CRUISE NEWS

INTRODUCING SILVER ORIGIN

– DESIGNED FOR THE GALÁPAGOS, BUILT AROUND YOU

Silver Origin, the first ship created entirely for a specific destination by Silversea, will embark on its first voyage to the Galápagos Islands in July 2020. Never before have the islands been so superbly presented: a team of Ecuadorian national expert guides, the highest crew-to-guest ratio in the Galápagos, eight Zodiacs and seamless hybrid spaces that offer an extraordinary voyage – for extraordinary people.

Please turn to pages 50-51 to join Silver Origin during her maiden season

P&O Cruises Britannia Refit on the Horizon

P&O Cruises are delighted to announce that their much-loved ship Britannia will be setting sail in October 2019 for her first refit in Brest, France. Ever since her spectacular naming ceremony in 2015 with Her Majesty the Queen, Britannia has been a firm favourite with cruisers for the last four years. The atrium will be given a new lease of life to create a lively social hub at the heart of the ship, the popular Java café will now serve alcoholic beverages, the photo gallery will be receiving brand new electronics including audio tech from Amazon, Apple and Beats. Other areas that will be benefiting from the refit are the on board shops, the spa area and the art gallery.

Turn to pages 10-11 to join P&O Cruises' Arcadia for her world cruise promotion

Hurtigruten's MS Roald Amundsen Makes Maritime History

Hurtigruten's brand new hybrid-powered MS Roald Amundsen made maritime history as the first cruise ship in the world to sail purely on battery power. Sailing off the coast of west Norway, the MS Roald Amundsen is specially designed for some of the most spectacular waters of the planet, and features ground-breaking green technology such as the large battery packs which was put to the test as she left Kleven Yard for her maiden voyage.

Join MS Roald Amundsen's sister ship for her maiden voyage to Antarctica on pages 44-45

32 NIGHTS DEPARTING 6TH NOVEMBER 2020

NOVEMBER 2020

- Fri 6 Embark Black Watch and depart Liverpool
- Mon 9 Lisbon, Portugal (arrive early pm)
- Wed 11 Funchal, Madeira (depart early pm)
- Wed 18 Bridgetown, Barbados (arrive early pm – depart late night)
This very British Caribbean island is a favourite with tourists; the city's streets are lined with shops, boutiques, street vendors, bars and places to eat – there is always something to do. Broad Street, the main street of Bridgetown is often packed with welcoming locals. It's easy to see why Barbados is known as Little England given Bridgetown's Georgian houses, the horse-racing track, Parliament Square and a statue of Nelson
- Thu 19 Castries, St. Lucia
Cruising by Pitons
- Fri 20 Mayreau, St. Vincent and Grenadines

- Mon 23 Fort-de-France, Martinique (depart late night)
- Tue 24 Pointe-a-Pitre, Guadeloupe
- Wed 25 Basseterre, St. Kitts and Nevis (depart late night)
Established by the French in the 17th century, and claimed by the British following the Napoleonic War, much of Basseterre's original Georgian architecture still stands and begs to be explored. The domed Old Treasury Building on the waterfront – now the National Museum – is worth a visit, as is the Victorian Berkeley Memorial Clock, a four-face, cast-iron tower that sits on the Circus, an original 19th century traffic roundabout. St. George's, an Anglican church originally built by the French, has been destroyed by fire several times, and was rebuilt to its present form in 1869
- Thu 26 St. John's, Antigua
A sunbather's haven, St. John's is the capital city of Antigua, an island often referred to as the 'crown jewel' of the Caribbean. With its large selection of beaches, typically hot climate and an array of cool seaside bars, the city of St. John's is a sun worshipper's paradise

TIME STOPS ON A WORLD CRUISE

A world cruise gives you the opportunity to slow down allowing you to absorb everything at your own pace and enjoy every precious moment. With only having to unpack once, you will have ample time to yourself to do the things you don't usually have time to; relax with one of those books you said you were going to read or why not pamper yourself with a dip in the Jacuzzi or a rejuvenating spa treatment.

