Unforgettable Ultra-Luxury with

SILVERSEA®

Earlier this year, members of the ROL Cruise team were lucky enough to visit Silversea's Silver Wind at London Tower Bridge. Here, Fran Hayden, Marketing Executive shares her experience on board this ultra-luxurious ship.

"As we crossed the River Thames in our tender, we looked on in awe at the sight of Silver Wind set against the backdrop of London's Tower Bridge – there's something quite surreal about boarding a ship in the middle of the Thames, but what an experience to be had! Once we had safely boarded, we were greeted by a member of staff and encouraged to take a cooling face cloth – something that was much-appreciated after travelling on a warm day.

Having never been on a luxury cruise ship before, I was struck by the understated, yet luxurious décor found in every area of the ship. On our tour, from the spa and the casino, to the library and fitness suite, the attention to detail in terms of design was evident. Featuring deep mahogany colours, impressive artwork and luxurious carpet, even the corridors were lavish in their features – and all of this was before we even witnessed the plush design of the suites.

From a Veranda to Medallion Suite, one thing was clear – when you book with Silversea, you really are getting the crème de la crème of luxury cruising. Whilst the suites were stunning, it's the small details that set Silversea apart from other luxury cruise lines – the fruit bowl upon arrival in your suite, the robes hanging awaiting your arrival, the fresh flowers present in every room and some suites even had their very own Illy coffee makers. We were truly enthralled by all that we saw on Silver Wind and we hadn't even had lunch yet!

Silversea are famed for their culinary excellence, and as our stomachs started rumbling, we knew that we were in for a treat. As we settled into our seats, we were privy to the impeccable service that Silversea pride themselves on – our wine and water glasses were topped up without us needing to ask, our waiter seamlessly dealt with any dietary needs and our meals were presented to us faultlessly.

I, for one, was glad that I'd only had a small breakfast as the culinary delights that were served to us were above par by a mile. Crab cakes with avocado paste, caviar and a quail's egg to start, followed by Asian-inspired swordfish, then tender beef with creamy mashed potato and asparagus garnish and the creamiest, most chocolatey tiramisu that I've ever had to finish. We didn't go home hungry or unsatisfied – let me tell you that!

All in all, I was suitably impressed with my Silversea experience. The service, design and cuisine far exceeded my expectations and I would encourage anyone to experience being on the deck of a luxury cruise line in the middle of the River Thames. I only wish that I'd been able to experience sailing underneath Tower Bridge, bound for a sunnier climate!"

Part Six: The Spectacle That Is Iguazú

A Life Well Travelled

Diary of a Tour Ambassador

I love Barbados. I spent a lot of time there on past holidays and in and out for days at a time when I worked on board cruise ships. It's a fun and relaxed island and I couldn't wait to be back there.

We stayed for a week at the colonial Crane Resort looking after two different groups of guests embarking on Caribbean adventures. Unfortunately, it rained non-stop for the first four days, rain like I've never seen before. But we did get some sunshine at the end of the week which pleased our guests and allowed us to hit the fun beach club known as The Boatyard, just for old times' sake. A trip to Barbados just isn't one without a few glasses of the Boatyard's famous rum punch.

Gillian Lowes
ROL Cruise Ambassador

The adventures didn't stop when 2015 came around. Back in January 2014, I was green with envy when I had just started the job and our two other Ambassadors swanned off to Buenos Aires to look after two big groups of Antarctica cruisers. My first winter based in the UK in over 15 years, constant rain and bitter winds, I would have given anything to go to Buenos Aires with them. However, I endured it and it paid off when my turn came a year later and I was given the South American trip all to myself. Three weeks in the Argentinean capital – don't mind if I do!

A whirlwind of city sightseeing, tango-watching and steak-eating ensued and I soon felt comfortable in my surroundings. I was surprised at how cosmopolitan, friendly and vibrant the city was. Our hotel was in the Puerto Madero area, right next to a lovely canal with rows of restaurants and bars lining each side, perfect for strolling and observing the relaxed Argentinean way of life with a glass of Malbec in hand. Our guests loved the city, it was both an exciting and relaxing start to their Antarctica adventure.

