VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

THE AMAZON RAINFOREST

A vast jungle, where an extraordinary collection of tropical plants and vibrant wildlife awaits. As the largest rainforest on Earth it is unsurprising that from the canopy to underneath the ground, the Amazon abounds with life – tree frogs, turtles, the iconic toucan, hummingbirds, the black spider monkey and even jaguars roam through some 5.5 million km of rainforest – be sure to have your camera ready!

THE AMAZON RIVER

Cruising the Amazon River is a bucket-list experience that few get to achieve, but on board Marco Polo, you will be able to tick this one off your list. The river is approximately 4,000 miles long and affords its visitors incomparable experiences, unlike any other in the world.

SMALL SHIP CRUISING

Small ships are renowned for being able to visit smaller ports of call that larger vessels simply cannot reach, so you will often find that the places you visit are not awash with swarms of tourists. You can wander cobbled streets, admire pristine rainforest or simply bask in the sunshine.

INTRODUCING IONA

Choice, flexibility and the ability to create your own on board experiences lie at the heart of Iona. She has been designed by the world's leading design and guest experience teams to make sure you have a wealth of dining, entertainment, socialising and relaxation options to make your holiday extra special. And rest assured, the P&O Cruises DNA will still shine through. You'll be treated to the best British hospitality and standards of service that you know and love.

CONSERVATORY MINI-SUITES

Bring the outdoors in with a personal and versatile conservatory-style room that forms an extension to the suite. This space, which includes stylish L-shaped seating, can be closed off or left open according to the time of day or mood. In the morning keep it closed to enjoy a quiet coffee overlooking the ocean. By day it opens out fully onto the balcony. In the evening, it transforms into a spacious environment for private celebrations and socialising over pre-dinner drinks with friends and family.

THE FIRST GIN DISTILLERY AT SEA

With their shared zest for adventure, P&O Cruises are collaborating with award-winning distiller of exceptional gin, Salcombe Gin, to bring a unique gin recipe to life for Iona. The gins maiden distillation will take place in Iona's custom-made gin still on board; innovated by Craft Distilling Business, this is the first distillery to exist at sea. The gin will be produced, bottled and labelled on board, allowing guests on Iona to be the first to enjoy the brilliant flavours of their deliciously smooth and one-of-a-kind gin.

THE GRAND ATRIUM

The Grand Atrium is the beating heart of Iona; a lively signature space that encapsulates the spirit of the ship. The architecturally impressive space boasts a contemporary design that brings in uninterrupted panoramic sea views and natural light. By day, it's a place to meet, dine, relax, be entertained or simply watch the world go by; by night, it's an immersive destination venue, balancing intimate spaces with larger social areas. The space seamlessly transitions between day and night through lighting and sound.

DISCOVER NEW ORLEANS:

The USA's 'Big Easy'

There's something for everyone in the birthplace of jazz – from epicurean delights and the famous Mardi Gras, to soulful rhythms permeating the streets and exuberant community spirit, New Orleans is a great 'Southern Belle' of a city...

As a visitor to New Orleans, you will soon realise that the city's unofficial motto "laissez les bon temps rouler," or "let the good times roll" is more than just a motto – it's a way of life. Situated on the Mississippi River, near the Gulf of Mexico, New Orleans is the birthplace of jazz with the 'First Legend of Jazz' Charles "Buddy" Bolden, born here in 1877. Buddy led the most successful band in New Orleans and quickly became known as King Bolden, the leading figure of the rising New Orleans-style ragtime music that would later be known as jazz.

New Orleans' vibrant Bourbon Street is home to iconic bars including good old-fashioned jazz bar Fritzel's European Jazz Club.

If you'd rather sightsee, then be sure to visit the French Quarter. Often called the 'Crown Jewel of New Orleans', the French Quarter is one of New Orleans' most historic neighbourhoods, but you'll find plenty of new mixed in with the old, including the reimagined French Market and modern boutiques which rub shoulders with beloved antique stores and old restaurants. This fun and exciting neighbourhood has everything from the party vibe of Bourbon Street to the elegance found on Royal Street. Enjoy views of the stunning architecture with balconies adorned with intricate ironwork to beautiful gardens and courtyards. Every street has something to offer from the famous landmark Jackson Square to boutique shopping, live music, restaurants, voodoo temples and Café Du Monde.

Elsewhere, enjoy the spectacular Creole cooking, the lacy balconied mansions of Vieux Carre or a 'steam-wheeler' cruise down the Mississippi to Scarlet O'Hara country. Nestled in the Mississippi River's crescent, New Orleans is home to fantastic natural wonders – such as the mighty Mississippi – as well as Jean Lafitte National Historic Park and Preserve, and City Park, where 11 miles of lagoons are home to swans, ducks, and turtles as well as iconic southern Louisiana fauna like pelicans and alligators.

