coast in your preferred season, turn to pages 35-37 for departures every month of the year with Hurtigruten.

THE MIDNIGHT SUN

This ultimate journey with Hurtigruten is described as "The World's Most Beautiful Voyage" by Lonely Planet. See 34 ports and cover over 2,500 nautical miles, which allows you to explore almost the entire length of the magical Norwegian coast. Any time of year, it's a voyage like no other. 22 of the ports lie north of the Polar Circle – and you will be given the opportunity to join excursions tailor-made to match your exploration level†. On this voyage, you will not only feel like an explorer, you will be one.

SPECTACULAR SEASONS

With spring comes the return of the warmth and daylight, which is like an infusion of vitamins, kick-starting life along the Norwegian coast. The migratory birds return, meaning the coast is teeming with life. You'll also visit the beautiful Lyngenfjord, with its majestic mountain backdrop and unique nature. In summer, the long light days seem to energise both nature and people. Even as far south as Bergen, you can experience 19 hours of daylight. Flowers bloom, rivers fill with fish and giant waterfalls cascade towards the ocean, creating a picture-perfect setting for a summer holiday. North of the Arctic Circle, you can experience the Midnight Sun – a natural phenomenon. The autumn sailings include a visit to the incredibly beautiful Hjørundfjord. Majestic mountains surround this narrow fjord, and Hurtigruten offer several excursions that let you explore this spectacular area. Enjoy a beautiful voyage during this season, as the fresh and clear coastal air enhances the intense red and yellow that fills mountainsides, hilltops and forests. From the deck, you may see the sharp profiles of the highest peaks sprinkled with the first snow, against the background of an ice blue sky.

LIFE ON BOARD

A Hurtigruten voyage provides the perfect solution for seasoned cruisers and first timers alike, who are searching for an intimate and informal experience. Enjoy full board en-suite accommodation and sublime cuisine, including three-course evening meals which take advantage of the local produce. Relax and enjoy stunning scenery from the plentiful deck space outside or enjoy the peace and tranquillity from the panorama lounge.

HURTIGRUTEN GO PLASTIC FREE

Hurtigruten have made history by becoming the world's first cruise line to remove all single use plastics from their ships! In the hope that other cruise lines follow suit, Hurtigruten, who sail to some of the world's most remote, pristine and delicate environments, have made this change at a time when concern for rising plastic in the oceans is at an all-time high. To ensure they are operating with the smallest footprint possible, Hurtigruten will now forego plastic straws, coffee lids and plastic bags on all of their 14 ships, even single-use butter packaging! Hurtigruten have focused on the problem of plastic pollution for many years, organising annual beach clean-ups involving their 2,500 employees as well as some of their 400,000 guests!

Please note Hurtigruten ships are working ships and ship may vary depending on departure date. Please note Arctic Superior Outside Cabins can be based on fixed double or twin bed configuration. †Some Polar Outside and Arctic Superior Cabins have limited/no views. Midnight Sun phenomenon is a seasonal occurrence and may not be guaranteed on all departure dates. Wildlife sightings are not guaranteed. Hurtigruten and Reader Offers Limited Package Holiday booking conditions apply. Please see back page for full terms and conditions.

