Silver Nova is one of a Kind

Poppy Ellis – Silversea Commercial account Manager at ROL Cruise – recently boarded Silver Nova for a three day sailing from Venice...

"Silver Nova is Silversea's newest and now largest ship with just 728 guests. The first thing I noticed was how different she is to the rest of the Silversea fleet; the ship felt so spacious with higher ceilings, very light with glass everywhere so guests can enjoy ocean or destination views from nearly all the public venues. In a presentation by Barbara Muckerman (CEO) she explained Silver Nova's unique asymmetrical design, meaning nearly all the public spaces are outward facing - a completely new design concept for Silversea vessels."

The Pool Deck – Silver Nova's incredible pool has glass running alongside, so you can enjoy a view of your destination or amazing sea views as you relax. The pool also boasts a pool bar and above that the Cliff hot tub. The pool deck and surrounding areas have 280 sun chairs, so lots of wonderful small areas on deck where I felt you could find a little sanctuary to relax.

Dining – Silver Nova has eight incredible dining venues. One of their newest is the Marquee, which has an amazing al fresco feel to rival any luxury land resort. Its positioned just off the aft of the ship and is open to the sea air but has enough shade too. By night the venue changes in beautiful colours and offers the exclusive Silversea 'hot rocks' experience.

Just beyond the Marquee, at the back of the ship is the Dusk bar, one of my favourite venues. The Dusk bar is an open-air bar and offers incredible views.

Suites – I was lucky enough to experience an incredible Medallion Suite during my stay. The layout was so perfect; positioned on Deck 8 midship with a large veranda, living room and sofa. I had a separate bedroom area and with a large walk in wardrobe, bathroom with separate bath and shower and double vanity sink.

In addition, every suite on the ship comes with Complimentary in-suite dining around the clock, a mini bar stocked with whatever you want (no extra charge) plus bathrobes and slippers, a pillow menu, luxury bath amenities and complimentary unlimited Wi-Fi (which actually worked very well). Not to mention my wonderful butler Marlon who couldn't do enough for me.

Staff on board – Silversea staff are already known as second to none but on the new Silver Nova the staff were incredibly proud and so happy to be a part of this new team, this may be in part due to their new crew areas which I was lucky enough to be taken on an exclusive tour of. They have an open deck area which matched the guests' in terms of furnishings, a games room and staff bar area, plus, a crew gym and spa. Crew welfare felt as important as the guests'.

Silver Nova completely wowed me in every sense and is complete game changer in the luxury cruise market with such a modern light and spacious feel, I don't think anyone will be disappointed when they sail on her."

TO THE OCTOBER BONUS EDITION OF BLUE HORIZONS

Jeremy Dickinson,
Chairman of
ROL Cruise

I'm sure I'm not the only one to be slightly relieved we are now in Autumn. With the nights drawing in its the perfect opportunity to cosy up with this October Bonus edition of Blue Horizons.

This month we are delighted to present to you the Official P&O Cruises No-Fly 2025/26 Launch Promotion, on its first week on sale, featuring Arcadia's 2026 Grand World Voyage plus so much more. Here at ROL Cruise we always like to celebrate a new launch, which is why we're offering exclusive added value from Double Cruise Miles* and Afternoon Tea for Two hampers to chauffeur transfers and pre-cruise hotel stays. Find out more on pages 04-11.

Autumn usually brings to mind the stunning colours of the changing leaves. Canada is well known for its Fall displays, so it would be remiss of me not to mention Princess Cruises' Canada and New England the Fall voyage. It would be even more neglectful of me not to mention the FREE Deluxe Balcony to Mini Suite upgrade currently available on this incredible voyage – turn to pages 18-19 before they sell out.

The variety of cruises on offer never ceases to amaze me. There truly is something for everyone, and this month Emerald are adding to the mix with the launch of their superyacht Azzurra's 2025 season. With only 100 guests on board, this is a unique and intimate way to experience the truly stunning islands of the Indian Ocean, from the Seychelles to Zanzibar. Find her on pages 48-49 along with a FREE Premium Drinks Package for all bookings.

