CRUISE NEWS

Celebrity Cruises announces Celebrity Xcel

Celebrity Cruises has announced that the fifth ship in its award-winning Edge Series will be named Celebrity Xcel. Celebrity Xcel will have the same distinctive features as her sister ships but will be the first ship to be powered by tri-fuel, allowing her to process multiple kinds of fuel and therefore cut down on carbon emissions. We look forward to following Celebrity Xcel's progress and can't wait to meet her in 2025!

HELLO AND WELCOME

TO THE DECEMBER EDITION OF BLUE HORIZONS

Jeremy Dickinson,
Chairman of ROL Cruise

Winter has arrived with a bump! Amidst the festive rush, there's always time for a slice of peace and quiet, cosied up on the sofa with the last edition of Blue Horizons for 2023! We intend to see out the year in style, so as you would expect this December edition is packed full of exclusive offers and added value, many of which are only available with ROL Cruise.

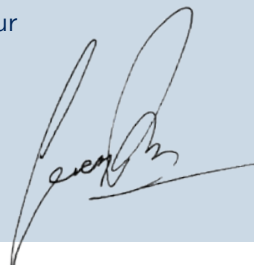

Best ever fares isn't a phrase you hear too often – but you will on pages 08-09 with Princess Cruises. With these brand new price drops you can enjoy premium cruising from as little as £869<sup>pp</sup>, and if you hurry you'll also benefit from FREE on board spend (ends 12th December). Whether its the British Isles or the Canary Islands, sail for less with these exclusive ROL Cruise savings.

I am also pleased to present the Official 2025 No-Fly Launch Promotion from small-ship favourite Fred. Olsen. Free door-to-door transfers or on board spend, along with exclusive savings from ROL Cruise, this is one not to be missed. The Adriatic and Mediterranean await on pages 04-05.

I shall leave you with mention of just one other special promotion, its an ROL Cruise Signature Experience and its a good one. Visit Japan during the beautiful Cherry blossom season with Holland America on pages 28-29. We've packaged a FREE two night hotel stay in Tokyo with your voyage of Japan, so along with free on board spend and additional savings, cabins are going to sell fast.

We hope you also enjoy your enclosed 2024 calendar.

Happy cruising and Merry Christmas!

Jennie Bond enjoyed a multi-generational cruise and shares her experience, exclusively with readers of Blue Horizons...

"Where's Emma?" I asked my husband as we enjoyed a pre-dinner drink on our Cunard cruise to the Canaries. He wasn't entirely sure.

She'd been enjoying herself at the Kids' Club all afternoon and had made friends with a young girl a couple of years older than her whose father was an officer on board. "Oh, I saw your daughter a few minutes ago," said a lady at the next table. "She was singing her heart out doing karaoke in the Golden Lion!"

I suppose we should have felt guilty, but Emma had taken to cruising like a duck to water and we knew she was in safe hands. We went to retrieve her from the pub, where she was singing Celebration at the top of her voice and, lemonade in hand, she happily joined us for dinner.

This was some 20 years ago. Now that Emma is all grown up and has two children of her own, we can't wait to have a family cruise: with three generations enjoying a holiday together.

The world of cruising is eminently well suited to different age groups travelling together; there is so much space and opportunity for everyone to do their own thing when they feel like it. Released from the daily grind of shopping, cooking, cleaning and work - parents can sit back and relax or join in the fun with their children. Granny and Grandpa, meanwhile, can either take it easy (pleading age as an excuse) or immerse themselves in family life.

BY JENNIE BOND

There is just so much to do on a cruise ship, and the choices are getting more and more exotic. If you fancy ice skating at sea or even a ride on the dodgems, then Royal Caribbean is where you should look.

There are ships with huge climbing walls, swimming pools with surf waves and unbelievable water slides, croquet lawns, tennis courts, mini golf, pickleball and quito... plus shopping malls that take your breath away.

Celebrity Cruises run Camp at Sea, catering for four separate age groups from three up to cool teens, who can enjoy video games, sports competitions and silent discos. Parents and grandparents, meanwhile, might just like to lay by the pool, enjoy the spa or maybe take part in wine tasting, glass blowing or going to hear one of the many talks on a whole variety of topics.

Those who have never cruised sometimes imagine that two weeks on a ship could become boring. Never! Is my answer. Every year seems to bring new ideas: you can now find a zip line on board and bungee trampolines and go-karts. There is simply no end to the choices available.

And if the grandchildren are too young to join in evening activities, most kids' clubs host drop-off parties, so their parents and grandparents can enjoy leisurely dinners. Some ships also offer babysitting services. Holidaying together on shore can so often be a bit of a tussle around trying to keep three generations entertained and happy. On a cruise ship, it's all laid on for you: something for every age group and ability.

Meanwhile, there is fabulous food to enjoy whenever you want it, space to get away from one another if you need it and - let's not forget - the wonderful bonus of new ports of call to explore almost every day of your adventure at sea.

Your Galápagos Wildlife Watchlist...

MARINE IGUANA

Found only in the Galápagos Islands, the iconic Marine Iguanas are distinguishable by the white "wigs" of salt expelled from glands near their noses. They look fierce, but are actually gentle herbivores, surviving exclusively on underwater algae and seaweed. Their short snouts and razorsharp teeth help them scrape algae off rocks.

BLUE-FOOTED BOOBY

The clumsy-looking blue-footed booby is one of the Galápagos Island's most distinctive birds. Their name derives from the Spanish word bobo, meaning foolish or clown. Although not so elegant on land, these birds soar comfortably and search for food in groups of around 200. Head to North Seymour to catch a glimpse of these delightful creatures.

GALÁPAGOS PENGUIN

The Galápagos penguin is one of the smallest penguins in the world and is endemic to the Galápagos Islands. It is the most northerly occurring penguin species, nesting entirely in the tropics.

