Spirit of Adventure

SAGA LAY KEEL FOR THE BRAND NEW SPIRIT OF ADVENTURE

Following closely in the wake of her sister ship, Spirit of Discovery, Saga have marked the keel-laying of their second new boutique ship, Spirit of Adventure, with a ceremony in Germany. Setting sail in 2020, the ship will carry just 999 passengers. Saga's CEO, Lance Batchelor, says, "Both ships have been designed to epitomise Saga's British boutique cruising concept and they are the first small, luxury ships to be built by a British company, for the British market, in more than four decades."

FROM SEA TRIALS TO SUBMARINES, SCENIC ECLIPSE IS ONE STEP CLOSER

Scenic Eclipse has recently completed sea trials ahead of the inaugural sailing. 'The World's First Discovery Yacht' is set to combine 6★ luxury and discovery cruising. "It was a real pleasure to take Scenic Eclipse out to sea for the first time," said Captain Griffiths, of Scenic Luxury Cruises & Tours. He added, "She was vibration free and virtually silent during all our trials."

Step inside Scenic Neptune

Every aspect of Scenic Eclipse will redefine luxury and discovery ocean cruising. And none more so than the custom-built U Boat Worx Cruise Submarine, Scenic Neptune. Capable of diving to a depth of 300 metres and boasting spacious seating for up to six guests, the submarine will dive right from Scenic Eclipse itself. Gasp at fascinating marine life, marvel at vibrant coral reef and inspect mysterious underwater ruins... the possibilities are endless.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

In 1775, the people of New England began fighting the British for their independence and on 2nd July 1776, the Congress secretly voted for independence from Great Britain. The Declaration of Independence was first published two days later on 4th July, 1776, but wasn't actually signed until a month later.

Today, Independence Day is a federal holiday in the United States commonly known as the 'Fourth of July'.

Blue Horizons | July 2019 17

Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 13 years.

The land that time forgot

I stared at the blue-footed boobie and he stared back. It's day two of a cruise in the Galápagos and I've already learned that in these islands you don't know who is watching whom.

Charles Darwin landed in the Galápagos September 1835 as part of a five-year expedition on HMS Beagle to chart the southern South American coastline and was hoping to find an active volcano when he went ashore.

Instead he discovered birds and animals that had adapted to the different island environments in which they lived. There were iguanas that swam, finches that had evolved different-shaped beaks depending whether their main food stuffs were fruits, seeds or insects, giant tortoises with shells that differed in shape from island to island so they could eat the plants that grew in their habitat.

Fast forward almost 185 years and I'm guessing very little has changed. Well apart from all the vessels docked off Baltra Island when our plane from Quito landed, waiting to whisk people off on what has to be one of the most memorable holidays ever.

Most were small boats holding just a handful of people, but there were also a few bigger, rather luxurious vessels (big as in really quite small as none is allowed to carry more than 100 passengers) including Silversea's Silver Galapagos and Celebrity Cruises' Celebrity Xpedition.

This summer anyone arriving in the Galápagos will spot another Celebrity ship, Celebrity FloraSM, more mega-yacht than cruise ship, arrived in the islands in June from Holland where she was built. I was lucky enough to get a peek at her before she left the shipyard and she looks fabulous, with light Scandinavian-style décor and all-suite accommodation (see separate story this page).

A cruise is a wonderful – and easy – way to see the Galápagos. As you get on board, unpack and most days visit two different bays and islands where you can go ashore and get close to everything from impish lava lizards to lumbering sea lions on walks with Ecuadorian guides registered by the Galápagos National Park. They travel with the ships and talk about the flora, fauna and history of the islands while ashore and during evening lectures.

What wildlife you see depends on where you go. There are pelicans, sea lions and blue-footed boobies on Daphne Island and North Seymour, which is also

INTRODUCING *Celebrity Flora*SM

*Celebrity Flora*SM is a game-changer when it comes to cruising the Galápagos. Not just because she is brand new, beautifully designed and has neat features such as drinking water stations in each suite and solar panels to supplement electricity supply.

No, excellent as these things are, for me the real wow is new front-loading tenders they are using in place of the rubber Zodiacs others use to go ashore in the Galápagos (there are no docks in the islands so tenders are the only way on and off the boats, even on embarkation day).

