Hurtigruten have ordered a third hybrid-powered expedition cruise ship, to be delivered in the summer of 2021. Custom-built and ice-strengthened, the new ship will join MS Roald Amundsen and MS Fridtjof Nansen as part of a growing fleet of green expedition ships.

Hurtigruten CEO Daniel Skjeldam said: "These are greener, more advanced cruise ships than the world has ever seen – and ships that will raise standards for the whole industry to follow, as we enter a new era of expedition cruising driven by sustainability."

Announcing the Celebrity Revolution

CELEBRITY ARE TAKING THEIR FLEET TO THE EDGE

The Celebrity Revolution is a $500 million investment to the fleet, giving Celebrity the opportunity to bring their world-class suites and staterooms to a whole new level. To Suite Class they are bringing Kelly Hoppen's visionary ideas, originally seen on board Celebrity Edge[®], infusing suites with a fusion of East meets West. It's not just the suites that are getting a design overhaul. Every room - from Inside and Ocean View Staterooms to Concierge Class and AquaClass[®] Staterooms - is being boldly rethought.

For Suite Class guests, they are also introducing an exclusive new sanctuary called The Retreat. Delicious culinary experiences and beautiful dining venues come as standard on a Celebrity cruise, but they're revolutionising those too. The Main Restaurants will be transformed to perfectly prepare you for the mouth-watering journey ahead, and the Oceanview Café will be redesigned to offer a market place-inspired dining experience. Qsine is getting a fresh new look too, with the introduction of virtual Le Petit Chef[™]. Dining on board Celebrity has never tasted better.

From reinvented bars and lounges, to new retail venues and enhancements to the Spa, Celebrity ships have never looked so good.

JOIN THE NEWLY-REFURBISHED CELEBRITY SILHOUETTE[®] DURING HER MAIDEN SEASON IN ANTARCTICA ON PAGES 24-25. OR CHOOSE FROM A SELECTION OF NO-FLY SAILINGS ON PAGES 22-23!

Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and the Daily Telegraph Travel's cruise expert. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for ten years.

A CRUISE FOR ALL SEASONS

There are so many great new ships and cruises to pick from in 2019, that choosing just one is a tough call. My solution? Make your New Year's resolution to treat yourself to one for each season. Here's what I've got my eye on...

SPRING

If you like wine, you'll love Uniworld River Cruises' Brilliant Bordeaux sailings on the Garonne and Dordogne Rivers in Southwest France. There are wine tastings most days and, from April, a new river ship. Sort of. Bon Voyage is actually Uniworld's River Royale with a new look and new name. She'll have a pool, extra suites, smart new bathrooms and a choice of restaurants including a casual eatery by the pool and French bistro in the bow.

Eating is something I did plenty of on the Edge. *Celebrity Edge*SM that is. Last November she went straight from the French shipyard where she was built to her winter home in Fort Lauderdale, but I was lucky enough to be one of the first people to get on her and she is simply stunning. The good news, is she's coming back to Europe next spring and making the UK her first stop. She's heading to the Med on a 10 night cruise from Southampton to Civitavecchia, the port for Rome, departing 15th May. The guys at ROL Cruise have all the details. Please do not miss out!

ROL has a couple of other tantalising spring cruises to tempt you. While putting pen to paper for this issue of Blue Horizons, what should pop into my inbox but a message about an enticing Caribbean voyage from Jamaica to London Tilbury on Cruise and Maritime Voyages' Magellan departing on 15th March. It's a great itinerary that spends five days exploring the West Indies before a relaxing for a few days sailing home via the Azores. Just what the doctor ordered to cure the winter blues.

Wait until May and you can join Cunard's iconic Queen Elizabeth as she ventures to the last frontier on a mini-series of cruises to Alaska. We're talking whales, bears and icy glaciers. ROL Cruise is selling the cruises, which are all 10 nights, all round-trip from Vancouver and all calling at Ketchikan, Juneau, Skagway and Sitka.

SUMMER

If it's July it has to be Spirit of Discovery, Saga Cruises' first-ever new ship. She'll be British through and through, have all-balcony cabins and suites, and 109 rooms for solo travellers. She'll also have five places to eat including The Club by Jools in partnership with music legend Jools Holland (he is playing there on selected cruises) and, from 2020, drinks-inclusive prices. You'll find out more about Saga's bestselling cruises elsewhere in this edition of Blue Horizons.