The highlight of this trip for me was my side-venture to Iguazú Falls. I joined a small group of our guests who had booked an extension to visit this landmark before their city stay, and I'm so glad I did. Not only was it a lovely group and we all had fun together, but I was blown away by the spectacle that is Iguazú. I think it was largely due to the fact that over recent years I've been to a lot of impressive places but never witnessed anything as gigantically natural as these expanses of water. I felt dwarfed by nature.

"I closed my eyes and soaked in this moment, which I will never forget..."

As I happily accompanied my group through the national park, taking photos for them, as well as my own selfies of course, the sun seared down onto us. It reached over 100 degrees at times, but a refreshing spray from the falls was never far away. The most exhilarating part of the tour was the speedboat ride which took us under the falls. Only me and five guests took up the offer and it was so worth it.

As the boat went at super-speed under the flow of one of the falls and then further down one of the main waterways, I closed my eyes and soaked in this moment which I will never forget.

I was having the time of my life. On my own, a million miles from home surrounded by the breathtaking natural beauty of South America. It was a moment just for me and my wanderlust. Those feelings – no-one else can feel them for you.

Our hotel was also a unique experience; an eco-resort deep in the rainforest. As it was close to the Brazilian border I had to celebrate that night with a Caiparinha. I think by now you get my 'when in Rome' tradition when it comes to drinks whilst on my travels!

CELEBRITY SILHOUETTE® HIGHLIGHTS

FINEST FOOD

Foodies, welcome to heaven! On every Celebrity Cruises® ship you will find a selection of award-winning restaurants. Our favourite here at ROL Cruise is Qsine®, which offers a culinary journey filled with surprise and delight. Make sure you try specialities such as Sushi on Five – created by fourth-generation sushi chef, Yoshikazu Okada.

THE LAWN CLUB GRILL

Celebrity's newest restaurant (available only on Celebrity Silhouette® and *Celebrity Reflection*SM) celebrates the flavourful joys of outdoor grilling. The highlight of dining at the Lawn Club Grill is the opportunity to serve as your party's "Grill Master," by being paired with a Celebrity chef to assist in preparing the menu for your table over custom-built, ventilated grills. In an open-air setting with views of the ocean and Lawn Club, you can enjoy the freedom of al fresco dining, whilst being in control of roasting mouthwatering joints of meat and seafood to perfection.

THE ALCOVES

Designed for secluded relaxation, the eight chic, cabana-style settings can cater for up to eight guests. A mere stone's throw away from the lively Lawn Club, the Alcoves provide stunning views, ambient mood lighting, complimentary fresh fruit, chilled towels, complimentary water and all-day use of an iPad®.

MARCH 2019

- Fri 1 Cruising Drake Passage
- Sat 2 -
Thu 7 Antarctica
Human beings often become very humbled in their meeting with Antarctica. Imagination alone is not a sufficient tool to "get the picture" – a saying amongst Antarctic travellers is: "If you can describe Antarctica with words – you have probably never been there". While in Antarctica, you will attempt to land on several sites. On land, the expedition team will explain what you see and help you avoid disturbing nature and wildlife
- Fri 8 Relaxing at sea

- Sat 9 -
Sun 10 Falkland Islands - Malvinas (possible landing sites: New Island, Carcass Island, Saunders Island, West Point Island and Stanley)
The islands have a unique ecosystem of about 70 different sub-Antarctic animal and bird species. The black-browed albatross, Striated Caracara, Elephant seal, sea lion and five different species of penguin including King penguin are just a few of them. There are also about 347 wild plant species in the area. The landscape is majestic, with cliffs and needle-like stones covered in green grass. Enjoy a chance to visit the area around North-West Falkland, home to fascinating landscapes and wildlife, before arriving in Stanley, the islands' capital, which makes a wonderful starting point for various excursions in the area. You can choose to take an optional excursion* or explore the town on your own

- Mon 11 -
Wed 13 Relaxing at sea

- Thu 14 Montevideo, Uruguay
Disembark in Montevideo and transfer to a hotel[†] for your two night stay

- Fri 15 Montevideo, Uruguay
Rich in culture and history, you'll find Montevideo a pleasure to explore. Mercado del Puerto, on the Ciudad Vieja waterfront, is the ideal place to eat, or take a stroll along The Rambla for an insight into the everyday lives of the local people who can be spotted biking, fishing and enjoying the great views

