EXCLUSIVE PROMOTION ENDS 8.30PM 29TH NOVEMBER 2017

“All-Award!”

ROL Cruise Celebrates Multi-Award Success

Here at ROL Cruise, we are delighted to announce a steady run of award success at several high-profile industry and business award programmes over the last few months.

Jeremy Dickinson, CEO of ROL Cruise, said “To be recognised by our industry, partners and the wider business community for our team’s continued focus on excellence is something we should all be very proud of.”

We have been announced as finalists in the following:

★ Engage Awards for Customer Service for the ‘Best Use of Training’ category

★ Wave Awards 2018 for the ‘Cruise Travel Agent of the Year’

★ CLIA River Cruise Excellence Awards for the ‘Best Overall Performance (South)’

★ Customer Experience Awards, for the ‘Hospitality, Leisure and Travel’ category

★ British Travel Awards, for the ‘Best Cruise Holiday Retailer’

Kelly Hoppen – Renowned Interior Designer for Celebrity EdgeSM

“One of the main reasons I was drawn to this project was the challenge of doing something that’s never been done before, which, given that I’ve been doing interior design for 41 years, is hugely attractive,” Ms Hoppen says on her brand new Celebrity EdgeSM project.

The attractive renders supplied demonstrate that Celebrity Cruises® have truly upped the stakes in design terms – featuring exquisitely sleek suites, some of which include two bedrooms with a king-sized Cashmere Collection bed and two bathrooms with a full shower and whirlpool tub; attractive colour schemes throughout; modern finishing touches and comfortable; this luxury living style is sure to feel like a home-from-home for the duration of your voyage. Ms Hoppen added, “creating a real home-from-home, wherever you are in the world, was the most important focus for me, because the home is where you are most comfortable.”

The Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal 2017

For every booking made from this edition of Blue Horizons before 8:30pm 12th November 2017, ROL Cruise will donate £10 per booking to the Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal.

The Royal British Legion provides lifelong support for the Armed Forces community – serving men and women, veterans, and their families.

Remembrance is part of modern British life, culture and heritage. It becomes a particular feature of the public calendar each year when public, private, formal and informal Remembrance events take place throughout the UK.

- Mon 24 Skagway, Alaska
Gateway to the Klondike, the gold rush town of Skagway, Alaska was once a lawless Wild West outpost. Now a national historic park, the preserved boardwalk, shops and streets provide the perfect setting for actors to bring the town's story to life on entertaining tours through its colourful past. - Mon 15 Panama City, Panama
- Tue 16 Transit the Panama Canal
- Thu 18 Oranjestad, Aruba
- Sun 21 Fort Lauderdale, Florida
- Wed 24 New York, USA
New York is the city so good they named it twice. With more restaurants, museums and iconic sights than perhaps any other destination, there's something for everyone in the big city
- Fri 26 Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada
- Sun 28 St. John's, Newfoundland, Canada

AUGUST 2019

INTRODUCING

Celebrity

EDGE

A SHIP DESIGNED TO LEAVE THE FUTURE BEHIND, IS HERE!

Here at ROL Cruise, we are delighted to introduce to you Celebrity EdgeSM in her Maiden European Season, plus unveil her Maiden Sailing from Southampton!

Celebrity EdgeSM changes everything, the way we experience the world; the way we connect with the ocean; the way we play, dine, and unwind at sea. With the launch of Celebrity EdgeSM, the way you cruise will never be the same again. The minute you set sail, you'll feel completely connected to the islands around you – and every shimmering nautical mile of sea that connects them.

IT'S NOT REVOLUTIONARY. IT'S MAGICAL.

ROOFTOP GARDEN. DESIGNED TO AWAKEN THE INNER CHILD IN US ALL

The Rooftop Garden is full of unexpected pleasures day and night. A living urban playscape inspired by childhood playgrounds. It's a lively environment where you can catch a movie at A Taste of Film; dance the night away to a live band; or dine at the Rooftop Garden Grill

THE RETREAT. PARADISE ABOARD A FLOATING PARADISE

Exclusively for Suite Class guests, The Retreat is a luxurious space with private indoor and outdoor areas. It includes The Retreat Sun Deck, with a full-sized pool, Jacuzzi, and dedicated Pool Butlers; Retreat Lounge, open 24/7; and the boldly elegant Retreat Restaurant – Luminae

