Crossing the Pond

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 18 years.

Oh dear. I've just been politely admonished by the captain of Queen Mary 2 for asking a question about our cruise from New York. "We call it a voyage," he admonished. "And by the way this is a liner, not a cruise ship, and we have guests, not passengers."

I always knew this cruise ... sorry, voyage, was going to be different to previous holidays at sea. No land to see or ports to visit, just seven days at sea reliving the golden age of travel as we crossed the Atlantic to Southampton. "It's wonderful. I can come on here and relax because work can't get hold of me," a Cunard aficionado told me at dinner one evening.

I had to laugh when he added he'd of course neglected to tell them there was Wi-Fi on the ship! I can understand why he had kept quiet. It's hard to switch off these days but you can on a transatlantic voyage with Cunard. Imagine. A week away from shopping, cooking and Zoom calls to rest, relax and do as little or as much as you want.

As if that's not enough, Cunard has just launched three new Wellness at Sea 'journeys' - Relax, Recover and Energise - to get you in the mood. They each cost include various spa treatments, Elemis lotions and potions, and therapies to help you eat, sleep and live well.

And for those really into the wellness thing, Cunard has a new themed voyage to the Norwegian Fjords next July. It's on Queen Anne and will have wellness classes and treatments that promises to pamper, spoil and send guests home feeling like a new person.

But back to my transatlantic. I quickly got into relax mode. I was staying in a spacious Princess Grill suite with a private balcony and had access to an exclusive Grill lounge and the Princess Grill restaurant as well as enjoying the run of the rest of the ship, including the Chart Room, where a great jazz band played each night.

Above me were the Queens Grill suites (which have all the Princess perks and more, including a butler); below were the Britannia and Britannia Club Stateroom.

It was tempting to eat in the Princess Grill each evening as the food and service were so good but I would have missed out big time. I treated myself to my favourite steak in The Verandah (cooked just as I like it and you also get to choose your steak knife!) and loved the Ploughman's served in the Golden Lion. Naturally I had to indulge in afternoon tea, famously served by white-gloved waiters armed with plates of sandwiches, scones and cakes of the naughty-but-nice variety.

For me cruising is all about discovering new places so I wasn't sure how I'd cope with seeing nothing but sea for a week, but time whizzed by as there was so much to do, from exploring Maritime Quest, an exhibition showcasing Cunard's history and all the royals and celebs who have sailed transatlantic on its ships, to a massage or two in the spa and learning about the stars in the Planetarium (yes, there really is one on board).

I chose my transatlantic crossing as I was interested in the speakers lined up to lecture and was not disappointed. Their talks - two or three some days - were fascinating. And looking at the names lined up for this year (they are listed on Cunard's website), there are plenty more fascinating speakers to come.

They include Jeff Skiles, the pilot who safely landed his passengers on the Hudson River after his US Airways plane lost both engines, and marine archaeologist Mensun Bound, who was part of the team that, in 2022, found the wreck of Ernest Shackleton's ship Endurance beneath the ice in Antarctica's Weddell Sea.

They'll be sharing their extraordinary stories on the May 23 and June 24 transatlantic crossings respectively (the latter incidentally also Cunard's 185th anniversary voyage). I can't think of a better excuse to get on board.

"For me cruising is all about discovering new places"

YOUR VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

Lake Garda, Italy

The largest and most popular of the Italian lakes, Lake Garda lies in the country's north, midway between Milan and Venice. Much like the sweetness of the Hugo Spritz and the bitterness of the Aperol, this place is a region of contrasts.

This community of villages on the western shore of Lake Garda is known for its botanical gardens and parks. Gardone's lakefront promenade is perfect for people-watching on lazy sunny days, before making the short uphill walk to the old village centre for an evening wander through its courtyards. A short walk from the village is the intriguing and extravagant Il Vittoriale, a complex of squares, gardens and waterways that sits in the hillside overlooking Lake Garda.

Lake Maggiore, Italy

Set between Piedmont, Lombardy and Switzerland, Lake Maggiore is a paradise of crystal waters, backed by towering mountains and surrounded by lush countryside.

Lazy Baveno days centre around strolling along the lakefront promenade, and stopping for a coffee or spritz in one of the many cafés and bars dotted around the narrow cobble streets. Be sure to wander through the granite-stoned town square, fronted by a simple Romanesque church that's home to a series of stunning religious frescoes.

35 NIGHTS DEPARTING 4TH JANUARY 2027

JANUARY 2027

Mon 4 Embark Iona and depart Southampton

Sat 9 Santa Cruz, Tenerife

Sat 16 Basseterre, St. Kitts

If you have ever dreamt of the classic Caribbean Island, chances are it looked a lot like St. Kitts cruise port. You will recognise that mixture of deserted beaches, sleepy villages, lush rainforest greenery and sugarcane fields

Mon 18 - Bridgetown, Barbados (overnight)

Tue 19 Tropical beaches with coral-rich waters, friendly locals and cheeky green monkeys characterise blissful Barbados

Thu 21 St. George's, Grenada

Sailors through the centuries have rated it one of the worlds prettiest harbours and it is hard to disagree. Horseshoe-shaped and set in a volcanic crater, Grenada's capital and cruise port St Georges is flanked by two forts, with colourful French colonial style buildings ranged along the front. It is the perfect entrance to one of the Caribbean's most scenic islands. Only 12 miles by 21, it is awash with waterfalls, mountain valleys, rainforests, lakes and volcanic craters

