ROL Cruise to take part in Macmillan's Biggest Ever Coffee Morning

The World's Biggest Coffee Morning on Friday 28th September is Macmillan's biggest fundraising event for people facing cancer.

There are over 200 types of cancer, each with their own name and, as many of you will know, Macmillan is one of the amazing cancer support charities that help families during their time of need.

This year, ROL Cruise are delighted to be taking part in Macmillan's 'Biggest Ever Coffee Morning'. The day will see events such as a bake sale, sponsored leg waxing, balloons in a car, bid for an ROL Cruise Director, raffle tickets and a Memory Tree for ROL Cruise staff to remember a loved one.

Macmillan is one of the many charities that help and support during very difficult times in people's lives and is invaluable. With the day's events, we hope to raise as much money as possible so that we can make a difference for others in their time of need.

CRUISE NEWS

Introducing *Celebrity Apex*TM... Coming in 2020

Earlier this month, Celebrity Cruises® were delighted to announce that their brand new ship, *Celebrity Apex*TM will be christened in Southampton and sail a mini-season in the UK in 2020!

This brand new ship is the second Edge-class ship for Celebrity Cruises® and will continue reimagining and elevating modern luxury cruising in ways never seen before. Boasting some of the most luxurious accommodations, the Edge-class of ships – including *Celebrity Apex*TM – have been built to offer the ultimate cruise experience – featuring more suites than any other Celebrity Cruises® ship including the twin-level Edge Villas with outdoor plunge pools. The Edge-class culinary offering will be like nothing ever experienced at sea, delivering the unprecedented 'Dinner on the Edge', as well as 29 world-class, dining venues.

Keep your eyes open as you can begin booking on board this exceptional new ship from November 2018!

Welcome to the Holiday Inn Winchester

Known for its medieval Cathedral and castles, Jane Austen's house and rich historical past, Winchester is, according to a recent survey, the best place to live in the UK.

A favourite for cruise guests too, due to its proximity to Southampton, Winchester acts as an ideal pre- or post-cruise stop. ROL Cruise are delighted to work with the Holiday Inn Winchester to provide our guests with award-winning accommodation pre- or post-cruise to make their holiday as special as it can be.

The Holiday Inn Winchester is situated just five minutes from the M3, five minutes from the A34 and 30 minutes from the Southampton Cruise Terminals. It also offers parking for up to 28 days, transfers to and from Southampton and, of course, a great night's sleep followed by a fantastic full English breakfast in the morning. After breakfast, guests can either retire to their bedroom until checkout at 11am or relax in the lounge while awaiting their transfer. This will then arrive in plenty of time to deliver them and their luggage safely to the cruise ship – no stress and no hassle!

— REJOICE IN — RIVER CRUISING

Sun Deck, Scenic

Salon du Grand Trianon, S. S. Antoinette

Emerald Sky, Avignon

River Countess Suite

Intriguing destinations, unspoilt pastoral landscapes, an intimate on board experience; river cruising has a great deal to offer. Unlike ocean cruising, the ships are all small and benefit from high staff-to-guest ratios. They can traverse continents via an astonishing number of waterways and dock right in the heart of their destinations. You'll spend every single day visiting a new port of call or enjoying scenic cruising with so much to witness along the banks of the Rhine, the delightful Danube, the intriguing Irrawaddy or the mighty Mekong. With river cruising the choice is yours!

ROL Cruises' Georgia Jaggs shares her river cruise experience

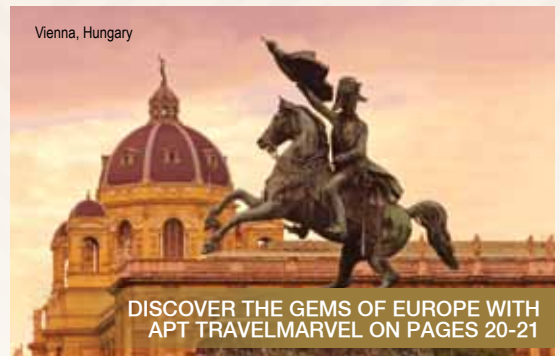

“ After going on several cruises, ocean and river, river wins my vote. The entire journey from embarkation to disembarkation was a breeze. Each morning you wake in the heart of each port of call and sometimes the biggest attractions are just a five minute walk away. The cruise line also brought the destination alive on board, with local entertainment, cuisine and wine inspired by the region we were visiting. My experience was flawless and something I will definitely do again soon. ”

Tales from the river bank

One of the things I love about river cruising is the way you come across places you have never heard of but, which all have a fascinating tale to tell. It might be a little village on the Seine where Richard the Lionheart built a fine castle or sleepy Dürnstein on the Danube where the Russians and French did battle during the Napoleonic wars.

