HELLO AND WELCOME TO YOUR MAY EDITION OF BLUE HORIZONS

Jeremy Dickinson,
Chairman of ROL Cruise

We are blessed and, let's be honest, rather spoilt with the choice of ships that grace our shores. More and more cruise lines are sending their best and newest ships to UK waters, enabling us to not only enjoy no-fly cruising from our doorstep, but to do so in style. I of course am referring to the talk of the town, Cunard's long-awaited new ship, Queen Anne. She will embody all that makes Cunard one of Britain's most-loved cruise lines and a national institution – grace, style and timeless elegance. Discover her maiden season on pages 06-13, but here is where I must urge you not to delay, as anticipation for this ship is very high and she will sell out fast!

2024 may seem far away, but now is the time to secure your place on that dream holiday. We are delighted to present Fred. Olsen's 2024 No-Fly Launch Promotion. These itineraries are exceptionally unique, from crossing the path of the solar eclipse to transiting the Corinth Canal - a feat most cruise ships would never dream of! You'll find exclusive gratuities and free on board spend on pages 16-17.

There's no better way to sign off then with a mention of a rather special ROL Cruise Signature Experience on pages 46-47. Combining the tropical allure of South America with the timeless luxury of rail travel, board not one but two luxury trains as you discover the Sacred Valley, Machu Picchu, Lake Titicaca and more! What's more, you'll then board the brand new Silver Nova for an all-inclusive voyage with Silversea. With savings exclusively extended for readers of Blue Horizons, I wish you happy reading, and, of course,

Happy Cruising!

Grand Lobby

UNIQUE FEATURES OF THE BRAND-NEW QUEEN ANNE

Queen Anne's breath-taking interiors take inspiration from Cunard's past to define a striking new design direction for the future. Having been immersed in the Cunard archives, the designers have ensured that Queen Anne exudes classic Cunard style while showcasing many new considered touches. Queen Anne's distinctive design language is echoed throughout, reinterpreting influential styles of the past and celebrating the beautiful art deco style finishes that Cunard is known for. Feel inspired as you stroll through decks adorned in an impressive art collection or enjoy that special feeling as you descend into the Grand Lobby in your Gala Evening finery. Delight in Cunard's world-famous Afternoon Tea served in the exquisite Queens Room or decide to spend your days and evenings relaxing in more casual surroundings.

SOPHISTICATED DINING

Queen Anne debuts some exciting new options in addition to the classic, much-loved restaurants. Take your pick from numerous venues, from laid back light bites and indulgent treats, to the ultimate in fine dining. As with all Cunard ships, Queen Anne offers dedicated restaurants corresponding to her four accommodation categories. Each of these boasts a menu that showcases the finest ingredients from all over the world. Alongside the glittering main restaurants are a number of more casual dining venues, including the popular Golden Lion pub. Or, if what you seek is a delectable meal under the sun or stars, while the ocean breeze sweeps by, delight in the variety of opportunities for al fresco dining on board. Cunard are also introducing a new Britannia Restaurant dining experience where guests can choose to reserve a table at any time of the evening alongside the more traditional early and late seating options.

Britannia Restaurant

WORLD CLASS ACCOMMODATION

With luxurious flourishes enhanced by stylish décor, every day on Queen Anne offers a chance to sail the world in unparalleled comfort. Rest easy, safe in the knowledge that the finer details have been taken care of. Feel a sense of ease in this part of the ship you can call your own while on board. Be comforted knowing that at any time of day you can return to your exquisite accommodation to settle in and put your feet up. AN EXCLUSIVE Q&A WITH JENNIE BOND

1. CUNARD ARE FAMED FOR THEIR WHITE STAR SERVICE, WHAT ARE YOUR EXPERIENCES OF THIS?

The White Star Service means that everyone on board is trained to look after you in a way that exceeds your expectations. And they all do it with a smile. From your butler to your waiter, your sommelier to the entertainment team, the crew seem to be on a mission to make you feel pampered. And they are very successful. Nothing is too much trouble. You can breakfast in your PJs on the balcony, you can enjoy tea and dainty sandwiches brought to you as you laze in the comfort of your poolside sun lounger, you can learn to paint or play bridge or dance the tango. Everything seems possible.

2. WHAT CAN GUESTS EXPECT FROM THE CUISINE ON BOARD?

We have always found the food on board to be first class. The main restaurants are extremely elegant and the menus are extensive without being overwhelming. In the top grade Grill restaurants, you are treated like royalty. You can sit at tables for two, or in a group, and eat whenever you like within the opening hours. And if you fancy something special that's not on the menu that day, you only have to ask and they will do everything possible to provide it.

