THE EXCLUSIVE ROL CRUISE SHOW WAS A SUCCESS!

In mid-August, we were thrilled to bring together many leading cruise lines and guests for a packed two-day event at Braxted Park Estate in Essex. More than 1,000 people attended the second Exclusive ROL Cruise Show as we showcased a wide array of 2019, 2020 and 2021 cruise itineraries, ships and packages to those new to cruise travel, as well as seasoned cruising enthusiasts.

Jennie Bond, journalist, Royal Broadcaster and ROL Cruise Ambassador was present at the show and spoke extensively about her travels across various oceans and rivers around the world to a packed audience on both days of the event.

Sarah Wikevand, MD of ROL Cruise, said, "Guests enjoyed the opportunity to meet our friendly team to discuss the many cruise options available, all in the beautiful surroundings of the Braxted Park Estate. I would like to personally extend our thanks to everyone who took part in the show – our guests, cruise line partners, Mr. Wheeler Wine and also to the Braxted Park team for ensuring the event ran as smoothly as possible."

The Exclusive ROL Cruise Show will return in 2021!

★ CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA ★

Situated in the foothills of the 3,000 feet high flat-topped Table Mountain, Cape Town is overwhelming in its natural beauty. Its Mediterranean climate, extensive coastline and rugged mountain ranges make it one of the best places in the world to visit. A mere hour from Cape Town lies Stellenbosch, an oak-lined town surrounded by 100 wine cellars, including favourites such as Kanonkop, Spier and Rust en Vrede. If time allows, you can join a shore excursion to search for 'The Big Five' (African elephants, Cape buffaloes, lions, leopards and rhinos) during your trip.

★ VICTORIA, MAHÉ, SEYCHELLES ★

For one of the smallest capital cities in the world, Victoria on the Seychelles island of Mahé, is simply bursting with life, colour, culture and heritage. It's also your gateway to the myriad of attractions to be found on this stunningly beautiful paradise island. Take a hike through Morne Seychellois National Park or browse the stalls at Victoria's market for fragrant spices, local fruit or handmade souvenirs. One of the jewels in Victoria's crown is its Botanical Garden, which has been delighting visitors for more than a century. Here you'll stroll through five acres of tropical gardens, with features including orchid species native to the Seychelles. There's also a colony of giant tortoises, some of which are over 150 years of age.

Experience The Extraordinary

WITH WENDY WU TOURS

At Wendy Wu Tours they are all avid adventurers, constantly seeking out the best ways for you to experience the world. That's why they are the number one escorted tour operator to China and Japan in the UK, Australia and New Zealand. Their customer reviews and numerous awards say it all. Wendy Wu Tours are all about showcasing top sights, magnificent hidden gems and the plethora of different types of authentic and exciting experiences that they can offer you; giving you the very best holiday, whether it's your first visit or your tenth.

Here, ROL Cruise hear from Wendy Wu Tours founder Wendy Wu herself...

Can you tell us a bit about how you came to be on the path of travel?

I studied a Bachelor of Science degree in Petroleum Chemistry in China and then went on to study a Bachelor of Arts degree in English Literature and Linguistics in Australia.

My path into travel was quite by accident! Before going on holiday to China, I put an advertisement in the local paper asking if people wanted to join me and I would be their free personal China guide. Little did I know that this request was to be the start of the Wendy Wu Tours business that is here today. I was inundated with replies to the offer, which prompted me to think that it could be a very good business opportunity. This is how Wendy Wu Tours was born.

What do you think is at the heart of the Wendy Wu Tours ethos?

At Wendy Wu Tours, we always strive to please the customer – if they travel with us only once, we are not satisfied. It is only when customers come back again and again, that we feel we have done a great job. We also value our relationship with travel agents, who are extremely important to Wendy Wu Tours. Travel agents have the potential to recommend Wendy Wu Tours to all their clients and for this reason, travel agents are and always will be a fundamental part of the Wendy Wu Tours story.

Can you tell us about any exciting prospects for Wendy Wu Tours in the future?

The grand plan is to continue to grow the business in China, Japan, India and Southeast Asia, concentrating on the fully inclusive escorted touring side of the business, including the 'Classic Tours', 'The Exclusive Collection' tours, river cruises and 'Go Beyond', our special range of more adventurous, active, healthy and cultural holidays. Our goal is to develop and widen our travel offering throughout every part of travel to Asia, including flight and hotels only, transfers, day tours, cruises and trains, making Wendy Wu Tours a one stop shop for travel to Asia, regardless of budget. We are currently working on the technology to support this and will be rolling these new services out in the very near future!