VALUE

Your world cruise is inclusive of meals, accommodation, an enriching daytime and evening entertainment programme, plus use of the facilities on board. These journeys represent exceptional value for money, plus, with our exclusive ROL Cruise benefits you can be sure that you are booking the best deal.

Sat 5 Puerto Montt, Chile

Puerto Montt is your gateway to Chile's magnificent Lake District. Here, snow-capped volcanoes gaze down on alpine valleys nestled among low hills. Glaciers carved out this terrain, leaving the jewel-like lakes in their wake. The Lake District was a magnet for German immigrants, and their legacy can be seen today in the manicured rose gardens of Puerto Varas, in Chile's 'German Villages' like Frutillar and in Puerto Montt's gabled homes with elaborate balconies

Mon 7 Cruising by Amalia Glacier

Tue 8 Punta Arenas, Chile

Wed 9 Ushuaia, Argentina (arrive midday)

Magellan called it Tierra del Fuego, 'the Land of Fire', having seen flames rising from the darkened islands. For over three centuries, the name struck fear in the hearts of mariners. Howling headwinds, mountainous seas and rocky coastlines spelled a sudden end to many voyages. Today, Ushuaia, a former Argentine penal colony, serves as your gateway to this wilderness where snow-capped mountains plummet to the icy waters of the Beagle Channel

YOUR EXPEDITION VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

★ Solar Eclipse Experience ★

On 14th December 2020, a total solar eclipse will be visible over Chile and Argentina. You too can be there to experience this spectacle of 'totality' from the top deck of Coral Princess, a total Solar Eclipse occurs only every one to two years, and to witness it is without doubt a rare occurrence. The eclipse we hope you'll see is a total Solar Eclipse, which is only visible from a small area on Earth. Those who are able to see the total eclipse are in the centre of the moon's shadow when it hits Earth. A total Solar Eclipse is in itself special, but to possibly experience it is truly a once-in-a-lifetime event.

Scenic Cruising Cape Horn

Located on Chile's Isla Hornos in the Tierra del Fuego archipelago, Cape Horn is widely considered to be the southernmost tip of South America. 150 years ago a trip 'around the horn' was an arduous one, but now sailing around Cape Horn offers guests the chance to wrap up warm on deck or on their balcony to admire the magnificent coastline pass by. Cape Horn is also home to abundant marine animals and seabirds, so be sure to keep your camera to hand!

Stanley, Falkland Islands

Imagine a place that is so far off -the-beaten-track you have miles of stunning landscape, beaches and magnificent bird life all to yourself – that's what you can expect as you arrive in Stanley. As one of the greatest wilderness destinations in the world, the Falkland Islands are the ultimate birding experiences and are home to majestic King, feisty Rockhopper, raucous Gentoo and shy Magellanic penguins as well as over 70% of the world's Black-browed albatross!

Buenos Aires, Argentina

A melting pot of European and South American cultures, Buenos Aires is the confident capital of Argentina. Beside the busy port is a metropolis boasting eclectic architecture, delicious parrilla-based cuisine and passionate Porteños. It is the birthplace of Pope Francis and Diego Maradona and final resting place of Evita. The famously seductive Argentine tango was born in the cobbled backstreets of the La Boca area, so there's no better place to experience this sultry dance.

JOURNEY THROUGH THE CLOUDS

Witness the unparalleled beauty of the highest peaks in the Canadian Rockies and the remote vistas of Canada's West

Travel through scenic valleys, the Coast Mountains range and the Fraser Canyon with its spectacular white water rapids and dramatic landscape. You will follow the route of the Fraser River, home of British Columbia's largest salmon run, pass by the Albretha Glacier and magnificent Pyramid Falls, and hopefully see wildlife on the way. The highlight of this route is majestic Mount Robson, the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies.

GoldLeaf Carriage

Amazing sights along the way...

