Or, if history is more your thing, discover an ancient irrigation network in Oman, dating back to around 500AD. Sailing in to New York, the Statue of Liberty welcomes you upon arrival. CUNARD

INTRODUCING THE BRAND-NEW QUEEN ANNE

Queen Anne's breath-taking interiors take inspiration from Cunard's past to define a striking new design direction for the future. Having been immersed in the Cunard archives, the designers have ensured that Queen Anne exudes classic Cunard style while showcasing many new considered touches. Queen Anne's distinctive design language is echoed throughout, reinterpreting influential styles of the past and celebrating the beautiful art deco style finishes that Cunard is known for. Feel inspired as you stroll through decks adorned in an impressive art collection or enjoy that special feeling as you descend into the Grand Lobby in your Gala Evening finery. Delight in Cunard's world-famous Afternoon Tea served in the exquisite Queens Room or decide to spend your days and evenings relaxing in more casual surroundings.

WORLD CLASS ACCOMMODATION

With luxurious flourishes enhanced by stylish décor, every day on Queen Anne offers a chance to sail the world in unparalleled comfort. Rest easy, safe in the knowledge that the finer details have been taken care of. From a welcome drink to help ease you into your voyage, to sumptuous cotton sheets, soft bathrobes, and a nightly turndown service, you'll find signature touches in each suite or stateroom ready to usher you into a world of indulgence and unadulterated relaxation. Feel a sense of ease in this part of the ship you can call your own while on board. Be comforted knowing that at any time of day you can return to your exquisite accommodation to settle in and put your feet up. Whether you want to pick up your holiday read, relax in bed with a movie, or curate a cocktail at your personal bar in a Queens Grill suite, your private address at sea awaits.

QUEEN ANNE'S OUTDOOR SPACES

From a morning swim as the sun climbs the sky or lazy lunches on deck, to a walk with a view or a film under a blanket of stars, Queen Anne's pools, bars, al fresco eateries, and wide-open deck spaces connect you with the great outdoors like never before.

With a choice of inspiring outdoor destinations to discover, each with its own distinctive look and feel, spending time in the open air on Queen Anne provides plenty of moments to remember.

Lose yourself in a thrilling holiday read in the calming oasis of The Pavilion, savour elevated ocean views from the Sky Bar, or unwind to the sounds of a live band at the Panorama Pool Club.

In addition to these vibrant signature spaces, feel inspired by the feeling of walking on air with aft deck corners that extend out, offering a unique view of the ship and sea. Take in a full lap alongside the water's edge on deck 3, find time to explore the wellness studio with top deck sea views – perfect for practising yoga at sea – and enjoy the Cabana bar for holiday cocktails and deck games.

Meanwhile, the Grills Terrace, exclusive to guests of the Princess and Queens Grill Suites, is equipped with infinity hot tubs and luxurious deck facilities, offering the perfect outdoor retreat.

AUTHENTIC CUISINES

In addition to Cunard's much-loved signature venues, Queen Anne offers an array of alternative dining options. Whether you're looking for a nourishing healthy dish, a light bite on-the-go, or a spontaneous and indulgent treat, you'll find something to suit. Find intimate and atmospheric restaurants inside, and delight in the variety of opportunities for al fresco dining too, should you be seeking a delectable meal under the sun or stars while the ocean breeze sweeps by.

Your choice of authentic cuisine includes Mediterranean, with a restaurant whose menu features both familiar and perhaps unexpected dishes.

Delight in the delicate and fragrant flavours of the East at the Pan-Asian restaurant or enjoy tastes of India with dishes made using rich and aromatic spice blends. When you're in the mood for an indulgent steak and perfectly paired wine, choose the flagship Steakhouse at the Verandah, or maybe head for tapas if you'd like an evening filled with plenty of options. You'll find a generous menu of pub classics at the Golden Lion or choose from a range of healthy options at the Wellness Café.

AN OASIS OF CALM

On Queen Anne, Mareel Wellness & Beauty finds its perfect home. This tranquil setting provides a sanctuary, where you can relax, rejuvenate and enjoy the use of luxurious facilities, leaving you feeling refreshed and radiant from inside out. Taking inspiration from the waters on which are ailed, Mareel is designed to indulge the senses and soothe mind, body, and soul. Find time to delight in a new addition that makes its debut on Queen Anne: the top deck wellness studio. Here you can relish a sense of calm as you lose yourself in a sequence of yoga postures or mindful meditation, while the sun sets over the horizon. Let the world's natural elements support your wellness once again, by allowing the fresh ocean air to cool you during laps of the generous outdoor deck space. To further complement your wellbeing on board, perhaps dine at the Wellness Café, or choose one of the healthy options found in menus across the ship. With fresh fruit in abundance, smoothies made to order, and plenty of vegan and vegetarian options available, Queen Anne is truly the perfect setting for a memorable wellness experience.