What are your personal highlights of working in travel?

Travel is exciting, fast moving and always evolving. I love what I do – the travel industry is great with lots of fun and very friendly people. My motto in my career has always been to do what you love and if you do this, you'll be very good at it!

DISCOVER AVIGNON:
The Beating Heart of Provence

Popes Palace

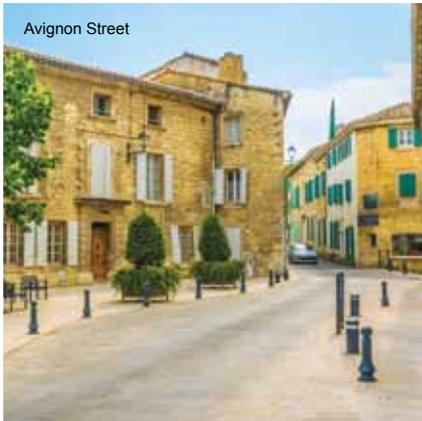

City Hall

Once the seat of the Catholic popes, Avignon became a part of France in 1791 and is still home to the Popes' Palace as well as the Petit Palace, with its magnificent collection of medieval and Renaissance Italian art. Absolutely steeped in history, both political and cultural, Avignon is home to impressive episcopal buildings and the Saint Bénézet Bridge which are both listed as UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

Avignon Street

Visit the main square, Place de l'Horloge, where you'll find the City Hall - complete with clock and Jacquemart - the municipal theatre whose delightful Belle Époque style carousel still turns at the top and many authentic restaurants and cafés where you can while away the afternoon people-watching. Elsewhere, the Rocher des Doms is a stunning public garden showcasing panoramic views over the entire city and, once you've finished sightseeing, you can enjoy the peaceful ambience.

Charcuterie

It is impossible to visit Avignon without taking advantage of the impressive shopping opportunities. The main avenue, Rue de la République, divides the city into two with the Rue Saint Agricole leading to the chic and bourgeois quarter on one side, and the Rue Joseph Vernet, the 5th Avenue of Avignon, on the other. Further afield, visit the Halles and the Place des Carmes, for traditional French Markets, or head to the Rue des Teinturiers bordered by the little Sorgue river. This delightful cobblestone street dates back to the Middle Ages and today is home to many artists, musicians and locals.

There's no better way to discover a new destination than through its food. Beyond Avignon's walls, the region's Mediterranean climate lends warmth, sunshine, and just a little rain - ideal conditions for vegetable growing - while the proximity of the Med to the south offers dream-worthy seafood spreads. Whilst here, be sure to sample some of Avignon's best offerings including Pieds et Paquets, Foi de Veau en Persillade and Charcuterie.

Home to glorious cuisine, world-renowned wines, an abundance of historic landmarks, exciting culture and stunning landscapes, Avignon is a destination not to be missed.

- Day 9 Sisimiut, Greenland
- Day 10 Ilulissat, Greenland ★VOYAGE HIGHLIGHT★

- Day 11 Camp Frieda, Greenland ★VOYAGE HIGHLIGHT★

INTRODUCING THE BRAND NEW MS FRIDTJOF NANSEN

Featuring Hurtigruten's revolutionary hybrid powered propulsion system, MS Fridtjof Nansen will be a near identical twin to her sister ship MS Roald Amundsen, and will honour the heritage of her namesake, the Norwegian explorer and scientist. Combining state-of-the-art technology and a premium on board experience with unforgettable destinations, MS Fridtjof Nansen will introduce you to the next generation of expedition travel. Don't miss your chance to join her on her maiden voyage to Greenland.

THE FUTURE IS GREEN

Hurtigruten have made history by removing all single-use plastics from their ships. In the hope that other cruise lines will follow suit, Hurtigruten, who sail to some of the world's most remote, pristine and delicate environments, have made their announcement at a time when concern for rising plastic in the oceans is at an all time high. To ensure they are operating with the smallest footprint possible, Hurtigruten have removed plastic straws, coffee lids and plastic bags on all of their 14 ships, even single-use butter packaging!

