ULTRA-LUXURY SILVERSEA CELEBRATE 25 YEAR ANNIVERSARY

This year, Silversea will be celebrating 25 years of small-ship luxury cruising designed for those who delight in the thrill of discovery while indulging mind and body in the most lavish surroundings imaginable. Silversea voyages and cruise expeditions sail to over 900 destinations on all seven continents, more than any other cruise line. In celebration of this anniversary, on pages 46-47 you'll find a unique Circumnavigation of Iceland offering an unforgettable voyage, taking you to the most beautiful destinations on the planet in the comfort and elegance that you deserve.

CELEBRITY EDGE<sup>SM</sup> NAMED BY GODMOTHER MALALA YOUSAFZAI

For the first time in six years, Celebrity Cruises® have welcomed a new ship to their fleet, marking 10 years since a new first-in-class ship was debuted! The ceremony, held in The Oculus, Celebrity Edge<sup>SM</sup>'s main theatre, featured a powerful rendition of "Rise Up" by Andra Day, a moving introduction for godmother Malala Yousafzai, and the smashing of a bottle of Badoit sparkling water. As the song wound down, godmother Nobel laureate Malala Yousafzai – along with Celebrity Cruises® president and CEO Lisa Lutoff-Perlo, Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd.'s chairman Richard Fain and Celebrity Edge<sup>SM</sup> Captain, Costas Nestoroudis, entered to a standing ovation.

"Welcome aboard Celebrity Edge<sup>SM</sup>," Fain said, admitting he'd been waiting five years to utter those words. "Edge is a beautiful ship and everybody is proud of the accomplishment. But she is a lot more than that," he added, referring to the transformational nature of the ship, which he expects will change the way all future ships are built. Lutoff-Perlo also referred to the transformational nature of the ship and of travel in general, "Our purpose is to open up the world, we believe travel and experiencing other cultures enriches us."

JANUARY 2020

- Wed 8 Embark Magellan and depart London Tilbury
- Thu 9 Rotterdam, Netherlands
- Sun 12 Leixões (for Oporto), Portugal (depart early pm)
Situated just north of the mouth of the River Douro, Leixões is one of Portugal's major seaports and a gateway to Oporto. A boat trip* on the River Douro gives a different view of the city where dark buildings seem to be stacked one on another along the narrow, labyrinthine streets.
- Tue 14 Funchal, Madeira
Set in a magnificent natural amphitheatre overlooking a wide bay, Funchal is the delightful capital of the beautiful and dramatic island of Madeira. The harbour is right in the centre of town and as you approach the sight of white-washed buildings with red tiled roofs tumbling down the verdant mountain is spectacular. A modern cable car soars above the bustling city to Monte, which is the start of Madeira's famous wicker toboggan ride
- Fri 17 Mindelo, São Vicente, Cape Verde
- Thu 23 Santarém, Brazil
- Fri 24 Boca da Valeria, Brazil
- Sat 25 - Sun 26 Manaus, Brazil (arrive early pm – overnight)
The capital of the state of Amazonas and the hub of the whole Amazon region. Located on the banks of the Rio Negro, Manaus is only four miles from where the 'Meeting of the Waters' takes place, where the Rio Solimões collides with the Negro to form the Amazon

Enjoy two days cruising the Amazon and enter a world where the people, culture

– 21 NIGHTS DEPARTING 4TH JULY 2020 –

JULY 2020

Sat 4 Embark Marco Polo and depart London Tilbury

Mon 6 Kirkwall, Orkney Islands
The Orkneys comprise 70 or so islands, rocks and skerries that cover an area of 376 square miles. You can still detect the Norse influence and visit the Stone Age settlement at Skara Brae, older than either the Pyramids or Stonehenge

Tue 7 Kollafjørður, Faroe Islands
Wed 8 Eskifjörður, Iceland
Thu 9 Akureyri, Iceland
Although only 100km from the Arctic Circle, a warm micro climate allows for the world's most northerly botanical garden, filled with exotic plants. What's more, whale-watching doesn't come any better, so grab your binoculars and head out onto the bay

