TO THE JUNE EDITION OF BLUE HORIZONS

Hi all and welcome to our June edition of Blue Horizons. This month we are bringing you some wonderful offers but also some really interesting articles which we think you will really enjoy. If you turn to page 42, our wonderful Jennie Bond has an exclusive feature where she divulges her insights to cruising and some of her best moments at sea. We have been working with Jennie for several years now and are always keen to hear more about her cruising experiences.

Also different this month is a new collection of our Signature Experiences, tailor-made for more in-depth holidays taking in unique, once in a lifetime experiences. This collection includes the beautiful Italian Lakes with Princess Cruises and the incredible Grand Tour of the USA's Musical Deep South with Celebrity Cruises. Turn to page 27 to find out more. These unique tours are brand new for our readers today and remember we take care of the details and include the different elements so you can immerse yourself fully in your travel experience.

If you are looking for something a little closer to home then we have some superb offers with Princess Cruises. They have just launched their brand-new sailings which are featured on pages 04-05, with some beautiful itineraries sailing direct from Southampton.

If a World Voyage is more your style, then we have an exclusive offer on P&O Cruises' 2025 sailing, featuring a cashback offer of superb value. This could be used for spending money on the cruise itself or even your travel insurance, whatever you prefer.

Whatever you are looking for, we hope you enjoy reading your June edition of Blue Horizons and Happy Cruising!

Rosie and Sarah

Signature Experience HIGHLIGHTS

TROPICAL ISLANDS & VERDANT RAINFORESTS

In Costa Rica, the Veragua Rainforest offers captivating views of Talamanca Range mountains and is home to a large number of frog and butterfly species. In Cahuita National Park, spot colourful toucans, sloths, howler and capuchin monkeys. The jungle creeks in Belize offer a haven to the elusive manatee – as the shy and gentle creatures slowly meander through the shallows.

CARIBBEAN LIFESTYLE

In Jamaica, you can enjoy eating jerk chicken as you listen to reggae music, while in St. Maarten try the local rum, distilled and bottled on the island. Cartagena de Indias is well-known for its empanadas (savoury pastries) and arepas (fried corn patties), delicious with a cup of local rich-flavoured Colombian coffee; while in Santo Domingo, join Fred. Olsen for a merengue dance performance.

CENTRAL AMERICAN LEGACIES

From Belize, join Fred. Olsen on a visit to Altun Ha, also known as Rockstone Water, an important archaeological site in Mayan culture; and in Cozumel – Chichen Itza is home to the remains of many ancient Mayan structures, including the famed El Castillo.

Enhancing YOUR ON BOARD EXPERIENCE

As well as the brand-new Signature Experiences, Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines offer a host of other activities for you to enjoy while you are on board, why not use your EXCLUSIVE FREE bonus on board spend and indulge in the finer things in life.

SPECIALITY DINING**

Dining is a high point of every Fred. Olsen cruise, so why not make your dining experience even more special with an evening in one of the exclusive speciality dining restaurants on board? Fred. Olsen's speciality dining – available for a small supplement – is the perfect way to mark the occasion.

SPA & BEAUTY TREATMENTS**

Balmoral has a relaxing spa where you can enjoy everything from soothing massages, manicures and pedicures to hair treatments and styling in the salons. This is also where you will find the well-equipped Fitness Centre and can join in with yoga, stretch and personal training sessions.

A very British affair

BY JANE ARCHER

I admit it. I am as bad as everyone else. Always cruising abroad and ignoring the many attractions on our doorstep. At least I was – until I sailed around the UK and discovered what a brilliant way it is to enjoy this great country of ours.

For a start there's the practical stuff – no splashing out on expensive hotels and meals as food and accommodation are included on cruises, no wasted time in traffic jams or worries about who is driving after a night out.

And then there are all the things waiting to be discovered, from centuries of history to spectacular scenery. You can go on boats in search of puffins, seals and seabirds in the Isles of Scilly, eat pasties in the county that invented them, enjoy a wee dram in a Scottish distillery and go Roman visiting Hadrian's Wall from Newcastle.

I did just that last year on a great tour with Michael, a fan of all things Roman, from their ruthless battle tactics to their building prowess. We saw parts of the 73-mile wall and learned how ditches, turrets, milecastles and forts were used to secure the boundary, keeping barbarians in the north out and those south of the wall within the Roman province (and easy to tax if they wanted to cross the border!).

As British Isles cruises are, well, only in the British Isles, you might think there are only one or two itineraries. You would be wrong. Saga has seven different sailings in 2025, while this year and next Ambassador Cruise Lines has almost ten. Voyages range from four to sixteen nights and depart from Dover, Tilbury and Portsmouth, as well as regional ports including Liverpool and Newcastle.

