CELEBRATING
25 YEARS
OF EXCELLENCE

THE ROL CRUISE TEAM ARE LOOKING AHEAD TO 2021 & BEYOND...

"Like many of our customers, I had a cruise booked for 2020. It was going to be our first multi-generational cruise and I can't wait until I can begin planning again and to spend some quality time with my family. There might not be too much relaxing but the mixture of exploring new places in the day and being looked after in the evening sounds positively heavenly. For me it has become less about where we go and more about the fact that we can go!"

Sarah Wikevand, Managing Director

"I am looking forward to having the opportunity to visit the ocean and river cruise ships which are on sale to ROL Cruise guests. Having the chance to visit these ships means we can share our personal experiences with our customers and provide detailed information about the many features and unique benefits on offer from each of our cruise partners. This means that we can provide the expert knowledge and 5★ service we strive to deliver."

Gemma Pallister, Head of Commercial

"I am really looking forward to stepping on board a ship again! I can't wait to see what P&O Cruises' Iona has to offer... From the very first distillery at sea to the Skydome and innovative Conservatory Suites - she sounds nothing short of amazing! Plus, I'll get to experience the Norwegian Fjords - a bucket list destination!"

Kirsten Barham, Direct Marketing Manager

"I'm looking forward to the chance to experience a brand new ship again. The feeling of stepping inside knowing that you're one of the first on board, getting to use the new staterooms, dine in the new restaurants - I think this feeling of 'firsts' is incomparable and I'm sure many others will agree with me too!"

Amber Bellinger, Marketing Executive

Thu 15 Embark Queen Mary 2 and depart Southampton

Thu 22 New York, USA

Sun 25 ★Spend Christmas Day relaxing at sea★

Mon 26 St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, U.S.

St. Thomas is an island of towering cliffs and mangrove swamps. It is also the home to heart-shaped Magens Bay, which is undoubtedly one of the most pristine and beautiful of all the Caribbean beaches. In Charlotte Amalie, named after a Danish princess, you'll find Fort Christian and Blackbeard Castle, claimed to have been the infamous pirate's lookout

Tue 27 Basseterre, St. Kitts and Nevis

The capital Basseterre may be French by name, but St. Kitts is part of the Caribbean's earliest British colony. The town's Georgian centrepiece, named the Circus, is modelled on London's own Piccadilly. This scenic island is simply stunning when viewed from the Fortress of Brimstone Hill, where you'll see a panorama of volcanic slopes, verdant sugar cane plantations and neighbouring islands

Wed 28 Bridgetown, Barbados

Wed 28 Puerto del Rosario, Fuerteventura

Puerto del Rosario is the capital of Fuerteventura, the second largest of the Canary Islands, at the eastern end of the archipelago. In May 2009 the island was declared a biosphere reserve by UNESCO. Stroll León y Castillo and Primero de Mayo, and take in the myriad open-air artworks such as the giant snail sculpture of the harbour promenade. Nearby beaches include Playa Chica and Playa Blanca

Thu 29 Las Palmas, Gran Canaria

This almost perfectly circular isle is known for its historic towns and an incredible diversity of scenery. This includes its sandy south, where golden beaches extend back into desert-like dunes. Its capital, Las Palmas, on the northwest of the island, was a stopping-point for Columbus on his 1492 adventure to the New World. The ornate former governor's house in the historic Vergueta district, where it's claimed he stayed while his ships were repaired, is now a museum in his honour

OCTOBER 2022

Sat 1 Gibraltar

Tue 4 Valletta, Malta

Fri 7 Istanbul, Turkey

Seen as the place where East meets West, Istanbul has a cultural diversity that's lasted for centuries, stemming from the multitude of rulers it's had in history. Among Istanbul's great wealth of monuments and landmarks are the ethereal Blue Mosque, glittering Topkapi Palace (once home of the sultans) vast Kapali Carsi (the world's largest covered bazaar) and the aromatic Egyptian Spice Market

