Variety is the spice of life, and you could have it all

No matter which corner of the globe you occupy, there is always more to see, new experiences to be had and unforgettable opportunities to undertake.

Cruising is the ideal way to embark on a once-in-a-lifetime journey to witness the variety that exists in the world. Whether you're seeking a Middle Eastern promise, a unique rail journey, a voyage of the world or delights of the Far East – cruising can meet your needs with seamless ease.

Within this eight-page supplement, you can have access to exciting destinations and incomparable experiences whilst taking advantage of exceptional value and added benefits - only when booking with Reader Offers Ltd.

Discover the gems of the Arabian Gulf

The Arabian Gulf is renowned for exotic spices, ancient architecture that rubs shoulders with modern skyscrapers and an aura of mystery. With the brand new itinerary below from P&O Cruises, you can delve in to all that this intriguing destination has to offer whilst taking advantage of incredible added value such as on board spending money and a free cabin upgrade! Plus, past P&O Cruises passengers will receive a 5% discount.

On 10th January 2019 embark Oceana in Southampton and set sail. You will first take in Spanish and Maltese delights as you dock in Cádiz and 16th century walled-capital, Valletta. Next, you will voyage onwards to Egypt and Oman. In Salalah, visit Sultan Oaboos' Palace whilst in Muscat you can discover ancient ruins and the undulating splendour of a desert. Then arrive in captivating Dubai for an overnight stay on board and become utterly spellbound by the breathtaking futuristic skyline and golden sands of Jumeirah Beach which cascade into the warm waters of the Arabian Gulf.

With P&O Cruises' traditionally British style of cruising, you will never feel too far from home as you explore these unique and fascinating destinations.

Experience the thrill of the Monaco Grand Prix

On page three, a true once-in-a-lifetime experience awaits. You can embark on an incredible no-fly voyage to Spanish and gratuities (worth £128), plus on board spending money and the option to upgrade to an all-inclusive drinks package! Plus, you will be sailing on board the fantastic Black Watch which has recently undergone a multi-million-pound refurbishment!

Alaska & Canadian Rockies experience

There are many experiences that deserve a place on your bucket list - and the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity on page four simply shouldn't be missed. Embark Celebrity Cruises® Celebrity Infinity® for a modern luxury cruise through Alaska before joining the Rocky Mountaineer train on a rail journey through the Canadian Rockies.

This exceptional cruise package is tailormade for you by the experts at Reader Offers Ltd and you can take advantage of a whole host of fantastic benefits including: free on board spending money, included tickets to the Calgary Stampede, free unlimited Wi-Fi, free gratuities and a free drinks package. Not only this, but Balcony Staterooms and above will receive a free upgrade to GoldLeaf Service on board the Rocky Mountaineer train where five-star cuisine, gourmet à la carte menus, awardwinning service and an exclusive outdoor viewing platform come as standard.

Voyage the world with Cunard's Queen Elizabeth in 2018

Representing one of life's greatest travel adventures, a grand voyage with Cunard is simply unforgettable and on page five, you can discover the world on board the magnificent Queen Elizabeth.

Voyaging across the globe affords a precious reminder of how spectacularly diverse and intriguing our planet is. Cunard Line has undertaken infinite world voyages with an abundance of satisfied passengers and is the undisputable world voyage expert.

You will depart from Southampton for your 122 night world voyage on 7th January 2018. Visit destinations such as New York, San Francisco, Bora Bora, Auckland, Shanghai, Cape Town and many more! Voyage highlights also include a full daytime transit of the Panama Canal, scenic cruising of the Kanmon Straits and Inland Sea in Japan and the iconic city waterfronts of Cape Town, Sydney, Hong Kong, Shanghai and San Francisco.

Plus, you will receive on board spend of up to $7,700, gratuities worth over $2,800 and, exclusively when booking with Reader Offers Ltd, all bookings will receive an Afternoon Tea for Two at the Ritz Gift Voucher!

Voyage from Japan to Alaska in all-inclusive ultra-luxury

If you enjoy the finer things in life, then the all-inclusive voyage on page six might just be the cruise for you. With free flights, free on board spending money, free shore excursions, free drinks and gratuities and exclusive fares saving you up to £1,040, you can rest assured that this ultra-luxury voyage will exceed all your expectations.

But that's not all! You can choose to depart on your free flight two days earlier and enjoy a free pre-cruise land tour, Sunrise in Tokyo, before joining the opulent Seven Seas Mariner®. As you depart Tokyo on 27th April 2019, be sure to take the time to explore your stunning vessel - opulent suites, exquisite cuisine and sumptuous surroundings, there is no better way to cruise than this.

You will call in to exceptional, intriguing and vibrant Japanese destinations and when cruising through Alaska, be sure to have your camera at the ready as nature and wildlife are aplenty. If you're looking for an ultra-luxury voyage with a difference, then look no further.

