ROL CRUISE ARE GOING GREEN

Helping to create a sustainable future...

From June 2019 ROL Cruise are delighted to announce that Blue Horizons and any other brochure you receive from us will be 100% recyclable. We want to protect our environment, as well as take you on voyages to see it, so we are introducing potato starch polybags and FSC & PEFC certified paper marketing to our standard way of working to help create a sustainable future.

Our pledge to you, and to our environment, is that Blue Horizons and any other marketing brochure from ROL Cruise will never be sent using a plastic polybag.

What is potato starch packaging?

- ✓ A compostable alternative for polythene, derived from potato starch
- ✓ Usually comes from waste potatoes so you don't need to grow a crop to make it
- ✓ 100% compostable, renewable and sustainable
- ✓ Contains no oil-based materials, plastics or harmful toxins
- ✓ Carries the EN13432 industrial certification. OK compost HOME certification, which the ROL Cruise wrapper has, is the equivalent for domestic compost
- ✓ It's durable, but will break down in just 12 weeks on a compost heap

How to dispose of your potato starch packaging & help protect our environment...

Potato starch packaging is not suitable for standard recycling, instead please:

- ✓ Dispose of on your compost heap
- ✓ Dispose of in your garden waste bin
- ✓ Dispose of in your kitchen food waste bin
- ✓ Use as a liner for your kitchen food waste bin

What is FSC & PEFC certified paper marketing?

One of the main talking points in the sustainability conversation is the importance of using timber from sustainable sources. To help contribute to reducing environmental impact we are encouraged to source materials from sustainably managed forests where trees are replanted as they are felled. There are over 50 certification programmes worldwide that address the different types of forests, the two most well-known certifications are PEFC and FSC. With the importance of responsibly sourcing our paper marketing at the forefront of our minds, we can guarantee that we will always use FSC & PEFC paper in our marketing.

Our pledge to you, and to our environment, is that we will always use FSC & PEFC certified paper in our marketing communications.

Recycling within the ROL Cruise office...

In addition to using potato starch packaging and FSC & PEFC certified paper marketing, we are also staying true to our pledge within the ROL Cruise office. Here, we are helping to create a sustainable future by:

- ✓ Collecting, shredding and recycling all paper waste
- ✓ Recycling our printer toner cartridges
- ✓ All cardboard and general waste is collected, sorted and recycled
- ✓ All unusable PC equipment is recycled

This ultimate journey with Hurtigruten is described as "The World's Most Beautiful Voyage" by Lonely Planet. See 34 ports and cover over 2,500 nautical miles, which allows you to explore every inch of Norway's magical coastline. Any time of year, it's a voyage like no other; 22 of the ports lie north of the Polar Circle – and you will be given the opportunity to join excursions tailor-made to your exploration level*. On this voyage, you will not only feel like an explorer, you will be one. Hurtigruten are world leaders in expedition travel, so you can rest assured you're traveling with the experts.

Spectacular seasons

With spring the warmth and daylight return, kick-starting life along the Norwegian coast. The migratory birds return and once again the coast is teeming with life. You'll be able to see landmarks such as the beautiful Lyngfjord, with its majestic mountain backdrop and unique nature, beginning to revitalise after the long winter.

In summer, the long days energise both nature and visitors. Even as far south as Bergen, you can experience 19 hours of daylight. Flowers bloom, rivers fill with fish and giant waterfalls cascade towards the ocean, creating a picture-perfect setting for a summer holiday. North of the Arctic Circle, you can experience the Midnight Sun – a spectacular natural phenomenon.

Majestic mountains surround this narrow fjord, and Hurtigruten offer several excursions that let you explore this spectacular area. Enjoy a beautiful voyage during this season, as the fresh and clear coastal air enhances the intense red and yellow that fills mountainsides, hilltops and forests. From the deck, you may see the sharp profiles of the highest peaks sprinkled with the first snow, against the background of an ice blue sky.

Life on board with Hurtigruten

Since 1893, Hurtigruten ships have provided vital links between cities, towns and hamlets on Norway's shores, delivering post, local passengers, freight and today holidaymakers up and down the stunning Norwegian coast. When you sail with Hurtigruten, you are on an expedition with like-minded adventurers who value personal growth and exploration. On board, enjoy a casual and relaxed atmosphere, great food, and all the quality equipment you need to explore new destinations.

