CRUISE NEWS

SEVEN SEAS SPLENDOR TAKES TO THE SEAS

After a two year wait, Regent Seven Seas Cruises' eagerly anticipated Seven Seas Splendor, has embarked on her 14 night maiden voyage. She left Barcelona on the 6th February 2020 and arrived in Miami on the 21st February 2020, where she will be christened by her Godmother, supermodel and actress, Christie Brinkley.

Wherever you are on board you will be surrounded by elegance and comfort, including a range lavishly designed public areas (five tantalising restaurants and three elegant bars and lounges) not to mention the $5 million curated art collection, more than 500 crystal chandeliers and over an acre of Italian marble. Her maiden 2020 season will see Seven Seas Splendor set sail around the Caribbean and Mediterranean, and will be helmed by Captain Serena Melani, the first female captain to take charge of a brand new ship.

CRUISE & MARITIME VOYAGES REVEAL NEW SHIP NAMES

In November, Cruise & Maritime Voyages announced that they will take delivery of two ships from P&O Australia in Singapore next year. As a tribute and celebration of the intrepid and courageous exploits and journeys of past female explorers and adventurers, CMV decided to recognise their truly remarkable achievements by naming their two new ships after them: Amy Johnson and Ida Pfeiffer.

Christian Verhounig, Cruise & Maritime Voyages CEO, said, "We are delighted with the chosen names and the opportunity to recognise two outstanding female adventurers and pioneers. Most of all, we are pleased to confirm that Amy Johnson will take over from Columbus as the fleet's new flagship."

INTRODUCING CRUISE & MARITIME VOYAGES' NEW FLAGSHIP – AMY JOHNSON

Amy Johnson will become the proud new flagship of the Cruise & Maritime Voyages fleet in April 2021. Given her size she will provide a very generous, spacious and relaxing feel. As a celebration of the courageous exploits of past female explorers and adventurers, Cruise & Maritime Voyages have recognised their remarkable achievements by naming their new ship after Amy Johnson, the pioneering English pilot who was the first woman to fly solo from London to Australia.

Combining beautiful, contemporary decor with a more traditional cruise style, Amy Johnson is a mid-size cruise ship by and will be a wonderful new addition to the CMV fleet. Amy Johnson offers no less than 11 different lounges and bars including Raffles Bar, The Orient, Dome Observatory, Ocean Bar and Taverner's Pub, so there's a wide choice of contrasting venues to choose from. Restaurants on board offer fantastic dining opportunities including the attractive Waterfront Restaurant which serves breakfast, lunch and dinner or for something more casual, there's the buffet-style Pantry. At lunchtimes, when the weather is fine, the Alfresco Grill adds more choice. Specialty dining options The Fusion, Grill and Chef's Table present truly intimate and delightful settings and outstanding menus.

AN EXCLUSIVE Q&A WITH VISIONARY DESIGNER KELLY HOPPEN

Acclaimed designer, author and proprietor of Kelly Hoppen Interiors, Kelly Hoppen joined the Revolution by collaborating with Celebrity Cruises® on a fresh, innovative and exciting design for the entire Celebrity fleet.

Here, we speak to Kelly about her exciting partnership with Celebrity, her passion for design and what you can look forward to as you too join the Celebrity Revolution...

► 1. Hi Kelly! Are you able to tell us a bit about your unique partnership with Celebrity Cruises?

Celebrity Cruises approached me a few years ago asking me to design the interiors of their newest ship at the time, Edge. They wanted the designs to make a bold, modern statement and make a splash in the industry. I couldn't resist the opportunity and threw myself wholeheartedly into the project.

► 2. Your revolutionary design work on Celebrity Edge has brought innovation and intrigue to the cruise industry. Where does one begin when conceptualising cruise ship design?

I had a number of meetings with Celebrity Cruises so I could really understand their values and vision, and together we worked to create groundbreaking designs that would make sea travel a luxury experience.

One of the biggest considerations when designing a cruise ship is space and storage. These ships have a huge number of rooms on board and each one is meticulously designed with a space and spot for everything. With the skeleton already in place, my role was to layer the room with luxurious touches and finishes so guests experience the perfect mix of form and function.

► 3. What were the main challenges you faced transitioning from interior design to cruise ship design?