5★ Luxury River Cruise of China, Tibet & the Yangtze

Uniworld's impeccable cruise and tour itineraries provide intimate and up-close views of Asia. Explore ancient treasures by day and enjoy unsurpassed luxury at night on board all-suite ships and at the finest hotels; all with superb cuisine, gracious service and thoughtful personal touches.

Turn to page seven to join $5 \star$ Uniworld on a voyage of China, Tibet & the Yangtze and take advantage of savings, on board spend, luxury hotel stays and all sightseeing excursions included. Not only this, but you will have the opportunity to visit three UNESCO locations - Beijing, Xian and Lhasa.

THE MONACO GRAND PRIX

Introducing the Monaco Grand Prix: the epitome of glamour & utmost excitement

There are few experiences in the world that are evocative of a golden era yet are still able to thrill you to the core. While these opportunities are few and far between, they do exist - you just have to know where to look.

No experience in the motoring calendar can truly match the excellence, luxury and speed of the Monaco Grand Prix. Taking in Casino Square and the world's most famous hairpin, not to mention Monaco's most glamourous streets, the Monaco Grand Prix truly is a once-in-a-lifetime experience and one that you, with the spectacular no-fly cruise highlighted below, can take full advantage of.

On board Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines' Black Watch you can enjoy 16 nights of unrivalled excitement as you embark on your Grand Prix adventure, calling in at many fascinating - and beautiful - ports. When booking from this promotion, you can take advantage of spectacular benefits, such as a choice of free gratuities for the duration of your cruise (worth £128), plus the option to upgrade to an all-inclusive drinks package! Not only this, but you can receive exclusive free on board spending money and Cruise Miles worth £122 off your next booking with Reader Offers Ltd!

Embark Black Watch on 18th May 2018 and settle in to your home-from-home for the next 16 nights. As your next two days will be spent at sea, you may wish to explore some of Black Watch's amenities as this exceptional vessel has recently undergone a multi-million-pound refurbishment. Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines are pioneers of traditional British cruising and do their utmost to make your cruise experience one to remember. They have a vast collection of accolades with their well-equipped, intimate ships, charming staff and a dedication to making you feel relaxed and at home. On every Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines voyage, you can enjoy all meals throughout your cruise – from five course à la carte dining to casual buffets, on board leisure facilities including spacious gyms, heated swimming pools and Jacuzzis, Captain's drinks party and Gala Buffet plus so much more. Not only this, but your room or suite features all the modern amenities required to make your cruising experience a seamless one.

Portugal is for explorers. Its valiant sailors first charted the Azores, discovered Japan and unlocked major sea routes the world over. As your ship sails into the harbour of Lisbon for your first port of call, you will undoubtedly share the anticipation these sailors experienced as they ventured into new and exciting lands for the first time. This beautiful city mingles winding streets with spacious squares, ancient castles and a medieval quarter - not only this, but Gothic cathedrals, majestic monasteries and museums all make up the colourful cityscape, but you'll find the real wonders as you explore the backstreets.

Clockwise from above: Monte Carlo, Monaco, Côte d'Azur; Cádiz, Spain; Cathedral in Barcelona, Spain

If you can tear yourself away from Lisbon's cobbled streets, your second port of call will not disappoint. The unmistakable presence of a rich history will not pass you by as you dock in Cartagena. The Old Town is protected by the city walls and although many of the buildings from Roman Cartagena have disappeared, some important sites including the amphitheatre remain. Whilst here, be sure to visit the Museo del Teatro Romano which reflects Cartagena's layered history, as well as Roman statues and artefacts, the cathedral's crypt and remains of an original Moorish dwelling.

Next, welcome to Mallorca's greatest treasure, Palma. Upon arrival in this opulent city, you will be faced with a honeycoloured hue that seems to emanate from the architecture itself – but Palma is so much more than just a pretty face. With a vast array of historical sites, art galleries, restaurants and bars, it appears to be a millennial's dream – but on closer inspection, there is truly something for everyone here. Take a wander in any direction and unearth aristocratic town-houses, baroque churches, thriving bohemian squares and markets. This truly is a city to get lost in, so let yourself

Barcelona is one of those innovative cities that can draw out the visionary in anyone. As you arrive, be sure to note the dynamic and open personality – you probably won't find such character in any place outside of the Mediterranean. With so much on offer from art and culture to sports and shopping, your time here will be full of delights. Wander around the Gothic Quarter, watch the street theatre from a tapas bar on the bustling La Rambla or marvel at Gaudi's fanciful but still unfinished Cathedral, La Sagrada Familia make sure you soak up the very soul of this destination.

Your next landfall is the sunshine destination of St. Tropez. This hotspot has earned its glitzy reputation as a summer playground for celebrities, artists and writers. At the height of its popularity during the 1950s and '60s, one could easily find Pablo Picasso, Françoise Sagan, Jacques Prévert and the classic movie actress Brigitte Bardot holidaying here – and now you could find yourself sunning yourself on its beaches or strolling its incomparable stretch of coastline. The only thing that could possibly tear you away from St. Tropez's old-world glamour, is the promise of excitement – and with your next port of call you won't be disappointed.

