TO THE FEBRUARY EDITION OF BLUE HORIZONS

We are excited to announce our brand new partnership with More Trees; hereby for every cruise booking made we will plant a tree. Together, we'll actively participate in reforestation efforts that restore ecosystems and support local communities in regions affected by deforestation. We will keep you updated with the progress of this as we are both keen to see what we can do as a business to support this initiative.

In this edition we have some amazing Signature Experiences from page 26. These have been carefully selected by our Tailormade team, who consider the different elements ensuring guest satisfaction is at the forefront of their minds. In particular we wanted to bring your attention to our opportunity to explore the Seychelles and South Africa with Silversea on page 32, which includes a complimentary safari game drive – this really is a once in a lifetime experience.

Also in this edition, you will find the brand new Grand Voyage to South America and Antarctica by Fred. Olsen, please take a few minutes to look at this spectacular itinerary in more detail, it really is phenomenal and departs from the UK!

Whatever you are looking for we hope you enjoy this collection and we look forward to hearing from you soon.

Happy Cruising!

YOUR WORLD VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

IDYLIC BORA BORA

As you approach this French Polynesian island, you may genuinely think your eyes are deceiving you. You'll wonder how brilliant shades of turquoise, sapphire and indigo can all co-exist to form such a luscious lagoon, matched only in its beauty by the blindingly white ring of sand and majestic mountain peaks at its centre. Formed from the remnants of an extinct volcano, Bora Bora appears to be of another world. Bora Bora's perfect panoramas are further enhanced by pretty sand-edged motu (islets) and rainforest-covered ridges, while its fabulous coral reef is a joy to explore.

AWE-INSPIRING SYDNEY

Sydney is home to a plethora of iconic attractions, including the vertiginous Harbour Bridge and masterpiece of 20th century architecture, the Opera House. Close by are the breath-taking Blue Mountains, a range of craggy sandstone cliffs and caves, encased in native bushland, and the Aboriginals seasonal home and ceremonial place.

Just a stone's throw away from the Sydney Opera House is the Royal Botanic Garden.

Covering a sizeable 74 acres the Royal Botanic Garden is a beautiful showcase of Australia's native flora and fauna.

BLISSFUL BALI

Beautiful Bali is everything you imagine it will be; humbling temples, tranquil lakes, traditional villages, idyllic sands and thriving paddy fields. A relatively small island within expansive Indonesia, its big personality makes it a popular draw for religious pilgrims, peace-seeking travellers and all manner of beach lovers. Make sure you enjoy a traditional welcome dance before you jump in a taxi to see its abundant sights.

Journey through the Heart of Europe

BY JANE ARCHER

It must be wonderful to have loads of money - or at least to be able to spend other people's dosh, whether they like it or not. In the early 1700s, the then Prince-Bishop of Würzburg, Johann Philipp Franz von Schönborn, decided the Marienburg Fortress he lived in high was too draughty. And anyway, being a rather important person, he wanted a palace to rival Versailles in France.

Würzburg, a city on the Main (rhyme it with fine) River, is a bit of an unsung hero in the sightseeing stakes. Alongside the palace, there's a 900-year-old bridge with looks that rival the Charles Bridge in Prague and the aforementioned fortress, which might be draughty but has wonderful views over the city. No wonder all river cruise lines sailing the Main stop here.

We've arrived with Scenic, on day six of its Jewels of Europe cruise from Amsterdam to Budapest - a magnificent two-week journey that is taking us through five countries (Holland, Germany, Austria, Slovakia and Hungary), along three rivers (the Rhine, Main and Danube) and on a canal linking the Main and Danube that uses 16 locks to take the river ship we're on, Scenic Opal, over the Franconian Alps, some 175 metres higher than the Main River.

On the way we're diving into everything from Roman and medieval history and the Second World War to palaces, music and spas.

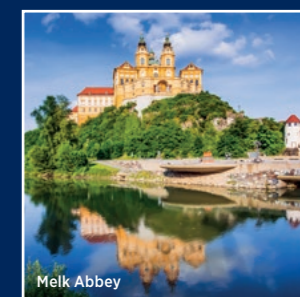

We've already had an overnight in Amsterdam, where we skipped the canal cruise and went on a tasting tour (loved the pancakes, but pickled herring? Just no!) and an afternoon in Cologne, where we toured inside the cathedral (all tours with Scenic are included in the price, as is everything from flights and transfers to drink, tips, the lot).

We spotted castles as we sailed through the Rhine Gorge, took a cable car over vineyards in Rudesheim to a monumental statue that commemorates the unification of Germany in 1871, and refuelled in Miltenberg's Zum Reisen Hotel, said to be the country's oldest hostelry.

From Würzburg we head to Bamberg, a city with 40 churches, 14 breweries and 50 types of beer including a smoked brew that tastes like liquid ham. "After the third glass you don't care," our guide assures us. I confess I give up after the first two mouthfuls.

Nuremberg, our next stop, is forever synonymous with the Nazis - the Nazi rally grounds are here and the war crimes trials after the Second World War were held in the city - but step away from that and you discover a pretty Old Town. We walk from the castle at one end to the shops at the other, passing half-timbered houses, a Gothic church with a glockenspiel clock, grand fountain and more.

