SPECIAL EDITION

UNMISSABLE PROMOTIONS
FOR 10 DAYS ONLY

Welcome

TO THE NOVEMBER BLACK FRIDAY SPECIAL EDITION OF BLUE HORIZONS

Black Friday – now a common place phrase and a time of year that we all look forward to for unbelievable offers. Once a single day, Black Friday has since grown to a celebration of spectacular deals over the month of November, and this year promises to be the biggest and best one yet.

So many of our cruise line partners have come to us with exclusive offers for you, our valued Blue Horizons readers to be able to enjoy unmissable value on a cruise for 2025 and beyond. So, where do we begin?!

Savings and unmissable value await over on page 17 with Hurtigruten, where you can discover the Northern Lights with amazing fares, saving you up to 50%! If you're setting your sights on an exotic escape, the Indian Ocean beckons with its serene atmosphere, crystal clear waters and sugar-soft sandy beaches. Turn to page 18 to discover a Maldives Water Villa Stay, paired with a Holland America Line cruise.

Or, head over to page 35 where HX Expeditions will take you on a journey-of-a-lifetime. As the expedition experts, you'll be in safe hands as you set your sights on an adventure to the poles.

On page 06 we Black Friday truly shines with fares with Ambassador from as little as £49^{pp} per night! But hurry, these fares are exclusively available with ROL Cruise for ten days only.

If you enjoy the finer things in life, look no further than an ultra-luxury cruise with Silversea, where you can enjoy luxury for less with double savings on a wonderful array of voyages. Turn to page 22 to find out more.

We could go on and on (and on!) showcasing all of the unbelievable Black Friday offers but we'll stop here and let you peruse through this exciting brochure yourself. The cruise experts are ready and waiting to help you secure your Black Friday deal.

Happy Cruising!

Paradise found

BY JANE ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 18 years.

A recent email from Cunard highlighting some upcoming Caribbean cruises reminded me it's been too long since my last island-hopping adventure there. I love these islands, with their fun activities, interesting history, culture and food, not to mention all that sun, sand and sea. You can fly there of course, or take the leisurely option – as Cunard does – and sail from the UK. Here are a few of my favourite things on some of the islands Queen Mary 2 and Queen Victoria are visiting in winter 2025-26.

Best for a split personality – St. Maartin/St. Martin

Friends had signed up to be crew for the day on an America's Cup sailing ship, a popular excursion on St. Maarten, but I fancied a lazy day so wandered into the capital, Philipsburg – a 20-minute stroll from the dock – found myself a table in the sun at a beachside café and watched the world go by over some deliciously spicy (and very reasonable!) Cajun chicken. St. Maarten is the Dutch side of the island, which has been shared with the French since the Treaty of Concordia in 1648. Hop over the border to Marigot, the capital of St. Martin, to check out shops and cafés with a distinctly Gallic feel.

Best for getting wet - Dominica

It's mid-morning in Dominica and I have reached new heights of sartorial elegance in a plastic poncho hastily thrown on as the skies opened and the rain came down. "It's a rainforest," Prosper, our guide, reminds me. "You don't get any of this without rain." 'This' is the lush greenery that covers two-thirds of the island of Dominica and is watered by 300 inches of rain a year. It is magnificent, as are the twin Trafalgar Falls (dubbed Mama and Papa and falling 75 feet and 175 feet respectively) we've come to see that thunder down through the greenery. It might be wet, but it's still hot. Just right for a cooling dip in the nearby Emerald Pool.

Best for staying active - St. Lucia

I'm ascending a Stairway to Heaven. Or at least that's what it says on the sign, erected by a Led Zeppelin fan presumably. From the top there's a great view of the two Pitons, the trademark volcanic spires of St. Lucia. It's only 10.30am and already I've hiked to the top of the Tet Paul nature trail and next am off to Pigeon Island, to climb to Fort

Rodney, built in the 18th century by the British to spy on the French in Martinique, and try my hand at scuba diving (a cross between scuba and snorkelling). In Rodney Bay, I swap two legs for two wheels on a Segway tour of the rainforest. Too active? Look out for a tour to the world's only drive-in volcano and take dip in the nearby mud baths.

