Bald kings and would-be tsars

I'm starting to feel a tad sorry for Louis XIV, the French Sun King, as I wander around the Palace of Versailles. He might have owned this grand pad on the outskirts of Paris (700 rooms, more than 67 staircases and acres and acres of manicured gardens) but life wasn't all champagne and gala balls.

Regensburg Merchants Tower

Maria-Theresa of Spain, was really u-g-l-y (this from my guide Sabrina); for another, he lost all his hair by the age of 20 and took to wearing a wig. Smart courtiers followed suit (wearing a wig, not going bald) and lo, a new courtly fashion was born.

One of the things I love about river cruising is the fascinating and often quirky things you discover.

In this instance I was sailing the Seine, a cruise from Paris that took me from Impressionist painters (Monet's famous lily ponds in his garden at Giverny), to Richard the Lionheart, who owned the once-magnificent Château Gaillard in Les Andelys in the days when Normandy was part of England. These cruises also visit the Normandy beaches where Allied troops landed in June 1944, marking the start of the end of the Second World War.

Scenic has a one-off cruise next June to mark the 75th anniversary of D-Day that includes two days in Honfleur for the parades and commemorations. If you can't get away then, check out its 11 day itinerary on the Seine, and, new for 2019, eight day sailings for those tight on time.

Discovering the Danube

Richard the Lionheart pops up again on the Danube but here 'his' castle was actually his prison. It's on a rocky crag above the village of Dürnstein and a steep climb up, but story-boards along the way tell how and why he was captured (in a nutshell, he insulted Leopold V, Duke of Austria).

More importantly, they are a good excuse to stop and get your breath back!

Emerald Waterways has a guided hike to the castle, now a ruin, on an eight day Classic Danube cruise between Nuremberg and Vienna that's new for 2019. It's a great itinerary that visits Regensburg, a delightful city with tall towers that merchants built to show off their wealth (mine is bigger than yours syndrome) and narrow medieval streets that once doubled as sewers.

Cat and mouse

The Rhine Gorge is famous for fortresses – more than 40 line the cliffs – but who knew there was one called Burg Maus (Mouse Castle), which is said to have gained its nickname from the Counts of Katzenelnbogen, who built nearby Burg Katz (Cat Castle). And they say the Germans don't have a sense of humour!

You'll see both castles on two new festive-themed cruises from APT in November 2019. If, like me, you feel it's a bit too early to think about Christmas, how about booking one of APT's Magnificent Europe cruises between Amsterdam and Budapest instead.

The itinerary is, well, magnificent, and includes a journey through the Rhine Gorge and calls at Rüdesheim, a pretty town with a museum devoted to hurdy-gurdy machines. It is better than it sounds, as there are great guides and the fairground organs, music boxes and gramophones are just about able to blast out a tune despite their advanced years.

Murder most horrid

APT's 2018 Russian river cruises sold like hot cakes so I'm not surprised it has put on more departures in 2019. Two APT and four Travelmarvel sailings have just gone on sale and I am sure they will be snapped up. You have been warned!

Regensburg Tower

Moscow and St. Petersburg are the big hitters for their museums, palaces and art galleries but there's plenty to discover on the voyage between the two cities: a wise prince who fought a bear in Yaroslavl; a wooden church with 22 domes built without nails and a church erected where Ivan the Terrible's young son Dmitri had his throat cut (I'll let you work out which is a legend).

Clue: It wasn't the Uglich story. The lad was indeed murdered, most likely on the orders of Boris Godunov, who was regent to Dmitri's brother Fyodor, a sickly boy expected to die and pass the throne to his sibling. Enter Boris, who wanted to be Tsar. That's when the stories start to get a bit fanciful. My favourite is that when the boy's body was found, a chapel bell was rung and the murderers caught. As punishment for sounding the alarm, Boris had the bell flogged and its 'tongue' (the clapper) exiled to Siberia.

Big and even bigger Buddha

River cruising in Asia adds an exotic twist to the quirky stories, like the King in Myanmar who never finished building his giant pagoda because he was told he would die if he did. Spoiler alert: he died anyway. Or how about the statue of Buddha in the Maha Muni Pagoda in Mandalay that is growing because so much gold leaf is added to it by eager worshippers.

I see Emerald Waterways is cruising the Irrawaddy for the first time in 2019 sailing between Yangon and Myanmar on what is sure to be a fascinating itinerary. I've been there several times and just love it. Why not check it out and see how many fun stories you can come home with?

THE EAGERLY ANTICIPATED CELEBRITY EDGESM FLOATS OUT OF DRY DOCK

Celebrity Cruises® are delighted to offer the world a glimpse of what's to come as their brand new ship Celebrity EdgeSM floated out of her dry dock. As Celebrity's first new ship in six years, Celebrity EdgeSM is as innovative as she is attractive. "This truly is an exciting moment for our brand," said Lisa Lutoff-Perlo, President and CEO of Celebrity Cruises®. "The float out process marks a milestone in the building of Celebrity EdgeSM. With exterior construction complete, the amazing STX France team will now turn their attention to bringing all of the meticulously designed venues and transformational staterooms and suites to life."

