HELLO AND WELCOME TO YOUR APRIL EDITION OF BLUE HORIZONS

Jeremy Dickinson,
Chairman of ROL Cruise

A miniature blizzard blows outside as I write for our April edition. A small yet potent reminder that winter won't let go until its good and ready. I know however that by the time you receive this edition, the sunshine and birdsong of spring will have a firmer hold! The power of nature never ceases to amaze me, and you can get closer than ever with the cruises in this edition of Blue Horizons!

A continent of many mysteries, Asia stretches on for 6,800 miles. You can sail from one end to the other with Fred. Olsen on pages 04-05 as Balmoral embarks on her Grand Voyage of Asia. This incredibly exciting itinerary wraps delights such as the Taj Mahal, the Orangutans of Borneo, the temples of Myanmar and even the extraordinary 'Festival of Colours' in India into one amazing trip. Discover Asia's wildlife, people and dramatic scenery all without stepping on a plane!

I probably mention the Northern Lights more in this column than any other natural wonder, but it certainly deserves the attention. Now we have exclusive pricing only for readers of Blue Horizons, but don't wait, this promotion must end 8pm 11th April! Find this incredible offer on pages 36-37.

The land Down Under should be on every bucket list, but why settle for one amazing country? A brand new Signature Experience, handcrafted by the experts at ROL Cruise, is presented on pages 24-25, and it takes you from Australia to the South Pacific and on to Hawaii! Three night hotel stays will help you soak up all that Sydney and Honolulu have to offer, and with exclusive bonus savings, now is the time to secure your place.

Happy Cruising!

YANGON, MYANMAR
Discovering Myanmar is a truly mesmerising and unique experience, and with two days to explore the largest city, Yangon, you'll have the chance to witness the magnificent Shwedagon Pagoda by day and by night. Draped in real gold and encrusted with over 4,500 diamonds, this sacred landmark is surrounded by many other colourful temples and statues.

INDIA'S 'FESTIVAL OF COLOURS'

Balmoral's extended stay in Mumbai has been perfectly timed to capture the annual Holi Festival, also known as the 'Festival of Colours'. The celebrations begin with the lighting of a ceremonial bonfire on the first evening (Holika Dahan) which symbolises the triumph of good over evil, then on the day of Holi it is tradition for friends and families to douse each other in coloured 'gulal' powder, creating a melange of yellow, blue, red, green, pink and purple. Each different colour represents something for Hindus e.g. yellow signifies the sun and the robes of Vishnu.

BORNEO, MALAYSIA

As captivating a destination as Borneo is, it remains wonderfully off the beaten track, meaning that the local habitats and wildlife are untouched by modernism. With Kota Kinabalu as your base, take the opportunity to relax on soft white sands, explore the world's largest caves and witness spectacular nature in action as you observe orangutans, sun bears and proboscis monkeys deep within the rainforest.

It might seem incomprehensible, but in just one journey you can visit 36 ports across 22 countries, ensuring you endure experiences that are unique to travelling by sea, from relaxing on the white sand of Bora Bora to transiting the Panama Canal to gliding right into the heart of Sydney.

YOUR WORLD VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

Mombasa, Kenya

Equally known for its miles of white-sand beaches and well-protected game reserves, this eastern Kenyan city hugs the Indian Ocean, making it the ideal destination for both surf and safari*. Touched by centuries of colonization, Mombasa's skyline is a collection of UNESCO designated Portuguese, Arab, and English architecture interspersed with modern hotels.

Tahiti, French Polynesia

Brilliant blue lagoons, proud jagged peaks, coconut groves and a hint of gardenia in the air. Everything you've ever imagined about this island is true. An enchanting place, to say the least, it's little wonder Tahiti is a muse to so many.

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

The famous Cristo Redentor (Christ the Redeemer) statue can be seen from most districts in Rio de Janeiro and is said to protect the city with its wide, open arms. An impressive 30 metres tall, the statue sits atop the Corcovado Mountain and is listed as one of the New Seven Wonders of the World.

