The Regent Experience

Ultimate Luxury with Unrivalled Space

When sailing with Regent Seven Seas Cruises®, they provide lavish, personal space to their guests ensuring An Unrivalled Experience®. For more than 30 years, they've delivered an abundance of comfort with the most enriching and luxurious ocean cruises in the world. Some of the largest suites and balconies at sea create private oases on the water, while the limited number of guests on board, the impeccable service, and the amount of space found in the bars, lounges and multiple speciality restaurants create the perfect on board environments without any crowds or queues.

Discover Seven Seas Voyager®

The all-suite, all-balcony Seven Seas Voyager® exceeds even the most discerning travellers' expectations of luxury. Although mid-sized, Seven Seas Voyager® boasts all the amenities you would expect on a modern cruise ship, as well as four sumptuous dining venues and staff-to-guest ratios most, if not all, cruise lines, would be envious of.

YOUR VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

LAKE GARDA, ITALY

The largest and most popular of the Italian lakes, Lake Garda lies in the country's north, midway between Milan and Venice. Much like the sweetness of the Hugo Spritz and the bitterness of the Aperol, this place is a region of contrasts. This community of villages on the western shore of Lake Garda is known for its botanical gardens and parks. Gardone's lakefront promenade is perfect for people-watching on lazy sunny days, before making the short uphill walk to the old village centre for an evening wander through its courtyards.

LAKE MAGGIORE, ITALY

Set between Piedmont, Lombardy and Switzerland, Lake Maggiore is a paradise of crystal waters, backed by towering mountains and surrounded by lush countryside. Lazy Baveno days centre around strolling along the lakefront promenade, and stopping for a coffee or spritz in one of the many cafés and bars dotted around the narrow cobbled streets. Be sure to wander through the granite-stoned town square, fronted by a simple Romanesque church that's home to a series of stunning religious frescoes.

YOUR TOUR HIGHLIGHT

TAJ MAHAL AT SUNSET

One of the New Seven Wonders of the World, the Taj Mahal is ubiquitously recognised as one of the world's greatest landmarks and finest examples of Mughal architecture. Enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to admire Emperor Shah Jahan's creation at sunset. The close-up detail is as exquisite as the overall architectural design, with semi-precious stones and beautiful patterns adorning the marble surface.

RANTHAMBORE NATIONAL PARK & TIGER SAFARI

Centred around the impressive 10th century Ranthambore Fort, Ranthambore National Park is scattered with old mosques, temples and hunting pavilions. The highlight of your visit will undoubtedly be the moment that you set eyes upon one of the regal Bengal tigers that live in the park - an experience that few get to have, and once had, very few forget. While on your guided safaris, look out for leopards, boars, hyenas, sloth bears and rhesus macaques too.

Your Expedition Ship

MS FRIDTJOF NANSEN

The newest addition to the fleet will honour the heritage of her namesake – the Norwegian explorer, scientist, humanitarian, and Nobel Peace Prize laureate Fridtjof Nansen. Known for his innovations in Arctic expeditions, Nansen led the first crossing of Greenland on cross-country skis. He is perhaps most famous for his attempt to reach the geographical North Pole during the Fram Expedition (1893-1896). Interestingly, after Nansen's Fram expedition, the ship was passed on to another great explorer who secretly planned an expedition to the South Pole – Roald Amundsen.

SUITE UPGRADE BENEFITS

Add some indulgence to your voyage aboard MS Fridtjof Nansen and reserve one of the Expedition Suites. Spacious and with bed combinations for up to four people, these well-appointed rooms offer special features such as a private balcony, expansive windows, and a hot tub. Suites feature a double bed that can be divided into two single beds on request at the time of booking, and some have a sofa bed or a fold-down bed. Further more, book a Suite and enjoy EXCLUSIVE access to Lindstrøm, a FREE gift on arrival, champagne on arrival, FREE laundry, and an INCLUDED mini-bar.

WHY I FELL IN LOVE WITH RIVER CRUISING

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 19 years.