DID YOU KNOW...

- New Orleans is known to be the place where voodoo was introduced to the USA – spooky!
- According to the National Register, New Orleans has no less than 20 historic districts, more than other city in the USA.
- Gambling fans should know that New Orleans is widely considered to be the birthplace of both poker and craps!
- The first opera in the USA was performed in the 1790s in New Orleans.
- Most people regard New Orleans as the home of the Mardi Gras festival, but the truth is that the parade originates in the city of Mobile, Alabama.

SAN FRANCISCO, USA

With its natural beauty, vibrant neighbourhoods and must-see attractions, there's plenty to make you fall in love with the 'City by the Bay'. The electric orange Golden Gate Bridge is one of the most beautiful and photographed bridges in the world. Adorned with flowers and pretty Victorian houses, Lombard Street is San Francisco's famous crooked road. Alcatraz Island can be visited on a ferry trip and is best known for being a maximum-security prison during the years 1934-1963. Step inside eerie cells that were once occupied by notorious American criminals such as Al 'Scarface' Capone, Julius Rosenberg and Ethel Rosenberg.

BAY OF ISLANDS, NEW ZEALAND

The Bay of Islands is a subtropical micro-region renowned for its unmatched beauty and abundance of activities. The beaches here are considered some of the world's finest and, aside from pristine white sands, you can also look forward to vibrant marine life, waterfalls, forests and a rich historical and cultural past. Many also consider this the ideal place to partake in more active pursuits, such as kayaking, mountain biking, parasailing, swimming with dolphins and scuba diving. Plus, it is home to several historical attractions including the Mission House, the Stone Store and the historic Waitangi Treaty Grounds, Birthplace of the Nation.

YOUR GRAND WORLD VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

BRISBANE, AUSTRALIA

Cosmopolitan Brisbane attracts millions of visitors each year thanks to its eclectic mix of attractions, beautiful skyline and sub-tropical climate. At its riverside South Bank, you'll find hotspots like Grand Arbour and the Nepalese Pagoda. Elsewhere, you can take a ride on the Wheel of Brisbane for fantastic panoramic views across the cityscape, or soak up the sun at the South Bank's very own man-made beach. Brisbane is also home to the world's first and largest sanctuary for koalas, where you'll have the chance to get up close and personal with these much-loved marsupials.

SINGAPORE

Ultra-modern skyscrapers overlook historic temples, while a tropical rainforest lies a few miles outside the urban buzz of the central Business District in eclectic Singapore. The breathtaking skyline is Marina Bay's main attraction, with towering skyscrapers and futuristic architecture dominating your view. Greenery grows from rooftops to reinforce the island's moniker as the Garden City, while the Gardens by the Bay overflows with flowers, ferns and shrubs. Hop on a boat for a close-up look at the iconic Merlion statue, enjoy panoramic views from the Singapore Flyer or experience the city's unique sights, sounds and lights by night.

CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA

Situated in the foothills of the 3,000 feet high flat-topped Table Mountain, Cape Town is overwhelming in its natural beauty. The massive, flat-topped Table Mountain is South Africa's most photographed landmark. Catch a cable car to the top to enjoy spectacular views over Cape Town. Be sure to explore Table Mountain National Park afterwards – its 85 square miles of beauty are home to a plethora of flora and fauna, including caracals (medium-sized wild cats), rock hyraxes and chacma baboons. South Africa produces some of the very best wines in the world. If time allows, you can join a tour* to search for 'The Big Five' (African elephants, Cape buffaloes, lions, leopards and rhinos) during your trip.

DID YOU KNOW?

Saga have been creating cruises exclusively for over 50s (a travelling companion can be over 40) for more than 60 years, with incredible destinations, memorable experiences and fantastic value at the heart of what they do.

YOUR SAGA EXPERIENCE

A BALCONY FOR EVERY GUEST

It's one of the most distinctive feature: every cabin has a balcony, giving you your own outside space. So whether you're cruising into Valencia, or around the villages of Norway, you have your own place to relax, enjoy the views and fresh air, and watch the sun set as you head to another incredible destination.

FINE DINING IS ONE OF THE REAL PLEASURES OF CRUISING WITH SAGA

You can eat wherever and whenever you like, in a choice of venues to suit your every mood, at no extra cost. Such as The Club by Jools (on board Spirit of Discovery only), a steakhouse with a quality menu to rival some of the world's finest supper clubs, and a sociable atmosphere and line-up of evening entertainment to match.

