In the 1930s, Cunard began its close and enduring relationship with the British Royal Family. In 1934, RMS Queen Mary was named after HM Queen Mary, who subsequently visited the flagship in Southampton prior to its maiden voyage. HM Queen Elizabeth (later known as the Queen Mother) also maintained an enduring love for the ship, visiting it several times during the liner's service career, and travelling on board as well: even briefly taking the wheel from Captain Bisset.

The Cunard link with royalty grew and strengthened over the following years, with HM Queen Elizabeth (later known as The Queen Mother) launching the RMS Queen Elizabeth in 1938.

In 1967, HM The Queen launched Queen Elizabeth 2 in Scotland, furthering the bond between Cunard and royalty. She even travelled on board the ship in 1990 – the first time a reigning monarch had sailed on board a passenger ship operating a commercial voyage. In 2004 she became godmother to Queen Mary 2, and six years later also christened Queen Elizabeth.

CUNARD'S HISTORY THROUGH THE DECADES

From welcoming legends of the silver screen to transporting troops during WWII, Cunard's 180-year legacy is an incredible story of mechanical feats, heroic acts and historic world-firsts at sea. Here are just a handful of the extraordinary moments that define their past and continue to inspire their future.

1840: The beginning

In 1840, Samuel Cunard, a war veteran and timber merchant from Halifax, Nova Scotia, established the Cunard line. His ships were steam powered ferries – the first in the area – and over the next few years Cunard branched out to ocean steam, providing a mail service to Prince Edward Island, along the coast and, later, across the Atlantic.

1850 – 1880: A developing company

The next few decades solidified Cunard's place in the world of international shipping, and in history. In the 1850s, Cunard was used to carry horses to the Crimean war, aiding in the charge of the Light Brigade. In the 1860s, Mark Twain sailed with Cunard and praised the ability of the captains.

In 1870, Cunard introduced the first flushing toilets at sea, providing relief for passengers and crew members alike!

1890 – 1900: Cutting edge technology

In the early 20th century, Cunard was advancing full steam. The ships were advertised as 'floating palaces', and shared design features with opulent venues such as The Ritz. Two superliners, Lusitania and Mauretania (pictured) were launched, with revolutionary steam turbines to increase maximum speed, and the first ever wireless transmission was made from a Cunard ship to the shore by Marconi in 1897.

1950s and 1960s: Welcoming stars of stage and screen

In the 1950s, Hollywood greats and stars of the silver screen were among those to make the iconic Transatlantic Crossing with Cunard. Rita Hayworth, Judy Garland, Vera Lynn, Sir Noel Coward and even Walt Disney all travelled as guests on board. The decade ended on a high with Queen Elizabeth 2 making her debut at sea.

2000's

Queen Mary 2 and Queen Victoria joined the Cunard fleet in 2004 and 2007 respectively, while Queen Elizabeth 2 made her final ocean voyage before retiring from service in 2008.

Feel a sense of ease in this part of the ship you can call your own while on board. Be comforted knowing that at any time of day you can return to your exquisite accommodation to settle in and put your feet up. Whether you want to pick up your holiday read, relax in bed with a movie, or curate a cocktail at your personal bar in a Queens Grill suite, your private address at sea awaits.

QUEEN ANNE'S OUTDOOR SPACES

With a choice of inspiring outdoor destinations to discover, each with its own distinctive look and feel, spending time in the open air on Queen Anne provides plenty of moments to remember.

In addition to these vibrant signature spaces, feel inspired by the feeling of walking on air with aft deck corners that extend out, offering a unique view of the ship and sea. Take in a full lap alongside the water's edge on deck 3, find time to explore the wellness studio with top deck sea views – perfect for practising yoga at sea – and enjoy the Cabana bar for holiday cocktails and deck games.

Meanwhile, the Grills Terrace, exclusive to guests of the Princess and Queens Grill Suites, is equipped with infinity hot tubs and luxurious deck facilities, offering the perfect outdoor retreat.

