DISCOVER THE SPIRIT OF THE RHINE WITH SAGA'S NEW RIVER CRUISE SHIP

Over 50s specialist cruise line, Saga, have announced that they will be building their first river cruise ship which will sail on European rivers from Spring 2021.

Spirit of the Rhine will feature 95 17-sq-ft cabins with a capacity for 190 passengers, all of which will have a French Balcony and floor-to-ceiling windows. HELLO AND WELCOME TO THE DECEMBER EDITION OF BLUE HORIZONS

Jeremy Dickinson
Chairman, ROL Cruise

We are delighted to bring to you the opportunity to travel to some of the world's most enviable locations; whether it's incredible wildlife or mesmerising local cultures that appeal, we're sure to have the cruise for you in this edition of Blue Horizons.

One of the most endangered of mammals, the orangutan can be found in the tropical forests of Borneo. Embark on an ROL Cruise exclusive – the Borneo & Southeast Asia Launch Promotion – featuring a seven night Borneo land tour. Visit the Sepilok Orangutan Sanctuary and see these amazing creatures first hand, plus you'll enjoy exclusive ROL Cruise benefits. Turn to pages 40-41 to find out more.

Perhaps even wilder than the forests of Borneo is the 'Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth', the Calgary Stampede. We've an exciting Signature Experience on offer on pages 4-5, taking you to Canada to behold this incredible spectacle of horsemanship and culture for yourself. Featuring GoldLeaf hotels and GoldLeaf Service seats on board Rocky Mountaineer for all bookings, this is one promotion not to miss out on.

Not many have heard of the Corinth Canal, but they certainly have heard of Fred. Olsen's incredible achievement; taking Braemar through this narrow canal, the largest ship ever to do so. She's set to repeat this remarkable feat in 2022, and you can join her on pages 12-13. This sailing is selling extremely fast, so please don't miss out!

There's nothing like cruising the way you want. That's why Celebrity Cruises® are now offering Sail Your Way, where you can choose from up to four perks. From drinks packages to on board spend, gratuities to Wi-Fi, the choice is yours on pages 6-8.

Happy Christmas from all at ROL Cruise!

ROL NEWS

ROL CRUISE CONTINUE GREEN INITIATIVE

In June this year, ROL Cruise announced that Blue Horizons and any other brochure you receive from us will be 100% recyclable. We want to protect our environment, as well as taking you on voyages to see it, so we introduced potato starch polybags and FSC & PEFC certified paper marketing to our standard way of working to help create a sustainable future.

Now, we are delighted to announce that we have continued our green initiative and reduced our carbon footprint by fitting photovoltaic solar panels – also known as solar PV. These will catch the sun's energy and convert it into electricity, representing a clean, green source of energy.

ROL CRUISE WINS BEST RIVER CRUISE PARTNER

On 7th November 2019 we attended APT Cruising's Signature Awards Lunch in Covent Garden, London. The event, which was held at The Ivy Market Grill, was an exclusive afternoon of great food, celebrations and a special appearance from APT's Ambassador for the Kimberley, TV Chef John Torode.

We thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon and were ecstatic to come away with the 'Best River Cruise Partner 2019' award – a huge thank you to our incredible team for all your hard work!

If you missed out on this exceptional experience, then fear not! ROL Cruise are delighted to present to you the Official No-Fly 2022 Corinth Canal & Greek Islands Launch Promotion. Join Braemar on a 25 night cruise that will not only have you yearning to discover more about the ancient history of Greece, but will allow you to experience sailing through the impressive Corinth Canal. There is nothing akin to sailing through the imposing, sheer canal walls, close either side of you, which is only possible due to Braemar's smaller size, with some parts of the canal being as narrow as 81ft wide. There is also the added benefit that with every port of call, you will be able to dock closer to the heart of each destination. Meaning you get to enjoy each incredible destination as quickly and as in depth as you wish. The 2021 sailing sold very fast, and many missed the opportunity to secure their preferred room. INCREDIBLE DESTINATIONS AT THE TOP OF THE WORLD...