Cruising Bosphorus at sunset

Sun 9 Sochi, Russian Federation

Sochi received global recognition and attention as the host of the 2014 Winter Olympic & Paralympic Games, despite the fact that – thanks to its quite un-Russian warm climate – it's often called Russia's 'Summer Capital'. Now more popular than ever, this Black Sea city welcomes large numbers of visitors from around the world, who come to enjoy the incredible coastline

Mon 10 Batumi, Georgia

Batumi is a seaside resort on the Black Sea coast, situated in a sub tropical zone, rich in citrus fruit and tea, with surrounding hills and mountains providing rainfall to make it lush and green, but also the wettest city in Georgia!

Wed 12 Odessa, Ukraine

Odessa has a reputation as a lively artistic and cultural centre, with architectural treasures that include a trio of palaces – and a prestigious 19th century Opera House, where Tchaikovsky performed. Don't miss the shopping arcades – or bargain-price local vodka and caviar!

Thu 13 Constanța, Romania

Constanza has a superb archaeological museum, while Trajan's victory monument is at Adamklissi. Landmarks include the Ovidiu's Square, Roman Mosaics and the Genoese Lighthouse, which only stands at a height of 16 metres

Sun 16 Katakolon (for Olympia), Greece

Situated on a headland overlooking the Ionian Sea, the Greek seaside town is the gateway to the UNESCO-listed World Heritage site of Ancient Olympia. YOUR VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

DELVE INTO ANCIENT ISTANBUL

The city formerly known as Constantinople has been in existence for a colossal 3,000 years. Istanbul unveils evidence of its rich history at every turn, while its vibrant present is just as much of a draw for its millions of annual visitors. For some quintessentially Turkish architecture, pay a visit to the Blue Mosque, so called because of the ornate blue tiles used in its interior decoration.

BE AMAZED BY ATHENS

Magnificent Athens combines the fascinations of the ancient world with unique modern architecture. The Acropolis of Athens is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and will undoubtedly be on many must-see lists. Follow the marble path to reach the ancient citadel atop this rocky-edged, flat-topped mountain. Among the architectural gems you'll see the Theatre of Dionysus, the elegant caryatids of Erechtheion and the columned Parthenon, a temple once dedicated to the goddess Athena that dates back to 447 BC.

A taste of things to come...

After such an annus horribilis, we all need some sunshine in our lives. And my goodness, do the cruise lines have plenty lined up for us in 2021 and beyond! Their ships might have been at a standstill for most of this year, but that hasn't stopped the building, the planning and the innovation from going ahead.

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 13 years.

I'll come to what's happening in 2021 in a moment but first a quick hello to all the fabulous new ships delivered this year, despite lockdowns across Europe, that are waiting for the OK so they can set sail with their first passengers. They include Celebrity Cruises, Princess, Saga and P&O Cruises, which respectively welcomed Celebrity Apex, Enchanted Princess, Spirit of Adventure and Iona to their fleets.

Silversea, meanwhile, became the proud owner of two new vessels – Silver Origin, which will be sailing around the Galápagos Islands in 2021, and Silver Moon, which will be offering a new culinary-cum-cultural experience called S.A.L.T. I was lucky enough to have a sneak peek on a special sailing on Silver Muse last year and S.A.L.T. is a brilliant concept, giving you a real insight into how customs and cuisine are interlinked. I can't wait to try out the real thing.

And so to next year, and the many spectacular new and refurbished ships on the way. Crystal Cruises and Seabourn are dipping their bows into the expedition cruise sector for the first time with new ships Crystal Endeavor and Seabourn Venture. The former will be exploring Japan on its first cruise in mid-May; the latter sneaks in just before the end of the year with an inaugural expedition to Norway's North Cape from Greenwich to Tromsø, so you can just step aboard, but have to fly home.