- Day 8 Puerto Ayora, Santa Cruz Island
This is the main population centre of the islands, and home to the National Park Service tortoise-breeding centre and the Charles Darwin Research Station. You will be able to visit the tortoise-breeding centre and walk through the Charles Darwin Research Station
- Day 9 Gardner Bay, Española Island
The beach at Gardner Bay, with its sparkling white sand, offers one of the best places to relax and swim in the Galápagos. It's home to one of the most important colonies of sea lions in the archipelago, and is also a nesting site for sea turtles. Three species of Darwin's finches may also be seen here
Punta Suarez, Española Island (pm)
Española is the oldest island in the Galápagos and home to an abundance of wildlife. At Suarez Point, be greeted by a colony of sea lions upon arrival. This area is also home to nearly the entire world population of Waved Albatross
- Day 10 Baltra, Galápagos Islands (am)
Disembark and transfer to the airport for your short flight to Quito. Upon arrival, transfer to a hotel for your overnight stay
- Day 11 Quito, Ecuador
Transfer to the airport for your overnight flight to London

Safely observing Galápagos wildlife

When visiting the Galápagos Islands, there are simple rules set out by the Galápagos National Park that are designed to protect visitors and the delicate ecosystems of the islands. Listen to the guide you are with as they will tell you where to walk and how far away to stay from the animals. The rule is at least two metres from the animals at all times. If taking photos, avoid using the flash as this can disturb the wildlife. Take only photos, leave only footprints. Conservationists are working hard to protect this truly unique environment while helping visitors to enjoy the islands and learn about their importance.

Spotlight on ROL Cruise

What you thought of your cruise holidays with ROL Cruise

"Our first trip with ROL – couldn't be more pleased with the service, the price and the experience itself. Everything was taken care of including flights, hotels, food, drink and excursions - an excellent adventure from start to finish, thank you!"

Donna Mitchell

"We had a fantastic time. The land tour at the start was well planned and greatly augmented our time on the cruise ship. We cannot praise this trip, and the whole ROL service experience, highly enough. We would recommend it to anyone, and are already looking forward to our next ROL cruise."

Linda Drake

"We were exceedingly pleased with the service we received from ROL. We felt a bit daunted initially as it has been over 20 years since our last cruise but every question was answered reassuringly with patience and cheerfulness, not once did we feel we were being a nuisance! ROL are highly professional, very friendly and we will definitely go with them again should we embark on another cruise in the future. Thank you very much."

Raymond Styles

"My husband and I have been on numerous cruises over the years but last year my daughter and her husband, together with their daughter (our granddaughter who is seven years old), decided that they would give it a go with us around the Eastern Mediterranean with Celebrity (Constellation), mainly because the itinerary appealed to them and they felt more comfortable doing it with us, as they had never cruised before.

They absolutely loved it! So much so that we've all booked another one to the Italian Riviera and France in August 2024 with Celebrity (Equinox). Again, for the itinerary but to try a bigger ship.

Our granddaughter was overwhelmed with everything the ship had to offer her, especially the pool deck and the buffet where she could go and exercise some independence. Her mum and dad (and us of course) knew that she was safe; an important benefit. We all like waking up each morning in a different port, going ashore in the knowledge that we have a floating palace to return to. Nothing better!! We look forward to many more happy cruises together."

Christine Hart

DISCOVER THE WONDERS OF JAPAN IN CHERRY BLOSSOM

Each year Japan transforms into a pink Arcadia as cherry trees are awash with their seasonal bloom (Sakura). This natural marvel is so well followed in Japan, it even makes the daily weather report. Here are our top spots for witnessing the flourishing blossoms at this magical time of year showcase the finest regional flavours available – with top end barramundi, locally produced beef and lamb and native Australian fare including wild rosella flower, there is plenty to savour.

TWO NIGHT HOTEL STAY IN TOKYO, JAPAN

You'll never forget a visit to the sensory explosion that is Tokyo. Capital of Japan, this is a city where you'll find centuries-old culture jostling for a position next to cutting-edge technology – a fabulous blend of history and modernity that has to be seen to be believed. To get a feel for Tokyo's natural beauty, head to Yoyogi Park, where cherry blossoms are resplendent in spring. Close to the Yoyogi Park is the Meiji Jingu Shrine, established in 1920 and dedicated to Emperor Meiji who helped to open Japan up to the west. As impressive as anything else is its 40-foot gate, made of 1,500-year old cypress. At the main shrine buildings, you may show respect by bowing twice, clapping your hands twice, making a wish then bowing once more.

MAHE, SEYCHELLES

The more than 100 Seychelles Islands are often regarded as the Garden of Eden. Here you will encounter breathtaking vistas, rugged mountains, lagoons, coral atolls, splendid beaches and secluded coves. The people here are a fusion of three continents – Africa, Asia and Europe. This has created a unique culture and you'll hear three different languages – Creole, French and English. Mahe is the largest island in the archipelago, and few capitals can claim a more beautiful backdrop than Victoria. Visit the museum, cathedral, government house, clock tower, botanical gardens and open-air market for just a taste of this jewel of the Seychelles.

CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA

Sprawling across endless, staggeringly blue coastline, and watched over by the iconic plane of Table Mountain, Cape Town is without doubt one of the world's most beautiful cities. There's no shortage of things to see and do. Kirstenbosch National Botanical Garden is a floral paradise containing more than 7,000 colourful plant species. It's incredibly beautiful and rightly named as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. You can also take a short boat journey out to Robben Island to see and learn more about Nelson Mandela's incarceration. Alternatively, simply explore Cape Town's famous V&A Waterfront before grabbing some downtime on one of the city's beautiful white-sanded beaches.
