Liverpool
- Mon 9 Lisbon, Portugal (arrive early pm)
- Wed 11 Funchal, Madeira (depart early pm)
- Wed 18 Bridgetown, Barbados (depart late night)
This very British Caribbean island is a favourite with tourists; the city's streets are lined with shops, boutiques, street vendors, bars and places to eat – there is always something to do. Broad Street, the main street of Bridgetown is often packed with welcoming locals. It's easy to see why Barbados is known as Little England given Bridgetown's Georgian houses, the horse-racing track, Parliament Square, and a statue of Nelson
- Thu 19 Castries, St Lucia Castries, the capital of the island nation of St. Lucia, is known for its palm-lined, soft, white Vigie Beach. Like St. Lucia itself, the city combines heritage and culture with peace, relaxation and tranquillity, and Castries is a gateway to St. Lucia's wealth of national parks with vast forests, native plants and wildlife
Cruising by Pitons
- Fri 20 Mayreau, St. Vincent and Grenadines
St. George's, Grenada (arrive evening – overnight)
The popular destination of St. George's is the capital of Grenada, a tiny Caribbean island with a long history of British and French rule. The town is a gateway to a volcanic island, with a jaw-dropping landscape of crater lakes, rainforests, coral reefs and white-sand beaches. The town is located on a stunning horseshoe-shaped harbour. At its centre, the 18th century Fort George offers panoramic views of the island and nearby Fort Matthew, formerly a battleground and an asylum, boasts a network of underground tunnels. The Grenada National Museum hosts exhibits about the region's history, including the plantation economy and the whaling industry

- Sat 21 St. George's, Grenada (depart late night)
- Sun 22 Bequia, Port Elizabeth, St. Vincent (depart late night)
- Mon 23 Fort-de-France, Martinique (depart late night)
- Tue 24 Pointe-a-Pitre, Guadeloupe
- Wed 25 Basseterre, St Kitts and Nevis (depart late night)
Established by the French in the 17th century, and claimed by the British following the Napoleonic War, much of Basseterre's original Georgian architecture still stands and begs to be explored.
The domed Old Treasury Building on the waterfront – now the National Museum – is worth a visit, as is the Victorian Berkeley Memorial Clock, a four-face, cast-iron tower that sits on the Circus, an original 19th century traffic roundabout. St George's, an Anglican church originally built by the French, has been destroyed by fire several times, and was rebuilt to its present form in 1869

- Thu 26 St. John's, Antigua A sunbather's haven, St. John's is the capital city of Antigua, an island often referred to as the 'crown jewel' of the Caribbean. With its large selection of beaches, typically hot climate and an array of cool seaside bars, the city of St. John's is a sun worshipper's paradise

Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and Daily Telegraph Travel's cruise experts. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 13 years.

A WORLD AWAY

1950s car in Cuba

Work commitments make it impossible for me to get away for several months at a time on a world cruise. But I'll do it one day. Why? Because like every cruiser – and even some folk who have never even set foot on a ship – it is the ultimate journey by sea.

I personally love the idea of sneaking off in winter, when the days are short and the weather is gloomy, but there are so many more attractions. It is an easy way to see the world and there are new friends to be made as you sail from one continent to the other – a big attraction for people sailing alone. Maybe it's just me, but there is surely something just a little bit romantic about the idea of running away to sea for all that time.

World cruises begin in either the US or the UK – the latter of course are the easy ones to choose as there are no flights or luggage restrictions to worry about. Just arrive at the port, someone else will carry your bags to your cabin and off you go. Your holiday starts right away!

Sailings from the UK tend to depart from Southampton to the Caribbean, through the Panama Canal, across the South Pacific to Australia and back through Asia. That's a lot of sightseeing but also plenty of time at sea to relax with a good book, explore the ship's amenities or learn a new skill.

Sydney, Australia

Market in Barcelona

MARKS THE SPOT

We're used to gee-whizz ideas from the big cruise lines – an animated dinner show on *Celebrity Edge*SM, cooking schools with P&O Cruises, go-karts with Norwegian Cruise Line – but now the expedition lines are getting in on the innovation act.