3. CUSTOMERS MAY BE SUFFERING UNDER THE MISCONCEPTION THAT CUNARD ARE 'STUFFY' AND 'TOO FORMAL', HOW WOULD YOU DISPEL THESE RUMOURS?

Well, I spend most of my days in a pair of shorts or a swimsuit. Nothing too stuffy about that! In the evenings, people do dress up a bit, but there are only two or three formal evenings on an average voyage. The rules have been relaxed so men can wear a lounge suit instead of a tuxedo on those evenings, and on other nights they don't even have to wear a tie. I find most of us women rather enjoy the chance to glam up, but as long as you look presentable, no-one is going to fuss. And if you prefer to stay in your shorts, you can always eat in the Lido. Sometimes, Jim and I just relax in our stateroom and ask our butler to bring dinner to us on the balcony. Pure indulgence!

4. WHAT ARE YOU MOST EXCITED ABOUT CUNARD'S NEW SHIP, QUEEN ANNE?

Well every new ship is exciting! I've been to the naming ceremonies of Queen Mary, Queen Victoria and Queen Elizabeth so I hope very much I'll go to the naming ceremony of Queen Anne as well. You are always dying to get on board and see what innovations there are. With Cunard there is a standard which is always superb of course and there is a uniformity between all the ships and yet each has its own character, its own personality and I'm sure they'll be new changes on Queen Anne so I can't wait to get on board to see.

5. WHAT IS YOUR FAVOURITE PART OF THE SHIP ON BOARD CUNARD?

I've been sailing with Cunard for more than 20 years and I love everything about it. There's an elegance about it and you feel that it's a very distinct cruise line. Wherever you go on board a Cunard ship there's a little flotilla of boats that come out to greet you so it feels special wherever you are in the world. My favourite part of Cunard ships generally is the Chart Room. That's an area where there's usually a harpist or a cello player and you can sit after dinner and just have some wonderful quiet live music, digest your food, which of course was fantastic, and maybe have a brandy and play cards with my husband and enjoy the quiet of it all. Even though there are hundreds of people on the ship you feel almost alone there and it's absolutely wonderful and magical.

6. WHAT IS YOUR FAVOURITE THING ABOUT SAILING WITH CUNARD?

One thing I love about sailing with Cunard is every morning I open the newsletter of the bulletin about what is going on on board the ship and there's pages of it. There are activities every hour it seems and there is such a wide choice; from embroidery or painting classes to line dancing and that's what I always go for. I make sure I get up and I get down there to do my line dancing, which I'm absolutely dreadful at but it's such fun, it's such a laugh and it's a bit of exercise before the next delicious meal.

BE A PART OF FRED. OLSEN HISTORY

A UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY IN 2023 TO SEE FRED. OLSEN'S ENTIRE FLEET

Together with Fred. Olsen, ROL Cruise are delighted to announce a memorable reunion of Fred. Olsen's fleet of ships at 'Four Freds in Funchal' in 2023, the first meeting in fact to feature the newest additions to the fleet, Bolette and Borealis! You can enjoy all the events laid on, plus you will have the chance to explore Madeira's capital (the centre is just a short walk from the port). Framed by a backdrop of azure Atlantic waters and the lush green of the Madeiran hills, Funchal really is the fitting setting for this meeting. This spectacular occasion promises to be a marquee event in the world cruising calendar, and guests joining Fred. Olsen in Funchal can expect to enjoy entertainment and activities such as:

- ★ A memorable welcome ceremony and local performances ★
- ★ Fun competitions between guests and crews from each ship on the quayside ★
- ★ An opportunity to explore all four ships in the Fred. Olsen fleet ★
- ★ Time to venture into Madeira's cultural and historic capital ★

YOUR GRAND VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

STANLEY, FALKLAND ISLANDS

Whilst in Stanley, be sure to visit Gypsy Cove – just outside the town – where you might be able to spot the local population of penguins who share these magical islands with humans.

FULL DAYTIME TRANSIT OF THE PANAMA CANAL

Undeniably, Panama's biggest attraction is the Panama Canal, a modern day wonder of the world. Its role in revolutionising maritime trade and the sheer feat of engineering skill makes the canal a fascinating transit.

VISIT REMOTE SOUTH GEORGIA

Remote and isolated, South Georgia is a true highlight of this cruise. Accessible only by the sea, you'll get the rare chance to explore this small British Territory in all its glory. Due to its isolation, South Georgia has one of the highest concentrations of wildlife on earth; here you will find fur seals, elephant seals, six penguin species, as well as albatrosses and more.

RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL

The city of 'sun, sea and samba'... Hot all year round and with a tropical rainforest extending down to the sea, it's easy to understand why Rio de Janeiro is known as "Cidade Maravilhosa" ("The Marvellous City"). Famous for its colourful carnival and fabulous beaches, as well as the dramatic entry to its cruise port, Rio de Janeiro has plenty to offer visitors to the city.