Cisco Crossing

Find yourself where the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National rail tracks overlap. The orange truss arch bridge, one of two bridges, is the largest single span bridge on the Canadian National line at 247-metres (812 feet) long.

Pyramid Falls

This spectacular 91-metre (300-foot) waterfall tumbles glacier-fed water from a hanging valley into the Thompson River. Feel mist on your face and enjoy this spectacular view!

Mount Robson

Look up, way up. Also known as "The Great White Fright", Mount Robson claims the title of the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies at a staggering 3,954 metres (12,972 feet).

Hell's Gate

Every minute 750-million litres of water crashes through a narrow 33-metre (108-foot) wide gorge – double that of Niagara Falls. No wonder Hell's Gate put the "fear of God" into early explorers.

Moose Lake

Keep your eyes peeled for one of Canada's favourite animals! As the name of this lake suggests, there is a good chance you may spot a moose on the lake's shore.

DISCOVER CAPE TOWN:

South Africa's Vibrant 'Mother City'

Situated in the foothills of the 3,000 feet high flat-topped Table Mountain, Cape Town is overwhelming in its natural beauty. Its Mediterranean climate, extensive coastline and rugged mountain ranges make it one of the best places in the world to visit.

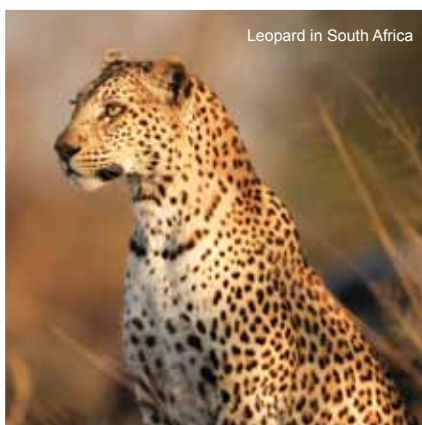

Cable Car to Table Mountain

Stellenbosch wine region

Leopard in South Africa

Whale in Hermanus

Cape Town, South Africa’s cultural mecca, is a much-desired destination to visit for many travellers. This eclectic ‘Mother City’ is proudly multi-cultural and its flourishing arts, dining and nightlife scenes offer something for everyone - including the Zeitz Museum of Contemporary African Art (MOCAA) in the V&A Waterfront, which collects, preserves and exhibits 21st century art from across Africa.

It will come as no surprise that the massive, flat-topped Table Mountain is South Africa’s most photographed landmark so be sure to catch a cable car to the top to enjoy spectacular views over the city. Not only this, but the Table Mountain National Park is home to 85 square miles of sheer beauty, including a plethora of flora and fauna, such as caracals (medium-sized wild cats), rock hyraxes and chacma baboons.

Other cultivated areas which should feature on your Cape Town ‘must-see’ list are the historic Company’s Garden, Kirstenbosch National Botanical Garden and Green Point Urban Park. The city lends itself to unparalleled adventure experiences including surfing, hiking, mountain-biking and even the chance to abseil off the top of Table Mountain!

Cape Town is also the perfect starting point to head off on a trip to many wineries and, as South Africa produces some of the very best wines in the world, be sure to sample some of the offerings. A mere hour from Cape Town lies Stellenbosch, an oak-lined town surrounded by 100 wine cellars, including favourites such as Kanonkop, Spier and Rust en Vrede.

Wildlife lovers will be in their element with a visit to Cape Town as you can join a number of excursions to go in search of ‘The Big Five’; African elephants, Cape buffaloes, lions, leopards and rhinos. Not only this, but nearby Hermanus is a prime whale-watching location and also offers shark-cave diving for the brave of heart.

Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 13 years.

Inside the new Spirit of Discovery

I'm peering over the flat, calm sea looking for signs of life with volunteers from Orca, the whale and dolphin charity, on day one of a celebratory voyage around the UK on Spirit of Discovery, the ship just launched by over 50's favourite, Saga Cruises.