Sat 11 Tasiilaq, Greenland
Sitting just below the Arctic Circle, Tasiilaq is a picturesque and idyllic place with traditional brightly coloured houses, trickling streams and snow-capped mountains surrounding the town. Home to some unique flora and fauna, the region is a strikingly beautiful place with plenty of trails and routes to walk in the summer months with stunning views, especially from Tasiilaq's Cairn

Sun 12 Cruising Tunulliarfik Fjord
Mon 13 Narsarsuaq, Greenland
Significant in Norse history as being near to the location of famed explorer Erik the Red's farm Brattahlíð, medieval Narsarsuaq is today a destination for tourists keen to learn more about the Eastern Settlement of the Norsemen which is nearby

Wed 15 Sisimiut, Greenland
Thu 16 Kangerlussuaq, Greenland
Fri 17 Nuuk (formerly Godthab), Greenland

Sat 18 Qaqortoq, Greenland
Tue 21 Reykjavik, Iceland
Part old Norse, part modern city, the Icelandic capital has a quirky character all of its own. Only a short distance from the city are some of Iceland's most beautiful locations, including the nation's 'holy place', Þingvellir, where the world's oldest parliament was established in 930 AD. Further east is the renowned waterfall Gullfoss, 'Golden Falls', and the Geysir hot spring area

JENNIE BOND'S ADVENTURE TO THE GREAT WHITE CONTINENT

ROL Cruise Ambassador, Journalist & TV Presenter, Jennie Bond recently embarked on the voyage of a lifetime, courtesy of the tailormade experts at ROL Cruise. Here she tells us all about her Antarctica experience...

I should have listened. It was simple advice. "Whatever else, make sure you bring inner gloves to Antarctica. They'll prove invaluable". And so, as I bobbed up and down in a Zodiac as close to the South Pole as I shall ever be, full of wonderment at the glistening world of icebergs around me, I felt rather foolish as I furtively adjusted the black pop socks on my freezing hands. I'd found them in my suitcase, punched a hole for my thumbs and quickly pulled my mittens over the hosiery. But how I wished I'd invested in a proper inner layer to ward off the frostbite!

There's a lot to learn when you venture somewhere as remote and wild as the Great White Continent... and it's not just about keeping warm.

It had always been an ambition of mine to go there. But it was no more than a pipe dream until, about 18 months ago, I received an invitation from ROL Cruise to voyage with Hurtigruten for 11 days, followed by a few days in Buenos Aires.

Well, we're no spring chickens and I wondered whether my husband, Jim, would be up for it. But I'd underestimated his evergreen zest for adventure and wildlife... not to mention his curiosity about the legendary beauty of Argentinian women!

We leapt at the chance. And so, in late November 2018, after a long but comfortable flight across the Atlantic, followed by a four-hour flight to the tip of Argentina, and two days and nights crossing the Drake Passage – one of the roughest seas on the planet – we arrived at the end of the world.

And we soon discovered that life in Antarctica, and the rules that govern it, are entirely different.

The first and most important lesson we were taught by our knowledgeable expedition team on board Hurtigruten's comfortable ice class ship, MS Midnatsol, was that nature would dictate everything we'd do and everywhere we'd go. There could be no firm itinerary because it would all depend on the weather and the ice. Excursions and activities, such as snow shoeing and kayaking, would happen as often as possible, wherever was feasible. We should always expect the unexpected. Our mission was to visit this largely unspoiled frozen land... and to leave it just as we'd found it. Even our footprints would be erased wherever possible.

Another golden rule in Antarctica is that penguins – and there are hundreds of thousands of them – must always be given the right of way. We were instructed to stay five metres away wherever possible. But, if one happened to come and sit on your lap, your duty was to stay there until the penguin chose to move. It never happened – though there were times when we were left standing like statues in the snow, waiting for a penguin to decide which way to go.

“Everyone has seen pictures or films of Antarctica, but nothing can truly prepare you for the dazzling beauty of this gargantuan land.”

Nothing, though, will compare with that first morning when I pulled back the curtain and, through the porthole, saw a huge iceberg just yards away, framed by a background of virgin white mountains against a clear blue sky. It was breathtaking.