FROM SHELF TO SEA...

Whilst many of us may not have the luxury of time to indulge in a good book back at home, cruising is the perfect opportunity to delve into a new novel – or two! If you need inspiration for what to read on your next cruise, then be sure to add the below books to your list, handpicked by ROL Cruise...

Notes From A Small Island: Journey Through Britain

BY BILL BRYSON

A national favourite, take one last trip around Britain and laugh out loud as you discover this green and pleasant land with all its quirks and hidden wonders. You'll be in good company with Bill, who despite being born in Iowa had long called Britain his home. Why do we even like Marmite? Find out why as you dive into one of Britain's most loved books.

This Is Going To Hurt

BY ADAM KAY

Celebrate every facet of human nature within the pages of this book, from the hilarious and downright absurd to the heartbreaking and poignant. Recounting anecdotes from his time as a junior doctor working for the NHS, Kay will have you in stitches as he details some of the most memorable encounters from behind the ward doors. Eye-opening, funny, even sometimes alarming, this is a must-read for anyone wanting a book they simply cannot put down.

Earthed

BY REBECCA SCHILLER

A timely and beautiful reflection on the importance of staying 'earthed', discover the redemptive power of nature within the pages of this memoir. Stumbling across a countryside smallholding, Rebecca finds her new life far from simple. But as she uncovers the past of her small two-acre plot, so too does she discover so much more about herself. This book may indeed reshape how you see the world.

Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 14 years.

TRIPPING THE LIGHT FANTASTIC

I've had some odd experiences in my time but standing here, in a slate quarry near Alta in Norway, staring into a cloudy night sky with the temperature well into the minuses, surely takes the biscuit.

I'm in search of the Northern Lights and they are proving as elusive this evening as they were yesterday, when I stayed the night in a glass-roofed igloo in the wilderness outside Tromsø so I could lie in bed and watch the Aurora Borealis light up the dark sky.

Fittingly, I'm on this search for the aurora on Borealis, a ship that started life with Holland America Line and is now sailing to rave reviews for Fred Olsen. No wonder. She is not only bigger than Black Watch, the ship she replaced (she holds up to 1,360 passengers), but quite a step up, with more balcony suites and cabins, lots of lounges and a top-deck lido with a pool, bar, grill and retractable roof.

There are also two speciality restaurants: Vasco is complimentary and serves Goan-style dishes, while Colours & Tastes costs an extra £5 per person – a real bargain – and serves delicious Asian cuisine. The crispy fried chilli beef was so good I went back three times!

We're sailing round-trip from Liverpool, grabbing a few hours in Belfast before navigating around Scotland and across the North Sea to Norway. There's a day in Ålesund, a scenic cruise along the Norwegian coast and over the Arctic Circle, then two days each in Tromsø and Alta, before we return south, with calls into Bodø, Narvik and Trondheim.

It's a brilliant – and varied – itinerary. I enter a "time machine" in Ålesund to learn about the great fire of 1904 that left 10,000 people homeless and led to the city being rebuilt in art-deco style; and strap on a pair of crampons for a coastal hike through snow and ice near Bodø in search of white-tailed sea eagles (total tally: two).

I ride Narvik's Ofoten Line train through a snowy landscape of mountains and fjords to Bjørnfell Station, some 1,686 feet above sea level; slip and slide over sheer ice and deep snow to reach Kristiansten Fortress in Trondheim where resistance fighters were executed by the Nazis during the Second World War (their story is told in the city's excellent Armoury museum); and attend an organ concert at Tromsø's Arctic Cathedral, a stunning place that looks more iceberg than house of God.

But I'm really here to see the Northern Lights. The wilderness hut near Tromsø has failed me but surely Alta can't. After all, it calls itself the town of the Northern Lights and its quirky-looking cathedral is even named in their honour.

Hmm. Seems that's no guarantee because here I am in the Paeskatun camp – aka the slate quarry – beneath a cloudy sky learning about the aurora borealis from host Ellinor instead of seeing them. It's a shame but her talk is most interesting and at least we can warm up by a fire in a big Sami tent.

Next day, as we start to sail south, the Norwegian fishing fleet is out and so are goodness knows how many whales. There are spouts all around us and some even break the surface. It's an incredible sight.

That evening, as we're finishing dinner, there's a call from the bridge. "Northern Lights on the starboard side." It's several degrees below outside and I'm in my evening finery, sandals and all, but I'm not missing this. I point my camera at the cold, dark sky – seems it can pick up colours the naked eye can't – and snap. And there they are in my picture, the elusive lights.

Mission accomplished!