One visit to Nice and you'll understand the inspiration behind Matisse's vivid use of colour. From its crystal blue waters to its multi-coloured flowers, palaces and piazzas, Nice's scenery is like nothing else you've ever seen - and with its temperate climate, you can't help but relax. This coastal old town is the perfect place to relax and enjoy a breathtaking sunset. From here, you will experience the highlight of your trip – the Monaco Grand Prix. This Formula One motor race held each year on the Circuit de Monaco has been running since 1929 and is widely considered to be one of the most important and prestigious automobile races in the world. With this electrifying race featuring as a highlight on your itinerary, you can soak up the race day atmosphere of the most exciting Grand Prix race circuit as the drivers speed through the narrow streets of this wonderful city.

Back on board, you can enjoy a few days at sea to relax after all the excitement before arriving in the Spanish city of Cádiz. Often called 'Little Havana', Cadiz is an easy going ancient city that has been host to the Phoenicians, Carthaginians and Romans. Narrow cobbled streets, dramatic Moorish architecture and picturesque squares make the old central quarter an attractive area whilst superb beaches and top-notch shopping makes this a desirable destination.

Your next three days will be spent at sea and you are encouraged to think back over the time you have spent on your once-in-a-lifetime cruise. Many don't get to experience the thrill of the Monaco Grand Prix, particularly when combined with a beautiful cruise encompassing exceptional Spanish and French destinations. This voyage is guaranteed to be popular, so please do not delay!

ALASKA, THE ROCKIES & CALGARY STAMPEDE

PAGE 4 Saddle up for the ultimate adventure by rail and sea

This once-in-a-lifetime package combining an Alaskan cruise, journey on the world-famous Rocky Mountaineer train and tickets to the 'Greatest Show on Earth' is sure to bring out your innerexplorer

Not many can say they've been afforded the luxury of exploring the heart of Canada and Alaska, famed for their naturally beautiful landscapes of jagged mountains, giant glaciers, flowing rivers and copious wildlife - but with this best-selling promotion from Reader Offers Ltd, you can do just that. The exclusive package below is a 15-night itinerary, which includes a seven-night cruise around Alaska on board the award-winning Celebrity Infinity® and a six-night Rocky Mountaineer land tour - featuring a two-day trip on the train, as well as a two-day Thrill Pass for the Calgary Stampede.

If the itinerary doesn't sound enticing enough, the incredible added benefits Reader Offers Ltd are including, are sure to whet the appetite. For the cruise element, Ocean View Staterooms and above will receive a free Classic Drinks Package, as well as the choice of free on board spending money, free gratuities or free unlimited Wi-Fi. By booking a Suite, you'll receive all added benefits, as well as an upgrade to a Premium Drinks Package. Then there's the six-night tour of the Canadian Rockies, which includes two-days on board the award-winning Rocky Mountaineer train in SilverLeaf Service, where you can relax in luxury and indulge in gourmet cuisine while taking in the awe-inspiring scenery. Or by booking a Balcony Stateroom or above, you'll receive a free upgrade to GoldLeaf Service, which comes with a wealth of benefits including five-star cuisine in a private dining room and an exclusive outdoor viewing platform to watch the ever-changing landscapes pass you by. Then once you disembark in Calgary, it's time to transfer to your hotel for a three-night stay and with your two-day Thrill Pass for the Calgary Stampede, you won't miss a thing.

On 30th June 2018, you'll fly from London to Vancouver and enjoy a precruise hotel stay at the Fairmont Hotel,

Clockwise from top: Banff National Park. Alberta, Canada; Calgary Stampede; Carved totem pole in Ketchikan, Alaska

ready to begin your Alaska and Canadian Rockies adventure. The following day, transfer to the port and embark Celebrity Infinity® for your seven-night voyage. As you cruise the Inside Passage, you'll come across wildlife-filled fjords and lush island scenery - the perfect habitat for bald eagles, sea lions, porpoises and whales. First port of call, Icy Strait Point, is home to the Tlingit Indians. Learn more about this ancient tribe, take a small boat and go whale-watching, or even visit the famous bite to eat. After a day at sea cruising the Hubbard Glacier, the largest calving glacier on the North American continent, arrive in Juneau, Alaska's capital. This pint-sized city is only accessible by sea or air and a full day will be plenty of time to explore. View the majestic Mendenhall Glacier from the East Glacier Loop Trail, or sail via gondola to Mount Roberts. Charming Ketchikan is next: famed for its salmon and the world's largest collection of totem poles. Alternatively, kayak through saltwater fjords fringed by forests and be sure to keep an eye out for black bears and porpoises. Another day cruising sees you take in the dramatic scenery of the Inside Passage once more. Shaped by glaciers for millions of years, the terrain here is verdant and vivid - as mysterious forests blanket towering mountains Upon arrival in Vancouver, it's time to disembark and transfer to the Fairmont Hotel again for another overnight stay, before the next leg of your journey.