SUITE DREAMS

For even more luxury, why not upgrade to a sumptuous Suite? They're the most exclusive accommodation that Spirit of Discovery and Spirit of Adventure have to offer, packed with extra features and butler service designed to make your cruise even more special. Offering far more space up to a staggering 730 square feet per cabin, they feature elegant living and dining areas and much more.

SUMPTUOUS SINGLE CABINS

Solo cruisers are also spoilt for choice, with a range of over 100 single balcony cabins. This is a first for the cruising industry: no other ship has dedicated such space to single cruise-goers. In keeping with the ship's theme of choice, single cabins are available in a wide selection of grades, giving solo travellers just as much choice.

Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 13 years.

Canal vision

If I start this month's musings with the words "canals, bridges and St. Mark's", I feel sure Venice will leap into your mind. Hopefully along with images of gondoliers, grand piazzas, elegant palaces and beautiful basilicas.

I've lost count of the number of times I have visited the city, but I never tire of losing myself in the maze of alleyways that line the canals, discovering authentic little restaurants that only the locals know, sitting in one of the piazzas with a glass of something cold and watching the world go by.

It's an extraordinary city, comprising 118 islands connected by more than 400 bridges and built on wooden piles brought from forests in Slovenia. It claims to have been the first place in the world to have a public casino (that was in 1638) and was a rich and powerful republic for many centuries, until Napoleon Bonaparte came along and remodelled Europe.

It's home to an annual Carnival, which explains all those street stalls selling masks, and one of the narrowest streets in the world (breathe in because it's just 53cm wide!). It was also the birthplace of the explorer Marco Polo, the painter Canaletto and the notorious adventurer Casanova, who was not only the most famous guest of the prisons beneath the Doge's Palace but managed to escape by flitting over roofs.

There are so many things to see in the city – St. Mark's Basilica, the view from the top of the bell tower in St. Mark's Square, the Rialto Bridge, the Basilica di Santa Maria guarding the entrance to the Grand Canal, the Doge's Palace itself, where the rulers of Venice lived when the city was a republic – that you need at least three days to do it justice.

Cue Uniworld River Cruises, which offers exactly that on a one-week boutique cruise that pairs Venice with the Po River. It's not a new cruise as such – Uniworld's River Countess has been sailing the Po for several years – but it is a rehashed itinerary now on La Venezia, which is the same ship but with a whole new look following a bow to stern makeover and a far more fitting name.

Uniworld is keeping the new look under wraps, saying only that it has been 'inspired' by Venetian culture and hinting at 'world-renowned fashion and famed cuisine', but as La Venezia takes on the title Super Ship I am sure it will be spectacular so I can't wait to see her.

The new itinerary is brilliant – you'll find details of ROL's packages elsewhere in this month's Blue Horizons – with included tours of all the must-see sights in Venice (a morning city tour, the Doge's Palace, a private after-hours visit of St. Mark's Basilica) and plenty of other treats as well. A tour of the Accademia Gallery with an art historian, shopping with the ship's chef in Rialto Market, a chance to taste the Dorona wine grown exclusively in the lagoon on the island of Mazzorbo and a visit to Burano's night market.

Phew. And all that is included because Uniworld includes excursions in the cruise price, as well as flights, drinks and tips. I'll raise a glass to that. And also to the fact that this is an incredibly cost-effective way to see Venice, where paying for a hotel of the same quality as La Venezia, and as many wonderful meals as you'll get on board, would severely dent the budget.

This is an unusual river cruise, not only because of the time La Venezia stays in Venice, but because Italian maritime laws ban river boats from sailing from the lagoon into the mouth of the Po River with passengers on board (it's all to do with that portion of water being designated open sea) so everyone has to get off in Chioggia, join an excursion and get back on in Porto Viro.

There are plenty of excursions to choose from – a bike tour of Chioggia, a boat trip out to mussel beds and lunch back ashore (mussels, of course), while Shakespeare fans can join an excursion to Padua, the setting for the Bard's play The Taming of the Shrew.

From Porto Viro, La Venezia sails the Po to Polesella, from where there are excursions to Bologna or Ferrara. It's a tough call which to do as both cities are lovely, but I went for Bologna because, well, who can pass up on visiting the city that invented the Brits' favourite Italian meat sauce (except here they call it ragu and serve it with tagliatelli). The city bests Pisa by having two leaning towers and its miles of porticos are splendid (you can even reach a basilica on a hill out of town by walking along a near 2.5-mile-long portico but a little train from the main square is much easier!) but eating is never far from your thoughts in Bologna, which proudly calls itself the home of Italian food. How fitting then that Uniworld's city tour visits markets and includes a pasta-making workshop and a Bolognese lunch in one of the city's many restaurants.

