CELEBRATING OVER
25 YEARS
OF EXCELLENCE

5 REASONS

to book a cruise from the UK with ROL Cruise, the UK's No.1 Independent No-Fly Cruise Specialist

YOU CAN START YOUR JOURNEY CLOSER TO HOME

The great thing about sailing directly from the UK is that your point of departure is closer to home, so you don't need to worry about booking and boarding a flight to meet your cruise ship. Departure ports are located across the UK; from Southampton, Portsmouth and Dover in the south to Liverpool and Newcastle in the north and London Tilbury in between - you won't have to travel far at all to begin your holiday!

YOU CAN MAKE THE MOST OF NO LUGGAGE RESTRICTIONS

If you want to sail away with multiple clothing options or return with souvenirs for your family, then a no-fly cruise is ideal. When cruising from the UK, there are no restrictions on baggage allowance, meaning you can pack as much or as little as you need.

YOU CAN ENJOY ADDITIONAL PERKS

Many no-fly cruise packages offer additional perks that really enhance your holiday - some of which are exclusive to ROL Cruise customers. Begin your holiday in style with private chauffeur service from door-to-door, opt for parking at the port or, if you really want to push the boat out (no pun intended), choose a pre-cruise hotel stay. All three options mean you can truly relax ahead of your upcoming cruise.

YOU CAN VISIT THE WORLD'S MOST DESIRABLE DESTINATIONS

You don't have to book a fly cruise to reach the world's most desirable destinations. Northern departure ports such as Leith in Scotland operate cruises to the Baltics and Scandinavia, whilst southern departure ports like Southampton often mark the beginning of no-fly voyages to Europe and the Mediterranean. From Portsmouth, you can embark on a no-fly transatlantic cruise or a cruise to the Caribbean. Our staff, who can guide you when it comes to picking the perfect destination, have over 1,000 years of combined travel experience, they're passionate about exploring the world and they're specialised in no-fly cruises. What's not to love?

YOU CAN RELAX SAFE IN THE KNOWLEDGE YOU'VE BOOKED WITH US, THE NO-FLY EXPERTS

As the UK's No.1 Independent Cruise Specialist, you can be certain that when you book with us, you book with confidence. We are passionate about cruising and we're constantly working alongside our cruise line partners to source the very best deals (many of which are exclusive to us) to ensure you, our loyal customers, are as happy as can be. What's more, we are fully ATOL and ABTA protected, boast over 25 years of experience and our exclusive Cruise Miles® programme rewards you each time you book with us. So, what are you waiting for?

HELLO AND WELCOME

TO THE SEPTEMBER EDITION OF BLUE HORIZONS

Jeremy Dickinson,
Chairman of ROL Cruise

Hello and welcome to the September edition of Blue Horizons. As the days get shorter and the nights grow longer, there hasn't been a better time to look to the future for a holiday to look forward to. As always, we work closely with our cruise line partners to secure you the very best deals on a huge variety of destinations. We've included an array of no-fly cruises departing from the UK with many including benefits such as car parking, coach transfers or chauffeurs so you can start your holiday with ease. As the no-fly cruise experts, we know how to make your cruise experience as smooth as possible.

If you're looking for exceptional value cruising, turn to pages 04-05 where you can find Princess Cruises brand new promotion during the first week on sale featuring all-inclusive no-fly cruises with free upgrades from an ocean view to a balcony, and even from a balcony to a mini-suite. However, these upgrades are subject to availability so be sure to book as soon as possible so you don't miss out!

If exploring islands and ticking off your wildlife watchlist is more your thing, turn to pages 22-23 and join Celebrity Cruises on a once-in-a-lifetime journey to the Galápagos Islands for an unforgettable all-inclusive experience.

Speaking of once-in-a-lifetime experiences, we have a brand-new date on the bestselling & exclusive Indian Golden Triangle & Tiger Safari, which features an all-inclusive luxury Asian voyage. This new date has been added due to popular demand, so be sure to book before all the spaces are gone! Turn to pages 34-35!

Cruising is very much back in full swing and to help with any questions you may have please visit www.rolcruise.co.uk/frequently-asked-questions which offers a range of helpful advice including insurance guidance, tips whilst on board and much more.

Happy cruising!

THE BENEFITS OF NO-FLY CRUISING

When it comes to luxury cruising, Saga believe that your experience should start as soon as you step outside your front door. It begins the moment your FREE Chauffeur picks you up at home, and continues as you step aboard one of their smaller, British ships into a world of first-class service, exceptional cuisine and beautiful surroundings. Take away the tiresome flights and the hassle of navigating the airport and relax as you're taken directly to your ship. Unpack only once and set your horizons towards discovery.