Hoonah Packing Company cannery for a

The following morning, board the Rocky Mountaineer train in Vancouver for your journey to Kamloops. Today, you will see dramatic changes in scenery, from the lush green fields of Fraser Valley, through forests and winding river canyons surrounded by the peaks of the Coast and Cascade Mountains, to the desert-like environment of the BC Interior. Your highlights include the rushing waters of Hell's Gate in the Fraser Canyon and the steep slopes and rock sheds along the Thompson River. Later, arrive in the town of Kamloops, where you'll disembark the train, ready for your overnight stay.

On your second day, travel from Kamloops to Banff – continuing into the Canadian Rockies and the province of Alberta. Once again you will see a spectacular array of scenery as you travel across ranch lands, along rocky lakeshores, over high mountain passes and through the remarkable tunnels that form part of the rich rail history of the Canadian Rockies. Today your highlights will include Craigellachie, where the last spike of the Canadian Pacific Railway was driven; the climb over Rogers Pass; Kicking Horse Canyon; the Spiral Tunnels and, of course, the snow-capped peaks of the Canadian Rockies.

Travelling during daylight hours only means you do not miss a thing, with spectacular views forever surrounding you. All guests receive the highest level of service but to experience unrivalled luxury, treat yourself to GoldLeaf Service on board the Rocky Mountaineer. Savour five-star cuisine in the private dining room with gourmet à la carte menus, receive awardwinning service and enjoy the best views from your upstairs seating area - or soak up the fresh mountain air in the exclusive outdoor viewing platform. Your baggage will also be delivered directly to your hotel during days on board the train. Plus, if you book a Balcony Stateroom or above from this promotion, you'll receive all of this completely free with an upgrade to GoldLeaf Service courtesy of Reader Offers Ltd.

You'll disembark this famous train in Banff and the following morning, board a private motorcoach for the journey to Calgary. This half-day tour will take in the Hoodoos rock formations, Surprise Corner and Tunnel Mountain Drive. You'll stop en route at the Banff Gondola to ride to the summit of Sulphur Mountain. Only an eight-minute ride, you will be taken to a lofty altitude of 2,281 metres. Once at the top, enjoy the restaurants, cafés, short hiking trails and visitor centre. If you are feeling adventurous, walk along the ridge line of Sulphur Mountain to see the Cosmic Ray Station, a historic site of Canada built to study cosmic rays. Once at the summit, you may notice a slight chill in the air. While gazing down from the jagged mountain ridge, stare in amazement at the town, lakes and rivers on the valley floor far below. Upon arrival in Calgary, the remainder of the day is at your leisure.

The following two days, you'll be able to witness the thrills of the famous Calgary Stampede. Every July, Calgary in Alberta, Canada, becomes 'cowtown' - when the rodeo comes to town for the 'Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth'. The spacious, modern city of Calgary sees time turned back to its frontier origins as it has for over 100 years. Sedate streets are bedecked with 'old timey' facades and the usually-reserved metropolitan ambience is replaced by the cacophony of enormous parades with their myriad floats which dramatically evoke the wild days of yore. Meanwhile, the Stampede Park itself is a place of battle and bravery.

To be among the crowds at the Calgary Stampede is not to be a spectator but actually part of a unique event; to be experienced, not watched, and what an experience it is! You'll be able to witness this amazing event first-hand, with your Thrill Pass. For two days, you'll have access to the world's richest rodeo, featuring the world's toughest competitors.

On your first day, enjoy the afternoon rodeo where participants compete in events such as barrel racing, saddle bronc, calf roping, steer wrestling and bull riding. In the evening, enjoy the competition of the Chuckwagon Races followed by the energy of the Grandstand Show and world class fireworks display - a perfect ending to a day filled with thrills and excitement.

If that wasn't enough, the following day, enjoy admission to the legendary Half-Million Dollar Rodeo. You will see top professionals in the sport take on the untamed fury of the west's wildest horses in the Saddle Bronc and Bareback Riding events and the heart-stopping action of the rodeo's most dangerous event - Bull Riding. The daily park parade is filled with colour, music, clowns and whimsical wandering performers. Don't forget the many free entertainment stages with a variety of talent appearing - and you'll have time at leisure to explore it all.

Also included in your Thrill Pass are a number of benefits, including souvenir programmes for both days, two Sky Ride tickets; plus, discounts for the stores, should you wish to purchase mementos.

With your Alaskan and Canadian Rockies adventure coming to an end in Calgary, all that's left is to transfer to the airport for your return flight home, leaving you to ponder over the wonders that you've borne witness to on this exceptional adventure of discovery.

CUNARD WORLD CRUISE

Join majestic Queen Elizabeth on her final world voyage

Representing one of life's greatest travel adventures, a grand voyage on board a Cunard ship is simply unforgettable

American author, Henry Miller, once said: "One's destination is never a place, but a new way of seeing things". Embarking on a cruise can provide you with an abundance of intriguing destinations which will open your eyes to a whole new world. The offer below showcases a fantastic 122 night circumnavigation of our globe and is particularly special, as your ship, Cunard's Queen Elizabeth, won't be embarking on a full world cruise in 2019, so this could be your last chance. Staterooms are already selling fast for this once-in-a-lifetime experience and with many exceptional added extras, what better time is there to tick this epic voyage off your bucket list?

