ROL CRUISE RAISES £6,000 FOR THE 2017 POPPY APPEAL

For every booking made between 5th – 12th November ROL Cruise pledged a £10 donation to the Appeal's Colchester area. The directors of ROL Cruise then agreed to round up the final donation sum to £6,000.

Commenting on the donation, Sarah Wikevand, Commercial, Marketing & Media Director said: "We are absolutely delighted to have raised such an incredible sum for the Royal British Legion's Poppy Appeal fund. It is a cause we are all proud to support and the amount raised will really help to make a difference in supporting the Armed Forces community."

ROL Cruise are delighted to have been a part of this invaluable cause, with all amounts raised going to the Royal British Legion Benevolent Fund, which provides lifelong support for the Armed Forces community; serving men and women, veterans, and their families and dependants who are in need.

★NUKU'ALOFA, TONGA★

One of the most stunning sights here is the Royal Palace, built in 1867. The wooden palace was the King's official residence, and a tortoise gifted to the island by Captain Cook lived there until 1966.

★DARWIN, AUSTRALIA★

As well as markets and crocodiles, the Northern Territory's capital represents a strong Aboriginal culture, as evidenced by the array of languages spoken in the streets, and the vibrant Aboriginal art that fills the city's galleries and museums.

★CARTAGENA DE INDIAS, COLOMBIA★

Cartagena's old town is a Unesco World Heritage site – a maze of cobbled alleys, balconies covered in bougainvillea, and majestic churches that overlook stunning plazas.

★SALALAH, OMAN★

Year-round, Salalah's coconut-fringed beaches and plantations of bananas and papayas offer a flavour of Zanzibar in the heart of the Arabian desert.

MAKE A CRUISE YOUR New Year's Resolution

It's hard to think of a better start to the New Year than booking yourself a cruise or two, but with so many places to choose from, where do you start? Here are my 10 top tips on where to cruise in 2018.

Jane
ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and the Daily Telegraph Travel's cruise expert. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for ten years.

In what must be a first, Norwegian Cruise Line is sending a new ship to Alaska. Norwegian Bliss launches next spring and will be sailing seven night cruises to Alaska from Seattle between June and the end of September. The ship is brilliant, with a go-kart track on the top deck and exciting water slides (I'm not sure they'll get much use in chilly Alaska though!). Combine the cruise with a trip on the Rocky Mountaineer train and a few nights in Seattle and you'll have ticked off three things on my bucket list!

If it's May it must be Seabourn Ovation. This new Seabourn ship is a sister to Encore, which was christened in Singapore last January. I loved Encore's yacht-like looks and Ovation will be just as fab. She'll spend her maiden season in Northern Europe, sailing to the Norwegian Fjords and Baltic from Stockholm or Copenhagen, and she is even coming to the UK in September for a 16 day round-Britain cruise. Clear the dates in your diary now!

It's farewell Adonia in March as P&O Cruises' smallest ship leaves the fleet, only to reappear five months later with a new look and new name as she starts a new life sailing as Azamara Pursuit for Azamara Club Cruises®. That's excuse enough for Azamara to schedule its first-ever no-fly cruise from the UK – a 15 night voyage to Iceland round-trip from Southampton. After a summer in the Med, she'll be off to South America to spend New Year's Eve off Copacabana Beach in Brazil.

If you like Asian cuisine, you'll love APT's Mekong river cruise – especially as new in 2018 you'll get to dine at Vietnam House, a restaurant in Ho Chi Minh City owned by Australian celebrity chef and APT Ambassador Luke Nguyen. Better still, book the 9th August 2018 cruise and during a three night hotel stay in the city you can join Luke on a walking tour to see where his parents used to live and work, and learn about the street food that has inspired his cooking. The city stay is followed by a seven night cruise to Siem Reap in Cambodia, where there's another three night stay and included tours to Angkor Wat.

Taj Mahal, Agra, India

A fellow passenger on a recent cruise asked for suggestions for a luxury cruise to Antarctica. I gave a couple of names but added that the one she really didn't want to miss was Scenic Eclipse, the new luxury yacht Scenic is launching in August next year. Mainly because it's one that I really don't want to miss! Eight places to eat, butlers for all, a gorgeous spa, a seven-man sub and a helicopter for tours with a difference. Need I say more?