POOL DECK. AS MUCH A POOL DECK AS A WORK OF ART

A stunning asymmetrical space with a distinct resort-style atmosphere. The Pool Deck features a two-storey Jacuzzi, which is a first for Celebrity Cruises®, oversized art installations and a magnificent Cabanas that tower more than 18 feet high, a real visual delight

SOAR OVER THE OPEN OCEAN WHILE YOU DINE, DRINK, OR SIMPLY RELAX

The Magic Carpet, the size of a tennis court, and reaching heights of 13 storeys above sea level, it is the world's first cantilevered, floating platform. Majestically situated on the starboard side of Celebrity EdgeSM, making the ship's sleek profile recognisable from miles away, it is designed with comfortable seating, a full bar, and space for live music performances – so it truly is a destination itself

SUITES THAT ARE ICONIC IN EVERY WAY

Introducing the Iconic Suite, the most luxurious and spacious in the fleet. Situated above the bridge, on the very top of the ship, these spacious suites have two bedrooms with a king-sized Cashmere Collection bed and two bathrooms with a full shower and whirlpool tub. There's more than enough space for six guests

TWO LEVELS OF INCOMPARABLE LUXURY

These six, two-storey luxury villas are the first of their kind in the fleet, introducing Edge Villas, the second new suite category on Celebrity Edge™. These six, two-storey luxury residences are the first of their kind in the fleet. Each offers a spacious 739 square feet of split-level splendour, plus one bedroom and two bathrooms – perfect for up to four guests

GIVING THE STATEROOMS THE EDGE

Infinite Balconies are the most transformational aspect of the Edge Staterooms. They are not just new; they are a first at sea. These take the standard Celebrity Cruises® Balcony stateroom and with the touch of a button you can blur, even erase, the boundaries between inside and outside living space – which makes them seriously spacious

Iconic Suite

INTRODUCING EDEN

This mind-blowing venue is the epitome of Celebrity Edge's™ outward-facing concept and will awaken every one of your senses in an atmosphere that transforms from chillful mornings to playful afternoons to sinful evenings.

CHILLFUL – Eden in the morning is a chillful place. The atmosphere invites you to explore by the morning light

PLAYFUL – Eden in the afternoon is a playful place where a social vibe kicks in. Join cooking classes, learn new tricks for the tastiest cocktails, and brush up on your wine knowledge with tasting and pairing seminars

SINFUL – The evening ushers in the ultimate experience in an indulgently sinful fusion of performance art, culinary treats and nightlife

Azamara Club Cruises® family is growing, and you are invited to discover the newest ship to the fleet...

We are proud to present to you the newest addition to the Azamara Club Cruises® Fleet, Azamara Pursuit® and unveil her Maiden Season which is set to take in many breathtaking destinations.

Sailing in from her previous assignment as Adonia under P&O Cruises, the new Azamara Pursuit® will be completely refurbished with Azamara's signature boutique hotel style ready for you to embark on her Maiden Season. She will be comparable in size to both Azamara Journey® and Azamara Quest®, so will allow you to visit unique ports that larger ships are unable to reach.

THE MAIDEN NO-FLY ICELAND DISCOVERY

15 NIGHTS DEPARTING 13TH AUGUST 2018

AUGUST 2018

Mon 13 Embark Azamara Pursuit® and depart Southampton

Tue 14 Relaxing at sea

Wed 15 Belfast, Northern Ireland (depart late night)
Belfast is a fairly compact city, made up of three roughly contiguous areas that are easy to navigate on foot. The atmospheric 900-foot-long dock where Titanic was built is open to the public and ranks as one of the greatest attractions in Northern Ireland

Thu 16 - Fri 17 Relaxing at sea

Sat 18 Reykjavík, Iceland (overnight)
Iceland's epic landscape defies description. The greenest of valleys, the blackest of beaches, the bluest of hot geothermal springs, icy waterfalls and the still-warm lava fields. Reykjavík intrigues, with brightly coloured roofs, vibrant cafés and boutiques

Sun 19 Reykjavík, Iceland (depart early evening)

Mon 20 Ísafjörður, Iceland
This Icelandic metropolis is utterly enchanting – modernism collides with the clear, dark waters of the fjord and the majestic landscapes provide a dramatic backdrop. In spite of its prosperity, Ísafjörður retains much of its charm including timber and tin-clad buildings in its centre. Whilst here, why not visit the maritime museum or take a boat trip to nearby Vigur Island, known for its large colony of puffins