Given the unpredictable nature of the sea, my designs had to withstand every up and down a ship might face. I worked closely with Celebrity's technical team to ensure the designs were safe and functional, as well as beautiful and luxurious.

The project forced me to ask questions I hadn't needed to before – if we face rough seas will this piece of furniture move? Will that chandelier sway too much? It was thrilling to work with such unique challenges and push myself to find solutions.

► 4. Celebrity Edge looks absolutely stunning. Are you able to tell us a bit about where your design inspiration came from?

My designs, whether at sea or on land, always stay true to my signature East meets West style which balances clean lines and neutral tones with warmth and sumptuous opulence. I wanted the suites to have a timeless feel and exude elegance and a sense of serenity and calm, so that guests could really relax while on board.

I also added an extra special touch to some of the suites with unique pieces of art and furniture, including a trunk found on my own travels, to give guests a special and memorable time on board.

► 5. Some of Celebrity Edge's more radical design elements, such as the Magic Carpet, have not been seen at sea before. What are your thoughts on these unique innovations?

The Magic Carpet was the world's first cantilevered deck and has to be seen to be believed, it's truly incredible. I was so impressed by Celebrity's willingness and eagerness to push design boundaries on Edge through features like this – it's no easy feat.

I designed the interiors for the Magic Carpet and whilst the bright orange isn't one typically in my repertoire, I used greys and blacks alongside textures and different materials to create a really inviting space to encourage guests to enjoy and experience these design-led spaces.

► 6. Celebrity Cruises are working towards their Celebrity Revolution. How does it feel to see your designs rolled out across the fleet?

It feels amazing; I had never cruised before partnering with Celebrity Cruises so seeing my stamp on a whole fleet of ships is remarkable. We are launching the next cruise ship, Celebrity Apex next spring which I'm really excited about.

► 7. What do you think will be Celebrity Cruises guests favourite on board innovations?

The Spa on board is a very special space - a sanctuary and safe cocoon. The space was designed to create an environment that was both in harmony with nature and undeniably luxurious. You'll walk out a different person!

► 8. Do you have any top tips for Celebrity Cruises guests to make the most out of the uniquely designed spaces on board?

The best thing you can do is to explore all that's on offer – you could walk around all day long and still not see everything on board. However you will be on holiday after all so don't forget to factor in time for rest and relaxation, whether that's in your room or in one of the lounges.

DID YOU KNOW?

Saga have been creating cruises exclusively for over 50s (a travelling companion can be over 40) for more than 60 years, with incredible destinations, memorable experiences and fantastic value at the heart of what they do.

YOUR SAGA EXPERIENCE

A BALCONY FOR EVERY GUEST

It's one of the most distinctive feature: every cabin has a balcony, giving you your own outside space. So whether you're cruising into New York, or around Morocco's top destinations, you have your own place to relax, enjoy the views and fresh air, and watch the sun set as you head to another incredible destination.

FINE DINING IS ONE OF THE REAL PLEASURES OF CRUISING WITH SAGA

You can eat wherever and whenever you like, in a choice of venues to suit your every mood, at no extra cost. Such as The Club by Jools (on board Spirit of Discovery only), a steakhouse with a quality menu to rival some of the world's finest supper clubs, and a sociable atmosphere and line-up of evening entertainment to match.

SUITE DREAMS

For even more luxury, why not upgrade to a sumptuous Suite? They're the most exclusive accommodation that Spirit of Discovery and Spirit of Adventure have to offer, packed with extra features and butler service designed to make your cruise even more special. Offering far more space up to a staggering 730 square feet per cabin, they feature elegant living and dining areas and much more.

SUMPTUOUS SINGLE CABINS

Solo cruisers are also spoilt for choice, with a range of over 100 single balcony cabins. This is a first for the cruising industry: no other ship has dedicated such space to single cruise-goers. In keeping with the ship's theme of choice, single cabins are available in a wide selection of grades, giving solo travellers just as much choice.

THE NORTHERN LIGHTS – ENGAGE IN A TRUE ADVENTURE

PRIME TIME

The Lights can start to make an appearance as early as September and as late as May, but it is the winter months between October and March when they are most visible, laying claim to the night sky.

Travelling at sea under the Auroral Zone means that displays can appear right above the ship. Outdoor observation decks provide a clear line of sight to the sky, and the close-up view avoids the artificial ambient light common on land.