★YOUR VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS★

★RIO DE JANEIRO★

Without question, Rio de Janeiro is one of the most beautiful harbour cities in the world. The second-largest city in the Federal Republic of Brazil, cascading mountains, sandy beaches, tropical vegetation and the South Atlantic Ocean give Rio de Janeiro a dramatic back-drop in a league of its own. The city is renowned for its spectacular carnival and world-famous sights including Pão de Açúcar (Sugar Loaf Mountain) and Corcovado (Statue of Christ the Redeemer). Whether you're taking a schooner cruise around Guanabara Bay or conquering the city's summits, Rio de Janeiro is guaranteed to amaze and inspire.

★BUENOS AIRES★

Argentina's capital has a unique and absorbing grandeur. Experience this in abundance at the Colon Theatre, a stunning opera house, and at Recoleta Cemetery, final resting place of Eva 'Evita' Peron. For a true taste of Buenos Aires' life and soul, many love to tour city districts like La Boca, with its colourful houses and lively tango cafés.

★SALVADOR★

Host of the world's largest carnival, Salvador is dubbed the Brazilian capital of happiness. It's a fine example of the country's rich cultural history, beautiful architecture and adventurous cuisine. In 1985, Salvador's historic centre Pelourinho was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Gastronomy in Salvador is heavily influenced by African ingredients, flavours and techniques, with seafood featuring in many dishes. Azeite-de-dendê, a type of palm oil, is one of the most commonly-used ingredients and was introduced to Brazil by West African slaves.

★ST LUCIA★

From the port at Castries, take a trip to St. Lucia's 'drive-in' volcano, where the crater bubbles with hot sulphur springs, or visit the tropical Diamond Botanical Gardens Waterfall and Mineral Baths.

For rum lovers, St. Lucia offers a behind-the-scenes tour of a traditional distillery, complete with a chance to taste the island's famous export at source.

This scenic island is simply stunning when viewed from the Fortress of Brimstone Hill, where you'll see a panorama of volcanic slopes, verdant sugar cane plantations and neighbouring islands.

★PHILIPSBURG★

Perched on a narrow strip of land between the crystal clear Caribbean Sea and the Great Salt Pond, the Caribbean gem Philipsburg is a fabulous setting for a wide array of things to see and experience.

YOUR GRAND VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, USA

The birthplace of jazz, New Orleans, is a great 'Southern Belle' of a city. Enjoy the spectacular Creole cooking, the lacy balconied mansions of Vieux Carre and a 'steam-wheeler' cruise down the Mississippi to Scarlet O'Hara country. Nestled in the Mississippi River's crescent, New Orleans is home to fantastic natural wonders – such as the mighty Mississippi – as well as Jean Lafitte National.

BRIDGETOWN, BARBADOS

Historic Bridgetown and its Garrison are recognised as a UNESCO World Heritage Site; elsewhere on the island you'll find exotic botanical gardens, the intriguing Harrison's Cave and the legendary Kensington Oval cricket ground. For a true taste of the island, enjoy a tour of Mount Gay, the world's oldest commercial rum distillery.

PARTIAL TRANSIT OF THE PANAMA CANAL

Undeniably, Panama's biggest attraction is the Panama Canal, a modern day wonder of the world. Constructed between 1903 and 1914, the canal's three locks allow 14,000 boats a year to cross a 48 mile body of water from the Pacific Ocean to the Atlantic. Its role in revolutionising maritime trade and the sheer feat of engineering skill makes the canal a fascinating place to sail through.

PUERTO LIMON, COSTA RICA

Set foot on 'the Rich Coast' to appreciate just how rich it really is. Strolling the city's palm-lined promenade or verdant Parque Vargas will tell you that much. But no visit would be complete without admiring the vast swathes of dense rainforest, and Braulio Carillo National Park obliges with an aerial tram ride through the lush canopy.

Influences from the Romans, Greeks, Crusaders and British are evident in the various churches and palaces. Known as the 'Pearl of the Adriatic', Dubrovnik is nestled between the mountains and sea on Croatia's Dalmatian Coast. ★ YOUR GRAND WORLD VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS ★

A rich combination of European grandeur and Latino passion, the capital city of Argentina is steeped in history. Buenos Aires has a diverse range of architecture, tree-lined boulevards and museums. Jazz and tango clubs are popular, with the latter having originated in the city in the 18th century and now one of the most famous Latin dances. The city is synonymous with one of the most powerful women of our time, Eva Perón, who helped change the history of Argentina.