Phew! Who said river cruising is restful. We're only halfway and still to come are full-day tours to Cesky Krumlov in the Czech Republic or Salzburg, where Mozart was born and the Sound of Music was filmed. Melk houses a grand Benedictine Abbey filled with gold and marble; Dürnstein has a ruined castle where Richard the Lionheart was imprisoned (all to do with a spat over money). In Vienna, we discover the Naschmarkt, a lively spot with bars, restaurants and stalls piled high with colourful spices and end the day at an exclusive Mozart and Strauss concert at the opulent Palais Liechtenstein.

In Budapest, we do as the Hungarians and head to the Gellert Baths, dip into the hot and steamy baths, saunas and ice buckets, then reward ourselves with a naughty-but-nice chimney (think spirals of dough cooked over coals and rolled in sugar). Why the nickname? The real name is kürtöskalács and I reckon even the Hungarians have trouble saying that!

DISCOVER WINES FROM THE DOURO WITH OUR EXPERT WINE PARTNER

ROL Cruise have been partnering with fellow Colchester-based business, Mr.Wheeler Wine, for almost twenty years. Mr.Wheeler is a new generation of independent wine specialists — with the heritage, expertise and attentive personal service of an old-style merchant, and the tech-savvy approach and grasp of contemporary lifestyle choices you'd expect from a 21st century online retailer. Mr.Wheeler chooses wines from established family run vineyards where they know that the growers have mastered their craft, ensuring that all conditions and practices have been carefully considered to deliver the very best outcome in their wines.

Here's what the experts have to say...

“Portuguese 'still' wines have increased in popularity and travellers to the Iberian Peninsula have long recognised what extraordinary quality and value Portugal has offered since the country joined the EU in 1986; when growers there were no longer obliged to sell their grapes to local cooperatives only. In recent years, investment in 'still' wines in particular (with the fortified port wines long established of course), has seen quality soar and we're very excited to recommend a few wines from the regions MS Estrela is passing through on her journey down the Douro.”

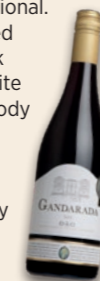

2022 'LUZ' ALVARINHO, VINHO VERDE

“Known as Albariño in Spain, Portugal's Alvarinho — in the hands of the charming Cristiano Carneiro — has the same zippy freshness and pronounced floral aroma as it's much pricier Spanish cousin. Great intensity and texture with a crisp, seafood-friendly minerality. From the Vinho Verde region in the very north of Portugal.”

2019 GANDARADA TINTO, BOAS QUINTAS, DÃO
£11.45

“Produced south of the Douro at an altitude of 500m and from Portugal's main red grape varietal, Touriga Nacional. Gandara Tinto is aged for six months in oak barrels for an exquisite richness in aroma, body and texture. For just under £12 a bottle, Boas Quintas offers here a level of quality and value that is exceptional.”

2020 COLINAS DO DOURO SUPERIOR TINTO, DOURO
£12.45

“The Douro is making a real name recently for warm, vibrant, fruit-forward reds. A blend of traditional port grapes, but it's still fresh and packed with fruit — strawberry, raspberry and blackberry with a touch of sweet spice. Wonderful and very food-friendly.”

CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA

Sprawling across endless, staggeringly blue coastline, and watched over by the iconic plane of Table Mountain, Cape Town is without doubt one of the world's most beautiful cities. There's no shortage of things to see and do. Kirstenbosch National Botanical Garden is a floral paradise containing more than 7,000 colourful plant species. It's incredibly beautiful and rightly named as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. You can also take a short boat journey out to Robben Island to see and learn more about Nelson Mandela's incarceration. Alternatively, simply explore Cape Town's famous V&A Waterfront before grabbing some downtime on one of the city's beautiful white-sanded beaches.

MAHE, SEYCHELLES

The more than 100 Seychelles Islands are often regarded as the Garden of Eden. Here you will encounter breathtaking vistas, rugged mountains, lagoons, coral atolls, splendid beaches and secluded coves. The people here are a fusion of three continents - Africa, Asia and Europe. This has created a unique culture and you'll hear three different languages - Creole, French and English. Mahe is the largest island in the archipelago, and few capitals can claim a more beautiful backdrop than Victoria. Visit the museum, cathedral, government house, clock tower, botanical gardens and open-air market for just a taste of this jewel of the Seychelles.

★ Japan Tour Highlights ★

Discover the Wonders of Japan in Cherry Blossom

Each year Japan transforms into a pink Arcadia as cherry trees (Sakura) are awash with their seasonal bloom. This natural marvel is so well followed in Japan, it even makes the daily weather report. Here are our top spots for witnessing the flourishing blossoms at this magical time of year showcase the finest regional flavours available - with top end barramundi, locally produced beef and lamb and native Australian fare including wild rosella flower, there is plenty to savour.

Three night hotel stay in Tokyo, Japan

You'll never forget a visit to the sensory explosion that is Tokyo. Capital of Japan, this is a city where you'll find centuries-old culture jostling for a position next to cutting-edge technology - a fabulous blend of history and modernity that has to be seen to be believed. To get a feel for Tokyo's natural beauty, head to Yoyogi Park, where cherry blossoms are resplendent in spring. Close to the Yoyogi Park is the Meiji Jingu Shrine, established in 1920 and dedicated to Emperor Meiji who helped to open Japan up to the west. As impressive as anything else is its 40-foot gate, made of 1,500-year old cypress. At the main shrine buildings, you may show respect by bowing twice, clapping your hands twice, making a wish then bowing once more.