If that doesn't appeal, check out Hurtigruten's new no-fly expedition cruises around the UK starting in April. The itineraries are brilliant, seeking out villages and islands along the coast that are rich in flora and fauna. The voyages are on the cruise ship MS Maud, which operates on liquefied natural gas and battery power, has a Science Center manned by a team of biologists, naturalists and other 'ists', and is named after a grand-daughter of Queen Victoria who married into the Norwegian Royal family.

July is set to be a busy month, with Emerald Waterways' stylish new Emerald Azzurra making its debut and Holland America Line unveiling Rotterdam – incredibly the seventh HAL ship to bear that name. This one features Sel de Mer, one of my favourite restaurants at sea, and pays homage to the live music scene, with venues for blues bands, duelling pianos and rock and roll.

The new ship was going to be called Ryndam, but the bosses changed their minds in July when HAL sold the existing Rotterdam (that is, ship number six of that name). Cue Fred. Olsen, who snapped up both Rotterdam and Amsterdam. The duo have been renamed Borealis and Bolette, and start sailing in their Fred. Olsen colours next spring, on a host of new and favourite itineraries.

November is also a big month, with Silversea's Silver Dawn, Princess' Discovery Princess and Aurora Expeditions' Sylvia Earle all making their debut. The latter, named after one of America's top marine conservationists, is spending her inaugural winter at the South Pole, seeking out penguins, whales and icebergs on cruises around the Antarctic Peninsula, South Georgia and the Falkland Islands. I've been to two of those three – South Georgia is the missing piece – and believe me, it's the ultimate once-in-a-lifetime experience I'd repeat in a heartbeat.

All that and I haven't even started on the new river ships and itineraries you could be enjoying in 2021. How about the Nile in Egypt, the Douro in Portugal or the Mekong in Vietnam and Cambodia on Uniworld's new S.S. Sphinx, S.S. Sao Gabriel or Mekong Jewel? Or exploring the Venice Lagoon and Po River on the S.S. La Venezia – the new name for Uniworld's totally refurbished River Countess. Gorgeous Renaissance cities, a winery in the lagoon, an after-hours trip to St Mark's Basilica. Fabulous!

APT is launching the new Mekong Serenity on the Mekong River in Vietnam and Cambodia, while sister company Travelmarvel is introducing three new vessels – Polaris, Capella and Vega – on the Rhine and Danube Rivers. In the US, American Cruise Lines is welcoming American Melody to the Mississippi with cruises from New Orleans that dip into plantation houses, jazz and the US Civil War.

You can spice up a voyage through Eastern Europe between Bucharest in Romania and Budapest in Hungary with Emerald Waterways by adding a pre or post-cruise stay in Istanbul, or get your chills at Count Dracula's Bran Castle with a few nights in Transylvania. The company has a busy 2021 lined up, with new river ship, Emerald Luna, set to enter service and novel cruises in the Low Countries and on the Rhine and Moselle. Tulips, waffles and wine anyone?

My top 10 'must-do' list for 2021 has already overflowed, but as I see it, after a year of going nowhere, a few months on the water is just what the doctor ordered!

Mekong River, Cambodia

Please note, Covid-restrictions could cause ship launches and itineraries to change. For up-to-date information and details on the cruise lines' generous cancellation policies during this difficult time, check out the ROL Cruise website or speak to one of our Cruise Specialists.

Temple gate in Tokyo, Japan

DISCOVER JAPAN IN THE SPRINGTIME

For a just a few weeks every year, Japan blooms into vibrant pink as the nation's cherry blossom trees (also known as sakura) flower, creating stunningly beautiful scenes across the country. Delight in the fleeting beauty of these delicate flowers that frame the historic temples and towns perfectly. From snow-capped Mount Fuji to the traditions that include Geisha girls and samurai warriors. This is a Japanese experience you will not want to miss out on.

