Getting creative with Cunard's Newest Ship

As yet unnamed, Cunard's new and eagerly anticipated ship, set to join the fleet in 2022, has its first appointment: Creative Director Adam D Tihany. Widely regarded as one of the world's most talented designers, Tihany has made his name creating beautiful spaces for luxurious and iconic hotels, restaurants and resorts across the globe, including The Beverly Hills Hotel, Belmond Hotel Cipriani and The Oberoi New Delhi.

"The name Cunard is obviously magical and I'm very excited to be involved in his project," Tihany says.

Tihany promises the much-loved traditional Cunard feel, but with plenty of surprises.

"Guests can expect a much lighter, contemporary feel, but crucially it will still feel like a Cunard ship and Cunard's loyal guests will feel very at home. The new ship will celebrate Cunard's British heritage but with a whisper, not a shout."

28 NIGHTS DEPARTING
4TH SEPTEMBER & 2ND OCTOBER 2020

Day 1 Embark Queen Mary 2 and depart Southampton

Day 8 New York, USA

See the bright lights of the Big Apple, international mecca and melting pot, with expensive brownstones, colourful neighbourhoods like Greenwich Village and the Upper West Side and the legendary Central Park. Explore some of the world's great museums. Some come just for the shopping: there's Bloomingdale's on Lex, Tiffany's on Fifth, Barneys and the unique boutiques along Madison

Day 9 Newport, Rhode Island, USA

Day 10 Boston, Massachusetts, USA

Day 12 Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada

Day 14 - Québec City, Québec, Canada (two night stay)

Day 16 When you cruise to Québec City you will dock at the inland port, the oldest in Canada, just minutes from the city centre. As you travel towards the city, the contrast between the port area and the Old Town is astonishing. The history and romance seeps from the very fabric of the buildings and cobbled streets. But this is more than mere nostalgia. The only fortified city in North America, Old Québec is a one-off and you will see nothing else like it in Canada

Day 17 Saguenay, Québec, Canada

Day 18 Sept-Îles, Québec, Canada

Day 20 Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada

Day 22 New York, USA

Day 29 Arrive in Southampton

Five Unforgettable Adventures

1. Make a splash

Fresh air in your lungs, sunshine on your skin, the feeling of your paddle gently gliding through crystal-clear waters... kayaking through Norway's fjords is equal parts peaceful and exhilarating*.

2. Hike up high

Walking in Norway's spectacular landscapes is an almost spiritual experience. Luckily, you're never far from breathtaking trails that will take you up, up and away.

3. Stride out on a Nordic walk

This is no stroll in the park – Nordic walking is a fun, high-energy activity that'll get your blood pumping as you see the sights. It's popular the world over, but where better to learn or hone your technique than in the beautiful Norwegian countryside?

4. Take the highs with the lows

As the old saying goes, what goes up must come down. The adage rings particularly true in the Norwegian fjords, where luckily, both ascent and descent are a whole lot of fun.

5. Get your heart racing on a river-rafting ride

Norway is famous for its fjords and lakes, but its beautiful rivers deserve equal attention. To explore them from a unique (and thrilling) perspective, why not embark on a fun, fast-paced rafting adventure*?

Five Unforgettable Natural Wonders

1. Be dazzled by the fjords

With breathtaking scenery at every turn, there's no denying the fjords are the stars of the show. Formed by a succession of ice ages, journeying into their pure and dazzling heart is a once-in-a-lifetime experience. And what better way to take them in than up close and personal by ship?

2. Get up close to a glacier

Come face to face with Norway's mighty glaciers – the same powerful forces that carved out the country's fjords many millennia ago.

3. Wonder at waterfalls

Don't go chasing waterfalls when we've got some of Norway's finest ready and waiting for you. These waterfalls are stunning year-round, but in May and June they're at their best as snowmelt adds to the volume of water.

