Let's hope she's for life, not just for Christmas, as the extensive renovation includes updates such as newly designed public spaces, which will be redecorated in line with the interior design of Silver Muse. The main restaurant will undergo a full upgrade, with other areas such as La Dame, the casino and the Zagara Spa will become even more luxurious with new furniture and equipment. Guest accommodation will also be improved in line with the design of Silver Muse to ensure the ultimate comfort of Silversea's guests.

Ultra-luxury Silversea are rolling out a series of refurbishments, with the launch of Silver Muse in 2017, Silver Cloud becoming an expedition ship and the lengthening and renovation of Silver Spirit and now the news of Silver Whisper's updates, this is an exciting time for Silversea!

SEVEN SEAS SPLENDOR™

*The Inaugural Season
Luxury Perfected*

ARRIVING FEBRUARY 2020

For more than 25 years, Regent Seven Seas Cruises® have made it their passion to bring to you the world's most beautiful destinations, while indulging your every wish with impeccable personalised service on board intimately spacious ships. We are proud to welcome a new era for Regent Seven Seas Cruises® as they, yet again, set a new standard for luxury by striving for the ultimate achievement – luxury perfected. In their pursuit to exceed your expectations, they are creating a work of art, from bow to stern. No expense, no effort and no detail is spared in the design of their newest ship. In the smallest details you will find care and meticulousness, and across opulent restaurants, spacious suites and sumptuous lounges, witness the majesty of expert craftsmanship and excellence in design.

As the leading agent for Regent Seven Seas Cruises®, we are honoured to unveil the singularly perfect experience at sea on board Regent Seven Seas Cruises® newest ship – Seven Seas Splendor™ – luxury perfected.

Masterful Cuisine

The artistry of Regent Seven Seas Cruises® Chefs will amaze you, as they put their heart and soul into creating culinary masterpieces. Each dish is prepared with fanatical care, showcasing the quality and presentation of complex flavours, textures and colour combinations – and deftly paired with wines hand-selected by the Sommeliers. Each elegant speciality restaurant is defined by its cuisine, allowing you to taste the flavours of the world no matter where your itinerary takes you, all combined with the Chefs' sophisticated skills and gastronomic creativity.

Inspired Spaces Perfected

Intricate marble patterns and soaring ceilings topped by sparkling chandeliers adorn your path throughout this exquisite ship. These inspired spaces foster a new level of sophisticated ambience that perfectly showcase everything Regent Seven Seas Cruises® has to offer. Wherever you turn, you will be enveloped in timeless elegance, absolute comfort and graceful hospitality, as you set off on journeys to explore awe-inspiring destinations around the world.

The Best of Everything

Your senses will be enchanted by sumptuous décor and unique art that perfectly flow from one area to the next. Similar to how you would happen upon an inviting café on an afternoon stroll, Coffee Connection is one of the spaces that once you discover, you will find yourself returning to again and again. Plus, with the new alfresco area, you may even sip your cappuccino while taking in the views. And this is just the beginning. At every turn, Seven Seas Splendor™ exudes excellence, comfort, and grace; the perfect way to arrive at places you've always dreamed of exploring.

Master, Grand & Splendor - Distinctive Suites

As a guest of these exceptional suites, you have the extraordinary opportunity to experience the highest level of service and travel in expansive spaciousness. Additionally, the most sumptuous included amenities are reserved for the Distinctive Suites, from guaranteed dining reservations to personalised Butler service, and you have the ability to customise even your most personal items, such as bed pillows and bath products, exactly to your tastes. These suites have been designed to satisfy your every wish, exceed your highest expectations of comfort and become your favourite address from which to explore the world.

Indulgent Private Retreat

Perfection begins at the very top: welcome to the timeless elegant Regent Suite. Its sprawling balcony wraps around the entire front of the ship, offering a three-sided, 270-degree view and includes a jetted hot tub and elegant seating. Inside, the two-bedroom, two-and-a-half-bathroom suite features spectacular design at every turn, including rare fine art, custom furnishing, fine marble accents, and a baby grand piano for entertaining. Among the privileges you may enjoy are the indulgent amenities, from a personal car and guide for use in all ports to unlimited in-suite spa treatments.