YOUR EXPEDITION HIGHLIGHTS

REYKJAVIK, ICELAND

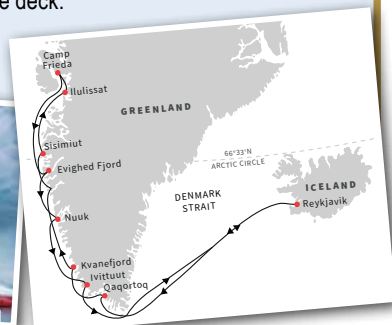

A two night 4★ hotel stay[‡] in Reykjavík gives you plenty of time to explore this incredible destination. The beauty of Iceland's capital city is astounding. Surrounded by waterfalls, volcanoes and glaciers, you'll experience nature in all its glory coupled with the history and culture of the city itself. Only a short distance from the city are some of Iceland's most beautiful locations, including the nation's 'holy place', Þingvellir, where the world's oldest parliament was established in 930 AD. Further east is the renowned waterfall Gullfoss, 'Golden Falls', and the Geysir hot spring area.

SISIMIUT, GREENLAND

Sisimiut, a picturesque site with a remarkable history, has been inhabited for more than 4,500 years and is now home to around 5,500 native Greenlanders, making it the second largest town in the country. Hiking is one of the most popular activities in Sisimiut, especially during the summer, when trails take visitors into historic Inuit territory, where people have lived and hiked for thousands of years. But that's not the only reason to take a hike in this Greenland town, the site is also known for its stunning views of the ocean and the Nasaasaaq mountain to the south.

CRUISING PRINCE CHRISTIAN SUND

Prince Christian Sund, located nearly at the tip of the huge island, separates mainland Greenland with Sangmissoq and other islands of the Cape Farewell Archipelago. The sound itself is around 100km long and very narrow, sometimes only 500m wide. This long fjord system is surrounded by steep mountains, some more than 1,200m high. Enjoy the sight of glaciers calving icebergs straight into the ocean from the deck.

[×]Expedition activities are optional and pre-bookable excursions are at a supplement and must be booked at least 28 days prior to departure. Excursions are subject to change. Please note this ship's Captain will decide the final sailing schedule. Hurtigruten and Reader Offers Limited Package Holiday booking conditions apply. Miltenberg in Bavaria

Bamberg

CRUISING THROUGH THE HISTORY BOOKS

Confluence of the Rhine and Moselle at Koblenz

I'm getting a lesson in architectural styles in Bamberg's Cathedral Square. It's the perfect classroom because up ahead of me is the cathedral itself, which took so long to build that it was started in the Romanesque period and finished with Gothic touches. To the right there's the Renaissance-style Old Court, while behind is the Baroque Prince Bishops' residence. That's 750 years of architecture in chronological order just by turning 180 degrees.

Bamberg is one of umpteen towns in Germany that few have ever heard of but which is just gorgeous. There are pretty half-timbered houses, a maze of streets to explore and what surely has to be the biggest number of breweries in any one place. Sixty, according to my guide, Vera.

We'd arrived there that morning on day two of a river cruise from Nuremberg to Bernkastel-Kues with Emerald Waterways that was taking in four waterways – in order, the Main-Danube Canal and Main, Rhine and Moselle Rivers – and promised everything from architectural learnings to local wine tastings.

It's my fourth time on an Emerald Waterways' river cruise, which I guess makes me something of an Emerald groupie. With good reason. Their itineraries are great and their river ships beautifully designed, with modern décor, spacious cabins and a fabulous indoor pool area with glass on three sides and a roof that opens to let the sunshine in.

Marienberg Fortress

If I'm not ashore or eating, that's where you'll find me.

So, imagine how excited I was to see the company is building its first ocean-going yacht: Emerald Azzurra launches in summer 2021, holds just 100 passengers, has lots of cabins with balconies and is cruising the yachting hotspots of the Eastern and Western Med.

Fancy the Croatian coast? The Greek Isles? The French and Italian Rivas? They are all among the itineraries now on sale. You'll find more details elsewhere in this month's issue of Blue Horizons but be warned, trying to pick just one is going to be tough.

Back in Bamberg, we all indulged in a glass of the town's smoked beer, courtesy of Emerald Waterways – the company includes daily tours as well as flights, transfers, wine and beer with meals and tips in the cruise price – before transferring back to our river ship, Emerald Star, and setting sail for Würzburg.