Take a tour to Auvers-sur-Oise on a Seine river cruise in France and you come across the inn where Vincent Van Gogh lived and died. Cruise the Rhine and you discover a grand monument towering above little Rudesheim that commemorates the unification of Germany in 1871.

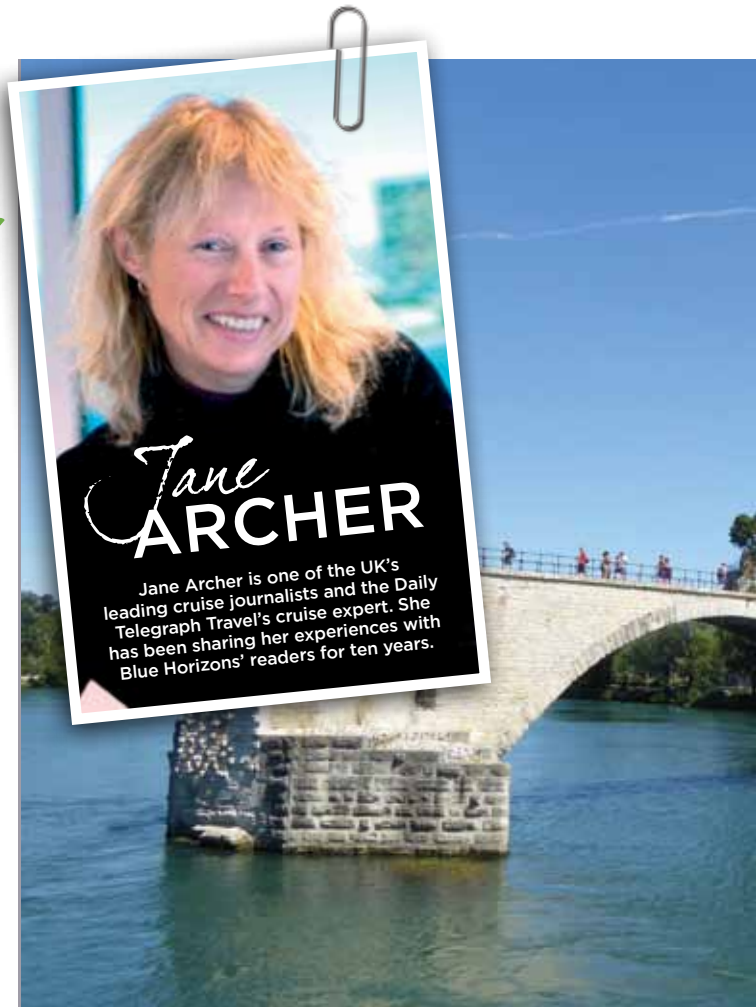

Amazing experiences come thick and fast on any and every river cruise. I've been blessed by monks in Cambodia while cruising the Mekong, watched the sun set over the U-Bein Bridge near Amapura on a voyage of the Irrawaddy in Myanmar and seen chanting Hare Krishna disciples while sailing the Ganges in India. You can do all that on river cruises with APT Travelmarvel, and naturally book them through the team at ROL Cruise.

Wine-lovers can indulge in tours and tastings in the world-famous vineyards of Provence and Burgundy on cruises along the Rhône in France. Stay on that river to discover why the popes settled in France in the 1300s and visit the magnificent Roman Pont du Gard aqueduct. I went there on an Emerald Waterways' Sensations of Southern France cruise and it was breathtaking. You can find out more about the itinerary from ROL Cruise.

Head to Austria and you find that much like the hills in the famous film, the Danube is alive with the sound of music. River cruise lines offer exclusive Mozart and Strauss concerts in Vienna (they are sometimes included, sometimes an optional extra), and you can visit Mozart's home, now a museum, on excursions to Salzburg, where the Sound of Music was filmed.