- Thu 20 Dubai, UAE
Upon arrival, transfer to the port and embark Boudicca for your 14 night cruise
- Fri 21 Khasab, Oman
The small, yet energetic Omani city of Khasab is a melting pot of sights, from charming old souks and historic castles, to bustling modern markets and a lively harbour. It's also the gateway to the stunning waterways and islands of the Musandam fjords – the 'Norway of Arabia'. - Sat 22 Muscat, Oman
Muscat, Oman's port capital, offers plenty of history, an air of tradition, and a distinctly exotic location – all tucked between the mountains, the sea and the desert. The ornate marble-clad Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque, with its 50m dome, can accommodate 20,000 people. This most modern of Islamic buildings is also home to the world's second largest hand-woven carpet, which took four years to thread and is made from various vibrant vegetable dyes

Capital of Oman's southern region, Salalah, known as the 'perfume city of Arabia', is famous for frankincense, banana plantations, Arabian Sea beaches and waters teeming with sea life. ## YOUR ANCIENT CITIES VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

With chances to dig deeper and immerse yourself in centuries of extraordinary history at some of the world's oldest, most famous and best-preserved 'lost cities' and holy sites, there's much more to this exciting cruise than the ports listed on the itinerary.

In Oman, you can explore the spectacular Musandam Fjords on a boat trip* from Khasab, marvel at the mosques and palaces of Muscat and discover the Lost City of Ubar on tour* from Salalah. Another of Arabia's lost cities also awaits you in Jordan; Aqaba is your gateway to spellbinding Petra.

After a scenic cruise along Egypt's Suez Canal, Boudicca will also head to the beautiful Mediterranean Coast of Israel and call at Ashdod. Here, you'll be ideally located for tours to Jerusalem – a spiritual treasure for Jewish, Muslim and Christian pilgrims – and Bethlehem, birthplace of Jesus Christ.

Vive la Liberté!

Lyon, France

Jane
ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and the Daily Telegraph Travel's cruise expert. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for ten years.

It's not often you get up at 5.30am on holiday – or at least not willingly. Yet here I am, creeping out of my cabin on Emerald Liberté and heading to the swimming pool for an early morning dip before enjoying the peace, quiet and stunning views as dawn breaks over the French countryside.

The pool, a signature feature on all Emerald Waterways' river ships, is at the back of the vessel, inside but covered by a roof that can be opened on warm days, and surrounded on three sides by floor-to-ceiling windows so you are guaranteed fantastic views while swimming.

It's such a lovely way to start the day, so much so that I've been coming here every morning of this cruise – a one week voyage along the Rhône and Saône in France – and can't wait to resume my schedule on a voyage through Eastern Europe with Emerald Waterways this summer. You can find out more about that cruise in this Blue Horizons and I'll let you know what it was like in a future issue.

Emerald Liberté, which you'll also find on sale on ROL's website, launched last summer and is a 138-passenger beauty that sails seven night cruises between Lyon and Arles or vice-versa. A journey that takes you through lush, green countryside in Burgundy and parched, rocky landscapes in Provence.

Whichever direction you choose, the itinerary is brilliant, with full days in Lyon and Arles at the start or end and lots to enjoy in between. We visited markets, tasted local food, went cycling along the rivers and hiking through vineyards. We also dipped into Roman history in Lyon, Arles and Avignon.

Our cruise began in Lyon, known as the gastronomic capital of France – some even say the world – for its multitude of restaurants serving authentic French food. You can splash out in classy Michelin-starred establishments or sample the in Lyon, do as the locals.

You usually have most of the day to enjoy Lyon on this itinerary, but we had to be back on board soon after lunch for a very important event – Emerald Liberté's naming ceremony. There were balloons, music, food and drink, and of course a bottle of champagne was smashed against the hull, and then we were off, sailing north on the Saône towards Chalon-sur-Saône.

We decided to do a DIY walking tour in Chalon, but most people skipped the town and instead joined an included tour to Beaune, to see a hospital that opened in 1443 to care for the poor and sick. This was something really revolutionary back then as patients were fed, cared for by nurses and slept in beds with sheets (most likely sharing with three or more other people though) – all at no charge. These days the hospital is a museum, and one cuisine served in one of the town's bouchon restaurants (bouchon is a local name given to bistros that serve typically Lyonnais food).