Fri 22 Castries, St. Lucia

Lush, romantic and welcoming, stunning St. Lucia is an adventure waiting to be had. The dramatic twin peaks of the Pitons make a majestic backdrop as you hike through the rainforest, sail with dolphins or sip a cocktail on a palm-fringed beach

Sun 24 Philipsburg, St. Maarten

Dutch and French influences are aplenty in Philipsburg, capital of St. Maarten. Art aficionados will cherish the galleries, history buffs will head to the forts, whilst others can simply wander the golden sands of Great Bay Beach

Mon 25 St. John's, Antigua

Antigua's coastline, fringed with secluded coves and vibrant coral reefs, invites water enthusiasts for snorkelling, sailing and beachcombing

Tue 26 Road Town, Tortola

The island of Tortola is a hidden gem in the Caribbean. Sitting amidst the British Virgin Islands, a collection of secluded locations of outstanding beauty, Tortola is just waiting to be explored

FEBRUARY 2027

Tue 2 Las Palmas, Gran Canaria

Sat 6 La Coruna, Spain

Mon 8 Arrive in Southampton

Dates not mentioned will be spent relaxing at sea

EXPERIENCE THE NORTHERN LIGHTS ON BOARD HURTIGRUTEN

Pole Position

Hurtigruten sails directly beneath the Auroral Zone, an area of continuous and consistent aurora activity around the North Pole. Travelling at sea under the Auroral Zone means that displays can appear right above the ship. Outdoor observation decks provide a clear view of the sky, avoiding the artificial ambient light that is common on land.

Prime Time

It is in the frosty winter months when the Northern Lights are most visible, laying claim to the night sky. The Northern Lights will usually appear at multiple times and at multiple locations during your voyage. On board announcements ensure you don't miss a single sighting.

THE REVIEWS ARE IN...

“ This cruise with Hurtigruten was a special birthday treat for my daughter. We both have the Northern Lights on our bucket lists so when this offer became available it was a forgone conclusion. Having previously done ocean and river cruises I think I would say that this is the best of both. We had a splendid time and made plenty of unforgettable memories including seeing the Northern lights. ”

Mrs Hargate – January 2025

“ Hurtigruten Northern Lights was a delight from beginning. Wonderful staff, fantastic food and amazing sights and experiences altogether. ”

Mr Williamson – January 2025

“ Efficient organisation, happy crew, delicious fresh food, great lectures and activities. ”

A Journey of Three Decades

From ROL Cruises Longest Serving Staff Member

CLAIRE BROWN - HEAD OF COMMERCIAL ANALYSIS

For as long as I can remember, I was drawn to the world of travel. At school, I dreamed of becoming an air hostess, but deep down, I knew I was too much of a homebody for a career constantly on the move. So, instead, I applied to travel agencies and was offered a Youth Training Scheme position. That opportunity led to two years of invaluable training, and from there, I moved to a tour operator, where I gained hands-on experience and absolutely loved the industry.

In 1995, I was offered a role at ROL Cruise by Peter, and I never looked back. Over the years, my career has evolved significantly. I started in Sales before moving into Marketing, where I helped build the Tailor-made team from the ground up. It was a thrilling challenge – curating the perfect packages, from securing the best flights and hotels to overseeing the advertising and logistics. Eventually, I even had the privilege of travelling with our customers, ensuring every aspect of their journey was seamless. Today, I've come full circle and am back in Sales, focusing on training new starters, maintaining quality, and ensuring compliance across the team.

The cruise industry has transformed immensely since I joined ROL Cruise 30 years ago. Back then, options were limited, and ships were far simpler in design. I still remember my first experience on Voyager of the Seas in 2007 – at the time, a climbing wall and sports deck seemed groundbreaking! Now, cruise ships boast racetracks, ice bars, magic carpets, and an incredible variety of dining options. The level of choice and innovation in the industry today is beyond what we ever imagined.

Memorable customer stories

Some of my most memorable moments come from my time looking after customers abroad.

One unforgettable experience was in New York when we met passengers disembarking Queen Mary 2 and checking them into the legendary Waldorf Astoria. Just as we finally sat down after a long day, a customer rushed over in a panic – they had left their jewellery in the safe onboard. With minutes to spare before the ship's departure, we hailed a yellow taxi and raced across to Brooklyn. Thankfully, we made it just in time, retrieved the jewellery, and only later found out how valuable it truly was – perhaps for the best, as the pressure would have been unbearable!

Another incident in Dubai involved a missing suitcase that turned into a wild goose chase. We scoured CCTV footage, searched lost and found at the port, and even went to the airport to track it down – all to no avail. After hours of searching and an unexpected bump in a taxi ride, we returned to the hotel past midnight. The next morning, we had to break the news to the customers and take them shopping for new clothes as they only had what they were wearing. It was a crazy experience but one that taught me the importance of patience and problem-solving in travel.

My favourite ever cruise experience was with Regent Seven Seas Cruises. I was lucky enough to attend the launch of Seven Seas Grandeur, and WOW is all I can say. From the most luxurious bed I've ever slept in to food that was simply out of this world, it was an unforgettable experience that reaffirmed why I love cruising so much.

Looking ahead, I see ROL Cruise only growing strong. After three decades in this incredible industry, I can confidently say that cruising remains one of the most exciting and rewarding ways to travel.