While everyone else headed off for a tour of the grand baroque-style palace in the centre of town that the ruling Prince-Bishops built for themselves in the early 1700s, my husband and I decided to scout out the Marienberg Fortress that looms over the town and rejoin the group later for a wine-tasting.

It's a steep climb up to the fortress, which was where the Prince-Bishops lived before they decided it was not grand enough and built the 'new' palace, but well worth the effort to see the towering stone walls up close and for the views over the town. And, after all the wining and dining we'd been doing on Emerald Star, we needed the exercise.

The hike set a bit of an active-come-castle theme for the rest of the cruise. Over the next few days we climbed up to the castle in Wertheim and trekked up and up through woods above pretty little Miltenberg with our guide Eva on an EmeraldActive tour, stopping only to admire (what else?) a castle. In Koblenz, we took the cable car to the Ehrenbreitstein Fortress (it's on the other side of the river) and spent hours exploring the massive fortification.

Ehrenbreitstein is impressive but Koblenz's main claim to fame is the Deutsches Eck (German Corner), which marks the confluence of the Rhine and Moselle Rivers. You can't miss it because a massive equestrian statue of the first German Emperor, Wilhelm I, sits majestically marking the spot. It's actually a replica because the original, erected to mark his role in the unification of Germany in 1871, was destroyed during the Second World War. The new one was erected in 1993, following German reunification, which has a neat symmetry about it.

We were making a left turn here into the Moselle, river number four. It's a much prettier stream than the Rhine, narrower, forever twisting and turning, and lined with lush green vineyards that are so steep in places you wonder how anyone can tend them.

First stop was Cochem, another picture-postcard town packed with pretty half-timbered houses, narrow streets, restaurants and a castle standing guard over it all. Like most of the forts in this area, it's not the original – most were destroyed by invading French troops in the late 1600s and then rebuilt – but it's spectacular to look at and the views down over the river are superb.

And then we were off again, this time to our final stop, Bernkastel-Kues (actually two towns – Bernkastel on one side of the river, Kues on the other). Of course there is a castle but we were more interested in the health-giving properties of the grapes grown here.

Honestly. Back in the 1300s, the seriously ill Prince-Bishop Boemund II of Trier was prescribed Bernkastler wine, cured instantly and gave the vineyard that had grown the wine (all of 3.25 acres) the name 'Doctor' in thanks.

OK, so it's a legend, but the name exists to this day and its wine can sell for thousands of pounds a bottle. "I'm told the Queen drinks Doctor wines and she is 93," wine expert Gaynor told us during an included tasting, but sadly not of the Doctor wine. That was a bit too costly even for Emerald Waterways!

YOUR EXPEDITION VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

★ FALKLAND ISLANDS ★

As one of the greatest wilderness destinations in the world, the Falkland Islands are the ultimate birding experiences and are home to majestic King, feisty Rockhopper, raucous Gentoo and shy Magellanic penguins as well as over 70% of the world's Blackbrowed albatross! Charles Darwin visited the islands twice, and Stanley is proud of its British heritage, evidenced everywhere from its red telephone boxes to its pubs.

★ CAPE HORN ★

Cape Horn is widely considered the most southerly point of South America and marks the northern boundary of the Drake Passage; for centuries it has been regarded as a major milestone by which sailing ships carrying trade goods around the world marked their passage. Magellan and Drake left their mark and names here, as did Darwin, who sailed through here on the HMS Beagle.

★ CHILEAN FJORDS ★

Lined with rugged mountains and glacier-covered valleys, the Chilean Fjords are unlike any other fjord system in the world. Home to many of Chile's national parks, early Spanish explorers came here in search of the mythical City of the Caesars, believed to be rich in gold and diamonds. Riches to be found today are the Fjords' dramatic landscape and the unusual wildlife of Patagonia. Whales, dolphins and elephant seals are a common sight when traversing these stunning fjords.

6★ relates to the cruise element only. xFree shore excursions exclude Regent Choice Excursions and private arrangements. Some shore excursions will be unsuitable for guests with mobility restrictions. Shore excursions mentioned are subject to change and can be booked from 240 or 180 days prior to cruise, depending on eligibility. Booking conditions of Regent Seven Seas® (ATOL 10297) and Reader Offers Limited Agency terms of business apply. Please see back page for full terms and conditions.