A BALCONY FOR EVERY GUEST

It's one of the most distinctive feature: every cabin has a balcony, including single cabins, giving you your own outside space. So whether you're cruising into the Gulf of Bothnia or discovering the flavours of the Western Mediterranean, you have your own place to relax, enjoy the views and fresh air, and watch the sun set as you head to another incredible destination.

ON BOARD LUXURIES AND SERVICE

Once you're on board, you can enjoy Saga's boutique service. Such as not having to carry your bags, and the invitation to the sailaway party out on deck. And the other things that really do add up, such as including drinks throughout your cruise, and a nightly turndown service. Not forgetting 24-hour room service too. Saga like to think that when it comes to your comfort, nothings been overlooked.

REASSURING VALUE, WITH NO HIDDEN EXTRAS INCLUDED TRAVEL INSURANCE – CORONAVIRUS COVER INCLUDED

Saga's award winning cruises now offer more peace of mind: Saga Cruises now include coronavirus cancellation cover, as well as optional insurance as standard, or a price reduction if you don't need it. Your optional included travel insurance for over 50's is on all overseas holidays and includes up to £5m emergency medical and repatriation cover for coronavirus. Saga now provide flexible cancellation cover should you need to cancel due to coronavirus medical conditions prior to departure. ROL CRUISE AMBASSADOR EXPERIENCES...

Last Month our ROL Cruise Ambassadors, John and Liz Schultz, sailed aboard APT Travelmarvel's new contemporary river ship Polaris, launched in March 2022. Here they share their experience...

Sailing on the 8 day Reflections of the Rhine river cruise from Amsterdam to Budapest, we were immediately impressed with the quality of the 4★ river ship. APT Travelmarvel's contemporary river ships have been specifically designed to navigate the European waterways.

The staterooms on board were all of the highest standard superb Staterooms were all of the highest standard. Our stateroom felt spacious and bright providing the perfect home from home for the duration of our cruise.

A particular highlight for us was the quality of the service and food we experienced on board. During the 7 nights on board Polaris, we got to experience either the four-course evening menu comprising of fresh local cuisine, or we could opt for a more relaxed buffet style dinner.

The on board facilities were second to none. Whilst on board we enjoyed Polaris' Sky Deck Terrace and Bar whilst relaxing with a gin and tonic watching the ever-changing scenery.

Of an evening there was plenty of opportunity to enjoy a range of entertainment and activities. We were never bored.

Our Cruise Director excelled with his knowledge of the river, something that proved incredibly valuable especially if we had any questions about the towns we were sailing past or docked in.

The included excursions were interesting and varied. The visit to Rudesheim after sailing through the Rhine Gorge was a real experience. Our favourite excursion was the visit to Wurzburg Palace, the baroque palace and gardens were so enjoyable to explore and we also got to see the magnificent church built within the palace.

Whilst in Miltenberg we had exceptional afternoon with a local family at their magnificent home, where we enjoyed their hospitality for a couple of hours and afternoon tea.

Our experience from start to finish was incredibly memorable and one we cannot recommend enough. We can honestly say if you are looking to relax and be spoilt whilst enjoying top quality food, drink and service, then you won't be disappointed.

Thank you to all at APT TRAVELMARVEL.

John & Liz Schultz

Your Galápagos Wildlife Watchlist...

Access to the Experts

On this sailing you will be accompanied by highly qualified naturalist guides, who will share with you their deep knowledge of the Galápagos archipelago. Together, you will explore each island, trekking over black lava rocks where marine iguanas sun themselves, to see Galápagos tortoises, sea turtles and the iconic blue-footed Boobies.

MARINE IGUANA

Found only in the Galápagos Islands, the iconic Marine Iguanas are distinguishable by the white "wigs" of salt expelled from glands near their noses. They look fierce, but are actually gentle herbivores, surviving exclusively on underwater algae and seaweed. Their short snouts and razorsharp teeth help them scrape algae off rocks.

SALLY LIGHTFOOT CRAB

The brightly coloured Sally Lightfoot crab is a common sight along the shores and beaches of most of the Galápagos Islands. They are rumoured to have been named after a Caribbean dancer, due to their extreme agility, jumping from rock to rock. Their striking colours make for a stunning appearance too.

GALÁPAGOS SEA LION

The cute Galápagos Sea Lion is the most abundant marine mammal in the archipelago and is often seen sleeping on the beaches or swimming close to shore. Their streamlined bodies make them very efficient swimmers and hunters, especially of sardines. If you're lucky, you may get the chance to witness young pups chasing each other along the sand.