If you have ever had to get in and out of a Zodiac from a beach, you will know how hard it is unless you are a six-foot basketball player.

The new tenders are easy. They 'lock' onto the marina at the back of Flora and act like landing craft on beaches so getting in and out is easy. There are six on Flora, each with space for 12 people.

She has one indoor restaurant and an al-fresco Ocean Grill that's open for lunch and dinner, a lounge bar that doubles as a lecture room and all-suite all oceanview accommodation with either what Celebrity calls an infinite balcony, which has a panoramic window that opens horizontally, or a traditional outside balcony.

All suites are served by a personal attendant and prices include everything from drinks and gratuities to unlimited Wi-Fi.

home to frigate birds, easily identifiable from their puffed-up red chests. On Rabida Island, you'll see Darwin's finches, lava lizards, which communicate by a series of press-ups, and Galápagos mockingbirds. In Santa Cruz, trips to the highlands go in search of the giant tortoises and usually allow free time in Puerto Ayora, the islands' capital. On my cruise, the guides also took us out in the Zodiacs to see the wildlife from the water (that added Galápagos penguins to my wildlife tick list!). On several afternoons we went snorkelling with the playful sea lions. You can borrow snorkels and wetsuits on both Flora and Xpedition for free.

Although there are a lot of tourist boats in the islands, itineraries are managed so there is only ever one at each landing site and never more than 100 people ashore. That's important to avoid stressing the animals (Santa Cruz is an exception because it is a town) and means visitors get a real sense of how special these islands are.

As I watched the boobie looking at me, I wondered what it must have been like for Charles Darwin arriving in this remote spot, some 600 miles from the nearest mainland, all those years ago and discovering what to this day still feels like the land that time forgot. I really hope that never changes.

★YOUR VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS★

BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA

Stretched out along the Río de la Plata, the nation's capital, Buenos Aires, is a rich mix of European splendour and Latino passion. An evening in this energetic city can be finished off with music and dancing in one of the many jazz clubs and tango bars.

STANLEY, FALKLANDS

A stroll outside the town gives the chance to experience the stunning scenery and wildlife. The unpolluted air makes it possible to see even distant mountains clearly and the wildlife – penguins may come to inspect you – is astonishing in its variety. And after the walk there should be time for a drink in one of the two pubs in town.

SEVEN NIGHTS DEPARTING 2ND MAY, 13TH JULY, 8TH AUGUST, 5TH SEPTEMBER, 13TH & 27TH OCTOBER 2020

Day 1 Board the Eurostar at London St. Pancras Train Station for your rail journey to Amsterdam, Netherlands (other train stations and flight options are available at no extra cost*). Upon arrival, transfer to your Emerald Waterways luxury river cruise ship for your seven night river cruise (D)

Day 2 Amsterdam, Netherlands
Today, you can choose to relax during a glass top canal boat tour through Amsterdam's elaborate UNESCO World Heritage-listed canal system, or embark on a guided bike tour to Waterland, passing quintessential villages, traditional windmills and fields that are bursting with colourful tulips. Enjoy sailing through the countryside and on towards the Rhine River this afternoon, perhaps enjoying a drink on the Sun Deck and watching the passing scenery before joining your captain for a gala dinner (B, L, D)

EmeraldACTIVE*: A guided bike tour to Waterland

Day 3 Cologne, Germany
Your included walking tour of the city will touch on the historical charm of its old town, and you will have the opportunity to traverse rustic alleyways, visit iconic monuments and see how archaeologists have uncovered a Jewish quarter that can be dated back to the 13th century. Your insightful tour will conclude at the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Cologne Cathedral, a Gothic building whose twin spires dominate the skyline. The original medieval plans for the building were partly found in the attic, and partly found on the stall of a bookseller in France centuries later, meaning that, while construction of the cathedral started back in 1248, it wasn't finished until 1880 (B, L, D)

EmeraldPLUS*: A guided tour of Cologne

Day 4 Koblenz, Germany
Today, join your local guide for an insightful walking tour of Koblenz, passing examples of architecture that survived the war years, including the Church of Our Lady. Later, a sailing journey through the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Rhine Gorge will highlight the extraordinary beauty of an area that left the philosophers and artists of the German Romanticism movement entranced (B, L, D)