And then there is the Douro, with gorgeous Porto at one end and beautiful Salamanca at the other. Book one of Uniworld's Douro sailings with ROL Cruise and you can add a few nights in Madrid at the start or end of the trip. They even throw in a tour of the Prado museum, dinner with foot-stomping flamenco and a trip to Toledo.

If all that is not enough to persuade you to take to the rivers, check out my top 10 reasons for setting sail on one of the world's great waterways.

Pont d'Avignon, France

Dürnstein, Austria

Pont du Gard, France

Madrid, Spain

10 reasons to take a river cruise

1 So much is included

Fares include all food, daily excursions, drinks with lunch and dinner, gratuities and Wi-Fi. APT, Scenic and Uniworld River Cruises even serve free drinks round the clock.

2 Small and friendly

River ships in Europe hold an average 150 passengers; in Asia, the vessels are even smaller. What with open seating in the restaurant, allowing you to meet different people over dinner each night, it's about as friendly as it gets.

3 It's so easy

Just get on board, unpack and relax as your floating hotel takes you through the heart of Europe or Asia, stopping every day so you can go ashore and explore grand cities and medieval towns, see world-class museums and art galleries, and sample fabulous local food and wine.

4 Get into shape

Worried that it all sounds a bit too sedate? River cruise lines also offer bike tours, hiking trips and even kayaking in a range of different ports.

5 Watch the world go by

Castle-spotting in Germany's Rhine Gorge and the gorgeous scenery along the Wachau Valley in Austria are always highlights but there's plenty more to see as you sail from one port of call to another.

6 A room with a view

All cabins on river ships face outside. Most new vessels have large panoramic windows that open to allow the sunshine in but for a treat you can't beat a balcony. The team at ROL Cruise will help you choose the accommodation that suits your needs and budget.

7 No need to fly

Take a Eurostar train from London through the Channel Tunnel and in no time at all you can connect to a local high-speed rail network to join your river cruise. Departures from Amsterdam, Paris or Lyon are ideal as you can be there in a few hours but if time is no object, you can take the train all the way to Budapest or Vienna.

8 The world is your oyster

There are some great river cruises in Europe but why not try further afield? There are exotic journeys on the Mekong in Cambodia and Vietnam, the Yangtze in China, the Ganges in India and the Irrawaddy in Myanmar.

9 It's smooth sailing

Worried about the motion of the ocean? You don't have to be on a river cruise as there are never any rough seas to contend with.

10 Modern living

Modern river cruise ships are spectacular, with beautiful décor, large suites, balconies, speciality restaurants and even swimming pools and cinemas.

Mardi Gras New Orleans

Mardi Gras, or Fat Tuesday, is a week-long celebration culminating on the day before Ash Wednesday, a final chance to enjoy feasting and festivities before the traditional fasting observed during Lent. Mardi Gras is all about music, parades, picnics, floats and excitement, and it's one big holiday in New Orleans! Don a mask, join the carnival scene and share a slice of King Cake. Let the Good Times Roll!

What To Do During Mardi Gras

Your two night stay in New Orleans begins on Sunday evening, half way through the week of Mardi Gras and at the height of the celebrations. Orpheus, an impressive parade, rolls on Monday night, and the Zulu Lundi Gras festival goes on all day. On Fat Tuesday, stroll around the French Quarter and see all of the costumes and masks; a unique and thrilling experience.

— WELCOME TO THE GALÁPAGOS ISLANDS —

The remote location of this volcanic archipelago has allowed for a unique and diverse range of species, found nowhere else in the world. Their isolation and subsequent adaptations inspired Charles Darwin's Theory of Evolution. This is your opportunity to embark on a once-in-a-lifetime discovery, to see for explore for yourself these remote islands and the exceptional creatures that call them home.

ACCESS TO THE EXPERTS

On this sailing you will be accompanied by highly qualified naturalist guides, who will share with you their deep knowledge of the Galápagos archipelago. Together, you will explore each island, trekking over black lava rocks where marine iguanas sun themselves, to see Galápagos tortoises, sea turtles and the iconic blue-footed Boobies

WILDLIFE HIGHLIGHTS

- On Genovesa discover a breeding colony of the impressive Frigate birds, or pirate birds. These aerial acrobats are well-known for inflating their distinctive red gular pouch in order to attract a mate.
- The exotic looking Red Sally Lightfoot Crabs can be found throughout the archipelago feeding on shore debris in large groups.
- The small Galápagos penguins are commonly found on Bartolomé and nest in the coastal lava. They are the only species of penguin found north of the Equator.

