HELLO AND WELCOME

TO THE JULY EDITION OF BLUE HORIZONS

Jeremy Dickinson,
Chairman of ROL Cruise

Hello and welcome to the July edition of Blue Horizons. There's only one thing better than a hassle-free holiday, and that's a hassle-cruise! Within this edition you'll find a fantastic selection of cruises, hand-picked to make your trip away as easy and stress-free as possible. No-fly cruising is one of the easiest ways go on holiday, allowing you to start relaxing as soon as you set foot on board. With Ambassador you can depart from London Tilbury on pages 14-15; or join an all-inclusive Princess cruise directly from Southampton on pages 08-09; or let Saga whisk you away on an adults-only cruise from Portsmouth on pages 16-17.

You don't have to stay close to home with a no-fly cruise either. On pages 04-05 you can take a bucket-list world voyage with Fred. Olsen, boarding at Southampton and visiting 20 different countries over the course of 101 nights, before being returned to Southampton. What're more, we're including exclusive free Private UK Chauffeur transfers for all bookings, so you don't have to worry about parking and can begin and finish your world voyage with ease and in some style!

There's always more than one option when it comes to travel, and that might be to catch the Eurostar at St. Pancras. Let the scenery roll by until you pull into Paris and join a 5★ river ship with Scenic. You'll find further details of this incredible cruise and stay promotion on pages 24-25.

Of course, there are some further afield destinations that require flying, but don't let that put you off. It's well worth the effort to see penguins in Antarctica with Holland America on pages 38-39. From the Chilean Fjords to the Falkland Islands and Glacier Alley to Cape Horn, these far-flung gems will reward your efforts with memories to last a life time.

Happy cruising!

YOUR WORLD VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

Circumnavigate the world on Borealis

This immersive, once-in-a-lifetime circumnavigation of the globe features destinations that dreams are made of, from the volcanic islands of Hawaii to the far-flung idylls of French Polynesia. Experience all this and more on board the newest addition to the Fred. Olsen fleet. Stylish, spacious and comfortable, and with capacity for fewer than 1,400 guests, Borealis is in keeping with Fred. Olsen's commitment to a more traditional style of cruising.

ASIA

A cruise is the perfect way to experience the continent's fascinating contrasts. The vibrant city-state of Singapore encapsulates this in itself, with ultra-modern skyscrapers overlooking historic temples. With buzzing cities, laidback islands, verdant rice fields, endemic wildlife, ancient traditions and a stunning cultural diversity, Asia has many layers waiting to be uncovered.

SCENIC CRUISING

As you'd expect with Fred. Olsen, the long list of highlights on this voyage is not limited to destinations visited ashore. There are full-day transits of the Panama and Suez canals, as well as a chance to discover the fiords of New Zealand, including the 1,692-metre-high Mitre Peak piercing the sky above Milford Sound.

SYDNEY

Sydney is one of the world's most exciting, must-see modern cities. Home to the famous Harbour Bridge and Opera House – two of the most iconic cityscapes on Earth – the capital of New South Wales has a visual wow factor that most other cities can only dream of. The imposing Darling Harbour is the hub of waterside life, with the revered Royal Botanic Garden nearby. For the more adventurous, Sydney Tower's outdoor platform, the Skywalk, offers 360-degree views of the city.

SMALL SHIP, BOUTIQUE LUXURY CRUISING

A BALCONY FOR EVERY GUEST

It's one of the most distinctive feature: every cabin has a balcony, including single cabins, giving you your own outside space. So whether you're cruising through the Canary Islands or discovering the delights of the Caribbean, you have your own place to relax, enjoy the views and fresh air, and watch the sun set as you head to another incredible destination.

ON BOARD LUXURIES AND SERVICE

Once you're on board, you can enjoy Saga's boutique service. Such as not having to carry your bags, and the invitation to the sailaway party out on deck. And the other things that really do add up, such as including drinks throughout your cruise**, and a nightly turndown service. Not forgetting 24-hour room service too. Saga like to think that when it comes to your comfort, nothings been overlooked.

SUMPTUOUS SINGLE PAGES

Solo cruisers are also spoilt for choice, with a range of over 100 single balcony cabins. This is a first for the cruising industry: no other ship has dedicated such space to single cruise-goers. In keeping with the ship's theme of choice, single cabins are available in a wide selection of grades, giving solo travellers just as much choice.

required, there will be a reduction. Coronavirus cover is included as standard. For added reassurance while you're away, Saga's cruises also include optional travel insurance with up to £5m coronavirus medical cover. # Jane ARCHER glass so you can admire the views while tucking into steaks and burgers whatever the weather.

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 14 years.