And how! Enter the revolutionary X-Bow on Greg Mortimer, a new ship being built for Aurora Expeditions, an Australian company with a 25 year pedigree of taking folk to places where few people have gone before.

My first thought was probably the same as yours. That's not what ships are supposed to look like. But then I read why this new design, developed by Norwegian company Ulstein, is making waves (pun intended) in the shipping world.

In a nutshell, the bow 'pierces' the water rather than rising and falling on the waves, which reduces fuel consumption and means lower emissions. So it's a win-win: more comfort for passengers and better for the environment.

Greg Mortimer, named after Aurora's founder, is proof that expedition no longer means roughing it – the cabins and suites look stunning, and most have balconies, and there is a gym, sauna and spa – but she is more about what's outside than inside.

So there is a large observation lounge with floor-to-ceiling windows (Aurora's boss assured me the X-Bow does not cut down the view) and two viewing platforms that fold out hydraulically from the hull so you can stay safe while enjoying a closer look at penguins, polar bears, whales and glaciers.

If you're feeling intrepid, you can kayak among the icebergs, plunge into the freezing polar waters and maybe even go snorkelling!

Greg Mortimer launches in November 2019 and will spend the winter in Antarctica and South Georgia before heading to the Arctic by way of the magnificent Chilean fjords. You'll find more about these itineraries and others in upcoming editions of Blue Horizons.

Greg Mortimer

A few years back I did manage to hop on a two week sector of a world cruise and took up line dancing, which was good exercise and great fun – even if I did annoy everyone else because I kept forgetting the steps!

Incredibly, world cruises for January 2021 have already hit the shelves. Regent Seven Seas Cruises[®] launched its 117 night global circumnavigation way back in August last year, Oceania Cruises[®] unveiled an epic 180 day voyage last month while Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines is revealing its 2021 world voyage in this issue of Blue Horizons along with some great opening offers including free gratuities from Fred. Olsen and on board spending money from ROL. Not only this, but from only £99pp per night, this world cruise is one not to miss!

I've had a sneak peek and it's a great itinerary – 108 nights sailing from Southampton on Black Watch that combines places you really can't miss (Sydney, Melbourne, Singapore and Mumbai), with fabulous islands in the South Pacific and Caribbean such as Barbados, Cuba, Antigua, Tahiti and Bora Bora, and a few ports that you've maybe never heard of but all have a great story to tell.

Mystery Island in Vanuatu, for instance, got its name because it was used as an airstrip there is surely something just a little bit romantic about the idea of running away to sea for all that time ”” by the allies during WWII and was so hidden away the Japanese never knew where the planes had come from. In Albany, on Australia's South Coast, you'll see the Field of Light created by British artist Bruce Munro to honour the thousands of Australian and New Zealand troops who sailed from here in 1914 and died on the WWI battlefields.

One of the big changes in world cruising over the past decade is the trend for late departures or overnight stays in key ports so there's more time to explore ashore. Regent's cruise, from Miami to Barcelona, includes overnights in Auckland, Brisbane and Bali, while Oceania Cruises[®] has two nights in both Istanbul and Yangon in Myanmar.

Choose Fred. Olsen's world cruise and you'll have three glorious days in Sydney to visit the Blue Mountains, have a 'barbie' on Bondi Beach and climb the Harbour Bridge. I'm told the view from the top is magnificent – as long as you dare to open your eyes!

NOVEMBER 2019

Mon 4 Embark the brand new Spirit of Discovery and depart Southampton

Thu 7 Lisbon, Portugal
Cruise under the 25 de Abril Bridge, oft compares to San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge, to reach Lisbon's elegant capital. Renowned for its array of architectural styles, in particular the Moorish Alfama district, Lisbon contains a host of must-see attractions. Explore the colourful 18th century squares and you'll be rewarded with such historical delights as Belém Tower, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and the Monument to the Discoveries – both reminders of Portugal's seafaring prowess

Sat 9 Funchal, Madeira

Sun 10 Santa Cruz, Tenerife (depart late pm)

Mon 11 Santa Cruz, La Palma
By far the greenest of the Canaries, La Palma is often known as the 'Isla Bonita' or beautiful island. From the fertile orchards and verdant forests of the north, to the dramatic black wilderness of the south, the island offers a wealth of contrasting landscapes, while its capital, Santa Cruz, sits in an amphitheatre on the slope of a volcanic crater