Best for rum punch - St. Kitts

St Kitts is famous for having the only railway in the Caribbean so no prizes for guessing the best-selling excursion. The train was originally used to transport sugar cane from the fields to the factory for processing. When farmers gave up on sugar in 2005, the train started to transport tourists instead. We grab a perch on the open deck and bump and rattle past abandoned sugar fields, crossing worryingly-thin bridges and enjoy the sea view all along the 18-mile track. But I promised you rum punch. It's not what I usually drink at 9.30 in the morning but as a glass or three is included in the price of the train it seemed churlish not to partake (and it really was good!).

Best for buried treasure - Tortola

Sadly we didn't actually get to line our pockets with pieces of eight when we visited Tortola, the largest of the British Virgin Islands, but a boat trip around the archipelago from Road Town, the capital, was a relaxing way to learn some local history. We saw Norman Island, which inspired Robert Louis Stevenson's novel Treasure Island, Beef Island, where they raised cattle in the 1930s, and Salt Island, where passing ships once used to replenish stocks of, well, salt. If time allows, sneak in a couple of hours on Cane Garden Beach. There is a reason it's so popular.

YOUR VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

EASTER ISLAND

Over 1,000 miles away from its nearest inhabited neighbour, remote Easter Island is a unique Chilean treasure in the South Pacific. Named in remembrance of the date on which it was landed by Dutch seamen, the island is most famous for its recognisable moai statues. Explore hundreds of carved stone figures within Rapa Nui National Park and learn about their Polynesian creators. Discover how overpopulation and deforestation lessened the numbers of its once thriving residents.

YOUR LUXURY HOTEL STAY IN PAPEETE

This spirited city is the capital of French Polynesia, and serves as a superb base for onward exploration of Tahiti – an island of breathtaking landscapes and oceanic vistas. A wonderful lagoon of crisp, clear water begs to be snorkelled, stunning black beaches and blowholes pay tribute to the island's volcanic heritage, and lush green mountains beckon you inland on adventures, as you explore extraordinary Tahiti.

After the cruise, the package unfolds into an extended land-based sojourn, allowing guests to immerse themselves in the local culture, cuisine and attractions. With fewer tourists, it's easier to savour authentic experiences and engage with the destination's unique offerings.

EXPLORATION & ACTIVITIES ASHORE^x

Each ship is equipped with an Expedition Team – a dedicated group of experts that will help you discover the best of each destination. HX have experts in marine biology, oceanography, photography, and more on board to help make your journey an unforgettable experience.

THE SCIENCE CENTRE

Create a deeper understanding for the areas you explore in the Science Centre, packed with state-of-the-art technology and high-tech gadgets such as touch screens and science equipment. This flexible venue features lecture spaces and a small library as well as speciality areas for workshops in biology, photography and more.

WILDLIFE

Exploring some of the most spectacular and remote wildernesses on our planet – and observing its unique wildlife – is an important part of every HX voyage. This comes with an obligation to explore respectfully. HX will not leave visible or lasting signs from a visit. Observing wild animals is done at a distance so as not to alter natural behaviour and with the utmost respect for their welfare and habitat.

LOVING LOCAL FOOD

Prepare your tastebuds for mouth-watering meals on board, inspired by the region's flavours and crafted from mostly locally sourced ingredients. Sourcing food locally isn't just about fresh, farm-and-fjord-to-table flavours. It's also about achieving the lowest footprint possible and making sure there is minimal food waste. By carefully managing supply and seasonality, HX believe cuisine can and should be kind to the planet while still tasting authentic and amazing.

FESTIVITY & THANKSGIVING IN THE BIG APPLE

Thanksgiving and Black Friday are celebrated with great enthusiasm in New York City, transforming it into a hub of festivities, tradition, and shopping excitement. Thanksgiving in New York City brings together vibrant parades, seasonal decorations, and rich holiday meals. The iconic Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade is a highlight, drawing crowds from around the world to marvel at its giant balloons, marching bands, and celebrity performances. Held along a route through Manhattan, the parade culminates near Macy's flagship store, symbolizing the beginning of the holiday season.

After Thanksgiving's warm celebrations, New York quickly shifts gear for Black Friday, which kicks off the holiday shopping season. Black Friday in New York is a shopping extravaganza, with stores across the city offering significant discounts and deals. Fifth Avenue, SoHo, and Herald Square become lively with shoppers looking for bargains on everything from designer clothing to electronics. Malls and department stores like Macy's, Bloomingdale's, and the Shops at Columbus Circle see an influx of people eager to snag the best deals.