The adventurer inside you will alight with excitement as Boudicca sets off for four corners of the Arctic region – Norway, Svalbard, Iceland and Greenland. Specially timed to capture seasonal highlights and natural phenomena, see below to discover the highlights of this unmissable adventure...

★ Greenland – the world's largest island ★

The weaving, icy waterways of Greenland's Prins Christiansund are the perfect scenic route to the rugged south coast and Narsarsuaq and Nanortalik. From Narsarsuaq, you'll be able to discover the icebergs on the majestic Qooroq Ice Fjord. While just outside the town is Signal Hill, which offers panoramic views of the fjord and the icebergs occasionally seen floating past. Nanortalik will be the perfect place to experience the remote living of the Greenlandic community. Cruising the Tunulliarfik Fjord and Tasermiut Fjord will also make for some memorable scenic cruising.

★ Norway – renowned fjords, tumbling waterfalls and picturesque villages ★

Spending just under a week in Norway, you'll get to explore astonishing, untouched landscapes. You'll also journey along some of the world's most magnificent waterways, passing through Nærøysundet and by Torghatten and the incredible Seven Sisters Mountain range. With anticipation building, you'll cross the line into the famed Arctic Circle before docking in Tromsø. Known as the 'Gateway to the Arctic', Honningsvåg, allows visits to the Nordkapp (North Cape), Europe's most northernmost point and will bring an end to your time in Norway but not before cruising by the North Cape and The Horn.

★ Svalbard – a natural wonderland ★

Longyearbyen, situated at 78° north, is widely regarded as the world's northernmost town. It is also the largest settlement in Svalbard, home to some 2,000 inhabitants, several reindeer and arctic fox too. The town was only established as a permanent settlement in 1906 to exploit local coal reserves and is named after American mining specialist, John M. Longyear. The Svalbard Museum provides insights into the life of miners. Following your departure, you'll experience some remarkable scenic cruising too including along Tempelfjorden – a fjord named after the mountain Templet, which resembles a temple – and by the Tuna Glacier.

★ Iceland – the land of fire and ice ★

Reykjavik makes for a fantastic start to your time in Iceland. It is within easy reach of the iconic Golden Circle Trail, which includes the Blue Lagoon Spa, the Thingvellir National Park, the renowned Gullfoss Waterfall and the incredible Geysir hot springs. The next leg of your Icelandic adventure is the town of Ísafjörður – which isn't visited by larger cruise ships. It's ideally placed for you to discover the spectacular landscape of Vigur, home to thousands of arctic terns, eider ducks, black guillemots and more. You'll then head north to Akureyri, with its lush vegetation and diverse wildlife – which includes humpback whales, minke whales, white-beaked dolphins and porpoises. This is a place you'll never forget.

A scenic cruise along the shores of Toget Island allows you see one of Norway's most astonishing natural wonders – Torghatten Mountain. The mountain is known affectionately as 'the mountain with the hole', Torghatten is famous for the huge tunnel that strikes right through the middle of it and has to be seen to be believed

Cruising by Seven Sisters Mountain range

Forming a majestic chain of peaks overlooking the shipping channel, the Seven Sister mountain range is an awe-inspiring backdrop to the myriad of islands and Norwegian landscapes. Standing 1,000 feet above the shoreline, these beautiful women are perhaps best observed in all their glory from your ship. It is possible to climb them, and to learn the legend of the trolls who were turned to stone!

Cross Arctic Circle 66°33'

Thu 19 Svolvær, Lofoten, Norway

Cruising Trollfjord

Fri 20 Tromsø, Norway

The island city of Tromsø is one of northern Norway's true delights. A major cultural hub above the Arctic Circle, Tromsø's most recognisable landmark is the must-visit Arctic Cathedral. Built in 1965, the cathedral's distinctive iceberg-shaped design was inspired by the landscapes of Northern Norway and features a beautiful glass mosaic

SEPTEMBER 2021

Thu 2 Nanortalik, Greenland

Nanortalik – Greenland's most southerly town – is unlike any other town in the country. Sat on a small island at the end of a wonderful fjord and surrounded by vast snow-topped mountains, the 'Place of Polar Bears' is unique. The small woodlands and prairies against a spectacular backdrop make this a nature lover's paradise. Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 13 years.