Hurtigruten Go Plastic Free

Hurtigruten have made history by removing all single use plastics from their ships! Hurtigruten, who sail to some of the world's most remote, pristine and delicate environments, have made their announcement at a time when concern for rising plastic in the oceans is at an all-time high.

Please note Hurtigruten ships are working ships and ship may vary depending on departure date. Please note Arctic Superior Outside Cabins can be based on fixed double or twin bed configuration with upper/lower berths. †Some *Amazon Gift Card is based on one per booking, for UK addresses only and is not combinable with the Blue Horizons booking bonus. From Honningsvåg, you can join an optional excursion* to the North Cape, the northernmost point on the European continent – make sure you get a photo with the iconic globe sculpture

Day 7 Båtsfjord – Kirkenes – Berlevåg, Norway

This morning, arrive in Kirkenes, the turning point for the return journey southwards. The ports previously visited at night are now seen by day. The Russian border is just a few miles away and, depending on the season, there may be the possibility of visiting the Russian frontier

Day 8 Mehamn – Tromsø, Norway

At Honningsvåg, you can join an excursion that features breakfast at the North Cape*. In spring, you'll sail through the beautiful Lyngenfjord, surrounded by the snowy peaks of the Lyngen Alps, where you may be visited by a local fisherman who is willing to share his catch of locally caught prawns. You'll then dock at Tromsø, just in time to enjoy a magical midnight concert at the Arctic Cathedral*. Experience the breathtaking acoustics and hear Norwegian folk songs and hymns performed by professional musicians

Day 9 Tromsø – Stamsund, Norway

The island groups of Lofoten and Vesterålen offer some of the most stunning scenery you will see during the entire coastal voyage. Later, reach the spectacular Trollfjord, only 2km long and 100m wide, surrounded by majestic mountains. Steep cliffs hug the ship's sides and the dramatic landscape conjures fairy tale images of an imaginary land of trolls. Trollfjord is also the realm of the sea eagle

Day 10 Bodø – Rørvik, Norway

Sail along the Helgeland coast, passing hundreds of islets, fertile farmland and steep granite walls. On deck, you can see the strange mountain Torghatten, famous for its distinctive hole through its centre. Another highlight is sailing past the Seven Sisters mountain range. Today, provides another opportunity to explore the city of Trondheim. In Kristiansund, you can join an excursion to the renowned Atlantic Road, one of Norway's most visited tourist destinations. # Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 13 years.

I can't think of a country that has leapt from zero to hero with cruisers as fast as Japan. Cruise lines have been going there for years, but usually visiting a couple of ports as part of a longer voyage around the Far East. Not any more.

These days, cruise lines have entire cruises circumnavigating Japan. Azamara Club Cruises®, Silversea, Regent Seven Seas Cruises®, Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines, Holland America Line, Celebrity Cruises®. I could go on, but you get the picture.

I'd love to tell you what the attraction is, but I've never been. Well, that's not strictly true. I flew into Osaka once, caught a bus from the airport to the ship I was joining and we set sail in the early hours the following morning.

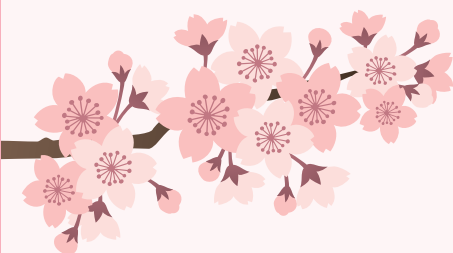

So am I ready to do a proper cruise around the country? You bet! Here are seven reasons why it's top of my wish list.

1 My experience catching that bus at Osaka Airport was fascinating. A kind man with a smattering of English told me which bus I needed, helped me buy a ticket (the machine was only in Japanese), then directed me to stand in one lane and put my suitcase in another. As buses came in, he bowed respectfully, directed the waiting passengers on, loaded their bags and bowed again as it pulled away. It made me realise how very different and extraordinary Japanese culture is.

3 Look at a map of the country. All the well-known cities – Tokyo, Hiroshima, Nagasaki, Osaka and Kyoto – are either on or near the coast, and so are less-familiar places that shouldn't be missed. Hakodate, a cosmopolitan metropolis in the shadow of the mountain that gave the city its name; Aomori, where in August every year the streets come alive with people and colourful floats to celebrate the Nebuta Festival; Kagoshima, home to hot springs and sand baths; Shimizu, which has castles, shrines and unparalleled views of Mount Fuji. Another reason why a cruise is an ideal way to visit Japan.