EmeraldPLUS*: A tour of Koblenz and a visit to the Ehrenbreitstein Fortress

Day 5 Mannheim – Heidelberg, Germany
Heidelberg is a fascinating place, famously described by revered author Mark Twain as 'a fallen Milky Way'. Join an orientation tour of the old town to discover an 'intricate cobweb of streets', and pass many of Heidelberg's highlights, including the oldest university in Germany. Alternatively, embark on an active hike from Mount Königstuhl to Heidelberg (B, L, D)

EmeraldACTIVE*: A hike from Mount Königstuhl to Heidelberg

EmeraldEXCURSION*: A guided tour of Heidelberg with wine tasting

Day 6 Kehl, Germany – Strasbourg, France
Dock in Kehl and be transferred to Strasbourg, a city that promises much in the way of beautiful architecture. The UNESCO World Heritage-listed Neustadt district is particularly iconic, perfectly encapsulating the Rhineland. The Neustadt district is yours to discover today during your included tour, as is the Maison Kammerzell, a prime example of German Renaissance architecture. Paying homage to the region's artistic past, Petite France is an exceptional historic quarter that looks as though it has been pulled directly from an artist's easel (B, L, D)

EmeraldPLUS*: A guided tour of Strasbourg

Day 7 Breisach, Germany
A world of ornate cuckoo clocks awaits, as you set off in search of the fairytales of the Black Forest. Your included EmeraldEXCURSION will be a visit to a Black Forest village. After an immersive learning experience, watch a Black Forest gateau demonstration followed by a tasting. Alternatively, follow forest trails that twist underneath the lush canopy of evergreens in the Black Forest, passing beautiful scenery and waterfalls. Mark Twain famously wrote, "Here you can lose track of time in 10 minutes and the world in 20" about his time in the Black Forest (B, L, D)

EmeraldPLUS*: A Black Forest gateau demonstration and tasting

EmeraldEXCURSION*: A visit to a Black Forest village

EmeraldACTIVE*: A guided hike through the Black Forest

Day 8 Basel, Switzerland
After breakfast, disembark and transfer to the station for your return rail journey to London aboard the Eurostar (other train stations and flight options are available at no extra cost*) (B)

Meals are included as stated: B = Breakfast, L = Lunch, D = Dinner
Itinerary is based on 27th October 2020 departure and may operate in reverse on select dates

Explore the wonders of the Mekong as you are swept through the legendary landscapes of these enchanting lands. An intoxicating blend of breathtaking natural landscapes, vibrant cities and incredible flavours, Vietnam has been an attractive destination for travellers for decades – and very few visit just once. So captivated are they with the country's incredible beauty and energetic cities that they return time and time again.

A country that boasts wondrous grace, stunning beauty and a sobering recent history, Cambodia is a land of contrast. Its highlights are plentiful, not least of which is the iconic Angkor Wat, considered the world's largest religious monument. The capital of Phnom Penh is the political and cultural hub of the country, with the gleaming gold Royal Palace and the Silver Pagoda superb examples of fascinating Khmer architecture.

An aerial photograph of a river winding through a vast, dense tropical rainforest. The river is a light brown color, contrasting with the deep green of the forest. The forest is composed of a thick canopy of trees, with some lighter green areas visible where the river has eroded the soil or where there are clearings. The river forms a large loop in the center of the frame, with smaller meanders visible further upstream and downstream.

DISCOVER THE MIGHTY AMAZON:

The World's Largest Tropical Rainforest

Everyone knows the name, but only an intrepid handful of travellers get to experience the remarkable sights and sounds of the Amazon. Meet the local communities, soak up their cultures and be astounded by nature. The Amazon Rainforest and river afford their visitors incomparable experiences, unlike any other in the world.