AUTHENTIC CUISINES

In addition to Cunard's much-loved signature venues, Queen Anne offers an array of alternative dining options. Whether you're looking for a nourishing healthy dish, a light bite on-the-go, or a spontaneous and indulgent treat, you'll find something to suit. Find intimate and atmospheric restaurants inside, and delight in the variety of opportunities for al fresco dining too, should you be seeking a delectable meal under the sun or stars while the ocean breeze sweeps by.

Your choice of authentic cuisine includes Mediterranean, with a restaurant whose menu features both familiar and perhaps unexpected dishes.

Delight in the delicate and fragrant flavours of the East at the Pan-Asian restaurant or enjoy tastes of India with dishes made using rich and aromatic spice blends.

When you're in the mood for an indulgent steak and perfectly paired wine, choose the flagship Steakhouse at the Verandah, or maybe head for tapas if you'd like an evening filled with plenty of options. You'll find a generous menu of pub classics at the Golden Lion or choose from a range of healthy options at the Wellness Café.

AN EXCLUSIVE Q&A WITH JENNIE BOND

Q CUNARD ARE FAMED FOR THEIR WHITE STAR SERVICE, WHAT ARE YOUR EXPERIENCES OF THIS?

The White Star Service means that everyone on board is trained to look after you in a way that exceeds your expectations. And they all do it with a smile. From your butler to your waiter, your sommelier to the entertainment team, the crew seem to be on a mission to make you feel pampered. And they are very successful. Nothing is too much trouble. You can breakfast in your PJs on the balcony, you can enjoy tea and dainty sandwiches brought to you as you laze in the comfort of your poolside sun lounger, you can learn to paint or play bridge or dance the tango. Everything seems possible.

Q WHAT CAN GUESTS EXPECT FROM THE CUISINE ON BOARD?

We have always found the food on board to be first class. The main restaurants are extremely elegant and the menus are extensive without being overwhelming. In the top grade Grill restaurants, you are treated like royalty. You can sit at tables for two, or in a group, and eat whenever you like within the opening hours. And if you fancy something special that's not on the menu that day, you only have to ask and they will do everything possible to provide it.

Q CUSTOMERS MAY BE SUFFERING UNDER THE MISCONCEPTION THAT CUNARD ARE 'STUFFY' AND 'TOO FORMAL', HOW WOULD YOU DISPEL THESE RUMOURS?

Well, I spend most of my days in a pair of shorts or a swimsuit. Nothing too stuffy about that! In the evenings, people do dress up a bit, but there are only two or three formal evenings on an average voyage. The rules have been relaxed so men can wear a lounge suit instead of a tuxedo on those evenings, and on other nights they don't even have to wear a tie. I find most of us women rather enjoy the chance to glam up, but as long as you look presentable, no-one is going to fuss. And if you prefer to stay in your shorts, you can always eat in the Lido. Sometimes, Jim and I just relax in our stateroom and ask our butler to bring dinner to us on the balcony. Pure indulgence!

Q WHAT ARE YOU MOST EXCITED ABOUT CUNARD'S NEW SHIP, QUEEN ANNE?

Well every new ship is exciting! I've been to the naming ceremonies of Queen Mary, Queen Victoria and Queen Elizabeth so I hope very much I'll go to the naming ceremony of Queen Anne as well. You are always dying to get on board and see what innovations there are. With Cunard there is a standard which is always superb of course and there is a uniformity between all the ships and yet each has its own character, its own personality and I'm sure they'll be new changes on Queen Anne so I can't wait to get on board to see.

Q WHAT IS YOUR FAVOURITE PART OF THE SHIP ON BOARD CUNARD?

I've been sailing with Cunard for more than 20 years and I love everything about it. There's an elegance about it and you feel that it's a very distinct cruise line. Wherever you go on board a Cunard ship there's a little flotilla of boats that come out to greet you so it feels special wherever you are in the world. My favourite part of Cunard ships generally is the Chart Room. That's an area where there's usually a harpist or a cello player and you can sit after dinner and just have some wonderful quiet live music, digest your food, which of course was fantastic, and maybe have a brandy and play cards with my husband and enjoy the quiet of it all. Even though there are hundreds of people on the ship you feel almost alone there and it's absolutely wonderful and magical.