From Polesella, La Venezia sails back towards Venice and this time everyone has to get off in Porto Viro, join a tour to Chioggia's bustling Thursday market, which is packed with vendors selling everything from freshly-caught fish and fruit to clothes and shoes, and then rejoin the ship for the cruise back to Venice. Top tip: Make sure you're on the sun deck with a fully-charged camera because the views of the city from the lagoon are just wonderful. Happy snapping.

YOUR INCREDIBLE HIGHLIGHTS

ROL CRUISE RECOMMENDS...

Boston Tea Party

Voted the Best Patriotic Attraction by USA Today, the Boston Tea Party Ships and Museum^x is the perfect place to immerse yourself in the history of this fine city. Billed as a 'multi-sensory adventure', this attraction allows you to take part in the event that changed the course of life in America. Live actors, authentically restored tea ships and interactive exhibits bring the story of the Boston Tea Party to life; you'll meet the colonists, explore the ships and dump tea overboard just like the Sons of Liberty did on December 16, 1773.

Freedom Trail Boston

If all that heritage wasn't enough, you can walk in the footsteps of Boston's forefathers on the city's Freedom Trail. The USA's first historical walking tour takes you on a journey of 16 significant sites over 2.5 miles, teaching you all you need to know about the American Revolution. The trail, which was preserved and dedicated by the city's citizens in 1951, includes stops at the Benjamin Franklin statue, the site of the Boston Massacre, and the USS Constitution, a warship launched in 1797. You'll also visit Faneuil Hall, a venue known as the home of free speech and the cradle of liberty.

Midnight Sun

The Midnight Sun is an incredible natural phenomenon that occurs when you are above the Arctic Circle during the summer months. For 24 hours, the sun remains above the horizon, bathing the area in light at all hours. To be awake at midnight, and yet see the sun cast an otherworldly glow over the sea makes for a special experience you will not soon forget.

Goðafoss Waterfall

perfect stop on a cruise. It's been said that the best way to discover its historic significance is to follow the famous Freedom Trail. There is also a wealth of bars, restaurants and shopping, along with the most famous bar in the world, 'Cheers'

INTRODUCING THE GREG MORTIMER

From the start, Aurora Expeditions was destined to be different. Their passion for adventure, exploring wild places and sharing the experience with friends burns just as brightly as it did 25 years ago, as does their preference for small-group, personal expeditions. Each expedition is accompanied by an expedition team that Aurora believe are the world's best. The ground-breaking new state-of-the-art vessel and one of the most advanced expedition ships in the world, the new Greg Mortimer launched in October 2019 and is built to world-class polar standards.

ON BOARD ENTERTAINMENT

On all Aurora expeditions, there are experts who lead presentations in the spacious lecture room so you can understand the region a little better. These often include topics as broad as history and culture to biology and climate change, these presentations aim to educate and entertain.

If you're keen to just watch the surroundings and keep your eyes peeled for wildlife, you have access to two bars/lounges where the stunning floor to ceiling windows offer a special perspective on the landscape.

The Greg Mortimer is also decked out with other facilities for your enjoyment. There is a library with books and maps and a Wellness Centre complete with gym equipment, sauna and spa. Feeling a little sore after walking around all day? Treat yourself to a massage at the Wellness Centre and feels the aches disappear! Keen photographers and artists will revel in the multimedia room.

ON BOARD OBSERVATION POINTS

From the indoor 180-degree lounge and outdoor 360-degree open deck, to the 270-degree open sundeck, there are plenty of observation points to share around the ship! If these are full, then you can take up a spot on one of the two hydraulic viewing platforms.

Aurora Expeditions also has an open bridge policy, which means at any point you can go up to the bridge and check out what the captain and officers are up to. From watching navigational practices to observing mapping techniques, you can get a firsthand look at the inner workings of the Greg Mortimer.

DINING

Meals are served in a large restaurant with family style dining, perfect to swap stories with your new expedition family. Enjoy the range of house wine, beers and soft drinks included with dinner after a long day in the wild, preparing yourself for another exciting day to follow. Plus, a special farewell dinner awaits you on your final evening to reflect on your trip with new found friends.

