UNVEILING QUEEN ELIZABETH'S RETURN TO THE UK

In March 2021, Queen Elizabeth makes a momentous return to British waters for an illuminating series of Mediterranean, Western Europe and British Isles voyages. Over ten months, she'll call at over 100 ports in over 20 countries, culminating in her return to Melbourne in December. Highlights of her 2021 programme include scenic cruising around the coasts of England and Scotland, together with a maiden port call in Genoa, Italy. ## YOUR GRAND VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

FOUR DAYS CRUISING THE AMAZON RIVER

You'll spend plenty of time cruising the Amazon River, home to the world's largest rainforest, an exotic landscape filled with staggering levels of biodiversity.

STANLEY, FALKLAND ISLANDS

Whilst in Stanley, be sure to visit Gypsy Cove – just outside the town – where you might be able to spot the local population of penguins who share these magical islands with humans.

CRUISE AROUND CAPE HORN

Cape Horn is widely considered the most southerly point of South America, and marks the northern boundary of the Drake Passage; for centuries it has been regarded as a major milestone by which sailing ships carrying trade goods around the world marked their passage.

FULL DAYTIME TRANSIT OF THE PANAMA CANAL

Undeniably, Panama's biggest attraction is the Panama Canal, a modern day wonder of the world. Its role in revolutionising maritime trade and the sheer feat of engineering skill makes the canal a fascinating transit.

Jane ARCHER

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 13 years.

“I COULDN'T WAIT TO CRUISE AGAIN...”

Jane in Santorini

Shhh. Don't tell them in charge but I have just been on a cruise. On the ocean! Yes I know that at the moment we are not supposed to but after spending more than five months landlocked I could not wait to get back on the high seas – and neither could my husband. We had a wonderful time.

Life has been so strange since March, when we were on a Seabourn cruise in Australia that was cut short because of Covid. I don't think a day has gone by since then when I have not thought wistfully about all the cruises I should have been on this year, or all the new ocean and river ships that I was lined up to visit. Or not looked longingly at all the fabulous cruise holidays ROL is offering for 2021 and beyond. In Japan, around the Adriatic, to Norway, from the UK and so many more. I wonder just how many of you are in the same boat (pun intended!), having had this year's cruises cancelled or postponed.

Unlikely as it might sound, there is something positive to take away from this pandemic. Namely, it has reinforced just how much we all miss our wonderful cruise holidays and can't wait to get back to sea.

Just think. Whether you prefer big or small ships, like to stay close to home or want to see the world, travel alone or with your loved ones, fancy exploring one of the world's great rivers, there is a cruise for you.

Whichever ship you choose, you will be looked after by caring crew who give their all to ensure you have a great time, dine like kings from morning until night and always have friendly bar staff ready to pour your favourite tippie. Choose the newest ships and you'll enjoy levels of luxury and facilities that far outstrip the most highly-rated hotels in the world. And of course you'll visit spectacular places and build so many wonderful memories.

Lockdown was a perfect opportunity to reflect on all the great experiences I've had on cruises, whether on the oceans or rivers. Penguin-spotting on voyages to the South Pole and looking out for polar bears in the Arctic, tip-toeing around wildlife with no fear of humans in the Galápagos, seeing the spectacular temple of Angkor Wat in Cambodia and touring around Ho Chi Minh City in Vietnam on the back of a motorbike on a cruise along the Mekong River.

Closer to home, I've seen spectacular palaces and priceless artworks in St. Petersburg, celebrated Christmas on cruises along the Rhine and Danube Rivers, marvelled at the majesty of the Norwegian fjords. In the Mediterranean, I've also been lucky enough to visit so many world-class cities – the likes of Rome, Florence, Venice, Barcelona – that are either on the water or close by. I could have seen them on all on a land tour, I know, but it is so much easier on a cruise.

And that's a key word. Easy. You get on board, unpack once, go to sleep in one destination and wake in another. The cruise I've just done was on a small ship hopping around the Greek Isles – favourite islands such as Santorini and Mykonos, but also places that are so tucked away the only way to get to them, apart from on a cruise, is by ferry. Packing, unpacking, negotiating ferry timetables, waiting in terminals. Talk about hard work.

Did we have any worries about travelling during a pandemic? Not at all. Indeed, with all the new protocols cruise lines (and also the airports and airlines) have put in place, everyone on board felt very safe.

We were not allowed on the ship until our temperatures and blood oxygen levels had been taken, and they were checked again every day – a quick and painless (and oddly reassuring) process.

Using a neat machine, all cabins were fumigated every other day, customer-facing crew wore masks or face-shields and, rather than self-service buffets, our meals were served to us. Other cruise lines will be implementing at least the same protocols when they return to service, as well as a reduction of guests on board to allow for social distancing. Importantly, none of this detracted from the holiday one bit.

To be clear, I don't suggest ignoring Foreign Office advice against ocean cruising as it invalidates almost all travel insurance policies, but reminds keen cruisers to get ready for when that guidance is lifted. And bear in mind that river cruising is allowed now in countries on the green list. The folk at ROL can advise on that.

We loved our Greece cruise so much we booked to go on the Douro River in Portugal. I'm keeping my fingers crossed I will soon be enjoying another fabulous cruise. Wish me luck!

UNCOVER THE MYSTERIES OF EASTER ISLAND

Just south of the Tropic of Capricorn, Easter Island, or Rapa Nui, lies 3,790 kilometres to the west of Chile. Extraordinarily remote, this island was first inhabited by Polynesians who are believed to have arrived by sea about 1,200 years ago. The island is best known as the site of more than 600 stone statues, or Moai, which stand up to nine metres in height. The statues were carved in the spectacular Rano Raraku quarry and were then believed to have been transported on wooden rollers to their destinations. Little is known about these fascinating statues, and during your full day tours, you can begin to uncover the legends that surrounds Easter Island.

EXPLORE THE ICONIC SIGHTS OF JAPAN & WITNESS THE FAMOUS CHERRY BLOSSOM SEASON

From snow-capped mountains to samurai warriors, Japan is a land of contrasts. Its culture has been crafted for millennia and values that have been in place for centuries are still celebrated, somehow blending perfectly with the neon lights, skyscrapers and high-tech.

Each year Japan transforms into a pink Arcadia as cherry trees become awash with their seasonal bloom. For just a few weeks every year, Japan vibrantly blooms as the nation's cherry blossom trees flower. It truly is a sight to behold – delight in the fleeting beauty of these delicate flowers as they frame the historic temples and towns perfectly. This natural marvel is so well followed in Japan, it even makes the daily weather report. Few realise that Japan is an archipelago of 6,852 islands, of which only 430 are inhabited. Japan's southernmost islands are subtropical, and here cherry blossoms can open from as early as January whereas further north, this can be late in May. All the while people gather under the blossoms to celebrate Hanami, a long-standing tradition of welcoming spring, often by gathering under the blossoms for food, drink, songs and company.