The first great American steakhouses...

The romance of railway travel... These and more western marvels transformed the modern world in the early 1900s, providing the transportive inspiration behind Prime 7.

DRUMS, DOMES AND A DIAMOND PRINCESS

Revolution is in the air at Princess Cruises next year as the line prepares to visit Yorktown in Virginia for the first time and starts the countdown to a new ship launching in early 2024. They call this an evolution but is so different to what's gone before that word really does not do it justice.

More on that later, but first to Yorktown, which was not only one of the earliest settlements in America, founded in 1691, but where General Cornwallis surrendered to General George Washington, effectively ending the American Revolutionary War and Britain's control of the 13 original colonies.

Princess will be calling in to the city five times in 2024 - the first big cruise line to go there - and says tours will visit Jamestown, the first permanent English settlement in North America, and take passengers back in time on trips to Colonial Williamsburg, a living museum with reconstructed buildings - most on their original foundations - costumed guides and marching fife and drum bands.

Excursions are being finalised but I suspect they'll include plenty about the major battles that took place around here as the Americans fought for independence. There are also riverside restaurants for those who fancy dining out, shops aplenty, and in case that's not enough, you'll be getting in early on a very special anniversary. In 2026, the area will be celebrating 250 years since the US Declaration of Independence.

And so to the next revolution. Sun Princess. She doesn't sail until February next year but I managed to get on board in the Italian shipyard where she's being built for a sneak peek and my goodness is she a step up for Princess. Fans will be pleased to see the return of favourite venues such as the Crown Grill, Sabatini's, the Sanctuary and more and to know the décor remains unmistakably Princess (think elegant with a good helping of glamour), but just look at all the new stuff.

ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 14 years.

A three-deck-high LED screen in the piazza, which becomes a fully-fledged entertainment venue with no swirling staircases to block the views; cove cabins with balconies close to the water line; a private cabana deck reserved for passengers staying in fabulous patio staterooms; a new signature lounge and restaurant for those in the swanky suites.

There's a glass dome for relaxing by day that becomes an entertainment venue in the evening, several more places to eat, a new Irish bar (shhh, I wasn't supposed to hear that!) and so much more. Did I mention the Arena? It's the theatre but not as you know it. To find out more, you'll have to get on board.

That's easily done as Sun Princess is cruising the Med in summer 2024, and even making an inaugural visit to the UK in September as part of a nine-day cruise from Barcelona to Southampton.

But the cruise line has so many exciting voyages next year, I reckon waiting 18 months is a bit of an ask. You can visit Norway, Iceland, the Med and even the US and Canada without setting foot in an airport on Sky Princess[®] voyages from Southampton. Or join Princess as it celebrates 55 years of cruising in Alaska in 2024 with a host of voyages from Vancouver, Seattle and San Francisco to the 49th state that offer tours that take you in search of whales, flightseeing over glaciers, dog sledding and panning for gold.

Personally I've got my eye on Japan. The country has been a winner for Princess ever since it based Diamond Princess there a few years ago and the new 2024 itineraries on sale now look amazing. There are sailings timed to see the cherry blossom in spring, voyages that tie in with music, dance and firework festivals, cruises that call into exotic-sounding places such as Shimizu, Osaka, Hiroshima and Hakodate, and excursions that visit Mount Fuji, ancient Kyoto, the Hiroshima Peace Memorial. And that's just scratching the surface of what's on offer. No wonder I'm struggling to pick a cruise!

An Exclusive Q&A

WITH SCENIC'S
CHEF TOM!

ROL Cruise discover what being Scenic Ocean Cruises' Director of Food & Beverage means to Tom Götter.

Hi Tom! Tell us about your career – how did you become a chef?

In Germany, you have these little books in kindergarten that you give to your best friends and then they put in their favourite colour, favourite food and what they want to be when they grow up. Well, whenever I got one of these books, I always put in chef or clown. I was very determined. Clown school didn't really work out, so I went with my next option. I started my chef training when I was 15, which takes three years in Germany, and I've just never stopped.

