YOUR P&O CRUISES EXPERIENCE

EXPLORE IN COMFORT

Accommodation is a crucial part of every holiday. From a simple space to lay your head, to something a little more luxurious. Along with a comfy bed, ample wardrobe space, and an en-suite bathroom, all cabins come with a little magic in the form of your own cabin steward (and butler in Suites), to keep everything ship shape.

And, of course you'll find your own kettle and a stock of tea, coffee and biscuits (replenished daily) because there are some things you just can't go without.

INDULGENT ENTERTAINMENT

On a P&O Cruises holiday, you can find your perfect evening every night. It could be a cosy drink in a mellow bar, or perhaps dancing to a live band or DJ. You could catch a vibrant show in the theatre, or maybe a candle-lit spa treatment** is your perfect wind-down after a day of exploring. ## ROL Cruise Digital Marketing Executive Jack Rosier offers an insight into journeying along the Mekong River on board Scenic Spirit

Day 1

We first arrived in Phnom Penh and were met by our friendly and informative tour guide, Dara, who picked us up from the airport and transferred us to the opulent Hyatt Regency, located in the heart of Phnom Penh. A highlight for me was the rooftop bar, a must see with views spanning across the whole city and a beautiful view of the Mekong which slices through the busy capital.

Day 2

After breakfast, we boarded Scenic Spirit. My personal butler took me to my Grand Deluxe Suite, which would be my home for the next five nights. The Grand Deluxe Suite features stylish lounge areas, queen-size or twin Scenic Slumber beds, a walk-in wardrobe, a HDTV and spacious bathrooms. In a Grand Deluxe Suite, I had access to the Diamond Deck which meant I could get two pieces of clothing pressed per day, breakfast served in bed, fresh fruit and afternoon canapés delivered, then petit fours for after dinner. I was also invited to join the chef's table for a 10-course meal which was simply delicious.

This evening, we enjoyed a cultural performance by the Cambodian Student and Children's Organisation, featuring the traditional Cambodian folk dance. After, there was Cambodian style tapas and live music on the pool deck which ended our first night on board memorably.

Day 3

Although it was difficult leaving the comfort of my suite this morning, today was a day that could not be missed. After breakfast, we were given the option of our first Scenic Freechoice. We were transferred to the Tuol Sleng Prison, a harrowing area that was a bitter reminder of the atrocities unleashed by the Khmer Rouge Regime. We also had the opportunity to meet with a survivor of the prison, which was incredibly emotional. Then, we were transferred to one of the Killing Fields in Cambodia. Although this was very difficult to witness, it was something I will never regret doing as the awareness these monuments create is a lesson that must be taught.

Day 4

After breakfast, we boarded a coach to Oudong, the former capital of Cambodia. The glorious architecture stunned us at every opportunity. Be sure to look up when entering the main temple, as the incredible detail of the murals painted on the ceiling shouldn't be missed. Over 400 monks and nuns live at the monastery, and we were lucky enough to be able to speak to some of them.

Back on board Scenic Spirit, there was a traditional Cambodian Street Food Lunch, which included tarantulas, crickets and cockroaches (don't worry, there were other options available too!). After taking a refreshing dip in the pool, it was time for our next excursion to the Sosoro Museum, learning about the money and economy of Phnom Penh and then a visit to the grand Phnom Penh Royal Palace.

Day 5

As the blinds came up on our balcony this morning, we were greeted by a very different view to Phnom Penh. We had docked at Silk Island, a peaceful island covered in greenery. We ventured by Cambodian limousine, also known as Tuk Tuk, to the Silk farm where we learnt about silk production.

This afternoon was free for us to enjoy the amenities of the ship as we set sail to Angkor Ban, which was the perfect opportunity to visit the Wellness Centre, which has from massages to facials on offer within a space designed to feel tranquil.

This evening we headed out to discover Angkor Ban's rural village and school, where the children are taught English. Their English was far better than my Cambodian, and the level of understanding they had of English at such a young age was impressive.

Day 6

Today at Wat Hanchey we met the novice monks with a beautiful backdrop below, and then received a blessing from a monk in a Buddhist pagoda.

This afternoon back on board, our lunch today was one of the best of the trip. They called it the 'Scenic Route' buffet which was a culinary experience around the world from Italy to Mexico. All the food was incredible and really felt authentic.

We had the option of three Scenic Freechoices this afternoon; I chose to visit Koh Pen Village, where we got to experience the agristic lifestyle of the local farmers. Scenic arranged for us to visit a local farmer's home, where we were allowed to explore the house on stilts.

Sadly, tonight was our last night on board, where we experienced a farewell gala dinner which was a six-course event.

Day 7

Today we said goodbye to the stunning Scenic Spirit and all the wonderful crew that we had become so acquainted to over the five days on board. I'll never forget being welcomed home every time I returned from an excursion, or how they remembered my name and favourite drink. Their positive attitudes and friendly nature never failed to amaze me.

The next part of our adventure took us on a journey to Siem Reap. We stopped along the way at a village full of local stone cutters where we had the opportunity to purchase many different trinkets.

This afternoon we arrived at Raffles Grand Hotel d'Angkor which would be our home for the next three nights. This evening was at leisure, but Siem Reap is worth exploring. I headed out to dazzling Pub Street.

Day 8

We headed to Angkor Wat, the largest religious monument in the world. Our local guide, provided by Scenic, made the history of this breath-taking monument easy to follow. It has five lotus-shaped towers which are truly awe-inspiring and the reflection within the water below makes for a great picture. We spent lots of time exploring the temple complex and left no stone unturned.

Day 9

As our final day approached, we started early and travelled back to Angkor Wat to see the sunrise. It was a truly tremendous experience that I was able to tick off my bucket list.

Shortly after, we had a Champagne breakfast supported by the local bakery school, which was sponsored by Scenic, just another thing that Scenic contributes towards locals. After breakfast, we visited Ta Prohm Temple, which is best known for being featured in the 2001 blockbuster, Tomb Raider.

Tonight, we had our Gala Temple Dinner. Although we were all incredibly sad to be leaving tomorrow, we were all in agreement that this was the absolute best way to end the trip. It was a delicious dinner with truly remarkable entertainment and an experience I will hold close to me for the rest of my life.

This trip exceeded my expectations and provided me with a whole new outlook on life. Scenic Spirit truly is the heart of the Mekong.

YOUR SIGNATURE EXPERIENCE HIGHLIGHTS:

ICONIC IGUAZÚ FALLS

The Iguazú Falls were formed some 120 million years ago and can be found in the Iguazú National Park, which straddles the border with Brazil. One quarter of a million gallons of water cascades down the cliffs - some of which are taller than the Statue of Liberty - every second. This is where you will find the greatest annual flow of any waterfall in the world. You will run out of superlatives to describe just how staggering this place is and nothing will be able to describe the sound and feel of the water crashing into the plunge pools below.

AUTHENTIC ARGENTINE TANGO

This famous ballroom favourite evolved in the lower-class districts of Buenos Aires in the 1880s. Book a Balcony stateroom or above and you can experience the raw passion of this sensual dance during a FREE Dinner & Tango show*.