ROL Cruise Commercial Product Manager, Carly Goswell, shares her experience on board the brand new Seven Seas Splendor.

Imagine the finest restaurant in town, where the service is second to none; the food is so delicately mouth-watering you want to savour every morsel; the decor is so tastefully chic, it rivals any double spread in an interior design magazine. This is the sort of place you save for special occasions, to impress your friends and family. Well, that is what you will get every night whilst on board 6★ Regent Seven Seas Cruises.

A few colleagues and I had the very enviable task of spending a few days on board Regent's brand-new ship, Seven Seas Splendor, and, when I say it exceeded all expectations, that would be an understatement.

From start to finish someone was there to help at every opportunity. From the moment we stepped off the plane, we were greeted by a Regent representative and introduced to our driver. They exuded professionalism and experience, so we knew we were in good hands and could just sit back, relax in our luxurious transfer and enjoy the beautiful rolling rural landscapes. Upon arrival at the port everything went very smoothly. We were welcomed on board like old friends and promptly offered a glass of champagne to toast our arrival.

From the moment you step on board Seven Seas Splendor you are in awe of the quality finishings, contemporary colour palette, original artwork, exquisite glassware and marble-adorned floors. What was truly amazing is that even though the ship was at full capacity, no area was ever crowded. There was never a queue, but there was always a staff member on hand to whip up a signature cocktail, bring you a pair of reading glasses or offer you a blanket.

On our second day we were able to view a selection of Splendor's luxurious suites. If you decide to embark upon a Regent Seven Seas cruise, it's worth noting that even the lead-in category is a suite, so travelling in ultra-luxury is more accessible than you might think. From the L'Occitane toiletries to the Regent branded tote bags and umbrellas, every scenario is prepared for. If you opt for a Penthouse Suite or above, this includes daily canapés, personalised butler service and, for sailings departing from Europe, free business class flights, allowing you to really start your trip in style.

When booking a Regent Seven Seas itinerary, one of the main benefits is the unlimited shore excursions. They can range from culinary experiences to catamaran voyages and wine-tasting. We were fortunate enough to experience one of these amazing excursions and were certainly not disappointed. From the port in Dubrovnik, Croatia, we were collected by 'Tuk Tuk' and taken on a panoramic tour of the city. Afterwards, we were treated to an informative walking tour of the Old Town, where we enjoyed the insights of our local guide.

Throughout the voyage we were spoiled every night with the most incredibly divine food; each course paired perfectly with a selection of wines to emphasize the delicate flavours. As standard, specialty dining is included for all guests, giving you multiple options for lunch and dinner. My favourite dish was the blackened Cod, served in Pacific Rim that literally sent your taste buds into a frenzy.

On face value Regent Seven Seas can look expensive, but when you take into consideration everything that is included, from the free tips, unlimited shore excursions, free premium drinks and speciality dining, this really is unbelievable value for money. The chance to sail on board this charming new ship really is an opportunity not to be missed.

Amber Fort

JAIPUR & THE AMBER FORT

Jaipur is known as the 'pink city' due to the pink stucco walls. Within the city the main focus is the huge palace complex, which includes the Hawa Mahal 'Palace of the Winds' façade, formal gardens, a fascinating museum of the Maharajas' lavish possessions and Sawai Jai Singh's Jantar Mantar observatory. Just outside Jaipur, on top of a hill, lies the magnificent fort palace of Amber. Explore the intricate chambers and hallways, the maze of passages and courtyards and enjoy the wonderful views of the Jal Mahal water palace below.

OLD & NEW DELHI

Today, the adjoining cities of Old and New Delhi are home to countless wonders. In the old city there is the mighty Mughal-built Red Fort, the vast Jama Masjid Mosque and, between the two, the bustling lanes of Chandni Chowk where a bewildering array of wares are traded.

In New Delhi, designated as the capital by the British in 1911, there are the grand Lutyens-designed government buildings, the majestic India Gate war memorial, the thriving hub of Connaught Circus, and broad leafy streets radiating outwards giving much of the city a park-like feel.

Delhi

Taj Mahal

AGRA, HOME OF THE TAJ MAHAL

Agra will forever be known as the home of the Taj Mahal, widely recognised as the world's most beautiful monument. The close up detail of the Taj Mahal is as exquisite as the overall architectural design, with semi-precious stones and beautiful patterns covering the marble surface.