A SQUEEZE THROUGH

Some people collect stamps, others pick up fridge magnets from the places they visit. Me? I collect canals. True you can't bring them home and put them on the mantelpiece, but they've given me some great memories that don't just sit collecting dust for years to come.

Watching the 'mules' that hold ships steady as they inch through the locks in Panama, seeing great cargo ships apparently 'floating' on sand in Suez, climbing over a mountain on the Main-Danube Canal in Germany, peeking into people's back gardens from the Kiel Canal, also in Germany.

And then there is the Corinth Canal in Greece. At just under four miles from end to end, it's the shortest canal ocean cruisers can traverse and probably the least known – or it was until October, when Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines' Braemar made history by becoming the largest ship ever to transit the waterway.

The origins of the canal date back almost 2,000 years to the ancient Greeks, who had an idea to cut a channel through the narrow Isthmus of Corinth so ships could sail from one side of the Aegean Sea to the other without having to go all the way around the Peloponnese – but they never did anything.

Roman emperor Julius Caesar also considered building a canal but was assassinated before he had a chance to put his plan into action. So it was down to Emperor Nero to get the ball rolling in 67AD. Some 6,000 slaves and prisoners of the Roman empire were put to work on the project but a year later Nero committed suicide so it all came to a grinding halt again.

The workers had managed to cut about a tenth of the way through the isthmus but more importantly they left a relief, believed to represent Nero as the Roman god Hercules, to mark their efforts. I got a quick glimpse of it when I ticked Corinth off my must-do list three years ago.

The Greeks were inspired to resurrect the project after Suez opened in 1869 but it took another 13 years before construction started. A French company was hired to do it, presumably because Ferdinand

Trains, plains and a cruise on Muse

The evening before I was due to pen this month's column, I happened to see Michael Portillo's programme on Australia's Indian Pacific Railroad. What an amazing journey.

