CELEBRATING
25 YEARS
OF EXCELLENCE

WELCOME TO THE JANUARY EDITION OF BLUE HORIZONS

Welcome to the latest edition of Blue Horizons and most importantly please accept our sincere best wishes for a very Happy New Year. As you may have read previously in our magazine, we have been transitioning as a company with Jeremy, as our Chairman, slowly handing over the reins in the background to us both. Jeremy has been and still is a huge part of ROL and although he is not going anywhere, you will see more of us both in the future. Together we are proud to say we have been part of ROL for over 16 years and are excited to be able to bring you new and exciting cruise opportunities whilst ensuring we look after your cruise bookings.

In this edition we are thrilled to bring some really unique opportunities sailing to Alaska featuring Rocky Mountaineer, Circumnavigation to Iceland and a Caribbean and Amazon adventure. We would also like to draw your attention to the brand new sailings with Celebrity Cruises for Japan in the Springtime and also the first day on sale for Greenland and The Canadian Arctic Expedition with Scenic Eclipse. You might have seen the Maritime Masters on TV recently, if you have missed this we highly recommend watching it, as it really captures what it is like behind the scenes on board. In this edition we have also included some excellent offers on no-fly cruising so please take a moment to have a look and see the beautiful itineraries on offer to tempt you.

We would also like to mention that on page 26 and 27 of this edition, you can see what we have been up to with regards to supporting our chosen charities which we are planning to develop even further as we go into 2024.

Whether you are looking for a once in a lifetime voyage or perhaps a relaxing cruise to whisk you away to warmer climes, we hope you manage to make the most of these wonderful offers we have for you this January.

Happy Cruising!

Rosie and Sarah

DISCOVER JAPAN IN THE SPRINGTIME

For just a few weeks every year, Japan blooms into vibrant pink as the nation's cherry blossom trees (also known as Sakura) flower, creating stunningly beautiful scenes across the country. Delight in the fleeting beauty of these delicate flowers that frame the historic temples and towns perfectly. From snow-capped Mount Fuji to the traditions that include Geisha girls and samurai warriors. This is a Japanese experience you will not want to miss out on!

DISCOVER TOKYO WITH A TWO-NIGHT
4★ PRE-CRUISE HOTEL STAY

You'll never forget a visit to the sensory explosion that is Tokyo. Capital of Japan, this is a city where you'll find centuries-old culture jostling for a position next to cutting-edge technology – a fabulous blend of history and modernity that has to be seen to be believed.

To get a feel for Tokyo's natural beauty, head to Yoyogi Park, where cherry blossoms are resplendent in spring. City life slows down just a touch in this former Olympic village, which also served as a military parade ground and barracks for American soldiers after the Second World War.

Close to the Yoyogi Park is the Meiji Jingu Shrine, established in 1920 and dedicated to Emperor Meiji who helped to open Japan up to the west. As impressive as anything else is its 40-foot gate, made of 1,500-year-old cypress. At the main shrine buildings, you may show respect by bowing twice, clapping your hands twice, making a wish then bowing once more. You may be lucky enough to catch a traditional Japanese wedding procession.

YOUR INCREDIBLE SIGNATURE EXPERIENCE HIGHLIGHTS

Papeete, French Polynesia

An enchanting place, to say the least, it's little wonder Tahiti is a muse to so many. Herman Melville and Paul Gauguin certainly found some inspiration here. And Papeete, the island's very cosmopolitan city, has its fair share. So before you immerse yourself in Tahiti's earthy delights, make sure you visit Papeete's vibrant waterfront and colourful market, brimming with everything from fresh fruit to artisan treasures. You'll find it, well, picture perfect.

Auckland, New Zealand

Stretched over a volcanic field on New Zealand's North Island is multicultural Auckland. The country's largest city, this thriving hub offers everything you would expect – enchanting scenery at every turn, fascinating Maori heritage and friendly locals. The urban centre occupies a narrow isthmus between two harbours, while the outer region boasts beautiful beaches, fertile farmlands and rainforest-covered hills. One of the best ways to appreciate Auckland's amazing vistas is from the 328m tall Sky Tower which offers impressive 360-degree views of the city.

ANGKOR WAT

The majestic temples of Angkor in northwest Cambodia are a Unesco World Heritage site and top of the historic must see for many travellers to Southeast Asia.

Spread across more than 400 acres, Angkor Wat is said to be the largest religious monument in the world. Its name, which translates to "temple city" in the Khmer language of the region, references the fact it was built by Emperor Suryavarman II, who ruled the region from 1113 to 1150, as the state temple and political center of his empire.

Even though it is no longer an active temple, it's a true wonder of the world.

MONKEY BUSINESS IN JAPAN

BY JANE ARCHER

Here's a question for you. What do the British Isles, New Zealand and Japan have in common? No it's not sushi, although I'm told New Zealanders are as mad for the light-bite tucker as the Brits and, surprise!, the Japanese.

It's that all three are islands, have great cities and attractions near the coast and are therefore perfect for touring by sea. You also get all the usual perks of cruising - unpacking once, meals included if you stick with main dining and the buffet, plus organised excursions that get around any language problems.