UNCOVER TOKYO WITH A TWO NIGHT
4★ HOTEL STAY[‡]

You'll never forget a visit to the sensory explosion that is Tokyo. Capital of Japan, this is a city where you'll find centuries-old culture jostling for a position next to cutting-edge technology – a fabulous blend of history and modernity that has to be seen to be believed. To get a feel for Tokyo's natural beauty, head to Yoyogi Park, where cherry blossoms are resplendent in spring. Close to the Yoyogi Park is the Meiji Jingu Shrine, established in 1920 and dedicated to Emperor Meiji who helped to open Japan up to the west. As impressive as anything else is its 40-foot gate, made of 1,500-year-old cypress. At the main shrine buildings, you may show respect by bowing twice, clapping your hands twice, making a wish then bowing once more. You may be lucky enough to catch a traditional Japanese wedding procession.

Cherry Blossom season may vary. Please note, Future Cruise Credit T&Cs apply. Booking conditions of Celebrity Cruises® and Reader Offers Limited Agency terms of business apply. Please see back page for full terms and conditions.

17 NIGHTS DEPARTING 23RD JUNE, 8TH & 23RD JULY 2022

Day 1 Fly from London to Reykjavik, Iceland^{*}. Upon arrival, transfer to a 4★ hotel for your two night stay[†]

Day 2 Reykjavik, Iceland
Reykjavik is the northernmost capital city in the world. The name means 'Smokey Bay', so called because of the columns of steam that rise from the many hot springs in the area. It is well worth exploring the surrounding geysers, mountains, glaciers and geothermal baths

Day 3 Reykjavik, Iceland
After breakfast, transfer to the port and embark MS Fridtjof Nansen for your 15 night voyage through the Heart of Greenland

Day 4 - Crossing the Denmark Strait

Day 5 Leave Iceland behind and sail across the Irminger Sea. This is the same crossing that was used by the Vikings to migrate from Iceland to Greenland some 1,000 years ago. Enjoy introductory lectures on local history and biology for insights into the upcoming destinations

Day 6 Qaqortoq, Greenland
Many consider Qaqortoq one of the most beautiful towns in Greenland for its colourful houses and photogenic setting. It is the biggest town in South Greenland, with some 3,000 inhabitants, but still easy to explore on foot. You can also join an excursion^{*} to get even more insight into local culture

Day 7 Kvane fjord, Greenland
Discover the beautiful region of Paamiut by sailing deep into Kvane fjord. Your experienced captain and Expedition Leader will take advantage of the current weather and ice conditions to identify suitable activities for the day. This could be a hike ashore for a scenic view of the area, or possibly small-boat cruising or kayaking

Day 8 Manitsoq, Greenland
Manitsoq was founded in 1755 and its name means 'The Uneven Place', referring to the rocky hills and mountains shaping the layout of the town. It is also known as the 'Venice of Greenland' as it is situated in an archipelago, intersected by natural canals. The local museum charts the town's rich history and culture

Day 9 Sisimiut, Greenland
Sisimiut is situated 40km north of the Arctic Circle and is a modern settlement that maintains ancient traditions. Come ashore to explore the colourful town; visit the small museum, hike in the hills and shop for local handicrafts

Mon 12 - Sail across the Labrador Sea

Tue 13 Cross the southern part of the Labrador Sea, this time towards Newfoundland and Labrador in Canada

Day 10 Ilulissat, Greenland
Ilulissat is set in the stunning scenery of the Ilulissat Icefjord, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Just outside the town, at the mouth of the fjord, you can often see enormous icebergs that have run aground. They originate from the Jakobshavn Glacier, one of the most productive glaciers in the Northern Hemisphere. The icebergs make their way down the 20km fjord before entering Disko Bay

Day 11 Vaigat Sound
Arrive at the northernmost point in your itinerary. There are several excellent landing sites in Vaigat Sound offering breathtaking landscape and Arctic flora

Day 12 Evighe Fjord
On one side of the meandering Evighe Fjord is an ice cap that often crashes massive chunks of ice into the water. Find yourself surrounded by the highest mountains in West Greenland with peaks, up to 2,000 m (6,600 ft.) in height, sometimes swirling with mist