INTRODUCING CELEBRITY EDGESM

SUITES THAT ARE ICONIC IN EVERY WAY

Introducing the Iconic Suite, the most luxurious and spacious in the fleet. Situated above the bridge, on the very top of the ship, these spacious suites have two bedrooms with a king-sized Cashmere Collection bed and two bathrooms with a full shower and whirlpool tub. There's more than enough space for six guests.

TWO LEVELS OF INCOMPARABLE LUXURY

These six, two storey luxury villas are the first of their kind in the fleet – introducing Edge Villas, the second new suite category on Celebrity EdgeSM. Each offers a spacious 739 square feet of split-level splendour, plus one bedroom and two bathrooms – perfect for up to four guests.

GIVING THE STATEROOMS THE EDGE

Infinite Balconies are the most transformational aspect of the Edge Staterooms. They are not just new; they are a first at sea. These take the standard Celebrity Cruises® Balcony Stateroom and with the touch of a button you can blur, even erase, the boundaries between inside and outside living space – which makes them seriously spacious.

DINE, DRINK, OR SIMPLY RELAX

The Magic Carpet, the size of a tennis court, reaching heights of 13 storeys above sea level – it is the world's first cantilevered, floating platform; majestically situated on the starboard side of Celebrity EdgeSM; making the ship's sleek profile recognisable from miles away. Designed with comfortable seating, bar, and space for live music performances – a destination itself.

STAR CLIPPERS
Unique Sailing Adventures

A BEAUTIFUL TALL SHIP VOYAGE WITH STAR CLIPPERS

A Star Clippers voyage really will change the way you feel about cruising forever and is everything a conventional cruise is not; created for discerning passengers who love the romance of the legendary era of tall sailing ships. With just 227 guests, life on board is blissfully relaxed, much like being on a private yacht.

The entertainment is low key; dining is a relaxed affair with an incredibly high standard of culinary delights. After dinner each evening, all that's left to do is take your drink up onto the top deck where amongst friends old and new, you'll watch the sails be hoisted up into the sky against a beautiful backdrop of sea and sunset, the only noise to be heard is the wind through the sails.

TRUE SAILING

Star Clippers is a niche tall ship operator and is the only cruise company to offer an authentic, natural sailing experience with both modern propulsion methods and traditional sailing.

UNIQUE PORTS OF CALL

Star Clippers visit intimate ports often untouched by larger cruise ships and offers passengers the activities, amenities and atmosphere of a private yacht.

UNRIVALED SERVICE

On board, guests will experience 2:1 guest to crew ratio

GET INVOLVED

Passengers, if they want to, can get involved with sailing the ship, climbing the mast to the crow's nest and pulling the ropes

WATER SPORTS

A number of different water-related activities are complimentary on board such as kayaking, wind surfing, snorkelling and much more

Join Oriana in Southampton and sail into the sunny climes of the Mediterranean. Climb sleeping volcanoes; lose yourself in Venice's romantic waterways and explore the sparkling gems along the Dalmatian coast. With UNESCO World Heritage Sites at almost every turn, you'll have plenty of time to explore!

Start spring a little early in the soft Canaries sunshine as you sail from Southampton heading for the year-round sun of the Canaries. With a day to explore the rugged cliff faces and pretty little white-walled villages of lesser-known gem La Gomera, an overnight call in Madeira where you can enjoy extended exploration time – Funchal is a riot of colour with its gardens and flower markets – and evening calls to La Palma and Lanzarote, you can see why P&O Cruises call this a discovery cruise.

YOUR CRUISE HIGHLIGHTS

In so many ways, this is a truly epic Caribbean adventure, brimming with sunshine and happy faces. Depart Southampton, bound for the rose-tinted sands of Hamilton in Bermuda for an overnight stay. Then, it's on to Nassau in the Bahamas with its rum punch, stunning beaches and straw markets. A string of sparkling island gems follows. Give in to the rustic charms of Grand Turk. Dip beneath the turquoise waters of Antigua for some serious snorkelling. Take in blissful Barbados and the French-Dutch charms of St. Maarten, before heading back home via Praia da Vitoria in the Azores.

A TRULY ENRICHING EXPERIENCE OF Vietnam & Cambodia

SCENIC[®]
LUXURY CRUISES & TOURS

ROL Cruise Account Manager, Gemma Wyncoll, was lucky enough to visit Vietnam & Cambodia with Scenic, here she shares her experience...

I'd always wanted to visit Vietnam and Cambodia and by choosing a Scenic river cruise this took all the hassle out of finding out what sites to visit, and where to stay and eat, as with Scenic it's all included and taken care of so you can travel in complete luxury and peace of mind.