We went exploring alone, taking a funicular up above the city to see the white Basilica of Notre Dame and the remains of a nearby Roman theatre, then wandered back down to nose around the narrow, cobbled streets and seek out the traboules, the name given to alleyways between people's houses that date back to medieval times and were built to allow folk to get around town quickly. They are hidden behind huge wooden doors, and going inside does feel a bit intrusive, but as the guides say, when of the most visited sights in France on account of its spectacular multi-coloured tiled roofs.

From Chalon, we sailed back south to Mâcon – enjoyed an optional tour in Cluny, to see what remains of what was once the largest church in the world – then rejoined the Rhône at Lyon and cruised to Tournon, a town across the river from Tain L'Hermitage, where wine is king and just one hectare of land on Hermitage Hill, the birthplace of Syrah, will set you back almost £1.3 million.

After a day indulging in wine and chocolates (the Valrhona chocolate shop is not to be missed!), we continued south to Avignon, one of my favourite towns in France and home to the what remains of the famous Pont d'Avignon and the medieval Popes Palace, where seven pontiffs lived in the 1300s.

We had a packed but brilliant day – a morning in the town, an afternoon trip to the Pont du Gard, a magnificent Roman aqueduct built some 2,000 years ago, and a fabulous dinner back on board Emerald Liberté prepared by French chef Fabien Morreale, who regular readers will recall I met when I did a cookery class with him while sailing the Rhône with Scenic.

In Arles, our last stop, guide Jerome took us inside a spectacular 20,000-seat Roman amphitheatre in the middle of town that is used to this day for plays, concerts and French bullfights (very different to the Spanish variety as the bulls are not harmed) and showed us scenes that Vincent Van Gogh painted when he lived in the town in 1888 and 1889.

He also told us the back story of the obelisk in the Place de la Republique. It dates from Roman times and has sported various symbols depending on who was in power – a sun for the Sun King (Louis XIV), a Phrygian Cap for the Revolution, a Napoleonic eagle, and so on – but they got so fed up changing it that now it's just a bare needle. Politics is just no fun anymore.

23 NIGHTS DEPARTING 14TH AUGUST 2020

AUGUST 2020

Your FREE Private UK Chauffeur Service will transfer you to the airport in style**

- Fri 14 Fly from London to Copenhagen, Denmark†. Upon arrival, transfer to a hotel† for your overnight stay
- Sat 15 Copenhagen, Denmark – Kangerlussuaq, Greenland
Transfer to Copenhagen airport for your flight to Kangerlussuaq, Greenland. Upon arrival, transfer to the port and embark Scenic Eclipse for your maiden voyage through the Northwest Passage (B, D)
- Sun 16 Ilulissat – Disko Bay, Greenland
As you cruise through Disko Bay, while approaching the Iluissat icefjord, there's one thing you won't be able to miss – the icebergs, in fact the town of Iluissat is named from the Inuit word for iceberg (B, L, D)
- Mon 17 - Tue 18 ★Inuit Communities★
Known in the Greenlandic Language as Kalaallit Nunaat, meaning Land of the People, only 2,000 years ago, this island was abandoned by its original inhabitants. Explore the Upernavik region and spend time with the Inuit communities that have adapted and prevailed here and see how archaeological digs have provided a unique insight into the settlers of this land and how their traditions are alive today (B, L, D)
- Wed 19 Crossing Baffin Bay
Not navigable for most of the year due to ice cover and numerous icebergs, part of Baffin Bay, known as the North Water, opens up in the summer when the temperatures are around 4-5°C. Around 15,000 beluga whales live in this area, as well as walrus, narwhal, harp seal, bearded seal, bowhead whale, humpback and sei whales, as well as northern minke whales and polar bears (B, L, D)
- Thu 20 Pond Inlet, Canada
Leave Greenland as you navigate through Canadian waters to Pond Inlet on the northern tip of Baffin Island. Considered one of the 'jewels of the north', Pond Inlet lies at the entrance to the Northwest Passage and overlooks Eclipse Sound with the mountains of Bylot Island visible in the background. Look out for pods of narwhal and drifting icebergs that float out from the glaciers, as well as thick-billed murres and black-legged kittiwakes that nest on land and forage out at sea (B, L, D)
- Fri 21 - Sun 30 ★Across the Northwest Passage★
With Pond Inlet behind you, venture out into the Northwest Passage. Navigating delicately through the Canadian Arctic Archipelago, Scenic Eclipse will take you through this once impassable route. Connecting the Atlantic Ocean to the Pacific, this region is remote and isolated and very few have had the option to travel here. From John Cabot to James Cook and John Franklin, many explorers set out to discover this fabled route and failed, now you can go further than they were ever able to (B, L, D)
- Mon 31 Relaxing at sea (B, L, D)
- SEPTEMBER 2020
- Tue 1 Relaxing at sea
Cruising within the Arctic Circle and passing along the coast of northern Canada, you are following in the footsteps of explorer Martin Frobisher, who came to this region in search of the Northwest Passage (B, L, D)
- Wed 2 - Thu 3 Cruising Bering Strait
As you round the northern point of Alaska, you will sail through the Chukchi Sea to the Bering Strait, between the Arctic Ocean and the Pacific Ocean. 51 miles wide at its narrowest point, as you cruise north with Alaska to your port side and the Chukotka region of Russia to starboard, you will be crossing the International Date Line and straddling time zones with two different dates and a 21 hour time difference (B, L, D)
- Fri 4 Nome – Anchorage, Alaska
After breakfast, disembark and transfer to the airport for your flight to Anchorage. Upon arrival, transfer to a hotel† for your overnight stay (B)
- Sat 5 Anchorage, Alaska
Transfer to the airport for your overnight flight to London† (B)
- Sun 6 Arrive in London

