Jeremy Dickinson,
Chairman of ROL Cruise

Here at ROL Cruise we are getting 2022 off to a fantastic start with a whole host of incredible cruise promotions, including many exclusive offers which are only available to book with us. New ships that have been eagerly-awaited are beginning to set sail, destinations both old and new are set to receive visitors and we are ready with exclusive savings and benefits that you have all come to love and expect from the UK's No.1 Independent Cruise Specialist.

Firstly, we are delighted to present Cunard's Brand New & Exclusive No-Fly 2023 Launch Promotion on pages 04-07. On their first week on sale, you can be one of the first to book to join the iconic Queen Mary 2 on an unforgettable voyage of New York, Canada & New England in the Fall, discover the Delights of the Greek Isles, experience Christmas and New Year in the Caribbean or embark on the Transatlantic Voyage of a lifetime. All with exclusive Double Cruise Miles® – only when booking by the end of this month – these launch promotions are not to be missed.

Join a record-breaking voyage on pages 14-15 with Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines, Braemar as you transit the Corinth Canal. Sailing serenely between the canal's carefully carved cliffs, which pinch to a gap of just 24 metres between them at their narrowest point, you'll enjoy an experience rarely enjoyed on an ocean cruise ship, and make memories that last a lifetime.

If you're seeking unparalleled luxury, then turn to pages 26-27 for your chance to join The World's First Luxury Yachts™, Scenic Eclipse II, for her Maiden 2024 Easter Island & French Polynesia Discovery. Enjoy the mysterious and wild landscape of Easter Island, before sampling the lush island's and coral atolls of French Polynesia. Take advantage of super Earlybird savings, included gratuities and all-inclusive dining and beverages on board!

Happy Cruising!

You can also enjoy a traditional Afternoon Tea – a signature Cunard experience. For those with special dietary requirements, dining on board can be just as memorable.

WHITE STAR SERVICE

Cunard prides themselves on a service that goes above and beyond your expectations. Their attentive crew take great pride in marking your stay on board unforgettable, focusing on the little details that make a difference. Your Record-Breaking Voyage Highlights

Sample the unique excitement of sailing Greece's remarkable Corinth Canal, as record-breaking Braemar navigates this narrow waterway as part of an unforgettable Mediterranean discovery. Sailing serenely between the canal's carefully carved cliffs, which pinch to a gap of just 24 metres between them at their narrowest point, you'll enjoy an experience rarely enjoyed on an ocean cruise ship, and make memories that last a lifetime.

Take in the fascinating history, culture and beauty of gorgeous Greek islands too. You can step back to the Byzantine era, taking in the Cretan charms, interesting museums and striking architecture of Agios Nikolaos; and trail the ancient sites of Rhodes. Braemar's size-advantage comes to the fore again, allowing you to dock close to heart of Ermoupoli and Argostoli, you can also take in sights and highlights on the mainland, including the ancient wonders of Athens such as the Acropolis and Parthenon; and the world renowned sites of Olympia and the Mercouri vineyards on tour from Katakolon, your time in Greece will captivate you from start to finish. And, as if all that wasn't enough, you'll sample a mix of Mediterranean cultures during visits to islands and cities in Spain, Italy, Malta and Portugal too, and marvel at the mighty Stromboli Volcano.

Fri 12 Katakolon, Greece

Sat 13 Argostoli, Kefalonia, Greece

Sun 14 ★Transit the Corinth Canal★

The Corinth Canal was a project that spanned many centuries. As impressive as it is important, it has to be seen to fully appreciate the engineering involved here, the narrowness of the canal – it shrinks down to less than just 24 metres wide at the very bottom – and the sheer scale of the carefully carved cliffs that flank the waterway

Mon 15 Ermoupoli, Syros, Greece

Spread out across the slopes of two tall hills on the island's east coast, Ermoupoli is a maze of multi-coloured and typically Greek whitewashed houses which, when explored, reveal a number of attractions from galleries and museums to shops, bars, restaurants and Ouzeries

Tue 16 Piraeus (for Athens), Greece

Wed 17 Rhodes, Greece

Thu 18 Agios Nikolaos, Crete

Built around a pretty lake against a backdrop of imposing red-rock cliffs and tall trees, Agios Nikolaos is one of Crete's most picturesque towns. A vibrant 'resort' throughout the holiday season, the town attracts thousands of visitors every year thanks to its blend of natural beauty, cultural attractions, interesting historic sites and fantastic beaches

Sat 20 Valletta, Malta

Mon 22 Ibiza, Spain

The Balearic Island of Ibiza may have a reputation for lively Mediterranean nightlife, but there is more to this sun-kissed, pine-clad island than meets the eye. Off Ibiza's beaten track you'll find quiet villages, rural hotels, hidden hamlets, yoga retreats, hushed churches, and glorious beaches

Small ships for a big world

Fred. Olsen have always believed that small is better. Because smaller ships bring big benefits. They mean Fred. Olsen can treat passengers as guests, like the family-run business they are. They can dock at smaller ports, much closer to the parts of our planet Fred. Olsen are most passionate about showing. They mean Fred. Olsen can avoid overcrowding, both aboard and ashore, so you can disembark easily and enjoy the freedom to see, explore and experience. They mean they can offer warmer, more personal levels of service. It would be easy to scale up, cram in and cut corners, but Fred. Olsen never will. Because to Fred. Olsen, the size they are, is the size they should be.