Tue 12 San Sebastián, La Gomera
Cruise to lesser-visited La Gomera, a wild and rocky island where beautiful beaches and precipitous cliffs encircle its lush, mountainous countryside and ancient laurel forest. Enjoy exploring its quaint capital or perhaps follow in the footsteps of Christopher Columbus who paused here in 1492 before discovering the New World by accident

Wed 13 Puerto del Rosario, Fuerteventura
Fuerteventura's capital is a bustling port with whitewashed buildings and collection of outdoor artworks by local artists – you'll be able to see at least one, a giant seashell, right by the harbour. Perhaps go shopping in pedestrianised Calle Primero de Mayo, relax on the Blue Flag beach or opt to join a nature walk to discover the island's plutonic rock formations and traditional pastoral architecture

THE FJORDS OF NORWAY 15 NIGHTS DEPARTING 12TH JUNE 2019

JUNE 2019

- Wed 12 Embark the newly refurbished Silver Spirit and depart London Tilbury for your 15 night all-inclusive ultra-luxury voyage
- Sat 15 Geiranger, Norway (arrive late am)
The Geirangerfjord, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is Norway's most spectacular and perhaps best-known fjord. The 16-km-long (10-mile-long), 960-foot-deep Geirangerfjord's most stunning attractions are its roaring waterfalls – the Seven Sisters, the Bridal Veil, and the Suitor
- Sun 16 Trondheim, Norway
One of Scandinavia's oldest cities, Trondheim was the first capital of Norway, from AD 997 to 1380. Founded in 997 by Viking king Olav Trygvason, the wide streets of the historic city center remain lined with brightly painted wood houses and striking warehouses
- Tue 18 Leknes, Norway
- Wed 19 Tromsø, Norway
- Thu 20 Cruising North Cape
Honningsvåg, Norway
At one time a major fishing harbour - when it boasted the title of 'the world's most northerly town' - the port of Honningsvåg lies far within the Arctic Circle, amid the stark grandeur of Finnmark's coastal frontierlands, and is the last stop before the remote North Cape itself, just 21 miles away
- Fri 21 Hammerfest, Norway (depart early pm)
- Sun 23 Ålesund, Norway
The enchanting port town of Ålesund offers a quintessentially Norwegian experience, with its rugged mountains, captivating fjords and welcoming fish restaurants. It's also home to some impressive Art Nouveau architecture, introduced to the town after it was decimated by fire in the early twentieth century

- Mon 24 Flåm, Norway
- Tue 25 Bergen, Norway
Many visitors fall in love with Bergen at first sight. Seven rounded lush mountains, pastel wood houses, the historic wharf, winding cobblestone streets, and Hanseatic relics all make it a place of enchantment. Its many epithets include "Trebyen" (Wooden City), "Regnbyen" (Rainy City, due to its 240 days of rain a year), and "Fjordbyen" (gateway to the fjords). The composer Edvard Grieg, the violinist Ole Bull, and Ludvig Holberg, Scandinavia's answer to Molière, all made great contributions to Norwegian culture

INTRODUCING THE ICONIC VENICE SIMPLON-ORIENT-EXPRESS

From the 1920s to the '30s the carriages of the Venice Simplon-Orient-Express train played a significant role in the golden age of travel. Today, every carriage has been lovingly restored to its former glory, recreating one of the finest luxury experiences the world has ever known.

Exceptional European cuisine is freshly prepared in the train's kitchen by Executive Chef Christian Bodiguel and his skilled team. Enjoy the unique ambience of each of the three beautifully restored restaurant cars and at the heart of the train, the stylish Bar Car '3674' offers a welcoming environment in which to relax over cocktails or coffee.

CHAMPAGNE BAR

Sample the finest vintage champagnes in the exclusive Champagne bar, perfectly chilled and served in glimmering crystal. Art Deco interiors and Lalique glassware conjure the romance and glamour of the 1920s. Vintages include Taittinger, Laurent Perrier Rosé and Louis Roederer Cristal, perfectly chilled and served in glimmering crystal.