Between them these cruise lines, both British through and through, offer a wealth of experiences in the UK, Ireland and the many islands that dot our coast, often with expert dolphin and whale-watchers from the charity ORCA on board to help spot passing cetaceans.

You might be hiking along the cliffs to Pendennis Castle in Falmouth one day and exploring museums in Guernsey that tell of life on the island under the Nazi occupation the next. Another day still, you could be watching feeding time at Abbotsbury Swannery outside Portland, or learning to tell your Panther from your Pershing at Bovington Tank Museum.

The Orkney Islands have the Neolithic settlement of Scara Brae and Ring of Brodgar (think Stonehenge but smaller and you can get up close to the stones). In Tobermory, boat trips go in search of dolphins and otters.

As befits an island nation, many of the cities visited on British Isles cruises have something of a nautical theme. Liverpool's Merseyside Maritime Museum remembers the days, in the early 1800s, when 40% of the world's trade passed through the city's docks and, of course, this was also where Cunard started back in 1840 (oh and you might also hear about the Beatles on a tour around the town!).

Plymouth has Sir Francis Drake, the Spanish Armada and the Pilgrim Fathers, who sailed from the city on the Mayflower in 1620 in search of a better life in the New World. Edinburgh has the Royal Yacht Britannia, which was built on the Clyde, sailed a million nautical miles during its forty four years in service. Now docked in Leith, it is one of the city's top attractions (another is the historic Royal Mile leading from the castle to Holyroodhouse).

Finally to Belfast, where the world's most famous (for all the wrong reasons) ship was built. The Titanic exhibition is well worth a visit, but so too is the Giant's Causeway, about 60 miles out of town. Made up of 60,000 hexagonal lava columns, it was either built by the giant Finn McCool to go and fight his enemy in Scotland, or the result of some geographical event millions of years ago. Take your pick.

YOUR INCREDIBLE VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

PAPEETE, FRENCH POLYNESIA

Brilliant blue lagoons, proud jagged peaks, coconut groves and a hint of gardenia in the air. Everything you've ever imagined about this island is true. An enchanting place, to say the least, it's little wonder Tahiti is a muse to so many. Herman Melville and Paul Gauguin certainly found some inspiration here. And Papeete, the island's very cosmopolitan city, has its fair share. So before you immerse yourself in Tahiti's earthy delights, make sure you visit Papeete's vibrant waterfront and colourful market, brimming with everything from fresh fruit to artisan treasures. You'll find it, well, picture perfect.

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON, USA

Seattle may be famous for its rainy weather, but the West Coast's 'Emerald City' also boasts green parks, delicious coffee, and colourful neighbourhoods filled with music, artists, and farmers' markets. Whether you're admiring the city skyline from the Space Needle or exploring the wilderness of Mount Rainier, Washington State's tallest mountain, Seattle is the perfect place to mix urban life with the natural world. Seattle's fun and unconventional side spills over in Fremont, where plenty of creative residents have named the neighbourhood 'The Centre of the Known Universe'.

Q&A

At the heart of every Cosmos tour are the friendly, travel professionals who show you the sights and help you maximise your free time. Cosmos go to incredible lengths to find the most knowledgeable Tour Directors and Local Guides, such as Susannah Jones, who has been escorting tours for more than 15 years.

1. Hi Susannah! Thank you for taking the time to talk to us. As a Tour Director at Cosmos, could you tell us what your role involves?

We ensure that the guest's holiday runs as smooth as possible. I make sure they don't stress and worry about the small details. Tour Directors make certain the hotels, restaurants and vendors are aligned to the guests and their needs. We also share local favourites, stories and experiences of the areas so the guest's can immerse themselves into their travel.

2. You've been escorting tours for more than 15 years. How did you become a Tour Director?

I was an educator for 17 years but I had also lived in Germany. While I was in Germany, I was everyone's Tour Director. I discovered wondrous places and wanted to share all of this with people. This love of teaching and wanting to lead people to discover our beautiful country has led me to Tour Directing.

3. You are a guide on the 'Rhythms of the Road' tour which features locations that have played a role in the evolution of American music. Which featured musician most interests you and why?

I love B.B. King. He had to overcome so many obstacles to become a Blues Singer. He was raised in a segregated South and could not play in "Whites Only" areas. He persevered and became a legend. He is a true American Musician that future generations will listen too.

4. 'Rhythms of the Road' travels from Chicago to New Orleans. What's your favourite part of the itinerary?