Scenic Eclipse and helicopter in Antarctica

Fred Olsen's Boudicca is getting a facelift next March – nothing too extravagant but she'll get new furniture, carpets and interactive TVs in all the cabins and the furnishings in some public areas will be refreshed. Once the work is finished, she'll be setting sail on a five night mystery cruise from Dover. It departs 29th March 2018 and I'd tell you where she is going except that, well, it's a mystery and the Captain is not saying!

Blink and you'll miss Holland America Line's Nieuw Statendam when she comes out of the shipyard in November 2018 as she is heading straight from Europe to the Caribbean. Which as I see it, is just a good reason for escaping to the West Indies for Christmas (the seven night 23rd December 2018 cruise spends the Big Day in the Dominican Republic, which is something very different to look forward to). If you need another excuse, she will feature the fabulous Sel de Mer brasserie that debuted on Koningsdam.

If Christmas in the warm doesn't appeal, how about a festive cruise with guaranteed snow and ice, coupled with the chance to sail on the world's first hybrid ship. The snow is in Antarctica (a Christmas cruise departing 11th December 2018 spends the Christmas Day in the Falkland Islands where there might not be so much white stuff but it will certainly be cold); the ship is Hurtigruten's Roald Amundsen, named after the Norwegian explorer who beat Scott to the South Pole. Launching in July next year, she can switch to electric power now and then so you can cruise among the icebergs in glorious silence. Magical.

If you've never cruised the Lower Danube (and even if you have), 2018 is the time to go (or go again). For one thing the cruise is a fascinating journey through the history of Eastern Europe under the Ottomans, Communists and, most recently, during the wars that led to the collapse of Yugoslavia. For another, Uniworld's Beatrice will be sailing there after being converted into a boutique-style Super Ship with new big suites and more places to eat. The 10 day Highlights of Eastern Europe has everything from Count Dracula to a rock fortress. You'll even get to sample sparkling Serbian wine. Who knew?

10

This one – an ROL exclusive that pairs a voyage on Celebrity Constellation® with a tour of India's Golden Triangle. I toured the Golden Triangle recently and it is magnificent; combining bustling bazaars, markets, temples and tombs in Delhi with the exquisite Taj Mahal in Agra (you'll have an early start to be there as the sun rises but believe me it is worth it) and the breathtaking Amber Fort in the pink city of Jaipur. The 24 night package also includes two nights in Abu Dhabi before embarking Constellation for a cruise to Cochin, Goa and Mumbai. Miss it if you dare!

Day 3 - Day 11 Svalbard Archipelago
The Svalbard archipelago is one of the world's northernmost inhabited areas with rugged glaciers and frozen tundra waiting to be explored. Due to her smaller size, technological capabilities and environmental controls, Scenic Eclipse will take you on an in-depth exploration of this fragile and remote region, with minimal impact. The extraordinary nature of this part of the world dictates the flexible sailing schedule. Your experienced Captain and Discovery Leaders will carefully plan each day's activities based on the conditions

★FREECHOICE★ - Equipped with a fleet of Zodiacs, kayaks, snow shoes, and a submarine, depending on ice and weather conditions, you'll enjoy daily excursions to discover the wildlife, marine life and their predators. Scenic Eclipse cruises in the prime time for wildlife spotting, and there will be many opportunities to see the dominant predators including the polar bear, Arctic fox and wolf. Marine species abound including the carefully protected walrus, and several species of whales. Your crew will navigate close to some of the most beautiful glaciers such as the Monacobreen Glacier on Svalbard and the 14th of July Glacier in north-western Spitsbergen where one of the most astonishing experiences will be the chance to witness a glacier calving. There will also be the chance to cruise some secluded bays and stunning fjords, as well as spotting the many species of birdlife that are present during the short Arctic summer. Each day the Discovery Leaders will schedule things so that even when you're on board you'll have plenty to keep you occupied, from entertaining presentations to documentaries and more. There will be time for you to relax in your suite, watch the live streaming on your TV from the exterior cameras, and tempt your palate as you explore the extensive range of dining options (B, L, D)

Your EXCLUSIVE COMPLIMENTARY Private UK Chauffeur Service will transfer you to the airport in style

