CELEBRATING OVER
25 YEARS
OF EXCELLENCE

Last month, Commercial Account Manager Natasha was lucky enough to spend a few days aboard Vista ahead of her very special christening celebration and naming ceremony. Here, Natasha tells us all about her time on board Oceania Cruises' newest ship:

What were your first impressions of Oceania Cruises' newest ship?

Well, it exceeded every expectation! It's luxurious, spacious and just pure class from top to bottom. Oceania Cruises set out to evoke the wonders you'll discover ashore onboard. And through stylish design and harmonious spaces, they've done just that. With elements inspired by land and sea, you're certain to be captivated and discover a new way of seeing the world.

You were lucky enough to stay in a Penthouse Suite – could you tell us about the elevated level of luxury?

Where to begin? As soon as I stepped into my stylish suite, I noticed how much more space there is. Penthouse Suites boast the added luxuries of a walk-in closet, an oversized bathroom with dual vanities and a large private veranda overlooking the sea. The Champagne on ice and butler service were a real treat, too! If budget allows, the Penthouse Suite experience gives you the extra comfort, space, exclusivity and an understanding that your every whim will be taken care of.

Tell us more about the butler service!

After being in my suite for just a few minutes, there was a gentle tap on the door. I opened it to be greeted by my impeccably dressed butler who politely asked if he could step in for a moment to introduce himself. He knew my name straight away and took the time to show me that I had a fully stocked mini-bar, chilled water and water bottles to take ashore if I wished. He had even laid out some chilled Champagne and some canapés for me to enjoy. He advised me of the Concierge Lounge that I had exclusive access to down the corridor and that my suite attendant was called Natalia. He then showed me the phone in the room and which button to press if I needed him at any time.

Vista's* stunning interiors and harmonious spaces reflect a fresh new perspective for Oceania Cruises. How different does Vista feel from other ships in the fleet?

Every ship in the Oceania Cruises fleet is special, but Vista feels like a view to the future with her imaginative new dining concepts, residential style and signature spaces. She is the pinnacle of luxury and class – every single detail has been thought of and her lighter, airier feel reflects a fresh, new perspective for Oceania Cruises.

Lastly, why should our customer's cruise on Vista?

Vista is the perfect mix of informal and extravagant. Combining luxury with a home-from-home feel, small-ship lovers will not be disappointed, not least for The Finest Cuisine at Sea®. Prepare to be amazed!

Turn to pages 27 – 30 and discover the brand-new Vista

HELLO AND WELCOME

For as little as £71pp per night, you can sail directly from London Tilbury on their brand new ship Ambition, discovering the delights of the Caribbean and the mysteries of Cuba to boot! Find our more on pages 06-07.

On our incredible Signature Experience, only bookable with ROL Cruise, you can enjoy Japan in the Springtime from only £2,899pp. Turn to pages 40-41 for more details.

If luxury travel is your ticket, than I shall say no more than to direct your attention to pages 22-23 for your chance to circumnavigate Africa in ultra-luxury with Seabourn; and what's more pages 27-30 to meet Vista, Oceania's brand new ship!

YOUR CRUISE HIGHLIGHTS

BREATH-TAKING BARBADOS

Barbados is an island that has it all. In addition to fine powdery sand and brilliant turquoise bays, a Unesco World Heritage-listed capital, a beautiful interior dotted with gardens, and wild surf on the lonely east coast, all inhabited by a proud and welcoming populace. Miles of sandy beaches, turquoise island waters, and an abundance of plantations and historic sites to tour mean you'll find plenty to occupy you during your time here. Be sure to try traditional Barbadian dishes like cou cou and macaroni pie, and make time to enjoy a rum tasting or distillery tour*.