Every city we go to has beautiful music and food. The music in Chicago is a direct relative of the Mississippi Delta blues. This can also be said about Jazz in New Orleans and Country music in Nashville and Graceland in Memphis. There is live music in every single city that we visit. That is my favourite part.

5. During the tour, our customers will have plenty of leisure time. What would you recommend they do in each city?

In Chicago it's a must to see the beautiful skyscrapers and the world class museums. In Nashville, they should visit the Honkey Tonks. They need to visit the Goo Goo Cluster Store and Johnny Cash Museum. In Memphis, visit Beale Street to listen to the Blues in a Juke Joint. In New Orleans, everywhere there is live music going.

6. Are there any hidden gems that you'd recommend? An off-the-beaten-track spot that tourists wouldn't know about?

Most guests don't know about Preservation Hall in New Orleans. It is all about the music. There is no food or drink to purchase. It's only musicians making music to a small audience. These musicians are the best in the world. Even Robert Plant will play at Preservation Hall AFTER his playing to a sold out stadium. He has said it is the biggest honour to play with the best.

7. You encourage your tour groups to try the local cuisine. Which dishes would you recommend?

I am a foodie so my list is long. Chicago Pizza and Chicago Style hot dog. In St Louis, a toasted ravioli and of course, Budweiser beer. Nashville has the Hot Chicken Sandwich and Goo Goo Clusters candy bar. In Memphis, the Memphis style Bar-b-que, Fried Catfish, Hushpuppies, Okra and Collard Greens. In New Orleans, EVERYTHING. I tell the guests to have a Hurricane drink and a Sazerac Drink. They are able to try Gumbo, Etouffee, Shrimp and Grits, Crab, and of course, Oysters on the half shell. In the Deep South on a holiday, never start your diet!

8. If you were to handcraft your own tour itinerary, which part of the world would you visit and why?

I want to go to the Scottish Isles and spend time among the castles and moors. I'm a history nerd so would enjoy the battlefields and museums as well as the music and storytelling of legends. I want to enjoy my time in the towns or nature and experience the local life.

9. Which destination is at the top of your bucket list?

Honestly, I enjoy discovering new places, researching and reading about the places and then immersing myself in the culture. Scotland, Machu Piccu, the Galápagos Islands, Egypt, Ireland, Bucharest, Romania, South Africa and back to the Scottish Isles!

10. Lastly, why should our customers pick Cosmos?

We are the best value for your holiday. Cosmos chooses the best experiences for the guests to immerse themselves in. We have professionally trained Tour Directors who make the trip seem seamless. We are always happy to help and have a wealth of knowledge of the areas visited. We create happy guests not only with experiences of a region but with the best value for their money.

IT'S BOND, JENNIE BOND

During my long career as a journalist — much of it spent as the BBC's Royal Correspondent — I've been lucky enough to travel widely. But it was ROL Cruise who opened my eyes to a whole new world of travel: cruising. I loved it from the moment I stepped on board — and I still love it.

And that's why I was so pleased to become an ambassador for ROL's rewards programme, Cruise Miles®. It really is a no-brainer: it's free to join and you'll be credited with one cruise mile for every pound you spend. It soon adds up and you can put your miles towards the cost of your next cruise, or maybe treat yourself to an upgrade on your cabin or flight.

I always think a holiday is even more fun if you feel you're getting a bit of a bargain and, with Cruise Miles®, you certainly will.

ROL Cruise are the UK's number one independent cruise specialists — and believe me, they really know what they are talking about. There is such a huge choice of cruise holidays available that it can sometimes feel a bit overwhelming: and that's when some expert advice is invaluable.

ROL Cruise have opened my eyes to the wonders of Antarctica, the magic of the Caribbean and the joys of river cruising — amongst many other adventures. And they have guided me and taken care of the details every Cruise Mile of the way. I feel very lucky to be their Ambassador.

Jennie Bond

Jennie's Most Memorable Cruising Moments

THE WHITE CONTINENT WITH HURTIGRUTEN

"Nothing will compare with that first morning when I pulled back the curtains and through the porthole saw a huge iceberg just yards away, framed by a background of virgin white mountains against a clear blue sky. It was breathtaking. Everyone has seen pictures or films of Antarctica but nothing can truly prepare you for the dazzling beauty of this gargantuan land. We had reached the South Shetland Islands, where the icebergs were studded with hues of turquoise and green. Occasionally, there were seals resting on top, sunbathing on the ice as if it were the warmest sand."