- Tue 3 Fly from London to Reykjavik, Iceland (regional and premium class flights may be available on request*). Upon arrival, transfer to a luxury hotel† for your two night stay
- Wed 4 Reykjavik, Iceland
Only a short distance from the city are some of Iceland's most beautiful locations, including the nation's 'holy place', Þingvellir, where the world's oldest parliament was established in 930AD. Further east is the renowned waterfall Gullfoss, 'Golden Falls', and the Geysir hot springs. Alternatively, why not enjoy a whale watching tour
- Thu 5 Reykjavik, Iceland
Transfer to the port and embark Silver Wind for your 12 night all-inclusive ultra-luxury voyage to Montréal
- Mon 9 St. John's, Newfoundland, Canada
Old meets new in the province's capital with modern office buildings surrounded by heritage shops and colourful row houses. For centuries, Newfoundland was the largest supplier of salt cod in the world and St. John's Harbour was at the centre of the trade
- Tue 10 St. Pierre, St. Pierre & Miquelon, Canada (depart early pm)
- Wed 11 Corner Brook, Newfoundland, Canada
Newfoundland's fourth-largest city, Corner Brook is the hub of the island's west coast. Hills fringe three sides of the city, which has dramatic views of the harbor and the Bay of Islands. The town is also home to a large paper mill and a branch of Memorial University. Captain James Cook, the British explorer, charted the coast in the 1760s, and a memorial to him overlooks the bay
- Thu 12 Havre St. Pierre, Canada
- Fri 13 Sept-Îles, Québec, Canada
Viewing the workings of this major Canadian port from a waterfront boardwalk, no one would guess this was once a quiet fishing village. The place boomed after World War II, when large companies decided Sept-Îles would make a good base for expanding northern Québec's iron-mining industry. But all of the massive infrastructure can't trump Mother Nature. Beautiful beaches line the coast, and the islands of an archipelago park sit just offshore

- Sat 14 Cruising Saguenay River
The mouth of the Saguenay River is renowned for its Blue, Fin, Minke and Beluga whales; which breed in its cold waters. The river was an important trade route for First Nation peoples, before becoming essential to the colonial fur trade
- Saguenay, Canada (arrive pm)
- Sun 15 - Mon 16 Québec City, Québec, Canada (overnight)
Québec City's alluring setting atop Cape Diamond evokes a past of high adventure, military history and exploration. This French-speaking capital city is the only walled city north of Mexico. Visitors come for the delicious and inventive cuisine and to share in the seasonal exuberance of the largest Francophone population outside France
- Tue 17 Montréal, Québec, Canada
Disembark and transfer to a luxury hotel† for your two night stay
- Wed 18 Montréal, Québec, Canada
Canada's most diverse metropolis, Montréal, is an island city that favours style and elegance over order or even prosperity, a city where past and present intrude on each other daily. In some ways it resembles Vienna – well past its peak of power and glory, perhaps, yet still vibrant and grand
- Thu 19 Montréal, Québec, Canada

PREPARE FOR Adventure

Pole Position

Hurtigruten sails directly beneath the auroral zone, an area of continuous and consistent aurora activity around the North Pole. Travelling at sea under the auroral zone means that displays can appear right above the ship. Outdoor observation decks provide a clear line of sight to the sky, and the close-up view avoids the artificial ambient light common on land.

Prime Time

It is in the frosty winter months when the Northern Lights are most visible, laying claim to the night sky.

- ✦ The Northern Lights will usually appear at multiple times and at multiple locations during your voyage
- ✦ On board announcements ensure you don't miss a single sighting
- ✦ There's no time limit placed on nature, so you can enjoy them to your heart's content for as often and for as long as they appear

Photography Survival Guide

Low temperatures and a gentle rocking motion can make on board photography a challenge. Fear not, we've put together a handy hints guide to help you get the most from those stoic stints on deck.

- ✦ Warm the batteries. When temperatures drop below freezing, battery life can decrease. By keeping spare batteries in your clothing and not in your bag, you won't be disappointed when it's time to replace them.
- ✦ Take a tripod. The deck of a ship isn't the most stable platform for stellar photography, but you can beat the bumps with a sturdy tripod to capture those steady images, and it saves your arms too!
- ✦ Smart phone at the ready. Even the most professional photographer can be caught out – never miss a shot by downloading the 'Slow Shutter Cam' app, this will prepare your smart phone to support long exposure photography, giving your phone's camera time to capture all the vibrant colours of the Aurora Borealis. For wildlife shots, make sure to pack ear phones, you can then use the volume button to take a quick snap and avoid pesky camera shake.

As the Scandinavians like to say (and they should know)...

“There's no such thing as bad weather, just bad clothes!”