Tue 21 Akureyri, Iceland
From Iceland's second largest city, explore the lunar landscape near Lake Myvatn, marvelling at its tumultuous volcanic crater lake, boiling mud pools and steaming earth. The picturesque town is just 100km from the Arctic Circle and features a beautiful fjord which will take your breath away

Wed 22 Seyðisfjörður, Iceland
A place of singing waterfalls, breath-taking fjords and wonderful characters. This soulful town is a hidden gem of Iceland. Take a venture onto the waters by exploring the fjords in all their glory by kayak

Thu 23 Relaxing at sea

Fri 24 Oban, Scotland
Known as the 'Gateway to the Isles', this port of call is the seafood capital of Scotland with a number of award-winning restaurants. The most outstanding feature in Oban is McCaig's Tower, resembling Rome's Colosseum and offers spectacular views over the town

Sat 25 Dublin, Ireland (depart late night)
Take a trip to the National Gallery and discover the works of Monet and Picasso, enjoy a Guinness in one of the friendly pubs or simply stroll around Dublin's cultural quarter and soak up the charming heritage

Sun 26 Waterford, Ireland
The fine crystal industry is to Waterford what whiskey is to the Scottish Highlands. After 100 years of dormancy, Waterford crystal was reborn with the opening of a new factory in 1951. While Waterford is charming in its own right, it is the fine crystal of the same name that has really put the city on the map

Just south of the Tropic of Capricorn, Easter Island, or Rapa Nui, lies 3,790km to the west of Chile. Extraordinarily remote, this island was first inhabited by Polynesians who are believed to have arrived by sea about 1,200 years ago. The island is 24km long, with three extinct volcanic craters and half of the area is a National Park. The island is best known for being the site of more than 600 stone statues, or Moai, which stand up to nine metres in height. The statues were carved in the spectacular Rano Raraku quarry and were then believed to have been transported on wooden rollers to their destinations. It is thought that the last statues were erected around 500 years ago, when the supply of trees for rollers ran out.

Part Eight: from Hawaii to the Big Apple

A Life Well Travelled

Diary of a Tour Ambassador

Gillian Lowes
ROL Cruise Ambassador

As I mentioned earlier, 2016 was as jam-packed as previous years, maybe more so. It felt like a trans-Pacific, trans-Atlantic travel-fest with more flights, more airports and more jetlagged sleeps than I care to count.

I probably flew with every major airline, racking up the air miles at the same time. I love all that, every part of the journey forms part of the memory of all of my travels. But it's the time spent in each of the destinations, the exploring of new lands and sampling of unknown cultures that really makes it worthwhile and last year will be hard to beat.

It's fair to say that March and April ranked as my favourite months of the year. Large groups of guests were embarking and disembarking their cruises in Sydney and Honolulu, meaning we were stationed for three weeks in each city.

Honolulu, Hawaii. The name alone is dreamy. I fell head-over-heels in love with this place. Like Tahiti, it feels tropical, exotic and a million miles from grey and chilly Britain. For me, the beauty of Hawaii is that it is a perfect combination of a tropical paradise and classic USA. The white sands of idyllic Waikiki Beach sit a mere two minute walk from the main strip; filled with endless shops. Tourist shops to department stores, high-end boutiques to drugstores – all this, intermingled with endless eateries, bars and cafés. Carefree tourists stroll alongside local shirtless surfer dudes and the palm trees sway gently in the Pacific breeze.

As an antidote to the glorious glitz of Waikiki, we decided to head up to the north shore of Oahu. Travelling like locals, we paid $2.50 each on the local bus which took us right across the green centre of the island. The contrast was breathtaking and showed us a whole new side to Hawaii, its people and heritage. The scenery was so rugged, no wonder it's played host to Hollywood movie teams shooting the likes of Lost and Jurassic Park.

Back in Honolulu, it's the atmosphere that draws you in. The warm, balmy air, the happy, friendly locals and the pink swirling sunsets. Ah, those sunsets. All this makes for a heady mix of sheer happiness and paradisiacal bliss.

One more tour that I'd always hoped to be assigned to was the Independence Day cruise-and-stay experience in New York City! Every year, many ROL Cruise guests book up with us to sail on board Cunard's Queen Mary 2 over to the Big Apple, spend a few days including the 4th July celebrations in the city, before sailing back to Southampton. Another true trip of a lifetime.

We weren't lucky enough to sail on the majestic vessel but we were there at Brooklyn port when she glided in past the Manhattan skyline. Our guests were scattered across several hotels in Times Square and Fifth Avenue, from where they explored this exciting metropolis at their leisure, as did we in our free time. Rickshaw rides through Central Park, photos atop the Rockefeller Center, shopping until we dropped and dining in Little Italy were just a few of the things we got up to.