- Sat 16 Montevideo, Uruguay
Transfer to the airport for your overnight flight to London (regional and premium class flights may be available on request*)

- Sun 17 Arrive in London

*Savings are based on two adults sharing the lowest grade advertised. Expedition activities are optional and pre-bookable excursions are at a supplement and must be booked at least 28 days prior to departure. A always the first priority and the ship's Captain will decide the final sailing schedule during the voyage therefore itinerary is subject to change. Hurtigruten and Reader Offers Limited Package Holiday booking conditions

PORT STANLEY HIGHLIGHTS TOUR

A local guide will give you an introduction to the Falklands' small capital. As the coach drives along Ross Road, Stanley's main Street which runs along the sea front, the guide will point out everything that may be of interest, including the Cathedral with its Whale Bone Arch, the 1982 Battle Memorial and wrecks of the old sailing ships.

The guide's commentary and stories will provide additional insight about the Falklands' Heritage, social habits and economy. You will also be taken out of the town and will be able to see a stunning view of Stanley and the shipwreck of the Lady Elizabeth from the edge of the harbour. Finally you will have the opportunity to visit the Museum at Britannia House to learn all about the Falklands' interesting Maritime and many other aspects of local history before returning to the ship or the drop off point at the Jetty Visitors Centre.

ANTARCTICA HIGHLIGHTS

HALF MOON ISLAND, SOUTH SHETLAND ISLANDS

Half Moon presents many photographic opportunities with its wildlife posed against scenic backgrounds and Antarctic highlights. Weather and conditions permitting you may enjoy a hike passing the Teniente Camara Station and on to a view point that is a popular place to look for whales in the bay facing towards the Bransfield Strait.

YANKEE HARBOUR, SOUTH SHETLAND ISLANDS

The main attraction for many visitors is Yankee's terraced Gentoo penguin colony with an estimated 4,000 breeding pairs. Predatory skuas also nest here and travellers are often witness to the struggle between a penguin protecting its young and a skua trying to feed theirs.

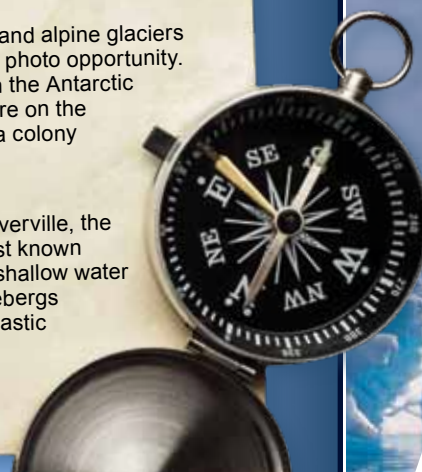

NEKO HARBOUR

The bay is surrounded by mountains and alpine glaciers where its wildlife provides the perfect photo opportunity. Neko is one of the very few places on the Antarctic Peninsula where one can come ashore on the Antarctic mainland. On land there is a colony of Gentoo penguins.

CUVERVILLE ISLAND

Here lie the islands of Danco and Cuverville, the latter being home to one of the largest known colonies of chinstrap penguins. The shallow water between the islands often causes icebergs to become stuck here, offering a fantastic spectacle when it occurs.

Please note these landing sites are not guaranteed and are weather permitting

It's time to PLAN A CRUISE!

The leaves are changing colour, the nights are drawing in. It can mean only one thing. It's time for Plan a Cruise Month – an annual event organised by the Cruise Lines International Association to encourage people to take a holiday afloat.

The idea is to inspire those who love cruising with all the new places they could go to and show those yet to set foot on a ship (apparently there are still a few!) all the amazing holidays they are missing.

'Amazing' is not hyperbole. Cruise the Mediterranean or Baltic and you can dip into history and culture in Rome, Venice, Athens and St. Petersburg, see world-class art in Florence and enjoy Scandinavian chic in Copenhagen and Stockholm. Add the Caribbean and Norwegian Fjords for beautiful sun-kissed islands and majestic landscapes topped with snowy peaks and creeping glaciers.