This incredible no-fly package includes up to $7,700 to spend on board – maybe treat yourself to some indulgence in the spa during your days at sea, book a shore excursion in a city you've always wanted to see more of, or relax in one of the numerous bars with an after-dinner drink – and gratuities for your staff on board (worth over $2,800). Reader Offers Ltd are also providing you with an Afternoon Tea for Two gift voucher at The Ritz, London, so you can celebrate your grand voyage in style, or even reminisce on your return.

Your grand world voyage begins on Sunday 7th January 2018, when you join the majestic Queen Elizabeth in Southampton and cross the Atlantic, in search of Bermuda, the USA and Caribbean. Your first port of call is a maiden one as Queen Elizabeth pulls into vibrant Hamilton on the island of Bermuda. Upon arrival, you'll immediately notice Front Street, which runs along the shore and is home to a multitude of shops, restaurants and bars - all benefitting from incredible views out across the harbour. Vibrancy is also in abundance in the dramatic city of New York - where you'll enjoy an overnight stay to experience all that the Big Apple has to offer. From the bright lights of Broadway, to the legendary Central Park and amazing shopping opportunities, you'll be spoilt for choice during your time here. Next up, the sunkissed beaches of Fort Lauderdale will grab your attention, before you continue topping up your tan in Ocho Rios, Jamaica. White sand Turtle Beach arcs around a scenic bay, while Mahogany Beach has a small reef, where you can snorkel, should you wish. This maiden port is sure to provide you with countless memories.

Bora Bora, French Polynesia; Victoria Harbour, Hong Kong; Golden Gate Bridge, San Francisco

> The excitement continues when you experience the Panama Canal during a full daytime transit. A magnificent feat of engineering connecting the Pacific and Atlantic Oceans, your ship will be guided through the canal, just inches from the canal's banks in places, on a journey that takes approximately 10 hours and provides a most memorable experience.

Your next landfall will enlighten you to Mayan history. Maiden port Puerto Quetzal is one of the newest and most exciting destinations visited by cruise ships on the Pacific Coast. Watch as dramatic scenery unfolds and visit the great stone temples of Tikal, which stand in silent testament to ancient Mayan ingenuity. By stark contrast, Cabo San Lucas is nestled on the Southern tip of Mexico's Baja California Peninsula and is home to beautiful beaches and marvellous views. Experience the spectacular waters of Playa del Amante, which are teeming with fish and feast your eyes on exquisite black coral.

After an overnight stay in San Francisco, you'll be grateful for some time at sea to unwind. Sitting between the Pacific Ocean and the Sierra Nevada mountains, this magnificent city is home to an eclectic mix of cultures and the world-famous Golden Gate Bridge. Survey the superb vistas over the Bay; traverse the steep rolling hills by tram; explore 'The Rock' of Alcatraz; or even head for the celebrated vineyards of the Napa and Sonoma Valleys.

During the next week, you'll be able to experience some of the best islands the Central and South Pacific have to offer. First call, Honolulu offers a wealth of historic, cultural and scenic attractions. Hawaii's capital is aptly known as the Jewel of the Pacific' and you'll soon understand why. Many dream of visiting Hawaii and you'll witness Waikiki Beach, the lush Pali Lookout and memorials of Pearl Harbor for yourself. Breathtaking scenery and beautiful beaches await when you journey across the South Pacific to three of the islands in the French Polynesian archipelago. Bora Bora typifies paradise, with the silhouette of Mount Otemanu presiding proudly over flawless beaches, all set in a lagoon swirled with luminous shades of green and blue. Similarly, Papeete is home to soft white sands and aquamarine waters. An enchanting destination of timeless beauty, there are few places more beautiful, so be sure to have your camera on hand to document your time ashore. Heart-shaped and bordered by the 'Sea of the Moon', it's impossible not to be captivated by Moorea's charm. Your final stop in French Polynesia will not disappoint, with miles of pineapple and vanilla plantations, verdant volcanic peaks and extra-long stretches of white sand - you'll immediately fall in love with this island escape.

Australasia will entice you with its worldfamous landmarks, stunning scenery and cosmopolitan cultures. Auckland's landscapes are spectacular with over 48 extinct volcanoes cloaked in mountains. An evening departure here provides ample time to explore the 'City of Sails'. Similarly, the Bay of Islands is New Zealand's finest maritime park and comprises of 144 islands, with bays and beaches dotted around the coastline. The Bay, with its subtropical climate and pristine natural environment, has an abundance of marine life and the serenity will provide the perfect respite before your arrival into Sydney. Mark Twain called it "The Wonder of the World" and an overnight stay allows you to explore at leisure. Maybe you'll want to visit the iconic Sydney Opera House for a behind-thescenes tour, scale Sydney Tower to survey the city from up high, or people watch at legendary Bondi Beach. Alternatively, the nearby Blue Mountains are a wonderful escape from the hustle and bustle of the city. End your time down under in Brisbane. Once considered the "country cousin" of Australian cities, Brisbane is today the nation's third largest metropolis. Lying on the banks of the Brisbane River, his cosmopolitan city boasts elegant 19th century sandstone buildings, a lively cultural scene and superb parklands.