GALÁPAGOS PENGUIN

The Galápagos penguin is one of the smallest penguins in the world and is endemic to the Galápagos Islands. It is the most northerly occurring penguin species, nesting entirely in the tropics.

Gemma, Head of Commercial at ROL Cruise, experienced the wonders of the Galápagos first hand...

"Experiencing the Galápagos on a Celebrity cruise was without a doubt a once-in-a-lifetime experience and one I will look back on with fond memories for the rest of my life. When you set foot on the lava rock of the Galápagos you feel like you've entered another world! It's amazing how fearless the wildlife is, you have to be careful where you step in case there is an iguana underfoot, they really get that close. The guides from Celebrity Cruises are so knowledgeable and passionate about the islands, you could listen to their stories all day! This truly is a destination to be ticked off your bucket list."

Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 14 years.

MY LIFE IN CRUISE

Jane Archer has clocked up plenty of great experiences during several decades of cruising but as we find out, there are still places on her wishlist.

You are an avid cruiser and cruise writer, tell us about your favourite cruising experiences.

Cruising the Mediterranean is brilliant and I love the Baltic, but the exotic destinations deliver the most unforgettable experiences. Like watching blue-footed boobies engage in a mating dance in the Galapagos, seeing icebergs as big as houses in Greenland and walking through a penguin rookery in Antarctica. You are told to keep a distance from the penguins, but no one tells them so they come up to investigate and you can't move until they waddle off. I will never forget watching the Montgomery Reef emerge from the sea in the Kimberley in Australia, with waterfalls cascading off the rocks and green turtles racing for cover. It's an optical illusion of course - actually the tide is falling (tides there are massive), but it gets my vote as one of the Seven Wondrous Sights of the World, if there is such a thing.

Is there any where in the world you haven't been but would love to go?

Two places have been on top of my hit-list for several years and each time I promise I'll get there, something gets in the way (thanks Covid!). But I am determined that 2023 will be the year I cruise in Japan (I did actually go there once, but flew in, joined a ship and we sailed immediately so it doesn't count) and also New Zealand.

It's a perfect cruise destination as there's so much to see on the coast.

Cruising is famed for its hospitality. What can you say about the service you've received from crew on board?

It doesn't matter which line you sail with, the crew are always lovely. Smiling, helpful, providing a service that is efficient but unobtrusive - and how do they remember names? I have even met barmen or waiters who remember me from a cruise a year before, while I struggle to think what I have eaten from one day to the next.

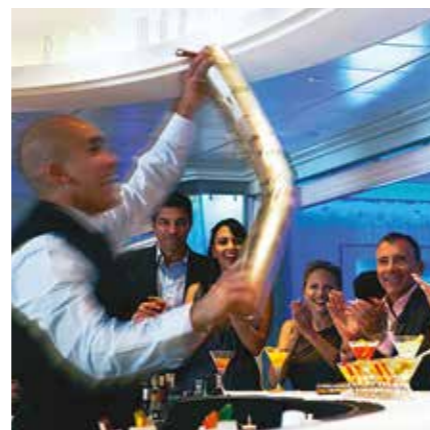

As a writer, how do you find inspiration when putting pen to paper?

I always tour the ships, taking pictures of interiors to remind myself of the décor and layouts to get a feel for the style. But for my articles, especially for an opening paragraph or two, I'm looking for unexpected or quirky happenings. It might be a throw-away line by a guide or talking about the time I found myself zipwiring over the Boardwalk on a Royal Caribbean ship. It's more engaging and hopefully once they start, people will read on.

You've been writing for Blue Horizons for many years now, tell us about how cruising has changed over that time.

When I started cruising, fixed seating in the dining room was the norm and speciality restaurants were a novelty and not expected to catch on as you had to pay (usually £8-£10 if I remember). There were formal nights, stricter dress codes and captain's tables. Everyone wanted to be on that as it showed how important you were. Personally I am glad most of that has been swept away and ship life is more relaxed. Some lines did cater for children back then but family cruising hadn't caught on in the UK. Friends were appalled when I took my daughter on her first cruise aged six. It's taken time but I think it's now recognised to be a fantastic holiday for families.