But the highlight, the very reason for our being there, was of course the night of 4th July. Along with our 250 guests, we embarked Spirit of New York, a glamorous little party-ship which would take us up and down the Hudson River past the neon-lit skyscrapers as we dined and mingled. All culminating in an unforgettable fireworks display. How utterly exhilarating to bear witness to this world-famous celebration in one of the USA's greatest cities.

LOOK What's Cooking on the Rhône

Jane ARCHER
Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and the Daily Telegraph Travel's cruise expert. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for ten years.

It's never too late to learn, I realise, as French chef Fabien Morreale deftly chops, slices and marinates vegetables during a cookery class on Scenic's river boat Scenic Sapphire.

I confess that watching chefs at work is not something I do at home, never mind on holiday, but I have broken my unwritten rule just this once to try out Scenic Culinaire, an innovative new feature on Sapphire where just eight people at a time can learn from one of France's finest culinary wizzkids.

I'm so glad I did. Not only did we have a close-up view of Fabien at work, which meant plenty of opportunity to ask questions, but we then tucked into what he had prepared – namely zucchini wraps stuffed with goats cheese and served with marinated radishes, red onions, cabbage and croutons. All very simple but bursting with flavour.

Fabien Morreale's zucchini wraps

The cookery school was added to Sapphire last winter along with two super-size Royal Owner's Suites and a Salt Room, which is said to be good for those with respiratory problems, but is also a peaceful place to relax if the weather is a bit grey (the same features have been added to Scenic Diamond, which cruises the Garonne, Gironde and Dordogne Rivers in Southwest France from Bordeaux).

Fabien Morreale in Scenic Culinaire on Scenic Sapphire

Bouchon Restaurant Lyon

Sapphire sails the Rhône and Saône Rivers in France from Chalon-sur-Saône in Burgundy to Tarascon, a small town in Provence just south of Avignon. Unusually, at the end of the cruise – there are either eight or 13 day itineraries – she returns north empty because Scenic reckons it's better for passengers always to travel from north to south, from potentially colder weather towards the Mediterranean sun.

Having cruised both directions I have to agree, and just to prove the point, a few brave souls who went on a 38km guided bike ride from Tournus to Macon in Burgundy were caught in a hailstorm. By the time we reached Lyon two days later, and for the rest of the trip, the mercury was nudging a very lovely 35°C most days.

That was ideal because a lot of the action on this itinerary is outdoors, with walking tours most days as well as guided canoeing and cycling trips. These are all included in the cost, as indeed are all drinks, tips, flights, transfers and speciality dining. In fact the only time you need to open your wallet once on board any Scenic river cruise is if you want a massage or to eat or drink ashore.

I passed on the long bike tour but pedaled 22km from Tournon to a little town called Glun and back, which is not quite as impressive as it sounds because all Scenic's river ships carry electric bikes so if you're flagging you can flick a switch and extra power kicks in. I'm proud to say I actually only had a quick zap of the electric a couple of times during the whole ride.

We listened to an organ recital in Viviers, a sleepy place with just 1,000 inhabitants and the smallest working cathedral in France, and those of us who opted for a tour to Grignon, a small hilltop town with a grand château that looks like a mini Versailles, learned about truffle-hunting and the many uses of lavender.

We also admired Hermitage Hill while imbibing sundowners on the terrace of a castle in Tournon – the hill is behind the town of Tain L'Hermitage and revered by oenophiles as the birthplace of Syrah – and sailed right up to the Pont St. Bénézet in Avignon.

Never heard of it? How about if I tell you it is known as the Pont d'Avignon? It's only half a bridge these days because it was washed away so many times they gave up rebuilding it but along with the Popes Palace is one of the top attractions in the city. You can walk on what remains (it costs €6 per person) but we definitely had the best view, surprising those on the bridge as we got really close, with the song 'Sur the Pont d'Avignon' blasting out of the top deck speakers.

The palace dates back to the 1300s, when the popes moved to Avignon to escape civil wars in Italy and built themselves a very grand residence that is actually more castle than palace. On a tour inside the next day, guide Marie told us banquets back in medieval times took five hours and guests sat with their backs to the walls for security and with dogs under the tables to test the food for poison.

