CINQUE TERRE, ITALY

The charming city of La Spezia, located on the Ligurian coast of Italy, offers a colourful blend of maritime heritage, natural beauty and culture. The tranquil bay in La Spezia is known as the "Gulf of Poets", and has inspired many writers and poets, including Lord Byron and Mary Shelley. The city is also gateway to the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Cinque Terre, with its beautifully coloured villages perched on rugged cliffs overlooking the Mediterranean Sea.

RHODES, GREECE

Largest of the Greek Dodecanese islands, Rhodes importance as a maritime city rose after the death of Alexander the Great in 332BC when the navy was robust and economy thrived. Today, there are still examples of these ancient time, including the UNESCO World Heritage Old Town and the wonderfully preserved Acropolis which overlooks the town. The island is also famed for its delicious honey, and the local mountains provide many varieties of ingredients to ensure the honey from Rhodes tastes the best.

SORRENTO, ITALY

Sorrento's rugged cliffs line the Amalfi Coast above the topaz-hued waters, where it is possible to see Capri Island and Mount Vesuvius across the Bay of Naples. Many of the town's structures date back to Roman times, including St. Francis Monastery and the Basilica di Sant'Antonio. Nearby is Pompeii, the best-preserved ancient Roman city in the world, famously destroyed by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79AD.

★ YOUR BUCKET LIST EXPERIENCES ★

HIROSHIMA, JAPAN

This "city of water and peace" is built in one of the most sheltered harbors on the Seto Inland Sea and is much more than the painful past it both honors and defies. Reflect and ring the bell of peace at Peace Memorial Park, then ferry to the holy island of Miyajima, famed for its Itsukushima Shrine and floating torii.

HAKODATE, JAPAN

Designated in 1854, the fan-shaped city of Hakodate, once an island, is now linked to the mainland. One of the first treaty ports in Japan, it boasts some fine turn-of-the-century colonial architecture as well as shrines and temples. In the town, you can hire costumes, such as a kimono to stroll in whilst taking in the sights, including a visit to the many 100-year renovated traditional tea houses.

BUSAN, SOUTH KOREA

South Korea's second-largest city (after the capital, Seoul), Busan is located in the southeastern corner of the country along the Sea of Japan. It combines a vibrant, big-city atmosphere with a famously laid-back attitude and subtropical landscapes. Often described as the "San Francisco of Korea," thanks mainly to its hilly terrain and close-knit neighbourhoods.

Cloaked in mystery - uncover Easter Island's wonders

Just south of the Tropic of Capricorn, Easter Island, or Rapa Nui, lies 3,790 kilometres to the west of Chile. Extraordinarily remote, this island was first inhabited by Polynesians who are believed to have arrived by sea about 1,200 years ago. The island is 24 kilometres long, with three extinct volcanic craters and half of the area is a National Park. The island is best known for being the site of more than 600 stone statues, or Moai, which stand up to nine metres in height. The statues were carved in the spectacular Rano Raraku quarry and were then believed to have been transported on wooden rollers to their destinations. It is thought that the last statues were erected around 500 years ago, when the supply of trees for rollers ran out.

Your Three Night stay at the Nayara Hangaroa‡

Nayara Hangaroa is set by the ocean and a short walk from the centre of town, making it the perfect base from which to explore the wonders of Easter Island from. Modelled after the ceremonial village of Orongo, the property is designed with sustainable principles for natural and cultural preservation of the island. Rooms are stylish and minimalist with natural materials and Chilean artisanal handicrafts. All rooms feature a terrace with ocean views, and you'll enjoy your stay on a full board basis.
