Q As we've spent much of 2020 ashore, many of us can't wait to take to the seas again! Do you have any exciting travel and cruising plans for 2021 and beyond?
We are hoping to go on a tour of Japan in early June, which we should have been on in May 2020.

Q When we can return to the seas, the cruise experience will be a little different to how it was before. What are your expectations for this newer way of cruising?
We are hoping it will be as much as normal, we do expect more hygiene, and social distancing, no helping yourself to food, but as time goes on and the vaccine proves to be working, things will slowly relax.

Q What are you most looking forward to about returning to cruising?
Seeing old friends, meeting new people, travelling to new places.

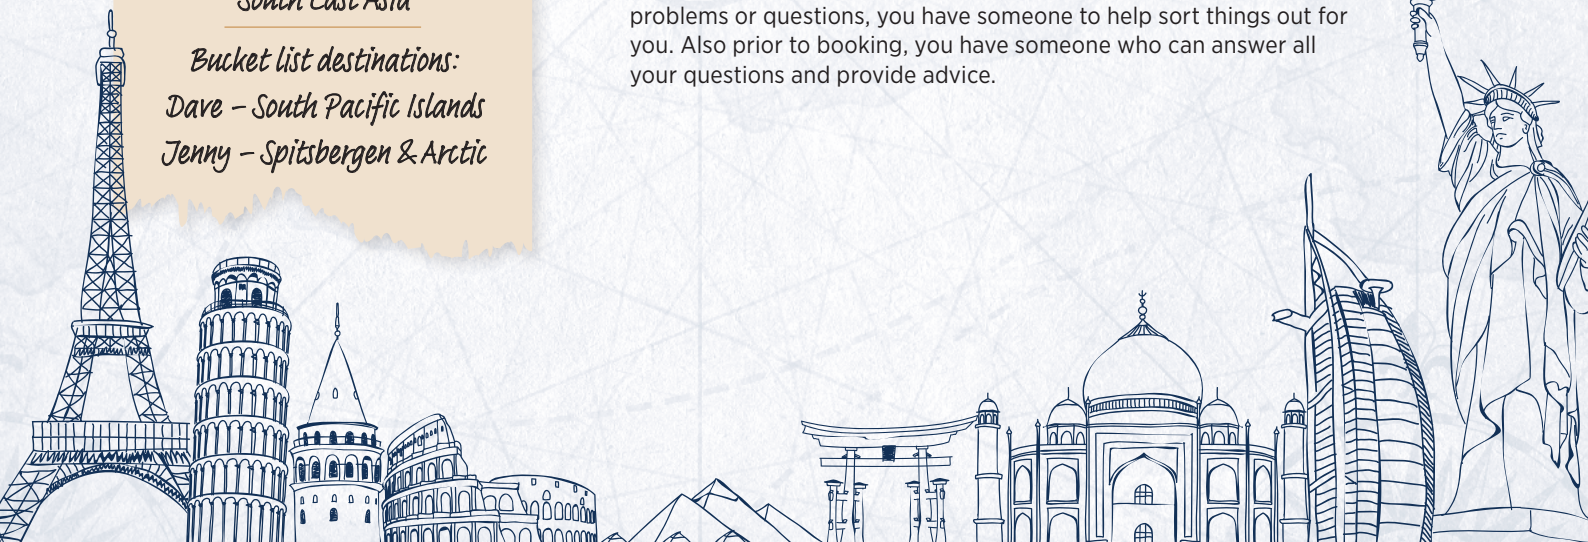

Q What's on your travel bucket list for the next few years?
Spitsbergen/Arctic and the South Pacific Islands.

Q Do you have any top cruising tips for our readers?
Be sure to pack all medication & documentation in hand luggage. Research ports in advance.

Q Can you tell us a bit about your unique relationship with ROL Cruise?
As a retired couple, ROL Cruise has given us a unique opportunity to share our extensive experience of worldwide travel with ROL guests. To enable them to have the best experience possible.

Q What do you love most about being an ROL Cruise Ambassador?
Meeting people from all walks of life and making new friends, and being able to help them if needed.