Staying close to home, 6th June marks the 75th anniversary of the D-Day Landings in Normandy and Azamara Club

Spirit of Discovery,
The Club by Jools

Cruises[®] is saluting the heroic efforts of those who took part with a remembrance cruise that will visit Cherbourg and Honfleur on 5th and 6th June. This also includes excursions to the landing beaches, Pegasus Bridge and Arromanches, where you can see the remains of the Mulberry Harbour built to get troops ashore. The cruise is from Barcelona to Greenwich departing 28th May.

Further afield, Emerald Waterways' new ship Emerald Harmony joins Angkor Wat, Ho Chi Minh City, Phnom Penh, history, culture, exotic markets as yet another good reason for cruising the Mekong River in Vietnam and Cambodia. Harmony will have an outdoor pool and bar and two swanky Owner's Suites with wrap-around terraces and hot tubs. She launches in August and will sail seven night cruises between Siem Reap and Ho Chi Minh City that can be added to stays in Hanoi and Ha Long Bay.

AUTUMN

Cruisers loved Norwegian Bliss so much that Norwegian Cruise Line is giving us an Encore. Norwegian Encore comes out at the end of October and will have go-karts, laser tag, a water park and high-speed flumes. So far so Bliss. But what's that in the theatre? An unlikely story about a shoe factory, dancing drag queens and red boots to die for. If you've never seen Kinky Boots the Musical, book a cruise, take your seat and get ready for a fun-tastic two hour show.

Talking of dancing, as the autumn leaves start to fall, Scenic's swish new discovery yacht will be seeking out the sights and sounds of Cuba on a voyage from Nassau in the Bahamas to Havana. Cuba is my favourite island in all the Caribbean for its lively spirit and interesting history, while Scenic Eclipse promises to be a fabulous vessel, with all-balcony accommodation, numerous places to eat and a spa made for pampering. Could you want a more perfect combination! The cruise departs on 7th October, and includes overnights in Havana, Santiago de Cuba and Cienfuegos.

WINTER

Why stay in the UK in winter when you can cruise Antarctica in summer on Hurtigruten's new ship Roald Amundsen? True, it'll still be pretty nippy down at the

Roald Amundsen in Antarctica

Celebrity EdgeSM Spa

South Pole, even if it is high summer, but the scenery is out of this world and you'll be sailing on the first-ever cruise ship able to switch to battery power now and then, and cruise silently among the icebergs. Magical!

If you don't fancy getting your chills at the ends of the earth, Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines' Islands of Indonesia voyage in search of Komodo Dragons might be just the ticket. You'll sail from Phuket in Thailand to Bali, have a few hours to seek out the giant lizards and a day in Semarang, gateway to stunning Borobudur Temple, 60 miles from the city. It's famous for having been hidden in the jungle for 1,000 years and was only rediscovered in 1814 by Sir Stamford Raffles – the very same man who founded Singapore.

The Deccan Odyssey Train

A journey aboard Deccan Odyssey – The Blue Limousine on Rolling Wheels – is a superlative experience. Where else would you find a UNESCO World Heritage Site, a palatial residence and tigers basking in the glory of sun? The luxury train journey aboard Deccan Odyssey is one of the most exciting and grand ways to travel, marked by sheer opulence and pomp. While the Ranthambore National Park will thrill you, the Taj Mahal will soothe your senses. On one hand the streets of Udaipur and Jaipur will fill your sight with hues, and then the rusty rugged landscape of the Ellora Caves will inspire a sense of wonder. That is just a glimpse of all that the Deccan Odyssey train holds for you. The Deccan Odyssey train, with its luxurious amenities and gracious services, is reminiscent of the lifestyle lived by the maharajas in the erstwhile era.

Your home from home

Echoing the penchant of the erstwhile Maharajas, all the 12 guest accommodation coaches of Deccan Odyssey train are outfitted with cosy furniture and personalised guest amenities. Complemented by the very best of personal services, travelling on the private cabins of this deluxe rail is a unique rail tour experience in India. When you travel in these elegant class cabins of the train, you can feel that the inside décor reflects several moods to suit the outside views of the landscape.

All the cabins are spacious enough where guests can roam freely with facilities like personal safe, telephone, attached bathroom, air-conditioning and a personal attendant on the round the clock service of the guests. Cabins are available in either twin or double and all include an en-suite.