4. Soak up the lakeside serenity

Norway's purity is illustrated by its abundance of lakes that are perfect for swimming, fishing, boating, or simply sitting back and soaking it all in.

5. Get back to nature

The drama of Norway's wild fjordic landscapes is softened by the lush greens of forests and pretty pastures that teem with wildlife and flowers.

Jane with Komodo Dragon

THE DAY I WAS SNAPPED WITH A Dragon!

Uwe and I are peering at a map trying to find out where we are. We know we are in Indonesia and we know we are not at Moyo Island, where we're supposed to be, but Wera, the town where we actually are, is nowhere to be seen.

On most cruise ships you'd consult a map on screens around the public areas or the cabin TV. On Star Clippers' sailing ships, you pop along to the bridge and ask one of the officers.

Life on these ships is deliciously relaxed. If things don't quite go according to the itinerary, well so be it, "we always need a plan B, C, D or E," Captain Sergey told us in a talk about the challenges of sailing ships that rely largely on the wind. Bare feet and swimming costumes are all you need for trips to the beach, you can leave dressy attire at home and if you want to know anything about the navigation, the bridge is always open.

Mission accomplished, I reported back to Uwe, repeated what I had just learned about the adverse currents and winds we had battled through in the night and pointed to the place on the map where Wera would be – in the northeast corner of the island of Sumbawa, since you ask – if the cartographer had thought to add it.

I'd already been for a look around the town. It was small, overlooked by a majestic volcano and fronted by a beach on which several boats were under construction. A young lad with perfect English proudly pointed to the men working on them before showing me some of the houses.

Star Clippers launched one week island-hopping cruises from Phuket in Thailand in December 2016 (you can find out more about these fabulous itineraries elsewhere in this issue of Blue Horizons) and last year added voyages in Indonesia like the one I was on. Also seven nights, they run from June to October, sailing either eastbound or westbound from Benoa in Bali.

Islands off Gili Sudak

Star Clipper in full sail

Gili Sudak beach

Gili Sudak

Like many of my fellow passengers, I had chosen the eastbound route because it visited Komodo Island, land of the eponymous dragons. Unlike the mythical creatures of the story books, they are not fire-breathing and don't even fly. Instead they are scary lizards that grow 10 feet long or more and eat deer, pigs and even their own babies (the young ones live high up in the trees until they are old enough to either stand and fight or run!).

They have also killed 10 humans over the past 40 years, which is why each of the groups from the ship was led by a guide armed with a stick and had a minder, also carrying a stick, to bring up the rear. "Stay behind the guide and don't take food ashore as the smell attracts the animals," we were warned in the daily port talk by Cruise Director Andrea. Given their penchant for humans, we didn't need telling twice.

It was an amazing day. We hiked around Komodo, saw four dragons including one large beast that seemed to be posing for the obligatory me-with-dragon picture, and then set sail for an afternoon of swimming and snorkelling on nearby Pink Beach. A scuba diving instructor cruising with us also organised dives for both beginners and experts.

Star Clipper docks in Benoa at the start and end of the cruise, but the rest of the time you go ashore in tenders and inflatable Zodiacs, often switching from one to the other before a wet landing onto a beach. You need to be quite agile to do it, and also OK with stairs as there are no lifts on the ship.

A few cabins on the open decks have large windows but most accommodation is below stairs with a porthole. The rooms are snug and comfortable, with TVs, DVD players and ensuite bathrooms.

Pink Beach was beautiful, and we also had a lovely few hours to swim or hike on the island of Satonda, but Star Clippers had kept the best to last. A whole day on tiny Gili Sudak with a beach BBQ thrown in. It was a gloriously hot day so I walked around the island, treated myself to a burger from the barbie, swam and snorkelled. And then, when everyone had returned from the beach, we got back in the tenders and watched as all Star Clipper's sails were hoisted. Imagine – 36,000 square feet of canvas billowing in the wind as the sun started to set. I didn't want the moment to end.