RIO DE JANEIRO

Rio de Janeiro is famed for its Copacabana and Ipanema beaches, framed by Sugarloaf Mountain, accessed by cable car, and Mount Corcovado. The iconic statue of Christ the Redeemer looks over the city from a height of 2,310 feet, and is deemed one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. The city is also renowned for its Carnival, and is one of the most famous events in the world, consisting of huge flamboyant parades, dancing and elaborate costumes.

EASTER ISLAND

Just south of the Tropic of Capricorn, Easter Island, or Rapa Nui, lies 3,790 kilometres to the west of Chile. Extraordinarily remote, this island was first inhabited by Polynesians who are believed to have arrived by sea about 1,200 years ago. The island is best known as the site of more than 600 stone statues, or Moai, which stand up to nine metres in height.

The statues were carved in the spectacular Rano Raraku quarry and were then believed to have been transported on wooden rollers to their destinations. Little is known about these fascinating statues, and during your full day tours, you can begin to uncover the legends that surrounds Easter Island.

CAPE TOWN

The flat-topped Table Mountain – one of the New Seven Wonders of the World, stands tall over the cosmopolitan city of Cape Town. This iconic city is known for its lively Victoria & Alfred Waterfront area, full of restaurants, attractions and shops; but away from the hustle and bustle is the Kirstenbosch National Botanical Garden, full of indigenous flora, including the South African national flower, the protea. Cape Town is also renowned for its Winelands region, producing world class wines.

GALÁPAGOS ISLANDS

EXPEDITION SALE

★ YOUR EXPEDITION WILDLIFE WATCHLIST ★

MARINE IGUANA

Found only in the Galápagos Islands, iconic marine iguanas are distinguishable by the white 'wigs' of salt expelled from glands near their noses. They look fierce but are actually gentle herbivores surviving exclusively on underwater algae and seaweed.

GALÁPAGOS SEA LION

The cute Galápagos sea lion is the most abundant marine mammal in the archipelago and is often seen lazing on the beaches or swimming close to shore. Their streamlined bodies make them very efficient swimmers and hunters, especially of sardines. If you're lucky, you may get the chance to witness young pups chasing each other along the sand.

SALLY LIGHTFOOT CRAB

The brightly coloured Sally Lightfoot crab is a common sight on the shores and beaches of most of the Galápagos Islands. They are rumoured to have been named after a Caribbean dancer due to their extreme agility when jumping from rock to rock.

- Day 3 Quito, Ecuador
Today you'll get up close and personal with one of Ecuador's natural wonders as you visit Cotopaxi National Park, home to herds of llamas and several species of hummingbird (B,L,D)
- Day 4 Quito, Ecuador – Baltra Island, Galápagos Islands
After breakfast, transfer to Quito Airport for your flight to Baltra. A transfer will take you to the port where you will embark the MS Santa Cruz II for your expedition voyage. Today you will visit Mosquera Islet which is home to one of the largest colonies of sea lions in the Galápagos, as well as Blue-footed Boobies and Sally Lightfoot crabs (B)
- Day 5 Puerto Baquerizo Moreno, San Cristobal Island
Today, visit the Cerro Colorado Tortoise Reserve, a breeding centre for the highly endangered giant tortoise. In the afternoon, join a small expedition boat journey to Punta Pitt at the eastern tip of the island – the only site in the Galápagos where you might see three species of boobies (B,L,D)
- Day 6 Santa Fe Island – South Plaza Island, Galápagos Islands
Today, enjoy a scenic nature walk on Santa Fe Island which is home to a colony of sea lions, as well as the endemic Barrington land iguana. Visit the breeding enclosures where you can see baby tortoises in incubators, and look upon Darwin's famous finches with your own eyes – these are the birds he used as a basis for his theory of evolution. When lunch is over, instead of spotting tortoises you could choose from several different activities, that could include mountain biking or kayaking in Tortuga Bay (B,L,D)

- Day 8 Española Island, Galápagos Islands
Said to be one of the oldest islands at four million years, Española is also the most southerly in the archipelago. Be on the lookout for Nazca Boobies, Blue-footed Boobies, Swallow-tailed Gulls, the Española lava lizard. In the afternoon, the postcard-pretty coral beach of Gardner Bay and the nearby Osborn Islet provide beautiful settings for observing sea lions, Mockingbirds, and finches as you take your time to simply relax or go for a dip in the water for some excellent snorkelling (B,L,D)
- Day 9 Eden Islet, Santa Cruz Island – North Seymour, Galápagos Islands
Eden Islet is a sliver of volcanic cone poking up through the sea. There's an abundance of wildlife here, and in the clear, shallow waters you can hope to spot Galápagos green turtles, rays and some friendly reef sharks. After lunch, head over to the island of North Seymour. This small and mostly flat piece of land was created when a volcanic eruption lifted up the seabed, which is why it looks so smooth and eroded (B,L,D)
- Day 10 Baltra Island, Galápagos Islands – Guayaquil, Ecuador
After breakfast, disembark and transfer to the airport for your flight to Guayaquil, then onwards for your overnight flight to London[†]

GOING GLOBAL

Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 14 years.