YOUR EXPEDITION VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

★ FALKLAND ISLANDS ★

As one of the greatest wilderness destinations in the world, the Falkland Islands are the ultimate birding experiences and are home to majestic King, feisty Rockhopper, raucous Gentoo and shy Magellanic penguins as well as over 70% of the world's Blackbrowed albatross! Charles Darwin visited the islands twice, and Stanley is proud of its British heritage, evidenced everywhere from its red telephone boxes to its pubs.

★ CAPE HORN ★

Cape Horn is widely considered the most southerly point of South America and marks the northern boundary of the Drake Passage; for centuries it has been regarded as a major milestone by which sailing ships carrying trade goods around the world marked their passage. Magellan and Drake left their mark and names here, as did Darwin, who sailed through here on the HMS Beagle.

★ CHILEAN FJORDS ★

Lined with rugged mountains and glacier-covered valleys, the Chilean Fjords are unlike any other fjord system in the world. Home to many of Chile's national parks, early Spanish explorers came here in search of the mythical City of the Caesars, believed to be rich in gold and diamonds. Riches to be found today are the Fjords' dramatic landscape and the unusual wildlife of Patagonia. Whales, dolphins and elephant seals are a common sight when traversing these stunning fjords.

- Sun 29 Huahine, French Polynesia
- Mon 30 Raiatea, French Polynesia (depart late night)
Known as French Polynesia's best-kept secret, this dreamy paradise has a warm and hospitable culture that is pristine and untouched by mass tourism. While its sister island, Tahaa, is internationally renowned for its vanilla, Raiatea is recognised as the region's cultural and historical centre – local folklore describes it as the birthplace of the Polynesian gods. In the Tahitian language 'raiatea' means 'bright sky', but for you it will mean bright sky, neon blue seas, awe-inspiring coral reefs and the romantic sound of the French language

DECEMBER 2020

- Tue 1 - Bora Bora, French Polynesia (overnight)
- Wed 2 Majestic mountains sculpted by ancient volcanoes, a shimmering lagoon and a barrier reef dotted with tiny motu, or islets - welcome to Bora Bora, perhaps the most stunning island in the South Pacific. - including novelist James Michener – regarded Bora Bora as an earthly paradise
- Thu 3 Moorea, French Polynesia
- Fri 4 Papeete, Tahiti, French Polynesia (arrive late pm – overnight)
Papeete, Tahiti, French Polynesia
An enchanting place, to say the least, it's little wonder Tahiti is a muse to so many. Herman Melville and Paul Gauguin certainly found some inspiration here. And Papeete, the island's very cosmopolitan city, has its fair share. So before you immerse yourself in Tahiti's earthy delights, make sure you visit Papeete's vibrant waterfront and colourful market, brimming with everything from fresh fruit to artisan treasures. You'll find it, well, picture perfect
- Sat 5 Bora Bora, French Polynesia
- Tue 8 Pago Pago, American Samoa

YOUR SOUTH AMERICA SAFARI VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

★RIO DE JANEIRO★

Hot all year round and with a tropical rainforest extending down to the sea, it's easy to understand why Rio de Janeiro is known as "Cidade Maravilhosa" ("The Marvellous City"). Famous for its colourful carnival and fabulous beaches, as well as the dramatic entry to its cruise port, Rio de Janeiro has plenty to offer visitors to the city. When you need a retreat from the heat, sip on a Caipirinha in one of the area's pubs or grab a fresh açai smoothie from one of the many juice shops to be found on street corners throughout the city. Ascending to the peak of the beautiful Pão de Açúcar (Sugarloaf Mountain) should be on every visitor's trip checklist.

Pantanal, Brazil

RIO MUTUM LODGE ★THREE NIGHT STAY★

This impressive lodge will be your base for three nights as you go in search of the rare jaguar. Situated in one of the most beautiful regions of the Pantanal of Mato Grosso, the lodge is set against a backdrop of hills, savannas and rivers and is declared a World Biosphere Reserve and Natural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO.

Buenos Aires, Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA

A melting pot of European and South American cultures, Buenos Aires is the confident capital of Argentina. Beside the busy port is a metropolis boasting eclectic architecture, delicious parrilla-based cuisine and passionate Porteños. It is the birthplace of Pope Francis and Diego Maradona and final resting place of Evita. The famously seductive Argentine tango was born in the cobbled backstreets of the La Boca area, so there's no better place to experience this sultry dance.