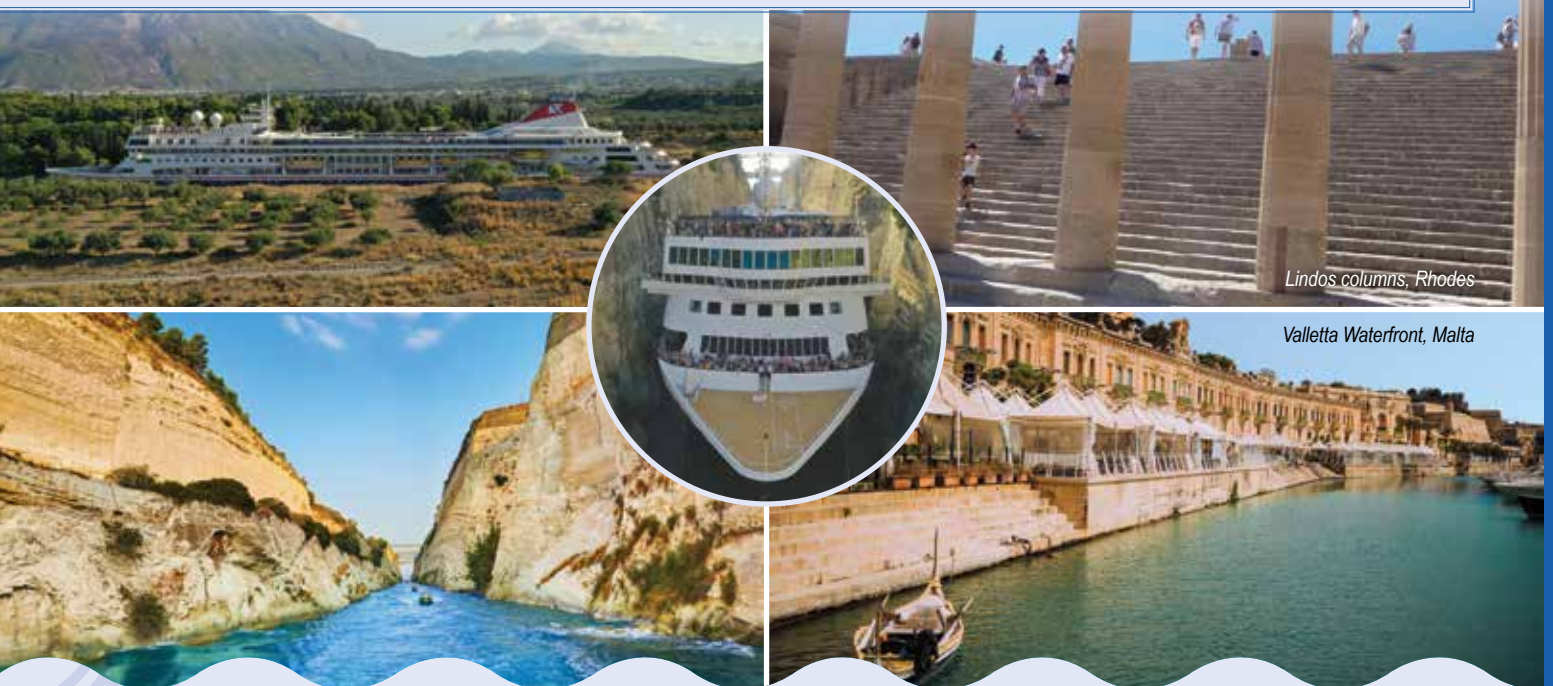

Stretching some 2,704 miles from Perth to Sydney, it takes you along a 300-mile stretch of dead straight track, traverses the treacherous Nullarbor Plain – a vast flat area about the size of England and Scotland with no water, few roads and no trees (hence the name, which comes from the Latin 'nullus arbor'), and where summer temperatures soar to 50 degrees centigrade.

The journey includes short stops to explore Cook (population:

four!) and Kalgoorlie, a town founded during Australia's 1893 gold rush that mines the precious metal to this day, and also a quick whizz around Adelaide, a great city I've got well acquainted with over the past three years as my daughter is at university there.

Why am I telling you this? Well it turns out ROL Cruise has put together a fabulous holiday that pairs three nights on the Indian Pacific train with an 18 night voyage from Sydney to Singapore on Silversea's luxurious Silver Muse that calls into Cairns for the Great Barrier Reef and Komodo Island in Indonesia, home of the eponymous dragons, among a raft of other great ports. You'll find details elsewhere in this issue of Blue Horizons.

THE PELOPONNESE

de Lesseps, the man behind Suez, was French so they were deemed experts when it came to canals.

They weren't. The company went bust, so construction was put in the hands of the Greek company and finally, another 11 years later, it was completed.

By the time it opened on 25th July 1893, some 11 million cubic metres of earth and stone had been cut out of the isthmus, turning the Peloponnese, which had been connected to the Greek mainland, into an island.

The Corinth Canal is the most striking of all the ocean canals – enclosed on both sides by near-vertical rocky cliffs that tower 300 feet above the sea and just 81 feet wide at the water's surface.

Given Braemar is almost 74 feet wide, it really was a case of 'breathe in' during the hour and a half transit. No wonder Captain Jozo Glavic said it was the biggest achievement in his career and one he will never forget.

I doubt the passengers will either. They were all out on deck as Braemar squeezed through. "Everyone was amazed at how close we were to the sides," said Captain Glavic. "It was breathtaking to witness... to be part of making history."

In case you missed this year's record-breaking transit, and have not been quick enough to grab a room for a repeat performance in 2021, Braemar will be going through the Corinth Canal again in 2022 as part of a 25 night Greek Islands round-trip voyage from Southampton.

The canal is the highlight, but the rest of the itinerary is pretty fab. A stop in the Maltese capital of Valletta, which has one of the most beautiful ports in the Mediterranean, a visit to the stunning Lindos acropolis in Rhodes, a chance to eat out during an overnight stay in Patras and a visit ancient Olympia from Katakolon, and much more. You'll find details elsewhere in this issue of Blue Horizons.