GRAND SUITES

Launched in 2018, each Grand Suite features a private bathroom with shower, double bed and a living area, offering the ultimate in style and comfort. Named after the romantic cities to which the train travels, Paris, Venice and Istanbul; the interior designs of each cabin reflect the spirit of each city.

BAR CAR '3674'

Named after the original number given to the carriage, 3674 was originally built in France in 1931. It ran as part of the Sud Express and routes included Paris to Irun and from Paris to Toulouse. Enjoy music played by the resident pianist and cocktails.

CÔTE D'AZUR

This carriage was built in 1929 as a first class pullman and began in Cote D'azur Pullman Express. Following this, it changed to the Deauville, running for winter journeys from Paris to Calais for many years. Make sure to take note of the stunning René Lalique glass featured within.

ETOILE DU NORD

This spellbinding carriage was built in 1926 in England and showcases exquisite marquetry. It ran with the opulent Etoile Du Nord train from Paris to Amsterdam. Following this, it ran Lisbon to Madrid with the Lusitania express, before finishing in the 1970s travelling between Cádiz and Seville.

- Day 8 Maniitsoq, Greenland
Maniitsoq was founded in 1755 and its name means 'The uneven place' referring to the rocky hills and mountains shaping the layout of the town. It is also known as the 'Venice of Greenland' as it is situated in an archipelago, intersected by natural canals
- Day 9 Sisimiut, Greenland

LAND OF THE Rising Sun

Japan is a land of contrasts. The Japanese culture has been cultivated for millennia and they still honour values and traditions that have been in place for centuries, yet this somehow blends perfectly with the high-tech, neon lights and skyscrapers. Traditional wooden homes mingling with large glass and steel structures is a common sight, but as you explore this captivating destination on your cruise to Japan, you'll see that things here just make sense.

Tokyo is a bustling wonderland - the capital of Japan and the most populated urban area in the world. It is incredibly large, yet somehow doesn't feel as crowded as one would imagine. You'll discover a sense of quiet reverence in the Shinjuku Gyoen National Garden, formerly an imperial garden. For more atmosphere, head to Senso-ji, one of Japan's oldest temples. Marvel at the pagoda (one of the tallest in Japan), and visit a Shinto shrine and incense cauldron, rumoured to bestow good health.

Across Japan, tuck into delicacies such as Sushi and Miso soup, and don't be surprised if rice is served with every meal, even breakfast. Attend to your well-being at a public bathhouse (sento), or, as over 80% of Japan is mountainous and the archipelago has over 100 volcanoes, you'll easily find a bubbling hot spring baths (onsen) to relax in. For something a little different, indulge in the practice of forest-bathing - go for forest walk, breathe deeply and open your senses as part of this Japanese healing tradition. On the edge of Kyoto, Sagano Bamboo Forest is the perfect location to try it, or to simply admire one of the world's most enchanting bamboo groves.

Best for Nature - Mount Fuji

Nowhere is nature more majestic than Mount Fuji, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and the tallest mountain in Japan. Its symmetrical cone shape, often covered in snow, can easily be seen from Tokyo on a clear day and is one of the defining symbols of Japan. The mountain itself is surrounded by five lakes, together forming the Fuji-Hakone-Izu National Park. The region is home to the strange and rare Japanese Serow, as well as the Asiatic black bear.

Cherry Blossoms in Japan

Each year Japan transforms into a pink Arcadia as cherry trees become awash with their seasonal bloom. This natural marvel is so well followed in Japan, it even makes the daily weather report. Few realise that Japan is an archipelago of 6,852 islands, of which only 430 are inhabited. Japan's southernmost islands are subtropical, and here cherry blossoms can open from as early as January whereas further north, this can be late in May. All the while people gather under the blossoms to celebrate Hanami, a long-standing tradition of welcoming spring, often by gathering under the blossoms for food, drink, songs and company.