THANK YOU NHS

How NHS Charities Together benefited from our £100,000 donation

In 2020 we raised over £100,000 for NHS Charities Together. We wanted to do our bit to show support to the amazing NHS who work tirelessly to save lives. Here, we chat with Pam Green on how our donation benefited the health team across North Essex and Suffolk.

How we raised £100,000 for the NHS

In order to achieve our rather ambitious target, we donated £25 for every booking made with us from the beginning of April until the end of June 2020. We were absolutely delighted to reach our target in such a short amount of time and even more pleased that we were able to thank the NHS for their extraordinary work during such an incredibly tough time.

How the NHS benefited

"When the very generous donation from ROL Cruise was received, we wanted to use it to thank our staff for all the hard work and dedication they have shown during the very difficult times of the pandemic," Pam Green, NEECCG Chief Operating Officer told us. "We were also aware that many staff may be working from home and missing that sense of connection with the organisation and we wanted to remind staff that they are our most valuable asset and help them to feel appreciated."

"You will remember that the intention of the donation was to reach out to the health and social care workers within the North East Essex Alliance (a collection of health, voluntary sector and social care providers and commissioners working in partnership to improve the health and wellbeing of the local population). The pandemic shined a light on the isolation of some residential care home staff from the rest of the system and the Wellbeing Boxes served to support the connection and inclusion of the care home staff with the wider system staff which was invaluable at such a stressful and demanding time."

"We chose to focus on the theme of wellbeing and self-care for the boxes, recognising that when we are busy, this is one element that can't be overlooked. So, using local suppliers, we sourced gifts that encouraged staff to take a break and reconnect. The Alliance Wellbeing Boxes arriving at employees homes allowed a physical and ongoing connection in a time where there was a lot of disconnection. The staff were grateful for these gifts and the recognition they received."

"We would like to take this opportunity to pass on our sincere thanks to ROL Cruise again for their generosity. Your donation came at a time when many felt so tired and exhausted it made such a difference."

What the recipients thought

"We were delighted to get these little bundles! At a time when all the focus (rightly) was on our residents, it was heartwarming to know that there were outside organisations and individuals who cared about us, both as people and as front line workers."

Margaret Brodie, Activities Co-Ordinator, The Oaks Care Home

"A lovely surprise and so uplifting! The wellness tips were sent, and continue to be sent, to the team as well as family and friends. A very big thank you to the CCG for their thoughtfulness and to the sponsor for their kind generosity. This helped us to feel appreciated at such a difficult time in the NHS."

Dr Soares, GP

"We're a small home in a big town, so to receive these lovely items made such a difference. To know that we hadn't been forgotten meant so much to us all. Feeling inclusive in any community is a vital part of care home living and this certainly made us feel a part of something bigger."

Trudi Snee, Registered Manager, Milton Lodge Care Home

But really, the thanks lie with us. We are so proud to support the NHS and would like to thank every staff member and volunteer wholeheartedly for working tirelessly every single day.

Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 14 years.

LIFE IN THE LUXE LANE

Does all this talk of wellness leave you feeling exhausted? Me too. Which is why I can't wait to indulge in Otium, a luxury take on staying healthy that debuts on Silversea's new ship Silver Dawn this year and takes its cue from the ancient Romans' love of indulgence and pampering. "Champagne and caviar to go with your massage madam?" Oh why not.

Spas not your cup of tea? Don't worry, there is lots more in the world of luxury cruising to, excuse the pun, float your boat. I was lucky enough to sail on Seabourn Encore just as Covid forced cruising to shut down – a fabulous cruise around Australia that was sadly truncated – and joined Regent Seven Seas Cruises and Silversea as their ships got back in the water this summer and goodness, do they all know how to do luxury.

Bottles of fizz to welcome you to your suite (never just a cabin on these ships!), butlers on hand to help organise your dining and days out and décor that looks a million dollars. Talk about being spoilt rotten.

Luxury means so many different things but whether your take on it is small ships, lots of space, personal service or never having to queue, they tick the box. They also all include gratuities and drinks in the price, which is great for obvious reasons but also means you never have to worry who is buying the next round. It's such a luxury not having to worry about the budget when you are on holiday, isn't it?

And then there is the food, which across the board is excellent, and also complimentary. I indulged in a beautiful rib-eye steak in the Grill on Seabourn Encore, which serves dishes created by acclaimed US chef Thomas Keller, spiced things up with a Thai chicken curry in the Asian Pacific Rim on Regent's Seven Seas Splendor and went local in the new SALT Restaurant on Silversea's Silver Moon that serves dishes popular in the places you are visiting. We were in Greece and Cyprus so chicken lakani and lamb stifado were among offerings on the menu, along with superb local wines. After months in lockdown it was such a treat to have someone else do the cooking!