In the last issue of Blue Horizons I put in a good word for the much-maligned months of January and February, pointing out they are not all bad as they are when the Wave selling bonanza rolls in and cruise lines offer discounts, added value and bargains galore.

But there is another reason why hundreds of cruisers can't wait for January. I'm talking about all those folk guests booked on Cunard's world cruises, which always set sail a few days after the last of the Christmas decorations have been taken down.

Just imagine. Instead of looking at endless grey skies and rising energy bills, Cunard's world cruisers this year are living it up on the high seas, stacking up a lifetime of memories on calls into exotic lands and A-list cities. There's a smiley crew on hand to do the cooking, cleaning and washing up, and by the time they return to the UK in late April or early May, clocks will have changed and spring definitely sprung.

No wonder a Cunard cruise around the world is top of so many bucket lists – and not just with past passengers. I'm told an incredible 40% of guests on the line's world cruises have never even set foot on a ship before, such is the kudos of doing the trip with Cunard.

Part of the attraction is that it's so easy. Itineraries start and end in the UK, it means no airports, no luggage restrictions, no hassle. People also love the camaraderie. On a sector some years ago I came across a group of people who got to know each other on a world cruise and then met up every year on another globe-trotting adventure. It's a once-in-a-lifetime holiday that people do again and again.

And of course there's all the history, heritage and general sense of occasion that comes with the Cunard name.

One hundred years ago its ship Laconia was the first vessel ever to offer a world cruise. It started in New York in November 1922, and took passengers around the Caribbean, Pacific and Asia before returning to the US 130 days later. The idea caught on fast. A couple of months later, in January 1923, Cunard's Samaria also set off on a round-the-world jaunt from New York; the pair passed each other in the Indian Ocean.

To mark the centenary, this year's world cruises – the ones that set off in January – are extra special, with Queen Mary 2 following in the footsteps of Samaria while Queen Victoria is visiting ports on Laconia's route.

It's too late to make history on one of those sailings but rest assured, the 2024 cruises are just as exceptional. Queen Mary 2 will be setting off on a 108 night world voyage on January 11 2024, sailing from Southampton to South Africa, and across the Indian Ocean to Australia, where she'll have overnight stays in Sydney and Melbourne. From there, she'll begin a journey home through Asia, India and the Middle East before transiting the Suez Canal and returning to the UK after calls in Piraeus, Barcelona and Cádiz.

Queen Victoria's world adventure also starts on January 11 2024 but follows a classic westward route, sailing from Southampton to the Caribbean, transiting the Panama Canal and journeying across the Pacific to New Zealand and Australia. She then continues her 107 night journey west, sailing through Indonesia and the Philippines and on to South Africa, where there's an overnight stay in Cape Town, before she heads back to the UK.

Rest assured both itineraries include plenty of days at sea to relax and enjoy Cunard's famed hospitality as the ships cross continents. There are gala dinners, formal nights, classic entertainment, ballroom dancing to live bands and afternoon tea served by white-gloved waiters. On Queen Mary 2 take a seat in the planetarium to learn about the stars and crashing meteors.

On second thoughts, that might not be what you want to think about while in the middle of the ocean. Stick to the sweet treats served at afternoon tea. After all, as the waiters tell you, they are calorie free!

THE ICONIC IGUAZÚ FALLS

Eleanor Roosevelt was reported to have exclaimed “Poor Niagara”, referring to Niagara Falls in the state of New York, when she first came across Iguazú Falls. One quarter of a million gallons of water cascades down these cliffs – some of which are taller than the Statue of Liberty – every second. This is where you will find the greatest annual flow of any waterfall in the world. You will run out of superlatives to describe just how staggering this UNESCO World Heritage Site really is, and nothing will be able to truly describe the sound and feel of the water crashing into the plunge pools below.

THE INCREDIBLE RIO CARNIVAL

Arrive in Rio de Janeiro for a perfectly timed visit coinciding with the frenetic, feather-festooned Carnival and settle in for two energetic nights celebrating a tradition that goes back to the 1700s. Experience the world's biggest carnival in full flow, ensuring you'll return home with memories to cherish for years to come.

INTRODUCING SILVER RAY

Silversea's second Nova Class ship arrives in summer 2024 and preserves all of Silversea's trademarks while delivering a new way of ultra-luxury cruising. Her revolutionary horizontal design ensures outstanding public areas, and she will feature a brand-new selection of superb spacious suites, many of which offer a 270° view from sea to sky. Enjoy eight restaurants, an unprecedented choice of bars and an exceptionally high space-to-guest ratio, but also purity in movement, as her name suggests.