IT DOESN'T MATTER WHICH LINE YOU SAIL WITH, THE CREW ARE ALWAYS LOVELY

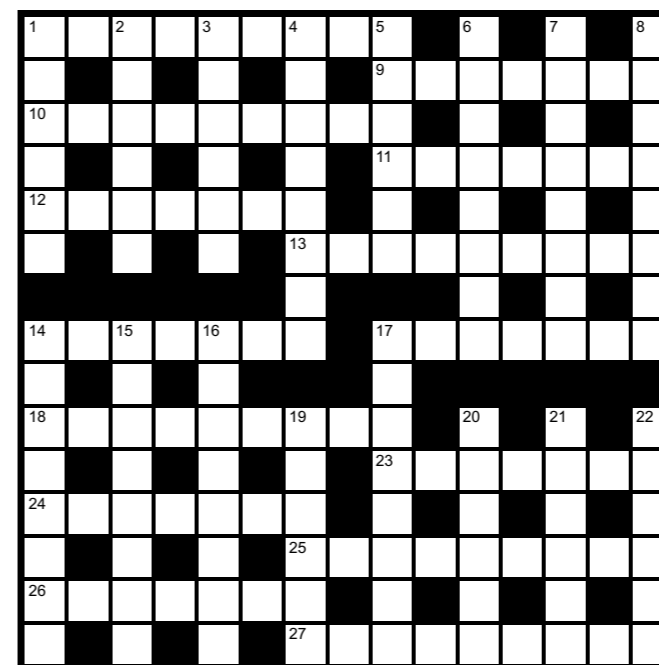

Are there any cruising milestones that stand out for you?

There are so many, but if I had to pick one it would be the 2008 launch of Royal Caribbean International's Oasis of the Seas, then the largest ship in the world. I'm still in awe of the engineering skill that went into creating it and the sister ships that followed. I had two full days to see and do everything on Oasis - the restaurants, the cabins and suites, the shows, the Flowrider surf park, the rock walls. Phew! It was exhausting but I loved every minute of it.

YOUR INCREDIBLE LAND TOUR HIGHLIGHTS*

THE TAJ MAHAL

One of the New Seven Wonders of the World, the Taj Mahal is ubiquitously recognised as one of the world's greatest landmarks and finest examples of Mughal architecture. Enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to admire Emperor Shah Jahan's creation at sunrise. The close-up detail is as exquisite as the overall architectural design, with semi-precious stones and beautiful patterns adorning the marble surface.

RANTHAMBORE NATIONAL PARK & TIGER SAFARI

Centred around the impressive 10th century Ranthambore Fort, Ranthambore National Park is scattered with old mosques, temples and hunting pavilions. A wealth of diverse flora and fauna calls this place home. When out on your safaris, look out for leopards, boars, hyenas, sloth bears and rhesus macaques. But the highlight of your visit will undoubtedly be the moment that you set eyes upon one of the regal Bengal tigers that live in the reserve – an experience that few get to have, and once had, very few forget.

Thu 22 Sihanoukville, Cambodia

Sat 24 - Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam (overnight)

Sun 25 Ho Chi Minh City covers an area of more than 800 square miles, stretching westward from the South China Sea to the Cambodian border. Its land is overwhelmingly rural, dotted with villages and clusters of houses set amidst rice paddies. The downtown section of Ho Chi Minh City is still known as Saigon, and it is here the economic changes sweeping Vietnam and their social implications are most evident

Tue 27 Da Nang (for Hue), Vietnam

Thu 29 Ha Long Bay, Vietnam

Just off the coast of Vietnam, a myriad of karstic islands are clustered in this picturesque setting. Looming out of the sea, undercut by erosions into fantastic shapes, they reminded the Vietnamese of the looping back of a swimming dragon. Scattered among them, whole communities of fishing families live most of their lives on sampans, trading among themselves and periodically going into nearby towns such as Haiphong to sell their catch and buy supplies

YOUR VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

YOUR TWO-NIGHT 5★ HOTEL STAY IN SINGAPORE‡

Singapore goes by many names – the Red Dot, the Garden City, Lion the City – but none adequately sum up its dynamic appeal. As a city-state, Singapore is both the country and its capital and this immaculately clean region is one of many contrasts. Ultra-modern skyscrapers overlook historic temples, while a tropical rainforest lies a few miles outside the urban buzz of the central Business District. The breath-taking skyline is Marina Bay's main attraction, with towering skyscrapers and futuristic architecture dominating your view. Greenery grows from rooftops to reinforce the island's moniker as the Garden City, while the Gardens by the Bay overflows with flowers, ferns and shrubs.

YOUR TWO-NIGHT 5★ HOTEL STAY IN HONG KONG, CHINA‡

Few tourists leave Hong Kong without a trip on the Star Ferry, which has been in service in Victoria Harbour for almost 130 years. You'll travel from the city across to Kowloon; a crossing which National Geographic called one of the world's top 10 city boat trips. Take the ferry at night to see the skyline illuminated in all its glory, or go at dusk to catch a gorgeous sunset.