The marvels of the Far East will entice you next – with three weeks spent in Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, China and Malaysia. Enjoy an overnight stay in Osaka, Japan's second largest city, home to the famous Osaka Castle. Alternatively, see the temples, geisha houses and gardens of Kyoto, the former capital and Japan's spiritual centre. An overnight stay in Hiroshima will prove a humbling experience - still deeply traditional, the city is fascinating and aside from the evocative Atomic Bomb Dome, there's the landscaped Shukkeien Garden and Mazda Museum to explore. After calling at Shanghai and Keelung, Taiwan, an overnight stay in Hong Kong will open your senses to a whirlwind of scents, colours and flavours. A paradigm of contradictions, one minute you'll see soaring skyscrapers and another, small gilded shrines.

Your next three ports lie deep in the Indian Ocean and are the perfect antidote to the bustle of the Far East. Port Victoria in the Seychelles is a quaint and picturesque town. The best way to explore is by foot and as you take in the sights of the town centre which has remained unchanged since colonial times, why not buy souvenirs such as locally-grown tea and spices, or coral trinkets? The capital of Mauritius, Port Louis offers shopping bargains at the old-fashioned central market. Go bird watching at Casela Bird Park, or set out on a catamaran to admire the sun-drenched beauty of the island, landing on dazzling white beaches and snorkelling amongst shoals brimming with kaleidoscopic fish.

Africa awaits and first stop, Port Elizabeth, stretches along Algoa Bay in the Eastern Cape. Discover the city's rich architectural heritage in Market Square, enjoy the beautiful local beaches, or go in search for the 'Big Five' (the African lion, African elephant, Cape buffalo, African leopard and rhinoceros). An overnight stay in the 'Mother City', Cape Town offers ample time to discover the vistas from Table Mountain, sample the local vintages from the Winelands and enjoy shopping at the V&A Waterfront, South Africa's most visited destination.

The final stretch of your grand voyage sees you cross the Atlantic and call at Tenerife and the Portuguese island of Madeira. The former is beloved for its beaches and mountainous landscapes. Discover the wonders of this island some 3,718m up, on top of Mount Teide. Or if you prefer being on ground level, take in the mix of historic and modern buildings. Your final port of call, Madeira is known as the 'Garden Island' and you'll soon see why. Explore Funchal's fragrant botanical gardens, enjoy the stunning views from the Monte cable car or sample the Madeira wine during your time on this picture-perfect island.

Nothing can compare to the fulfilment of ticking off so many destinations in one go and embarking on this grand world voyage in 2018 on board the elegant, yet classic Queen Elizabeth will provide an experience that will never be surpassed.

ASIA & ALASKA

Discover Asia & embark on an Alaskan adventure in ultra-luxury

If asked to describe Asia in one word, you would find yourself clutching at thin air.

This curious continent weaves an intricate and remarkable tapestry that is indescribable – perhaps it is simply that delving into a destination so vastly different to our own is an all-consuming, awe-inspiring experience. In contrast, Alaska exudes a prehistoric aura; the air is unbelievably fresh, the sound of nature may be all you hear and beyond the city, you'll probably not see a single soul for miles. With the ultra-luxury, all-inclusive voyage from Regent Seven Seas Cruises® below, you can immerse yourself in all that Eastern Ásia has to offer with an adventure in the lap of luxury from Japan to Alaska.

Take advantage of exceptional added benefits including free flights, up to 47 free shore excursions, free drinks and gratuities and a free three night land tour in Tokyo. Plus, when booking with Reader Offers Ltd enjoy exclusive fares saving you up to £1,200 and exclusive free $500 on board spending money.

Regent Seven Seas Cruises® are pioneers of ultra-luxury cruising – with opulent suites that act as serene havens during your travel, dining experiences which include fresh local produce, delicious artisan cheeses and scrumptious baked goods, combined with all the skills and imagination of celebrated chefs! This is cruising as it should be – a sumptuous and very personal experience where your every wish, whim and want are met with gratifying luxuries, satisfying comfort and complete fulfilment of your desire to travel.