Dress to Impress

- ✦ Wind proof, thermal clothing does what it says on the tin, trapping body heat and keeping you toasty warm. Make sure to wear multiple layers both indoors and outdoors
- ✦ Sturdy winter boots with good grip will serve you well as you explore ashore
- ✦ Make woollen jumpers and fleeces the staple of your Norwegian wardrobe
- ✦ Warm hat, gloves, socks and scarf; the essential winter kit we've all had knocking about since last Christmas
- ✦ And if your inner adventurer calls for a snowmobiling expedition*, don't worry, any specialist gear will be provided for you on certain excursions

- Mon 24 - Mon 31 Antarctica
This land and seascape with glaciers galore and beaches teeming with wildlife is a superb and a memorable place to celebrate Christmas. On board, you will be invited to take part in a real Norwegian Christmas celebration, with traditional food from Norway and Europe, carols and lots of fun. Among the places you might visit is

Deception Island – this is one of the few places in Antarctica where you can take your backpack and hike. Hiking on an active volcano is a rarity, and being in Antarctica makes it even more special. Look forward to visiting Half Moon Island's extremely diverse landscape which offers the most impressive manifestations of icebergs that you will see on this adventure. On Brown Bluff, Adélie and Chinstrap penguins, kelp gulls and cape petrels nest below spectacular cliffs that rise 745m out of the sea. When opportunities arise, you will be able to launch your kayak, and join an unforgettable hike to explore the most beautiful, untouched places on the planet

ANTARCTICA HIGHLIGHTS

HALF MOON ISLAND, SOUTH SHETLAND ISLANDS

The serrated and crevassed cliffs are home to a colony of Chinstrap penguins as well as Antarctic terns, Kelp gulls, Snowy sheathbills, Wilson's storm petrels, and several species of seals are regular visitors. Half Moon presents many photographic opportunities with its wildlife posed against scenic backgrounds and Antarctic highlights. Hike past the Teniente Camara Station and onto a view point that is a popular place to look for whales in the bay facing towards the Bransfield Strait

Karsten Bidstrup

YANKEE HARBOUR, SOUTH SHETLAND ISLANDS

The main attraction for many visitors is Yankee's terraced Gentoo penguin colony with an estimated 4,000 breeding pairs. Yankee Harbour offers views across the McFarlane Strait to Livingston Island and out into the Bransfield Strait, a common feeding area for whales

Karsten Bidstrup

NEKO HARBOUR

The bay is surrounded by the mountains and glaciers of the peninsula and its wildlife makes it a perfect arena for beautiful impressions. Neko Harbour is attractively located in the innermost part of the bay and takes its name from a whaler which was anchored here in the early 1900s. Neko is one of the very few places on the Antarctic Peninsula where one can come ashore on the Antarctic mainland. On land, there is a colony of Gentoo penguins

Karsten Bidstrup

WILHELMINA BAY

The mountains and high glacier walls of the Antarctic Peninsula around Wilhelmina Bay convey a mighty impression of ice and water. Everything from calving glacier fronts to floating ice, the magnificent contrasts of the interplay of the elements

Andreas Kalvig Anderson

Part Nine: BON VOYAGE

A Life Well Travelled

Diary of a Tour Ambassador

Each trip is unique, memorable and soul-quenching. Whether it's greeting my guests into their hotel, or seeing them off on a once-in-a-lifetime excursion to Pearl Harbor, strolling the narrow back streets of the Eternal City, or sipping a Singapore Sling in Raffles.

Gillian Lowes
ROL Cruise Ambassador

Spending time in these far-flung lands is when I feel most alive. I am very privileged to have the opportunity to feel at home in these exciting places.

I once read an article in which the writer tried to determine the 'best job in the world'. The winning employee was an agent who was the caretaker of Hamilton Island, off Australia's Gold Coast. I've been twice to Hamilton Island. It is a beautiful place, hence this man's job being envied as he gets to spend his days here. Hmm, I'm not convinced. In my job, I get to see a lot more than just one awesome place. And in this huge wondrous world that we are just passing through for 80 years or so (if we're lucky), it's only right that we soak up as much as we possibly can.