A UNIQUE EXPERIENCE WITH UNI<sup>WORLD</sup>

"There is so much to see and do on a river cruise. You can find yourself sailing past quite large cities and there are always things to see on each bank. So, it's a constant 360° experience. Whereas at sea, there is often just the water to watch. And I loved the fact that Uniworld River Cruises provides bicycles on board, so you could just borrow one and whizz off on a tour of your own when moored at a new destination."

A LOVE AFFAIR WITH CUNARD

"There is something very special about stepping aboard one of the Cunard Queens. Members of the crew are lined up to greet you, there is an immediate sense of elegance, space and luxury and we all seem to let out a collective sigh of contentment. For my husband Jim and I, it's rather like coming home. We have been sailing with Cunard for about 20 years and we are still like a couple of kids when we take the first sip of champagne on the balcony of our stateroom."

Scan here
to watch
an exclusive interview with
Jennie Bond

In May, Cunard's new ship Queen Anne set sail on her maiden voyage, and Jennie Bond was one of the first to experience the new Queen. We spoke to Jennie about this most memorable to moments.

Hi Jennie! You were one of the first to step aboard Queen Anne. What were your first impressions?

"It's always so exciting to board a brand new ship, and Queen Anne was gleaming, spacious and hugely welcoming. Everything smelled so new! A Cunard Queen always feels like home to me and there is a wonderful familiarity about this elegant ship, combined with clever innovations and surprises. The choice of restaurants is impressive, with Japanese and Indian food on offer as well as the more traditional fare in the Grills and Britannia dining rooms."

As a big Cunard fan, how did you feel Queen Anne compared to her sisters? How did the design differ?

"It feels a bit more contemporary and although it takes a few hundred more passengers than QM2, it doesn't seem so big. It seemed easy to navigate our way around and there were some cosy corners along the way. The Grill dining rooms were light and airy, and the Britannia restaurant was dazzling. And, of course, there is a fabulous library on board...always one of our favourite areas."

Queen Anne* debuted a lot of 'firsts' for Cunard. What was your favourite new area on board?

"I'd love to try my hand at Pickleball, it seems to be a new craze! And there's archery on board too... another first. The Pavilion heated pool was a deep indigo blue, which looked different and very inviting. And the theatre...with no upper circle... but tiered and seating over 800 people, is extremely comfortable and feels incredibly spacious. I like the new design, with the audience all together rather than divided on two levels."

Would you book a Queen Anne cruise for your personal holiday? If so, which itinerary would you choose?

"Absolutely! Any voyage on board this beautiful new ship would be a complete delight. It would be awesome to go through the Panama Canal on her...that's happening as part of the world cruise next year. It will be a tight squeeze...and a wonderful experience, I'm sure."

POLE POSITION

Hurtigruten sails directly beneath the Auroral Zone, an area of continuous and consistent aurora activity around the North Pole. Travelling at sea under the Auroral Zone means that displays can appear right above the ship. Outdoor observation decks provide a clear view of the sky, avoiding the artificial ambient light that is common on land.

PRIME TIME

It is in the frosty winter months when the Northern Lights are most visible, laying claim to the night sky. The Northern Lights will usually appear at multiple times and at multiple locations during your voyage – on board announcements ensure you don't miss a single sighting.

NORWAY'S COASTAL KITCHEN

On this voyage you won't just see the Norwegian coast; you'll taste it too. As you sail its length, Hurtigruten pick from its pantry, sourcing the finest homegrown produce from the ports they visit. They are proud to support 50 local farms, bakeries, and producers from across Norway. In the on board restaurants, enjoy the likes of melt-in-your-mouth cod from Vesterålen, award-winning cheeses from Lofoten, and quality craft beer from Bergen.

Spotlight on Malta

MGARR, GOZO, MALTA

A port not often visited by cruise ships, being more accustomed to welcoming fishing boats and private yachts; Malta's smaller sister-isle has a lot of charm to offer. Villages such as Mgarr all boast tall, elaborately carved churches, the result of a combination of fine-grained, easily carved stone, time, and stonemasons whose skill is matched only by their religious devotion. The city of Victoria was so named to honour The Queen's Diamond jubilee.

VALLETTA, MALTA

Occupied successively by the Phoenicians, Greeks, Carthaginians, Romans, Arabs, French and British, Malta has been of strategic importance throughout history. The island's rich heritage is reflected in the architecture of Valletta, the current capital, and Medina, the capital until 1565. In Valletta the knights of St. John built such masterpieces as St. John's Co-Cathedral and the Palace of the Grand Masters, along with the fortifications that guard the town's magnificent harbours.