You recently appeared on Top Chef, what was that experience like?

It was a really good experience, I truly loved it! All the pressure and cooking among all these talents from around the world.

Your role as Director of Food & Beverages for Scenic Ocean Cruises must keep you very busy! How does life at sea differ?

Now these days I'm kind of a hybrid between a nomad and a pirate! I jump from ship to ship and office to office almost the whole entire year! With the opening of the two new vessels this year I see it becoming even more wild than it is already. Honestly speaking, I love it!

You're responsible for each of the 10 dining options on Scenic Eclipse – from where do you draw your influences?

This is a massive team effort between myself and my kids (my chefs) it takes much more than one great mind to create all of these. This is the spirit and mind of many which makes me personally very proud.

What makes the dining options on Scenic Eclipse unique?

I think the interior of the ship itself gives us a huge advantage here. When you go on a regular cruise ship, you only have a handful of dining venues, and one is usually a buffet, so it's easy to get bored. With up to 10 dining experiences on board, Scenic Eclipse has many more options. They all have different teams and changing menus every single day. On top of that, we are updating menus quite frequently based on what we see in port and the flavours of the regions we sail in.

More than 3,200 recipes feature on Scenic Eclipse's onboard dining repertoire – which dish would you implore every guest to try?

Come on, you can't ask me to pick one as by now it is easily above 3,500. The other ones would be jealous. I think Scenic Eclipse is so great because whatever you feel like that day or the next day, it will be available. Its much more than eating its more like a food journey.

Do you have a favourite restaurant onboard? What makes it so special?

Same as above! It's like asking a mother for her favourite child.

Currently it is the Night Market @ Koko's. I just love the fact we serve elevated street food on a 6-star luxury expedition vessel. Plus, guests love it!

What sort of experience can guests expect from Chef's Table @ Elements?

The idea of Chef's Table was to develop a unique dining experience, looking at 'old-school' dishes but creating them in a new way. One of the dishes we do is entirely inspired by mushroom; mushroom brioche, mushroom dust, mushroom mousse covered with chestnut, all together in a dish that looks like a mushroom. There are also some fun elements, like a foie gras lollipop on candy floss. It's such a nice feeling when a new dish is created by one of the chefs, then worked to perfection and implemented at Chef's Table.

Why should guests attend the culinary masterclass, Scenic Epicure?

Usually, on other vessels, you find the good old risotto class, we try to be more approachable and teach cooking techniques instead. We want to open the guest's mind and teach them things which they can use on a daily basis back home.

And lastly, what is your favourite thing about being a chef?

When I was younger, I would have said the different lifestyle. I've never really fitted into the regular 8 am to 4 pm life. Now, in the last few years, I've realised the importance of my job is inspiring and coaching chefs and guests. I think food has a massive impact on regular life and it's essential in many aspects to talk about its importance as well as awareness towards certain things like the environment, cultures and issues we should point out to make our world a better place.

Thank you very much for your time, Tom!

YOUR INCREDIBLE LAND TOUR HIGHLIGHTS*

THE TAJ MAHAL

One of the New Seven Wonders of the World, the Taj Mahal is ubiquitously recognised as one of the world's greatest landmarks and finest examples of Mughal architecture. Enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to admire Emperor Shah Jahan's creation – which took a total of 22 years to complete – at sunset. The close-up detail is as exquisite as the overall architectural design, with semi-precious stones and beautiful patterns adorning the marble surface.

RANTHAMBORE NATIONAL PARK & TIGER SAFARI

Centred around the 10th century Ranthambore Fort, Ranthambore National Park is scattered with old mosques, temples and hunting pavilions. A wealth of diverse flora and fauna calls this place home. When out on your safaris, look out for leopards, boars, hyenas, sloth bears and rhesus macaques. But the highlight will undoubtedly be the moment that you set eyes upon one of the regal Bengal tigers that reside in the reserve – an experience that few get to have, and once had, very few forget.