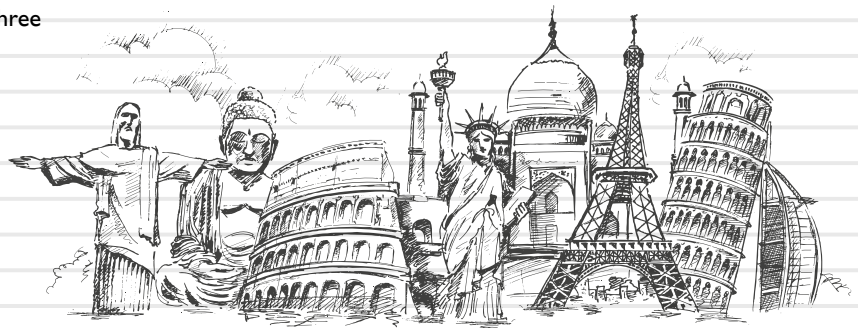

I hope that my story has brought to life some of the awe-inspiring places I've visited over the past three years. Words can often fail to do justice to the world's most incredible natural gifts.

It is for that reason, I will never ever take for granted that view of the Opera House every time I land in Sydney. Or the atmosphere of the locals clapping along to a Tango show in Buenos Aires' oldest district – the biggest privilege of all is that nothing and nobody can ever take away your memories.

As for what's in store for the future, most certainly more exciting trips, which started this year with a journey to Santiago, Chile. A brand new fresh destination waiting to be delved into. Spanish skills at the ready.

My long-term problem is of course, there will never be a time when I am ready to give up this lifestyle. I know that I will always travel in some capacity. My circumstances and desires may one day change, but for now I shall keep on indulging my insatiable travel bug.

Trouble is, as a wise traveller once quoted; 'You will never be completely at home again, because part of your heart will always be elsewhere. That is the price you pay for the richness of knowing people in more than one place'. I concur!

SEABOURN®

The Seabourn Difference

CRUISE IN ALL-INCLUSIVE
6★ LUXURY

Embarking on a Seabourn voyage is like finding what you've always been looking for in a cruise holiday... and more. Seabourn's 6★ all-inclusive ultra-luxury cruising takes your cruise experience to the next level, with stylish ships, all-suite accommodation and supreme services, plus all on board drinks and gratuities included.

Unrivalled Service

Intuitive, gracious service provided by a staff passionate about pleasing its guests. It is supremely relaxing to be looked after by thoughtful hosts, whose knack for anticipating what you might like borders on the clairvoyant.

Tippling is neither required nor expected – service simply to delight you. Seabourn's award-winning staff are driven only by their sincere desire to please, and with a smile that comes from the heart.

Delightful All-Suite Accommodation

Intimate ships with no more than 300 suites. A Seabourn ship is like a private club, where members share expansive open decks, inviting social spaces, and the personalised attention of an exceptional crew.

Spacious all-suite accommodation with sweeping ocean views – most with verandas. Seabourn suites are thoughtfully appointed and inviting; designed as homes away from home with room to unwind or entertain.

Complimentary welcome Champagne and in-suite bar stocked with your preferences. Soft drinks, beer and mineral water, complete glassware and your favourite wines or spirits are ready for your enjoyment or for entertaining.

World-Class Dining

Award-winning dining carefully prepared with the freshest quality ingredients, including seasonal specialities that are perfectly executed to order by Seabourn's skilled Chefs. Dishes inspired by Michelin-starred Chef Thomas Keller further elevate Seabourn's cuisine, contributing to an unsurpassed dining experience unlike any other at sea.

All dining venues are complimentary – dine where, when and with whom you wish. From casual to elegant indoors, al fresco or in your suite, a range of choices invites you to be spontaneous.

Open bars throughout the ship, and fine wines poured at lunch and dinner. Meet and mingle with fellow guests in a carefree atmosphere, where no one has to pick up the tab.

Exceptional Destinations

Unique itineraries to must-see cities and hidden gems where larger ships cannot go. Each cruise is a hand-picked collection of fascinating places, and each day brings a new opportunity for authentic discovery and another chance to explore your world in a personal and meaningful way.

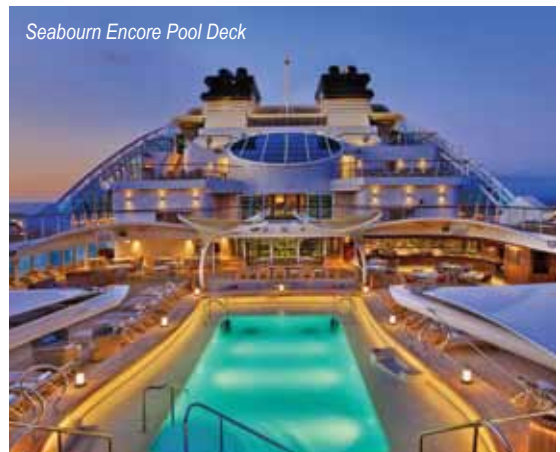

If there is one Seabourn event you should experience, it is definitely their signature "Caviar in the Surf" beach barbeque. A favourite amongst Seabourn guests and what's not to like about it? Their uniformed staff members plunge into the water and deliver champagne and Caviar to guests from a surfboard bar.