Day 5 - Day 6 Crossing the Drake Passage

Day 7 - Day 11 ★Antarctica Experience★
Antarctica, the name alone conjures up images of boundless ice, towering icebergs, comedic penguins, epic snowstorms, great sailing ships held tightly by ice and the hardy explorers striving to survive wrapped in thick, heavy parkas. All of this is, or once was, true. Antarctica is the truest of wild places, the majesty of its pristine natural landscapes is second to no other location on earth. The animals that thrive in the Antarctic climate are present in such great numbers and concentrations that they must be seen to be believed. This untouched oasis is pure in its natural innocence. Antarctica has been a source of natural inspiration for as long as humans have been aware of its existence - and it may produce in you one of the most exceptional sensations it is possible to experience on our great planet.

Enjoy possible landing sites, including Elephant Island, Half Moon Island, King George island, plus:

Hope Bay

Hope Bay is home to one of the largest colonies of Adélie penguins on the Peninsula. See hundreds of penguins between the colony and shoreline, congregating on the beach before entering the water. None of them wants to be first, but eventually one jumps in and then a cavalcade of plunging penguins follows

Paradise Harbour

Glaciers surround the harbour, forming an amphitheatre of tall, snowcapped mountains. Ice-cliffs rise sheer out of the water and towering ice pillars known as seracs rise from deep crevasses. Nesting gentoo penguins occupy every available space surrounding the buildings. On the water, brash ice forms a delicate cover amongst the large, sculpted icebergs that drift in the current. Solitary seals lounge on ice floes, oblivious to the rumble of distant glaciers tumbling into the sea. Humpback and orca whales navigate the ice as Antarctic terns fly above

Baily Head, Deception Island

One of Deception Island's most spectacular places to visit is Baily Head. The largest chinstrap penguin colony in Antarctica is found at Baily Head, numbering in excess of 200,000 birds. The colony dominates the entire landscape, stretching from the beach to the high ridgeline, outlining every hill and occupying every possible expanse of the ground

Cuverville Island

Here lie the islands of Danco and Cuverville, the latter being home to one of the largest known colonies of chinstrap penguins. The shallow water between the islands often causes icebergs to become stuck here, offering a fantastic spectacle when it occurs

Day 12 - Day 13 Crossing the Drake Passage

Jewish Synagogue, St. Petersburg

Imperial Coronation Fabergé egg, Fabergé Museum

Compass Rose Chandelier

Winter Palace

Seven Seas Explorer® Atrium

All-Inclusive 6★ Luxury in the Baltic

I'm peering at an egg in the Fabergé Museum in St. Petersburg. Not the hard-boiled variety, you understand, but one encrusted with diamonds and miniature images of the Russian Tsar Nicholas II's two eldest daughters.

Crafted over 120 years ago for the Russian royal family by master jeweller Carl Fabergé, it is one of nine eggs in the museum, which opened its doors in 2013 and has been on my wish-list ever since. The eggs are exquisite. One contains a miniature of Nicholas II's coronation carriage, another, marking 15 years on the throne, is decorated with tiny images of his family, palaces and coronation.

I was in St. Petersburg for a fabulous three days on a voyage around the Baltic on Regent Seven Seas Cruises® Seas Explorer®, 'The Most Luxurious Ship Ever Built™' with all-suite all-balcony accommodation, acres of marble, extravagant chandeliers and even leather flooring.

She is stunning and the itinerary – Stockholm to Copenhagen with calls into Tallinn, St. Petersburg, Helsinki, Riga, Klaipeda and Warnemünde – was brilliant, but want to know the icing on the cake? That excursion to the Fabergé Museum didn't me cost anything; likewise seven others I took during the 10 night voyage.

Free unlimited excursions is one of Regent's many charms. Having flights, drinks, dining, gratuities – actually almost everything – included in the price, is another. And as just about the only things that cost extra are spa treatments and either top-shelf or small group tours, and they are all optional, you can easily leave your cruise with a nil bill.

If that appeals (and why wouldn't it?), and if I can tempt you to go to St. Petersburg, Seven Seas Explorer® will be in the Baltic again next summer, or why not check out the Regent Seven Seas Cruises® incredible launch offers featured in Blue Horizons this month.

There's a 19 night voyage from Dubai to Istanbul on Seven Seas Explorer® that includes calls into Oman, Aqaba and Rhodes, and overnights in Luxor, Haifa and Istanbul. Or how about a cruise around Japan in March 2022 that includes two nights in Tokyo, two days in Kobe, visits Nagasaki and has free tours to temples, castles, markets and more.