Well OK, that last one is not an issue in the UK or New Zealand, but it is in Japan, as I discovered a few years ago when I flew to Osaka and needed a taxi to get to my ship. After much gesticulating and waving of arms (I was trying to imitate waves!), one driver decided I wanted to go to a theme park.

At that point I gave up on the taxis, headed to the bus stop and luckily found someone with enough broken English to get me on one going to the port. At least, that's what I hoped he'd understood. He had. I found the ship and that night we sailed to South Korea.

Norwegian Cruise Line returned to Tokyo in October 2023 after a three-year break from Asia and for 2024 has a fantastic selection of 10 to 14-night Japan-intensive cruises that visit places such as Okinawa, Hiroshima, Nagasaki, Nagoya and Kagoshima, where you can visit castles, gardens, museums and World War Two memorials and peace parks. You can see volcanoes and lakes, go hiking and sample authentic sashimi and sushi.

And now, thanks to an exclusive pre-cruise stay in Tokyo that ROL Cruise has packaged with an NCL sailing in October 2024, you can also get up close to Japan's famous snow monkeys.

The monkeys are macaques, like the ones that live in Gibraltar, except these spend most of the year in snow in Jigokudani Yaen Koen, a park created 60 years ago so they had somewhere safe to roam freely. In the park they are fed and, uniquely, warm up by taking dips in the area's hot springs.

ROL's pre-cruise stay in Tokyo includes excursion to see the monkeys, and also Zenkoji Temple, which houses the first Buddhist statue brought to Japan. That was in the year 552 and it's so revered that no one is allowed to see it (but a replica is put on show for a few weeks every six years so if you want a glimpse, make a date in the diary for 2028).

An included guided tour of Tokyo's neon jungle next day visits temples and shrines, takes guests to the top of the Skytree, a tower some 634 metres above the city, before a sushi-making - and eating! - class. On day three, you'll transfer to Yokohama to join NCL's Norwegian Spirit for a 12-night cruise.

It's a fabulous itinerary, offering history, culture and scenery galore on visits to Otaru (to visit Sapporo), Hakodate, Akita, Kanazawa, Beppu, Himeji, Kyoto (from the port of Osaka) and Shimizu, plus one day in Busan in South Korea. You'll visit forts, castles, markets and temples, learn about Samurai warriors, dip in hot springs (not the ones the monkeys are in!) and wander through pine groves in the shadow of stunning Mount Fuji.

All that, yet it's just scratching the surface of all Japan has to offer. I reckon before the holiday has even ended everyone will be planning their next cruise in the Land of the Rising Sun!

MAGICAL SNOW MONKEYS

The Japanese macaque, better known as the Snow Monkeys, are so named because they live in areas where snow covers the ground for many months each year, and can be distinguished by their red faces, brown-grey fur and short tails. During your tour, you'll spend time at the Jigokudani Monkey Park. Here you'll have the incredible opportunity to see wild monkeys bathing in a natural hot spring, known as an onsen. Accustomed to humans, the monkeys can be observed from very close quarters. Marvel as large families of monkeys relax in the warm water – watching how they interact can be highly entertaining.

CULTURAL KYOTO

Kyoto is home to many unique traditions. Perhaps the most resplendent and honoured, Kyoto is famous for Geisha, who are trained in the performing cultural arts of dance and classical music. Venture to the Gion area for a glimpse into this ancient world. For those wishing to fully immerse themselves in ancient Japanese culture, rent a Kimono and take a stroll through the old city streets. Don't miss partaking in a tea ceremony at one of Kyoto's many traditional teahouses.

YOUR 5★ LUXURY HOTEL STAYS*

TOKYO, JAPAN

You'll never forget a visit to the sensory explosion that is Tokyo. Capital of Japan, this is a city where you'll find centuries-old culture jostling for a position next to cutting-edge technology – a fabulous blend of history and modernity that has to be seen to be believed. To get a feel for Tokyo's natural beauty, head to Yoyogi Park. City life slows down just a touch in this former Olympic village, which also served as a military parade ground and barracks for American soldiers after the Second World War. Close to the Yoyogi Park is the Meiji Jingu Shrine, established in 1920 and dedicated to Emperor Meiji who helped to open Japan up to the west. As impressive as anything else is its 40-foot gate, made of 1,500-year-old cypress. At the main shrine buildings, you may show respect by bowing twice, clapping your hands twice, making a wish, then bowing once more. You may even be lucky enough to catch a traditional Japanese wedding procession.

VANCOUVER, CANADA

Stunning scenery – such as Grouse Mountain and Capilano Suspension Bridge – and incredible wildlife are just some highlights of this vibrant, beautiful city. Consistently rated among the world's best cities, Vancouver's mass appeal knows no bounds. Surrounded by sea, verdant countryside and mountain peaks, the city's position in British Columbia is an attraction in itself, but Vancouver is much more than a gateway to the Sea-to Sky highway and the snowy slopes of Whistler. With a dense multicultural population, the city is a diverse and cosmopolitan destination, rich with art, history and a unique culinary identity that's gaining momentum all the time. Beyond Vancouver, you'll find opportunities to hike, ski and kayak, as well as the chance to bathe in the world's most mineral-dense thermal springs.