On 25th April 2019, you will fly for free from London, bound for Japan's vibrant capital, Tokyo. Upon arrival the next day, you will enjoy an overnight stay with time at leisure to see all the sights. Even though Tokyo is among the largest cities in the world, it's still able to maintain efficiency and charm. A whole different world exists only a short distance outside the city encompassing rugged mountains to the west and subtropical islands to the south. On 27th April 2019, transfer to the port and embark the ultra-luxurious Seven Seas Mariner® for your 19 night voyage to

Your first port of call is to the intriguing town of Oarai. Oarai boasts a dramatic and rugged shore line that is unlike any other place on Earth. The best place to take in this truly mystical landscape is at the torii gate of the Ísosaki Shrine, where legend says that ancient Shinto gods gather. Next, you will continue to Sendai where true Japanese history emanates through the ancient glacier, riding an aerial tram to a mountaintop; see wildlife up close at a conservation centre or enjoy a walk around the base of a massive glacier, and then visit Alaska's only public aquarium and rehabilitation centre to see how injured animals are being rescued.

Here, included excursions range from Coastal Beach Combing to a Šky Birdwatching Tour. From windswept volcanic peaks surrounded by the sea, to green valleys dotted with the vibrant colours of wildflowers in the spring there's no doubt about it, flora and fauna are not in short supply here.

YOUR OPTIONAL FREE THREE NIGHT PRE-CRUISE LAND TOUR - SUNRISE OVER TOKYO^{##}

From your base in Tokyo, you will visit some of the most impressive sights of Japan, including both ancient temples and modern wonders. Tour the 7th century Sensoji Temple in Asakusa and visit the Tokyo Tower, a communications and observation tower and the second tallest structure in Japan. Discover Tokyo's fascinating Shogun history or Japan's rich tradition of art at superb museums, and during your leisure time, perhaps take in the high-energy atmosphere of Ginza, Tokyo's premier shopping and entertainment district.

Next, you will cruise by the sleeping giant that is Hubbard Glacier before arriving in Sitka. Join a Sea Otter and Wildlife Quest as vou discover Alaska's abundant marine and wildlife during this award-winning cruise through one of the world's most beautiful coastal environments. If you still have a hankering for stunning scenery and incomparable wildlife, then Alaska's scenic capital, Juneau, might just be the destination for you. Home to the mighty Mendenhall Glacier, the Steep Creek Trail - where, if you're lucky, you'll spot a black bear - the Alaskan Brewery Company, the Shrine of St. Therese and Alaska State Museum - there's something to suit all tastes.

Following Juneau, you will step back to the days of the last great gold rush and visit the saloons and wooden boardwalks of perfectly preserved Skagway before voyaging onwards to Ketchikan. Ketchikan is famous for its colourful totem poles, steep streets and lush island setting. The Deer Mountain Tribal Hatchery and Eagle Center lead to the City Park. Ketchikan Creek also runs through this serene spot and is the perfect place to relax and watch the world go by. Whilst here, be sure to take advantage of one of the many free excursions on offer including Alaskan Lodge Adventure & Seafeast, Great Alaskan Lumberjack Show, Rainforest Island Adventure and Totem Traditions & Potlatch Park.

Shaped by the staggering force of glaciers, Alaska's Inside Passage boasts fjords home to an array of wildlife and impressive scenery - as you cruise this passage, keep your eyes peeled for bald eagles, sealions, porpoises and whales.

As you arrive in Vancouver, you should take the time to immerse yourself in memories of your trip. Whether you choose to remember the stunning wildlife and nature that you have witnessed, the free excursions that you have embarked on or simply the enjoyment that you have felt at cruising in the utmost luxury with Regent Seven Seas Cruises[®]. This experience is utterly divine, and little can compare to the experiences that you will have on this adventure of a lifetime.

The prospect of visiting a country like China that, for many, is considered a place still shrouded in the mysteries of its ancient historical civilisations, is an exciting and fascinating opportunity.

The idea of being able to take a glimpse into a culturally and historically diverse destination creates a real thrill! With its vast area of contrasting topography and its huge array of historical and modern, cultural and architectural treasures to explore, even the most well-travelled may find the prospect of organising a trip to China slightly overwhelming and perhaps a little daunting.

To overcome this, one of the best ways to experience a part of China's cultural heritage and breathe in some of its stunning scenery is to partake in one of the luxury cruise holiday packages on offer that take you to the very heart of China along the magnificent Yangtze river.

The team at Reader Offers Ltd has teamed up with 5★ Uniworld to create the fabulous holiday package below, where you can experience some of China's most renowned attractions, including three UNESCO designated locations; while at the same time enjoying the luxurious surroundings of the five-star state-of-theart Century Legend, which glides along the world's third longest river.

The 15-night package, which includes a 10 night land tour and a three night Yangtze River Cruise, promises everything and offers so much more. It begins in luxury immediately upon arrival at Beijing airport where you are greeted by a Uniworld representative and escorted to the opulent Ritz-Carlton Hotel in China's capital, for your three night stay.

The following day begins with one of the many sightseeing excursions that you will experience throughout your holiday and which are included as part of your package: a visit to the marvel that is Tiananmen Square. An architectural epitome of austerity, its buildings impose their authority on the square and the impeccably uniformed soldiers who perform perfectly drilled flag parades each morning and evening.