DISCOVERING SCENIC ECLIPSE

– THE WORLD’S FIRST DISCOVERY YACHT™

Gemma Pallister, Commercial Manager at ROL Cruise, was lucky enough to join Scenic’s brand new Discovery Yacht, Scenic Eclipse, on her maiden cruise from New York. Here’s what she discovered...

1 What were your first impressions of Scenic Eclipse?

As I stepped on board for the first time I was overcome with excitement, I knew sailing on the ‘World’s First Discovery Yacht™’ was going to be a very special experience. Upon embarkation, I was shown to the lounge and was taken aback by how big the area was considering there would only ever be a maximum of 228 guests on board.

The design was so elegant and in keeping with the sleek lines of the ship’s exterior design. Everything had been finished to the highest standards which was reflected throughout the whole ship: comfortable theatre seats with electric recliners; authentic seating design in the Asian restaurant Koko’s; artwork commissioned specifically for Scenic Eclipse; Bose headphones in the spa relaxation area. Scenic really have spared no expense.

Scenic have extended their classic river cruise inclusions into ocean cruising including their Freechoice and Enrich excursion programme, butler service for all guests, complimentary premium branded beverages, included gratuities and more. It’s clear from the start you are going to be part of something special and experiencing a true expedition voyage in complete luxury.

2 You stayed in a Spa Suite on board, how do you think this adds to the expedition cruise experience?

Luxury meets discovery on board Scenic Eclipse and the Spa Suites are the epitome of luxury. The Spa Suites range from 538-560 sq. ft and it was my not so little slice of heaven on board. The four-poster king size Scenic ‘Slumber beds’ are adjustable so at the push of a button you can raise your head and feet. Honestly, this was the most comfortable bed I’ve ever had the good fortune of sleeping in. The Philippe Stark designed spa bath is exclusive to the spa suites and is simply divine. It was the perfect end to the day unwinding in a nice hot bath with jacuzzi bubbles while staring out to the vistas over my private verandah.

3 The service on board Scenic Eclipse is second-to-none, do you have any highlights from the service on board?

The staff on board play a big part in making the experience what it is. They quickly get to know you by name and are eager to help and impress. One evening I dined in the Asian restaurant Koko’s where my server was Marianne, one of the most cheerful and attentive waitresses I’ve ever the pleasure to meet. During the welcome meeting, the Captain joked that if you get up in the night for the bathroom then housekeeping will have made your bed by the time you get back. He wasn’t wrong, I never saw our housekeeper but by the time I got back from breakfast each day the room was already made and spotless.

You’ll often see the Captain in the restaurants, the expedition team chatting to guests in the lounge and the helicopter and submarine pilots walking around the ship, all of whom are eager to answer any questions and tell tales of their previous experiences. The crew make you feel more than just a guest and offer a personal experience tailored to you.

4 Scenic Eclipse enhances the cruise experience by offering tours on Zodiacs, kayaks, e-bikes, a helicopter and a submarine. What were your impressions of these on board innovations?

From my experience, I thought the cruise alone sets a new benchmark in ultra-luxury cruising and when you add these unique innovations, Scenic Eclipse offers the ultimate discovery experience. The discovery programme allows guests to explore further than ever before offering numerous opportunities to discover Mother Nature at her finest.

The jewel in the crown of the discovery experience are the helicopters and submarine. The state-of-the-art Airbus H130 helicopters are one of the quietest helicopters in the skies and can seat up to six guests. They feature a spacious cabin with plenty of leg room, outstanding visibility for all passengers, an exclusive interior design with leather seats, air conditioning, climate control, noise cancelling Bose headsets plus internal and external cameras providing footage of your flight. You really feel like a pioneer as you soar above places previously inaccessible on a cruise for a unique bird’s eye view.