Your FREE Private UK Chauffeur Service will be waiting to transfer you home in style*

Meals are included as stated: B = Breakfast, L = Lunch, D = Dinner

PREPARE FOR ADVENTURE

POLE POSITION

Hurtigruten sails directly beneath the auroral zone, an area of continuous and consistent aurora activity around the North Pole. Travelling at sea under the auroral zone means that displays can appear right above the ship. Outdoor observation decks provide a clear view of the sky, avoiding the artificial ambient light that is common on land.

PRIME TIME

It is in the frosty winter months when the Northern Lights are most visible, laying claim to the night sky.

- ✦ The Northern Lights will usually appear at multiple times and at multiple locations during your voyage
- ✦ On board announcements ensure you don't miss a single sighting
- ✦ There's no time limit placed on nature, so you can enjoy them to your heart's content for as often and for as long as they appear

PHOTOGRAPHY SURVIVAL GUIDE

Low temperatures and a gentle rocking motion can make on board photography a challenge. Fear not, we've put together a handy hints guide to help you get the most from those stoic stints on deck.

- ✦ Warm the batteries. When temperatures drop below freezing, battery life can decrease. By keeping spare batteries in your clothing and not in your bag, you won't be disappointed when it's time to replace them.
- ✦ Take a tripod. The deck of a ship isn't the most stable platform for stellar photography, but you can beat the bumps with a sturdy tripod to capture those steady images, and it saves your arms too!
- ✦ Smart phone at the ready. Even the most professional photographer can be caught out – never miss a shot by downloading the 'Slow Shutter Cam' app, this will prepare your smart phone to support long exposure photography, giving your phone's camera time to capture all the vibrant colours of the Aurora Borealis. For wildlife shots, make sure to pack ear phones, you can then use the volume button to take a quick snap and avoid pesky camera shake.

AS THE SCANDINAVIANS LIKE TO SAY (AND THEY SHOULD KNOW)...

“There's no such thing as bad weather, just bad clothes!”

DRESS TO IMPRESS

- ✦ Wind proof, thermal clothing does what it says on the tin, trapping body heat and keeping you toasty. Make sure to wear multiple layers both indoors and outdoors
- ✦ Sturdy winter boots with good grip will serve you well as you explore ashore
- ✦ Make woollen jumpers and fleeces the staple of your Norwegian wardrobe
- ✦ Warm hat, gloves, socks and scarf; the essential winter kit we've all had knocking about since last Christmas
- ✦ And if your inner adventurer calls for a snowmobiling expedition*, don't worry, any specialist gear will be provided for you on certain excursions

Paradise Harbour got its descriptive name from the whalers during the last century. For 2019, Hurtigruten will add a brand new ship to its fleet: the MS Fridtjof Nansen. The stunning scenery will be reflected in a rich and comfortable interior design. Natural materials from Scandinavia, such as granite, oak, birch and wool will be used to create relaxed and stylish cabins, with 50% having private balconies, and aft suites will feature private outdoor Jacuzzis with spectacular views.