Lecture Lounge

Dining Room

ENVIRONMENTALLY FRIENDLY

Aurora Expeditions treat preserving and protecting the environment with the upmost importance and this is reflected in several features, including reduced emissions into the air and sea, lower energy consumption, high fuel efficiency, reduced light pollution for minimal wildlife disruption and lower on board plastic use. Furthermore, the ship will have a state-of-the-art virtual anchoring technology, meaning the ship can float anchorless while launching Zodiacs and kayaks, without disturbing the sea floor.

WHY TRAVEL WITH AURORA EXPEDITIONS

EXPERTISE & EXPERIENCE

From expedition leaders to experienced activity guides, historians to geologists, and naturalists to leading photographers, some of Aurora's expedition team have led voyages to the Arctic and Antarctica with Aurora Expeditions for over 28 years. The expedition team is there to keep you safe, share their passion for the magnificent places you'll visit and to ensure you have the best experience possible.

PASSION FOR EXPLORATION & ADVENTURE

Like their founder, Greg Mortimer, Aurora Expeditions have a passion for adventure and exploration, and this forms part of every voyage and part of day-to-day life on board. Itineraries are flexible, so they can adapt quickly and maximise the wildlife opportunities to give you the best experience possible. The Greg Mortimer, purpose-built for expeditions, makes adventure more accessible than ever.

SMALL SHIPS = GREATER FREEDOM & FLEXIBILITY

Aurora Expeditions believe that small groups make a big difference. Their ships boast one of the lowest passenger capacities in expedition cruising. This leads to smoother transitions, longer and more relaxed landings, and a more personal experience with nature. No matter where you are exploring, Aurora aim for two excursions, and in some cases, it can be up to three excursions per day. Their ship is also built for expedition cruising with sea-level Zodiac-launching platforms, special adventure preparation spaces and fantastic viewing platforms.

TREADING LIGHTLY IN THE REMOTE & WILD

Aurora Expeditions' ship is a purpose-built small expedition vessel designed to respond rapidly to the unpredictable weather conditions in the wild and remote places they visit. This allows expedition leaders to quickly find alternative landing options that may be inaccessible to larger vessels. Similarly, the small-group treks give the expert guides the flexibility to quickly make adjustments when necessary, while also allowing you to tread lightly in the pristine places you visit. The Greg Mortimer has also been built to the strictest environmental standards of the latest Polar Code, to ensure non-intrusive and low-impact voyages.

The first to conquer the Passage by ship was Norwegian Roald Amundsen on an expedition that lasted from 1903-1906
Depending on the varying ice, below are some of the following places you may experience:

Pond Inlet, called 'Mittimatalik' in Inuktitut, is a traditional Inuit community surrounded by mountains, glaciers, fjords, ice caves, geological hoodoos and drifting icebergs

Dundas Harbour is an abandoned settlement with an old Royal Canadian Mounted Police camp and several archaeological sites. Head ashore to see the ruins of some of these buildings, along with an impressive Thule site

Radstock Bay is dominated by the striking outcropping of Caswell Tower. The shoreline here is ideal for walks to a pre-historic Inuit dwelling site. Caswell Tower itself features a challenging hike to the summit for great views

Beechey Island is known for the ill-fated Franklin expedition. Two ships sailed into the passage in 1845, but neither were ever seen again. It is known that the Franklin Expedition over-wintered on Beechey Island in 1845-1846

Gjøa Haven honours the Norwegian explorer Roald Amundsen, who wintered here from 1903. He was in contact with the local Netsilik Inuit people, and learned a lot from them about survival and travel in polar regions

Throughout the journey, you will be sailing in amazing straits with unique nature and hopefully enough ice to be on the constant look out for wildlife

Frittelle:
VENETIAN
FRITTERS

Frittelle are a typical sweet fritter from Venice, usually served during one of the most exciting times to visit the city, the Carnival. During Carnival, every pastry shop is home to trays full of Frittelle and this Queen of Cakes can be filled with cream or zabaglione cream for a variation on the traditional unfilled recipe.

Ingredients:

- 1lb plain flour
- 1 tbsp dried yeast (dissolved in a little warm water)
- 3 tbsp sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 glass of lukewarm milk
- Zest of 1 lemon
- 3 tbsp of raisins
- Icing sugar
- Salt
- Vegetable oil to deep fry

Method:

1. Dissolve the yeast in the warm milk with the sugar, then add the flour, eggs, lemon zest, raisins and salt.
2. Start mixing slowly with a fork until the dough is smooth and soft. Add more milk or flour if it's too dry or wet.
3. Let rest for 2 hours covered with a wet towel in a warm place.
4. Give the dough the shape you prefer: balls, square, triangles, it's up to you; then put them in a deep pan at 350°F with oil to fry.
5. Remove from the oil when golden and drain onto some kitchen paper.
