Welcome

TO THE MAY EDITION OF BLUE HORIZONS

Hello and welcome to our May edition of Blue Horizons. We'll dive straight in and introduce you to some very exciting launch promotions. Don't forget, the launch period is the best time to secure your cabin of choice, and most often at the best fare as well. Plus, with ROL's added benefits there really is no better time to secure your next cruise holiday.

Fred. Olsen are ready and waiting with their much anticipated 2027 world voyage on board the adults-only Borealis. There is so much to tell you about this exceptional voyage it's hard to know where to begin: exclusive free chauffeur service; drinks and gratuities included; best price guarantee until 7th May – the list goes on! Take a look on pages 04-05. Our resident contributor Jane Archer also offers her knowledgeable insights on page 36.

Following hot on their heels is none other than P&O Cruises' Official No-Fly Launch Promotion on pages 06-09, on its first day on sale. All bookings save 10% at this early stage, plus you can book with just a low deposit. Witness a spectacular Solar Eclipse at sea, visit the world-famous Pyramids of Giza from Alexandria, delight in the Fall colours in Canada or simply take the Canary Islands cruise you've always dreamt of.

Solo travellers shouldn't miss the exclusive Solo Traveller Special Edition included this month, with cruises from as little as £64 per night its well-worth the read!

On a more personal note, we are delighted with how ROL Cruise is progressing as an Employee-Owned Trust. There are 138 co-owners here at ROL and the future looks bright. We look forward to sharing with you how our future plans are taking shape, including our charity plans both locally and nationally.

Happy Cruising!

Rosie and Sarah

THE REVIEWS ARE IN...

ROL are great at putting the offers and packages for holidays together in an appealing way and are usually good value for what is included. I always look forward to the Horizon magazine.

WIN A CRUISE WORTH £10,000

In celebration of our 30th Anniversary, we were delighted to offer you the chance to win a cruise of your choice worth up to £10,000! We are delighted to announce our winners are LEON & MARY BUTLER!

Congratulations!

"As a married couple, we have been fortunate to cruise all over the world, and for many years. We believe that it is important to find a cruise line that suits you as an individual and we were pleased to quickly discover Regent Seven Seas, providing "Six Star Cruising". However, it was not until we spoke with other passengers that we appreciated the benefits of booking cruises through an agent and ROL were highly recommended. Our first cruise booked through ROL was in 2014 – in fact, we had two cruises booked through ROL in that year. Since then, wherever possible, we have booked cruises through ROL. There are many reasons why we continue to choose ROL, and only one of them is the offer of Cruise Miles. We have been impressed with the professionalism and friendliness of the ROL team and in particular, Liam and Sally. We have always received helpful advice regarding cabin type and location, together with guidance on which side of a ship might benefit from the best views when we cruise near land. The continuity of service has also been important, being able to talk to the same advisers at ROL and to establish a relationship with them over the years. Latterly, we have wanted to avoid transiting airports and have relied on "no fly" cruises of which SAGA have provided excellent options. We are obviously delighted to have won this prize draw and, for the reasons mentioned above, are planning to use the money to book (with ROL, of course) a SAGA cruise for January of next year."

Best Regards, Leon & Mary

Competition Winner

In our March Scenic and Emerald Special edition we asked you to spot the penguin somewhere in the edition. Many of you correctly spotted him hiding on page 12.

Congratulations

to MRS JULIE DEAN from near TADCASTER in NORTH YORKSHIRE who has won an EXCLUSIVE Scenic Eclipse Parka jacket!