Scenic Neptune – the state-of-the-art submarine – adds a completely new dimension to expedition cruising offering a chance to witness marine life in its natural habitat. The U-Boat Worx Cruise Submarine 7 is capable of diving up to a depth of 984 feet, with spacious seating for six guests and is custom-built for optimal sightseeing. An excursion under the ocean would be a truly unforgettable experience with all passengers enjoying the same uninterrupted views as there is no ‘back seat’. The seats are also mounted on revolving platforms to view all directions through two ultra-clear acrylic spheres ensuring you never miss a moment on your voyage under the sea.

5 What do you think sets Scenic apart from other 6★ cruise lines?

Helen Mirren is Godmother to Scenic Eclipse and during the Naming Ceremony in New York she commented “I agreed because of the ship’s environmental credentials – she’s one of the greenest out there and that was crucial to me”. It looks like Scenic Eclipse has the royal seal of approval from ‘the Queen’ herself!

Scenic Eclipse offers the whole package – expedition cruising in truly all-inclusive luxury. Where else can you spend the morning diving below the ocean’s surface in a submarine, the afternoon being pampered in the most tranquil spa and the evening savouring French cuisine that would rival many Michelin star restaurants, followed by a spa bath in your indulgent suite as you look out to sea?

SEVEN NIGHTS DEPARTING 25TH JULY, 8TH AUGUST, 20TH & 27TH OCTOBER 2020

Day 1 Fly from London to Amsterdam. Upon arrival, transfer to your Emerald Waterways luxury river cruise ship for your seven night river cruise (D)

Day 2 Amsterdam, Netherlands
Today, you can choose to relax during a glass-top canal boat tour through Amsterdam's elaborate UNESCO World Heritage-listed canal system, or embark on a guided bike tour to Waterland, passing quintessential villages, traditional windmills and fields that are bursting with colourful tulips. Enjoy sailing through the countryside and on towards the Rhine River this afternoon, perhaps enjoying a drink on the Sun Deck and watching the passing scenery before joining your captain for a gala dinner (B, L, D)

EmeraldACTIVE: A guided bike tour to Waterland

Day 3 Cologne, Germany
Your included walking tour of the city will touch on the historical charm of its old town, and you will have the opportunity to traverse rustic alleyways, visit iconic monuments and see how archaeologists have uncovered a Jewish quarter that can be dated back to the 13th century. Your insightful tour will conclude at the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Cologne Cathedral, a Gothic building whose twin spires dominate the skyline. The original medieval plans for the building were partly found in the attic, and partly found on the stall of a bookseller in France centuries later, meaning that, while construction of the cathedral started back in 1248, it wasn't finished until 1880 (B, L, D)

EmeraldPLUS: A guided city walking tour

Day 4 Koblenz, Germany
Today, join your local guide for an insightful walking tour of Koblenz, passing examples of architecture that survived the war years, including the Church of Our Lady. Later, a sailing journey through the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Rhine Gorge will highlight the extraordinary beauty of an area that left the philosophers and artists of the German Romanticism movement entranced (B, L, D)

EmeraldPLUS: A guided walking tour of Koblenz

Day 5 Mannheim – Heidelberg, Germany
Heidelberg is a fascinating place, famously described by revered author Mark Twain as 'a fallen Milky Way'. Join an orientation tour of the old town to discover an 'intricate cobweb of streets', and pass many of Heidelberg's highlights, including the oldest university in Germany. Alternatively, embark on an active hike from Mount Königstuhl to Heidelberg (B, L, D)

EmeraldACTIVE: A hike from Mount Königstuhl to Heidelberg

EmeraldEXCURSION: A guided tour of Heidelberg with wine tasting

Day 6 Kehl, Germany – Strasbourg, France
Dock in Kehl and be transferred to Strasbourg, a city that promises much in the way of beautiful architecture. The UNESCO World Heritage-listed Neustadt district is particularly iconic, perfectly encapsulating the Rhineland. The Neustadt district is yours to discover today during your included tour, as is the Maison Kammerzell, a prime example of German Renaissance architecture. Paying homage to the region's artistic past, Petite France is an exceptional historic quarter that looks as though it has been pulled directly from an artist's easel (B, L, D)