"We've seen porpoises and Minke whales," one of the spotters tells me. As I scan the water with the binoculars Saga has thoughtfully provided in each of the cabins and suites, a cry goes up. "Seal to the port side." Turns out not only is the sea around the UK teeming with cetaceans but Spirit of Discovery's small size (she holds just 999 passengers) is perfect for spotting them.

She's the first new ship Saga has ever built and a real beauty, with stylish décor and furnishings that would not look out of place in one of London's top hotels. And just like Saga, she is British through and through. All the art on board is the work of artists living in the UK and she was welcomed into service with a right royal garden party in the port of Dover (the company even brought grass down from Yorkshire for the occasion!).

"I name this ship Spirit of Discovery," intoned her Godmother, the HRH Duchess of Cornwall, as a jeroboam of English sparkling wine smashed against the hull and we were showered with confetti. You could almost cut the excitement with a knife.

A few days later, fireworks lit up the night sky as we set sail from Dover on a maiden cruise that would take Spirit of Discovery to England, Scotland, Ireland and Guernsey before returning to White Cliffs country.

That gave me plenty of time to get to know the ship, which is blessed with a huge library, a large spa with therapists trained in everything from massages and facials to acupuncture, a gym and exercise studio, where you can work off all the calories you will put on trying out her five restaurants.

I say that with confidence, having sampled them all. As well as the main restaurant and self-service grill, there are Asian specialities in East to West, seafood in Coast to Coast and hearty steaks in The Club by Jools Holland. Of course I had to try the Hootenanny star's signature New York striploin steak - and then I had to go back and have it another night as well!

Jools will be playing in the theatre on selected Discovery cruises this year and next; when he's not around, there are sparkling song and dance shows and guest entertainers to get the evenings rocking.

The restaurants are all complimentary, as is wine or beer with lunch and dinner, tips and Wi-Fi, and Saga even provides free VIP home transfers in the UK (there is a mileage limit) so getting to and from the departure port is easy.

The spacious cabins all have a balcony and are equipped with kettles so you can have an early-morning cuppa. There are plenty of single rooms, also all with a balcony, and all priced so solo travellers don't find themselves paying for two people. Treat yourself to a suite and you get a butler, a walk-in wardrobe and afternoon tea and pre-dinner canapés served in your room.

The round-Britain cruise was a great way to explore the UK. From Newcastle, I joined a tour to Durham, a delightful city with a huge cathedral built in the 10th century and the third-largest university in England. From Kirkwall in the Orkneys, I went bird-spotting with guide Brian ("the island is a transatlantic transport café for birders," he told me, pointing out flocks of greylag geese, fulmars, guillemots and oyster catchers).

I walked the Royal Mile between the castle and Holyrood in Edinburgh, enjoyed a day of sunshine and scenery as we cruised through the Hebrides and relived the excitement and tragedy of the Titanic's maiden cruise at the Titanic Belfast exhibition. There were trips to Llangollen Steam Railway from Liverpool and to Blarney Castle from Cobh, while garden tours and a boat ride to Sark awaited in St. Peter Port in Guernsey.

Saga has another round-Britain cruise scheduled for September 2020, but this time on Spirit of Adventure, a sister ship to Discovery launching next August. I've seen some of the early drawings and while she'll be the same on the outside, the interior is quite different. In place of the seafood and Asian restaurants, she'll have Italian and Nepalese eateries.

You can find out more about the cruises the two ships are offering next year elsewhere in this issue of Blue Horizons but expect voyages to the Norwegian fjords, Mediterranean and even to the Caribbean.

Spirit of Adventure is heading to the Baltic for her maiden cruise in August and going in search of port and wine on a September cruise to France and Spain that visits the Portuguese port of Leixões and spends two days in Bordeaux.

A seven night Scenes of Dunkirk voyage on Spirit of Discovery marks the 80th Anniversary of Operation Dynamo in May 1940, when hundreds of thousands of British troops were evacuated from the Dunkirk beaches to escape advancing German troops. Come October 2020, she'll be glamping it up with a just-for-fun pop-up casino on board as she heads to chic Monaco and St. Tropez.

