Perhaps the most revolutionary ship ever to set sail, Celebrity Apex SM, sister to the ground-breaking Celebrity Edge SM, will be sailing from Southampton in 2020. On pages 18-19 you can read all about the spectacular innovations on board, such as the Infinite Balconies and the already famous Magic Carpet! Introducing Edge Villas, the second new suite category on the Edge Class ships. These 2 storey luxury residences are the first of their kind in the fleet. Each offers a spacious 739 square feet of split-level splendour, plus one bedroom and two bathrooms – perfect for up to four guests.

CONCIERGE AND BALCONY STATEROOMS

Concierge Class is the perfect choice if you want to know everything is taken care of. And, exclusive to Edge Class, your Concierge Class Stateroom features an Infinite Balcony – with the touch of a button your doors will fold away and your entire living space will become your balcony.

THE RESORT DECK

On the Resort Deck, enjoy the main pool area, the new Rooftop Garden, the jogging track, and the adults-only Solarium. The Pool Deck showcases oversized art installations including unique treetop sculptures; two 2 storey hot tubs; and private Cabanas. The Rooftop Garden is a living urban playscape inspired by childhood playgrounds. Catch a movie at A Taste of Film; dance the night away to a live band; or dine at the Rooftop Garden Grill.

INTRODUCING EDÉN

With three levels of sensory experiences, fully encased in glass and looking out to the ocean, Edén is a true window to the world. From the awakening aromas rising from Edén Café and the natural scents of the Library of Plants growing above Edén Bar; to the divine, experiential cuisine at Edén Restaurant and the crescendo of theatrics that close the night, indulge every sense at Edén.

THE MAGIC CARPET

The size of a tennis court, and reaching heights of 13 storeys above sea level, the Magic Carpet is the world's first cantilevered, floating platform. Majestically situated on the starboard side, it is designed with comfortable seating, a full bar, and space for live music performances – so it truly is a destination itself.

ARCTIC CIRCLE

This ultimate journey with Hurtigruten is described as “The World’s Most Beautiful Voyage” by Lonely Planet. See 34 ports and cover over 2,500 nautical miles, which allows you to explore every inch that Norway’s magical coast has to offer. Any time of year, it’s a voyage like no other. 22 of the ports lie north of the Polar Circle – and you will be given the opportunity to join excursions tailor-made to match your exploration level*. On this voyage, you will not only feel like an explorer, you will be one.

Spectacular Seasons

With spring comes the return of the warmth and daylight, which is like an infusion of vitamins, kick-starting life along the Norwegian coast. The migratory birds return, meaning the coast is teeming with life. You’ll also visit the beautiful Lyngenfjord, with its majestic mountain backdrop and unique nature.

In summer, the long light days seem to energise both nature and people. Even as far south as Bergen, you can experience 19 hours of daylight. Flowers bloom, rivers fill with fish and giant waterfalls cascade towards the ocean, creating a picture-perfect setting for a summer holiday. North of the Arctic Circle, you can experience the Midnight Sun – a natural phenomenon.

The autumn sailings include a visit to the incredibly beautiful Hjørundfjord. Majestic mountains surround this narrow fjord, and Hurtigruten offer several excursions that let you explore this spectacular area. Enjoy a beautiful voyage during this season, as the fresh and clear coastal air enhances the intense red and yellow that fills mountainsides, hilltops and forests.

Life on board with Hurtigruten

Since 1893, Hurtigruten ships have provided vital links between cities, towns and hamlets on Norway’s shores, delivering post, local passengers, freight and today holidaymakers up and down the stunning Norwegian coast. When you sail with Hurtigruten, you are on an expedition with like-minded adventurers who value personal growth and exploring. On board, enjoy a casual and relaxed atmosphere, great food, and all the quality equipment you need to explore new destinations.

Hurtigruten Go Plastic Free

Hurtigruten have made history by removing all single use plastics from their ships! Hurtigruten, who sail to some of the world’s most remote, pristine and delicate environments, have made their announcement at a time when concern for rising plastic in the oceans is at an all-time high.