26TH MAY, 8TH JUNE, 14TH JULY, 11TH AUGUST & 16TH SEPTEMBER 2019
OTHER DATES ARE AVAILABLE ON REQUEST

- Day 1 Fly from London to Bergen, Norway. Upon arrival, transfer to the port and embark your ship
- Day 2 Florø – Molde, Norway
If you wake up early, you have the chance to enjoy the breathtaking beauty of the Nordfjord. The ship then navigates through skerries and islands before reaching Ålesund, renowned for its beautiful Art Nouveau architecture. In the summer months, you'll set course for the spectacular UNESCO-listed Geirangerfjord passing sheer, 800 metre cliffs and impressive waterfalls en route. In autumn, you'll explore Hjørundfjord, situated amidst the majestic Sunnmøre Alps
- Day 3 Kristiansund – Rørvik, Norway
Few large cities have managed to preserve their intimacy as effectively as Norway's third largest city, Trondheim, which you can also explore from sea level in a kayak along the River Nid*. During spring and summer, you continue to the Ringve Museum of Musical History, where the history of Norway's music is brought to life. This beautiful manor house is surrounded by a wonderful botanical garden, and provides fantastic views of both the city and the fjord. From September to May you can experience Trondheim in a vintage carriage on the world's northernmost tram for a unique sightseeing tour*
- Day 4 Brønnøysund – Svolvær, Norway
Today you'll cross the Arctic Circle! In summer, this means 24-hour daylight – often referred to as the 'Midnight Sun'. If you are sailing in Arctic waters for the first time, you can participate in a daytime Arctic Circle ceremony on deck. Later this afternoon, the sight of the 1,000m high Lofoten Wall appears on the horizon. Tucked between majestic granite cliffs and white sandy beaches, Lofoten is an experience that is out of the ordinary
- Day 5 Stokmarknes – Skjervøy, Norway
Today, visit Tromsø, 'Capital of the Arctic'. In spring, you can complete your stay in Tromsø with a thrilling husky dog sledge ride*. On this mini polar expedition, the huskies pull you over the frozen landscape while you enjoy stunning views of the ocean, mountains and open plateaus*. In summer, join a kayaking excursion and paddle in the waters off the Tromsø coastline with the mountains as a stunning backdrop*
- Day 6 Øksfjord – Berlevåg, Norway
Enjoy magnificent sub-Arctic landscapes as you cross the 71st parallel. In summer, you may see herds of grazing reindeer and small camps belonging to the indigenous Sámi people. From Honningsvåg, you can join an optional excursion* to the North Cape, the northernmost point on the European continent – make sure you get a photo with the iconic globe sculpture
- Day 7 Båtsfjord – Kirkenes – Berlevåg, Norway
This morning, arrive in Kirkenes, the turning point for the return journey southwards. The ports previously visited by night are now seen by day. The Russian border is a just few miles away and depending on the season, there are many ways to visit the Russian frontier
- Day 8 Mehamn – Tromsø, Norway
At Honningsvåg, you can join an excursion that features breakfast at the North Cape*. In spring, you'll sail through the beautiful

- Lyngenfjord, surrounded by the snowy peaks of the Lyngen Alps, and where you may be visited by a local fisherman who shares a taste of fresh, locally-caught prawns. You'll then dock at Tromsø, just in time to enjoy a magical midnight concert at the Arctic Cathedral*. Experience the breathtaking acoustics and hear Norwegian folk songs and hymns performed by professional musicians
- Day 9 Tromsø – Stamsund, Norway
The island groups of Lofoten and Vesterålen offer some of the most stunning scenery you will see during the entire coastal voyage. Later, reach the spectacular Trollfjord, only 2km long and 100m wide, surrounded by majestic mountains. Steep cliffs hug the ship's sides and the dramatic landscape conjures fairy tale images of an imaginary land of trolls. Trollfjord is also the realm of the sea eagle
- Day 10 Bodø – Rørvik, Norway
Sail along the Helgeland coast, passing hundreds of islets, fertile farmland and steep granite walls rich in local lore. On deck, you can see the strange mountain Torghatten, famous for its distinctive hole right through the middle. Another highlight is sailing past the Seven Sisters mountain range. All seven mountains are between 900 and 1,100m high, and it is easy to understand how these 'ladies' influenced ancient myths
- Day 11 Trondheim – Ålesund, Norway
Today provides another opportunity to explore the city of Trondheim. In Kristiansund, you can join an excursion to the renowned Atlantic Road, one of Norway's most visited tourist destinations. It is 8.2km long, built on a total of eight bridges and surrounded by picturesque landscapes and open sea*
- Day 12 Bergen, Norway

Spend time ashore on the lush tundra amongst the summer flowers and observing the remarkable bird cliffs near the 14th July Glacier, where even a few puffins nest between the cracks in the cliffs. Be sure to keep watch for polar bears and Arctic foxes. As you cruise along the North Coast, explore rarely visited places such as Woodfjorden and Leifdefjorden in search of the mighty polar bear. From Zodiacs, enjoy magnificent views of sweeping glaciers winding their way into the sea. You may walk on smooth raised beach terraces to a magnificent viewpoint or hike in the mountains on the tundra where pretty coloured wildflowers and lichen grows and where reindeer graze. All the while be sure to remain alert for wandering polar bears and their cubs. Along the east coast of Spitsbergen, enter a different world – a polar desert. If ice conditions allow, you will pass south through the narrow Hinlopen Strait; flanked by creamy coloured slabs of rock that are rich in fossils, as you discover for yourself when you go ashore. You may have the chance to visit Alkefjellet, where a series of one-hundred-metre-high dolerite towers are home to millions of Brunnich's guillemots – the penguins of the north – that occupy every available nook and cranny. Elsewhere, seek out eider ducks and geese, and hope to spot Arctic fox and the beautiful ivory gulls. Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and the Daily Telegraph Travel's cruise expert. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for ten years.

SNAKES ALIVE – AND ON A CRUISE SHIP TOO!

A marine iguana pokes his head out of the sand, looks around warily and, sensing the coast is clear, climbs out of the shingle and starts to inch gingerly in the direction of the sea.