Q WHAT IS YOUR FAVOURITE THING ABOUT SAILING WITH CUNARD?

One thing I love about sailing with Cunard is every morning I open the newsletter of the bulletin about what is going on on board the ship and there's pages of it. There are activities every hour it seems and there is such a wide choice; from embroidery or painting classes to line dancing and that's what I always go for. I make sure I get up and I get down there to do my line dancing, which I'm absolutely dreadful at but it's such fun, it's such a laugh and it's a bit of exercise before the next delicious meal.

ONE OF THE MOST RECOGNISED FACES OF OUTDOOR ADVENTURE, BEAR GRYLLS OBE, HEADLINING THE SEASON

Bear will be joining Queen Elizabeth's 2023 Alaska voyage, where he will share his experience as one of the youngest-ever climbers of Mount Everest, bestselling author, TV presenter and all-round adventurer. This voyage will mark the first time Bear has returned to Alaska since his memorable visit with the then-President of the United States, Barack Obama, in 2015 – and his first appearance ever speaking on a cruise ship.

YOUR LAND TOUR* HIGHLIGHTS

Sugar, cream, or clouds in your coffee? On this majestic tour of the Canadian Rockies, you can relish all three. A sunny gondola ride to breakfast atop Banff's Sulphur Mountain, a private breakfast at Whistler's Squamish Lil'wat Cultural Centre, and a special dinner inside the original greenhouse at Victoria's lush Butchart Gardens are just some of the ways to devour the elevating scenery on this vacation through Alberta and British Columbia. Bold and breath-taking views are served from Vancouver to Calgary as you savour cooling breezes of Sun Peaks, the glacial wonder of the Columbia Icefield, the alluring blue hue of Lake Louise, and the magnificent canyons and gorges of Jasper National Park. A panoramic cruise along the crystal waters of Maligne Lake to remote Spirit Island – one of Canada's most cherished and photographed places – is everyone's favourite course on this journey through Western Canada.

THE TAJ MAHAL

One of the New Seven Wonders of the World, the Taj Mahal is ubiquitously recognised as one of the world's greatest landmarks and finest examples of Mughal architecture. Enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to admire Emperor Shah Jahan's creation at sunrise. The closeup detail is as exquisite as the overall architectural design, with semi-precious stones and beautiful patterns adorning the marble surface.

RANTHAMBORE NATIONAL PARK & TIGER SAFARI

Centred around the impressive 10th century Ranthambore Fort, Ranthambore National Park is scattered with old mosques, temples and hunting pavilions. A wealth of diverse flora and fauna calls this place home. When out on your safaris, look out for leopards, boars, hyenas, sloth bears and rhesus macaques. But the highlight of your visit will undoubtedly be the moment that you set eyes upon one of the regal Bengal tigers that live in the reserve – an experience that few get to have, and once had, very few forget.

JAPAN IN BLOOM

For a just a few weeks every year, Japan blooms into vibrant pink as the nation's cherry blossom trees (also known as sakura) flower, creating stunningly beautiful scenes across the country. Delight in the fleeting beauty of these delicate flowers that frame the historic temples and towns perfectly. From snow-capped Mount Fuji to the traditions that include Geisha girls and samurai warriors. This is a Japanese experience you will not want to miss out on.

UNCOVER TOKYO WITH A THREE NIGHT 4★ HOTEL STAY‡

You'll never forget a visit to the sensory explosion that is Tokyo. Capital of Japan, this is a city where you'll find centuries-old culture jostling for a position next to cutting-edge technology – a fabulous blend of history and modernity that has to be seen to be believed. To get a feel for Tokyo's natural beauty, head to Yoyogi Park, where cherry blossoms are resplendent in spring. Close to the Yoyogi Park is the Meiji Jingu Shrine, established in 1920 and dedicated to Emperor Meiji who helped to open Japan up to the west. As impressive as anything else is its 40-foot gate, made of 1,500-year-old cypress. At the main shrine buildings, you may show respect by bowing twice, clapping your hands twice, making a wish then bowing once more. You may be lucky enough to catch a traditional Japanese wedding procession.