Please note Hurtigruten ships are working ships and ship may vary depending on departure date. Please note Arctic Superior Outside Cabins can be based on fixed double or twin bed configuration. †Some Polar Outside and Arctic Superior Cabins have limited/no views. Midnight Sun phenomenon is a seasonal occurrence and may not be guaranteed on all departure dates. Wildlife sightings are not guaranteed. 11 NIGHTS DEPARTING 25TH APRIL, 20TH MAY, 2ND JUNE,
25TH JULY, 8TH AUGUST & 13TH SEPTEMBER 2019
OTHER DATES ARE AVAILABLE ON REQUEST

- Day 1 Fly from London to Bergen, Norway². Upon arrival, transfer to the port and embark your ship
- Day 2 Florø – Molde, Norway
If you wake up early, you have the chance to enjoy the breathtaking beauty of the Nordfjord. The ship then navigates through skerries and islands before reaching Ålesund, renowned for its beautiful Art Nouveau architecture. In the summer months, you'll set course for the spectacular UNESCO-listed Geirangerfjord passing sheer, 800 metre cliffs and impressive waterfalls en route. In autumn, you'll explore Hjørundfjord, situated amidst the majestic Sunnmøre Alps
- Day 3 Kristiansund – Rørvik, Norway
Few large cities have managed to preserve their intimacy as effectively as Norway's third largest city, Trondheim, which you can also explore from sea level in a kayak along the River Nid⁴. During spring and summer, you continue to the Ringve Museum of Musical History, where the history of Norway's music is brought to life. This beautiful manor house is surrounded by a wonderful botanical garden, and provides fantastic views of both the city and the fjord. From September to May you can experience Trondheim in a vintage carriage on the world's northernmost tram for a unique sightseeing tour⁴
- Day 4 Brønnøysund – Svolvær, Norway
Today you'll cross the Arctic Circle! In summer, this means 24-hour daylight – often referred to as the 'Midnight Sun'. If you are sailing in Arctic waters for the first time, you can participate in a daytime Arctic Circle ceremony on deck. Later this afternoon, the sight of the 1,000m high Lofoten Wall appears on the horizon. Tucked between majestic granite cliffs and white sandy beaches, Lofoten is an experience that is out of the ordinary
- Day 5 Stokmarknes – Skjervøy, Norway
Today, visit Tromsø, 'Capital of the Arctic'. In spring, you can complete your stay in Tromsø with a thrilling husky dog sledge ride⁵. On this mini polar expedition, the huskies pull you over the frozen landscape while you enjoy stunning views of the ocean, mountains and open plateaus⁵. In summer, join a kayaking excursion and paddle in the waters off the Tromsø coastline with the mountains as a stunning backdrop⁵
- Day 6 Øksfjord – Berlevåg, Norway
Enjoy magnificent sub-Arctic landscapes as you cross the 71st parallel. In summer, you may see herds of grazing reindeer and small camps belonging to the indigenous Sámi people. From Honningsvåg, you can join an optional excursion⁶ to the North Cape, the northernmost point on the European continent – make sure you get a photo with the iconic globe sculpture
- Day 7 Båtsfjord – Kirkenes – Berlevåg, Norway
This morning, arrive in Kirkenes, the turning point for the return journey southwards. The ports previously visited by night are now seen by day. The Russian border is a just few miles away and depending on the season, there are many ways to visit the Russian frontier
- Day 8 Mehamn – Tromsø, Norway
At Honningsvåg, you can join an excursion that features breakfast at the North Cape⁶. In spring, you'll sail through the beautiful Lyngenfjord, surrounded by the snowy peaks of the Lyngen Alps, and where you may be visited by a local fisherman who shares a