Suddenly a snake appears, an evil-looking beastie, then another, then another. The iguana, a fledgling, freezes momentarily, then starts a life or death sprint to safety as more and more reptiles, tongues flicking greedily, give chase.

All are venues that worked so well on Koningsdam that Holland America is adding them to other ships as they go in for their regular refurbishments. There's Billboard Onboard, where pianists sing and play songs from the hit parade, and Lincoln Center Stage for live classical concerts.

Welcome to Blue Planet 2 in Concert, a new show playing on nine Holland America Line ships through an exclusive partnership with BBC Earth, accompanied by live music performed by musicians from New York's Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts.

The Crow's Nest has been converted into Explorations Central (known as EXC), a venue with interactive maps of the places the ship is visiting, a virtual bridge and talks hosted by 'EXC guides'. There is also a tour desk there but Abrie, one of the guides, assured me it was there for convenience only and his job was not to do a hard sell on the excursions.

It's real edge-of-the-seat stuff. We gasped when one of the iguanas was caught, cheered when he escaped and breathed a sigh of relief when a giraffe managed to beat up a pride of lions instead of becoming their dinner.

Finally, Sel de Mer, the French restaurant that debuted on Koningsdam, pops-up in the Pinnacle Grill steakhouse on Zuiderdam once per cruise. It doesn't have the same extensive menu as the one on Koningsdam (which I reckon is one of the best restaurants at sea), but no matter. If you are ever on Zuiderdam, do give it a go. She is sailing fantastic cruises in the Baltic this summer and next, and naturally you can book with those nice folk at ROL Cruise.

I was lucky enough to see Frozen Planet in Concert, Holland America's first production in tandem with BBC Earth, on Koningsdam, when the ship launched a couple of years ago. This time I am watching the show on a flying visit to Zuiderdam while she is overnighing in Amsterdam, to see new features added during a refurbishment at the end of last year.

Maasdam

MAASDAM GOES EXPLORING

One of the many projects I've been involved with recently was a magazine devoted to expedition cruising. It really is the buzz in the cruising industry at the moment, with an amazing 25 or more expedition ships due to launch in the next two or three years.

To put that in context, in all the years I have been writing about cruising (20, since you ask) there has been just one newly-built expedition ship – Hurtigruten's delightful Fram – which I saw christened in Oslo in 2007.

And now Holland America is getting in on the expedition act (sort of) by kitting out Maasdam with Zodiacs and sending it on a 239-day voyage from Fort Lauderdale through the South Pacific, Australia and Asia. The epic voyage starts in September and ends in San Francisco in May 2019.

"It's a giant step for Holland America – light touch expedition if you like – with zodiacs to go exploring in the more remote places," Bill Fletcher, the cruise line's senior director in charge of destination, told me.

He had the dream job of scouting out the places Maasdam is visiting and was raving about the Marquesas Islands in the South Pacific when I met him on Zuiderdam. Apparently they are like the Society Islands in French Polynesia (which are just gorgeous) but better!

He doesn't expect many people to book the entire 239 days (although they could, as, apart from two cruises from Papeete in Tahiti, no itineraries are repeated) but instead to put two or three sectors together. ROL Cruises has them all on its website and can help you plan your perfect itinerary.

Maasdam has room for 1,258 passengers but there'll only be about 1,000 on at any one time as they need space for a team of experts who will host lectures and workshops on sea days on subjects as diverse as growing coral, Captain Cook and photography.

Light Fantastic

I know we're only halfway through the year but I have started drawing up my bucket list for 2019. Vying for top place are a cruise around Japan (because it is the 'in' place to cruise right now) and a Norwegian coastal voyage with Hurtigruten.

I did a two night snippet of the latter many years ago, but would love to do the entire trip, from Bergen to Kirkenes on the border with Russia and back to Bergen in summer because a) my friends at Hurtigruten are always telling me how great it is, and b) it is hugely popular with ROL Cruise customers so it must be good.

In case you are one of the readers who hasn't done it yet, you'll find more details about the voyage in this issue of Blue Horizons.