HEAVENLY HAVANA

Sometimes referred to as the Rome of the Caribbean, it's impossible not to feel enchanted by Cuba's capital city's charm, with its Spanish architecture, classic American cars and gorgeous tropical climate. Cuba's iconic capital is instantly recognisable. To many, this charming city steeped in rich history and culture is trapped in a time warp, where Classic American cars like Buicks, Cadillacs and Chevrolets line the cobbled streets, and Spanish colonial style buildings date back to the 16th century. To others, it's a gateway to the Latin world, full of colour and vibrancy. Havana is one of the last places on earth that you can describe as truly unique; its diversity allows you to experience UNESCO-listed Old Towns, a vibrant art scene, incredible live music and exotic salsa dancing sure to bring the atmosphere day and night.

Upon arrival, transfer to the opulent Four Seasons Hotel Cairo at Nile Plaza or the stunning Nile Ritz Carlton hotel[†] for your two night hotel stay, including breakfast

Day 2 Cairo, Egypt

The ancient quarter of Cairo is intense – the colours, the sounds, the density of people – and it's likely been this way for thousands of years. Your local expert will show you a 12th century citadel, the beautiful Alabaster Mosque and an unsurpassed collection of priceless artefacts, including mind-boggling treasures once buried with the boy king Tutankhamen (B)

★ Featured Excursion: Citadel of Salah al-Din, Alabaster Mosque & Egyptian Museum

Day 3 Cairo – Luxor – Cruising the Nile River – Dendera, Egypt

After breakfast, transfer to the airport for your flight to Luxor. Prepare to be amazed as you enjoy a tour of the legendary Temple of Karnak, a massive and astounding site, with gigantic columns, broad avenues lined with stone sphinxes and halls of truly epic proportions. Your local guide is a trained Egyptologist with fascinating insights to share. Later, transfer to the port and embark the 6★ River Tosca and set sail for beautiful Dendera. Enjoy a Gala Reception and dinner on board this evening (B, L, D)

★ Featured Excursion: Temple at Karnak

Day 4 Dendera – Cruising the Nile River – Luxor, Egypt

Like its twin shrine, the Temple of Karnak, the Temple of Luxor stands on the site of ancient Thebes, the once flourishing capital of Egypt's New Kingdom. It was built over hundreds of years and even in ruins it is still an extraordinary place. You'll also visit the Temple of Hathor, dedicated to the goddess of love and beauty (B,L,D)

★ Featured Excursion: Temple of Hathor & Temple of Luxor

Day 5 Luxor – Cruising the Nile River – Kom Ombo, Egypt

The word "colossal" will take on a whole new meaning after today's excursion to the gigantic twin statues known as the Colossi of Memnon. And that's just the beginning – you'll also visit the temple of one of Egypt's rare female pharaohs as well as the Valley of the Kings, used as a royal burial place for nearly 500 years and where the mummified remains of Tutankhamen are on display (B, L, D)

★ Featured Excursion: Colossi of Memnon, Hatshepsut Temple & Valley of the Kings

Day 6 Kom Ombo – Cruising the Nile River – Aswan, Egypt

After visiting a temple dedicated to the crocodile god today (don't miss the display of some of the 300 mummified crocs found in the local area), hop aboard a small boat for a birdwatching excursion along the Nile (B, L, D)

★ Featured Excursion: Kom Ombo Temple & bird watching boat ride and tea with a Nubian family

Day 7 Aswan, Egypt

Today is an epic day, filled with wonders from start to finish. You'll visit a marvel of modern engineering – the Aswan High Dam – as well as the Unfinished Obelisk and the beautiful Philae Temple complex, which was moved from one island to another back in the 1970s. But wait, there's more. You'll also take a ride in a felucca – a traditional Egyptian sailboat – and enjoy afternoon tea at a famous hotel depicted in Agatha Christie's novel 'Death on the Nile'. After dinner on board this evening, you'll be treated to an enchanting Nubian show featuring traditionally attired performers, live music and dancing (B, L, D)

★ Featured Excursion: Aswan High Dam, Unfinished Obelisk & Temple of Isis

★ Featured Excursion: Boat ride in a traditional Nile River felucca and afternoon tea at the Old Cataract Hotel Aswan

Day 8 Aswan – Cruising the Nile River – Kom Ombo – Edfu, Egypt

Spend the day at leisure or join an optional excursion to see the magnificent temples of Abu Simbel* (B, L, D)