Happy cruising!

JANE ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 17 years.

I'm woken by a loud bing bong. It's never good news when the captain broadcasts into your cabin early morning. Or is it? It's to tell us we aren't going to have our day in Ushuaia, the port town at the bottom of the world, as the Argentineans have banned us from visiting because we have just been in the Falkland Islands.

It's a disappointment but turns out their loss is our gain (and it is a big loss for all the local guides and coach drivers relying on us for their income that day). Instead of seeing Ushuaia, we have a brilliant morning transiting Glacier Alley - a stretch of the Beagle Channel named in honour of five glaciers along the route - and on through the spectacular Chilean fjords to Punta Arenas.

The sun is shining, the scenery is magnificent, and the crew thoughtfully bring hot chocolate out to those of us on deck braving the outdoor chill. Truly it is one of those cruise moments none of us will forget.

It is just one of so many unforgettable moments on this cruise - for me a two-week voyage from Buenos Aires in Argentina to Valparaiso in Chile; for others an epic 87-day adventure sailing round-trip from Southampton with P&O Cruises.

In the Falkland Islands, I bounce down to Bluff Cover in the back of a 4x4 to see a colony of Gentoo penguins and their chicks and am rewarded with a solo appearance of a majestic King penguin. He strides majestically out of the sea, shakes himself off and begins his stately progress along the beach, stopping now and then so the cameras trained on him can get his best side!

We circumnavigate wild Cape Horn (thankfully it's calm-ish) and spend two days cruising up close to the mighty Amalia and Pio XI Glaciers, the latter covering an area larger than the city of Santiago de Chile (1,265sq km). Forget hot chocolate. This time warm gluhwein (mulled wine) is doing the rounds for those of us on the open deck.

South America is made for cruising as it's not only packed with phenomenal sights - both natural and man-made - but they are easy to get to as so many are on or near the coast. No wonder P&O will be back circumnavigating the continent again in 2026, this time on a just-released 75-night no-fly epic from Southampton on Aurora, a ship reserved for adults.

It's a terrific itinerary, taking in everything from historic cities and unforgettable landscapes to sun-kissed beaches. You can follow in my footsteps and go penguin-spotting during a day in the Falklands and look out for calving ice as you sail up close to the Amalia and Pio XI glaciers.

You'll have two days to explore Rio de Janeiro - time enough to get a bird's eye view from the Christ the Redeemer statue and step on what must be the only two beaches in the world immortalised in song (Copacabana and Ipanema) and two in Lima.

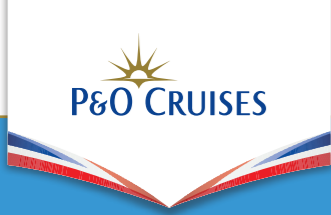

You'll also round Cape Horn, transit the Magellan Strait, visit the Chilean town of Punta Arenas, where tours go in search of Magellan penguins, and fall in love with the beautiful colonial walled city of Cartagena in Colombia. Finally, there's plenty of sun, sand and sea time on calls into six Caribbean islands.

Did I say finally? Actually I've kept the best to last - the cruise from the Pacific to the Atlantic via the Panama Canal, that incredible waterway started by the French and finished by the Americans. It takes about eight hours to transit and is fascinating, being lifted and lowered in the locks at either end, sailing through the Gaillard Cut and over the Gatun Lake.

To think that in just one holiday you'll not only experience one of the world's greatest engineering feats but also round the Horn, a sea passage feared by even the most hardened sailors in days gone by. If that's not bragging rights, I don't know what is.

Meet the ROL Cruise Team

ROL Cruise was founded in 1995 as Reader Offers Ltd with a small team of just four. Things have certainly changed since then and the company now hosts over 120 members of staff at our head office in Colchester, Essex. From our client services and finance teams to operations and customer care, for 28 years we have been looking after your holiday as if it were our own, striving to deliver excellence in everything we do.