ITINERARY HIGHLIGHTS

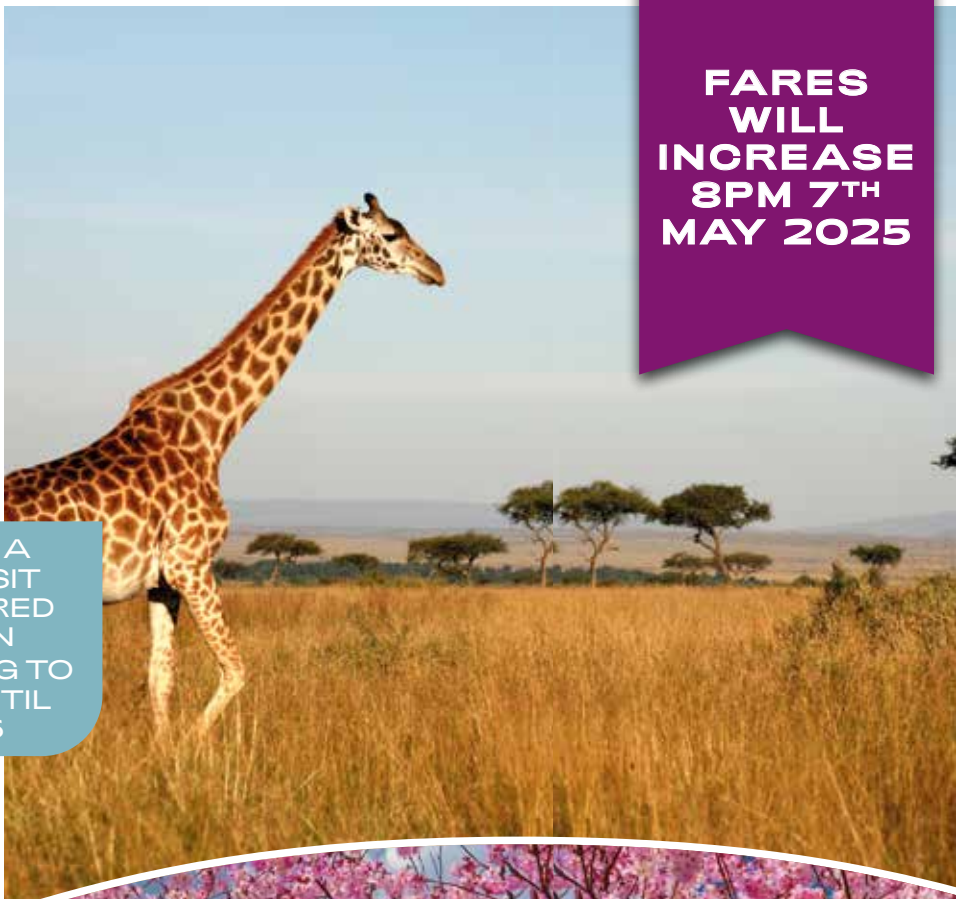

HAWAII

Four days in Hawaii will be a truly unforgettable experience. You will have ample time to explore the many different highlights these beautiful islands have to offer. From pristine beaches to volcanoes and even lush rainforests. Why not visit the iconic Pearl Harbour in Honolulu, one of the country's most significant sites. You can also embrace the spirit of Aloha with a traditional Luau, enjoying the hula, local music and local cuisine.

JAPAN

Fred. Olsen have timed this brilliantly so you will experience fewer crowds and have the chance to witness the beauty of the late plum blossom season (Ume). Your journey through Japan will allow you to explore ancient castles and temples, take in views of the mighty Mt Fuji, ride the bullet train in Osaka and enjoy Fred. Olsen's maiden call into Shimizu. You can immerse yourself in rich Japanese tradition, from Sushi and sake tasting to meeting Geisha and experiencing an authentic tea ceremony.

MS ESTRELA: A NEW STAR ON THE DOURO

Gemma Pallister, ROL Cruise's Director of Commercial, was lucky enough to attend the naming ceremony of APT's new custom-built river ship. Here, she shares her experience in the heart of the Douro.

The christening of MS Estrela in the heart of the Douro offered an unforgettable experience and a glimpse into the remarkable future of river cruising with APT. This exclusive event, hosted for 50 of APT's most valued partners and media, was not just a celebration of a new vessel, but an immersion into the finest aspects of Portuguese culture, history, and cuisine.

The event included a first look at MS Estrela's exceptional amenities, setting a new benchmark for luxury on the Douro. From the spacious cabins and wonderful dining experiences to the ship's standout features—the largest swimming pool on the Douro, a putting green, a spa, and multiple bars and restaurants, including al fresco dining spaces—Estrela promises an unparalleled journey.

The ceremony was graced by the presence of MS Estrela's godmother, Lucy Huxley, Editor in Chief of Travel Weekly, who officially launched this stunning vessel. Her heartfelt words set the tone for what promises to be an iconic addition to APT's fleet. During her speech Lucy mentioned that anyone who sails on board will be astounded by the service they receive, which I experienced first hand, with each member of the crew always going above and beyond for each guest.

During the ceremony, Paul Melinis, Managing Director of APT, stated: "MS Estrela will sail for both APT and Travelmarvel brands, representing a new era – one of elegance, style, and shared experiences." He also highlighted the significance of Estrela, which means star in Portuguese.

As part of the celebration, I had the privilege of experiencing a taste of APT's Douro Discovery. Cruising through the world-famous wine region, I was captivated by the breathtaking scenery, while savouring the richness of Portugal's traditions, food, and heritage. This exclusive event was more than a preview; it was a celebration of all the elements that make the Douro a must-visit destination and APT a leader in river cruising.