SHIMLA – ★YOUR HIMALAYAN EXPERIENCE★

During your two night stay here, you will enjoy a journey on the 'toy train', Himalayan Queen to experience the beautiful Himalayan scenery for which the Shimla area is famous for. Discover the treasures within Shimla on a full day tour including Jakhu temple, the Viceregal Lodge, the Himachal State Museum, which is housed in a Victorian mansion and the restored gothic Gaiety Theatre, which was once visited by Rudyard Kipling.

INTRODUCING THE BRAND NEW SYLVIA EARLE'S MAIDEN VOYAGE

Aurora Expeditions' new ship honours the highly accomplished marine biologist, oceanographer and explorer, Sylvia Earle. As the first female chief scientist of the U.S. National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, and named by Time Magazine as its first Hero for the Planet in 1998 – this vessel pays tribute to Sylvia's long standing conservation efforts for marine protected areas and ocean wildlife. Sylvia Earle will be actively involved in the development of her namesake.

Sylvia Earle is at the cutting edge of nautical technology: robust, powerful and up to the task of handling the challenging conditions of nature.

The streamlined Ulstein X-BOW® cuts through the swell so you feel fewer vibrations and disturbances, and makes quicker transits through waves. It also helps reduce fuel consumption by up to 60%. Experience the Glass Atrium Lounge inside the bow, featuring huge windows and superb views to the front of the ship.

The Sylvia Earle will also boast one of the lowest polluting marine engines in the world due to low energy consumption, high fuel-efficiency and a streamlined design to deliver an 80% reduction in emissions.

EXPERTISE & EXPERIENCE

From expedition leaders to experienced activity guides, historians to geologists, and naturalists to leading photographers, some of Aurora's expedition team have led voyages to the Arctic and Antarctica with Aurora Expeditions for over 28 years. The expedition team is there to keep you safe, share their passion for the magnificent places you'll visit and to ensure you have the best experience possible.

Moroccan Lamb Tagine

This authentic lamb tagine recipe will take you to slow-cooked perfection in six simple steps – just kick back and let it do its thing.

Ingredients:

- 1 tsp cayenne pepper
- 2 tsp ground black pepper
- 1½ tbsp paprika
- 1½ tbsp ground ginger
- 1 tsp turmeric
- 2 tsp ground cinnamon
- 1.1kg/2½lb cubed lamb shoulder (5cm/2in chunks)
- 2 large onions, grated
- 2 tbsp olive oil
- 2 tbsp argan oil
- 3 cloves garlic, crushed
- 570ml/1 pint tomato juice
- 2 x 400g tinned chopped tomatoes
- 115g/4oz dried apricots, cut in half
- 55g/2oz dates, cut in half
- 55g/2oz sultanas or raisins
- 85g/3oz flaked almonds
- 1 tsp saffron stamens, soaked in cold water
- 600ml/1 pint lamb stock
- 1 tbsp clear honey
- 2 tbsp coriander, roughly chopped
- 2 tbsp flat leaf parsley, roughly chopped

Method:

1. Place the cayenne, black pepper, paprika, ginger, turmeric and cinnamon into a small bowl and mix to combine. Place the lamb in a large bowl and toss together with half of the spice mix. Cover and leave overnight in the fridge.
2. Preheat the oven to 150°C/300°F/Gas mark 2.
3. Heat 1 tbsp olive oil and 1 tbsp of argan (or vegetable) oil in a large casserole dish. Add the grated onion and the remaining spice mix and cook over a gentle heat for 10 minutes so that the onions are soft but not coloured. Add the crushed garlic for the final 3 minutes.
4. In a separate frying pan, heat the remaining oil and brown the cubes of lamb on all sides then add the browned meat to the casserole dish. De-glaze the frying pan with ¼ pint of tomato juice and add these juices to the pan.
5. Add the remaining tomato juice, chopped tomatoes, apricots, dates, raisins or sultanas, flaked almonds, saffron, lamb stock and honey to the casserole dish. Bring to the boil, cover with a fitted lid, place in the oven and cook for 2-2½ hours or until the meat is meltingly tender.
6. Place the lamb in a tagine or large serving dish and sprinkle over the chopped herbs to serve.
