WELCOME

TO THE MARCH EDITION OF BLUE HORIZONS

Welcome to our exciting March edition of Blue Horizons which features the long awaited launch for Cunard. It is wonderful timing as we have just won the Outstanding

Contribution Award for

Cunard which represents our partnership for this iconic brand. This is a great achievement for the company. 2024 stands to be a significant year in Cunard's history as they welcome Queen Anne to the fleet in May - it is 14 years since the last new ship was welcomed into the fleet so it is no wonder that there is great excitement for Queen Anne's arrival. In this edition on pages 04-05 you will find the incredible Queen Anne World Cruise Launch departing in 2026, a real once-in-a-lifetime experience with Cunard on their brand new flag ship. There are a variety of launch offers inside this edition, enabling you to be one of the very first to book on these sailings.

Booking early means you will have a much greater choice of stateroom which our well-trained and experienced cruise consultants can assist you with, knowing the cruise lines in detail as our staff do will support you in making the right choices, so you can begin to get excited from the moment you start planning your next cruise.

Also in this edition we have some wonderful Signature Experiences; have you ever fancied 'the USA's musical Deep South'? Well, if so, turn to pages 20-22 where you can find our fully-escorted land tour featuring Nashville and Graceland, have a read through and see what you think.

Whatever you are considering please give our knowledgeable team a call to find out more and we look forward to hearing from you soon.

Happy Cruising!

Rosie and Sarah

Here the spotless beaches of St. Vincent, Aruba and Dominica await, along with a late evening stay in the Caribbean paradise of Curaçao. Beyond the beaches, these island paradises have so much to offer, from centuries-old rum distilleries and spectacular landscapes to world-class snorkelling and a kaleidoscope of colourful marine life. Finally you can revel in several relaxing days at sea as you head back to Southampton via the vibrant Azores outpost of Ponta Delgada, where you can find an intoxicating combination of Portuguese hospitality and the distinct Azorean culture.

Why it pays to peek beyond the ports

BY JANE ARCHER

Who wants to just sit on a beach when you could be doing this? Our guide Alberto asks. The 'this' in question is getting exceedingly wet on a boat that goes under the water thundering over the Iguassu (or Iguazú) Falls. He's so right.

Niagara has three falls, the highest of which is 187 feet. Pahl! That's nothing. Iguassu, which means 'Big Water' and borders Brazil and Argentina, has 175 waterfalls that are up to 269 feet high. So much water spills over them (around 1.5 million litres of water per second) that if you stand above the Devil's Throat you get soaked by mist rising 500 feet into the air.

I was recently sticking pins in a map to see all the places in the world I've visited and it brought home to me that almost all were on the coast. Clearly I don't spend enough time discovering what lies beyond the ports, which is really remiss of me because combining a holiday at sea with a pre or post-cruise tour is the best of both worlds.

I added my two nights at the Iguassu Falls (and also a couple of nights in Buenos Aires) to the start of a cruise to Antarctica; a couple of years earlier I tackled a few nights in one of Princess Cruises' wilderness lodges in Alaska to the end of a Princess voyage from Vancouver to Whittier.

It was seamless. I disembarked in Whittier, took a train and coach laid on by Princess to their lodge and had a couple of days exploring Denali National Park before transferring to Anchorage, flying to Vancouver and then home.

I got to see inland Alaska and learn more about life in the state when the cruise ships have left and their rather brutal winter settles in. "We stay indoors and fix all the things we haven't had time to do in summer," one woman told me, only half joking. With deep snow and freezing temperatures outside, that seems a good plan.

Flick through this issue of Blue Horizons and you'll see some of the pre or post-cruise tours that ROL has put together – their Signature Experiences.

One on pages (18-19) bolts a few nights in Buenos Aires and the Iguassu Falls onto a 2025 Princess cruise, sailing from the Argentinean capital to San Antonio in Chile, about 90 minutes outside the capital, Santiago, by way of the Falkland Islands and Cape Horn. Another on pages 20-21 adds a 12-night tour from Chicago to Miami to the start of a seven-night island-hopping voyage in the Caribbean with Celebrity Cruises.

What an amazing trip that is, visiting places that between them reveal a slice of life in the American heartlands, away from the New York and Miami skylines. You'll learn about Chicago's spectacular art-deco architecture, take a tram to the top of St Louis' famous Gateway Arch towering 630 feet above the Mississippi, see places in Nashville where the likes of Johnny Cash and Brenda Lee once played.

You'll discover why Paducah is famous (spoiler alert: It's all to do with quilting), visit museums dedicated to BB King and Tina Turner, and see RCA Studio B in Music Row where Elvis recorded Lonesome Tonight.

You'll also have a night at the Grand Ole Opry, find out why there's a full-scale replica of the Parthenon in Nashville, tour the Graceland mansion in Memphis where Elvis lived and died (well worth seeing but I confess it made me feel a bit tearful) and peek into Sun Studio, also in Memphis, where, aged 18, he made his first record.

There are also three days to explore New Orleans (don't miss the French Quarter and some authentic Creole cooking) and another two nights in Miami. And all that's just for starters. You've still got an amazing cruise on Celebrity Beyond to come. Get ready to make a lifetime of memories.

★ YOUR CRUISE HIGHLIGHTS ★

ICONIC IGUAZÚ FALLS

The Iguazú Falls were formed some 120 million years ago and can be found in the Iguazú National Park, which straddles the border with Brazil. One quarter of a million gallons of water cascades down the cliffs – some of which are taller than the Statue of Liberty – every second. This is where you will find the greatest annual flow of any waterfall in the world. You will run out of superlatives to describe just how staggering this place is and nothing will be able to describe the sound and feel of the water crashing into the plunge pools below.