Dining & Bars

The Deccan Odyssey train has two multi-cuisine restaurants – Peshwa I & Peshwa II. The brilliantly decorated interiors of these restaurants add on more flavours to each gourmet dish served by the restaurant stewards in traditional Maharashtrian attire. The fresh aroma of varied dishes welcomes guests to the restaurant cart of Deccan Odyssey. The on-site bar of Deccan Odyssey, Mumbai Hi, is the perfect place sit back in a relaxing ambience after a day discovering some incredible destinations.

Tiger Safari at Ranthambore National Park

Enjoy a day at one of the biggest and most renowned national parks in Northern India, Ranthambore National Park. Head out on safari with experienced park rangers in open trucks and spend time tracking tigers. This famous national park is the best place to spot wild tigers in Rajasthan and is one of the best locations in India to see the majestic predators in its natural habitat. At its centre is the 10th century Ranthambore Fort. Scattered around the fort are ancient temples and mosques, hunting pavilions, crocodile-filled lakes and vine-covered chhatris. Not only will you have the opportunity to see the tigers but you may encounter other possible sightings of Leopards, Sloth Bears, Indian Wild Boars, Hyenas and jackals to name a few.

10 NIGHTS DEPARTING 30TH MAY 2019

MAY 2019

Thu 30 Embark the newly-refurbished ultra-luxurious Silver Wind at London Tower Bridge and begin your 10 night all-inclusive voyage to the Norwegian fjords

JUNE 2019

Sat 1 Stavanger, Norway (arrive midday)
Stavanger has emerged as cosmopolitan and vibrant, more bustling than other cities with a population of only 110,000. Norway's most international city, it has attracted residents from more than 90 nations. Roam its cobblestone streets or wander the harbour front and you're likely to see many cafés, fine restaurants, and lively pubs, as well as many museums, galleries, and other venues that are part of its rich, dynamic art scene

Sun 2 Bergen, Norway (depart mid-afternoon)
Many visitors fall in love with Bergen, Norway's second-largest city, at first sight. Seven rounded lush mountains, pastel wood houses, the historic wharf, winding cobblestone streets, and Hanseatic relics all make it a place of enchantment

Mon 3 Hellesylt, Norway (depart midday)
Geiranger, Norway (arrive mid-afternoon)
The Geirangerfjord, which made the UNESCO World Heritage List in 2005, is Norway's most spectacular and perhaps best-known fjord. Geirangerfjord's most stunning attractions are its roaring waterfalls – the Seven Sisters, the Bridal Veil, and the Suitor

Tue 4 Ålesund, Norway (depart mid-afternoon)

Wed 5 Vik, Norway (depart late am)
Make no bones about it, this is Fjordland at its finest. Named by the National Geographic Traveller magazine as "the world's most iconic destination", legend has it that Vikings and Trolls battled on these very waters and the pretty stave churches – of which Vik has two – are built on sacred Norse land

Fri 14 Transit the Kiel Canal

Sat 15 Travemünde, Germany
A long river of sand greets the happy traveller who disembarks here and if the gentle Baltic sea and distinctive – and very comfortable – wicker strandkörbe (hooded beach seats), are not enough to keep you busy, then exploring the attractive riverfront is a worthwhile pastime. SAGA'S SECRET SCONES

Afternoon Tea is British institution, and for most people the scones are the highlight. Piled high with butter, cream and jam, they're an indulgent treat

We've persuaded Saga's Executive Chefs to divulge their top-secret recipe. You might be surprised by just how few ingredients they use, and how easy they are to make too. But if your homemade creations don't match the same quality as the scones served on board, may we suggest it might be time to embark on a Saga cruise to try the real thing?

Serves 6-8

Ingredients

- 225g plain flour
- 75ml whole milk
- 50g butter, diced
- 1 tbsp baking powder
- 1 egg, beaten

Method

1. Preheat the oven to 220°C/420°F, then grease a baking tray with butter.
2. Sift the flour and baking powder together in a bowl and rub in the butter with your fingertips.
3. Make a well in the centre of the flour mixture, add the beaten egg and milk, then mix to a soft dough using a round-bladed knife.
4. Turn out the dough onto a floured surface and knead very lightly until smooth. Try not to overwork it!
5. Roll out the dough to a thickness of around 2.5cm and cut into 10 or 12 rounds using a 5cm plain or fluted cutter. Keep dipping the cutter in a little flour to prevent the dough from sticking.
6. Transfer the cut-out scones to the baking sheet, brush the tops with a little beaten egg, then bake for eight minutes until risen and golden.
7. Allow them to cool on a wire rack, then serve slightly warm with butter, jam and cream. Whether the cream goes on top or under the jam, we'll leave you to decide!