And there is so much more. I've cruised in Antarctica, the Arctic, the South Pacific, the Galápagos and Kimberley in Australia. I've visited Angkor Wat and Ho Chi Minh City on a river cruise through Vietnam and Cambodia, watched the sun set over the pagodas in Bagan on a voyage on the Ayeyarwady in Myanmar (Burma) and mixed with Hari Krishna worshippers sailing the Ganges in India. I've seen the mysterious Three Gorges on the Yangtze in China. And don't get me started on European river cruising.

CLIA has divided Cruise Month into four weeks, each focusing on a different part of the world. Here are some of my suggestions of what you might like to consider for each.

WEEK ONE

(2ND - 8TH OCTOBER)

Europe

Fancy island-hopping around Greece, cruising the Croatian coast or mixing with the jet-setters in the swanky French and Italian Rivas? Seabourn's Monte Carlo to Barcelona cruise next April has a bit of everything – floating gin palaces in St. Tropez and Santa Margherita, Napoleonic history in Ajaccio, where he was born, and Elba, where he was first exiled, and beaches in Palma de Mallorca.

If you've done the Mediterranean, there are cruises around the Norwegian Fjords, the Baltic and UK. The latter is a great – and cost-effective – way to visit Britain. You don't need to fly, worry about traffic jams, high-priced hotels or changing currency. I can't promise the UK weather will play ball though, so if you're after sun, consider the Canary Islands. You can cruise to the islands, from the UK with P&O Cruises, Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines and Celebrity Cruises®.

If you can be tempted onto the rivers, APT's Magnificent Europe is a fabulous journey with big cities, medieval towns, castles and vineyards – and as all tours are included (likewise drinks and tips) there is no excuse for missing anything. ROL Cruise has lots of departures next year.

WEEK TWO

(9TH - 15TH OCTOBER)

Americas and the Caribbean

If you are thinking New York, Miami and Barbados you are right – but missing some real gems. Head over the Atlantic and you could be cruising through the Panama Canal or around Cape Horn with Celebrity Cruises®, or tiptoeing among penguins on a voyage to Antarctica with Hurtigruten.

You can even get your thrills (and chills) on an epic voyage from Valparaiso to Buenos Aires next November on Scenic's swanky new yacht, Scenic Eclipse. It transits the Chilean Fjords (think Norwegian Fjords but better), visits the Falkland Islands and crosses the Drake Passage to Antarctica.

Cruises through the Inside Passage to Alaska – a land of giant glaciers, brown bears and whale-watching – are magical. If time allows, consider pairing a Holland America Line cruise with the Rocky Mountaineer train. ROL Cruise has 15 day holidays that combine the two next May and September.

WEEK THREE (16TH - 22ND OCTOBER)

Australasia

Must-see places in Australia include Sydney, Melbourne, Adelaide, Perth and Cairns (for the Great Barrier Reef); in New Zealand, you just have to tick off Auckland, Napier, Wellington and Dunedin. Luckily all are either on or near the coast – as if the two countries were made for cruising!

Norwegian Cruise Line and Celebrity Cruises® have voyages around Australia and combining the two countries. For a New Zealand fest, Azamara Club Cruises® has a 16 night voyage there in January 2019.

And if you have already done all that, how about setting sail through the South Pacific? Fiji, Samoa, French Polynesia. Things don't get much more exotic than this. I see ROL Cruise is featuring a voyage from Sydney to Papeete on Oceania Cruises®. Bliss!

WEEK FOUR (23RD - 29TH OCTOBER)

Asia

Things don't get more exotic than the South Pacific eh? Maybe not, but Asia gives it a pretty good run for its money.

You can sail in Thailand or around Indonesia on one of Star Clippers' tall ships, ride pillion on a motorbike through the streets of Ho Chi Minh City – yes really, I have done it! – cruise through Halong Bay or visit night markets in Malaysia and Hong Kong. Head to the Far East and there are cruises to China, Japan and South Korea (if you go to Seoul, look for tours to the demilitarized zone to take a peek into North Korea).

Choose a Mekong river cruise on APT Travelmarvel's La Marguerite to watch the sun set over Angkor Wat, ride in an ox cart, visit bustling markets and crawl through the Cù Chi Tunnels used by Viet Cong in the Vietnam War.