Everyone has seen pictures or films of Antarctica, but nothing can truly prepare you for the dazzling beauty of this gargantuan land. We had reached the South Shetland Islands, where the icebergs were studded with hues of turquoise and green. Occasionally there were seals resting on top, sunbathing on the ice as if it were the warmest sand.

There was always so much to see and enjoy from the ship, but whenever the weather and swell of the sea allowed, MS

Midnatsol would launch her fleet of Zodiacs. Trussed up like turkeys in our thermals and waterproof gear, we would clamber ashore, often wading through knee-deep, icy water, assisted by the crew.

At Whalers Bay we were greeted by an elephant seal wallowing in the shallows. It watched, with understandable curiosity, as a handful of our most hardy fellow travellers ignored the falling snow, stripped off and went swimming. Briefly.

Another group spent the whole night on the ice at Neko Harbour, camping in deep snow and surrounded by penguins. A once-in-a-lifetime experience.

On the beautiful island of Cuverville, we all scrambled ashore onto the snow and, with walking poles, trekked to a colony of gentoo penguins who were noisily nesting. They were fascinating to watch – some mating, others squabbling – as skuas dive-bombed, hunting for eggs. Most surprising was the stench of penguins: pungent, distinctive and never to be forgotten.

There were days when the frozen sea blocked our way, but eventually, we would change course and take another route. That's how we ended up visiting Hope Bay and Esperanza, one of the few research stations on the peninsula, where the 50 or so Argentinian residents were delighted to see visitors after the long, dark winter.

Antarctica was all and more that we had imagined. One of my abiding memories – apart from the beauty, the whales and sighting a wandering albatross – was watching two penguins approaching one another on the ice. As they met, they stopped, exchanged a brief penguin chat, and then waddled off in opposite directions.

This is their land, and to observe their community was a rare privilege. It certainly drove home the imperative the world faces to preserve this unique continent.

Turn over to journey on board Hurtigruten's brand new ship, MS Fridtjof Nansen, for her maiden voyage to Antarctica & the Falkland Islands

WILDLIFE OF ANTARCTICA

MEET THE PENGUINS

Penguins are the most common birds in the Antarctic. Living in colonies with populations larger than some cities, and surviving in the harshest of conditions, it is no wonder that penguins are seen as the emblem of the Great White Continent. However, of the 17 different species of penguin, only two (Emperor and Adélie) make the Antarctic continent their true home, although others (Chinstrap, Gentoo and Macaroni) breed on the northern tip of the Antarctic Peninsula, where conditions are less harsh.

WONDERFUL WHALES

A favourite among Antarctica cruise-goers, whales are beautiful, enigmatic and fascinating creatures. Highly intelligent with complex social lives, Antarctica whales capture the imagination of all who witness the spectacle. Few sights on Earth can beat seeing a pod of orcas or seeing a Humpback breaching the surface of the water. Almost 75% of the world's orcas live in Antarctica, which is truly a paradise for whales.

ANTARCTICA'S SIX SEALS

One of the joys of an Antarctica cruise is being able to observe seals up close. Whilst only six of the 35 species of seal live in Antarctica, Antarctic Fur Seals, Leopard Seals, Ross Seals, Crabeater Seals and Weddell Seals, these six species actually make up the vast majority of all seals on Earth.

Day 7 Puerto Chacabuco, Chile (arrive late am)

Day 9 Cruising Canal Sarmiento

YOUR EXPEDITION VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

Here are just some of the things that you can look forward to when embarking on this exclusive expedition...

★ CHILEAN FJORDS ★

Lined with rugged mountains and glacier-covered valleys, the Chilean Fjords are unlike any other fjord system in the world. Home to many of Chile's national parks, early Spanish explorers came here in search of the mythical City of the Caesars, believed to be rich in gold and diamonds. Riches to be found today are the Fjords' dramatic landscape and the unusual wildlife of Patagonia. Whales, dolphins and elephant seals are common sights when traversing these stunning fjords, a must on any bucket list.