Day 2 Miami, Florida
Transfer to the port in Fort Lauderdale and embark Volendam for your 16 night voyage to San Diego

Day 3 Half Moon Cay, Bahamas
Known as Little San Salvador Island, Half Moon Cay is located 10 miles southeast of Nassau. In 1996, Holland America Line purchased the island and decided to set aside most of it as a protected wildlife sanctuary – this is especially appreciated by photographers and bird-watching enthusiasts as they explore the preserve and its variety of species. At 10 square kilometers (four square miles), the island is small enough that you can see it all in a day, yet large enough to offer a range of activities including: horseback riding*, snorkelling with stingrays*, a range of water sports and of course, simply lounging on the beach while taking occasional dips in the clear sea to cool off

Day 6 Oranjestad, Aruba
Aruba's main port and capital city, Oranjestad, is a maze of Dutch-colonial architecture painted in a palette of Caribbean pastels. There are some historic sites of note and a myriad of shops from boutiques to megastores, selling all sorts of keepsakes, with jewellery and gold being popular items – in fact, gold was mined here in the 19th century. In Oranjestad and along the beaches you'll also find a treasure trove of excellent seafood restaurants, while further afield are lighthouses, gold mine ruins and natural wonders that reflect the rugged appeal of Aruba

Day 8 Full daytime transit of the iconic Panama Canal
Think of the Panama Canal and the image that may come to mind is of the world's huge tankers and cruise ships passing through a series of locks. That, however, reflects only one aspect of this part of the world. As your ship travels from the Atlantic to the Pacific, you will also pass colonial towns, historic fortresses and man-made lakes that are today home to sanctuaries for hundreds of different animal and plant species

Day 10 Puntarenas, Costa Rica

Day 11 Corinto, Nicaragua
Corinto offers many charms, including colonial-era architecture, as well as a number of cultural and ecological attractions in surrounding areas. Given the port's proximity to León, it's easy for cruise passengers to take a day trip to this beautiful city established by Spanish conquistadores in 1524. While there, be sure to sample the traditional dish called vigorón, a hearty plate heaped with pork, boiled yuca and cabbage salad. Though residents of Granada claim to have invented it, vigorón is popular around the entire country and is a true taste of Nicaragua

WHAT TO DO DURING YOUR TWO NIGHT STAY IN SAN DIEGO

San Diego skyline and waterfront

Easy-going San Diego embodies the Southern California surfer town fantasy, with its more than 300 days of sun, mild year-round temperatures and accessible, sporty pastimes and tourist attractions. You can hike the Torrey Pines State Natural Reserve to get a glimpse of whale migrations, go sailing in the bay and, of course, surf the famous swells of Del Mar, Oceanside and La Jolla (among many other superb spots). But the sixth-largest city in the United States is surprisingly nuanced, with distinctive neighbourhoods: Old Town, North Park, Point Loma and Coronado are all within a few miles of the port, while the bustling Gaslamp Quarter, Little Italy and Balboa Park are within walking distance.

And while there are lots of things to do – from visiting the country's largest urban park and taking in the famous horse-racing season in Del Mar, to riding the charming Old Town Trolley – definitely don't pass up the chance to investigate San Diego's quickly growing reputation as a culinary destination. Its inventive new restaurants which offer an abundance of delicious cuisine from Mexican and classic American, to seafood and Southeast Asian specialties are something to be explored. San Diego also has a vibrant craft brewing community which gives San Diego its nickname of 'America's craft beer capital'. With breweries here consistently rated in the top 10 breweries in the world, you're sure to find a tittle that you enjoy.

Unlike other race tracks, the narrow course of the Monaco Grand Prix is largely regarded as F1's most famous track and is strategically laid along the streets of Monaco with many elevation changes and tight corners as well as tunnels to navigate, making it one of the most beautiful locations and most challenging.

Key Lime PIE

Uniworld are pioneers of world-class cuisine, made from fresh and locally sourced ingredients from the destinations that you visit. Treating cooking as an art form, the gastronomic side of Uniworld's boutique river cruises is exceptional, unrivalled and frankly, delicious. This exquisite recipe for a mouth-watering Key Lime Pie will surpass all of your expectations and is ideal to tuck into as you browse this edition of Blue Horizons.

INGREDIENTS

- 200g plain Hobnob biscuits (or digestives if you prefer)
- 60g melted butter (plus extra to grease the tin)
- 2 tins condensed milk
- 20ml key lime juice
- Zest of two limes
- 8 egg yolks
- 250ml double cream
- 10g sugar
- 21cm fluted round pie dish. If you want to take the finished pie out of the dish make sure you use a pie dish with a loose bottom

METHOD

1. Grind the biscuits in a food processor until they resemble breadcrumbs, then slowly add the melted butter.
2. Grease the pie dish with the extra butter, then, using a spoon, press the biscuit crumbs into the sides and base of the pie dish.
3. Bake at 160°C for five minutes until the base is just starting to colour, then remove from the oven.
4. Whisk all of the remaining ingredients, except the cream and sugar, together and pour into pie shell.
5. Bake in the centre of the oven until just set, which will take around 15-20 minutes. Leave to cool completely, preferably overnight in the fridge.
6. Whip the cream and sugar together to form stiff peaks, then pipe rosettes of cream onto the pie and decorate with slices of lime.