Going Solo

Loyal ROL Cruise customer, Michaela Kelly, reveals all about her experiences of cruising as a solo traveller...

The questions that are asked when you say you are going on a cruise ship alone range from: “Aren’t you brave!” to “Gosh, lucky you!” But it doesn’t take bravery to travel solo, as ROL Cruise will take care of you from booking, to embarkation and throughout your holiday.

I have never found travelling as a singleton too daunting, because I know how much fun and how rewarding it can be. To the uninitiated all I can say is – why leave all the fun to couples?

I recently met a lady on her first solo cruise who had seen an itinerary that she fancied and gone for it. She told me, “I never knew there was so much to see and do on board as a solo passenger. I found the cruising experience so much easier than expected as people were so friendly and welcoming when joining the many activities on board during the day and in the evening.”

In that sentence, she summed up all that is good about solo cruising: the people you meet, the amazing list of activities and the vibrant social scene.

What do I like most about solo travelling? The freedom. Whilst it’s nice to have a companion, for me it’s better to decide every day what only I want to do. So, to all those on-the-brink soloists I say, go for it! You will be so glad you did.

All the cruise lines cater for solo travellers because we are a growing market. Solos are being courted now as never before. Until perhaps ten years ago, there were no single cabins, just double for single occupancy, but now ships are being re-fitted with cabins designed just for one.

Ships also include solos meetings on board. In the past, this would be mostly elderly people but now the age range has dropped considerably, and both men and women are taking part. These meetings are a great way for people on their own to meet each other.

My only tips directed at solo travellers are, board with a smile on your face and do whatever takes your fancy.

For me, as a woman, I spend less time worrying about being single than I do about dressing for a “formal” evening in my sparkliest kit so I can make a grand entrance down a sweeping staircase into the dining room, there to be helped by a kind waiter to my table. It’s worth getting someone to take your picture doing this, like a film star! Then I will see a great show in an enormous theatre and finally try my luck at the casino.

With regard to the choice of cruise lines, it’s horses for courses, but having said that,

Michaela Kelly

“ Board with a smile on your face and do whatever takes your fancy ”

“ Top quality accommodation, top quality service and top quality entertainment ”

the basics are always the same: top quality accommodation, top quality service and top quality entertainment with excursions ashore at every port of call. If you want a medium-sized ship that can squeeze up narrow Norwegian Fjords, choose Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines’ beautiful Balmora; if you want to cross the Atlantic on a majestic Cunarder, the Queen Mary 2 is for you, whilst P&O Cruises provide a wide and amazing variety of on board entertainment. But truly, ALL the modern cruise ships will give you a holiday of a lifetime, single or otherwise. Don’t hesitate - the world awaits!

Did you know that ROL Cruise source fantastic solo deals exclusively for our Solo Traveller database? Don't miss out on our incredible offers and call one of our Cruise Specialists today to be added to our database!

Healthy Chicken Korma

PREP TIME - 10 mins + 30 mins marinade

COOK TIME - 20 mins

Method

- Grind turmeric, cumin, cinnamon, coriander, saffron, ginger and garlic in a spice grinder.
- Place the yoghurt into a bowl with the spice mix and mix well to combine the flavours.
- Add the chicken pieces into the yoghurt mixture and coat all the chicken. Leave to marinade for at least 30 minutes.
- Heat some rapeseed oil in a pan and cook the onion until it softens and just starts turning golden (you don't want them too brown). If the onions catch on the bottom of the pan, just add a splash of water to help them cook down.
- Add the marinated chicken to the pan and stir until the meat just starts to cook.
- Reduce the heat and place the lid on the pan and leave to cook for 5 minutes.
- Remove the lid and stir in the ground almonds and coconut. If it seems dry, add a little splash of hot water and allow the chicken to cook for a couple of minutes until the chicken is cooked through. Remove the pan from the heat.
- Toast some almond flakes in a dry pan until golden, remove and set to one side.
- When ready to serve, add some fresh coriander and the toasted almonds.
- Serve with plain basmati rice