- taste of fresh, locally-caught prawns. You'll then dock at Tromsø, just in time to enjoy a magical midnight concert at the Arctic Cathedral⁷. Experience the breathtaking acoustics and hear Norwegian folk songs and hymns performed by professional musicians
- Day 9 Tromsø – Stamsund, Norway
The island groups of Lofoten and Vesterålen offer some of the most stunning scenery you will see during the entire coastal voyage. Later, reach the spectacular Trollfjord, only 2km long and 100m wide, surrounded by majestic mountains. Steep cliffs hug the ship's sides and the dramatic landscape conjures fairy tale images of an imaginary land of trolls. Trollfjord is also the realm of the sea eagle
- Day 10 Bodø – Rørvik, Norway
Sail along the Helgeland coast, passing hundreds of islets, fertile farmland and steep granite walls rich in local lore. On deck, you can see the strange mountain Torghatten, famous for its distinctive hole right through the middle. Another highlight is sailing past the Seven Sisters mountain range. All seven mountains are between 900 and 1,100m high, and it is easy to understand how these 'ladies' influenced ancient myths
- Day 11 Trondheim – Ålesund, Norway
Today provides another opportunity to explore the city of Trondheim. In Kristiansund, you can join an excursion to the renowned Atlantic Road, one of Norway's most visited tourist destinations. It is 8.2km long, built on a total of eight bridges and surrounded by picturesque landscapes and open sea⁸

IN THE LAND OF ICE AND SNOW

Antarctica is the coldest, windiest and most remote place on Earth. A frozen world in winter (that's our summer), almost 60 times the size of Britain that spends half the year in total darkness and is cut off from civilisation by the Drake Passage, one of the most feared sea crossings in the world.

Are you sure you want to go? Of course you do – and I don't blame you. It is also one of the most majestic places on the planet, with snow-capped mountains, deep ice fjords, icebergs the size of six-storey buildings and so much sea ice in winter that the continent doubles in size.

There are hundreds of thousands of cute penguins waddling around awkwardly on land or lazing on passing icebergs. There are also formidable orcas, humpback whales, seals, albatross and other seabirds to look out for.

Not so long ago, a cruise to Antarctica meant roughing it on research vessels but ships have become increasingly luxurious over the past few years. And now, the soon-to-launch Scenic Eclipse promises to, well, eclipse, even the very best.

The World's First Discovery Yacht™ built by river cruise line Scenic enters service in April 2019 and will have all-suite, all-balcony accommodation (not that you'll want to sit outside much in Antarctica as it is a bit chilly!), butlers and so many places to eat that over the course of a week you can try a different one every day.

But it's the exciting things you can do off the ship that make Eclipse extra special. Paddle kayaks among icebergs, go snowshoeing, get a bird's eye view of the continent from a helicopter, even dive below the ocean in a seven-man submarine. And, of course, walk through penguin colonies on trips ashore.

Under the regulations protecting Antarctica, only 100 people are allowed on land at any one time, and all landings have to be made by inflatable Zodiac, often stepping into the water or onto rocks because there are no ports. Wellington boots and waterproof trousers are a must, and whilst on the subject of packing, you'll also need jumpers, woolly hats, scarves and gloves. Plan for layers and you won't go wrong.

Once ashore, you'll likely be walking in snow. You must stay in marked areas, try to walk in tracks made by the expedition team so you all leave as few footprints as possible and keep a distance from the penguins. That's easier said than done, mind, as they are curious little creatures that come waddling over to inspect you. Collecting stones or other souvenirs is strictly forbidden, as is dropping litter.

Ships with up to 500 people can take passengers ashore but Scenic is restricting numbers to a comfortable 200 (outside the Polar regions Scenic Eclipse will carry 228 passengers), so landings can be quick and efficient. If weather conditions allow, they may even be able to offer two landings a day.

Ah yes, the weather. Scenic has voyages in the Southern Ocean that link Antarctica with South Georgia and the Falklands or the Chilean Fjords, as well as 16 night cruises that spend six days in the Antarctic Peninsula (you'll find more about an Antarctica in Depth sailing that's on sale through ROL Cruise elsewhere in this issue of Blue Horizons) but don't be surprised that the itinerary only gives you a taste of the things you'll do during your time there.

It's because the actual route the ship will follow depends on ice or wind conditions, and these can change by the hour. Pack a sense of adventure and rest assured the Captain and expedition team will work together to ensure you have the best holiday – ever.

ANTARCTICA HIGHLIGHTS

HALF-MOON ISLAND

Only 2km long, with dramatic rock formations, multi-coloured lichens and a population of chinstrap penguins. Whales are often spotted patrolling the shores.