EmeraldPLUS: A guided tour of Strasbourg

Day 7 Breisach, Germany
A world of ornate cuckoo clocks awaits, as you set off in search of the fairytales of the Black Forest. Your included EmeraldEXCURSION will be a visit to a Black Forest village. After an immersive learning experience, watch a Black Forest gâteau demonstration followed by a tasting. Alternatively, follow forest trails that twist underneath the lush canopy of evergreens in the Black Forest, passing beautiful scenery and waterfalls. Mark Twain famously wrote, "Here you can lose track of time in 10 minutes and the world in 20" about his time in the Black Forest (B, L, D)

EmeraldPLUS: A Black Forest gâteau demonstration and tasting

EmeraldEXCURSION: A visit to a Black Forest village

DISCOVER RIO DE JANEIRO:

Brazil's 'Marvellous City'

From the rhythms of the carnival to the most stunning landscapes Mother Nature could dream up, welcome to radiant Rio...

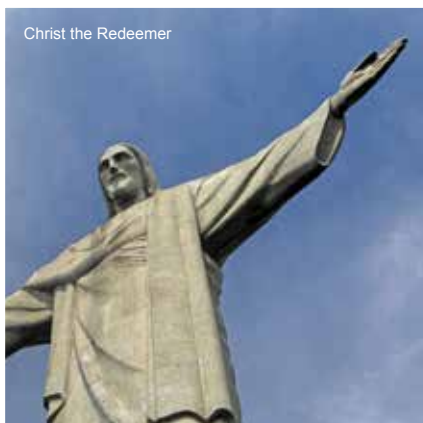

Ipanema Beach

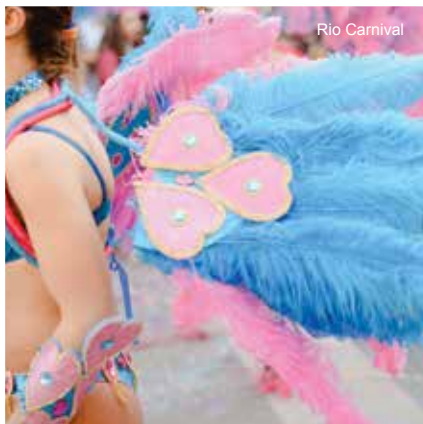

Cable Car to Sugarloaf Mountain

Christ the Redeemer

Rio Carnival

Hot all year round and with a tropical rainforest extending down to the sea, it's easy to understand why Rio de Janeiro is known as "Cidade Maravilhosa" ("The Marvellous City"). Where better to enjoy the scorching Brazilian sunshine than on the beach? Zona Sul is the area in which you'll find Rio de Janeiro's most famous beaches, including Copacabana, Ipanema and Leblon. All three are great places to swim, sunbathe or participate in water sports. When you need a retreat from the heat, sip on a Caipirinha in one of the area's pubs or grab a fresh açai smoothie from one of the many juice shops to be found on street corners throughout the city.

Ascending to the peak of the beautiful Pão de Açúcar (Sugarloaf Mountain) should be on every visitor's trip checklist. Standing at 1,299 feet (396 metres) above sea level, the mountain offers stunning views of Niterói, Copacabana and Santa Cruz Fortress. Take a scenic cable car ride to the top, or hike up if you're feeling up for a challenge. Either way, you'll enjoy the view of a lifetime.

The famous Cristo Redentor (Christ the Redeemer) statue can be seen from most districts in Rio de Janeiro and is said to protect the city with its wide, open arms. An impressive 30 metres tall, the statue sits atop the Corcovado Mountain and is listed as one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. For a closer look, take a cogwheel train or minibus to the top of the mountain, where you'll also enjoy 360 degree panoramic views of the city.

Famous for its colourful carnival and fabulous beaches, as well as the dramatic entry to its cruise port, Rio de Janeiro has plenty to offer visitors to the city.

DID YOU KNOW...