Enrich – Candlelit Dinner

At the beginning of the tour we had a welcome meeting. All Scenic guests are split into groups with each having its own Tour Director to offer a more intimate experience. Our Tour Director was Nghia from Saigon, a big Chelsea fan who talked us through all the Scenic Freechoice excursions. Scenic include all sightseeing excursions, plus you have a choice of sightseeing activities so you can tailor them to your own interests. The guides are the best I've ever had, they are so friendly, and their expert knowledge really brings each destination to life. Exploring these countries simply wouldn't be the same without their interesting stories.

Freechoice – Tra Su Bird Sanctuary

TURN OVER TO EXPERIENCE THE WONDERS OF VIETNAM AND CAMBODIA FOR YOURSELF

Upon embarking the ship you are greeted with a refreshing towel and cold drink. You are soon shown to your room where your bags are waiting, and you have some free time to explore.

Scenic Spirit is only two years old and boasts the largest suites on the Mekong and it's true our Deluxe Suite was very spacious, and our butler arrived shortly to introduce herself and to see if there was anything we needed. There really wasn't anymore we could ask for as the room had fresh fruit, champagne and a fully stocked mini bar. The room had the Scenic Sun Lounge which, at the touch of a button, drops the window down, creating a balcony. The bed was adjustable too, so you could raise your head or feet, something I've never seen on a cruise ship before.

By the time I went to dinner most of the staff already knew my name. One of the waitresses, Leakena, is a ray of sunshine, always happy and smiling and I was very sad to say goodbye.

All drinks are included on board, even the premium brands, and are available 24/7. If you want a light bite you can also dine in the river café or room service is available 24 hours, so you really won't go hungry. In the Crystal Dining restaurant you can dine when and with who you want, so you can have an intimate table for two one night and then join your new-found friends the next.

With only 68 guests on board the ship is lovely and intimate yet so spacious it's easy to find a spot to yourself. I really enjoyed sitting in the bar as we sailed along the Mekong, watching the local fisherman, or in the sun lounge in my room; the perfect spot to watch the world go by. There is even a pool on board which is great for cooling off in the hot weather.

Throughout the trip it is clear how much Scenic support the communities they visit from donations to excursions which contribute to the local economy. The exclusive Scenic Enrich events are spectacular, from your VIP seats at the Circus to a candle-lit dinner where you'll enjoy a cultural performance with an Angkor Temple as the backdrop. These really are the highlight of the trip, offering unique, once-in-a-lifetime, money can't buy experiences.

This has been a truly enriching experience I will treasure forever. I don't feel like I have just visited these countries, I have been fully immersed in the culture, history and local way of life. This tour with Scenic is the perfect way to discover these countries in complete luxury and where the crew and guides' priority is simply to make you happy and provide the holiday you dreamed of. My expectations have been completely surpassed and I would recommend visiting these countries soon as it won't be long before the modern-day world catches up with them.

A classic Chinese dish of stir-fried egg noodles with shredded chicken breast – experiment with different fish, meat, or vegetables

Ingredients

225g dried or fresh egg noodles
 1 tbsp sesame oil, plus 1 tsp
 100g boneless, skinless chicken breasts, cut into fine shreds
 2½ tbsp groundnut oil
 2 garlic cloves, finely chopped
 50g mangetout, finely shredded
 50g Parma ham or cooked ham, finely shredded
 2 tsp light soy sauce
 2 tsp dark soy sauce
 1 tbsp Shaoxing rice wine or dry Sherry
 ½ tsp freshly ground white pepper
 ½ tsp golden caster sugar
 2 spring onions, finely chopped
 1 tsp salt
For the marinade
 2 tsp light soy sauce
 2 tsp Shaoxing rice wine or dry Sherry
 1 tsp sesame oil
 ½ tsp golden caster sugar
 ½ tsp salt

Method

- Cook the noodles in a large pan of boiling water for 3-5 mins, then drain and put them in cold water. Drain thoroughly, toss them with 1 tbsp of the sesame oil and set aside.
- Combine the chicken with all the marinade ingredients and ½ tsp salt, mix well and then leave to marinate for about 10 mins.
- Heat a wok over a high heat. Add 1 tbsp of the groundnut oil and, when it is very hot and slightly smoking, add the chicken shreds. Stir-fry for about 2 mins and then transfer to a plate. Wipe the wok clean. Reheat the wok until it is very hot, then add the remaining groundnut oil. When the oil is slightly smoking, add the garlic and stir-fry for 10 secs. Then add the mangetout and ham, and stir-fry for about 1 min.
- Add the noodles, soy sauces, rice wine or Sherry, pepper, sugar, spring onions and 1 tsp salt. Stir-fry for 2 mins. Return the chicken and any juices to the noodle mixture. Stir-fry for about 3-4 mins or until the chicken is cooked. Add 1 tsp sesame oil and give the mixture a few final stirs. Put on a warm platter and serve immediately.