Day 9 Esna – Cruising the Nile River – Luxor, Egypt

On today's excursion, learn how the Temple of Esna was buried under debris for many centuries and is one of the last great Egyptian temples ever built. Your Egyptologist guide will share all sorts of fascinating insights about this significant cultural site and show you the façade bearing the last known hieroglyphic inscriptions ever recorded in Egypt. Later, savour the Nile's majestic scenery as you cruise to Luxor (B, L, D)

★ Featured Excursion: Temple of Khnum

Day 10 Luxor – Cairo, Egypt

After breakfast, disembark and transfer to the airport for your flight to Cairo. Upon arrival, transfer to your luxury hotel[†] for your two night stay, including breakfast (B)

Day 11 Cairo, Egypt

It's a day of Bucket List Moments today as you venture to Ancient Memphis, a UNESCO World Heritage Site with a number of amazing monuments to see – including the enigmatic Great Sphinx. You'll have a thrilling opportunity to view the pyramids from an up-close perspective, the only way to fully appreciate their remarkable size and grandeur (B)

★ Featured Excursion: Ancient Memphis sites, including the Pyramids of Giza, the Great Sphinx and Sakkara visit

The Grand Dining Room is the luxurious grand dame of Oceania Cruises' culinary world. Here, guests will savor a leisurely dining experience in a truly magnificent and inspired room whose ambience soars to equally lofty heights as the cuisine. Every day presents a realm of choices, from signature Jacques Pépin classics to an incredible spectrum of global flavors and an all-new Executive Chef's Tasting Menu.

Vista, the newest ship in the fleet, reaches new pinnacles of creativity and diversity with an astounding array of dining options that range from informal to extravagant. Here, we place a spotlight on these impressive speciality dining options, available at no extra cost:

SPECIALITY RESTAURANTS ON VISTA

EMBER

Elegant American traditions

Debuted on Vista, Ember is an inviting dining spot that combines inventive classic American creations and time-honoured classics. Serving lunch and dinner, the menu is a celebration of influences from the world's greatest chefs including Oceania Cruises' very own Executive Culinary Director, Jacques Pépin. Enjoy blackened crab cake, succulent steak and roasted apple tart.

RED GINGER

Boldly yet balanced flavours

A firm fleet favourite, Red Ginger combines Thai, Korean, Japanese and Malaysian-rooted specialities to create a mélange of spicy and soothing, savoury and sweet dishes to please virtually every palate. Begin with a spicy duck and watermelon salad, savour chicken shio ramen noodles for main and enjoy caramel tapioca with mango and ginger cookies for pudding.

AQUAMAR KITCHEN

Wellness-inspired indulgence

Another first for Vista, Aquamar Kitchen presents a decidedly fresh perspective on dining and the pursuit of wellness. Think indulgence without guilt. At breakfast, cold-pressed juices and energy bowls shine. At lunch, the avocado toast selections and globally-inspired salads and wraps are flavourful and satisfying and washed down with a beverage menu that features a selection of premium, award-winning non-alcoholic wines.

WAVES GRILL

Alfresco dining

Casual, colourful and a little bit playful, Waves Grill serves up all-American favourites in a spacious shaded area steps away from the swimming pool. With an extensive menu serving up mouth-watering dishes at lunch and late into the afternoon, you can watch the Waves Grill chefs grill gourmet burgers, succulent seafood and sandwich esto order in the open galley.