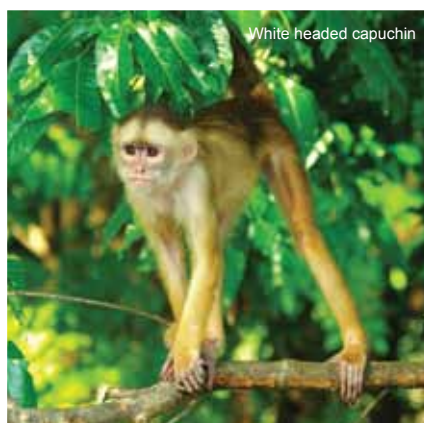

Manaus fruit stall

Victoria Regia water lilies

Poison dart frog

White headed capuchin

As you visit and cruise the Amazon, you will enter a world where the people, culture and exotic wildlife never fail to astound. Surrounded by dense rainforest, keep an eye out for the abundance of lush vegetation, beautiful flora and of course endemic species of birds, amphibians, fish, mammals and reptiles which make the Amazon their home.

The Amazonas state capital of Manaus sits on the banks of the Rio Negro, around 1,000 miles inland from the gaping mouth of the Amazon River. A major port for both tourism and industry, the city takes its name from the indigenous Manaos tribe and was at the centre of the region's 19th century rubber boom. Learn about this once prosperous - but exploitative - trade at the rubber museum, then explore hedonistic remnants in the city centre. Visit grand palatial mansions and admire the golden-domed Teatro Amazonas opera house, an extravagant structure built with imported stone, French tiles and Italian frescoes. Hear about its Indian history and discover the traditions of the native Tupi people; stop off at the Art Nouveau-style Adolpho Lisboa Municipal Market or head to the golden beaches of the Ponta Negra neighbourhood, all on your memorable cruise to the Amazon.

Its location in the middle of the Amazon rainforest makes Manaus an ideal starting point for jungle exploration. Venture into this biodiverse eco-wonderland on foot to view an extensive array of flora and fauna, including monkeys, caiman, manatee and Brazil nut trees. Climb aboard a motorised canoe or speedboat to journey along smaller igarapes (small bodies of water), to discover the untouched Anavilhanas archipelago and to see the stilted houses of the Ribeirinhos (river people). Search for huge Victoria Regia water lilies at Lago Janauari Ecological Park, meet a rural community at Ilha Terra Nova, or swim with pink dolphins at Lago Acajatuba.

Don't miss the 'Meeting of the Waters' on your Amazon cruise, the point where the black Rio Negro converges with the sandy Rio Solimões, flowing side-by-side without mixing as they form the Amazon River. Here, you will find Santarém, one of the oldest cities you will visit on a cruise through the Amazon.

NORTHERN LIGHTS PROMISE

Hurtigruten are sure that the spectacular Northern Lights will make an appearance on your 11 nights Hurtigruten voyage. If not, they'll give you another voyage for FREE. That's their promise to you.

IMMERSIVE ADVENTURE

With Hurtigruten's wide range of seasonal shore excursions*, you can get closer to the local culture and wildlife. The winter months feature incredible optional extras including dog sledding, snowmobiling and guided city tours – plus so much more!

POLE POSITION

Hurtigruten sails directly beneath the Auroral Zone, an area of continuous and consistent aurora activity around the North Pole. Travelling at sea under the Auroral Zone means that displays can appear right above the ship. Outdoor observation decks provide a clear view of the sky, avoiding the artificial ambient light that is common on land.

NORWAY'S COASTAL KITCHEN

Expect sumptuous seafood caught fresh that morning, local fare such as cured lamb from Hellesylt, roast reindeer from Finnmark, homemade cloudberry jam, and ice cream from a Lofoten dairy.

Day 1 Fly from London to Bergen, Norway*

Transfer to the port and embark your ship. Since 1893, Hurtigruten ships have provided vital links between cities, towns and hamlets on Norway's shores, delivering post, local passengers, freight and today holidaymakers up and down the stunning Norwegian coast. When you sail with Hurtigruten, you are on an expedition with like-minded adventurers who value personal growth and exploring over luxury. On board enjoy a casual and relaxed atmosphere, great food, and all the quality equipment you need to explore new destinations

Day 2 Florø – Molde, Norway

Day 3 Kristiansund – Rørvik, Norway

Day 4 Cross the Arctic Circle

Brønnøysund – Svolvær, Norway

You are invited out on deck for a traditional ceremony to mark crossing the Arctic Circle. Being above the Arctic Circle provides the best chances for experiencing the Northern Lights