There was me thinking the old ways have disappeared when it comes to making wine. Not at Quinta da Pacheca, a winery in Portugal's Douro Valley, they haven't. I'm standing by the quinta's lagares (wine press) where come September grapes are crushed by foot. "It takes 30 minutes to stomp from one side to the other, then they turn and go back again," Carlos tells us. "Visitors do it and then come back two years later to drink 'their' wine."

Happily I don't have to wait that long as he takes us via cavernous cellars where wine is stored in huge barrels for anything from one year to 30 depending whether they are making pink, white, tawny or ruby port to the tasting room, where naturally we have to try all four varieties.

No I'd never heard of pink port either but it's the new kid on the block in Portugal, created with the younger cocktail-drinking generation in mind as it works with mixers to make a long summer drink.

I love river cruising for so many reasons, but number one is that no matter where you are sailing, there is always a view – a picturesque town here or a cathedral or castle there – and every day brings new adventures and experiences.

It might be tasting that pink port in Portugal, tucking into oliebollen in Amsterdam (think deep-fried doughnuts) or imbibing smoked beer in the German town of Bamberg (an acquired taste I've never acquired).

The Rhine has Strasbourg, a beautiful city that has changed hands between France and Germany so many times over the centuries that the two cultures have blended together, especially when it comes to food.

There's a treasure trove of ancient Roman amphitheatres, temples and the stunning Pont du Gard to discover cruising the Rhone in France; choose the Seine to visit D-Day landing beaches and the impressive Palace of Versailles.

I also love that river cruising is so inclusive. Companies such as APT, Scenic, Emerald Cruises and Uniworld River Cruises include so much – some or all drinks, excursions and tips – you can sit back and enjoy the ride without fretting about the budget.

And then there are the stylish new river ships, which hold an average of just 160 people (size is dictated by the locks and bridges they have to squeeze through and under). Cabins and suites face the river, most have panoramic windows that open wide to let the outside in and there are various places to eat, swimming pools, even cinemas.

Back on the Douro, I'm on Estrela, a beautiful new river ship APT launched this year that sails eight-day cruises from Porto to the border with Spain and back. Holding just 120 passengers, it is decked out in warm colours that reflect the destination and has a swimming pool on the sundeck where you can keep cool on a hot summers day without missing the fabulous scenery.

There are verdant vineyards, some no bigger than a handkerchief, as far as the eye can see, pretty riverside towns, deep locks, sheer cliffs and rock-strewn narrows where you can almost reach out and touch the banks.

So far so Europe; I haven't even started on the wonderful adventures that await in on rivers in Asia, India, Peru and Egypt. One for another day.

YOUR ICONIC CITY STAYS

TWO NIGHT 5★ SINGAPORE STAY

Your journey begins with a two night pre-cruise stay in a 5★ hotel stay in Singapore, a modern, multicultural city-state known for its clean streets, lush green spaces, and futuristic architecture. Singapore goes by many names - the Red Dot, the Garden City, Lion the City - but none adequately sum up its dynamic appeal. As a city-state, Singapore is both the country and its capital and this immaculately clean region is one of many contrasts. Ultra-modern skyscrapers overlook historic temples, while a tropical rainforest lies a few miles outside the urban buzz of the central Business District. Travellers can explore diverse neighbourhoods like Chinatown and Little India, enjoy the stunning Gardens by the Bay, and sample a variety of delicious dishes at vibrant hawker centres.

TWO NIGHT 5★ TOKYO STAY

Following your cruise, get to the heart of Japan's largest city with a two night stay in a 5★ hotel in Tokyo. You'll never forget a visit to the sensory explosion that is Tokyo. Capital of Japan, this is a city where you'll find centuries old culture jostling for a position next to cutting-edge technology - a fabulous blend of history and modernity that has to be seen to be believed. To get a feel for Tokyo's natural beauty, head to Yoyogi Park. City life slows down just a touch in this former Olympic village, which also served as a military parade ground and barracks for American soldiers after the Second World War. Head to Meiji Jingu Shrine, established in 1920 and dedicated to Emperor Meiji who helped to open Japan up to the west.