Cherry blossom season may vary. Cunard and Reader Offers Limited Package Holiday booking conditions apply. Please see back page for full terms and conditions

Tokyo is one of the world's greatest cities. Though its history is comparatively short (only four centuries), the city has already played many roles: samurai stronghold, imperial capital, and modern metropolis

Wed 27 Tokyo, Japan

The Edo-Tokyo Museum documents the city's transformation. After a recent renovation the museum has interactive displays, multilingual touch-screen panels and audio guides giving you an insight into the city's revolution from tidal flatlands to feudal capital to modern

Tue 2 Busan, South Korea

Busan is South Korea's second largest city and seaport, and it's a laid-back, metropolitan destination. Its pace is slower, and its diversity more pronounced, than the country's capital city of Seoul. Busan has an intriguing medley of culture and history, beautiful natural settings and exciting adventures. It's also near South Korea's cultural capital, Gyeongju, and the fortress of Jinju

ROL Cruise Digital Marketing Assistant Madison Scott shares her transatlantic experience...

"A few weeks ago, I was given the incredible opportunity to sail on board the iconic Queen Mary 2 during her transatlantic voyage to New York. This is undoubtedly a bucket list trip for many and one I felt very lucky to experience. Having never been on a Cunard cruise before, I was unsure what to expect, but it's safe to say I was blown away.

A WARM WELCOME

Arriving at Southampton Mayflower Terminal, I was in awe of the pure beauty of Queen Mary 2 as she was docked and ready for our arrival. The embarkation process was swift and before I knew it, I was stepping on board via Deck 2 and into the Grand Lobby, which was magnificent. I was greeted by the quintessential bellboys (and girls) who were evidently excited for us to see Queen Mary 2 in all her glory.

ACCOMMODATION

Once on board, I headed straight to my cabin, a sheltered balcony (#4.200) located at the aft of Deck 4, to settle in and see my new home for the next seven nights. It was extremely spacious and modern with all the necessary facilities including a kettle, complimentary tea, coffee and biscuits (replenished daily), mini fridge, television, and toiletries. It also had ample storage which was needed considering I had packed every frock I owned in preparation for the gala nights!

FOOD

There were multiple dining venues on offer, and I was sure I needed to try them all! I was fortunate to dine at two speciality restaurants - The Lido, offering fresh Asian cuisine, and The Verandah which is the on board steakhouse. The Lido was simply divine, serving a Bento Box which included five different traditional Asian starters. The food served here was mouthwatering and the aroma of spices filled the restaurant. A top tip I would give to anyone dining at The Verandah Steakhouse is to make sure you're hungry as the amount of food served here certainly is phenomenal. The whole experience was special, and a particular highlight was being presented with a box containing around 15 handcrafted steak knives so I could choose my own.

ENDLESS ACTIVITIES

From German lessons to chair aerobics, there's something for everyone. Whilst on board, I was excited to try something new which came in the form of line dancing. Being a novice, I was apprehensive, but I was soon put at ease by our enthusiastic dance teacher. In our 45-minute session, I was taught three different dances and can confidently say it was a lot of fun!

Eager to try everything, I also participated in a few quizzes which were hosted in the Carinthia Lounge. The Carinthia Lounge quickly became one of my favourite places to relax on the ship, its plush furnishings and modern décor make it the perfect place to sit and lose yourself in a book.

Another highlight were the heartfelt talks and lectures which took place daily throughout the voyage. We were honoured to have had serving WWII veterans on board who spoke from the heart when recounting their memories of the war. We also had the pleasure of having former journalist John McCarthy on board who gave two heart-breaking accounts of his time as a political hostage in the 1980's. I jumped at the chance to join him in the Royal Theatre, where he had each person in the audience on the edge of their seat - including me!