- What do the Sugar Loaf, the statue of Christ the Redeemer, and Copacabana beach postcards have in common? The Guanabara Bay is in the backdrop of all of them. Going through no less than 15 different cities, the bay is the second biggest in the country, with 53 beaches and more than one hundred islands.
- Rio is home to the eighth biggest library in the world.
- Rio's wonderful mix of nature and urban life can be seen in the Tijuca Forest, the world's largest forest to coexist with a city. Though it was once destroyed by local coffee plantations, its 32 square kilometres (12 square miles) were repopulated with millions of seedlings at the end of the 1800s and it eventually grew into an enormous forest teeming with wildlife.
- Rio de Janeiro has the largest Carnival party in the world. In 2004, over 400,000 foreign tourists flocked to the city for the celebrations and to join the 5 million locals who already participate in the famous parades and street parties.

YOUR UNMISSABLE EXPERIENCES...

WELCOME TO BORNEO – THE BEATING HEART OF THE RAINFOREST...

Home to some of the world's richest ecosystems, the island of Borneo is split between three countries – Malaysia, Indonesia and Brunei. Sabah and Sarawak are the two states that make up Malaysian Borneo and they are packed to the brim, bursting with culture, wildlife, jungles and beaches. As captivating a destination as Borneo is, it remains wonderfully off-the-beaten-track meaning that the local habitats and wildlife are untouched by modernism. You can enjoy the cosmopolitan charms of Kota Kinabalu, relax on the softest white sand, explore easily accessible tracts of virgin rainforest, discover the world's largest caves and meet the 'old men of the forest' – orangutans. On top of all this, Borneo is home to half of all the known plant and animal species in the world and to a fascinating ancient tribal culture that is still very much alive. For a truly memorable adventure, Borneo is the place to go.

SAGA

John McCerery, Spirit of Discovery's Executive Chef

Saga's Festive Roast Loin of Highland Venison With Chestnuts & Cranberries

Ingredients: (Serves 4)

- 500g loin of venison
- 75g cooked & peeled sweet chestnuts
- 75g frozen cranberries
- 2 carrots peeled & cut into cubes
- 1 whole celeriac peeled & cut into cubes
- 1 whole swede peeled & cut into cubes
- 250g creamed mashed potatoes
- 50g fresh tarragon, chopped
- 50g cooked brussel sprouts (peel the outer leaves away & keep to one side)
- 150ml vegetable oil
- 150ml ruby port wine
- 500ml red wine sauce (buy from supermarket ready-made)
- 50g shallots, peeled & diced
- 1 bay leaf & a sprig of fresh thyme
- 50g diced hard butter
- Salt & pepper (to season)

Method:

1. Place the carrots, celeriac and swede into a roasting tray and drizzle with olive oil and seasoning. Mix together and roast in a pre-heated oven for 45 – 60 minutes at 170°C. Once cooked, keep aside warm.

2. In a deep saucepan or deep fat fryer, warm the vegetable oil to 180°C. Take the brussel sprout leaves and deep fry for one minute until crispy. Place onto kitchen paper and put aside.
3. Warm the mashed potatoes and add the chopped tarragon, and place into a piping bag. Keep aside warm.
4. For the sauce: add a little oil to a saucepan and add the shallots, gently fry for 2 minutes until translucent, add the bay leaf and thyme. Pour in the port and reduce by 2/3rds, add the red wine sauce and simmer for 15 minutes. Check the consistency, if the sauce needs thickening slightly, add a little corn starch. Pass the sauce through a fine sieve into a clean pan and keep warm.
5. In a non-stick pan, gently fry the chestnuts, it's fine if they break up slightly. Add the cranberries and gently mix together. Keep aside warm.
6. In a large frying pan, heat a little olive oil and seal the loin of venison on all sides and season. Place onto a baking tray in a pre-heated oven at 160°C for 10 – 12 minutes until pink. Take out of the oven and rest for 5 minutes.
7. While the venison is resting, re-heat your vegetables, chestnuts and potatoes, ready for plating up.
8. Warm the sauce and whisk in a little hard butter to add a lovely shine.
9. Plate up your festive meal and enjoy!