POLO GRILL

The classic steakhouse

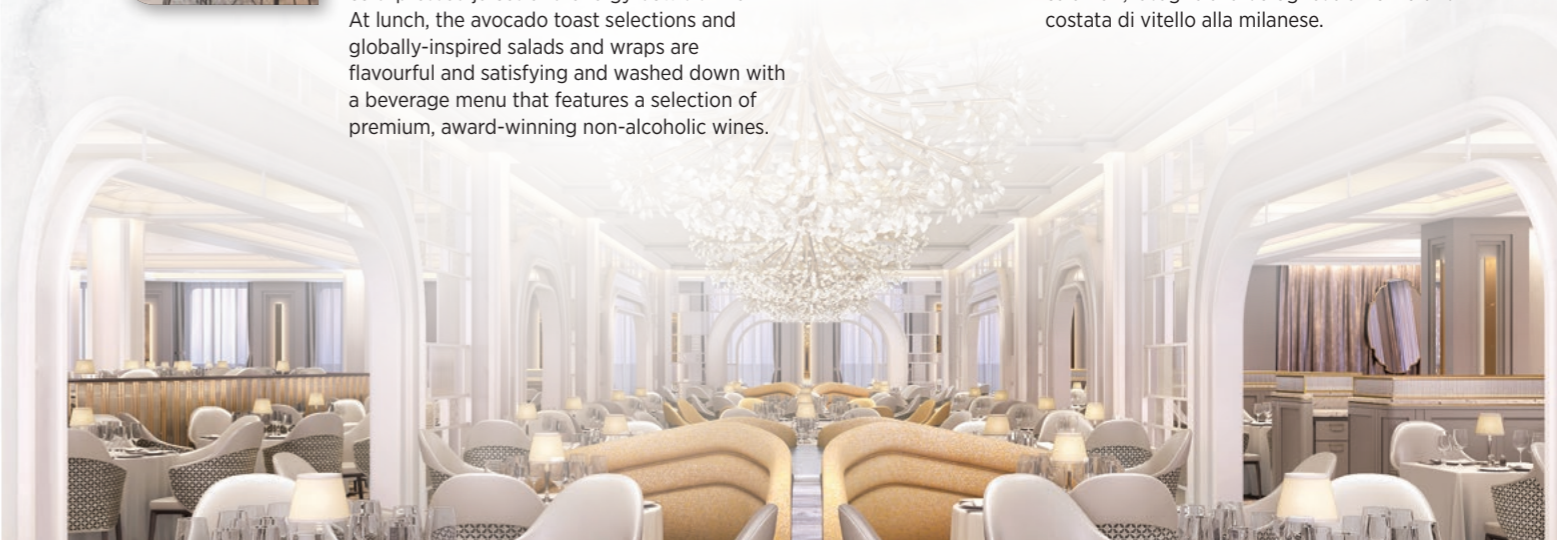

Polo Grill delights diners with the ultimate classic steakhouse experience. Each course stands as the very definition of time-honoured favourites, most notably the beef dishes, all of which are 28-day dry-aged certified Black Angus USDA Prime. Succulent seafood dishes, like grilled swordfish and whole Maine lobster gratinée, are classics in their own right.

TOSCANA

An evolution of Tuscan cuisine

For fine authentic Italian fare, head to Toscana. Evolved from generational family traditions, many of Toscana's recipes originate from the mothers and grandmothers of Oceania Cruises' own Italian culinary staff. Like the fritto di calamari, lasagne alla bolognese al forno and costata di vitello alla milanese.

FROM SHELF TO SEA...

Whilst many of us may not have the luxury of time to indulge in a good book back at home, cruising is the perfect opportunity to delve into a new novel - or two! If you need inspiration for what to read on your next cruise, then be sure to add the below books to your list, handpicked by ROL Cruise...

STILL LIFE

BY SARAH WINMAN

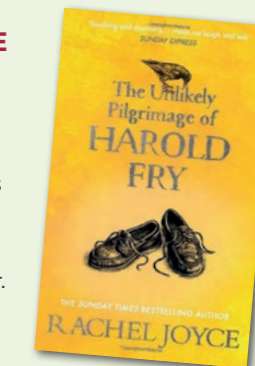

The year is 1944, and in a Tuscan wine cellar two strangers share an extraordinary evening. A Sunday Times Bestseller, when a book is described as 'moving, wise, poetic and funny' and teeming 'with boisterous, exuberant life', it would seem a crime not to read it!

THE UNLIKELY PILGRIMAGE OF HAROLD FRY

BY RACHEL JOYCE

When Harold Fry nips out one morning to post a letter, leaving his wife hoovering upstairs, he has no idea that he is about to walk from one end of the country to the other. Here is an odyssey, a funny and thoroughly charming read.