Every detail of this luxury vessel has been custom-built to seamlessly blend with her Portuguese surroundings. Her soft cream exterior harmonizes beautifully with the breathtaking landscapes of the Douro River. The sun deck invites guests to bask in golden sunlight with a refreshing drink in hand while taking in panoramic views. Meanwhile, the onboard restaurant offers an exquisite selection of cuisine, ensuring a delightful gastronomic experience throughout the voyage.

MS Estrela boasts 58 elegantly appointed cabins, accommodating just 116 guests for an intimate and exclusive atmosphere. Guests may choose from window staterooms, sophisticated French balcony suites featuring slide-down windows that frame scenic vistas, or the magnificent Owner's Suite—an epitome of refined luxury with its neutral tones, spacious lounge area, and thoughtfully designed shower room.

For moments of relaxation and camaraderie, the main lounge and bar provide an inviting retreat where guests can admire the ever-changing scenery and savour an evening cocktail in a sophisticated ambiance. Every element has been carefully designed to create an unforgettable journey on the water.

MS Estrela is a shining example of APT's dedication to creating exceptional travel experiences, and its debut is bound to leave guests with cherished memories for years to come.

It's Fred Olsen BUT NOT AS WE KNOW IT!

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 18 years.

Isn't it nice to know some things never change? That's what I wrote not so long ago of Fred Olsen, extolling the virtue of always knowing what to expect in terms of good food, great service and traditional values when you set sail on one of the company's ships. Fast forward to January 2026 and that will no longer be true. Don't panic! The things we love are going nowhere. Rather, Fred Olsen is making the best even better. Specifically, prices are going more inclusive, with gratuities covered in the cruise fare along with house wines, beers, spirits and soft drinks with lunch and dinner. They'll also be throwing in free fitness classes and complimentary shuttle buses if your ship is docked more than a mile from the nearest town or city. But that's not the only change afoot. Instead of offering its usual world cruise to the lands Down Under, the 2027 circumnavigation is going in search of hula dancers, volcanoes and authentic sushi on a 98-night voyage to Hawaii and Japan. And the cruise is on Borealis, which in another big change will be designated adult-only starting January 2026. I love Australia and New Zealand – all the more so after a terrific cruise there earlier this year; a story for another month I hope – this is not just a brilliant itinerary but guaranteed to banish the winter blues.

It departs from Southampton in January 2027, calls into Lisbon and Funchal, crosses the Atlantic and visits the lovely Caribbean islands of Barbados and Grenada. Then before you know it, you'll wake in gorgeous Cartagena, a colonial city in Columbia built by the Spanish and enclosed by stout walls inside which you'll explore elegant squares and beautiful pastel-coloured houses adorned with flower-festooned balconies. You'll transit the Panama Canal, visit the wildlife wonderland of Costa Rica, go full-on Mexican in Huatulco, where boat trips go on search of beaches, sea turtles and dolphins, and have four days' island-hopping around Maui, Hawaii, Oahu and Kauai, where you can visit smouldering volcanoes and Pearl Harbor, hike through the rainforest and enjoy a traditional Luau.

Turn to pages O4-O5 to secure your place on this once-in-a-lifetime voyage.

Next up, it's the Japan extravaganza – six days to discover the country's fascinating history and culture on visits to temples, shrines, castles and Samurai houses during calls into Tokyo, Shimizu, Nagoya and Osaka. You'll taste sake and sushi, experience an authentic tea ceremony and who knows, maybe be lucky enough to get a first glimpse of Japan's famed cherry tree blossom, which symbolise new life to the Japanese. There is a final day in Japan in Naha, on the island of Okinawa, which saw some of the fiercest fighting in the Pacific during the Second World War. A peace park remembers the 200,000 troops and civilians who died during the battle, which raged from April to June 1945. From there, the itinerary reads like a who's who of must-see cities as you circle back west, ticking off Hong Kong, Singapore, Phuket in Thailand, Port Louis in Mauritius, and Gqeberha (Port Elizabeth) and Cape Town in South Africa. Get ready for late-night laser shows, lively street markets, wine and wildlife.

"Fred Olsen is making the best even better"

Then it's on to Jamestown, on the remote island of St Helena, where Napoleon lived when he was exiled there in 1815 after losing the Battle of Waterloo and you can visit his house, now a museum. You'll also see his tomb, but there's no body in it as it was exhumed and moved to Les Invalides in Paris in 1840. The cruise is nearing an end but there is still plenty to look forward to before journey's end in Southampton, including calls into Praia in Cape Verde, Las Palmas in Gran Canaria and La Coruña in Spain, the latter the gateway to the spectacular pilgrimage town of Santiago de Compostela. What an epic. Fred Olsen always talks about the memories you make on its cruises. You'll certainly have a bucketful to take home after this one.