Talk about spoilt for choice!

WILDLIFE OF ANTARCTICA

MEET THE PENGUINS

Penguins are the most common birds in the Antarctic. Living in colonies with populations larger than some cities, and surviving in the harshest of conditions, it is no wonder that penguins are seen as the emblem of the Great White Continent. However, of the 17 different species of penguin, only two (Emperor and Adélie) make the Antarctic continent their true home, although others (Chinstrap, Gentoo and Macaroni) breed on the northern tip of the Antarctic Peninsula, where conditions are less harsh.

WONDERFUL WHALES

A favourite among Antarctica cruise-goers, whales are beautiful, enigmatic and fascinating creatures. Highly intelligent with complex social lives, Antarctic whales capture the imagination of all who witness the spectacle. Few sights on Earth can beat seeing a pod of orcas or a Humpback breaching the surface of the water. Almost 75% of the world's orcas live in Antarctica, which is truly a paradise for whales.

ANTARCTICA'S SIX SEALS

One of the joys of an Antarctica cruise is being able to observe seals up close. Whilst only six of the 35 species of seal live in Antarctica, Antarctic Fur Seals, Leopard Seals, Ross Seals, Crabeater Seals, Elephant Seals and Weddell Seals, these six species actually make up the vast majority of all seals on Earth.

JENNIE BOND'S ADVENTURE TO THE GREAT WHITE CONTINENT

ROL Cruise Ambassador, Journalist & TV Presenter, Jennie Bond recently embarked on the voyage of a lifetime, courtesy of the tailor-made experts at ROL Cruise. Here, she tells us all about her Antarctica experience with Hurtigruten...

“Nothing will compare with that first morning when I pulled back the curtain and, through the porthole, saw a huge iceberg just yards away, framed by a background of virgin white mountains against a clear blue sky... We had reached the South Shetland Island, where the icebergs were studded with hues of turquoise and green. Occasionally there were seals resting on top, sunbathing on the ice as if it were the warmest sand.”

INTRODUCING THE BRAND NEW MS FRIDTJOF NANSEN

Featuring Hurtigruten's revolutionary hybrid powered propulsion system, MS Fridtjof Nansen will be a near identical twin to her sister ship MS Roald Amundsen, and will honour the heritage of her namesake, the Norwegian explorer and scientist. Combining state of the art technology and a premium on board experience with unforgettable destinations, MS Fridtjof Nansen will introduce you to the next generation of adventure travel. Don't miss your chance to join her on her maiden voyage to Antarctica.

THE FUTURE IS GREEN

Hurtigruten have made history by removing all single-use plastics from their ships. In the hope that other cruise lines will follow suit, Hurtigruten, who sail to some of the world's most remote, pristine and delicate environments, have made their announcement at a time when concern for rising plastic in the oceans is at an all time high. To ensure they are operating with the smallest footprint possible, Hurtigruten have removed plastic straws, coffee lids and plastic bags on all of their 14 ships, even single-use butter packaging!

BOOK a Superior Veranda Suite or above & your COMPLIMENTARY Private UK Chauffeur Service will transfer you to the airport in style

Day 1 Fly from London to Quito, Ecuador†

Upon arrival, transfer to a 5★ hotel for your two night stay†

Day 2 Quito, Ecuador

Today, explore Quito at your leisure

Day 3 Quito, Ecuador – San Cristóbal, Galápagos

Transfer to Quito airport for your short flight to San Cristóbal, Galápagos. Upon arrival, transfer to the port and embark the brand new Silver Origin for your seven night all-inclusive ultra-luxury maiden expedition voyage of the Galápagos

Roca Leon Dormido (pm)

Today you will circumnavigate Kicker Rock, one of the most iconic features of the Galápagos Islands. The small landform is formed by two tall towers of lava rock and when viewed from the south, resembles a sleeping lion. As the ship steers around the islands, your Expedition Team will point out seabirds, such as Swallowtailed Gulls, Nazca Boobies and frigatebirds