Each year Japan transforms into a pink Arcadia as cherry trees (Sakura) are awash with their seasonal bloom. This natural marvel is so well followed in Japan, it even makes the daily weather report. Here are our top spots for witnessing the flourishing blossoms at this magical time of year showcase the finest regional flavours available - with top end barramundi, locally produced beef and lamb and native Australian fare including wild rosella flower, there is plenty to savour.

An adventure like no other

I know, I know. A couple of issues back I was planning a cruise around Japan and now here I am looking wistfully at sailing through the Northwest Passage. But that is the thing about cruising. Ships go to so many fantastic destinations that it's impossible to pick just one. And when it comes to the Northwest Passage, there really is no other way to do it than on a cruise ship.

I've cruised around Antarctica, Greenland and Svalbard but so far a voyage through the 'passage', a vast sea of icy water that separates Arctic Canada and Greenland, has eluded me. Which is about par for the course for this stretch of water as finding the route through the islands between the two continents eluded many an explorer in the 1800s.

One of them was Captain Sir John Franklin, a 59-year-old Arctic veteran who set off from Kent at the helm of an expedition to find the Northwest Passage in 1845. Neither he, his two ships, HMS Erebus and HMS Terror, or his 129 officers and crew were ever seen again.

It might be an unlikely candidate given it is a long way from the sea, but you can visit on a cruise. Oceania Cruises' Baltic voyages this summer have tours from the seaside town of Warnemünde. It's a great introduction to the city that was once the symbol of a divided Europe.

Actually that's not strictly true. A search party went to look for the missing expedition in 1845 and discovered artefacts from the ships and the remains of two of the crew. More recently, in 2014 and 2016 respectively, the wrecks of the Erebus and Terror were discovered,

All anyone knows for sure is that the ships got trapped in ice and that in 1848 those crew still alive (papers found much later show Franklin died in 1947) decided to take their chance on land and died variously of hypothermia, starvation and lead poisoning from the tins their food was in.

Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 14 years.

It's a tragic story but the history of Northwest Passage exploration does have a happy ending. In 1906, Norwegian explorer Roald Amundsen became the first person to find the route - his voyage took three years - opening the way for others (us!) to follow in his footsteps.

And my goodness, what a spectacular journey it is, sailing into fjords and past vast glaciers, navigating around remote islands and meeting Inuit peoples in their own homes.

Expedition cruise lines generally transit the Northwest Passage once a year - a lot quicker than Amundsen, you'll be relieved to hear! - but Hurtigruten goes one (or should that be three) better. In late summer this year, it has four voyages through the fabled route, including an epic 26-day sailing on an ice-strengthened ship fittingly named MS Roald Amundsen that has Scandi-chic looks and can operate for short periods on battery power.

Whichever Hurtigruten voyage you choose (there's another epic - this time 27 days - on MS Fridtjof Nansen and 19 and 20-day sailings on MS Fram - the experts at ROL Cruise can help you choose the one that suits best), get ready for an adventure like no other, on a voyage like no other.

It'll start and end with scheduled port calls, but once in the Northwest Passage you literally go with the flow as the route and landings depend on the weather and ice. Nothing is guaranteed but fingers crossed you'll get highlight trips ashore (landings are made in small expedition boats) to explore the deserted settlement of Dundas Harbour, see Gjoa Haven, where Roald Amundsen learned polar survival skills from the Netsilik Inuit people, and visit Beechey Island, where the Franklin expedition spent winter 1845-46 and the graves of three members of the expedition were discovered in 1850.

This is one cruise where you can leave the suits and sparkles at home and instead pack woollies, scarves and waterproof trousers. There are lectures and talks to attend hosted by the marine biologists, geologists and other experts in the expedition team and a Science Center to check out for some back-to-school hands-on learning. Oh and you'll also need to be out on deck to marvel at the scenery and spot any passing whales, polar bears, narwhals, seals and seabirds.

And after all that, you'll need to go home for a holiday!