There was certainly plenty to discover on my Baltic cruise. In St. Petersburg, as well as seeing the Fabergé eggs, I joined a Jewish Heritage tour to a Moorish-style synagogue, where we were treated to a lively violin and piano concert, and learned about the events that shook the world in 1917 on a revolutionary tour of the city.

In the vast Hermitage Museum, where you could literally spend years trying to see everything, guide Olga skilfully manoeuvred us around the gems of the collection – the ornate palace rooms, a 250-year-old Peacock Clock made in London that still works, tables inlaid with mosaic, priceless works of art by Titian, Da Vinci, Rafael, Michelangelo, Rembrandt and others.

I also splashed out on a couple of paid-for evening tours – one to Swan Lake at the Mikhailovsky Theatre, which was superb (the ballet and the theatre), the other a tour and classical concert in a palace built by Alexander Menshikov, one of the wealthiest men in St. Petersburg until he upset Peter the Great and was sent to Siberia.

So that was three days and six tours. Phew. I took a well-deserved day off in Helsinki, but was back on the touring trail in Riga and Klaipeda, both of which were new territories for me.

Riga's old town was beautiful, packed with lively bars and restaurants and adorned with glorious baroque and gothic architecture, all of which hides a tragic history. The Nazis invaded on 1st July 1941, destroyed the city's biggest synagogue and murdered the city's 70,000 Jewish population. In 1944, the city was liberated by the Red Army but, to quote my guide, 'they forgot to leave', so Latvia became part of the USSR until it collapsed in 1991.

From Klaipeda, I went to an amber museum in the nearby seaside resort of Palanga. The 'gem' is actually fossilised resin that bled from pre-historic trees about 55 million years ago and then hardened. Any insects unlucky enough to be in the vicinity were trapped inside, which is why you can buy amber jewellery with ants or spiders inside. "Women don't usually like earrings with bugs," guide Natalija whispered to me. I can't say I am surprised.

There was a lot of history to uncover in Klaipeda (just eight people were in the city by the time the Red Army got there at the end of the Second World War) and in the German city of Rostock, which is 20 minutes from Warnemünde and was heavily destroyed by the RAF in the last war and then trapped behind the Iron Curtain until the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989.

It's a pleasant city to wander, but the highlight has to be the astronomical clock in St. Mary's Church. At midday, a door opens and 11 apostles pass in front of Jesus before entering heaven (the 12th, Judas, is shut out). It is quite spectacular; even more so when you discover it was built in 1472 and still ticks along to this day.

Tartes aux Pommes

The Tartes aux Pommes (Apple Pie) is a quintessential French dessert comprising caramelised apples, sweet pastry and a melt-in-the-mouth texture that many of us know and love. The origin of the Tartes aux Pommes is vague at best, but many signs point to Normandy as coining the sweet dessert, as apples are synonymous with the area. With autumn drawing in, there is little else that compares to a slice of warming pasty filled with the succulence of caramelised apples.

Ingredients

- 171g flour
- 8 tbsp unsalted butter
- 60ml ice water
- 4 tbsp apple cider or apricot jam
- 1 large apple
- 1 tsp superfine sugar
- Optional: vanilla ice cream for serving

Method

1. Preheat the oven to 200°C.
2. Place flour in the bowl of a food processor, and add the butter (cut into 16 pieces). Feel free to add a pinch of salt, if you like.
3. Pulse 10 times, then sprinkle with the water. Process until it forms a ball.
4. Roll the dough to 1/8-inch thick.

5. Cut out four 6-inch circles of dough. Place each circle into a 4-inch tart pan with removable bottom.
6. Fold edges down and press into the sides of the pan. Trip tops, if necessary.
7. Spread 1 tablespoon of apple cider or apricot jam evenly onto each crust.

Make the Filling

1. Peel, core and quarter the apple.
2. Cut each quarter into 7 even slices. Arrange 8 slices onto the top of each crust in a shingle pattern.
3. Sprinkle each with 1/4 teaspoon of superfine sugar.
4. Bake for 30 minutes, until the apple cider (or jam) is bubbling away under the apples.
5. Let cool on a rack and then remove from the tart pan.
6. Serve each tart with a scoop of vanilla ice cream, if desired.