~Wi-Fi service may be limited. Wildlife sightings are not guaranteed. Celebrity Cruises® and Reader Offers Limited Agency terms of business apply. Please see back page for full terms and conditions.

Black Turtle Cove, Santa Cruz Island (pm)
The only way to get to Black Turtle Cove is by dinghy. A shallow inlet, it protects a range of wildlife. Look out for white-tip reef sharks, rays and sea turtles
- Day 4 Rabida Island, Galápagos (am)
The landscapes of this small island are visually stunning. Among other sights, there is an old volcanic cone bathed in crimson, sitting amid coves of clear, aqua-blue water

With its sandy beach, black rock and blue-water grottos this stop offers a taste of Galápagos geology, some great snorkelling, and an opportunity to see shore birds and Galápagos fur seals

Tagus Cove has historically provided shelter for wayfarers and is one of the places Charles Darwin visited in 1835. A hike up a volcanic tuff cone offers views of Darwin's Lake
Espinoza Point, Fernandina (pm)
This is one of the least visited sites on Isabela due to its remote location and difficult access. Black volcanic rocks provide a stark contrast to the brilliant green of plant growth
- Day 6 Urvina Bay, Isabella (am)
Take a ramble through this reef's high-and-dry corals or stick to a shorter version and look for land iguanas and giant tortoises. Urvina Bay is great for swimming and snorkelling
Vicente Roca Point, Isabella (pm)
You'll find Vicente Roca Point right at the mouth of the sea-horse-shaped Isla Isabela. While you're there, don't miss the sea horses in the spectacular bay – perfect for snorkelling
- Day 7 Bartolome Island, Galápagos (am)
This is one of the most spectacular settings in the Galápagos. A relatively young island, its volcanic origins are evident. One visiting astronaut even said it reminded him of the moon
Las Bachas, Santa Cruz Island (pm)
Welcome to Las Bachas: a white-sand beach on the northern coast of Santa Cruz Island. This is one of the largest nesting areas of the Pacific Green Sea Turtle in the Galápagos
Daphne Island, Galápagos (pm)
The cliff shore of Daphne Island is home to sea lions, pelicans, blue-footed boobies and tropical birds. Large schools of fish can be observed from the zodiac rides
- Day 8 El Barranco, Genovesa Island (am)
Sail to El Barranco, situated in the southern part of Darwin Bay and explore the 1.5km trail of volcanic rock and look out for rare species
Darwin Bay, Genovesa Island (pm)
Darwin Bay was formed by a submerged crater, and the resulting steep cliffs provide the perfect protected homes for a range of seabirds. See how many you can spot

– Welcome to Chobe National Park –

Chobe's Abundant Wildlife and Birdlife

Chobe National Park is well-known as one of the best wildlife parks in the world and is aptly and fondly known as 'The Land of the Giants'. Situated in northern Botswana, it is home to Africa's largest elephant population. The park also offers great lion and leopard sightings, while the river has an unbelievable abundance of hippos and crocodiles and an almost inconceivable wealth of birdlife, including a number of particularly rare species that are highly sought after by top wildlife photographers.

A Different Perspective

A trip to Chobe is not complete without a boat trip on the beautiful river itself, which is included in your ROL Cruise package. This allows you to see most of the park's interesting wildlife and birdlife from a different perspective. Aside from the allure for birders, being on the river is the best place for budding photographers to take spectacular images of the vast herds of elephants and other wildlife on the river's lush green banks and islands, sometimes even crossing the river.

Chobe
Safari Lodge

Chobe Safari Lodge is situated in Kasane on the banks of the Chobe River and shares its border with world-famous Chobe National Park. The Lodge, therefore, is an excellent gateway to the Chobe National Park and surrounding area. With a wonderful open restaurant that features the indigenous and rich flavours of Africa, scrumptious buffet dinners offer a wide variety of meals from exotic game meats, roasts, barbecues, Indian cuisine, or vegetarian dishes.