Day 4 Bartolomé Island (am)

Anchor in sight of the volcanic moonscape of Isla Bartolomé, at Sullivan Bay. Ascend a boardwalk of 388 steps, passing through the arid volcanic landscape, for a chance to watch for lava lizards, Galápagos Hawks and Blue-footed boobies. Go snorkelling or take a walk along the beach to look for the playful Galápagos penguin, perched on a rock or zooming underwater

Playa Espumilla, Santiago (pm)

Playa Espumilla is located on the northwestern side of Santiago Island and is home to a variety of wildlife including nesting green sea turtles, and plentiful birds such as flamingos, White-cheeked Pintails, Yellow Warblers, Galápagos Hawks, Whimbrels, and American Oystercatchers. You can embark on a kayak or Zodiac tour and spy some of the beautiful geologic features of the area, red cliffs, natural caves and unique rock formations

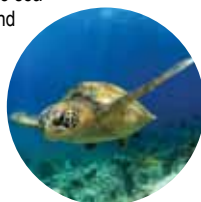

Day 5 Punta Vicente Roca, Isabela (am)

Punta Espinoza, Fernandina (pm)

With the gentle slopes of La Cumbre volcano in the distance, the low, lava-forged coast of Punta Espinoza on Fernandina Island is a spectacular sight. Hundreds of marine iguanas rest on the black rock of recent lava flows absorbing heat from the stone and defending their territories against one another. Galápagos sea lions and their pups also take shelter here, resting on the beach and playing in the shallow tide pools sprinkled along the coast

Day 6 Caleta Tagus, Isabela (am)

The protected waters of Tagus cove are home to sea turtles, marine iguanas, flightless cormorants and Galápagos penguins. Here you can choose to kayak, snorkel or head ashore to discover centuries-old names of vessels that were painted or carved onto the rock near the landing site. After landing by Zodiac, join a hike through the forest of Palo Santo trees to access the upper reaches of a volcanic cone

Bahia Elizabeth, Isabela (pm)

The tallest red mangrove trees in the Galápagos are found in Elizabeth Bay, an idyllic mangrove lagoon and a fascinating place to observe marine life. Enjoy a Zodiac tour through the mangroves where sea turtles swim close to the surface, and pelicans and herons stalk for fish

Day 7 Post Office Bay, Floreana (am)

A sea lion rookery has developed on Floreana's northern shore. Amid lava rocks that are dotted with prickly pear cacti and sesuvium, a small colony thrives. As you kayak along the turquoise waters of the coast, you may find many other creatures that look for shelter amid the red and white mangroves: Eagle rays, Marine turtles, Brown pelicans and resting Cattle egrets

Islote Campéon, Floreana (midday)

Punta Cormorant, Floreana (pm)

Day 8

Cerro Dragón, Santa Cruz (am)

Cerro Dragón's land iguanas once played an important part in a conservation program headed by the Charles Darwin Foundation and the Galápagos National Park. When the reptiles' numbers declined in the 1970s, some were taken to breed in captivity and were released back into undeveloped areas

Las Bachas, Santa Cruz (pm)

Day 9

Los Gemelos, Santa Cruz (am)

Los Gemelos are twin sinkholes, one on either side of the road running from Puerto Ayora to the north side of the island. The mammoth scale of the landmarks often elicits exclamations of wonder from visitors at first sight. The vertical walls of the sinkholes fall deep into the ground covered in a veil of greenery hiding the bottom of the pit. Walk along the craters' edges before stopping at Rancho El Manzanillo to see giant Santa Cruz tortoises

Estacion Darwin & Puerto Ayora, Santa Cruz (pm)

YOUR WEST AFRICAN TREASURES VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

Lion in South Africa

CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA ★TWO NIGHT HOTEL STAY†★

Situated in the foothills of the 3,000 feet high flat-topped Table Mountain, Cape Town is overwhelming in its natural beauty. Its Mediterranean climate, extensive coastline and rugged mountain ranges make it one of the best places in the world to visit. A mere hour from Cape Town lies Stellenbosch, an oak-lined town surrounded by 100 wine cellars, including favourites such as Kanonkop, Spier and Rust en Vrede. If time allows, you can join a shore excursion to search for 'The Big Five' (African elephants, Cape buffaloes, lions, leopards and rhinos) during your trip.