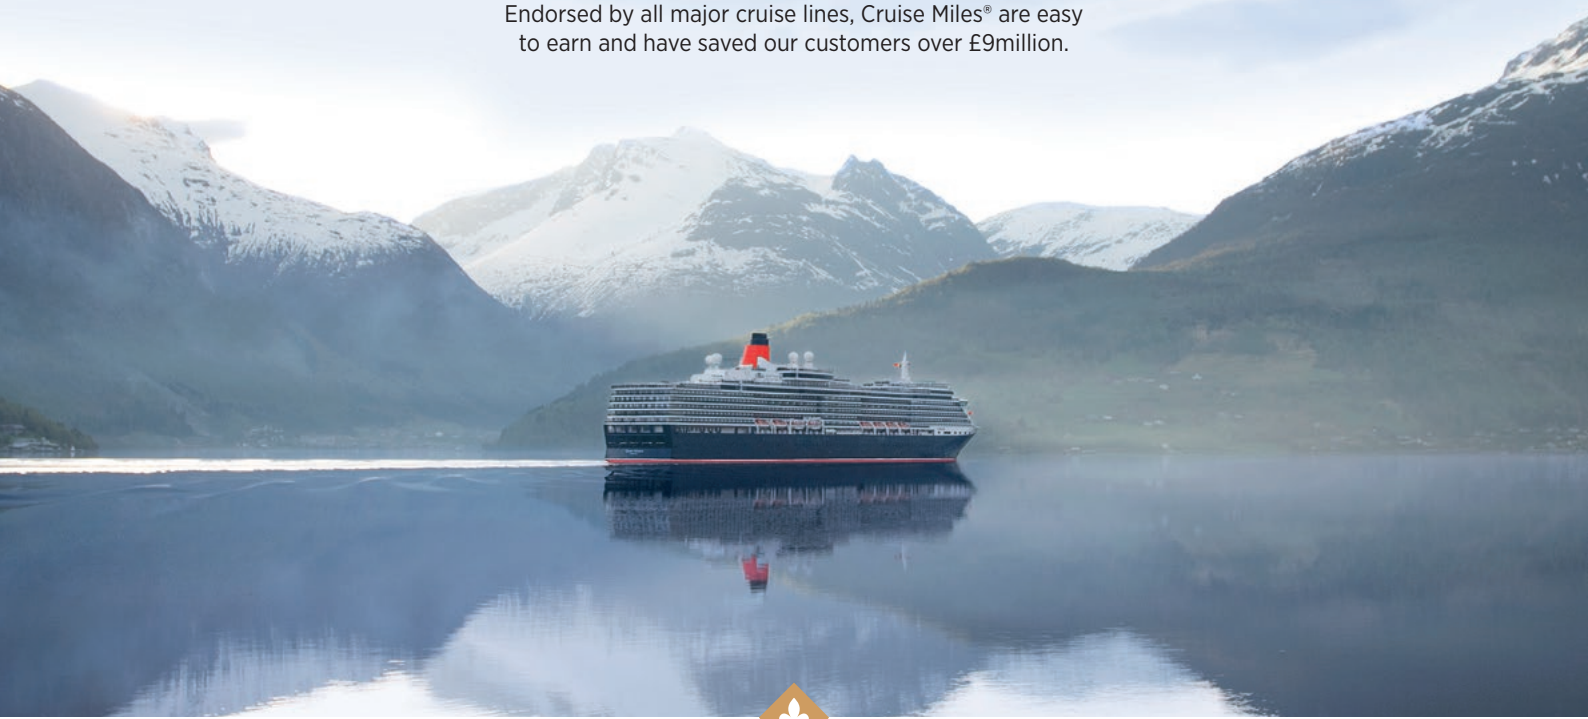

After spending seven truly memorable days at sea, it's fair to say my week spent on board Queen Mary 2 exceeded my expectations. I thoroughly enjoyed trying out new activities and dining on the finest of cuisines. The incredible crew on board made me feel special throughout my voyage and I simply can't wait to get back on board the Cunard fleet soon."