2 A cruise is the best way to visit Japan. I would say that wouldn't I? But think about it. You don't have to worry about the language because there'll be English-speaking guides to show you around (I think I found the one man at Osaka Airport who spoke English so believe me, that is a big advantage), and if you are nervous about the culture or food, you are back on board for dinner each evening.

4 Yes I know I said everything you would want to see, and more, is near the coast but just 150 miles inland from Tokyo is Jigokudani Monkey Park, home to the famous Snow Monkeys. You can visit the park on your own but even better, ROL Cruise has teamed up with Wendy Wu Tours to offer a superb holiday combining a 14 night Silversea cruise around Japan on Silver Muse with four nights in Tokyo and trip into the Japanese Alps to see the monkeys. The holiday is in April 2021 and you can read more about it elsewhere in this issue of Blue Horizons.

Culture, castles & cherry blossom

5 Wouldn't it be fabulous to see Japan's spectacular cherry blossom? To fill your nostrils with the scent of the flowers? There are cherry trees all over Japan and they blossom in late March to April, depending on the weather. Tokyo, Osaka, Kyoto and Sakata are some of the best places to see the blossom – and all just happen to be on Silver Muse's April 2021 itinerary. Don't miss Shinjuku Gyoen park in Tokyo, which has more than 1,000 cherry trees.

6 We all know about Pearl Harbour and the fighting in the Far East during the Second World War, but I'm sure I'm not the only one who knows very little about the rest of Japan's history and culture. The shogun rulers, samurai warriors, geisha traditions and meaning of Zen Buddhism – you can learn all this on a cruise, and also visit Hiroshima or Nagasaki, where peace parks remember the death and destruction caused by the atomic bombs dropped in 1945.

7 Dare I say it? I don't like sushi and puffer fish is a definite no-no. But I'd love to try real Japanese Kobe beef, ramen noodle soup, soba noodles and tempura vegetables. I'll have to get better with chopsticks and learn to slurp when eating (apparently the done thing when tucking into noodles in Japan) but that is all part of the fun of discovering a new culture.

A TASTE OF SALT

In March, I was one of several journalists invited by Silversea to sample a new food concept designed to encourage passengers to understand cultures through their cuisine.

Called Sea And Land Taste (SALT), it will be introduced on Silver Moon, the new Silversea ship launching in August next year, but we were trying it out on Silver Muse, on a cruise from Manila to Singapore.

On shore, we learned about local food and dining traditions including joining a Filipino kamayan buffet where you eat with your fingers.

On board, food experts explained how their culture and cuisine were intertwined and cooked up a few dishes for us to sample.

It was a brilliant insight into a side of life in the Philippines, Eastern Malaysia and Singapore that I've never appreciated before.

Details of the inaugural SALT tours on Silver Moon are being finalised but if the Muse trip is anything to go by, they will be wonderful. I can't wait to find out.

EXPERIENCING EDGE ON BOARD

Celebrity X Cruises®
SAIL BEYOND BORDERS™

Georgina Todd, a Marketing Executive at ROL Cruise, recently experienced spectacular modern luxury on board Celebrity Cruises®' brand-new ship Celebrity Edge®

"A cruise on board this revolutionary ship will truly capture your imagination..."

"I was utterly delighted to be given the opportunity to stay on board this revolutionary ship. From the moment I embarked, I was truly blown away by the stunning design and décor – unlike anything I have ever seen before. The food is second-to-none and with so much choice on offer, they really do cater to everyone's taste. My favourite meal on board was in the Cosmopolitan restaurant, with dishes recommended by our waiter – simply some of the best food and service I have ever experienced. The entertainment was superb with a vast array of dynamic performances, including live musicians, theatre productions, on board activities, open air cinema, plus much more!"

My favourite places to spend time on board were:

Eden – A revolutionary new space, bringing the outside in. New dining experiences and entertainment abound here

Roof Top Garden – A serene haven, and a great place to grab a drink and snack from the Rooftop Grill

The Resort Deck – The finest sun trap at sea! And for some peace and quiet I would head inside to the adults-only Solarium

Magic Carpet – A world-first with a fabulous restaurant and an innovative way to embark/disembark

YOUR EXPEDITION VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

Follow in the footsteps of Magellan, Drake and Darwin when you embark on this exclusive expedition...

★ BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA ★

Buenos Aires fascinates and entertains sightseeing visitors, both for its chaotic energy and for its sheer urban beauty. Any list of things to do in Buenos Aires would begin with its many walkable neighborhoods; Palermo especially stands out, thanks to creative residents. Looking beyond the city's sights, Buenos Aires is also world-renowned as the birthplace of Tango. What's more, all bookings will enjoy an exclusive free city tour*

★ FALKLAND ISLANDS ★

As one of the greatest wilderness destinations in the world, the Falkland Islands are the ultimate birding experiences and are home to majestic King, feisty Rockhopper, raucous Gentoo and shy Magellanic penguins as well as over 70% of the world's Black-browed albatross! Charles Darwin visited the islands twice, and Stanley is proud of its British heritage, evidenced everywhere from its red telephone boxes to its pubs.

★ CAPE HORN ★

Cape Horn is widely considered the most southerly point of South America, and marks the northern boundary of the Drake Passage; for centuries it has been regarded as a major milestone by which sailing ships carrying trade goods around the world marked their passage. Magellan and Drake left their mark and names here, as did Darwin, who sailed through here on the HMS Beagle.

★ CHILEAN FJORDS ★

Lined with rugged mountains and glacier-covered valleys, the Chilean Fjords are unlike any other fjord system in the world. Home to many of Chile's national parks, early Spanish explorers came here in search of the mythical City of the Caesars, believed to be rich in gold and diamonds. Riches to be found today are the Fjords' dramatic landscape and the unusual wildlife of Patagonia. Whales, dolphins and elephant seals are a common sight when traversing these stunning fjords.

Singapore goes by many names – the Red Dot, the Garden City, Lion the City – but none adequately sum up its dynamic appeal. # Russian Honey Cake

(Medovik)

Popular the length and breadth of Russia, the honey cake or medovik is a deliciously sweet addition to any aspiring bakers' repertoire. According to Russian tradition, the cake was created in the 18th century by a young chef who sought to impress Empress Elizabeth. Legend has it that even the wife of Tsar Alexander I had a penchant for the sweet cake, despite her well-known dislike for honey. With beautifully sweet soft biscuit and luxurious cream layers all finished with a crunchy walnut topping, this stunning recipe is sure to hit the spot.

Ingredients

- 270g honey
- 80g butter
- 120g caster sugar
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1 tsp bicarbonate of soda
- 500g plain flour
- 600ml soured cream
- 80g icing sugar
- 250ml double cream, whipped
- 3 tbsp honey
- 1 vanilla pod, seeds removed
- 100g walnuts, finely chopped
- Fresh strawberries, to serve

Method

1. Preheat the oven to gas mark 4, 180°C, fan 160°C.
2. Place the honey, butter and caster sugar into a medium saucepan. Heat over a low heat until the sugar has completely dissolved.
3. Remove from the heat and gradually whisk in the beaten eggs, making sure to whisk constantly so that you don't cook the eggs.
4. Next, whisk in the bicarbonate of soda and a few tablespoons of the flour. Remove the whisk and, using a spatula, fold in the remaining flour until it reaches the consistency of a soft dough.
5. While the dough is still warm, divide it into eight equal pieces. Roll each piece on a well floured surface into a round shape, approximately 3mm thick.
6. Using a 9 inch plate, trim each into circles and place onto a lined baking tray. Make sure to keep all the trimmings too.
7. Repeat this while the dough is still warm. Depending on how many shelves you have in your oven, you can cook two or three at a time for around 5 mins or until lightly golden. Remove from the oven and cool on wire racks.
8. Lastly, take all the trimmings and lay them on a lined baking tray in a single layer. Cook for 4-5 mins or until lightly golden, remove from heat and allow to cool. Crush with a rolling pin or in a food processor until you have rough crumbs.
9. Make the filling by whipping the soured cream and icing sugar together. Whisk the double cream until it forms soft peaks. Fold it into the soured cream along with the honey and vanilla seeds.
10. Spread around five to six tablespoons of the sour cream mixture between each layer, top with another layer and press down firmly.
11. Repeat and top the final layer with sour cream and spread the remaining sour cream around the edge of the cake.
12. Mix the walnuts with 200g of the biscuit crumbs. Press the mixture onto the top and all sides of the cake. Put in the fridge to set for at least 4 hours but preferably overnight.
13. Serve topped with fresh strawberries.