WILDLIFE OF ANTARCTICA

MEET THE PENGUINS

Penguins are the most common birds in the Antarctic. Living in colonies with populations larger than some cities, and surviving in the harshest of conditions, it is no wonder that penguins are seen as the emblem of the Great White Continent. However, of the 17 different species of penguin, only two (Emperor and Adélie) make the Antarctic continent their true home, although others (Chinstrap, Gentoo and Macaroni) breed on the northern tip of the Antarctic Peninsula, where conditions are less harsh.

WONDERFUL WHALES

A favourite among Antarctica cruise goers, whales are beautiful, enigmatic and fascinating creatures. Highly intelligent creatures with complex social lives, Antarctica whales capture the imagination of all who witness the spectacle. Few sights on Earth can beat seeing a pod of Killer whales or seeing a Humpback breaching the surface of the water. Almost 75% of the world's Killer whales live in Antarctica, which is truly a paradise for whales.

ANTARCTICA'S SIX SEALS

One of the joys of an Antarctica cruise is being able to observe seals up close. Whilst only six of the 35 species of seal live in Antarctica, Antarctic Fur Seals, Leopard Seals, Ross Seals, Crabeater Seals and Weddell Seals, these six species actually make up the vast majority of all seals on Earth.

INTRODUCING THE BRAND NEW MS ROALD AMUNDSEN

Launching in May 2019, MS Roald Amundsen, named after the famed Norwegian explorer who was the first to conquer the Northwest passage, is the first hybrid ship Hurtigruten will add to its fleet.

Combining hybrid technology with advanced hull construction, the ship is specially built for voyages in polar waters. MS Roald Amundsen will serve as your comfortable basecamp at sea – bringing adventurers from all over the world to the most spectacular destinations in the most sustainable way.

FACILITIES ON BOARD

One of the most eye-catching exterior design features of the ship will be the two-level indoor/outdoor Observation Deck wrapped around the top of the ship's raked bow. In a vast area behind it, you'll find the core of the on board experience: Amundsen Science Center.

Packed with state of the art technology and high tech gadgets, such as touch screens and science equipment, the immersive edutainment area will be the place guests and staff/crew meet and mingle to create a deeper understanding for the areas they explore.

The stunning scenery will be reflected in a rich and comfortable interior design. Scandinavian materials from nature, such as granite, oak, birch and wool will be used to create relaxed and stylish cabins and public areas. MS Roald Amundsen will also feature three restaurants inspired by Nordic and Norwegian heritage.

Pastéis de Nata

(Portuguese Egg Tart)

At Emerald Waterways, they believe a region's culinary legacy can reveal lots about its culture, traditions and way of life. They also know that, for many of their guests, sampling local food is one of the great joys of a luxury river cruise. So, with this in mind, here is a stunning recipe from the Douro Valley region. Wherever you travel in Portugal, you'll never be far from an authentic Padarias (bakery) serving up delicious, just-baked Pastéis de Nata. These moreish egg custard tarts are a staple snack for sweet-tooths across the country, and are often prepared in huge numbers – with the Antiga Confeitaria de Belém bakery in Lisbon said to turn out over 10,000 of these flaky delicacies every day.

Serves: 12 tartlets | Prep: 30-40 minutes | Cook Time: 30 minutes.

Ingredients

- 1 whole egg (including the white)
- 2 egg yolks
- 115g golden caster sugar
- 2 tsp cornflour
- 400ml full fat milk
- 2 tsp vanilla extract
- 1 sheet ready rolled puff pastry

Method

1. Preheat the oven to 180°C and lightly grease a 12-hole muffin tin. Put the milk, egg, yolks, cornflour and sugar into a pan and mix together until smooth. Then, over a medium heat, stir the mixture continuously until it starts to boil. Remove from the heat and add the vanilla extract, before pouring into a bowl, covering with cling film and leaving the custard to cool.
2. Cut the pastry into two pieces and place one on top of the other. Roll them together tightly along the short side so you have a long sheet, before cutting into 12 evenly-sized rounds. Roll each individual round out on a floured surface until it's around 10cm in diameter, and press the pastry into the muffin tin.
3. Once you've filled the muffin tin with the rounds, pour in the cooled custard and bake for around 25 minutes, until the top of each egg custard has started to golden. Once baked, sprinkle with sugar and a little nutmeg. Eat warm for the most authentic Portuguese experience.