WHAT OUR STAFF SAY ABOUT THEIR EXPERIENCES WITH ROL CRUISE

"I have worked at ROL for many years and can honestly say (even through the pandemic) that I've never had the feeling of not wanting to go to work, which in itself is amazing. I don't think many people can say this. I love my job and making a difference, I do a varied role depending on what is needed in the business, but I enjoy helping in all the different areas. ROL is such a great place to work, you feel valued and part of a family, you are not just a number. Everyone knows each other and that's thanks to the amazing parties that we have - and ROL know how to throw a party! I am proud to work for a company that cares about their employees and customers."

Claire Brown, Head of Commercial Analysis

"I love where I work, as a whole ROL is the best company I have ever worked for. They really value us as individuals and do a lot to show their appreciation for us, whether that be a little prosecco treat in the afternoon or the huge parties they throw for us. Everyone within the company is friendly and great to work alongside, overall it's a lovely company to be a part of and I am very lucky to be able to do what I do and call it my job."

Georgina Martin, Sales

Our favourite travel moments..

Working in the travel industry usually means only one thing - we all love to travel! Here are some of our favourite travel moments...

I'll never forget the bright lights of Times Square, or overlooking the city from one of the observation decks when the sun goes down - it really is like looking at a city of jewels.

Amber Bellinger, Commercial Product Manager

One of the most luxurious experiences I've had was on Silver Nova. My butler Marlon knew I had been out on a shore excursion so he had ran me a bath for my return, along with ice-cold Champagne, music and candle light. Very relaxing after a long day exploring.

Poppy Ellis, Commercial Account Manager

Being up close to a glacier at the Tracy Arm Fjord was really spectacular.

Roxy Anderson, Web Content Executive

Being showered with flowers and chants during a traditional monk blessing, which is a wonderful experience.

Gemma Pallister, Director of Commercial

★ FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT NORWAY VOYAGES ★

CAN YOU GO ON SHORE IN EVERY PORT?

Yes, with some recommendations. If the ship is in port for 30 minutes or longer, we encourage guests to take a look around all of the ports. However, in some ports your ship will only stop for 15 minutes. In this case, we ask that guests continuing their voyage stay on board, just to avoid any risks.

HOW ARE THE EXCURSIONS ORGANISED?

If guests have booked excursions through Hurtigruten, then their excursion includes transfers to and from the ship. If during the time you are on the excursion, the ship has moved on to another port in keeping with the sailing schedule, the return transfer will be arranged to re-join the ship wherever it is currently docked. This allows guests to fully immerse themselves in enjoying their excursion stress-free.

WILL IT BE COLD IN NORWAY?

Norway is home to the most northern city in the world. Guests should therefore be aware that temperatures may be much chillier than they are used to.

WHAT CLOTHES SHOULD I PACK FOR TRAVEL TO NORWAY?

The best approach is to bring multiple layers of comfortable, durable, and warm wear which can be piled on or stripped off depending on the weather.

11 NIGHTS DEPARTING 29TH DECEMBER 2023

- Day 3 Kristiansand - Rørvik, Norway
- Day 4 Brønnøysund - Svolvær, Norway

UNCOVER TOKYO WITH A TWO NIGHT 4★ HOTEL STAY

You'll never forget a visit to the sensory explosion that is Tokyo. Capital of Japan, this is a city where you'll find centuries-old culture jostling for a position next to cutting-edge technology – a fabulous blend of history and modernity that has to be seen to be believed. To get a feel for Tokyo's natural beauty, head to Yoyogi Park. City life slows down just a touch in this former Olympic village, which also served as a military parade ground and barracks for American soldiers after the Second World War. Close to the Yoyogi Park is the Meiji Jingu Shrine, established in 1920 and dedicated to Emperor Meiji who helped to open Japan up to the west. As impressive as anything else is its 40-foot gate, made of 1,500-year-old cypress. At the main shrine buildings, you may show respect by bowing twice, clapping your hands twice, making a wish, then bowing once more. You may even be lucky enough to catch a traditional Japanese wedding procession.