Dune 7, Namib Desert

WALVIS BAY, NAMIBIA

Walvis Bay, a port town on the coast of Namibia is situated at a wide lagoon which is home to abundant birdlife including flamingos, pelicans and Damara terns. Join a boat trip* along the coast to view dolphins and seals, journey to 'Dune 7' just outside the town for impressive views and, for the more active, sand boarding. On a clear day back in town, you'll be able to see the black and white lighthouse at the tip of the lagoon and worth visiting are the local museum in the Civic Centre and the wooden Rhenish Mission Church, which dates back to 1880.

Lisbon, Portugal

LISBON, PORTUGAL ★TWO NIGHT HOTEL STAY†★

One of the oldest cities in the world, Lisbon is rich in architecture and criss-crossed by monument-studded grand boulevards. Must-sees include the church of Igreja de Sao Vicente de Fora, which dates back to the 12th century; Museu Calouste Gulbenkian, one of Europe's leading fine arts museums; and Torre de Belém, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the most famous monuments in Portugal.

SOUTH AFRICAN BUNNY CHOW

A delicious dish originating from Durban's Indian community in the 1940s, Bunny Chow is a popular curry made with masses of cardamom and garlic, served in a hollowed-out loaf which soaks up all the gorgeous juices and fantastic flavours. This one-of-a-kind dish exemplifies the natural fusion of South African cuisine and is often served by street-food vendors and in Indian-style restaurants. Rest assured, there are no bunnies involved in the creation of this dish, with the term 'bunny' referring to the word 'Bania', an Indian class of traders who first sold this tasty street food.

Ingredients

- 2 tbsp vegetable oil
- ½ tsp cumin seeds
- ½ tsp fennel seeds
- 2.5cm/1in piece of cinnamon stick
- 2 green cardamom pods
- 1 star anise
- 1 bay leaf
- 1 onion, finely chopped
- 2 tbsp South African curry powder
- 2 tomatoes, chopped
- 1kg/2lb boneless leg of lamb, cut into 1.5cm/ ½in dices
- 1 tbsp finely chopped fresh ginger
- 1 tbsp finely chopped garlic
- 10 - 12 curry leaves
- 2 large potatoes, cut in cubes the same size as the meat
- Salt
- 2 tbsp finely chopped coriander leaves
- 2 tbsp lime juice
- 2 loaves of crusty white bread, unsliced, each cut across in half in the middle and most of the crumbs removed
- Coriander cress or sprigs, to garnish

Method

1. Heat the oil in a pan and sauté the whole spices and bay leaf until the spices sizzle.
2. Add the onion and cook for 5 – 7 minutes until translucent.
3. Stir in the curry powder and sauté for one minute, then add the tomatoes and stir to mix.
4. Cook on medium heat, stirring often, until you get a sauce-like consistency.
5. Add the meat, ginger, garlic and curry leaves and 300ml/11fl oz water, bring to the boil then reduce the heat and simmer, stirring occasionally, for 40 - 50 minutes or until the meat is tender.
6. Add the potatoes, salt to taste and 200ml/7fl oz water. Continue simmering until the meat and potatoes are perfectly cooked (about 15 minutes).
7. Stir in the chopped coriander and lime juice.
8. To serve, spoon into the hollows in the bread and garnish with coriander cress.

Why not accompany your Bunny Chow with Saga's signature cocktail found on board Spirit of Discovery – 'Gin Gin'?

Half fill a glass with cubed ice and pour over 50ml Kentish Anno Gin. Add a slice or two of cool cucumber and some mint leaves. Splash over 20ml Elderflower cordial, fill with more ice and top up with Champagne.