The last week of Cruise Month also celebrates voyages in the Indian Ocean and around the Middle East – a perfect fit with ROL's Silversea special in April 2019. This combines a land-based tour of India's Golden Triangle (that's the Taj Mahal and Amber Fort ticked off) with a cruise to Dubai on Silver Shadow and two nights in the Emirate. Time for some dune bashing in the desert, to ride the world's fastest lift to the top of the world's tallest building and shop 'til you drop – and then come home for a rest!

MARITIME MEMORIES

with Nigel Lingard
(Non-Executive Director, ROL Cruise)

THIS SUMMER, THE BRITISH ISLES HAVE ENJOYED THE BUSIEST EVERYEAR FOR CRUISE SHIP CALLS, WITH GROWTH IN THE BUSINESS HAVING PICKED UP AFTER A LULL DURING THE WORST OF THE RECESSION.

The many ships now seen around our shores come from a variety of destinations. More vessels are now based in Northern Germany, some all year round, and their itineraries include ports around the UK and Ireland, or calls here en route to sunnier climates. The American market is also booming, with our historic attractions and common language (well, almost!) drawing in ever more cruise visitors.

There is also continuing growth in the popularity of ex-UK cruises; the “no-fly” option being particularly sought after by those who dread the airport experience and those who enjoy the unlimited baggage allowance! With the addition of P&O Cruises’ Britannia and Cruise & Maritime Voyages’ Columbus, plus larger vessels based here in the summer by overseas operators, there is an ever-wider choice of itineraries available.

When the business was in its relative infancy just 30 year ago, we tended to stick to a simple formula of Norway, the Baltic and the Western Mediterranean in the summer, then the Canaries in the winter.

Of course increasing numbers of repeat travellers, with expectations of new adventures, meant that we had to broaden our horizons and venture across the oceans.

I recall the first transatlantic sailing we planned at Fred. Olsen Cruise Line well. There was much discussion with the marine team about voyage planning; all stood around a globe with bits of string comparing great circle route options – should we hurry over in the shortest mileage, follow favourable winds or currents, keep south to improve the sunbathing – and of course there’s no “right” answer. Small wonder the owners were quite sceptical about the whole idea! Still, off the little ship sailed, pausing in Tenerife before we waved goodbye – then six days later came a crackling ship-to-shore telephone call – Captain Fleten was thrilled to announce that we’d arrived in Barbados a day early!

Not everyone was best pleased with this achievement, with the fuel bill sky high and extra port costs to pay, but all part of the lessons learned as we developed cruises all over the globe.

Transatlantic crossings are quite the norm nowadays, with the long winter voyages offered by UK cruise lines, spring and autumn positionings by seasonal callers, plus of course the classic direct run from Southampton by the world’s only true ocean liner, Cunard’s Queen Mary 2. If you have been thinking about including the relaxation of a few days at sea in your next cruise, then this edition of Blue Horizons should provide a few ideas.

See page 9 Cunard and pages 22-23 Silversea Transatlantics.

Whether you’re busy packing, or just planning, best wishes as ever.

ITALIAN Amaretti Biscuits

PREP TIME - 15 mins
COOK TIME - 20 mins
MAKES 15-20 BISCUITS

Ingredients

180g ground almonds

120g caster sugar

Grated zest of one lemon

½ tsp natural almond extract

1 pinch salt

2 egg whites

1 tbsp honey

100g flaked almonds

Icing sugar

Method

- Preheat the oven to 160°C/325°F/ gas mark 3.
- In a bowl, mix together the ground almonds, caster sugar, lemon zest, almond essence and salt. Rub everything together with your fingertips to disperse the zest and essence evenly.
- Whip the egg whites and honey until firm peaks form. With a large, metal spoon, gently fold the meringue into the almond and sugar mix, to get a soft but malleable paste. With your hands, roll the paste into 20g rounds.
- Flatten them a little, roll in a plate of flaked almonds to cover, then roll in plenty of icing sugar.
- Put on a baking tray lined with greaseproof paper and bake for 14-18 minutes – they should turn a very light golden colour, but stay relatively pale and chewy in the centre. Leave to cool completely before storing in a sealed jar.