A WORD ABOUT THE INDONESIAN EARTHQUAKES

A few weeks before and after my cruise, some of Indonesia's islands suffered a series of earthquakes that damaged infrastructure and killed thousands of people. The tremors hit some of the islands on Star Clipper's normal itinerary so our route was changed accordingly. The ship is now back in Thailand for the winter and will return to Indonesia next June for summer sailings on sale through ROL Cruise. No-body on my cruise even thought to cancel, knowing that now, more than ever, the local people need tourism to bring much-needed money into the country and help them rebuild their lives.

VICTORIA FALLS – YOUR TWO NIGHT STAY AT THE ILALA LODGE†

The spectacular Victoria Falls, known locally as the 'smoke that thunders', were 'discovered' and named by David Livingstone in 1855. One of the Seven Wonders of the World, the falls thundering water leaps over the edge of the gorge into a transverse chasm of black basalt rock nearly 108 metres below, sending up great clouds of mist that drift gently down to water the luxuriant rain forest. Although not the widest or tallest waterfalls, Victoria Falls forms the largest falling sheet of water in the world with approximately half a million tons of water pouring over every minute, generating a spray cloud that can rise to 500 metres above the falls.

Ilala Lodge is ideally situated close to Victoria Falls as well as the town centre. The Zambezi National Park borders the front of the property and wild animals often graze on the hotel lawns with the spray of the falls in the background. Each of the 30 rooms is spacious and equipped with a satellite television, air conditioning, and coffee and tea-making equipment. Each has an en-suite bathroom with both a bath and shower. The impressive swimming pool has a large wooden sundeck overlooking the national park and is a welcome oasis from the bustling town of Victoria Falls. The Palm restaurant offers both European and African cuisine and is an ideal place to dine al fresco under the stars.

TWO NIGHT STAY AT THE 5★ LUXURY CAPE GRACE HOTEL IN CAPE TOWN†

The luxurious Cape Grace is set on its own private quay on the V&A Waterfront. Cape Grace's charm lies in its intimate atmosphere, stylish decor and personalised hospitality. Experience beauty treatments in your own room, or relax by the swimming pool. The restaurant offers regional cuisine while the bar, set on the water's edge, overlooks the yacht marina.

During your stay at the Cape Grace Hotel, you will be delighted to enjoy a Welcome Dinner at GOLD Restaurant. With a 14 course tasting menu of Cape Malay cuisine on offer, this is a truly spectacular start to a wonderful adventure indeed.

Agra Fort, India

Tiger in Ranthambore National Park, India

There are few destinations in the world that are more mystical, culturally diverse or rich in heritage than India. American Author Mark Twain expressed that "India is the cradle of the human race, the birthplace of human speech, the mother of history, the grandmother of legend, and the great-grandmother of tradition." India, spoken about here with such honour, is a curious place in the world, and one that many desire to explore. With this exclusive ROL Cruise Signature Experience, you can delve into India's Golden Triangle and enjoy the once-in-a-lifetime chance to go in search of the mighty Bengal tiger in Ranthambore National Park. Concluding with an all-inclusive 5★ luxury cruise of Arabia, this is one exclusive package not to be missed...

INDIA'S GOLDEN TRIANGLE

India's Golden Triangle comprises of the three most visited cities in the country's north-west – Delhi, Agra and Jaipur. Your exclusive Wendy Wu tour takes you to all three cities and enables you to explore the wealth of culture and historical splendour on offer. In Delhi, be welcomed to India by the bustle of local bazaars and a unique rickshaw ride through Chandni Chowk; in Agra, visit the iconic Agra Fort and enjoy the unique opportunity to view the Taj Mahal in all its glory as the sun rises; in Jaipur, attend the Maharajah's City Palace, an eclectic mix of Rajasthani and Mughal architecture.