YOUR CRUISE HIGHLIGHTS

SAINT PIERRE, MARTINIQUE

The Market Square hosts a colorful daily gathering of vendors. Numerous hiking trails penetrate the lush forests around the town, and Anse Couleuvre is an attractive black sand beach. Excursionists can travel to Le Morne-Rouge and ascend the slopes of Mount Pelée or take in the panoramic views from the old military battery at Vierge des Marins and the statue of Our Lady of Morne d'Orange. The town also boasts the volcanological Museum Franck Perret and a modern Center of Science and Discovery. Several venerable rum distilleries are likewise popular attractions!

ST. JOHN'S, ANTIGUA

Antigua is blessed with an abundance of shining white beaches and other amenities counted among the best in the Caribbean. A pleasant drive up through farms and tiny villages leads to the commanding fortress on Shirley Heights, from which you can survey the town and the harbour of Nelson's Dockyard across the island.

CARAMBOLA BEACH, ST. KITTS

A classic golden arc of sugary sand at South Friar's Bay, Carambola is home to the island's most luxurious beach clubs and restaurants. Umbrellas, loungers and optional water sports abound for those so inclined. Otherwise St. Kitts has other attractions, including a number of lovingly preserved plantation great houses, the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Brimstone Hill Fortress and a scenic narrow gauge sugarcane railway.

YOUR INCREDIBLE SIGNATURE EXPERIENCE HIGHLIGHTS

Papeete, French Polynesia

An enchanting place, to say the least, it's little wonder Tahiti is a muse to so many. Herman Melville and Paul Gauguin certainly found some inspiration here. And Papeete, the island's very cosmopolitan city, has its fair share. So before you immerse yourself in Tahiti's earthy delights, make sure you visit Papeete's vibrant waterfront and colourful market, brimming with everything from fresh fruit to artisan treasures. You'll find it, well, picture perfect.

Auckland, New Zealand

Stretched over a volcanic field on New Zealand's North Island is multicultural Auckland. The country's largest city, this thriving hub offers everything you would expect – enchanting scenery at every turn, fascinating Maori heritage and friendly locals. The urban centre occupies a narrow isthmus between two harbours, while the outer region boasts beautiful beaches, fertile farmlands and rainforest-covered hills. One of the best ways to appreciate Auckland's amazing vistas is from the 328m tall Sky Tower which offers impressive 360-degree views of the city.

Your Galápagos Wildlife Watchlist...

Access to the Experts

On this sailing you will be accompanied by highly qualified naturalist guides, who will share with you their deep knowledge of the Galápagos archipelago. Together, you will explore each island, trekking over black lava rocks where marine iguanas sun themselves, to see Galápagos tortoises, sea turtles and the iconic blue-footed Boobies.

MARINE IGUANA

Found only in the Galápagos Islands, the iconic Marine Iguanas are distinguishable by the white "wigs" of salt expelled from glands near their noses. They look fierce, but are actually gentle herbivores, surviving exclusively on underwater algae and seaweed. Their short snouts and razorsharp teeth help them scrape algae off rocks.

FRIGATE BIRD

Two species of frigate bird call the Galapagos home; the Great Frigate Bird and the endemic, and aptly names, Magnificent Frigate Bird. From its ability to steal food to its famous courtship ritual, where the males inflate their red chests, these are undoubtedly some of the most impressive birds in the Galapagos skies, scarcely needing to beat their wings once airborne.

GALÁPAGOS PENGUIN

The Galápagos penguin is one of the smallest penguins in the world and is endemic to the Galápagos Islands. It is the most northerly occurring penguin species, nesting entirely in the tropics.

"Experiencing the Galápagos on a Celebrity cruise was without a doubt a once-in-a-lifetime experience and one I will look back on with fond memories for the rest of my life. When you set foot on the lava rock of the Galápagos you feel like you've entered another world! It's amazing how fearless the wildlife is, you have to be careful where you step in case there is an iguana underfoot, they really get that close. The guides from Celebrity Cruises are so knowledgeable and passionate about the islands, you could listen to their stories all day!"