This year my epicurean sights are set on Oceania Cruises, who are definitely one of the masters of the high seas when it comes to food. It's been years since I sailed with them, but I remember Red Ginger, their Asian Restaurant, being amazing, and I loved the Med-styled Toscana with its olive oil and balsamic vinegar menu, big basket of bread and fresh roasted garlic. My kind of gorgeous! Oceania Cruises isn't completely all-inclusive but most of the restaurants are complimentary so everyone can dine like kings.

The great news is that luxury at sea is getting even more affordable as cruise lines throw even more in the price. New from Seabourn, there's free Wi-Fi for all, while Silversea now includes flights and a complimentary tour at every port. Regent already includes so much – flights, transfers, tours, drinks, tips, and has lately added free laundry for those in the top suites – that you really can disembark with a nil bill.

CHAMPAGNE AND CAVIAR TO GO WITH YOUR MASSAGE MADAM?

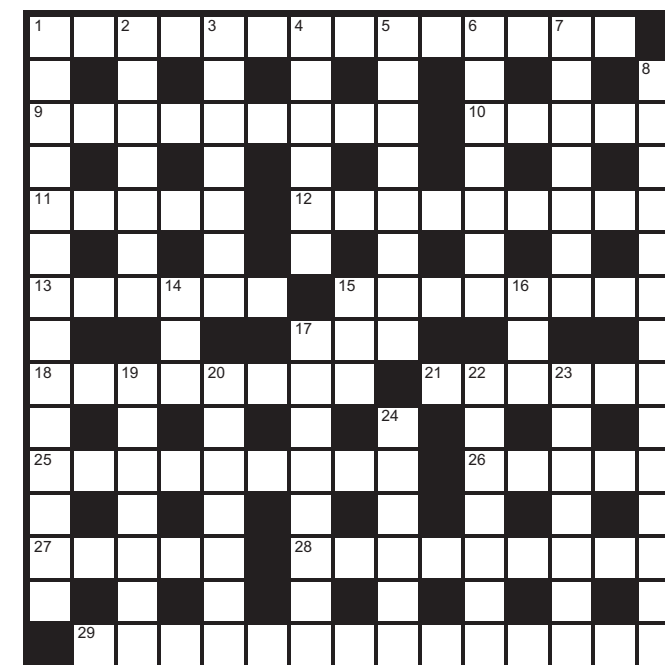

And wait until you see what's coming on all the new ships launching into the luxury arena this year and next. Submarines, Zodiacs and all-suite accommodation on Seabourn's first expedition ship, Seabourn Venture; a giant suite with its own spa on Regent's new Seven Seas Grandeur; palatial Owners' Suites on Vista, a new ship from Oceania Cruises that, surprise, surprise, has even more places to eat. Two new restaurants, Ember and Aquamar Kitchen, promise everything from food classics to healthy dishes for those on a wellness kick.

And then there is Silver Dawn and the aforementioned Otium, which, to quote Silversea, is all about making wellness enjoyable. I'll drink to that!

From snow-capped Mount Fuji to the traditions that include Geisha girls and samurai warriors. This is a Japanese experience you will not want to miss out on.

UNCOVER TOKYO WITH A TWO NIGHT 4★ HOTEL STAY†

You'll never forget a visit to the sensory explosion that is Tokyo. Capital of Japan, this is a city where you'll find centuries-old culture jostling for a position next to cutting-edge technology – a fabulous blend of history and modernity that has to be seen to be believed. To get a feel for Tokyo's natural beauty, head to Yoyogi Park, where cherry blossoms are resplendent in spring. Close to the Yoyogi Park is the Meiji Jingu Shrine, established in 1920 and dedicated to Emperor Meiji who helped to open Japan up to the west. As impressive as anything else is its 40-foot gate, made of 1,500-year-old cypress. At the main shrine buildings, you may show respect by bowing twice, clapping your hands twice, making a wish then bowing once more. You may be lucky enough to catch a traditional Japanese wedding procession.

YOUR SIGNATURE EXPERIENCE HIGHLIGHTS

THE TAJ MAHAL AT SUNSET

You will have the once-in-a-lifetime chance to visit the Taj Mahal at sunset. One of the New Seven Wonders of the World, it is ubiquitously recognised as one of the world's greatest landmarks, and finest examples of Mughal architecture. Built as a tribute to his favourite wife, Emperor Shah Jahan said on its creation that it made "the sun and the moon shed tears from their eyes". The close-up detail of the Taj Mahal is as exquisite as the overall architectural design, with semi-precious stones and beautiful patterns adorning the marble surface.

RANTHAMBORE NATIONAL PARK & TIGER SAFARI

Unearthing and immersing oneself in nature and wildlife is something that many of us want to tick off our list. Centred around the impressive 10th century Ranthambore Fort, the park is scattered with old mosques, temples and hunting pavilions. The park has a wealth of fauna and a diverse range of flora that calls it home. When out on safari look out for leopards, boars, hyenas, sloth bears and rhesus macaques. But the highlight of your safaris will undoubtedly be the moment that you set eyes upon one of the regal Bengal tigers that live in the reserve – an experience that few get to have, and once had, few forget.