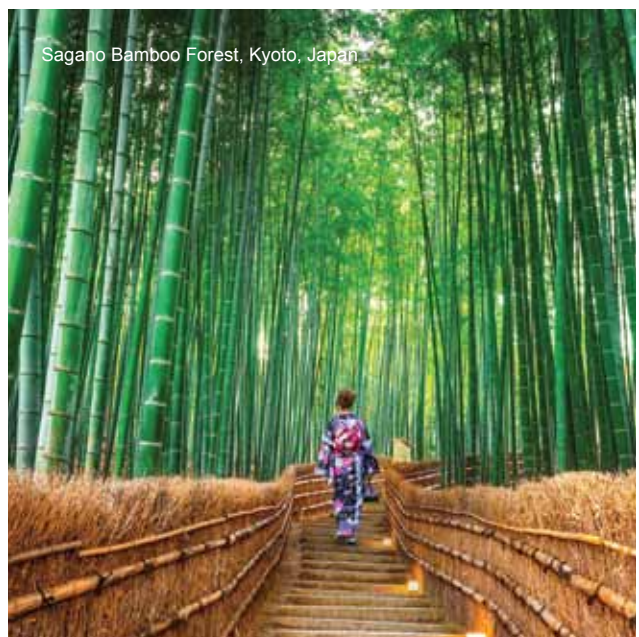

Best for Cuisine - Osaka

Once known as the 'nation's kitchen', local dishes in Osaka are simply delicious. It's home to one of Japan's largest fish markets, so the sushi here is some of the freshest. One of Japan's favourite dishes, Kitsune udon, originated here in the 19th century, and the locals still add their own unique twist to the dish - preferring wheat noodles, before topping with deep fried tofu. Not to be overlooked is Kushikatsu, skewered kebabs of meat, seafood or even vegetables which are deep fried.

Best for Culture - Kyoto

The cultural heart of Japan, Kyoto is home to many unique traditions. Perhaps most resplendent and honoured, Kyoto is famous for Geisha, highly skilled female entertainers who are trained in the performing cultural arts of dance and classical music. Venture to the Gion area of Kyoto for a glimpse into the ancient world of Geisha. For those wishing to more fully immerse themselves in ancient Japanese culture, you can rent a Kimono, the beautiful traditional attire, and take a stroll through the old city streets. Don't miss partaking in a tea ceremony at one of Kyoto's many traditional teahouses.

Japanese Ramen

Japanese cuisine offers an abundance of gastronomical delights with endless variety. From street-food stands and centuries old ryotei to eccentrically themed restaurants and terraces erected over rivers, Japan is a hub of unforgettable dining experiences. One such dish that appears on the menus of many Japanese eateries is the delicious Japanese Ramen Noodle Soup and, as Japan is our featured destination for this month, we couldn't think of anything better to tantalise your tastebuds.

Ingredients

(serves four)

- 700ml chicken stock
- 3 garlic cloves, halved
- 4 tbsp soy sauce, plus extra to season
- 1 tsp Worcestershire sauce
- Thumb-sized piece of ginger, sliced
- ½ tsp Chinese five spice
- Pinch of chilli powder
- 1 tsp white sugar (optional)
- 375g ramen noodles
- 400g sliced cooked pork or chicken breast
- 2 tsp sesame oil

For the garnish:

- 100g baby spinach
- 4 tbsp sweetcorn
- 4 boiled eggs, peeled and halved
- 1 sheet dried nori, finely shredded
- Sliced green spring onions or shallots
- Sprinkle of sesame seeds

Method

1. Mix 700ml chicken stock, 3 halved garlic cloves, 4 tbsp soy sauce, 1 tsp Worcestershire sauce, a sliced thumb-sized piece of ginger, ½ tsp Chinese five spice, pinch of chilli powder and 300ml water in a stockpot or large saucepan, bring to the boil, then reduce the heat and simmer for 5 mins.
2. Taste the stock – add 1 tsp white sugar or a little more soy sauce to make it sweeter or saltier to your liking.
3. Cook 375g ramen noodles following the pack instructions, then drain and set aside.
4. Slice 400g cooked pork or chicken, fry in 2 tsp sesame oil until just starting to brown, then set aside.
5. Divide the noodles between four bowls. Top each with a quarter of the meat, 25g spinach, 1 tbsp sweetcorn and 2 boiled egg halves.
6. Strain the stock into a clean pan, then bring to the boil once again.
7. Divide the stock between the bowls, then sprinkle over 1 shredded nori sheet, sliced spring onions or shallots and a sprinkle of sesame seeds. Allow the spinach to wilt slightly before serving.