Not sure we needed to know that because guess where we were eating that evening? Dinner in the Popes Palace (with a string quartet to entertain us and happily no dogs in sight!) is one of several exclusive events Scenic offers on this cruise; the sundowners in Tournon was another, and we also had a fun evening of cabaret in a Big Top near Lyon with slapstick, singing and scantily-clad dancers sporting giant feathers.

And of course you can't have a French cabaret without the can-can complete with frilly knickers and whoops of joy. Formidable, as the French would say!

EXCLUSIVE ANTARCTICA VOYAGE WITH SPECIAL GUEST JENNIE BOND DEPARTING 26TH NOVEMBER 2018 ALSO AVAILABLE - PLEASE CALL FOR DETAILS

Antarctica Highlights

HALF MOON ISLAND, SOUTH SHETLAND ISLANDS

The serrated and crevassed cliffs are home to a colony of Chinstrap penguins as well as Antarctic terns, Kelp gulls, Snowy sheathbills, Wilson's storm petrels, and several species of seals are regular visitors. Half Moon presents many photographic opportunities with its wildlife posed against scenic backgrounds and Antarctic highlights. The Teniente Camara Station and view point is a popular place to look for whales in the bay facing towards the Bransfield Strait

YANKEE HARBOUR, SOUTH SHETLAND ISLANDS

The main attraction for many visitors is Yankee's terraced Gentoo penguin colony with an estimated 4,000 breeding pairs. Yankee Harbour offers views across the McFarlane Strait to Livingston Island and out into the Bransfield Strait, a common feeding area for whales

NEKO HARBOUR

The bay is surrounded by the mountains and glaciers of the peninsula and its wildlife makes it a perfect arena for beautiful impressions. Neko Harbour is attractively located in the innermost part of the bay and takes its name from a whaler which was anchored here in the early 1900s. Neko is one of the very few places on the Antarctic Peninsula where one can come ashore on the Antarctic mainland. On land, there is a colony of Gentoo penguins

WILHELMINA BAY

The mountains and high glacier walls of the Antarctic Peninsula around Wilhelmina Bay convey a mighty impression of ice and water. Everything from calving glacier fronts to floating ice, the magnificent contrasts of the interplay of the elements

GERMAN CHRISTMAS STOLLEN

Ingredients

- 175g dark and golden raisins
- 50g candied lemon peel
- 25g candied orange peel
- 50ml (or 1 miniature bottle) dark rum
- 7g (or 1 cake) of yeast
- 125ml milk
- 50g sugar
- 4 cups flour, bread or all-purpose
- 1 egg
- 1/2 vanilla bean (or 1 tsp. vanilla paste or extract)
- Zest from 1 lemon
- 1/4 tsp salt
- 1/4 tsp ground nutmeg
- 1/4 tsp ground cardamom
- 200g sweet, unsalted butter
- 100g flour
- 50g whole almonds (blanched, peeled and chopped)
- 1/2 cup melted butter
- 1/2 cup icing sugar (for dusting)

PREP TIME - 4 hrs
COOK TIME - 45 mins
SERVES 12

Method

- Soak raisins, candied fruit and almonds in rum overnight, stirring occasionally through the night.
- Dissolve yeast in warm milk with a pinch of sugar. Proof for 10 minutes, or until bubbles form.
- Mix flour, egg, yeast mixture, sugar, lemon peel and salt with a spoon. The dough should just come together and not be very smooth yet. Remove from bowl and set aside while you do the next step.
- Cream the butter and 2/3 cup flour with the nutmeg and cardamom, until smooth. Add the yeast dough back to the bowl and work the dough with a dough hook or by hand until the butter and flour mixture is completely incorporated.
- Let dough rest, covered, for 30 minutes.
- Turn dough out onto a tabletop or lightly floured board. Knead in fruit and chopped almonds. Let rest for 15 minutes.
- Return dough to floured board and form into a rectangle with two high sides and a dip in the middle. Fold 1/3 of the dough over to the middle, filling the dip and shape.
- Fold a piece of aluminum foil several times on the two long ends to build walls for your stollen, to help hold its shape while baking. You may also use a stollen pan if you have one.
- Let stollen rise for 30 minutes in a warm place.
- Preheat oven to 350°F. Dot the top of the stollen with butter.
- Bake for 35 – 45 minutes, or until golden and done. Cover with foil if it begins to brown too much.
- Brush warm loaf with butter and dust thickly with powdered sugar. Cool on rack.
- Wrap tightly in foil and keep in a cool place for two to three weeks to ripen.