Day 13 Nuuk, Greenland
Nuuk is situated at the mouth of one of the most spectacular fjord systems in the world. The capital city is where old and new traditions meet, from historic buildings in 'Kolonihavnen' to the modern Centre for Greenland Self Rule. Another feature is the National Museum - home to the famous mummies of Qilakitsoq

Day 14 Ivittuut, Greenland
According to archaeologists, Vikings settled in this area more than a thousand years ago but didn't remain. Ivittuut is believed to be the last Norse settlement in Greenland, but first to be abandoned. Nowadays, the only inhabitants that might appear in the town are wandering muskoxen

Day 15 Prins Christian Sund
This long fjord is surrounded by mountains. Many glaciers go straight into its waters where they calve icebergs of all shapes, shades, and sizes. If the channel is blocked with ice, you will sail around Nunap Isua (Cape Farewell) instead

Day 16 - Cruising the Irminger Sea

Day 17 After exploring exhilarating Greenland, set course back to Iceland. Spend the days at sea recapping your experiences, having fun in the Science Center or just relaxing on deck, looking at the sea birds which follow the ship or maybe even spotting whales

Day 18 Reykjavik, Iceland
Disembark and transfer to the airport for your flight to London^{*}

Itinerary is based on 23rd June 2022 departure and may vary on other dates. Please note – weather, wind and ice conditions have a great influence on the itinerary and the ship's Captain will decide the final sailing schedule. Therefore, the itinerary is subject to change

ORANGUTANS

One of the most threatened species in the world, and the only Great Ape native to Asia, orangutans are entirely endearing. During your time in Borneo, you will have the incredible opportunity to visit the renowned Sepilok Orangutan Sanctuary, a rehabilitation centre that strives to reintroduce captive orangutans back into the wild. If the nursery is open, witness baby orangutans playing amongst themselves.

SUN BEARS

Visit the Bornean Sun Bear Conservation Centre, where over 30 sun bears live in the bear house and outdoor enclosures. The centre rescues captured sun bears and is involved in the conversation, welfare rehabilitation and education of sun bears. Sun bears are one of the most recognisable species who inhabit the rainforests of Borneo, and you'll get the special opportunity to see the incredible work that the centre puts into the welfare of the species.

SNOW MONKEYS

The Japanese macaque, better known as the snow monkey are named so because they live in areas where snow covers the ground for many months each year and can be distinguished by their red faces, brown-grey fur and short tails. During your tour, you'll spend time at the Jigokudani Monkey Park, home to the famous snow monkeys. Accustomed to humans, the monkeys can be observed from very close and almost completely ignore their human guests.

Journeys in the Wild

BY GAVIN THURSTON

Join Gavin Thurston, award-winning nature cameraman for Blue Planet II and Planet Earth II, as he shares his extraordinary true stories of what it takes to track down and film our planet's most captivating creatures. From journeys to the depths of the Antarctic Ocean and the wide expanse of the Sahara Desert, to the peaks of the Himalayas and the wild forests of the Congo, Gavin's experiences describe much more than just the incredible array of animals he's filmed.

Island Dreams: Mapping an Obsession

BY GAVIN FRANCIS

In Island Dreams, Gavin Francis examines our collective fascination with islands. He blends stories of his own travels from the Faroe Islands and the Aegean, to the Galápagos and Andaman Islands with psychology, philosophy and great voyages from literature; shedding new light on the importance of islands and isolation in our collective consciousness.

Hungry

BY JEFF GORDINIER

When René Redzepi, head chef at the globally renowned restaurant Noma, got in touch with Jeff Gordinier, writer for the New York Times, he realised that they were both in a personal and professional slump. In Hungry, follow their shared hunger for risk and reinvention as they embark on a four year culinary journey – from gathering figs in parks around Sydney to hunting for sea urchins in the Arctic Circle.