★ FALKLAND ISLANDS ★

Imagine a place that is so far off-the-beaten-track you have miles of stunning landscape, beaches and magnificent bird life all to yourself – that's what you can expect as you arrive in Stanley. As one of the greatest wilderness destinations in the world, the Falkland Islands are the ultimate birding experiences and are home to majestic King, feisty Rockhopper, raucous Gentoo and shy Magellanic penguins as well as over 70% of the world's Black-browed albatross!

★ CAPE HORN ★

Cape Horn is widely considered the most southerly point of South America, and marks the northern boundary of the Drake Passage; for centuries it has been regarded as a major milestone by which sailing ships carrying trade goods around the world marked their passage. Magellan and Drake left their mark and names here, as did Darwin, who sailed through here on the HMS Beagle.

★ BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA ★

Buenos Aires fascinates and entertains sightseeing visitors, both for its chaotic energy and for its sheer urban beauty. Any list of things to do in Buenos Aires would begin with its many walkable neighbourhoods; Palermo especially stands out, thanks to creative residents. Looking beyond the city's sights, Buenos Aires is also world-renowned as the birthplace of Tango. Book an Ocean View Stateroom(H<sup>1</sup>) or above and you'll enjoy an EXCLUSIVE FREE Dinner & Tango show<sup>x</sup>.

Tue 30 Grundarfjörður, Iceland
Grundarfjörður is conveniently located in the middle of Snæfellsnes and provides easy access to Stykkishólmur, Snæfellsbær and the Snæfellsnes National Park. Though Grundarfjörður is not the most well-known town in Snæfellsnes, its mountain is certainly one of the most famous in Iceland, if not the world. It is not unusual for photographers from all over the world to make their way to Grundarfjörður for the sole purpose of photographing this unique landmark which has even starred in a number of films

Wed 1 Patreksfjörður, Iceland ★MAIDEN PORT★
Patreksfjörður is named after St. Patrick, spiritual guide of the first settler Orlygur Hrapppson. It's the biggest town in the southern Westfjords with a population of 600. Where the land meets the sea at the most westerly tip of The Westfjords is the imposing Látrabjarg Cliff which is home to simply stunning birdlife. Nesting high up, safe from foxes and other predators, the birds are fearless and provide incredible photographic opportunities from close range. The puffins appear in large numbers but expect to see razor bills, auks, white tailed eagles and arctic tern too

Thu 2 Siglufjörður, Iceland (depart late pm) ★MAIDEN PORT★
Siglufjörður is one of Iceland's most northerly towns and sits nestled at the foot of steep mountainsides. It was the capital of the herring fishery in recent history, but the towering mountain slopes kept this fjord and quaint town of roughly 1,200 residents secluded over the years. Today, two tunnels connect the town and fjord with the outside world, permitting easier access to the fantastic hiking and sailing opportunities in the vicinity

Fri 3 Húsavík, Iceland
★Recommended Excursion*: Diamond Circle★
Discover the unspoiled treasures of northern Iceland during this panoramic, full day sightseeing excursion
★Recommended Excursion*: Whale-Watching & Whale Museum★

Sat 4 Seyðisfjörður, Iceland (depart late pm)
Seyðisfjörður, a beautiful 19th century Norwegian village on the east coast of Iceland, is regarded by many as one of Iceland's most picturesque towns, not only due to its impressive environment, but also because nowhere in Iceland has a community of old wooden buildings been preserved so well as here

★Recommended Excursion*: Hiking Chasing Waterfalls★
Explore the pristine natural beauty of Seyðisfjörður in an invigorating new way during this panoramic hiking excursion

Sun 5 Djupivogur, Iceland
Situated in the south-eastern part of Iceland, the little town of Djupivogur is one of the easiest spots in Iceland to reach from northern Europe. Nearby Bulandsnes has a renowned bird sanctuary, and Papey Island just slightly to the east, is home to large colonies of Atlantic Puffins. Djupivogur is also not too far from Vatnajökull National Park

Mon 6 Heimaey (Westman Islands), Iceland
★Recommended Excursion*: Westman Island Walking Tour★
Explore the volcanic history of Iceland on-foot during this scenic walking tour of Heimaey

Tue 7 Reykjavik, Iceland (overnight)
Sprawling Reykjavik, the nation's nerve centre and government seat, is home to half the island's population. On a bay overlooked by proud Mt.