LEMAIRE CHANNEL

A narrow passage, just 1,600 metres at its widest point, nicknamed Kodak Gap because the scenery is stunning. Think steep cliffs, mountain peaks, icebergs and hopefully some minke or humpback whales.

PARADISE HARBOUR

An aptly-named bay surrounded by glaciated mountains and ice cliffs and home to a colony of gentoo penguins.

GERLACHE STRAIT

Cameras at the ready because this is a favourite hangout for humpback and minke whales, chinstrap penguins and leopard seals.

ELEPHANT ISLAND

Named for its colony of elephant seals and made famous as the place where 21 crew from Sir Ernest Shackleton's failed expedition to cross Antarctica via the South Pole survived four months while their leader went for help.

PORT LOCKROY

The former British base at Port Lockroy now curated by the UK Antarctica Heritage Trust. You can look around huts preserved as they were in the 1940s and there is a shop for souvenir hunters.

SEASONS OF ANTARCTICA

The season to travel to Antarctica is short. No matter which time you choose, every day will be an amazing experience with close encounters with wildlife, soaring icebergs and beautiful icescapes that will take your breath away.

LATE SPRING AND EARLY SUMMER

November and December is a time like no other. The sun powers an explosion of life, ice breaks out of bays with enormous pristine icebergs floating freely and wildlife are feeding and breeding.

- Landscapes are ice-clad and pristine
- Penguin colonies bustle with lively courtship rituals
- Humpback, minke and southern right whales arrive
- Fur and elephant seals give birth
- This is the ideal season for keen photographers to capture the Antarctic twilight

SUMMER

January and February see the longest days of summer with nearly 24 hours of daylight and the temperature reaching a balmy 1 or 2 degrees Celsius (33-35F). The ice starts to break further south and it is playtime for the wildlife.

- Leopard seals are hunting their prey
- Great concentrations of whale species feeding
- Large number of crabeater seals rest on icebergs

- Humpbacks treat you to magnificent displays of breaching
- Leopard seals court with their incredible song

- Wed 11 ★Iguazú Falls – Argentinian Side★
After breakfast, transfer to Iguazú Falls for your full day tour. Iguazú National Park, a total of 55,500 hectares, bears the name of the river serving as northern border, which means 'great waters' in the local Guaraní language. Surrounded by a lush subtropical rainforest, you will find the majestic Iguazú Waterfalls. Its water volume and more than 275 falls places it among the most important and spectacular waterfalls in the world. On different footbridges, you will visit the heart of the waterfalls as well as the lower circuit, appreciating them from different angles. On the upper circuit, stop at different viewpoints, and then reach the balcony at Garganta del Diablo (Devil's Throat) for spectacular views
- Thu 12 ★Iguazú Falls – Brazilian Side★
After breakfast, enjoy a full day tour of the Brazilian side of Iguazú Falls. Located on the west end of the Paraná river, the Iguazú Park is a huge tropical rainforest which has been declared a World Heritage Site: it is one of the largest forest reserves in South America. Today, take an elevator down to the base of the waterfalls and stop right above the river level. From a 1,000 metre footbridge, you will be able to admire the majestic Iguazú Falls or go up an elevator to the Salto Floreano viewpoint. Later, transfer to the airport for your flight to Buenos Aires. Upon arrival, transfer to a 4★ hotel† for your overnight stay, including breakfast

AN EXCLUSIVE FREE FULL DAY CORCOVADO & SUGAR LOAF MOUNTAIN TOUR*

Your tour begins as you board a cog train from Cosme Velho Station for a ride to Corcovado Mountain to visit one of the world's most famous landmarks and one of the New Seven Wonders of the World, the gigantic statue of Christ the Redeemer. Experience a train journey through the dense Atlantic rainforest of Tijuca, offering a closer look at the forest's lush tropical vegetation and scenic landscapes. At the top of Corcovado, disembark and make your way up the steps that lead to the top lookout where the towering statue of Christ the Redeemer stands. After lunch, travel to Urca to visit Sugar Loaf Mountain by cable car.