Fine Cut, the steakhouse, is always one of our favourite restaurants but we were lucky enough to try Le Voyage and were well impressed. The design is great, the service exceptional and there's an exciting menu of French dishes infused with flavours from other countries. I had duck with a sweet and sour sauce while the hubbie opted for loup de mer, aka seabass, with Middle East spices.

There are so many spaces to discover on Beyond, including a stylish spa and Magic Carpet that 'flies' up and down the side of the ship, changing from being a tender port to a bar and restaurant as it goes. There's live music in the lively Martini Bar, sports in the Craft Social and fun cabaret-style shows in Eden, a huge lounge with 270-degree views that is quiet by day and comes alive in the evening. Top tip: for the shows, get there early and grab a seat on the balcony for the best view.

CELEBRITY HAS MADE NEAT TWEAKS
HERE AND THERE,
IMPROVING WHAT WAS ALREADY AN AWARD-WINNING
DESIGN

And then there are all the places to eat. Sushi, Italian, French, Mediterranean, burgers, the aforementioned steaks. There's animated fun in Le Petit Chef, healthy food in Blu, a restaurant reserved for those in Aquaclass cabins and suites, casual dining in the Oceanview Café. Phew! I did a reckoning and you could be on board for two weeks and still not have tried them all. Which is a good reason – as if you needed one – for going Beyond on another cruise.

BEYOND EXPECTATIONS

Life is full of wonderful coincidences. Regular readers might remember a previous Blue Horizons when I wrote about Izzy, the wonderful butler who looked after my husband and I on Celebrity Apex last summer. Well here we are on Celebrity Cruises' new ship Celebrity Beyond and he is looking after us again. Can I say we are beyond excited?

We're staying in a Sky Suite, a fabulous room with a large balcony, spacious bathroom (I love the cheeky mirror that opens to give a view of the ocean while brushing your teeth, but remember to close it when showering!) and a bed that faces the sea so you wake to a view.

Sadly we were only in the suite for Beyond's two-night inaugural voyage from Southampton but I can't complain because, lucky us, we were staying on board for another short cruise, this time in an Infinite Balcony cabin. These are great rooms, beautifully turned out and with a wall-to-wall, floor-to-ceiling window that opens from the top down. The effect is an inside balcony where you can sit and enjoy sea views as if you were outside, but on murky days when you want to keep the window shut you haven't lost space in the cabin.

I can't think of a more apt name for this ship, which goes beyond her sisters Edge and Apex in more ways than one. For a start, she is 17 meters longer, which means more space for additional places to eat and drink. The new World Bar is the place for classy cocktails while Le Voyage is the first restaurant at sea by Michelin-starred chef Daniel Boulud.

Secondly, Celebrity has made neat tweaks here and there, improving what was already an award-winning design. Among changes, the Retreat, a gorgeous area exclusively for suite passengers that includes a sundeck, lounge and private restaurant now covers two decks at the front of the ship.

Among new features, you can watch the sun go down over Marrakesh Mule cocktails and hummus and lamb kebab snacks in a Moroccan-styled Sunset Bar, hang out by the pool in cabanas and take a dip in infinity pools by the Rooftop Garden. In the Rooftop Garden itself, the grill has been enclosed in

STAFF STORIES...

Concierge Sales Manager Liam tells us about his Royal Caribbean experience..

"In May I was lucky enough to be given the chance to sail on Royal Caribbean's brand new addition, the Wonder of the Seas.

Upon arrival at the port in Barcelona, it was clear how magnificent she appeared. Check-in was seamless. To my surprise, within 25 minutes from leaving my transfer, I was through security, had my Covid passes checked, photo taken and I was able to board and find my stateroom!

The ship can only and aptly be described as a Wonder! She really is impressive and has so much to offer. The cabins and suites are all very well appointed, great sizes and well designed. The beds were extremely large and very comfortable!

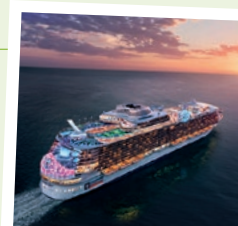

On board, there is so much to explore, including a huge number of eateries, bars, shops and activities. Highlights include the Zip-wire and water slides, the traditional carousel, the Solarium and whirlpool hot tubs. I also managed to enjoy dining at "Hooked", an amazing Seafood specialty restaurant, the Main dining room, Sorrento's, fresh-made Pizza and the Windjammer buffet. All of the food was fresh, hot and very tasty!

I watched a show at the Aqua Theatre on the second night, and I can honestly say I was amazed, the acts performing were outstanding and its something that I would recommend to everyone as something not to be missed.

For anyone who has travelled with Royal Caribbean, or if you haven't, this is a ship that has something for everyone and I am keen to return and take the family!