Moving from this icon of modern history to one of ancient civilisations, Tiananmen Square provides the gateway Above: Century Legend's Executive Suite; Above right: Potala Place, Lhasa, Tibet to the impressive UNESCO-designated Forbidden City. Here you cannot fail to experience the awe-inspiring sensation of the majestic heritage of ancient imperial buildings and gardens. So-called the 'Forbidden City' because this, the largest palace complex in the world, once housed China's emperors and their families for 500 years and was forbidden entry to those outside imperial circles.

Lunch will bring you to sample the sumptuous delights of authentic Peking Duck; a dish once reserved for the delectable feasts of Emperors, before you head to the southeastern corner of central Beijing to end the day's explorations at the unique and tranquil oasis that is the Temple of Heaven Park.

Described by UNESCO as a masterpiece of design, it is said to have influenced architecture and planning in the Far East over many centuries, while the park consists of a series of imperial religious monuments and groves to uncover.

In stark contrast to the grandeur of the imperial palaces and meticulously landscaped gardens of the previous day, day four of the tour provides a glimpse of a more rustic tradition. A trip in a rickshaw will take you on an intimate discovery of the myriad of interconnected alleyways and courtyards known as "hutongs", and home to local Beijing people for centuries.

Lunching with a local family, you will discover the mysteries of what lies behind the doors of these ancient courtyard abodes, before witnessing a traditional tea ceremony in one of the ancient bell towers that helped to keep track of time during the Ming dynasty.

A trip to China would not be complete without a stroll along the Great Wall of China, which you can enjoy to the fullest during the afternoon. After a busy day of sightseeing you will then be invited to relax in the evening and enjoy a Welcome study of the highlights of this trip is the visit to L hasa. You will spend three the visit to Lhasa. You will spend three nights in what is called a "Place of Gods", a thriving modern town and a mystical destination of pilgrimage. It is also the cultural and historical capital of Tibet. You will have the opportunity to visit its most sacred place, the Jokhang Temple.

Undoubtedly you will be captivated and inspired by the mystic sense of peace at the jewel-bedecked tombs and golden altars of Potala Palace, the UNESCO-honoured historic home of the Dalai Lamas, and at the Sera Monastery, where Buddhist monks still practice their faith under the watchful eye of Manjashuri, The God of Wisdom. A trip to remember – and reminiscent of scenes from the film 'Seven Years in Tibet'.

From Lhasa, you will fly to Chongqing where you will visit the giant pandas at the zoo, before bidding adieu to land and embarking upon a luxurious three night river cruise. The Century Legend then becomes home, as it takes you along the mighty Yangtze River. The ship provides opulent comfort and is extremely well equipped to enable you to enjoy its many restaurants, bars and leisure facilities, including an indoor pool, fitness centre and spa, at a time that suits you – that is, if you can prise yourself away from the deck and ever-changing scenery that passes you by Cruising in the heart of a country that was closed to the outside world for centuries is a real voyage of discovery. As you pass through this fairy-tale landscape of The Three Gorges region, you will take in the spectacular and breathtaking scenery en route. You will be transported to an ethereal world of mist-shrouded peaks, which appear to be looming directly from China's iconic watercolour illustrations.

A stop at Shibaozhai and the 18th century Shibaozhai Temple, built into the side of the steep, rocky and craggy hill is a further highlight of this excursion. Erected by Emperor Qianlong on a large rock rising almost 100 feet out of the river was an architectural delight, having been built entirely without nails. Legend has it that the higher one climbs in the temple, the more likely your wish or dreams will come true. This may be easier said than done, since each floor of the Shibaozhai Temple is reached via an unstable ladder! The day continues into the evening and a special Captain's Welcome Reception will be held in the evening, where you will enjoy sensational dishes and entertainment.

Nearing the end of your cruise holiday, as your ship navigates the shimmering turquoise waters of the Goddess Stream, there is one more sight not to be missed to complete your River Cruise; an excursion to the Three Gorges Dam. This tremendous feat of engineering is one of the most spectacular modern day construction projects you will see, and provides electrical power for a huge part of the nation, while controlling flooding on the Yangtze.

It's then time to exchange the peaceful tranquillity of the Yangtze for the exhilarating and busy streets of Shanghai; one of China's most cosmopolitan cities. Here, old China meets new. Visiting the Bund, Shanghai's famed waterfront promenade brimming with spectacular skyscrapers, you are reminded that this city was the West's gateway to China, while Shanghai's Old Town, with its original walled city, traditional teahouses, temples, narrow alleyways and markets reminds you of its legendary heritage.

Whether looking forward to the future or back to the past, one thing remains constant – dim sum! Be treated to a traditional dim sum lunch complete with dumplings, steamed buns and rice noodles, and end your trip watching the famous Shanghai Acrobatic Troupe perform their astonishing gravity defying routines. The following day, transfer to the airport for your return flight home.

This 15 night package takes you on a fantastic journey into the real heart of China and Tibet. It provides an enriching experience like no other and provides a glimpse into the hidden gems that China and its traditional and modern day heritage has to offer, which will certainly leave you wanting more.