RANTHAMBORE NATIONAL PARK

The second part of your ROL Cruise Signature Experience takes you to Ranthambore National Park, one of the biggest and most renowned national parks in Northern India, where you will enjoy a two night stay. Considered one of the most famous and former hunting grounds of the Maharajas of Jaipur, today the Ranthambore National Park is a major wildlife hotspot, with endless chances to spot the majestic Bengal tiger in its natural habitat. Ranthambore is also home to a number of ancient ruins including the Raj Bagh Ruins and Ranthambore Fort. ## ★ FALKLAND ISLANDS

Imagine a place that is so far off-the-beaten-track you have miles of stunning landscape, beaches and magnificent bird life all to yourself – that's what you can expect as you arrive in Stanley. As one of the greatest wilderness destinations in the world, the Falkland Islands are the ultimate birding experiences and are home to majestic King, feisty Rockhopper, raucous Gentoo and shy Magellanic penguins as well as over 70% of the world's Black-browed albatross! The Falkland Islands are a pristine landscape of endless horizons, colours and contrasts with stunning seascapes to match.

★ CHILEAN FJORDS

Lined with rugged mountains and glacier-covered valleys, the Chilean Fjords are unlike any other fjord system in the world. Home to many of Chile's national parks, early Spanish explorers came here in search of the mythical City of the Caesars, believed to be rich in gold and diamonds. Riches to be found today are the Fjords' dramatic landscape and the unusual wildlife of Patagonia. Whales, dolphins and elephant seals are common sights when traversing these stunning fjords, a must on any bucket list.

And, of course, complimentary wine, beer and soft drinks are available with lunch and dinner**.

GET CLOSE. REAL CLOSE.

The Southern Ocean is drama on a grand scale in which the struggle for survival is constant. The unending, white wilderness of this continent is full of fantastic sights and sounds. There are more penguins, and penguin species, here than anywhere else on Earth. Elephant and Fur seals, Minke whales, large flocks of sea birds – not forgetting the wandering Albatross – give life to this surreal and beautiful landscape.

YOUR EXPEDITION TEAM

Each expedition voyage is accompanied by a hand-picked team of specialists and modern-day explorers. Highly experienced, passionate and knowledgeable, the expedition team will be your guides and guardians on your voyage of exploration, instructing you on safety, sustainability and science. MS Midnatsol features a variety of custom built expedition equipment, including kayaks and expedition boats for safe landings in remote areas.

YOUR ANTARCTICA HIGHLIGHTS

HALF MOON ISLAND, SOUTH SHETLAND ISLANDS

Half Moon presents many photographic opportunities with its wildlife posed against Antarctic backgrounds. Weather conditions permitting, you may enjoy a hike passing the Teniente Camara Station and on to a viewpoint that is a popular place to look for whales in the bay facing towards Bransfield Strait.

YANKEE HARBOUR, SOUTH SHETLAND ISLANDS

The main attraction for many visitors is Yankee's terraced Gentoo penguin colony with an estimated 4,000 breeding pairs. Predatory skuas also nest here and travellers are often witness to the struggle between a penguin protecting its young and a skua trying to feed theirs.

NEKO HARBOUR

The bay is surrounded by mountains and glaciers where its wildlife provides the perfect photo opportunity. Neko is one of the very few places on the Antarctic Peninsula where one can come ashore on the Antarctic mainland. On land, there is a colony of Gentoo penguins.

CUVERVILLE ISLAND

Home to one of the largest known colonies of chinstrap penguins, the shallow water between the islands often causes icebergs to become stuck here, offering a fantastic spectacle when it occurs.

Please note that these landing sites are not guaranteed and are weather permitting.

No single supplement is applicable to the cruise element only. Baggage restrictions will apply, please ask for more details. Please note this voyage may not be suitable for guests with mobility date. Wildlife sightings are not guaranteed. Hurtigruten and Reader Offers Limited Package Holiday Booking Conditions apply. Please see back page for full terms and conditions.

YOUR ANTARCTIC VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

Come ashore in Antarctica and go kayaking in the most remote place on Earth