Day 5 Stokmarknes – Skjervøy, Norway

Try your hand at husky dog sledding* on an optional excursion

Day 6 Øksfjord – Berlevåg, Norway (for optional excursions to the North Cape*)

Enjoy magnificent sub-Arctic landscapes as you cross the 71st parallel on your journey towards the North Cape

Day 7 Båtsfjord – Kirkenes – Berlevåg, Norway

The ship turns at Kirkenes, and ports visited at night northbound will now be seen during the day southbound

Day 8 Mehamn – Tromsø, Norway

You arrive in Tromsø at night where you can enjoy a local night out or visit the Arctic Cathedral for a magical midnight concert*

Day 9 Tromsø – Stamsund, Norway

The island groups of Lofoten and Vesteralen offer some of the most stunning scenery you will see during the entire voyage

Day 10 Bodø – Rørvik, Norway

See the spectacular winter scenery of the picturesque Helgeland coast, including the Seven Sisters Mountain Range and the distinctive Torghatten Mountain

THE FUTURE IS GREEN

Hurtigruten have made history by removing all single-use plastics from their ships. In the hope that other cruise lines will follow suit, Hurtigruten, who sail to some of the world's most remote, pristine and delicate environments, have made their announcement at a time when concern for rising plastic in the oceans is at an all time high. To ensure they are operating with the smallest footprint possible, Hurtigruten have removed plastic straws, coffee lids and plastic bags on all of their 14 ships, even single-use butter packaging!

Uncover the Mysteries of Easter Island

Just south of the Tropic of Capricorn, Easter Island, or Rapa Nui, lies 3,790 kilometres to the west of Chile. Extraordinarily remote, this island was first inhabited by Polynesians who are believed to have arrived by sea about 1,200 years ago. The island is best known as the site of more than 600 stone statues, or Moai, which stand up to nine metres in height.

The statues were carved in the spectacular Rano Raraku quarry and were then transported to have been transported on wooden rollers to their destinations. Little is known about these fascinating statues, and during your full day tours, you can begin to uncover the legends that surrounds Easter Island.

ACCESS TO THE EXPERTS

On this sailing you will be accompanied by highly qualified naturalist guides, who will share with you their deep knowledge of the Galápagos archipelago. Together, you will explore each island, trekking over black lava rocks where marine iguanas sun themselves, to see Galápagos tortoises, sea turtles and the iconic blue-footed Boobies.

Brazilian Brigadeiro

Brigadeiro, a traditional Brazilian dessert, found fame in 1945, shortly after the end of WWII. During campaigns for a new president, candidate Eduardo Gomes, whose military rank was Brigadier (Brigadeiro), decided to sell candy to further enhance his popularity among the people. There was, however, a problem. Post-war, there was an immense lack of fresh milk and sugar, which complicated the task of making any candy. So, they decided to resort to condensed milk, mixing it with butter and chocolate. It created what was then known as "the candy of the Brigadeiro" and was sold during the campaign, trying to achieve votes through the palate of the electorate. These days, Brigadeiro is a popular dessert in Brazil and is considered a national icon, with Brigadeiro boutiques offering over 50 flavours!

Ingredients:

- 3 tbsp unsalted butter, plus a little extra
- 400g tin sweetened condensed milk
- 4 tbsp cocoa powder
- 1 tsp vanilla extract

To decorate:

- 50g toasted chopped pistachio
- 50g flaked almond
- 50g desiccated coconut

Method:

1. In a medium heavy-based saucepan, heat the butter, condensed milk, a pinch of salt and the cocoa to boiling, stirring constantly with a wooden spoon. Reduce the heat to medium-low; cook for 10-15 minutes, stirring constantly until the mixture is thick and shiny and starts to pull away from the bottom.

2. Stir in the vanilla extract and vigorously mix again. Pour the mixture onto a buttered plate. Chill for at least 2 hours.
3. Butter your hands and pinch off some of the dough to make 2.5cm balls. Place your toppings into small bowls and roll the balls in the decorations. Place in mini paper baking cups or on a tray lined with non-stick baking paper.