The core of the on board experience is the Nansen Science Center, an edutainment venue where guests and crew meet to create a deeper understanding of the areas you explore.

ANTARCTICA HIGHLIGHTS

HALF MOON ISLAND, SOUTH SHETLAND ISLANDS

The serrated and crevassed cliffs are home to a colony of Chinstrap penguins as well as Antarctic terns, Kelp gulls, Snowy sheathbills, Wilson's storm petrels, and several species of seals are regular visitors. Half Moon presents many photographic opportunities with its wildlife posed against scenic backgrounds and Antarctic highlights. Hike past the Teniente Camara Station and onto a view point that is a popular place to look for whales in the bay facing towards the Bransfield Strait.

YANKEE HARBOUR, SOUTH SHETLAND ISLANDS

The main attraction for many visitors is Yankee's terraced Gentoo penguin colony with an estimated 4,000 breeding pairs. Yankee Harbour offers views across the McFarlane Strait to Livingston Island and out into the Bransfield Strait, a common feeding area for whales.

NEKO HARBOUR

The bay is surrounded by the mountains and glaciers of the peninsula and its wildlife makes it a perfect arena for beautiful impressions. Neko Harbour is attractively located in the innermost part of the bay and takes its name from a whaler which was anchored here in the early 1900s. Neko is one of the very few places on the Antarctic Peninsula where one can come ashore on the Antarctic mainland. On land, there is a colony of Gentoo penguins.

WILHELMINA BAY

The mountains and high glacier walls of the Antarctic Peninsula around Wilhelmina Bay convey a mighty impression of ice and water. Everything from calving glacier fronts to floating ice, the magnificent contrasts of the interplay of the elements.

- Tue 18 - Thu 20 Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam (arrive pm - two night stay - depart early pm)
The city formerly known as Saigon, Ho Chi Minh City teems with life – and understandably so, considering it is home to almost seven million people. While the echoes of its past are evidenced in its architecture and historic attractions, this is a truly forward-thinking metropolis with its finger firmly on the pulse
- Sat 22 Singapore
Disembark and transfer to a luxury hotel† for your overnight stay. Singapore goes by many names – the Red Dot, the Garden City, Lion the City – but none adequately sum up its dynamic appeal. As a city-state, Singapore is both the country and its capital and this immaculately clean region is one of many contrasts. Ultra-modern skyscrapers overlook historic temples, while a tropical rainforest lies a few miles outside the urban buzz of the central Business District

Tasty Jerk Chicken

P&O Cruises pride themselves on interactive and exciting on board experiences and this stunning and tasty Caribbean Jerk Chicken dish is no exception. Fresh out of the oven from The Cookery Club's 'Caribbean Island Roots' lesson on board Britannia, you can infuse spices with the rhythm and soul of the Caribbean in your very own kitchen!

Ingredients

- 2 chicken breasts, skinless and boneless
- 2 tsp vegetable oil
- 100ml coconut milk

For the marinade

- 1 tsp coarsely ground black peppercorns
- 1 tsp ground allspice
- ¼ tsp ground cinnamon
- ¼ tsp ground nutmeg
- 1 shallot, diced
- 2 spring onions, sliced
- 2 sprigs thyme
- 1 tbsp coriander, chopped
- 1-2 Scotch Bonnet or bird's eye chillies
- 10g dark brown muscovado sugar
- Large pinch salt
- 2 tsp soy sauce
- 1 lime, juiced

Method

1. Place all of the marinade ingredients into a small food-processor and blend into a paste.
2. Slice each chicken breast lengthways into 3 or 4 long pieces.
3. Mix the chicken with half of the jerk marinade and leave, refrigerated, for at least 20 minutes and up to 2 hours.
4. Heat a heavy-based frying pan over a medium heat and add the vegetable oil. Cook the chicken pieces until the centre is piping hot.
5. Meanwhile, place the remaining jerk marinade into a small saucepan and cook over a medium heat for 1 minute. Add the coconut milk and bring to the boil, then remove from the heat.
6. Serve the cooked chicken and sauce with rice and peas.