Buenos Aires, ARGENTINA

Fall in love with the romantic city of Buenos Aires, a Latin American capital with European flair. Spend some time experiencing the rich culture of the city. Founded in the early 16th century, Buenos Aires was transformed from a colonial port into a cosmopolitan metropolis – the “Paris of the South” – by the cattle boom of the 1880s. As in the American West, boom was followed by bust. But that did not stop Buenos Aires from becoming the city it is today. With its air of haunted grandeur, Buenos Aires is a place of icy intellect and smouldering passion. It is a city where the elegant Colon Theater, one of the world’s great opera houses, stands in counterpoint to the working class barrios that gave birth to the tango.

AUTHENTIC ARGENTINE TANGO

This famous ballroom favourite evolved in the lower-class districts of Buenos Aires in the 1880s. You can experience the raw passion of this sensual dance during a FREE Dinner & Tango show.

YOUR INCREDIBLE VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

PAPEETE, FRENCH POLYNESIA

Brilliant blue lagoons, proud jagged peaks, coconut groves and a hint of gardenia in the air. Everything you've ever imagined about this island is true. An enchanting place, to say the least, it's little wonder Tahiti is a muse to so many. Herman Melville and Paul Gauguin certainly found some inspiration here. And Papeete, the island's very cosmopolitan city, has its fair share. So before you immerse yourself in Tahiti's earthy delights, make sure you visit Papeete's vibrant waterfront and colourful market, brimming with everything from fresh fruit to artisan treasures. You'll find it, well, picture perfect.

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON, USA

Seattle may be famous for its rainy weather, but the West Coast's 'Emerald City' also boasts green parks, delicious coffee, and colourful neighbourhoods filled with music, artists, and farmers' markets. Whether you're admiring the city skyline from the Space Needle or exploring the wilderness of Mount Rainier, Washington State's tallest mountain, Seattle is the perfect place to mix urban life with the natural world. Seattle's fun and unconventional side spills over in Fremont, where plenty of creative residents have named the neighbourhood 'The Centre of the Known Universe'.

Multi-Generational Cruising

Let's travel as a family

Multi-generational cruises blend timeless stories with new adventures. Catering to all age groups, they offer a medley of activities, ensuring everyone's interests are met. Dive into this floating haven where family memories span generations and shared moments become treasured tales. Set sail on a journey that celebrates every generation.

“My husband and I have been on numerous cruises over the years but last year my daughter and her husband, together with their daughter (our 7-year-old granddaughter), decided that they would give it a go with us around the Eastern Mediterranean, mainly because the itinerary appeal to them and they felt more comfortable doing it with us, as they had never cruise before.

They absolutely loved it! So much so that we've all booked another one. Our granddaughter was overwhelmed with everything the ship had to offer her, especially the pool deck and the buffet where she could go and exercise some independence. Her mum and dad (and us, of course) knew that she was safe; an important benefit. We all like waking up each morning in a different port, going ashore in the knowledge that we have a floating place to return to. Nothing better! We looked forward to many more happy cruises together.

ROL Cruise Customer, Christine Hart

“I had my first experience on a multi-generational cruise last summer and the experience was truly great for all of us.

We were in two cabins next door to each other which meant we were all close by but also had our own space, which was a wonderful set up.

There were a range of activities for all ages to choose from, but equally you could just do your own thing with no time restrictions and be ready for dinner at the same time as each other. The lounge was also relaxing to spend time in whilst you waited for the rest of your party. You can literally spend as much time together as you wish and the ship was perfect for this.

We were never very far away from each other and really enjoyed our time away, now planning the next one!

Sarah Wikevand, Managing Director at ROL Cruise

“We travelled during the school holidays and we were very impressed with everything the ship had to offer, considering the wide range of ages within our family group.

There were a lot of activity options available on board for the children and adults, we could come and go as we pleased and tailor each day to our individual or group needs.

We could also go ashore together during the day and explore as a family, then return to the Ship knowing that everyone could spend the evening in their own style. This was the perfect way to holiday as a family and I would highly recommend a cruise for a larger group including grandparents and grandchildren, it really makes for a relaxing time away together to create some treasured memories.

Rosie Cairns, Managing Director at ROL Cruise

The chefs draw inspiration from the countries you pass through so you'll experience the true cuisine of every region. An extensive list of complimentary beverages is available all day too.

Here's what the experts have to say...

The high-end claret still ranks indisputably among the world's most prestigious and sought-after fine wine categories. However, we can assure you that despite what stellar prices have come to reflect Bordeaux's more glamorous châteaux (Lafite, Margaux, Cheval Blanc et al.), when you know where to look – fabulous wines are still to be found at all price points. As you cruise the Garonne River, we're sure you'll find your favourite!

★ YOUR VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS ★

This voyage takes you off the beaten track to remote destinations, where you can gain an insight into the local way of life while capturing unspoilt scenery and elusive wildlife. Your cruise has been timed to encounter the world's largest population of humpback whales off Newfoundland, which you can search for with the help of wildlife charity ORCA. You may also be lucky enough to spot a polar bear climbing the rocky islands of Nunavut. Geological wonders await your discovery too, from Iceland's geysers and waterfalls to Greenland's glaciers and icebergs. Elsewhere, you can uncover societies shaped by emigration, such as Nova Scotia with its Scottish heritage and the Viking archaeological site of L'Anse aux Meadows.

You have the power to make a difference by choosing sustainable travel options that actively support reforestation efforts. Together, we can reduce our ecological footprint and nurture a greener, more sustainable future.

OUR PLEDGE TO REFORESTATION:

For every cruise booking made with us, we'll plant a tree with the help of More Trees. This not only helps restore forests in areas affected by deforestation but also aids in offsetting the carbon footprint of cruise travel.