Q What do you think the importance of booking with a travel agent is?
First and foremost, peace of mind – knowing that if there are any problems or questions, you have someone to help sort things out for you. Also prior to booking, you have someone who can answer all your questions and provide advice.

THE MYSTERIES OF MACHU PICCHU

Built around 1450 and abandoned at the time of the Spanish conquest, thick tangles of vines and trees shielded it from the outside world for centuries. Since being 'found' by an American archaeologist in 1911, 'The Lost City of the Incas' has now taken centre stage as one of the greatest destinations in the world.

Excavations at the site have revealed skeletons, artefacts and woollen clothing, and you can admire the famous precision of Incan stonework on display here. Still, as the Incas left no written records behind about the city's rise or fall, Machu Picchu remains one of the most archaeologically mysterious sites in the world.

You'll never forget a visit to the sensory explosion that is Tokyo. To get a feel for Tokyo's natural beauty, head to Yoyogi Park, where cherry blossoms are resplendent in spring. Close to the Yoyogi Park is the Meiji Jingu Shrine, established in 1920 and dedicated to Emperor Meiji who helped to open Japan up to the west. As impressive as anything else is its 40-foot gate, made of 1,500-year-old cypress. At the main shrine buildings, you may show respect by bowing twice, clapping your hands twice, making a wish then bowing once more. You may be lucky enough to catch a traditional Japanese wedding procession.

INTRODUCING THE INDIAN PACIFIC TRAIN... A TRANSCONTINENTAL JOURNEY UNLIKE ANY OTHER

INDIAN PACIFIC

A journey aboard the iconic Indian Pacific Train will whisk you between Perth, Adelaide and Sydney in comfort and style. Named for the two oceans the train encounters on its journey across the longest stretch of straight railway track in the world, a spectacular 4,352km crossing. Step on board for a three night all-inclusive rail journey you'll never forget. With its bold wedge-tailed eagle emblem symbolising the scope, range and significance of each epic journey, the Indian Pacific traverses mountain ranges, passes through arid deserts and goldfields, rocky valleys and subtropical savannahs on its transcontinental crossings.

Become rich with authentic Australian experiences as you mingle with like-minded travellers in the Outback Explorer Lounge – the perfect place to enjoy a wide range of all-inclusive refreshments as you catch glimpses of passing wildlife through wide picture windows. You will be struck by the ornate styling of the Queen Adelaide Restaurant, reminiscent of old world rail travel. Dynamic menus showcase the finest regional flavours available – from Top End barramundi, locally produced beef and lamb and native Australian fare including wild rosella flower, there is plenty to savour.

FROM SHELF TO SEA...

Whilst many of us may not have the luxury of time to indulge in a good book back at home, cruising is the perfect opportunity to delve into a new novel – or two! If you need inspiration for what to read on your next cruise, then be sure to add the below books to your list, handpicked by ROL Cruise...

The Frayed Atlantic Edge

BY DAVID GANGE

Over the course of a year, leading historian and nature writer David Gange kayaked the weather-ravaged coasts of Atlantic Britain and Ireland from north to south: every cove, sound, inlet and island. Drawing on the archives of islands and coastal towns, as well as their vast poetic literatures in many languages, he shows that the neglected histories of these stunning regions are of real importance in understanding both the past and future of the whole archipelago. It is a history of Britain and Ireland like no other.

Hugh Johnson's Pocket Wine Book 2021

BY HUGH JOHNSON

Hugh Johnson's Pocket Wine Book is the quintessential reference book for any wine lover. Hugh Johnson provides clear succinct facts and commentary on the wines, growers and wine regions of the whole world. He reveals which vintages to buy, which to drink and which to cellar, which growers to look for and why.

Incredible Journeys

BY DAVID BARRIE

In Incredible Journeys, award-winning author David Barrie takes us on a tour of the cutting-edge science of animal navigation, where breakthroughs are allowing scientists to unravel, for the first time, how animals as varied as butterflies, birds, crustaceans, fish, reptiles and even people find their way.