Thank you Royal Caribbean for the experience!"

SAIL IN THE WAKE OF GREAT EXPLORERS

Follow this epic route from Iceland and Greenland to Nome in Alaska, and on to Vancouver.

Discover UNESCO-listed sites, spectacular scenery, abundant wildlife and Inuit settlements – guided by your expert Expedition Team.

Explore the breath-taking Bering Strait, navigating ice floes and spotting Arctic wildlife like whales, caribou and even polar bears.

From Iceland to Greenland

Your adventure begins in Reykjavik, before sailing the Denmark Strait to Prins Christian Sund, a spectacular granite maze of channels. You'll then reach the remarkable fjords and settlements of southern Greenland, and its capital, Nuuk.

Into the Northwest Passage

Sail across the Davis Strait, exploring the islands that dot this fabled route. Continuing west through the Amundsen Gulf and Beaufort Sea, head for the Pacific Ocean through the Bering Strait. Your final port of call is gold-rich Nome, where Roald Amundsen completed three of his great expeditions.

*Expedition activities are optional and pre-bookable excursions are at a supplement and must be booked at least 28 days prior to departure. Excursions are subject to change. Please note this voyage may not be

It's time to relax and enjoy the comfortable facilities on board your hybrid-powered ship. Your Expedition Team will share the protocols of respectfully visiting wildlife habitats and indigenous Arctic communities
- Wed 16 Prins Christian Sund, Greenland
Explore the incredible waters of the 60-mile-long Prins Christian Sund on your included excursion. Sharp-peaked granite mountains provide a stunning contrast to the bright white glaciers. Look out for calving icebergs and colourful houses in the village of Aappilattoq
- Thu 17 Ivittuut, Greenland
As you wander around the abandoned ruins of this ghost town, it's hard to believe that Ivittuut, a former mining outpost, once played a pivotal role in the course of history. During WWII, the US secretly stationed troops here to prevent rare cryolite – used to make aluminium alloys – falling into German hands. Enjoy an included guided walk of the area's deserted buildings

Cruise into Nuuk, Greenland's colourful capital. With a population of 18,000, it has a striking mix of old and new buildings
- Thu 19 - Sail across the Labrador Sea
Fri 20 Cross the southern part of the Labrador Sea towards Newfoundland and Labrador in Canada
- Sat 21 - ★The Northwest Passage★
Thu 31 Sail into the heart of the Northwest Passage. Since the late 15th century, the search for this fabled seaway through the Canadian Arctic was a holy grail for hardy adventurers. There are records of almost 40 expeditions that sailed these waters. The most famous journey here was James Cook's failed attempt to sail the Passage in 1776, and of course the ill-fated Franklin expedition of 1845. The first to conquer the Northwest Passage by ship was Norwegian explorer Roald Amundsen on an expedition that lasted from 1903 to 1906. During your sailing, you will attempt to land on several sites including Ulukhaktok, Cambridge Bay, Gjøa Haven, Fort Ross, Beechey Island, Devon Island and Pond Inlet. In addition, you will be sailing in amazing straits with unique nature and hopefully enough ice to make it for excellent wildlife spotting

SEPTEMBER 2023

- Fri 1 - ★The Northwest Passage★
Sat 2
- Sun 3 - Relaxing at sea
Wed 6 Having successfully traversed the Northwest Passage, your expedition cruise continues towards Nome. Join your Expedition Team for more insightful lectures. Wildlife lovers and birdwatchers are in for a treat. You may spot bowhead and grey whales as you cross the

Beaufort Sea to Point Barrow, the northernmost point of the USA, before crossing the international date line – with 'tomorrow' on your right and 'today' on your left

Thu 7 Nome, Alaska – Vancouver, Canada

Disembark and explore this fascinating town. Prospectors first came to Nome in 1898, and people still hunt for gold here today. You'll see evidence of the gold rush all around, including abandoned dredges, turn-of-the-century steam engines and old railroad tracks, lending the town a unique atmosphere. Later, transfer to the airport for your flight to Vancouver. Upon arrival, transfer a 4★ hotel† for your overnight stay

Fri 8 Vancouver, Canada

Transfer to the airport for your overnight flight to London‡

Sat 9 Arrive in London

★ANTARCTICA - THE WORLD'S LAST FRONTIER★

Holland America Line travel along a route that includes the Antarctic regions of the Palmer Archipelago, the Danco Coast and Antarctic Sound.

Located at the end of the Antarctic Peninsula, the Palmer Archipelago is one of the most accessible parts of the continent. Being an archipelago, it's made up of 52 ice-covered islands that are separated from the Antarctic Peninsula by the Gerlache Strait.

Opportunities abound for viewing icebergs, and the Antarctic Sound is one of the best places to view the fascinating activities of the gentoo penguin. The third-largest of its species, the gentoo can grow up to 30 inches in height and weigh up to 12 pounds.

★CHILEAN FJORDS★

Lined with rugged mountains and glacier-covered valleys, the Chilean Fjords are unlike any other fjord system in the world. Home to many of Chile's national parks, early Spanish explorers came here in search of the mythical City of the Caesars, believed to be rich in gold and diamonds.

4TH & 26TH JANUARY 2024

- Day 14 - ★ Antarctic Experience ★
Day 17 On your Antarctic Expedition you will sail through the bays and islands of the Palmer Archipelago, off the northern tip of the long Antarctic Peninsula, which reaches out toward South America. Encircled in a landscape of snow and ice in every direction, your ship will slowly navigate the iceberg-dotted waters. The surroundings are hauntingly quiet as well, an aspect of the continent that comes as a surprise to many first-time visitors. Along the way, the ship's naturalists will point out the birds – terns, petrels, and gulls – found on the coast and on small islets at stops like Dallmann Bay. As you pass dark, rocky Cuverville Island, you'll see some of the 6,500 pairs of gentoo penguins that make their home there, the largest known colony in the world. Continuing on to Paradise Harbor, you'll have a chance to observe gentoo and chinstrap penguins
- Day 19 Stanley, Falkland Islands
The world's southernmost capital, Stanley is proud of its British heritage, evidenced everywhere from its red telephone boxes to its pubs. During the early years of their colonization, the Falklands were used as a base for ships hunting sperm whales for oil, followed by those hunting seals for fur
- Day 21 Puerto Madryn, Argentina
- Day 23 Punta del Este, Uruguay
- Day 24 Montevideo, Uruguay
- Day 25 - Buenos Aires, Argentina (overnight)
- Day 26 Disembark and transfer to a 4★ hotel for your two-night stay†
- Day 27 Buenos Aires, Argentina
Spend today exploring at your leisure. A melting pot of European and South American cultures, Buenos Aires is the confident capital of Argentina. Beside the busy port is a metropolis boasting eclectic architecture, delicious parrilla-based cuisine and passionate Porteños. It is the birthplace of Pope Francis and Diego Maradona, resting place of Evita and home of the smouldering tango
- Day 28 Buenos Aires, Argentina
After breakfast, transfer to the airport for your flight back to London‡
- Day 29 Arrive in London
Days not mentioned are spent relaxing at sea. Itinerary is based on 4th January 2024 departure and itinerary operates in reverse on other date. Antarctica experience will be scenic sailing.

Thu 22 Sihanoukville, Cambodia

Sat 24 - Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam (overnight)

Sun 25

Ho Chi Minh City covers an area of more than 800 square miles, stretching westward from the South China Sea to the Cambodian border. Its land is overwhelmingly rural, dotted with villages and clusters of houses set amidst rice paddies. The downtown section of Ho Chi Minh City is still known as Saigon, and it is here the economic changes sweeping Vietnam and their social implications are most evident

Tue 27 Da Nang (for Hue), Vietnam

Thu 29 Ha Long Bay, Vietnam

Just off the coast of Vietnam, a myriad of karstic islands are clustered in this picturesque setting. Looming out of the sea, undercut by erosions into fantastic shapes, they reminded the Vietnamese of the looping back of a swimming dragon. Scattered among them, whole communities of fishing families live most of their lives on sampans, trading among themselves and periodically going into nearby towns such as Haiphong to sell their catch and buy supplies

YOUR VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

Your two-night 5★ hotel stay in Singapore<sup>1</sup>

Singapore goes by many names – the Red Dot, the Garden City, Lion the City – but none adequately sum up its dynamic appeal. As a city-state, Singapore is both the country and its capital and this immaculately clean region is one of many contrasts. Ultra-modern skyscrapers overlook historic temples, while a tropical rainforest lies a few miles outside the urban buzz of the central Business District. The breath-taking skyline is Marina Bay's main attraction, with towering skyscrapers and futuristic architecture dominating your view. Greenery grows from rooftops to reinforce the island's moniker as the Garden City, while the Gardens by the Bay overflows with flowers, ferns and shrubs.

Your two-night 5★ hotel stay in Hong Kong, China<sup>1</sup>

Hong Kong is amongst the most exciting cities in the world, offering an absolute wealth of things to see and do. From the exceptional views across its famous harbour to the sizzling dishes in its glamorous restaurants, you're sure to fall in love with Hong Kong.

Take the ferry at night to see the skyline illuminated in all its glory, or go at dusk to catch a gorgeous sunset (B)
